Interest Payment Dates: June 15 and December 15

First Interest Payment Date: June 15, 2015

Record Dates: June 1 and December 1

Optional Redemption: At any time and from time to time prior to the Stated Maturity of the notes, the Issuer may redeem, at its option, all or part of the notes upon not less than 30 nor more than 60 days prior notice (with a copy to the Trustee) at a redemption price equal to the sum of (i) 100% of the principal amount thereof, plus (ii) the Applicable Premium as of the date of redemption, plus (iii) accrued and unpaid interest to the date of redemption (subject to the right of holders of record on the relevant record date to receive interest due on the relevant interest payment date).

Applicable Premium means with respect to any note on any date of redemption, as determined by the Issuer, the excess, if any, of: (a) the sum of the present values of the remaining scheduled payments of principal and interest on the note (excluding accrued but unpaid interest to the date of redemption), discounted to the date of redemption on a semi-annual basis using a discount rate equal to the Treasury Rate as of such date of redemption plus 50 basis points; over (b) the principal amount of the note.

Treasury Rate means, as of any redemption date, the yield to maturity as of such redemption date of United States Treasury securities with a constant maturity (as compiled and published in the most recent Federal Reserve Statistical Release H.15 (519) that has become publicly available at least two business days prior to the redemption date (or, if such Statistical Release is no longer published, any publicly available source of similar market data)) most nearly equal to the period from the redemption date to the Stated Maturity of the notes; provided, however, that if the period from the redemption date to the Stated Maturity of the notes is less than one year, the weekly average yield on actively traded United States Treasury securities adjusted to a constant maturity of one year will be used.

Trade Date: November 25, 2014
Settlement Date: December 3, 2014 (T+5)

The Issuer expects delivery of the notes will be made against payment therefor on or about December 3, 2014, which is the fifth business day following the date of pricing of the notes (such settlement being referred to as T+5). Under Rule 15c6-1 of the Exchange Act, trades in the secondary market generally are required to settle in three business days unless the parties to any such trade expressly agree otherwise. Accordingly, purchasers who wish to trade notes on the date hereof or on the next succeeding business day will be required, by virtue of the fact that the notes initially settle in T+5, to specify an alternative settlement arrangement at the time of any such trade to prevent a failed settlement. Purchasers of the notes who wish to trade the notes prior to their date of delivery hereunder should consult their advisors.

Changes to the Preliminary Prospectus Supplement

Offering Size: The total offering size has been increased from $500 million to $700 million, which represents an increase of $200 million from the amount reflected in the Preliminary Prospectus Supplement.

Repurchase Transactions: The Issuer has agreed to repurchase, concurrently with the closing of the offering made pursuant to the Preliminary Prospectus Supplement, as supplemented by this Pricing Supplement (the offering), approximately $370 million aggregate principal amount of our Medium Term Notes due 2017 (the 2017 notes) from certain beneficial holders of 2017 notes. Certain beneficial owners of 2017 notes have agreed to purchase in the offering approximately $441 million aggregate principal amount of notes offered hereby (the repurchase transactions). The closing of the offering is conditioned on the closing of the repurchase transactions, and the closing of the repurchase transactions is conditioned on the closing of the offering.

Use of Proceeds: The Issuer intends to use a portion of the net proceeds from the offering to repurchase approximately $370 million principal amount of our outstanding 2017 notes at a premium to principal amount from certain beneficial owners. Certain of those beneficial owners have agreed to purchase notes in the offering. The Issuer intends to use the remaining net proceeds for general corporate purposes, which may include further debt repurchases and possible acquisitions.
