Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On December 1, 2015, the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors (the Board) of InVivo Therapeutics Holdings Corp. (the Company) recommended, and the Board approved, the extension of corporate housing benefits for Mark Perrin, the Company's Chief Executive Officer, for up to an additional 12 months.

Item 8.01 Other Events.

On December 3, 2015, the Company issued a press release announcing that it has received conditional approval from the U.S. Food and Drug Administration to convert its ongoing pilot study into a pivotal probable benefit study. A copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

Cautionary Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This Current Report on Form 8-K and the press release filed herewith contain forward-looking statements within the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. All statements other than statements of historical fact are forward-looking statements for purposes of these provisions, and include statements regarding conditional approval of the company's pivotal probable benefit study and the expected timing of enrollment in the study and subsequent HDE approval and commercialization. Any forward-looking statements contained herein are based on current expectations, and are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties that could cause future results to differ materially from current expectations, including company's ability to obtain final approval from the FDA and to successfully open additional clinical sites for enrollment and to enroll additional patients; the timing of the Institutional Review Board process; the company's ability to commercialize its products; the expected benefits and efficacy of the company's products and technology in connection with the treatment of spinal cord injuries; the availability of substantial additional funding for the company to continue its operations and to conduct research and development, clinical studies and future product commercialization; and other risks associated with the company's business, research, product development, regulatory approval, marketing and distribution plans and strategies. Given these uncertainties, investors should not place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements. Additional risk factors are included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2015, and other filings the Company makes with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including quarterly reports on Form 10-Q and current reports on Form 8-K. All forward-looking statements included in this Current Report on Form 8-K and the press release filed herewith are made as of the date hereof, based on information available to the Company as of the date of this report, and the Company assumes no obligation to update any such forward-looking statements, except as required by law.
