“After posting exceptional 32% sales growth in fiscal 2010, I am quite pleased that we surpassed it with a 33% increase and solid earnings results in 2011, as we delivered robust growth across all geographic regions and product areas,” said Germain Lamonde, EXFO’s Chairman, President and CEO. “In the process, we expanded our percentage of business from two strategic sectors — the wireless industry at large and Tier-1 network operators — allowing us to increase revenues much faster than our end-markets. As a result, EXFO gained market share for a 26th consecutive year based on relentless innovation, customer delight and focus on execution. I remain confident that EXFO is uniquely positioned to benefit from key growth opportunities in the telecom industry, despite uncertainty in the global economy.”
