Section 1 Registrant's Business and Operations.

Section 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On March 31, 2006, Electronic Clearing House, Inc., and its wholly-owned subsidiary, XpressCheX, Inc., (collectively, the "Registrant"), entered into a Settlement and License Agreement (the "Agreement") with LML Patent Corp. ("LML"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of LML Payment Systems Inc. The Agreement relates to a patent infringement lawsuit previously filed by LML in the United States District Court for the District of Delaware.

In connection with the settlement, the Registrant agreed to pay LML an amount equal to $400,000 in exchange for mutual releases and dismissal of all actions among the parties. Also, as consideration for the parties' agreement not to initiate against one another any other patent infringement suit, action or administrative proceeding in the United States or Canada prior to April 1, 2009, the Registrant agreed to pay LML an amount equal to $200,000.

Additionally, pursuant to the terms of the Agreement and subject to certain restrictions, the Registrant has agreed to pay LML royalty fees in the amount of approximately $170,000 annually, based on current POP transaction volume, in consideration for a non-exclusive license to certain U.S. patents held by LML (Patent No. 6,354,491; 5,484,988; 6,164,528 and 6,283,366) one of which was the subject of the claim by LML. According to the terms of the Agreement, the non-exclusive license will terminate on January 16, 2013.

The Agreement was entered into without admission of fault or liability by the Registrant or any other party.

The remainder of the Agreement is subject to a confidentiality provision.

On April 3, 2006, the Registrant issued a press release announcing the settlement, which release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated herein by reference.
