Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Principal Officers.

(d) General Wesley K. Clark was appointed to the Board of Directors effective June 1, 2007. Mr. Clark, 62, served in the United States Army for 34 years and in his final military assignment as a four-star general, from July 1997 until May 2000, he served as the NATO Supreme Allied Commander, Europe and simultaneously, Commander-in-Chief, U.S. European Council. He has received numerous military awards, including the Purple Heart, Silver Star, and Bronze Star, and he has also been awarded the nation's highest civilian honor, the Presidential Medal of Freedom. His previous assignment was as Commander-in-Chief, US Southern Command, where he was responsible for all US military activities in Latin America. Clark graduated first in his class from the United States Military Academy at West Point and studied for two years at England's Oxford University on a Rhodes scholarship. In September 2003, Clark announced his bid for the Democratic presidential nomination. Since returning to the private sector in 2004, he has resumed activities as CEO of Wesley K. Clark & Associates, a strategic advisory and consulting firm. Last fall he joined UCLA's Burkle Center for International Relations as a Senior Fellow. Currently, General Clark is the Chairman of Rodman and Renshaw, an investment bank based in New York and London, and serves on the boards of directors of several private and public companies.

Pursuant to the compensation package for all of Nutracea's independent directors, Mr. Clark will receive an annual retainer of $40,000 and up to $2,000 per board meeting attended. In addition, NutraCea issues annually to each independent director a warrant to purchase 35,000 shares of common stock at a price per share equal to the market price of our common stock on the date of grant. Each of these warrants vest monthly over 12 months. On May 1, 2007, NutraCea issued Mr. Clark his annual 35,000 share warrant grant with an exercise price of $3.76 per share.
