Attached is a written communication sent by Paul Manning, President and Chief Executive Officer of Sensient Technologies Corporation (the "Company"), to the Company's employees on March 24, 2014.

Dear Sensient Employees:

As you may have seen, an activist hedge fund called FrontFour Capital Group LLC is seeking to elect four of its nominees to Sensient's Board of Directors. FrontFour is a relatively new shareholder in Sensient that has disclosed an ownership interest of approximately 1.5% of the Company's outstanding shares.

The experience and expertise of our Board has been critical to guiding the Company in its current strategy and setting the course for continued and sustainable growth at Sensient. Our Board and management team remain committed to our strategy, which we believe is in the best interests of all of our shareholders. On that basis, Sensient's Board of Directors is recommending that shareholders vote for the Company's slate of nine, highly qualified directors instead of the nominees being proposed by FrontFour.

Over the next few weeks, we will continue to communicate with our shareholders regarding the strength of Sensient's strategy and our positive outlook for the Company. Those of you who are our shareholders will have the opportunity to vote prior to our 2014 Annual Meeting scheduled for April 24. We encourage all our shareholders to vote for the current Board on the WHITE proxy card that accompanies our written shareholder communications. If you are a shareholder, you will also receive a green proxy card in a separate mailing from the activist shareholders and we urge you to throw the green card away. If you have voted the green card, you may still submit the WHITE card because the last card voted will determine your vote.

As this matter progresses, there will likely be additional coverage in the media, which is normal in these circumstances. It is important that we do not allow this activity to distract us from managing our business. The best thing we can all do in the face of FrontFour's behavior is to continue executing our strategy and delivering innovative solutions to our customers.

Our business success is a direct result of your commitment to Sensient. As always, thank you for all of your ongoing hard work.

Sincerely,

Paul Manning
President and Chief Executive Officer
Sensient Technologies Corporation
