Item 4. Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountant.

Effective October 23, 2003, Singer Lewak Greenbaum & Goldstein, LLP (the "Predecessor Accountant") was dismissed as the independent auditors for the Company, and Malone & Bailey, PLLC (the "Successor Accountant") was appointed as the Company's new independent accountants. For the years ended December 31, 2001 and 2002, the Predecessor Accountant's report contained a qualification that the financial statements were prepared on a "going concern" basis and uncertainty of the Company to continue as a going concern but did not otherwise contain any adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion and was not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles. The Company's Board of Directors approved this action on October 23, 2003.

During the years ended December 31, 2001 and 2002, and the subsequent interim period January 1, 2003 through October 22, 2003, there were no disagreements with the Predecessor Accountant on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreement, if not resolved to the satisfaction of the Predecessor Accountant, would have caused it to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreement in connection with its report on the financial statements of the Company for such period. The Predecessor Accountant has not advised the Company of any deficiencies in the internal controls necessary to develop reliable financial statements, that information has come to their attention which made such Predecessor Accountants unwilling to rely on management's representations or to be associated with the financial statements prepared by management, or that the scope of the audit should be expanded significantly; or that information has come to the attention of the Predecessor Accountant that materially impacts the fairness or reliability of a previously issued audit report or the underlying financial statements or the financial statements issued or to be issued covering the fiscal period(s) subsequent to the date of the most recent audited financial statements.

The Company has not previously consulted with the Successor Accountant regarding the application of accounting principles to a specific completed or contemplated transaction or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Company's financial statements.
