Item 1.01 Entry Into A Material Definitive Agreement.

On August 3, 2011, HealthWarehouse.com, Inc. (the “Company”) entered into a Securities Purchase Agreement (the “Purchase Agreement”) with three affiliated accredited investors (the “Investors”) and sold shares of the Company’s $0.001 par value common stock (the “Common Stock”) to the Investors in a non-public offering under Section 4(2) and Rule 506 of Regulation D under the Securities Act of 1933. Under the terms of the Purchase Agreement, the Company sold a total of 428,572 shares of its Common Stock to the Investors at $3.50 per share, for an aggregate price of approximately $1,500,000. The Purchase Agreement contains customary representations and warranties about the Company and its business operations, and customary post-closing indemnification and other covenants. The net proceeds from the sale of the Common Stock will be used by the Company to expand its online presence, upgrade its technology infrastructure, and pay existing indebtedness and accrued expenses, and for general working capital purposes.

On August 3, 2011, the Company and the Investors also entered into an Investor Rights Agreement (the “Rights Agreement”). Under the Rights Agreement, the Investors have certain demand registration rights with respect to all Common Stock owned by the Investors (the “Registrable Securities”). The demand registration rights are applicable after the earlier of November 8, 2013 or after the Common Stock is first listed or quoted on a national securities exchange. Upon exercise of the demand registration rights, the Company will be obligated to prepare and file with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission a registration statement sufficient to permit the resale of the Registrable Securities. The Investors also have customary “piggy-back” registration rights with respect to the Registrable Securities, and certain additional demand registration rights with respect to registration statements on Form S-3. The Rights Agreement also contains certain customary negative and affirmative covenants relating to the Company taking certain actions. The Rights Agreement also grants the Investors a right of first refusal to participate on a pro-rata basis in any future sale or offering of the Company’s equity securities, subject to certain customary exceptions. The Rights Agreement also gives the Investors the right to designate one person to serve on the Company’s Board of Directors. The covenants, the right of first refusal, and the right to designate one director terminate on the first date on which the Investors hold less than 10% of the Company’s outstanding Common Stock.

The foregoing description of the Purchase Agreement and the Rights Agreement is not intended to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Purchase Agreement and the Rights Agreement, which are filed as Exhibits 10.1 and 10.2 and are incorporated herein by reference.

Under the Rights Agreement described in Item 1.01, the Investors have the right to designate one of the Company's directors (the "Investor Director") for so long as the Investors own at least 10% of the Company's outstanding Common Stock. The Investors have designated Mr. Backus as the initial Investor Director.

In connection with Mr. Backus' election to the Board, on August 3, 2011, the Company and Mr. Backus entered into an Indemnification Agreement containing customary provisions indemnifying Mr. Backus against claims asserted against him in connection with his services as a director.
