Mr. J. Kevin Bartol, Executive Vice President, Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer of Rowan Companies plc (the “Company”), has decided to leave the Company to pursue other opportunities. Mr. Bartol will continue to serve in his role until a successor is chosen and a smooth transition is completed. The Company is conducting a search and intends to name Mr. Bartol’s successor in short order. The Company thanks Mr. Bartol for his dedication and many contributions to the Company’s success over the past seven years.

The Company also announced today that Melanie M. Trent has been promoted to Executive Vice President, General Counsel and Chief Administrative Officer and will assume responsibility for the Legal function, as well as retain responsibility for the Human Resources, Information Technology and Communications departments. Ms. Trent succeeds John L. Buvens, Jr., the Company’s Executive Vice President- Legal, who is retiring from the Company after more than 30 years effective as of October 15, 2014. The Company thanks Mr. Buvens for his many years of loyal service and expertise.

Ms. Trent joined the Company in 2005, served as Senior Vice President, Chief Administrative Officer and Company Secretary since 2011, and served as Vice President & Corporate Secretary prior to that time.

The Company expects to provide a retirement package to Messrs. Bartol and Buvens consisting of cash equal to one year’s base salary, plus a pro-rated portion of the annual bonus (if and when paid to other executives) and acceleration of the vesting of certain outstanding awards of restricted shares, restricted share units and share appreciation rights (“SARs”). SARs and any options will be exercisable until the earlier of their expiration date or three years from the date of termination.
