Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On April 30, 2019, MidSouth Bancorp, Inc., a Louisiana corporation (“MidSouth”), and Hancock Whitney Corporation, a Mississippi corporation (“Hancock Whitney”), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”) pursuant to which, on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth therein, MidSouth will merge with and into Hancock Whitney (the “Merger”), with Hancock Whitney as the surviving corporation in the Merger. Immediately following the Merger, MidSouth Bank, N.A., a wholly-owned bank subsidiary of MidSouth, will merge with and into Hancock Whitney Bank, a Mississippi bank and wholly-owned subsidiary of Hancock Whitney (“Hancock Whitney Bank” and such merger, the “Bank Merger”), with Hancock Whitney Bank as the surviving entity in the Bank Merger. The Merger Agreement was approved by the Board of Directors of each of Hancock Whitney and MidSouth.

Under the terms and subject to the conditions of the Merger Agreement, at the effective time of the Merger (the “Effective Time”), each share of the common stock, par value $0.10 per share, of MidSouth (the “MidSouth Common Stock”) issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, except for shares to be canceled in accordance with Section 1.5(c) of the Merger Agreement, will be converted, in accordance with the procedures set forth in the Merger Agreement, into the right to receive, without interest, 0.2952 shares (the “Conversion Ratio” and such shares, the “Merger Consideration”) of the common stock, par value $3.33 per share, of Hancock Whitney (the “Hancock Whitney Common Stock”).

Under the terms and subject to the conditions of the Merger Agreement, at the Effective Time, each option granted by MidSouth pursuant to MidSouth’s equity plans (a “MidSouth Option”) that is outstanding and unexercised will be converted automatically into an option (an “Adjusted Option”) to purchase, on the same terms and conditions as were applicable under such MidSouth Option immediately prior to the Effective Time (including vesting terms), the number of shares of Hancock Whitney Common Stock (rounded down to the nearest whole number of shares of Hancock Whitney Common Stock) equal to the product of (i) the number of shares of MidSouth Common Stock subject to such MidSouth Option immediately prior to the Effective Time, multiplied by (ii) the Conversion Ratio, which Adjusted Option will have an exercise price per share of Hancock Whitney Common Stock (rounded up to the nearest whole cent) equal to the quotient of (A) the exercise price per share of MidSouth Common Stock subject to such MidSouth Common Stock immediately prior to the Effective Time, divided by (B) the Conversion Ratio.

Under the terms and subject to the conditions of the Merger Agreement, at the Effective Time, (i) each award in respect of MidSouth Common Stock subject to vesting, repurchase or other lapse restriction granted under MidSouth’s equity plans (a “MidSouth Restricted Stock Award”) that, pursuant to the terms in effect as of the date of the Merger Agreement, would vest automatically as a result of the Effective Time or that is held by a non-employee member of the Board of Directors of MidSouth and (ii) each restricted stock unit award in respect of shares of MidSouth Common Stock granted under MidSouth’s equity plans, in each case that is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, will vest at the Effective Time and convert automatically into the right to receive, without interest, the Merger Consideration in respect of each share of MidSouth Common Stock subject to such award immediately prior to the Effective Time (with applicable performance goals deemed satisfied at the target level and with the number of shares prorated if contemplated by the applicable MidSouth equity plan, award agreement or other governing document).

Additionally, under the terms and subject to the conditions of the Merger Agreement, at the Effective Time, each MidSouth Restricted Stock Award not subject to automatic vesting as a result of the Effective Time will be converted into a restricted stock award in respect of shares of Hancock Whitney Common Stock subject to the same terms and conditions (including vesting terms) and relating to the number of shares of Hancock Whitney Common Stock equal to the product of (i) the number of shares of MidSouth Common Stock subject to such MidSouth Restricted Stock Award immediately prior to the Effective Time, multiplied by (ii) the Conversion Ratio, with any fractional shares rounded down to the nearest whole share of Hancock Whitney Common Stock.

Under the terms and subject to the conditions of the Merger Agreement, MidSouth will redeem the outstanding shares of its preferred stock (the “MidSouth Preferred Stock”) effective as of, subject to and conditioned upon the occurrence of, the closing of the Merger. If any of the regulatory approvals required to redeem a series of MidSouth Preferred Stock are not obtained prior to the Effective Time, at the Effective Time, each outstanding share of such series of MidSouth Preferred Stock will automatically be converted into the right to receive a share of a newly created series of preferred stock of Hancock Whitney having the same rights, preferences, privileges and voting powers, and limitations and restrictions thereof, as such series of MidSouth Preferred Stock.

The Merger Agreement contains customary representations and warranties from both MidSouth and Hancock Whitney, each with respect to its and its subsidiaries’ businesses, and each party has agreed to customary covenants, including, among others, covenants relating to the conduct of its business during the interim period between the execution of the Merger Agreement and the Effective Time. MidSouth agreed to call a meeting of its shareholders to approve the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby (the “MidSouth Shareholder Approval”) and, subject to certain customary exceptions, for the Board of Directors of MidSouth to recommend that its shareholders vote in favor of such approvals. MidSouth has also agreed to customary non-solicitation covenants relating to alternative acquisition proposals that prohibit MidSouth from, subject to certain customary exceptions, soliciting proposals relating to certain alternative acquisition proposals or entering into discussions or negotiations or providing confidential information in connection with certain proposals for an alternative acquisition. Notwithstanding any alternative acquisition proposals, the Merger Agreement requires MidSouth to convene a meeting of its shareholders and submit the Merger Agreement and the matters contemplated thereby to its shareholders for approval, unless the Merger Agreement has been terminated.

The completion of the Merger is subject to customary conditions, including (i) receipt of the MidSouth Shareholder Approval, (ii) authorization for listing on Nasdaq of the shares of Hancock Whitney Common Stock to be issued in the Merger, (iii) the receipt of required regulatory approvals, including the approval of the Federal Reserve Board, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and the Mississippi Department of Banking and Consumer Finance, (iv) effectiveness of the registration statement on Form S-4 for the Hancock Whitney Common Stock to be issued in the Merger, and (v) the absence of any order, injunction or other legal restraint preventing the completion of the Merger or the Bank Merger or making the Merger illegal. Each party’s obligation to complete the Merger is also subject to certain additional customary conditions, including (a) subject to certain qualifications, the accuracy of the representations and warranties of Hancock Whitney, in the case of MidSouth, and of MidSouth, in the case of Hancock Whitney, (b) performance in all material respects by MidSouth, in the case of Hancock Whitney, and by Hancock Whitney, in the case of MidSouth, of its obligations under the Merger Agreement, and (c) receipt by Hancock Whitney and MidSouth of an opinion from their respective counsel to the effect that the Merger will qualify as a “reorganization” within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

The Merger Agreement provides certain termination rights for both MidSouth and Hancock Whitney and further provides that a termination fee of $8,000,000 will be payable by MidSouth upon termination of the Merger Agreement under certain circumstances, including if its Board of Directors withdraws or adversely modifies its recommendation that MidSouth shareholders vote in favor of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

In connection with entering into the Merger Agreement, Hancock Whitney entered into voting and support agreements (the “Support Agreements”) with certain shareholders of MidSouth, including the directors of MidSouth in their capacities as shareholders. Subject to the terms and conditions of the Support Agreements, each such shareholder agreed, among other things, to vote in favor of the approval of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, and against alternative acquisition proposals.

The foregoing descriptions of the Merger Agreement and Support Agreements do not purport to be complete and each is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Merger Agreement, the form of Support Agreement signed by directors of MidSouth and the form of Support Agreement signed by certain non-director shareholders, which are filed herewith as Exhibits 2.1, 99.1 and 99.2, and are incorporated herein by reference. The representations, warranties and covenants of each party set forth in the Merger Agreement have been made only for purposes of, and were and are solely for the benefit of the parties to, the Merger Agreement, may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the contracting parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the Merger Agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts, and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Accordingly, the representations and warranties may not describe the actual state of affairs at the date they were made or at any other time, and investors should not rely on them as statements of fact. In addition, such representations and warranties (i) will not survive consummation of the Merger, unless otherwise specified in the Merger Agreement, and (ii) were made only as of the date of the Merger Agreement or such other date as is specified in the Merger Agreement. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in the parties' public disclosures. Accordingly, the Merger Agreement is included with this filing only to provide investors with information regarding the terms of the Merger Agreement, and not to provide investors with any other factual information regarding MidSouth or Hancock Whitney, their respective affiliates or their respective businesses. The Merger Agreement should not be read alone, but should instead be read in conjunction with the other information regarding MidSouth, Hancock Whitney, their respective affiliates or their respective businesses, the Merger Agreement and the Merger that will be contained in, or incorporated by reference into, the registration statement on Form S-4 that will include a proxy statement of MidSouth and a prospectus of Hancock Whitney, as well as in the Forms 10-K, Forms 10-Q, Forms 8-K and other filings that each of MidSouth and Hancock Whitney make with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC").
