PROXY STATEMENT

Annual Meeting of Stockholders
September 10, 2002

INTRODUCTION

The enclosed proxy is solicited on behalf of the Board of Directors of Methode Electronics, Inc. ("Methode"), in connection with the annual meeting of stockholders to be held on Tuesday, September 10, 2002 at 3:30 p.m. Chicago time, at the Fountain Blue Conference Center, 2300 South Mannheim Road, Des Plaines, Illinois.

The cost of proxy solicitation will be borne by Methode. Certain officers and other regular employees of Methode may devote part of their time to solicitation by mail, telephone, telecopier or in person, but will not be specifically compensated therefor. Proxies may be revoked at any time prior to the voting thereof. Revocation may be done prior to the annual meeting by written revocation sent to the Secretary of Methode, 7401 West Wilson Avenue, Chicago, Illinois 60706; or it may be done personally upon oral or written request at the annual meeting; or it may be done by appearing at the annual meeting and voting in person.

This proxy statement was first mailed to stockholders on or about August 10, 2002.

RECORD DATE; VOTING SECURITIES OUTSTANDING

The close of business on July 24, 2002 is the record date for determining the holders of Methode securities entitled to notice of and to vote at the annual meeting.

As of July 24, 2002, Methode had outstanding voting securities consisting of 35,076,819 shares of Class A common stock, par value $0.50 per share, and 1,087,317 shares of Class B common stock, par value $0.50 per share. The presence at the annual meeting, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of both Class A and Class B common stock is necessary to constitute a quorum. The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the Class A common stock present in person or by proxy at the annual meeting will elect two directors, each Class A share having one vote; and the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the Class B common stock present in person or by proxy at the annual meeting will elect six directors, each Class B share having one vote. Unless otherwise required by law or Methode's Restated Certificate of Incorporation, the holders of Class A common stock are entitled to one-tenth of a vote per share and the holders of Class B common stock are entitled to one vote per share on all other matters. A broker non-vote is not counted in determining voting results. If a stockholder, present in person or by proxy, abstains on any matter, the stockholder's shares will not be voted on such matter. Thus, an abstention from voting on a matter has the same legal effect as a vote "AGAINST" the matter.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

Pursuant to Methode's Audit Committee Charter, the Audit Committee oversees Methode's financial reporting process on behalf of the Board of Directors. Management has the primary responsibility for the financial statements and the reporting process, including the systems of internal controls. In fulfilling its oversight responsibilities, the Audit Committee reviewed with management the audited financial statements in the Annual Report on Form 10-K, including a discussion of the quality, not just the acceptability, of the accounting principles, the reasonableness of significant judgments, and the clarity of disclosures in the financial statements.

The Audit Committee reviewed with the independent auditors, who are responsible for expressing an opinion on the conformity of those audited financial statements with generally accepted accounting principles, their judgments as to the quality, not just the acceptability, of Methode's accounting principles and such other matters as are required to be discussed with the Audit Committee under generally accepted auditing standards. In addition, the Audit Committee discussed with the independent auditors the auditors' independence from management and Methode, including the matters in the written disclosures required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, and considered the compatibility of nonaudit services provided by the auditors to Methode with their independence.

The Audit Committee discussed with Methode's independent auditors the overall scope and plans for their audit of Methode's consolidated financial statements. The Audit Committee meets with the independent auditors, with and, as deemed advisable, without management present, to discuss the results of their examination, their evaluation of Methode's internal controls, and the overall quality of Methode's financial reporting.

In reliance on the reviews and discussions referred to above, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors (and the Board of Directors has accepted that recommendation) that the audited financial statements be included in the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended April 30, 2002 for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

LONG-TERM INCENTIVE PLANS--AWARDS IN LAST FISCAL YEAR

Methode has a Longevity Contingent Bonus Program that covers certain officers and key management personnel. The longevity compensation amount is equal to the current bonus received by an eligible employee for a given quarter, and is earned and payable three years after the current quarter only if the eligible employee is still an employee of Methode and his employment performance is satisfactory. If for any reason other than death, disability or retirement the officer or key employee terminates his employment with Methode during the three-year period or his employment performance is not satisfactory, no longevity compensation is payable under this program. The following table includes information regarding amounts payable under the Longevity Bonus Program to the Named Executives based on the bonuses earned in fiscal 2002.

Employment Agreements

William T. Jensen Agreement. Methode and William T. Jensen entered into an Agreement in connection with his election to Chairman of the Board of Directors in February 2001. Under the agreement, as amended, Mr. Jensen is entitled to an annual salary of $278,356 and a quarterly bonus calculated based on Methode's adjusted pretax profits. In addition, Mr. Jensen was granted an option to purchase 100,000 shares of Methode Class A common stock in fiscal 2001. In June 2002, the Compensation Committee elected to extend the term of the agreement to June 30, 2003.

Employment Security Agreements. On December 21, 2001, Messrs. Duda, Koman, Kuehnau and McQuillen each entered into an Employment Security Agreement with Methode. Each agreement provides that if within three years of a Change in Control (as defined in the agreement) or during a Period Pending a Change in Control (as defined in the agreement), Methode terminates the executive's employment without good cause or the executive voluntarily terminates his employment for good reason, the executive is entitled to (1) a lump sum cash payment equal to three times the executive's annual salary (two times annual salary in the case of Mr. McQuillen); (2) a lump sum cash bonus payment; (3) continued participation in Methode's welfare benefit plans for three years or until the executive becomes covered under other welfare benefit plans providing substantially similar benefits; (4) unpaid salary or other compensation earned with respect to periods prior to the executive's termination, including accumulated but unused vacation; and (5) a lump sum of any amount payable to the executive pursuant to a tax gross-up payment.

Director Compensation

Directors who are not also Methode employees are compensated at the rate of $25,000 annually, plus an attendance fee of $500 for any special board meeting in addition to the regularly scheduled quarterly meetings. Directors who are members of the Compensation, Nominating or Audit Committees receive an additional $500 for each committee meeting attended. In addition, each non-employee director is eligible to participate in the 2000 Stock Plan. Each non-employee director was granted an option to purchase 5,000 shares of Methode Class A common stock for the fiscal year ended April 30, 2002. These options vest six months after the grant date. Directors who are also Methode employees are not paid for their services as directors or for attendance at meetings. In fiscal 2002, Messrs. Croft and Wright accrued above-market interest under Methode's Capital Accumulation Program of $2,024 and $2,010, respectively.

BOARD COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Methode's compensation philosophy is comprised of several elements designed to retain key management personnel, reward performance, dedication and historical service to Methode, and to relate executive pay to long-term performance. These elements consist of a base salary, bonus compensation, incentive awards directly relating pay to performance, and long-term incentive awards designed to align executive interests with stockholder interests.

Base Salary

The base salaries of Methode's executive officers have remained relatively flat, with small increases to reflect inflation. The Compensation Committee reviews base salaries annually. Although base salaries have not been high relative to other companies of comparable size, the bonus has been a key tool for rewarding performance. Pursuant to Mr. Jensen's employment agreement, as amended, Mr. Jensen was paid an annual salary of $260,664.

Bonus Compensation

Quarterly cash bonuses for all officers and managerial personnel, other than Mr. Jensen, are determined pursuant to a bonus plan reviewed from time to time by the Compensation Committee. Mr. Jensen's quarterly cash bonuses are determined pursuant to his employment agreement. Pursuant to the bonus plan and Mr. Jensen's employment agreement, bonus amounts are calculated according to a formula which assigns certain percentages to different levels of adjusted pretax profits. Mr. Jensen earned quarterly cash bonuses totaling $114,498 during fiscal 2002.

Long-Term Incentive

Methode has instituted several plans that are designed to provide long-term incentives for executives by relating executive compensation to Methode's performance over time as well as by rewarding continued service. The Longevity Contingent Bonus Program (the "Bonus Program") awards officers and key management personnel a matching bonus (equal to the amount of the current quarterly bonus), which will be considered as earned and payable in three years provided that the participant is still employed and performance has been satisfactory. If, for any reason, other than death, disability, or retirement, the officer or key employee terminates his employment with Methode during the three year period, or his employment performance is not satisfactory, no longevity compensation is payable under this program. Mr. Jensen's total quarterly bonus awards in 2002 were $114,498. He is therefore eligible to receive payments totaling $114,498 in fiscal 2005.

The Methode Electronics, Inc. 1997 Stock Plan and 2000 Stock Plan (the "Stock Plans") also provide long-term incentive to employees. The Stock Plans provide for the granting of awards of restricted stock, incentive stock options, nonqualified stock options and stock appreciation rights with respect to the Class A common stock. The Compensation Committee administers the Stock Plans and from time to time grants awards under the Stock Plans to selected eligible directors and employees. Mr. Jensen received a grant of an option to purchase 50,000 shares of Methode Class A common stock for fiscal 2002.
