PETROCHINA 2004 INTERIM CONTINUED RAPID GROWTH
NET PROFIT REACHED RMB45.3 BILLION
THE BEST HALF YEAR RESULTS SINCE LISTING

26 August 2004, Beijing - PetroChina Company Limited (the "Company", SEHK stock code 0857; NYSE Symbol PTR) today announced a net profit of RMB45.29 billion for the first half of 2004, up 17.3% from the same period of last year, which is the most encouraging first half year results recorded since its listing. Basic earnings per share of the Company were RMB0.26, representing an increase of approximately RMB0.04 compared with the same period of last year.

By leveraging on the high oil prices and strong market demand for oil and petrochemical products, the Company achieved continued rapid growth of operating results through optimising production organization and enhancing management of operation. Oil and gas exploration realized important achievements and showed good prospects; crude oil output increased steadily, the growth of the natural gas business further accelerated; processed crude oil volume and refined products and chemicals output noted remarkable growth, and major technological and economic indicators hit a record high; marketing efforts were reinforced, and the sales volume grew with profit; the construction of key pipelines was fast and smooth progress was made.

The Board of Directors of the Company recommends an interim dividend of approximately RMB 0.115 per share for 2004.

During the six months ended 30 June 2004, the Company's turnover was RMB179.55 billion, up 21.4% yoy. The profits from operations were RMB64.25 billion, up 16.8% yoy. All the four business segments of the Company continued to record profit in the period. Among them, exploration and production business is still the pillar for profits. The profitability of refining, chemicals and marketing businesses was greatly enhanced.

maintain good momentum. Profit from operations for the exploration and production increased 2.43 billion by 4.8% to RMB52.7 billion from the same period of 2003. The increase was mainly attributable to the climbing of oil prices and the increase in the sales volume of oil and gas. During the period, the Company's total output of oil and gas amounted to 456 million barrels of oil equivalent, representing an increase of 2.7% from the first half of 2003. The Company produced domestically 388 million barrels of crude oil and 410.3 billion cubic feet of marketable natural gas, up 0.5% and 17.4% respectively from the same period of 2003. The Company's overseas equity oil and gas output yielded 3.88 million barrels of oil equivalent, up 35.2% yoy. A total of 366 million barrels of crude oil and 381 billion cubic feet of natural gas were sold during the period.

In the first half of 2004, the Company's refining and marketing business optimised allocation of resources and operation procedures. The profit from operations recorded an increase of 192.7% or RMB5.91 billion to RMB8.978 billion. The growth was brought by an increase in sales volume and prices of key refined products. During the period, the Company's refineries processed 347 million barrels of crude oil, representing an increase of 16.9% from the same period of 2003. The Company's refineries' average capacity utilisation rate reached 95.6%, up 13.6% yoy.

The Company further strengthened its sales and marketing during the period and speeded up the establishment of its retail network. 33.18 million tons of refined oil products were sold, up 14% yoy. The retail volume was 14.19 million tons, up 39% yoy. The Company added 1,446 service stations, making a total of 16,677.

The profits from operations of the chemicals and marketing business increased remarkably by RMB1.305 billion to RMB1.953 billion in the first half of this year, up 201.4% from the same period of last year. The growth of this segment was principally due to an increase in the sales volume and prices of chemical products. The output of major chemical products was 5.618 million tons, up 5% yoy. The total sales volume was 6.6 million tons, up 6.3% yoy.

In the meantime, key chemical facility expansion and technical renovation projects are well underway. The 600,000 tone/year ethylene expansion project at the Daqing Petrochemical, among others, has completed and commenced operation.

The natural gas and pipeline business recorded profit from operations of RMB1.233 billion, down RMB88 million over the same period last year. The decrease was due to the factors including the increase of depreciation charges caused by the partial operation of the West-East Pipeline Project. The Company has speeded up the marketing and sales of natural gas, made further efforts in developing the natural gas market, optimised the gas supply structure. Sales price was increased. During the period, 321.4 billion cubic feet of natural gas was sold through the Natural Gas and Pipeline Segment, up 14.6%. The Company has signed 27 take-or-pay contracts with the downstream users of the West-East Pipeline. The contract gas consumption volume is 8 billion cubic meters.

During the period, the construction of key natural gas pipelines was well underway. Three sub-lines of the eastern section of the West-East Pipeline were completed and commenced operation. With the full completion of the western section of the project, it is expected that the commercial supply of natural gas from Tarim to Shanghai will commence on 1 January 2005. The construction of the trunk lines of the second Shaanxi-Beijing pipeline and Zhongxian-Wuhan pipeline, the Xiangfan and Huangshi branch lines is making progress as scheduled.

Edgar Filing: PETROCHINA CO LTD - Form 6-K/A

Looking forward, the Company will take advantage of the favorable market conditions both at home and abroad to keep up its efforts in accelerating the development of its core business operations, leverage on its resources, and consolidate its dominate position in the upstream market in order to drive forward the full and coordinated development of its business segments. The management of the Company is committed to enhancing the value of the Company and maximising benefits and value for its shareholders. The Company will further improve its corporate structure and corporate governance so as to sustain the effective and rapid development of the Company.
