ITEM 4. CHANGES IN REGISTRANT'S CERTIFYING ACCOUNTANT

Effective July 28, 2003, our board of directors approved a change in the company's independent auditors. Previously, the firm of Sellers & Anderson, LLC was Cortex Systems Inc.'s auditor of record through the quarter ended March 31, 2003. None of the reports of Sellers & Anderson, LLC on the financial statements of Cortex Systems Inc. contained any adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, or was qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles, except as it relates to the auditors issuance of a going concern opinion on the financial statements for the year ended June 30, 2002.

During the Registrant's two most recent fiscal years ended June 30, 2002, and interim periods through the date of this Form 8-K, there were no disagreements with Sellers & Anderson, LLC with respect to matters of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedures which, if not resolved to Sellers & Anderson, LLC's satisfaction would have caused Sellers & Anderson, LLC to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreement in connection with its reports on the Registrant's consolidated financial statements for such years.

Sellers & Anderson, LLC has not advised the registrant of the matters outlined in Item 304 (a) (1) (iv) (B) of Regulation S-B with respect to internal accounting controls, management representations, scope of the audit and material matters coming to their attention that would impact the financial statements and their audit report for the Registrant's two most recent fiscal years ended June 30, 2002 and interim periods through the date of this Form 8-K.

We retained the accounting firm of Epstein, Weber & Conover, PLC to serve as our independent accountants to audit our financial statements beginning with the year ended June 30, 2003. This engagement was effective July 28, 2003. Prior to engaging Epstein, Weber & Conover, PLC, the registrant had not consulted with them on the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction, either completed or proposed; or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the registrant's financial statements.
