Item 5. Other Events and Required FD Disclosure.

Paid, Inc. announces substantial completion of its mandatory exchange of its stock certificates. During the mandatory exchange period, which began on January 16, 2004, NASDAQ changed trading and quotation of Paid Inc.'s securities on the OTC Bulletin Board ("OTCBB") to a "when-issued" basis. Paid, Inc.'s stock symbol during the "when issued" period was PAYDV. The effect of the "when-issued" basis was to take the clearing and settlement of trades temporarily outside of the T+3 rule, which has the effect of suspending clearing and settling trades of Paid, Inc.'s stock during the time that the "when-issued" status is in effect. NASDAQ announced on February 23, 2004 that the "when-issued" basis will be changed back to T+3 status effective on February 24, 2004. All trades prior to or as of February 24, 2004 will be expected to clear and settle by February 27, 2004, and the Company's stock symbol will be changed back to PAYD. The Company expects that in the future the settlement of all trades will be settled and cleared through physical delivery of stock certificates rather than through DTC. The Company's Press Release that announces these changes is attached as Exhibit 99, incorporated by reference herein.
