Item 3.01. Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard. Transfer of Listing.

On April 27, 2006, The American Stock Exchange ("AMEX") sent a letter to Intelligent Systems Corporation (the "Company") notifying it that, based upon review of the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-KSB filed for the year ended December 31, 2005, AMEX has determined that the Company does not meet certain of the AMEX continued listing standards as set forth in the AMEX Company Guide. Specifically, AMEX notified the Company that it is not in compliance with Section 1003(a)(ii) of the AMEX Company Guide because the Company's shareholders' equity is less than $4,000,000 and the Company has sustained losses in three out of four of its most recent fiscal years.

In order to maintain listing of our Common Stock on AMEX, we must submit a plan by May 26, 2006, advising AMEX of the Company's plan to achieve compliance with the continued listing standards referenced in the AMEX letter of April 27, 2006. The plan must provide for the Company to be back in compliance within an 18 month period.

The Listings Qualifications Department of AMEX will evaluate our plan and determine whether we have made a reasonable demonstration in the plan of an ability to regain compliance with the continued listing standards within 18 months. If AMEX accepts our plan, we may be able to continue our listing during the plan period, during which time we will be subject to periodic review to determine if we are making progress consistent with the consistent with the plan. If AMEX does not accept our plan, we do not submit a plan, we fail to make progress consistent with our plan, or if we are not in compliance by the end of the 18 month period, AMEX may initiate delisting proceedings with respect to our Common Stock. We may appeal any AMEX staff determination to initiate delisting proceedings with respect to our Common Stock.

We presently intend to submit such a plan for AMEX to review by May 27, 2006. Our Common Stock continues to trade on AMEX; however, our trading symbol will remain the same but will have an indicator .BC added as an extension to signify our noncompliance with the continued listing standards. Within five days of the April 27, 2006 letter from AMEX, the Company will be included in a list on the AMEX website of issuers that do not comply with the listing standards. The .BC indicator will remain as an extension on our trading symbol until the Company has regained compliance with all applicable continued listing standards.

Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure.

On May 1, 2006, Intelligent Systems Corporation issued a press release disclosing its receipt of a letter dated April 27, 2006 from AMEX and noted that it was not in compliance with AMEX's continued listing standards. A copy of the May 1, 2006 press release, attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1, is being furnished pursuant to Regulation FD and is incorporated by reference herein.
