ScanSource, Inc. (the "Company") is unable to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2007 (the "Form 10-Q") by May 10, 2007, the prescribed due date. The Company intends to file the Form 10-Q as promptly as practicable.

As previously announced, the Company's Board of Directors appointed a Special Committee, consisting entirely of independent directors, to conduct a review of the Company's stock option grant practices and related accounting issues from the time of its initial public offering in 1994 to the present. The Special Committee was assisted in its review by independent legal counsel and advisors.

On January 15, 2007, the Board of Directors received the findings of the Special Committee as described in the Company's Current Report on Form 8-K filed January 19, 2007. The Special Committee, in its findings, recommended that management determine the impact on the Company's accounting for the options grants referenced in the findings and make appropriate adjustments and required disclosures.

On April 20, 2007, the Company announced, among other things, that the Company's previously issued financial statements included in its Annual Report on Form 10-K (the "2006 Annual Report") for the year ended June 30, 2006 should no longer be relied upon. The Company is in the process of filing an amended 2006 Annual Report in which it will, among other things, restate financial statements for fiscal years 2004, 2005 and 2006 and quarterly financial information for fiscal 2005 and 2006 quarters. The Company intends to file the amended 2006 Annual Report, together with its delinquent Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the quarters ended September 30, 2006 and December 31, 2006, as soon as practicable. The Company expects to be able to file the Form 10-Q (for the quarter ended March 31, 2007) only upon completion of the prior amended and delinquent filings.

Part IV(3) Explanation

On April 26, 2007, the Company furnished a Form 8-K referencing its press release announcing certain of its financial results for the quarter ended March 31, 2007. Those results reflect an increase in the Company's net sales and gross margin as compared with results of the same quarter in the prior year. The Company did not report financial results for selling, general and administrative expenses, income before income taxes, provision for income taxes, net income and selected balance sheet items which could be impacted by accounting adjustments resulting from the Special Committee's findings in its review of the Company's stock option practices. See the April 26, 2007 Form 8-K for additional information.

The Company is currently unable to determine whether any other significant change in results of operations will be included in the subject Form 10-Q report and will be unable to make such determination until the prior period amendments and delinquent filings referenced in Part III above are complete.
