FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Certain statements made herein contain forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. The words "expect," "will," "look forward to" and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements.

The expectations set forth in this filing regarding accretion, returns on invested capital, achievement of annual savings and synergies, achievement of strong cash flow, sufficiency of cash flow to fund capital expenditures and achievement of debt reduction targets are only the parties' expectations regarding these matters. Actual results could differ materially from these expectations depending on factors such as the combined company's cost of capital, the ability of the combined company to identify and implement cost savings, synergies and efficiencies in the time frame needed to achieve these expectations, prior contractual commitments of the combined companies and their ability to terminate these commitments or amend, renegotiate or settle the same, the combined company's actual capital needs, the absence of any material incident of property damage or other hazard that could affect the need to effect capital expenditures, any unforeseen merger or acquisition opportunities that could affect capital needs, the costs incurred in implementing synergies and the factors that generally affect both Yellow's and Roadway's respective businesses as further outlined in Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations in each of the companies' respective Annual Reports on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2002 and the Risk Factors outlined in Yellow's Current Report on Form 8-K filed on August 4, 2003. Yellow's plans regarding the maintenance of the separate Yellow and Roadway brands and networks, the continuation of the Roadway headquarters as a major operational center, the focus on administrative and back office synergies and workforce rationalizations are only its current plans and intentions regarding these matters. Actual actions that the combined company may take may differ from time to time as the combined company may deem necessary or advisable in the best interest of the combined company and its shareholders to attempt to achieve the successful integration of the companies, the synergies needed to make the transaction a financial success and to react to the economy and the combined company's market for its transportation services.

NEWS RELEASE

YELLOW CORPORATION

August 18, 2003

For Immediate Release

YELLOW CORPORATION RECEIVES SECOND REQUEST REGARDING PROPOSED ACQUISITION OF ROADWAY CORPORATION

OVERLAND PARK, KS (August 18, 2003) Yellow Corporation (NASDAQ: YELL) (Yellow) and Roadway Corporation (NASDAQ: ROAD) (Roadway) have received second requests for additional information from the Department of Justice (DOJ) in connection with the proposed acquisition of Roadway by Yellow.

Today, Yellow and Roadway received second requests from the Department of Justice for additional information relevant to the proposed acquisition of Roadway by Yellow. Given the size and scope of the transaction and the importance of our two companies and their brands in the transportation industry, this second request was expected, said Yellow chairman, president, and chief executive officer Bill Zollars. Both companies are already working expeditiously to respond to the request. We have every reason to believe that we will complete the transaction in a timely manner.
