October 13, 2004

ALL STOCKHOLDERS ARE URGED TO ATTEND THE MEETING IN PERSON OR BY PROXY. WHETHER OR NOT YOU EXPECT TO BE PRESENT AT THE MEETING, PLEASE COMPLETE, SIGN AND DATE THE ENCLOSED PROXY CARD AND RETURN IT PROMPTLY IN THE ENCLOSED POSTAGE PAID ENVELOPE FURNISHED FOR THAT PURPOSE.

PROXY STATEMENT

The accompanying proxy is solicited by the Board of Directors of Corinthian Colleges, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Company or Corinthian), for use at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held at 10:00 a.m., California time, on November 18, 2004, at the DoubleTree Club Hotel, California Ballroom, 7 Hutton Centre Drive, Santa Ana, California 92707, and any adjournments thereof. This Proxy Statement and accompanying form of proxy were first sent to stockholders on or about October 13, 2004.

All share numbers and share prices provided in this Proxy Statement have been adjusted to reflect the two-for-one stock splits of the shares of the Company's common stock, par value $0.0001 per share (the Common Stock), effected in the form of stock dividends in December 2000, May 2002 and March 2004.

Record Date and Outstanding Shares

The Board of Directors has fixed the close of business on October 1, 2004, as the record date (the Record Date) for the determination of stockholders entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Annual Meeting and any adjournments thereof. As of the Record Date, Corinthian had outstanding 90,381,055 shares of Common Stock. Each of the outstanding shares of Common Stock is entitled to one vote on all matters to come before the Annual Meeting.

Voting of Proxies

Dennis N. Beal and Dennis L. Devereux, the persons named as proxies on the proxy card accompanying this Proxy Statement, were selected by the Board of Directors to serve in such capacity. Messrs. Beal and Devereux are both executive officers of Corinthian. Each executed and returned proxy will be voted in accordance with the directions indicated thereon, or if no direction is indicated, such proxy will be voted in accordance with the recommendations of the Board of Directors contained in this Proxy Statement. Each stockholder giving a proxy has the power to revoke it at any time before the shares it represents are voted. Revocation of a proxy is effective upon receipt by the Secretary of Corinthian of either (i) an instrument revoking the proxy or (ii) a duly executed proxy bearing a later date. Additionally, a stockholder may change or revoke a previously executed proxy by voting in person at the Annual Meeting.

Required Vote

Directors. A plurality of the shares of Common Stock voted in person or by proxy is required to elect the nominees for directors. A plurality means that the three nominees receiving the largest number of votes cast will be elected. Stockholders will not be allowed to cumulate their votes in the election of directors.

Ratification of Auditors. The affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of Common Stock represented in person or by proxy is required to ratify the appointment by the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of Ernst & Young LLP as Corinthian's independent auditors. A properly executed proxy marked Abstain with respect to the proposal to ratify Ernst & Young LLP as the Company's independent auditor will not be voted, although it will be counted for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present. Accordingly, an abstention will have the same effect as a vote against this proposal.

Voting by Street Name Holders

If you are the beneficial owner of shares held in street name by a broker, the broker, as the record holder of the shares, is required to vote those shares in accordance with your instructions. If you do not give instructions to the broker, the broker will nevertheless be entitled to vote the shares with respect to discretionary items but will not be permitted to vote the shares with respect to non-discretionary items (in which case, the shares will be treated as broker non-votes).

Quorum and Broker Non-Votes

The required quorum for transaction of business at the Annual Meeting will be a majority of the shares entitled to vote that are issued and outstanding as of the Record Date. Votes cast by proxy or in person at the Annual Meeting will be tabulated by the election inspectors appointed for the meeting and will determine whether or not a quorum is present. The election inspectors will treat broker non-votes as shares that are present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum. However, for purposes of determining the outcome of any matter as to which the broker has indicated that it does not have discretionary voting authority, those shares will be treated as not present and not entitled to vote with respect to that matter (even though those shares are considered entitled to vote for quorum purposes and may be entitled to vote on other matters).

Summary Annual Report to Stockholders

Corinthian's Annual Report for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2004 contains financial and other information pertaining to Corinthian and is being furnished on Form 10-K to stockholders simultaneously with this Proxy Statement.

PROPOSAL 1

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Corinthian's Board of Directors currently consists of seven directors. Corinthian's Certificate of Incorporation provides that the Board of Directors shall be classified with respect to the terms for which its members hold office by dividing the members into three classes. At the Annual Meeting, three Class III directors will be elected, each for a term of three years expiring at Corinthian's Annual Meeting of Stockholders in 2007. Each of the nominees, David G. Moore, Jack D. Massimino and Hank Adler, are presently serving as directors of Corinthian. Hank Adler was elected to the Board of Directors on August 24, 2004. The Board of Directors recommends that the stockholders vote in favor of the election of the nominees named in this Proxy Statement to serve as directors of Corinthian. See "Nominees" below. The four remaining directors whose terms of office do not expire in 2004 will continue to serve after the Annual Meeting until such time as their respective terms of office expire or their successors are duly elected and qualified. See "Other Directors" below. If at the time of the Annual Meeting any of the nominees should be unable or decline to serve, the persons named as proxies on the proxy card will vote for such substitute nominee or nominees as the Board of Directors recommends, or vote to allow the vacancy created thereby to remain open until filled by the Board of Directors, as the Board of Directors recommends. The Board of Directors has no reason to believe that any nominee will be unable or decline to serve as a director if elected.

The names of the nominees for the office of director and certain information concerning such nominees are set forth below:

Prior to his retirement from Deloitte & Touche, LLP in 2003, Mr. Adler was a partner with that firm, where he had been employed for over 30 years. Director Compensation

Each regular member of the Compensation Committee receives $1,000 for each Compensation Committee meeting attended; the Chairperson of the Compensation Committee receives $2,000 for each Compensation Committee meeting attended. Each regular member of the Audit Committee receives $2,000 for each Audit Committee meeting attended; the Chairperson of the Audit Committee receives $3,000 for each Audit Committee meeting attended. All non-employee directors are reimbursed for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in attending Board of Directors meetings and committee meetings. New non-employee directors elected or appointed at any time other than at the August Board meeting will receive an initial pro-rated stock option grant in an amount equal to the product of (i) the percentage of the year remaining until the next regularly scheduled August Board meeting, and (ii) 12,000. Each non-employee director of the company automatically receives an annual grant of 12,000 options at the August meeting of the Board. These stock options are granted at the then-current market price, and vest immediately but will not be exercisable until the one-year anniversary of the grant date.

Attendance At Meetings

The Board of Directors met in person or conducted telephonic meetings a total of ten times during fiscal year 2004. During that same period, the Board acted thirteen times by unanimous written consent. Each director attended more than 75% of all Board meetings and applicable Committee meetings held during the fiscal year.

Board members are encouraged to attend the Annual Meeting of stockholders. All current Board members who were on the Board of Directors last year attended last year's Annual Meeting of Stockholders. In addition, regular executive sessions of non-employee directors are scheduled to be held at least twice during each fiscal year.

Committees of the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors has established an Audit Committee, a Compensation Committee and a Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. The Board of Directors has determined that Mr. Adler, Mr. Berry, Mr. Massimino, Ms. Skladany and Mr. Wilson are independent under applicable Nasdaq listing standards and Rule 10A-3 promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, including that each such director is free of any relationship that would interfere with his or her individual exercise of independent judgment. These directors are the only directors who serve on committees of the Board.

Audit Committee. The Audit Committee is currently comprised of Mr. Massimino, Mr. Berry and Mr. Adler, each of whom is an independent director as defined in the Nasdaq listing standards and in Rule 10A-3 promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. The Board of Directors has also determined that each of Messrs. Massimino, Berry and Adler is an audit committee financial expert, as such term is defined in Regulation S-K, Item 401(h) promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. Prior to August 2004, the members of the Audit Committee were Mr. Massimino, Mr. Berry, Ms. Skladany and Mr. Wilson. In August 2004, Mr. Adler was appointed to the Audit Committee, and Ms. Skladany and Mr. Wilson resigned from the Committee. The Audit Committee operates under a written charter adopted by our Board of Directors, a copy of which was attached to the Proxy Statement for the annual meeting of stockholders held in November 2003. A copy of the Charter can also be viewed under the heading Investor Relations on the Company's website at www.cci.edu. The Audit Committee is responsible for reviewing the internal accounting procedures of the Company and the results and scope of the audit and other services provided by the Company's independent auditors, consulting with the Company's independent auditors and retaining the Company's independent auditors. The Audit Committee met six times during the fiscal year ended June 30, 2004. Each member of the Audit Committee who was a member at the time of such meetings attended these meetings.

Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee is currently comprised of Mr. Wilson, Mr. Massimino and Ms. Skladany. Prior to August 2004, the members of the Compensation Committee were Mr. Wilson, Mr. Massimino, Ms. Skladany and Mr. Berry. The Compensation Committee has the authority to supervise all of the matters related to the compensation of executive officers of the Company, including determining policies and practices, changes in compensation and benefits for management, and all other matters relating to executive compensation. The Compensation Committee also administers the Company's 1998 Performance Award Plan, as amended, the Company's 2003 Performance Award Plan and the Company's Employee Stock Purchase Plan. The Compensation Committee met five times during the fiscal year ended June 30, 2004. Each member of the Compensation Committee who was a member at the time of such meetings attended those meetings.

Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee (the Nominating Committee) of the Board was established in August 2004. The Nominating Committee currently has three members: Ms. Skladany, Mr. Wilson and Mr. Berry, each of whom is an independent director as defined in applicable Nasdaq rules. The Nominating Committee operates under a written charter adopted by our Board of Directors in August 2004, a copy of which is available on the Company's website at www.cci.edu under the heading Investor Relations. The Nominating Committee's functions include identifying qualified individuals to become Board members, determining the composition of the Board of Directors and its committees, monitoring a process to assess Board effectiveness and reviewing director compensation.

In its assessment of potential board member candidates, the Nominating Committee will review the nominees' experience and independence, the current needs of the Board, and such other factors as the Committee may determine are pertinent in light of the needs of the Board at the time. The Committee will also take into account the ability of a person to devote the time and effort necessary to fulfill his or her responsibilities. Nominees may be suggested to the Committee by other directors, members of management, as well as by Company stockholders. The Committee also has authority to engage third party consultants to help identify or evaluate potential director nominees. In considering nominees to the Board, the Nominating Committee shall select individuals who have the highest personal and professional integrity, who shall have demonstrated exceptional ability and judgment and who shall be most effective, in conjunction with the other members of the Board, in collectively serving the long-term interests of the stockholders.

The Nominating Committee will consider stockholder recommendations for candidates to serve on the Board. The Nominating Committee's evaluation does not vary based on whether or not a candidate is recommended by a stockholder. In order to provide the Nominating Committee time to evaluate candidates prior to submission to the stockholders for vote at the 2005 Annual Meeting, stockholders desiring to recommend a candidate must submit a recommendation to the Secretary of the Company at the Company's corporate office no later than the close of business on June 15, 2005. The recommendation must contain the following: the name, residence and business address of the nominating stockholder; a representation that the stockholder is a record holder of Company stock or holds Company stock through a broker and the number of shares held; information regarding each nominee which would be required to be included in a proxy statement, including a statement of qualifications of the recommended person; a description of any arrangements or understandings between and among the stockholder and each nominee; and the written consent of each nominee to serve as a director, if elected.

One nominee for election to the Board this year has not been previously elected by the stockholders to serve as a director. This nominee, Hank Adler, was elected by the Board effective August 24, 2004. Prior to the formation of the Nominating Committee, the Company retained a leading professional search firm, Spencer Stuart, to help identify, evaluate and review potential nominees, and such firm identified and recommended Mr. Adler. Members of the Board and certain members of management also met with Mr. Adler numerous times prior to his election to the Board.

Shareholder Communications

Any stockholder wishing to communicate with the Board, or any individual director, may write to the Board of Directors or such individual director, as applicable, c/o the Corporate Secretary of the Company, at 6 Hutton Centre Drive, Suite 400, Santa Ana, California 92707. The Corporate Secretary will forward these communications directly to the individual director specified, or if none, to the Chairman of the Board.

Code of Ethics

The Board of Directors has adopted a Code of Business Conduct and Ethics that is applicable to all Corinthian employees, including the Company's principal financial officers, which meets the requirements of Section 406 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002. A copy of the code can be viewed under the heading "Investor Relations" on the Company's website at www.cci.edu.

Lawsuits

Since July 8, 2004, various putative class action lawsuits have been filed in the United States District Court for the Central District of California by certain alleged purchasers of Corinthian common stock against Corinthian and David Moore, Dennis Beal, Paul St. Pierre and Anthony Digiovanni, all of whom are current or former executive officers of Corinthian. The cases purportedly are brought on behalf of all persons who acquired Corinthian shares during a specified class period from August 27, 2003 through either June 23, 2004 or July 30, 2004, depending on the complaint. The complaints allege that, in violation of Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule 10b-5 promulgated thereunder by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"), the defendants made certain material misrepresentations and failed to disclose certain material facts about the condition of Corinthian's business and prospects during the putative class period, causing the respective plaintiffs to purchase Corinthian Common Stock at artificially inflated prices. The plaintiffs further claim that Messrs. Moore, Beal, St. Pierre and Digiovanni are liable under Section 20(a) of the Securities Exchange Act. The plaintiffs seek unspecified amounts in damages, interest, and costs, as well as other relief. Corinthian believes the complaints are without merit and intends to vigorously defend itself and its current and former executive officers against them.

Between July 21, 2004 and July 23, 2004, two purported shareholder derivative actions were filed in the Orange County, California Superior Court against David Moore, Dennis Beal, Dennis Devereux, Beth Wilson, Mary Barry, Stan Mortensen, Bruce Deyong, Loyal Wilson, Jack Massimino, Linda Skladany, Paul St. Pierre, Michael Berry, and Anthony Digiovanni, and Corinthian as a nominal defendant. Each individual defendant is one of our current or former executive officers and/or directors. The lawsuits allege breach of fiduciary duty, abuse of control, gross mismanagement, waste of corporate assets, unjust enrichment, and violations of the California corporations code, essentially based on the same allegations of conduct complained of in the foregoing securities class action complaints. Although the derivative lawsuits are brought nominally on behalf of Corinthian, Corinthian believes the complaints are without merit and intends to vigorously defend its directors and current and former executive officers against them.

Section 16(A) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, requires Corinthian's officers (as defined under Section 16), directors and persons who beneficially own greater than 10% of a registered class of Corinthian's equity securities to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the SEC. Based solely on a review of the forms it has received, Corinthian believes that during fiscal 2004 all Section 16 filings applicable to its officers, directors and 10% beneficial owners were timely made by such persons.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION AND OTHER INFORMATION

The following table provides information concerning the annual and long-term compensation for services in all capacities to Corinthian for the fiscal years ended June 30, 2004, June 30, 2003 and June 30, 2002 for our chief executive officer and our next four most highly compensated executive officers (collectively, the Named Executive Officers).

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE INTERLOCKS AND INSIDER PARTICIPATION

The Compensation Committee members are Loyal Wilson, Jack D. Massimino and Linda Arey Skladany. Prior to August 2004, Michael P. Berry was also a member of the Compensation Committee. None of such persons is or has ever been an officer or employee of the Company or any of its subsidiaries. No executive officer of the Company serves or has served as a member of the Compensation Committee or board of directors of any entity that employs or has employed any member or former member of the Compensation Committee of the Company.

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors is composed entirely of non-employee directors and establishes Corinthian's compensation strategy and policies and determines the nature and amount of all compensation for Corinthian's executive officers, including the Named Executive Officers. The objectives of the Board of Directors in determining the levels and components of executive compensation are to (i) attract, motivate and retain talented and dedicated executive officers, (ii) provide executive officers with both cash and equity incentives to further the interests of Corinthian and its stockholders, and (iii) compensate executive officers at levels comparable to those of executive officers at other comparable companies.

Generally, the compensation of all executive officers is composed of:

a base salary,

bonuses,

perquisites, and

periodic grants of equity compensation.

The Compensation Committee believes that these components offer the executive officers competitive compensation, while aligning their interests with those of the Company's stockholders. Through the use of equity compensation and annual bonuses, executive officers are rewarded for their improvement of the Company's performance.

Base Salaries. In determining the base salaries of the Named Executive Officers in fiscal 2004, the Board of Directors considered the performance of each executive in past years, the nature of the executive's responsibilities, the salary levels of executives at comparable publicly held companies and Corinthian's general compensation practices. Additionally, the Compensation Committee has engaged a professional compensation consulting firm in the past, and expects to do so again periodically in the future, to assist the committee in evaluating compensation levels of Corinthian's senior executive officers versus those at other comparable companies.

Bonuses. Bonuses for executive officers of the Company, including the Named Executive Officers, are directly tied to achievement of specified goals by the Company or the area of operational responsibility for the particular officer and are paid as a percentage of the officer's base salary as of the end of the fiscal year. The performance objectives in fiscal 2004 for the Named Executive Officers were generally based on revenue growth and net income growth for the Company or the particular division over which the executive had responsibility for fiscal 2004, compared to revenue and net income for the prior year. All such bonus criteria were established at a time when the Company's actual performance in relation to the target remained uncertain (as defined in Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code). The Compensation Committee may in the future impose, in its discretion, additional conditions or terms for the payment of bonuses, including the creation of other financial, strategic or individual goals.

During fiscal 2004, the Company's net income from core operations failed to achieve the minimum growth rate established by the Compensation Committee. Accordingly, Mr. Moore, Mr. Devereux, and Ms. Wilson, as well as other senior executive officers of the Company, did not receive annual performance bonuses for fiscal 2004. Ms. Wilson received a partial bonus related to the Company's performance in certain quarters of fiscal 2004. Messrs. Deyong and Schutz received bonuses related to the performance of their respective divisions against previously set targets for revenue, net income and other operating metrics in fiscal 2005.

Equity Compensation. Periodically, the Compensation Committee has granted, and expects in the future to grant, stock options and other forms of equity compensation to executive officers and other key employees of the Company in order to provide a long-term incentive. The value of such equity compensation grants is directly tied to the performance of the Company's Common Stock. Stock options, in particular, provide an incentive to maximize stockholder value because they reward option holders only if stockholders also benefit. The exercise price of these stock options is the fair market value of the Common Stock on the date of grant. In general, the options vest in equal annual installments over a four-year period beginning one year after the date of grant. Vesting periods are used to retain key employees and to emphasize the long-term aspect of contribution and performance. In making stock option grants to executives and other key employees, the Compensation Committee considers a number of factors, including the performance of such persons, the responsibilities and the relative position of such persons within Corinthian, a review of the compensation of executives and key employees in comparable companies and a review of the number of stock options each such person currently possesses.

Compensation of the Chief Executive Officer. At the start of fiscal 2004, Mr. Moore's annual base salary was increased to $575,000 per year. Mr. Moore was also granted 150,000 stock options (stock split adjusted) during the fiscal year. Mr. Moore's salary increase and option grant during fiscal 2004 were based on the Committee's review of overall compensation for chief executive officers of companies in the same or similar industries, of approximately the same size, and in the same or similar geographic regions. In addition, the Compensation Committee also considered the Company's superior financial and stock price performance during fiscal 2003 and the prior several years and Mr. Moore's contribution to the Company's success. Mr. Moore's bonus was determined in the same manner as that of the other senior executive officers of the Company. The Compensation Committee believes Mr. Moore's overall compensation package was generally competitive for fiscal 2004 with the salaries of chief executive officers of companies of our size, structure, complexity and geographic location.

Compliance with Section 162(m). The Compensation Committee currently intends for all base salary and bonus compensation paid to the Named Executive Officers to be tax deductible to Corinthian pursuant to Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, although the Committee retains the discretion to provide compensation that may not be deductible under Section 162(m) under certain circumstances. Section 162(m) provides that compensation paid to the Named Executive Officers in excess of $1,000,000 cannot be deducted by Corinthian for federal income tax purposes unless, in general, such compensation is objective, performance based, and established by a committee of independent directors, and the plan or agreement providing for such performance based compensation has been approved in advance by stockholders.

The Compensation Committee believes that the executive compensation policies described in this report are in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders. The various compensation mechanisms maintain an appropriate balance between motivating the achievement of short-term goals and strategically incentivizing long-term success. The Compensation Committee will continue to monitor the overall effectiveness of the compensation program to ensure that it will continue to successfully meet our needs.

PRE-APPROVAL POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

The Board of Directors has adopted an Audit Committee Charter that requires the Audit Committee to retain, on behalf of the Company, any registered accounting firm employed by the Company, considering, among other matters, such firm's independence and effectiveness, and to approve the fees and other compensation to be paid to such accounting firm. In addition, the Audit Committee Charter requires the Audit Committee to review, in advance, any non-audit services proposed to be performed by the Company's independent auditors.

Accordingly, the independent auditors are only permitted to provide services to the Company that have been pre-approved by the Audit Committee. Additionally, the independent auditors may not provide any of the services prohibited by the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and may only perform non-prohibited non-audit services that have been specifically approved in advance by the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee has delegated to its chairman, within certain thresholds, the right to approve certain non-audit services between regularly scheduled meetings of the Audit Committee. One hundred percent (100%) of the services performed by Ernst & Young LLP during fiscal 2004 described under the captions "Audit-Related Fees" and "Tax Fees" above were approved in advance by the Audit Committee. None of the hours expended by Ernst & Young LLP for the audit of the Company's annual financial statements for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2004 were expended by persons other than the principal accountant's full-time, permanent employees.

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENTS

The Company has employment agreements (the Employment Agreements) with Messrs. Moore and Devereux and Ms. Wilson. The Employment Agreements were executed in November 2001 and had initial terms of two years. The terms of each Employment Agreement are, and have been, automatically extended for an additional year on the first anniversary of the effective date of each agreement and on each subsequent anniversary date, unless either the Company or the executive gives a termination notice to the other party at least one (1) year prior to the expiration date of the then-current term. The maximum term of the Employment Agreements, even with the automatic extensions, is five (5) years.

The Employment Agreements provide for the payment of an annual base salary of not less than $375,000 for Mr. Moore, $250,000 for Mr. Devereux, and $225,000 for Ms. Wilson. The amount of these base salaries will be reviewed annually by the Compensation Committee. The base salary of each such executive in effect from time to time can only be reduced involuntarily by the Company to the extent such reduction is made equally to all employees of a substantially equal level or position. Messrs. Moore and Devereux and Ms. Wilson are also entitled to participate in and be covered by all bonus, incentive and other employee health, insurance, 401K and other plans and benefits currently established for the employees of the Company. In addition, the Employment Agreements provide Messrs. Moore and Devereux and Ms. Wilson with vacation benefits of no less than three weeks per year and reimbursement of all business expenses. If the Company terminates any such executive's employment without cause, or if such officer terminates his or her employment under certain circumstances set forth in the Employment Agreement, then such officer shall be entitled to a lump sum payment equal to, in the case of Ms. Wilson, her average annual base salary and average annual bonus for the previous two fiscal years, and in the case of Messrs. Moore and Devereux, two (2) times the value of such person's annual base salary and average annual bonus for the previous two fiscal years.

In the event of a change-in-control of the Company (as defined in the Employment Agreements), each such person would be entitled to receive a payment equal to two times the value of such executive's average base salary and average annual bonus for the most recent two fiscal years. In the cases of Ms. Wilson, if such payment results in the imposition of excise taxes under Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code), then her payment will either be (a) the full payment amount, or (b) such lesser amount that would result in no portion of such payment being subject to such excise tax, whichever of the foregoing amounts results in the receipt by such executive, on an after-tax basis, of the greatest amount of such payment. In the cases of Messrs. Moore and Devereux, if such payment results in the imposition of excise taxes under Section 4999 of the Code, such executive is entitled to receive an additional payment so that, after payment by such executive of all applicable excise taxes, such person retains an amount equal to the amount he would have retained had no excise tax been imposed.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

The Company has no reportable certain relationships or related transactions.

PERFORMANCE GRAPH

The following graph shows a comparison of cumulative total returns for Corinthian, the Russell 2000 Index and an index of peer companies selected by Corinthian during the period commencing on July 1, 1999 and ending on June 30, 2004. The comparison assumes $100 was invested on July 1, 1999 in the Common Stock, the Russell 2000 Index and the peer companies selected by Corinthian and assumes the reinvestment of all dividends, if any. The companies in the peer group, all of which are education companies, are weighted according to their market capitalization. Included in the peer group are: Apollo Group Inc., Career Education Corporation, DeVry, Inc., Education Management Corporation, ITT Educational Services, Inc. and Strayer Education, Inc. The performance graph takes into account the two-for-one stock splits of the Company's common stock effected in the form of stock dividends in December 2000, May 2002 and March 2004.

RATIFICATION OF APPOINTMENT OF AUDITORS

The Audit Committee has appointed Ernst & Young LLP, independent certified public accountants, as auditors of Corinthian's financial statements for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2005. Ernst & Young LLP has acted as auditors for Corinthian since February 2002. The Audit Committee has determined to afford stockholders the opportunity to express their opinions on the matter of auditors, and, accordingly, is submitting to the stockholders at the Annual Meeting a proposal to ratify the Audit Committee's appointment of Ernst & Young LLP. If a majority of the shares voted at the Annual Meeting, in person or by proxy, are not voted in favor of the ratification of the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP, the Audit Committee will interpret this as an instruction to seek other auditors. It is expected that representatives of Ernst & Young LLP will be present at the meeting and will be available to respond to appropriate questions. They will be given an opportunity to make a statement if they desire to do so.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT THE STOCKHOLDERS VOTE FOR THE RATIFICATION OF THE APPOINTMENT OF ERNST & YOUNG LLP AS THE INDEPENDENT AUDITORS OF CORINTHIAN'S FINANCIAL STATEMENTS FOR THE FISCAL YEAR ENDED JUNE 30, 2005.

MISCELLANEOUS AND OTHER MATTERS; SOLICITATION

The cost of this proxy solicitation will be borne by Corinthian. Corinthian may request banks, brokers, fiduciaries, custodians, nominees and certain other record holders to send proxies, proxy statements and other materials to their principals at Corinthian's expense. Such banks, brokers, fiduciaries, custodians, nominees and other record holders will be reimbursed by Corinthian for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses of solicitation.

PROPOSALS OF STOCKHOLDERS

Stockholder proposals intended to be considered at Corinthian's 2005 Annual Meeting of Stockholders must be received by the Secretary of Corinthian at its principal executive offices no later than June 15, 2005 in order to be considered for inclusion in Corinthian's Proxy Statement and form of proxy relating to that meeting. If a stockholder notifies Corinthian of such stockholder's intent to present a proposal for consideration at Corinthian's 2005 Annual Meeting of Stockholders after August 31, 2005, Corinthian, acting through the persons named as proxies in the proxy materials for such meeting, may exercise discretionary voting authority with respect to such proposal without including information regarding such proposal in its proxy materials.

OTHER BUSINESS

The Board of Directors is not aware of any other matters to be presented at the Annual Meeting other than those mentioned in Corinthian's Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders enclosed herewith. If any other matters are properly brought before the Annual Meeting, however, it is intended that the persons named in the proxy will vote as the Board of Directors directs.
