Tribunal Rules in Harmony's Favor: Offer Unconditional

Harmony is pleased to announce the decision today by the Competition Tribunal in support of Harmony's offer for Gold Fields. The decision will allow Harmony's offer for Gold Fields to proceed, subject to the condition that, for a period of twenty four months, there are no retrenchments of employees below the level of Patterson grade C or equivalent and no more than 1000 retrenchments of employees at or above that level as a result of the merger.

All conditions to Harmony's offer set forth in the prospectus and offer to exchange dated February 25, 2005 have now been satisfied and the offer for Gold Fields is therefore now unconditional in all respects, and Harmony will begin settling all acceptances of the subsequent offer as soon as practicable. The offer will remain open for tenders for a subsequent offering period expiring at 6.00 a.m. New York City time, on Friday, May 20, 2005, during which time withdrawal rights will not apply. Gold Fields shareholders who have not tendered their shares, but wish to do so, should tender their shares as soon as possible and in any event before expiration of the subsequent offering period on May 20, 2005.

Harmony continues to believe that a merger with Gold Fields is beneficial for both Harmony and Gold Fields shareholders. However it is not prepared to increase the offer ratio to reflect the current relative share prices of Harmony and Gold Fields, which it believes are at an unrealistic level of value.

The Board of Harmony continues to act in the best interests of Harmony shareholders and will continue to look at opportunities and investments as they appear.
