A Cautionary Note on Forward-Looking Statements:

This report contains statements (including figures) regarding Mitsui & Co., Ltd. (Mitsui)'s corporate strategies, objectives, and views of future developments that are forward-looking in nature and are not simply reiterations of historical facts. These statements are presented to inform stakeholders of the views of Mitsui's management but should not be relied on solely in making investment and other decisions. You should be aware that a number of important risk factors could lead to outcomes that differ materially from those presented in such forward-looking statements. These include, but are not limited to, (i) changes in economic conditions that may lead to unforeseen developments in markets for products handled by Mitsui, (ii) fluctuations in currency exchange rates that may cause unexpected deterioration in the value of transactions, (iii) adverse political developments that may create unavoidable delays or postponement of transactions and projects, (iv) changes in laws, regulations, or policies in any of the countries where Mitsui conducts its operations that may affect Mitsui's ability to fulfill its commitments, and (v) significant changes in the competitive environment. In the course of its operations, Mitsui adopts measures to control these and other types of risks, but this does not constitute a guarantee that such measures will be effective.

I. Highlights of Consolidated Financial Results for the Six-Month Period Ended September 30, 2008

Consolidated financial statements for the six month period ended September 30, 2008 and the corresponding six month period of the previous year are not reviewed by auditors.

1 Summary of Financial Results for the Six-Month Period Ended September 30, 2008

(1) Operating environment

The U.S. economy continued to expand steadily until this summer supported by strong exports as well as by better-than-expected consumer spending stimulated by the tax rebates made in spring despite the increases in prices of oil and food stuff. The Asian economy also continued to show strong growth boosted by expansion of domestic construction and capital investments as well as increases in exports, mainly in China, despite the fact that the inflation in the region has risen due to continued run-up in energy and food prices.

However, in September what began in the summer of 2007 with market turmoil surrounding U.S. subprime mortgages turned into a financial tsunami engulfing the largest U.S. insurance company and encompassing the largest U.S. bankruptcy. As confidence in the financial markets has declined and concerns about the U.S. and global economies have increased, equity prices have been volatile, falling sharply on net.

In response, governments and central banks made coordinated actions such as implementation of coordinated cuts in interest rates, injections of public funds into the financial institutions and provision of U.S. dollar funds to the interbank markets. Also, they implemented or started to study several additional countermeasures to stabilize the financial markets and to stimulate the economy. As a result, the financial markets slightly recovered their composites. As we have seen in oil where WTI oil price started to decline after reaching a historical high price of US$147.27 per barrel in July, major commodity prices continued to fall sharply. With commodity price now in retreat, inflation is likely to moderate. However together with the weakening of equity prices and tightening of credit conditions, the weakening of commodity prices have dampened business confidences in emerging and developing economies as well as in advanced economies and a market slowdown in global activity is inevitable.

In Japan, the business sentiment remained low due to continued run-up in crude oil prices since this spring. Although sales of flat screen TV sets and personal computers were relatively healthy, consumer spending in general grew at a sluggish pace caused by tightened personal consumption such as less eating-out, reflecting sharp increases in the price of oil. While a turnaround in construction-related investments which once declined due to the implementation of the amended Building Standard Law which took effect in 2007 finally became evident, the sales in the residential housing market continues to lag reflecting the slow down of the economy, and as a result, business confidence especially in the construction and real estate industries remains at a low level. On the other hand, exports to the United State as well as European countries turned into a downturn while automobile exports to commodity-exporting countries, such as Russia and the Middle East countries, increased sharply and exports to Asian countries, including China, of basic materials such as steel products were resilient.

In foreign exchange markets, the U.S. Dollar showed a small fluctuation during the period and the Euro started to depreciate rapidly after reaching the historical low of nearly 170 yen/Euro in July. Especially after the financial turmoil intensified in September, the Japanese Yen has been the preferred currency and appreciated as a result of applying the elimination method among other currencies as Japan is the biggest creditor nation and the financial system is relatively healthier. The Bank of Japan lowered its policy interest rate at the Monetary Policy Meeting held on October 31, 2008 for the first time since February 2007. Entering October, the overall environment surrounding us deteriorated further with uncertainty increasing significantly due to the arising of the global financial crisis, a further sharp decline in equity prices and accelerated appreciation of the Japanese yen in addition to the increased slowdown in Japan's economic activity.

(2) Operating Results

Mitsui & Co., Ltd. (Mitsui) and its subsidiaries (collectively the Group) posted consolidated net income of ¥240.5 billion, a decrease of ¥11.4 billion, or down 4.5%, from ¥251.9 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year. Major developments during the periods were as follows.

Mineral & Metal Resources and Energy producing businesses increased gross profit, equity in earnings of associated companies and dividend income all reflecting the continued run-up in prices of related commodities in the current year and additional equity productions. Machinery & Infrastructure Projects, Asia Pacific and Americas segments also recorded steady improvements in net income. On the other hand, the Consumer Service & IT segment recorded a downturn mainly due to write downs of inventories in the residential home business in Japan as well as weakening domestic market conditions.

Due to the sharp decline in equity markets, the Group recognized impairment losses of ¥24.7 billion including those of listed securities such as Mitsui Chemical Stock held by the Chemical Segment.

Substantial one-off gains on sale of securities and divestitures in the six month period of the previous year amounting to approximately ¥93 billion (after tax) including sales of the Group's stakes in mineral resources and energy businesses, such as Sesa Goa Limited in India, Sakhalin II in Russia, Wandoo Petroleum Pty. Ltd. in Australia and EBM(*1) in Brazil, gains on sale of aircraft held by Tombo Aviation, Inc. (United States) as well as a gain on land sale in Europe in the automotive field.

(3) Financial Condition

Total assets as of September 30, 2008 were ¥9.7 trillion, an increase of ¥0.2 trillion from ¥9.5 trillion as of March 31, 2008. Higher commodity prices resulted in an increase of ¥0.2 trillion in the current assets. Investments and plant, property and equipment (PPE) were level with the previous period due to an additional investment in Valepar S.A. (Brazil) and various capital expenditures for the expansions made by the Mineral & Metal Resources and the Energy segments offset by effects from lower stock prices on Japanese stock exchanges as well as net decrease in foreign currency translation adjustments due to the stronger Japanese Yen against Australian Dollar and Brazilian Real. Shareholders equity as of September 30, 2008 remained at ¥2.2 trillion, almost equivalent to that of March 31, 2008, mainly due to an increase in retained earnings offsetting by a decrease in unrealized holding gains on available for sale securities, as well as a notable decrease in the value of net assets denominated in foreign currencies held by foreign subsidiaries when translated into Japanese Yen. Net Debt-to-Equity Ratio (Net DER)(*1) as of September, 2008 was 1.32 times. Return on Equity (ROE) during the period on an annualized basis is computed as 21.8%.

(1*) See 3 Financial Condition and Cash Flows regarding Net DER .

(4) Cash Flow Statement

Reflecting a net increase in Mitsui's cash outflow of ¥253.3 billion due to the increased operating assets and liabilities including increased inventories and derivative asset, net cash provided by operating activities for the six month period ended September 30, 2008 was ¥61.9 billion despite the steady growth of operating income. Net cash used in investing activities for the six month period ended September 30, 2008 was ¥191.5 billion due mainly to an additional investment in Valepar S.A., and other expansion related expenditures for natural resources in the Mineral & Metal Resources and the Energy Segments. As a result, free cash flow (*1) for the six-month period ended September 30, 2008 was a net outflow of ¥129.6 billion.

2 Results of Operations

(1) Analysis on consolidated income statements

Gross Profit

Gross profit for the six month period ended September 30, 2008 was ¥628.7 billion, an increase of ¥150.2 billion, or 31.4%, from ¥478.5 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year as a result of the following:

The Energy Segment reported an increase of ¥65.9 billion in gross profit. This increase is attributable to solid performance by the oil & gas producing businesses and Mitsui Coal Holdings Pty. Ltd. (Australia), reflecting continued run-up in mineral resource prices and additional energy equity production.

The Mineral & Metal Resources Segment also reported an increase of ¥47.2 billion in gross profit. Reflecting higher iron ore prices, Mitsui Iron Ore Development Pty. Ltd. (Australia) and Mitsui Itochu Iron Pty. Ltd. (Australia) reported increases of ¥34.8 billion and ¥8.3 billion, respectively.

The Americas Segment reported an increase of ¥25.3 billion in gross profit. Supported by strong demand of animal feed additives, Novus International Inc.(United States) reported an increase of ¥16.5 billion.

Automotive and other machinery businesses, as well as the Iron & Steel Products and the Chemical Segments continued to show solid performance carrying over last year's positive trend especially in the emerging countries into this fiscal year despite the slowdown seen after the summer.

The Consumer Service & IT Segment reported a decrease in gross profit due to the write-down of inventories in the domestic residential home business as well as a slowdown in other business areas.

Selling, General and Administrative Expenses

Selling, general and administrative expenses for the six month period ended September 30, 2008 were ¥312.1 billion, an increase of ¥15.7 billion, from ¥296.4 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year.

The table below provides a breakdown of selling, general and administrative expenses used for our internal review.

Billions of Yen

	Personnel	Welfare	Travel	Entertainment	Communication	Others	Total
Six month period ended September 30, 2008	154.7	6.5	17.9	5.4	24.8	102.8	312.1

Change(*)	8.3	0.7	0.7	0.1	1.9	4.0	15.7

Personnel expenses were ¥154.7 billion, an increase of ¥8.3 billion from ¥146.4 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year. This increase is mainly attributable to Mitsui Marubeni Liquefied Gas Co., Ltd. (Japan) s merger with Marubeni Liquefied Gas Corporation (Japan), increased bonus expense for the traders at Mitsui & Co. Energy Risk Management Ltd. (United Kingdom) and increased sales volume at Novus International Inc.

Expenses in the category Others were ¥102.8 billion, an increase of ¥4.0 billion from ¥98.8 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year. The expenses increased at Mitsui Marubeni Liquefied Gas Co., Ltd. and at P.T. Bussan Auto Finance (Indonesia) showing an increase in promotion expenses.

The table below provides selling, general and administrative expenses by operating segment.

The Energy, the Logistics & Financial Markets and the Americas Segments reported increases of ¥5.9 billion, ¥3.8 billion and ¥3.8 billion, respectively. The major increases were reported by Mitsui Marubeni Liquefied Gas Co., Ltd. in the Energy Segment, by Mitsui Energy Risk Management Ltd. in the Logistics & Financial Markets Segment and by Novus International Inc. in the Americas Segment.

Provision for Doubtful Receivables

Edgar Filing: MITSUI & CO LTD - Form 6-K

Provision for doubtful receivables for the six month period ended September 30, 2008 was ¥5.8 billion, an increase of ¥3.2 billion, from ¥2.6 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year. Provisions for both periods consisted of an accumulation of reserves for individually small receivables.

Interest Expense, Net of Interest Income

Interest expense, net of interest income for the six month period ended September 30, 2008 was ¥18.4 billion, a decrease of ¥5.2 billion from ¥23.6 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year. Mitsui recorded a ¥1.2 billion increase reflecting higher Japanese Yen interest rates.

On the other hand, overseas subsidiaries reported a decrease in total due to lower U.S. Dollar interest rates.

The following table sets forth the periodic average of 3 month Libor of Japanese Yen and U.S. Dollar for the six month periods ended September 30, 2008 and 2007.

Periodic average of 3 month Libor (%p.a.)

	6 month Period Ended September 30,
	2008	2007
Japanese Yen	0.93	0.82
U.S. Dollar	2.99	5.38

Dividend Income

Dividend income for the six month period ended September 30, 2008 was ¥38.9 billion, an increase of ¥10.5 billion from ¥28.4 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year.

Dividends from LNG projects in Abu Dhabi, Qatar and Oman were ¥21.0 billion, an increase of ¥7.3 billion over for the corresponding six month period of the previous year. In addition, we received dividends of ¥2.9 billion for the first time from an LNG project in Equatorial Guinea which started commercial shipments in May 2007.

Gain on Sales of Securities

Gain on sales of securities for the six month period ended September 30, 2008 was ¥18.5 billion, a substantial decrease of ¥32.5 billion from ¥51.0 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year. While there were no major divestitures for the six month period ended September 30, 2008 other than a profit of ¥6.7 billion on sale of Mitsui's shareholding in Kyushu Oil Co., Ltd., the Group posted substantial gains for the corresponding six month period of the previous year as a result of several large scale divestitures such as the sale of a part of its stake in the Sakhalin II project and its whole stake in EBM in Brazil.

Loss on Write-Down of Securities

Loss on write-downs of securities for the six month periods ended September 30, 2008 was ¥24.7 billion, an increase of ¥12.0 billion from ¥12.7 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year.

After reaching ¥18,261.98 in July 2007 on high expectations for further growth in Japanese corporate earnings, the Nikkei Stock Average continued to move downwards reflecting declines in global equity prices and appreciation of Japanese Yen against major currencies, triggered by sub-prime mortgage crisis, and recorded ¥16,785.69 as of September 30, 2007 and then ¥12,525.54 as of March 31, 2008. In the current fiscal year the Nikkei Stock Average once resurged to ¥14,601.27 in June 2008, however, reversed to the downward trend over the summer. Following the bankruptcy of one of the largest investment banks in the United States, the Nikkei Stock Average plunged to ¥11,259.86 as of September 30, 2008.

The losses for the six month period ended September 30, 2008 included write-downs on listed shares for ¥21.9 billion. While the largest loss was the impairment loss of ¥10.3 billion on listed shares in Mitsui Chemicals, Inc. (Japan) at the Chemical Segment almost all segments recorded impairment losses on various listed securities.

The losses for the corresponding six month period ended September 30, 2007 included write-downs on listed shares for ¥9.7 billion, including ¥4.5 billion for Seven & i Holdings Co., Ltd. at the Foods & Retail Segment and ¥ 4.2 billion for Central Finance Co., Ltd. at the Logistics & Financial Markets Segment.

Gain on Disposal or Sales of Property and Equipment Net

Gain on disposal or sales of property and equipment net for the six month period ended September 30, 2008 was ¥5.2 billion, an increase of ¥4.0 billion from ¥1.2 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year. Major gain for the six month period ended September 30, 2008 was related to the sale of a lumber mill factory held by Portac Inc. (United States) at the Americas Segment and the sale of an office building previously held by Mitsui & Co. France S.A. at the Europe, the Middle East and Africa Segment.

Impairment Loss of Long-Lived Assets

Impairment loss of long-lived assets for the six month period ended September 30, 2008 was ¥1.1 billion, a decrease of ¥1.1 billion from ¥ 2.2 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year. Impairment losses for both periods consisted of individually small items.

Other Expense Net

Other Expense net for the six month period ended September 30, 2008 was ¥18.9 billion, an increase of expense by ¥20.4 billion, from a positive ¥1.5 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year. The major expenses for the six month period ended September 30, 2008 were foreign exchange losses and exploration expenses in the oil & gas business. Other expenses for the corresponding six month period of the previous year consisted of miscellaneous small items.

Minority Interests in Earnings of Subsidiaries

Minority interests in earnings of subsidiaries for the six month period ended September 30, 2008 was ¥30.7 billion, an increase of ¥10.0 billion from ¥20.7 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year. Major factors of the increase are related to the increase in minority interest at Novus International, Inc., Mitsui Oil Exploration Co., Ltd. (Japan) and Mitsui Itochu Iron Pty. Ltd.

Equity in Earnings of Associated Companies Net

Equity in earnings of associated companies net (after income tax effect) for the six month period ended September 30, 2008 was ¥85.9 billion, an increase of ¥13.5 billion from ¥72.4 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year as a result of followings:

Increase in earnings at Robe River Mining Company (Australia) reflecting an increase in iron ore prices.

Increase in earnings at Compania Minera Dona Ines de Collahuasi SCM (Chile) reflecting an increase in copper prices and additional production.

Decrease in loss of overseas power producing businesses which recorded mark-to-market evaluation losses on power contracts. The businesses recorded a larger amount of mark-to-market evaluation loss in the corresponding six month period of the previous year.

On the other hand, Valepar S.A. posted a decrease, reflecting a reduction in earnings at Companhia Vale do Rio Doce (Vale) mainly due to a sharp drop in nickel prices as well as appreciation of the Brazilian Real against the U.S. Dollar partially offset by an increase in iron ore prices.

Income from Discontinued Operations Net

Income from discontinued operations net (after income tax effect) for the six month period ended September 30, 2008 was nil, a decrease from ¥65.3 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year. Major discontinued operations for the corresponding six month period of the previous year were related to Sesa Goa Limited (India) of the Mineral & Metal Resources Segment, Tombo Aviation, Inc. of the Machinery & Infrastructure Projects Segment and Wandoo Petroleum Pty. Ltd. of the Energy Segment.

(2) Operating Results by Operating Segment

Based on the reorganization effective April 1, 2008, the following subsidiaries previously included in the Machinery & Infrastructure Projects and the Chemical Segments were transferred to the Americas Segment. The operating segment information for the six month period ended September 30, 2007 has been restated to conform to the current year presentation.

From the Machinery & Infrastructure Projects Segment: Mitsui Automotoriz S.A. (Peru), Road Machinery LLC (United States), Ellison Technologies Inc. (United States)

From the Chemical Segment:

Novus International, Inc. (*1), Fertilizantes Mitsui S.A. Industria e Comercio (Brazil)

(*1) Novus International, Inc. was transferred in the 4th quarter of the fiscal year ended March 31, 2008.

Iron & Steel Products Segment

Gross profit for the six month period ended September 30, 2008 was ¥34.3 billion, an increase of ¥2.6 billion from ¥31.7 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year. Supported by continued favorable demand, foreign trading transactions of various products such as steel sheets and plates for automobiles and shipbuilding, steel tubular products and line pipes for oil and gas development including transactions carried out by Regency Steel Asia Pte Ltd. (Singapore) to Asian markets, recorded solid results.

Furthermore, domestic sales of steel products were robust under tight market conditions and contributed to the increase in earnings as well, despite the slowdown seen after the summer.

Operating income for the six month period ended September 30, 2008 was ¥16.6 billion, an increase of ¥2.3 billion from ¥14.3 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year reflecting an increase in gross profit.

Equity in earnings of associated companies for the six month period ended September 30, 2008 was ¥2.4 billion, a decrease of ¥0.3 billion from ¥2.7 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year.

Net income for the six month period ended September 30, 2008 was ¥9.3 billion, a ¥2.6 billion decrease from ¥11.9 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year. The increase in operating income was offset by a decrease of gain on sales of securities and recognition of impairment loss on listed securities.

Mineral & Metal Resources Segment

Gross profit for the six month period ended September 30, 2008 was ¥91.8 billion, an increase of ¥47.2 billion from ¥44.6 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year.

The main factor contributing to the increase was the price increase at iron ore mining operations. Reflecting tight supply and demand balance in emerging and developing countries, especially in China and India, iron ore prices for the year ending March 31, 2009 increased substantially from prices for the year ended March 31, 2008. Following the settlement of Brazilian iron ore fines with increases by 65~71% in February 2008, Australian iron ore lump and fines prices were settled with an increase by 96.5% and 79.9% respectively between June and July 2008. Consequently increases in gross profit recorded by Mitsui Iron Ore Development and Mitsui Itochu Iron were ¥34.8 billion and ¥8.3 billion respectively. FOB prices of Brazilian iron ore and Australian iron ore had been at the same level as is the customary practice in this industry up to the year ended March 31, 2008. However, Australian iron ore producers insisted that different prices be applied, reflecting the ocean freight difference between Australia and Brazil to major steel making countries, China and Japan.

Furthermore, increases in prices of other mineral and metal resources such as iron and steel scrap, ferrous alloy reflecting tight market conditions also contributed to the increase in gross profit.

Operating income for the six month period ended September 30, 2008 was ¥ 84.3 billion, an increase of ¥48.1 billion from ¥36.2 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year, reflecting the increase in gross profit.

Equity in earnings of associated companies for the six month period ended September 30, 2008 was ¥51.5 billion, an increase of ¥12.8 billion from ¥38.7 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year. Major factors were as follows:

Earnings at Robe River Mining Company (Australia) were ¥14.7 billion, an increase of ¥9.4 billion from ¥5.3 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year reflecting increase in the iron ore prices.

Compania Minera Dona Ines de Collahuasi SCM (Chile) recorded earnings of ¥11.9 billion, an increase of ¥3.8 billion from ¥8.1 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year supported by firm copper prices and increased production.

Valepar S.A. (Brazil) posted earnings of ¥19.2 billion, reflecting a reduction in earnings at Vale mainly due to a drop in nickel prices as well as the appreciation of Brazilian Real against U.S. Dollar despite an increase in iron ore prices. This is a decrease of ¥1.7 billion from ¥20.9 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year.

Net income for the six month period ended September 30, 2008 was ¥92.0 billion, a decrease of ¥26.2 billion from ¥118.2 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year.

Increase in operating income and equity in earnings were offset by a significant rebound effect from gains from divestitures for the six month period ended September 30, 2007 of a ¥93.9 billion on the sale of its whole stake in Sesa Goa Limited (*1) and a ¥12.4 billion gain on the sale of shares in EBM, a Brazilian iron ore company.

(*1) In this Operating Results by Operating Segment , operating results of Sesa Goa have been included in and presented as continuing operations. In the consolidated statement of income, net income of ¥55.2 billion from the transaction of Sesa Goa for the corresponding six month period of the previous year is presented as income from discontinued operations (after income tax effect).

Machinery & Infrastructure Projects Segment

Gross profit for the six month period ended September 30, 2008 was ¥62.1 billion, an increase of ¥5.6 billion from ¥56.5 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year.

Overseas automotive related and construction machinery subsidiaries continued to show steady performance, particularly at the motorcycle retail finance company P.T. Bussan Auto Finance as well as subsidiaries in the emerging countries such as Chile and Peru as well as Russia which all reported higher gross profits.

Reflecting strong demand, ocean vessels and marine project businesses showed overall strong performance through marketing commercial vessels, trading in used vessels, operating and chartering vessels, and owning or leasing special energy-related vessels.

Infrastructure projects business fields reported an increase in gross profit attributable to the contribution of new subsidiaries and plant business partly offset by a decrease of gross profit due to remodeling and overhaul of rolling stock at leasing subsidiaries in Europe. Operating income for the six month period ended September 30, 2008 was ¥14.7 billion, an increase of ¥1.3 billion from ¥13.4 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year. The major factor of the increase was the increase in gross profit at the automotive-related business. The increases in the marine and aerospace and infrastructure projects businesses were offset by increases in selling, general and administrative expenses and in provision for doubtful receivables.

Equity in earnings of associated companies for the six month period ended September 30, 2008 was ¥7.8 billion, an increase of ¥6.2 billion from ¥1.6 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year. Major factors were as follows:

Overseas power producing businesses such as IPM UK Power Holdings Limited (Gibraltar), IPM Eagle LLP (United Kingdom) and P.T. Paiton Energy (Indonesia) reported equity in losses of ¥1.0 billion, an improvement of ¥4.0 billion, from equity in losses of ¥5.0 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year. This is mainly attributable to UK power producing operations recording a ¥5.0 billion mark-to-market evaluation loss related to long-term power contracts while Australian power producing operations recorded a ¥9.4 billion mark-to-market evaluation loss on long-term swap agreement for the corresponding six month period of the previous year.

This segment recorded a ¥2.1 billion equity in losses reflecting an other- than-temporary decline in share price of ASAHI TEC CORPORATION (Japan). The same segment recorded a loss of ¥4.8 billion for the same reason for the corresponding six month period of the previous year.

Other than the above-mentioned factors, reversal effect (rebound effect) of profit from sale of real estate at automotive related business for the corresponding six month period of the previous year and an increase in equity in earnings in gas distribution companies in Brazil was also recognized.

Net income for the six month period ended September 30, 2008 was ¥17.1 billion, an increase of ¥4.1 billion from ¥13.0 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year. In addition to the above-mentioned factors, this segment recorded a gain of ¥5.5 billion (*1) on the sale of leased aircraft held by Tombo Aviation Inc. for the corresponding six month period of the previous year.

(*1) In this Operating Results by Operating Segment, the gain on the sale of aircraft has been included in and presented as continuing operations. In the consolidated statement of income, the gain of ¥3.5 billion on the sale for the corresponding six month period of the previous year is presented as income from discontinued operations (after income tax effect).

Chemical Segment

Gross profit for the six month period ended September 30, 2008 was ¥55.1 billion, an increase of ¥2.2 billion from ¥52.9 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year. The principal developments in this segment were as follows:

Basic petrochemicals fields ranging from basic materials to mid-stream intermediate products recorded a slight decline in total. While P.T. Kaltim Pasifik Amoniak (Indonesia), a joint venture manufacturing and marketing company of ammonia, recorded an increase in gross profit due to higher price and an increase in sales volume, business of aromatics such as xylene recorded a decrease in gross profit due to a sharp decrease in margins following a rapid cost increase of raw material naphtha.

Supported by a globally strong demand for agriculture products, businesses of crop protection chemicals and fertilizer as well as sulfur and sulfuric acid, raw materials of fertilizer, remained robust although the sulfur and sulfuric acid businesses decelerated in the three month period ended September 30, 2008 due to a material change in market conditions.

Operating income for the six month period ended September 30, 2008 was ¥27.0 billion, an increase of ¥3.6 billion from ¥23.4 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year, reflecting increase in gross profit.

Equity in earnings of associated companies for the six month period ended September 30, 2008 was ¥3.6 billion, an increase of ¥0.7 billion from ¥2.9 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year, mainly due to the contribution of International Methanol Company (Saudi Arabia), a joint venture methanol manufacturing company.

Net income for the six month period ended September 30, 2008 was ¥4.0 billion, a decrease of ¥6.9 billion from ¥10.9 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year, despite a small improvement as above. This segment recorded a loss of ¥12.4 billion on write-down of securities including a ¥10.3 billion impairment loss on shares of Mitsui Chemicals, Inc.

Energy Segment

Japan Crude Cocktail (JCC) continued to rise since April 2007, reflecting strong demand and an influx of speculative money into the future markets and reached US$135 (preliminary figure) per barrel in August 2008.

The JCC price, which has been reflected in revenues of the Mitsui's oil and gas producing subsidiaries and associated companies, was US$101 (estimate figure) per barrel in average for the six month period ended September 30, 2008 compared to US$63 per barrel for the corresponding six month period of the previous year.

Gross profit for the six month period ended September 30, 2008 was ¥167.1 billion, an increase of ¥65.9 billion from ¥101.2 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year primarily due to the following:

There were contributions of ¥16.3 billion by Mitsui E&P Australia Pty Ltd (Australia) due to the start-up of oil production at Tui oil field in New Zealand in July 2007 as well as higher oil prices. Likewise, due to increased productions as well as higher oil prices Mitsui Oil Exploration Co., Ltd. (Japan) and MitEnergy Upstream LLC (United States) reported increases of ¥11.9 billion and ¥7.7 billion, respectively. On the other hand, Mittwell Energy Resources Pty., Ltd. (Australia) posted a decrease of ¥9.4 billion in gross profit due to decrease of shipments and an increase in condensate cost as a result of the revision of the purchase price from Japan Australia LNG (MIMI) Pty. Ltd during the six month period ended September 30, 2008.

The price for representative Australian premium hard coking coal for the year ending March 31, 2009 is quoted as US$300 per ton FOB, which is approximately tripled compared to the price for the year ended March 31, 2008. At the same time thermal coal prices are around doubled. For the six month period ended September 30, 2008, gross profit at Mitsui Coal Holdings Pty. Ltd. (Australia) increased by ¥30.2 billion, reflecting higher coal price.

Following the merger with Marubeni Liquefied Gas Corporation (Japan), Mitsui Marubeni Liquefied Gas Co., Ltd. reported an increase of ¥9.9 billion in gross profit due to the merger and increased sales volume.

Operating income for the six month period ended September 30, 2008 was ¥138.5 billion, an increase of ¥60.0 billion from ¥78.5 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year. An increase ¥7.2 billion of selling, general and administrative expenses caused by the merger with Marubeni Liquefied Gas Corporation was recorded at Mitsui Marubeni Liquefied Gas Co., Ltd.

Equity in earnings of associated companies for the six month period ended September 30, 2008 was ¥19.6 billion, a slight increase of ¥0.4 billion from ¥19.2 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year. Japan Australia LNG (MIMI) PTY. Ltd. (Australia) reported a slight decrease in earnings due to increased oil prices offset with reduced sales volume and appreciation of the Australian Dollar against the US Dollar.

Net income for the six month period ended September 30, 2008 was ¥83.1 billion, an increase of ¥10.6 billion from ¥72.5 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year. Besides the above-mentioned developments, there were following factors:

Dividends from LNG projects in Abu Dhabi, Qatar, Oman and Equatorial Guinea were ¥23.9 billion, an increase of ¥10.2 billion over the corresponding six month period of the previous year.

This segment recorded a profit of ¥6.7 billion on sale of its shareholding in Kyushu Oil Co., Ltd. On the other hand, in April 2007, this segment sold 50% of its stake in Sakhalin Energy Investment Company Ltd. (Bermuda) and recorded the relevant gains on sale of the shares for the corresponding six month period of the previous year.

This segment recorded a ¥20.4 billion gain (pre-tax) on the sale of its entire oil and gas producing interests(*2) in Wandoo Petroleum Pty. Ltd. (Mitsui's profit share 71.7%) for the six month period ended September 30, 2007.

Other expense increased by ¥12.2 billion due mainly to foreign exchange losses and additional exploration costs. The major factor for the six month period ended September 30, 2008 was exploration costs of ¥4.3 billion at Mitsui E&P Australia Pty Limited (Australia).

- (*1) Positive impact of the increase in condensate sales price for the six month period ended September 30, 2008 at Japan Australia LNG (MIMI) Pty. Ltd. is not reflected timely due to a three-month time lag in consolidating its earnings into our operating results and will be reflected in the following three-month period.
- (*2) In this Operating Results by Operating Segment, the gain on the sale of the entire oil and gas producing interests in Wandoo Petroleum Pty. Ltd. has been included in and presented as continuing operations. In the consolidated statement of income, the gain of ¥5.5 billion on the sale for the corresponding six month period of the previous year is presented as income from discontinued operations (after income tax effect).

Foods & Retail Segment

Gross profit for the six month period ended September 30, 2008 was ¥42.1 billion, an increase of ¥0.3 billion from ¥41.8 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year. Under business circumstances where inflation of raw material costs has risen, food raw material business transactions showed firm performance. In addition, the segment has been taking various cost reduction initiatives in the domestic food distribution and retail operations under severe conditions in terms of profitability. The major developments were as follows:

In the food raw material business, broiler business displayed robust performance due to increases in prices of the products in addition to steady results of soybeans and wheat transactions.

MITSUI FOODS CO., LTD (Japan) recorded an increase of ¥0.5 billion over the corresponding six month period of the previous year due to improved margins gained through restructuring unprofitable businesses.

Mitsui Norin Co.,Ltd. (Japan) reported a decrease of ¥1.0 billion in gross profit level due to the weaker market of whole sales of food product and raw materials of beverages in addition to a loss on write down of inventories.

Operating income for the six month period ended September 30, 2008 was ¥10.5 billion, an increase of ¥1.4 billion from ¥9.1 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year. MITSUI FOODS CO., LTD. showed a slight improvement in operating income and Mitsui Norin Co., Ltd. reported a decrease in operating income although the decrease in gross profit was partly offset by a slight improvement in selling, general and administrative expenses.

Equity in earnings of associated companies for the six month period ended September 30, 2008 was ¥1.0 billion, a ¥0.2 billion increase from ¥0.8 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year.

Reflecting these developments, net income for the six month period ended September 30, 2008 was ¥5.4 billion, an increase of ¥0.3 billion from ¥5.1 billion for the corresponding six month period of the previous year. Other than the above-mentioned factors there are following factors:

Australian Dollar and Brazilian Real against Japanese Yen, and net decrease in unrealized holding gains on available-for-sale securities by ¥52.4 billion reflecting a sharp decline in equity markets.

As a result, shareholders' equity to total assets ratio as of September 30, 2008 was 23.0%, a 0.1 percentage point improvement from 22.9% as of March 31, 2008. Net interest bearing debt, or interest bearing debt minus cash and cash equivalents and time deposits as of September 30, 2008 was ¥2,936.5 billion, an increase of ¥162.5 billion from ¥2,774.0 billion as of March 31, 2008. Net debt-to-equity ratio as of September 30, 2008 was 1.32 times, 0.05 point higher from 1.27 times as of March 31, 2008.

(*)Net Debt-to-Equity Ratio

We refer to Net Debt-to-Equity Ratio (Net DER) in this flash report. Net DER is comprised of net interest bearing debt divided by shareholders equity.

Net interest bearing debt is defined as interest bearing debt less cash and cash equivalents and time deposits. Our interest bearing debt primarily consists of long term debt, less current maturities, which are not readily repayable. In order to flexibly meet capital requirements and to prepare for future debt-service requirements in case of unforeseen deteriorations in financial markets, currently we hold a relatively high level of cash and cash equivalents reflecting the current financial market conditions and future capital requirements.

Under this policy, Net DER is a useful internal measure for our management to review the balance between:

our capacity to meet debt repayments; and leverage to improve return on equity in our capital structure.

This measure does not recognize the fact that cash and cash equivalents and time deposits may not be available completely for debt repayments, but cash and cash equivalents and time deposits may be required for operational needs including certain contractual obligations or capital expenditure.

(2) Operating Results by Operating Segment

Iron & Steel Products Segment

Gross profit for the three month period ended September 30, 2008 was ¥16.7 billion, an increase of ¥0.7 billion from ¥16.0 billion for the corresponding three month period of the previous year. Slowdown of Regency Steel Asia Pte Ltd. (Singapore) reflecting the downturn of economic activity in the region was offset by solid sales of steel products in the Japanese domestic market.

Operating income for the three month period ended September 30, 2008 was ¥7.6 billion, an increase of ¥0.4 billion from ¥7.2 billion for the corresponding three month period of the previous year reflecting an increase in gross profit.

Equity in earnings of associated companies for the three month period ended September 30, 2008 was ¥1.5 billion, an increase of ¥0.1 billion from ¥1.4 billion for the corresponding three month period of the previous year.

Net income for the three month period ended September 30, 2008 was ¥3.5 billion, a decrease of ¥2.5 billion from ¥6.0 billion for the corresponding three month period of the previous year. The increase in operating income was offset by an impairment loss on listed shares in Nisshin Steel Co., Ltd and as by the reversal effect of the profit on sales of listed securities recognized for the corresponding three month period of the previous year.

Mineral & Metal Resources Segment

Gross profit for the three month period ended September 30, 2008 was ¥50.8 billion, an increase of ¥27.2 billion from ¥23.6 billion for the corresponding three month period of the previous year.

The main factor contributing to the increase was the increase in iron ore annual contract prices. Reflecting tight supply and demand balance in emerging and developing economies, especially in China and India, iron ore prices for the year ending March 31, 2009 increased substantially from the year ended March 31, 2008.

Following the settlement of Brazilian iron ore fines with increases by 65~71% in February 2008, Australian iron ore lump and fines prices were settled with an increase by 96.5% and 79.9% respectively between June and July 2008.

Edgar Filing: MITSUI & CO LTD - Form 6-K

Part of the price increases achieved is not reflected into the operating results for the three month period ended June 30, 2008, because the final settlement of the price negotiation was delayed until July and reflected for the three month period ended September 30, 2008. Consequently increases in gross profit recorded by Mitsui Iron Ore Development Pty. Ltd. and Mitsui Itochu Iron Pty. Ltd. were ¥18.3 billion and ¥7.5 billion respectively.

Operating income for the three month period ended September 30, 2008 was ¥46.5 billion, an increase of ¥27.0 billion from ¥19.5 billion for the corresponding three month period of the previous year, reflecting increase in gross profit.

Equity in earnings of associated companies for the three month period ended September 30, 2008 was ¥31.3 billion, an increase of ¥6.6 billion from ¥24.7 billion for the corresponding three month period of the previous year. Major factors were as follows:

Earnings at Robe River Mining Company, which is an investment vehicle company for iron ore mining business in Australia, were ¥8.2 billion, an increase of ¥5.2 billion from ¥3.0 billion for the corresponding three month period of the previous year reflecting increase in the iron ore prices.

Compania Minera Dona Ines de Collahuasi SCM (Chile) recorded earnings of ¥5.3 billion, level with earnings in the corresponding three month period of the previous year. An increase in earnings supported by firm copper price was offset by the appreciation of Japanese Yen against U.S. Dollar and the cost increase.

Valepar S.A. (Brazil), which is a holding company of Vale (Companhia Vale do Rio Doce), a mineral resource company in Brazil, posted earnings of ¥13.9 billion an increase of ¥0.4 billion from ¥13.5 billion for the corresponding three month period of the previous year. The increase in earnings which is attributable to part of the price increases not reflected in the three month period ended June 30, 2008 but reflected in the earnings for the three month period ended September 30, 2008 due to its different fiscal year end and was almost offset mainly due to a drop in nickel prices as well as the appreciation of the Brazilian Real against the U.S. Dollar.

Net income for the three month period ended September 30, 2008 was ¥55.6 billion, an increase of ¥22.2 billion from ¥33.4 billion for the corresponding three month period of the previous year.

Machinery & Infrastructure Projects Segment

Gross profit for the three month period ended September 30, 2008 was ¥33.9 billion, an increase of ¥4.9 billion from ¥29.0 billion for the corresponding three month period of the previous year.

Overseas automotive-related and construction machinery subsidiaries continued to show steady performance, particularly at the motorcycle retail finance company P.T. Bussan Auto Finance (Indonesia) reporting higher gross profit.

Reflecting strong demand, marine business showed overall strong performance through marketing commercial vessels, trading in used vessels, operating and chartering vessels, and owning or leasing special energy-related vessels.

In infrastructure projects business fields, engineering, procurement and construction business recorded an increase in gross profit attributable to the contribution from new projects.

Operating income for the three month period ended September 30, 2008 was ¥8.7 billion, an increase of ¥2.3 billion from ¥6.4 billion for the corresponding three month period of the previous year. The increases in gross profit at the infrastructure projects businesses were offset by increases in selling, general and administrative expenses and in provision for doubtful receivables at the infrastructure projects and marine businesses.

Equity in earnings of associated companies for the three month period ended September 30, 2008 was a loss of ¥1.9 billion, an improvement of ¥1.7 billion from loss of ¥3.6 billion for the corresponding three month period of the previous year.

Overseas power producing businesses such as IPM UK Power Holdings Limited (Gibraltar) and IPM Eagle LLP (United Kingdom) and P.T. Paiton Energy (Indonesia) reported a ¥5.1 billion loss in total, an improvement of ¥0.7 billion from a ¥5.8 billion loss for the corresponding three month period of the previous year. The major factors of this improvement are as follows: Australian power producing operation recorded a mark-to-market evaluation loss of ¥7.5 billion on power contracts for the corresponding three month period of the previous year, while UK power producing operations recorded a mark-to-market evaluation loss of ¥5.2 billion on power contracts at their power generating operations for the three month period ended September 30, 2008.

This segment recorded a ¥2.1 billion equity in loss reflecting an other-than-temporary decline in share in ASAHI TECH CORPORATION (Japan) for the three month period ended September 30, 2008 and a ¥4.8 billion equity in loss reflecting the same for the corresponding three month period of the previous year.

Net income for the three month period ended September 30, 2008 was ¥1.2 billion, an improvement of ¥1.8 billion from a loss of ¥0.6 billion for the corresponding three month period of the previous year.

Chemical Segment

Gross profit was ¥27.6 billion, an increase of ¥1.7 billion from ¥25.9 billion for the corresponding three month period of the previous year. The principal developments in this segment were as follows:

Basic petrochemicals businesses ranging from basic materials to mid-stream intermediate products recorded an increase in earnings in total. P.T. Kaltim Pasifik Amoniak (Indonesia), a joint venture manufacturing and marketing company of ammonia recorded an increase of ¥4.1 billion in gross profit due to higher price and an increase in sales volume. Business of aromatics such as xylene recorded a decrease in gross profit due to a sharp decrease in margins following a rapid cost increase of raw material naphtha.

Supported by a globally strong demand for agriculture products, businesses of crop protection chemicals and fertilizer remained robust. Operating income for the three month period ended September 30, 2008 was ¥13.5 billion, an increase of ¥2.7 billion from ¥10.8 billion for the corresponding three month period of the previous year, reflecting increase in gross profit.

Equity in earnings of associated companies for the three month period ended September 30, 2008 was ¥1.3 billion, an increase of ¥0.3 billion from ¥1.0 billion for the corresponding three month period of the previous year, mainly due to the contribution of International Methanol Company (Saudi Arabia), a joint venture methanol manufacturing company.

Net income for the three month period ended September 30, 2008 was ¥2.5 billion, a decrease of ¥1.4 billion from ¥3.9 billion for the corresponding three month period of the previous year. Despite the small improvement mentioned hereinabove, this segment recorded a ¥3.9 billion impairment loss in several listed securities including a ¥2.3 billion impairment loss in securities in Mitsui Chemicals.

Energy Segment

Japan Crude Cocktail (JCC) continued to rise reflecting strong demand and an influx of speculative money into the future markets and reached US$135 (preliminary figure) per barrel in August 2008.

There was a reversal effect of ¥4.1 billion loss on the write-down of inventories reflecting the decline in the residential market for MBK Real Estate Ltd. (United States) for the corresponding three month period of the previous year. Operating income for the three month period ended September 30, 2008 was ¥25.5 billion, an increase of ¥24.8 billion from ¥0.7 billion for the corresponding three month period of the previous year reflecting the large increase of gross profit. Novus International Inc. reported an increase in personnel expense.

Equity in earnings of associated companies for the three month period ended September 30, 2008 was ¥0.8 billion, a ¥0.3 billion decrease from ¥1.1 billion for the corresponding three month period of the previous year.

Net income for the three month period ended September 30, 2008 was ¥11.8 billion, an increase of ¥11.4 billion from ¥0.4 billion for the corresponding three month period of the previous year. In addition to above factors, interest expense, net of interest income, decreased by ¥2.4 billion at Mitsui & Co. (U.S.A.), Inc. and its subsidiaries resulting from lower U.S. Dollar interest rates.

Europe, the Middle East and Africa Segment

Gross profit for the three month period ended September 30, 2008 was ¥8.9 billion, an increase of ¥1.5 billion from ¥7.4 billion for the corresponding three month period of the previous year, reflecting a slight increase in gross profit of the energy business.

This segment recorded an operating profit of ¥2.1 billion for the three month period ended September 30, 2008, a ¥0.8 billion increase from ¥1.3 billion for the corresponding three month period of the previous year, reflecting an increase in gross profit.

Net income for the three month period ended September 30, 2008 was ¥2.6 billion, a decrease of ¥0.2 billion from ¥2.8 billion for the corresponding three month period of the previous year.

Asia Pacific Segment

Gross profit for the three month period ended September 30, 2008 was ¥9.5 billion, an increase of ¥1.0 billion from ¥8.5 billion for the corresponding three month period of the previous year.

Operating income for the three month period ended September 30, 2008 was ¥1.8 billion, a decrease of ¥0.6 billion from ¥2.4 billion for the corresponding three month period of the previous year, reflecting increases mainly in personnel expenses.

Net income for the three month period ended September 30, 2008 was ¥13.0 billion, an increase of ¥5.9 billion from ¥7.1 billion for the corresponding three month period of the previous year. The main factor of the increase in net income is attributable to the segment's minority interest in Mitsui Iron Ore Development Pty. Ltd. and Mitsui Coal Holdings Pty. Ltd.

II. Management Policies

1. Management strategy and progress report

1) Medium-Term Management Outlook

In May 2006 we, Mitsui and its subsidiaries, established our Medium-term Management Outlook, announced, based on a company-wide consideration of business models that we should seek to develop over the next three to five years, namely the period of 2009 to 2011. The key elements of the approach outlined in this plan are:

Building a business portfolio that meets the needs of our stakeholders, including shareholders, customers and society

Leveraging business engineering capabilities across Mitsui and its subsidiaries and optimizing resource allocation

Prioritizing the development of human resources. In this respect we intend to build on our existing values of challenge and opportunity and freedom and open-mindedness with additional emphasis on fairness, humbleness and compliance. We intend to form and foster a diverse pool of capable personnel

(1) Corporate vision towards the period of 2009 to 2011 quantitative summary

Looking ahead three to five years from year of 2006, risks in the operating environment include political, economic and environmental factors. Notwithstanding these risks, we believe that the currently favorable operating environment with simultaneous growth in different regions of the world, and strong upstream markets for mineral resources, energy and materials is likely to continue. Based on this assumption, we envisage achieving the parameters over the period of 2009 to 2011 as illustrated in the chart herein below.

(2) Four key strategies of the Medium-term Management Outlook

(a) Development of Strategic Business Portfolio

i) Business strategy for achieving corporate vision towards the period of 2009 to 2011

We have developed key policies based on dividing up our business into four areas, as outlined below.

Mineral Resources & Energy (1) Complete the development of large-scale projects such as Sakhalin II and the Enfield Oil Field. Expand existing projects such as the LNG project in Western Australia and iron ore and coal production in Australia

(2) Ensure the liquidity of our equity production interests and carry out recycling

Global Marketing Networks (3) Invest selectively in emerging regions and new business domains
(1) Actively invest in our operating base with the objective of strengthening our various logistics and IT capabilities and focus allocation of human resources to growth fields

(particularly steel products, machinery and chemical products)

Edgar Filing: MITSUI & CO LTD - Form 6-K

(2) Strengthen partnerships with quality customers and evolve our SCM capabilities

Consumer Services

(3) Strengthen initiatives in growth region Asia and the automotive, IT and energy business fields

(1) Pursue initiatives in media and information, healthcare and medical, and senior living industries

Infrastructure

(2) Develop new consumer-oriented businesses and strengthen related marketing and logistics business

(1) Develop business portfolio positioning power generation, water supply, energy and transportation as strategic industrial fields

(2) Pursue synergies with other business areas

ii) Developing business portfolio for achieving corporate vision; Focused allocation of management resources (financial and human)

Under the coordination of the Portfolio Management Committee that we established in April 2006, we will continue to refine our investment evaluation criteria, and seek to recycle existing investments, by reviewing their viability and taking into account the need to generate cash flow for new investments. Furthermore, accompanying a review of our business portfolio, we will allocate and shift human resources from a group-wide perspective in a more dynamic fashion.

Through this company-wide portfolio strategy, we expected to make new investments totaling ¥800 billion in the first two years of the Medium-term Management Outlook, and divest assets totaling ¥100-200 billion.

(b) Evolution of business models leveraging business engineering capabilities

We will focus on consumer-oriented services in Japan that show high potential for growth. We will pursue business development in new fields, such as the development of environment businesses such as emission rights trading, recycling, and new energy businesses such as biomass ethanol. We will seek to leverage across the whole operating segments our strengths in logistics, finance and IT, and actively promote joint operations among business units.

(c) Implementation of global strategies

We will strengthen our strategy for the Asian market. We will also develop a broad, cross-border product strategy based on the regional headquarters we have created for the Americas, Europe and Asia. We will employ and foster the development of a diverse group of personnel at overseas trading and other subsidiaries and associated companies around the world.

(d) Reinforcing the management framework to support growth

Under our revised corporate staff organization we are pursuing an efficient risk management approach.

We are strengthening our corporate governance system and internal controls framework, such as by increasing external directors and external corporate auditors, and working to ensure compliance with Section 404 of the U.S. Sarbanes-Oxley Act (SOX-404). We are developing as a business that meets the needs of customers and society, while engaging in CSR-oriented management worthy of Mitsui, such as through engaging in environmental issues and contributing to society.

2) Progress on Medium-Term Management Outlook

(1) Progress on key initiatives

(a) Development of Strategic Business Portfolio

i) Progress on investment plans and key policies in each business area

At the beginning of the fiscal year ended March 31, 2008, Mitsui introduced a new monitoring system linked more closely to consolidated cash flow statements to incorporate not only the large-scale investments but also small- to middle-sized investments, loans and leases. With this new monitoring method, we set up a new outlook for our investments and loans to be ¥800 billion for the single year ending March 31, 2008.

Consequently during this fiscal year, we executed new investments and loans of approximately ¥710 billion, consisting of ¥310 billion in Mineral Resources & Energy, ¥220 billion in Global Marketing Networks, ¥110 billion in Consumer Services and ¥70 billion in Infrastructure, while we collected approximately ¥610 billion through asset disposals including proceeds from large scale divestitures in the Mineral Resources & Energy area.

For the year ending March 31, 2009, we forecast total investing cash outflow to be approximately ¥700 billion, reflecting a favorable investing environment. Included in the guidance are investments in Mineral Resources and Energy amounting to ¥350 billion mainly for expansion of existing projects. The remainder includes investments of ¥150-200 billion in Global Marketing Networks, ¥50-100 billion in Consumer Services and ¥100 billion in Infrastructure. At the same time, we forecast a total of ¥270 billion in asset divestitures during the period.

During the six month period ended September 30, 2008, we executed new investments and loans of approximately ¥320 billion. Concurrently, we have been focusing on divestitures of outstanding investments and fixed assets and collected approximately ¥120 billion. We made progress in each of the four business areas presented in our Medium-term Management Outlook during the six month period ended September 30, 2008 as follows:

In the Mineral Resources & Energy business area, we continuously focused on large-scale projects already under development as well as expansion of existing projects.

We made an additional investment in the Enfield oil field in Australia in order to cope with the sand breakthrough observed since December 2007, and to boost output capacity. As a result of the work-over program completed in July 2008, the oil field recorded an average production of 43,000 barrel per day for the three month period ended September 30, 2008 from an average production of 27,000 barrel per day for the six month period ended June 30, 2008. The development work on the Vincent oil field adjacent to the Enfield oil field was completed in August 2008 and started commercial production. Including the developments in the aforementioned two oil fields, we executed capital investments amounting to ¥40 billion in total in the oil and gas business.

At the same time, we continued development of our oil and gas business and, as a result the fifth train of the Northwest Shelf LNG JV began its commercial production in July 2008.

In addition, we invested ¥15.3 billion additionally in the Sakhalin II project.

In July, Vale announced a capital increase to fund its plan to expand its existing production capacity of iron ore and non ferrous metals as well as to make strategic asset acquisitions. Mitsui made a contribution of ¥78.4 billion into Valepar S.A., which has controlling ownership at Vale, on a pro rata basis. In Australian iron ore and coal mining activities, we invested a total of ¥23.7 billion and ¥7.0 billion, respectively, as part of our plan to increase production capacity.

Seeking to further expand our worldwide scrap and other recycling business opportunities, we acquired additional shares in Sims Group Limited, a metal recycler with various sites across four continents, for a total sum of ¥23.0 billion between August and September, 2008. As a result, our total investment in Sims Group Limited increased to ¥93.6 billion and the ownership percentage became 19.999%. On the other hand, we sold business assets of Pacific Coast Recycling LLC (United States), a subsidiary located in the west coast of the United States, to an associated company of Sims Group to consolidate the U.S. metal scrap business into Sims Group Limited. At the same time, in the Mineral Resources & Energy business area, we received a redemption of ¥8.3 billion from Sakhalin II, which had obtained proceeds from a project finance, and proceeds from the sale of shares in Kyushu Oil Co., Ltd for ¥8.2 billion.

In the Global Marketing Networks business area, incorporating businesses such as iron & steel products, automotives and chemicals, we took further steps to strengthen our global operating network, especially in the growing region Asia and in the automotive area. In the last fiscal year Mitsui established the Automotive Strategy Department and started to take on various business initiatives from procurement of parts to retail finance in the value chain of the automotive area. We acquired a 30% ownership in a motorcycle manufacturing subsidiary of Yamaha in India aiming to bring into India the successful business experiences we have with Yamaha in Indonesia. At the same time, a retail finance company for the sales of Yamaha motorcycles in India, in which we have 64% ownership interest, started business in April 2008. We are also working on a development of a carport in Turkey. In the steel products business, we consolidated all the steel sheets and plates business in the United States into Steel Technologies, Inc. to establish a platform and took initiatives to strengthen the profitability of the business. In Japan, we also consolidated our four domestic steel marketing and distribution subsidiaries into Mitsui & Co. Steel Ltd. in April 2008. The Chemical Segment also engaged in the same reorganization activities.

In the Consumer Services business area, we are continuing to build our operations in promising new business domains. In July 2008, we acquired a 47% interest in MED 3000 Group Inc. (United States), a management service provider for physicians and medical institutions, for ¥6.5 billion. We aim to expand the management service business for physicians and medical institutions in the United States as well as in the world. In the foods and retail field, we are making investments to secure a stable supply of overseas food upstream sources, while we have been taking measures to improve the performance and competitiveness of domestic subsidiaries including MITSUI FOODS CO., LTD. We also continued to take necessary measures to increase production capacities in the projects acquired in the previous fiscal year. In addition, we increased our stake in Synlait Limited, a dairy products company in New Zealand, allowing us to consolidate the company as an associated company. We also made an additional investment in a Brazilian agricultural business, Multigrain A.G. in October 2008.

In the Infrastructure Project business area, our efforts were directed at selectively investing in superior project opportunities. In the overseas power generation business, we further strengthened our strategic alliance with International Power plc. (United Kingdom). During the six month period ended September 30, 2008, we strengthened the financial standing of a subsidiary of IPM Eagle LLP, which is a joint venture company with International Power plc. We, together with International Power plc., made an additional investment of ¥9.6 billion based on the shareholding ratio in order for the subsidiary to make a redemption of preferred stock of ¥32.7 billion to us.

In July 2008, we acquired a Mexican water/wastewater treatment engineering and construction company jointly with Toyo Engineering Corporation (Japan), an associated company of Mitsui, to expand the water treatment business globally. In addition, we are expanding the rolling stock leasing business in Americas and Europe.

ii) Free Cash Flow

As discussed above, during the year ended March 31, 2008, we executed new investments and loans amounting to approximately ¥710 billion and collected approximately ¥610 billion mainly from divestitures of large scale investments in the Mineral Resources & Energy area. As a result, free cash flow, or sum of net cash provided by operating activities and net cash used in investing activities, turned to a positive amount of $311 billion for the first time since the year ended March 31, 2003. However, except for the two large scale divestitures of Sesa Goa and Sakhalin II, the free cash flow for the year ended March 31, 2008 was virtually break-even.

Our Medium-term Management Outlook originally aimed to achieve a positive free cash flow for the year ending March 31, 2009 as a key milestone event. For the year ending March 31, 2009, we expect the free cash flow to be break-even or marginally positive resulting from a positive operating cash inflow offset by a continuous negative investing cash outflow.

Compared to the assumptions in the Mid-term Management Outlook, there have been certain delays in operations at major projects such as Sakhalin II, the Enfield oil field and the Dawson coal mine, which can be regarded as major reasons for a delay in achieving a stable positive free cash flow trend.

iii) Continuous review of our business portfolio based on Mitsui's business strategy

Twice a year, Mitsui's management examines each business unit's development of their portfolio strategy including asset recycling, referring to key performance indicators on subsidiaries and associated companies; and other investments as well according to Mitsui's guideline for investment in and withdrawal from business operations. The Portfolio Management Committee has developed and maintained the relevant data and guidelines.

In the previous fiscal year, the major emphasis was put on the companywide re-allocation of human resources and all the business domains in each business division were classified into three categories, Focus, Streamlining and Downsizing and Review. We planned to reallocate 100 junior or mid-level staffs within Mitsui into Focus areas, strategic business domains, across the business segments and implemented it on April 1, 2008. In the current fiscal year we are monitoring the progress of the re-allocation and making follow-up actions. We continue to implement measures towards the mobilization of human resources.

To implement a company-wide strategy on certain key products and services, we organized divisions which specialize in the agri-food business and solar business following the creation of new divisions in the automotive and related industries and the medical and healthcare industry in the previous fiscal year.

(b) Evolution of our new business models leveraging business engineering capabilities

In the recycling business field, we acquired shares in Sims Group Limited, the world largest metal recycler and eco-solution company, in June 2007 and between August and September, 2008. As a result, our ownership percentage became 19.9%. We contribute to an industrial solution to environmental problems through the investment in Sims Group Limited.

In the biomass and energy-related field, we began a feasibility study to commercialize the production and sale of bio-ethanol in collaboration with Petrobras of Brazil in April 2006. During the six month period ended September 30, 2008, as the first joint venture project with Petrobras in this field, we decided to invest in a bio-ethanol production and sale business using Brazilian sugarcane as a raw material. We are also coordinating cross-divisional efforts with regard to possibilities in areas such as the distribution and trading of biodiesel and bioethanol in Europe as well as investment in manufacturing operations in the United States.

(c) Implementation of global strategy

We refined the Regional Business Unit system in April 2007 by expanding Europe to include the Middle East and Africa, while expanding Asia to include Oceania. We aim to further promote global businesses by developing the business activities having strong footholds in each country and economy utilizing the three regional business units as a core and by interacting with each other among the regions. To promote this globalization, a key factor is to foster and to deploy local staff in the countries and regions, where we are developing the businesses. As the first step, we adopted systems in each regional headquarters to foster talented employees and increase the diversity of our human resources within the regional business unit. Furthermore, between the Human Resources & General Affairs Division in Tokyo and each regional business unit headquarters, we are studying ways to implement concrete measures to develop and deploy quality personnel from a wider pool of talent on a global scale and to promote the diversity of our human resources from all Mitsui's point of view.

(2) Progress toward quantitative targets

(a) Operating results for the six month period ended September 30, 2008

Net income for the six month period ended September 30, 2008 was ¥240.5 billion. See I. Highlights of Consolidated Financial Results for the Six Month Period Ended September 30, 2008 for detailed information by operating segment.

(b) Annual business plan for the year ending March 31, 2009

i) Forecast net income for the year ending March 31, 2009

We forecast our net income for the year ending March 31, 2009 to be ¥460 billion. Major components of our forecasted consolidated income statements for the year ending March 31, 2009 are set forth below.

Net income	460.0	460.0	0.0

Assumed foreign exchange rates for the year ending March 31, 2009 are ¥100/US$, ¥70/AU$ and ¥48/BRL, while average foreign exchange rates for the six month period ended September 30, 2008 were ¥106.23/US$, ¥96.65/AU$ and ¥63.55/BRL. Also, we assume the oil price will continue to be US$68/Barrel through March 31, 2009, resulting in an average oil price of US$104/Barrel applicable to our financial results for the six month period ending March 31, 2009.

Despite the deceleration in the real economy resulting from the financial crisis and sharp declines in commodity prices seen after this summer, gross profit is expected to be ¥1,160.0 billion, an increase of ¥80.0 billion from ¥1,080.0 billion in the original forecast, reflecting the higher price in the Mineral Resources & Energy area. Iron ore and coal prices are contracted on an annual basis while oil price is reflected in our financial results with a certain time lag. Interest expense (net) is expected to be ¥45.0 billion, equivalent to that of the original forecast, considering trends of lowering policy interest rates offset with increases in spreads in commercial interest rates due to the tightening credit conditions. We anticipate a loss of ¥25.0 billion in gains from the sales of securities; property, plants and equipment and other assets, a decrease of ¥40.0 billion from net profit of ¥15.0 billion in the original plan, due to recognition of loss on write down of securities including impairment loss on listed securities as well as foreign exchange loss. Minority interest is expected to be a loss of ¥50.0 billion, a decrease of ¥10.0 billion from a loss of ¥40.0 billion in the original forecast, reflecting performance of Mitsui Oil Exploration Co., Ltd. and Novus International Inc. Equity in earnings of associated companies is expected to be ¥200.0 billion, a decrease of ¥20.0 billion from ¥220.0 billion in the original forecast, taking into consideration impairment losses on listed securities as well as appreciation of the Japanese Yen against the Australian Dollar and Brazilian Real.

As a result, net income for the year ending March 31, 2009 is expected to be ¥460.0 billion, the same level as originally forecasted.

In addition, following the bankruptcy of one of the largest investment banks in the United States, the equity market plummeted very sharply and has been at very low levels showing wild ups and downs. Now there is greater uncertainty about the equity markets. Under the severe circumstances, if the equity prices continue to be at the same low levels for a long time, there is a risk of additional impairment losses on listed securities. We will also closely monitor the progress of the Japanese Yen appreciation, declines in commodity prices and the sluggish economic situation.

Forecast on annual operating results by operating segment compared to the original forecast is described as below:

The projected net income of the Mineral & Metal Resources Segment for the year ending March 31, 2009 is ¥160.0 billion, a decrease of ¥10.0 billion from the original forecast. The positive effect that Australian iron ore prices being settled higher than originally forecasted is partially offset with a negative impact of the appreciation of the Japanese Yen against the Australian Dollar and Brazilian Real.

The projected net income of the Energy Segment for the year ending March 31, 2009 is ¥161.0 billion, an increase of ¥13.0 billion from the original forecast. We assume the annual average crude oil price to be US$102/barrel, US$17/barrel higher than the original forecast. We have taken into consideration the positive impact of the increased oil price, which is partly offset with cost increases such as a tax on condensate in Australia as well as the Japanese Yen appreciation against the Australian Dollar.

The projected net incomes of the Steel Products Segment, the Machinery & Infrastructure Projects Segment and the Chemical Segment for the year ending March 31, 2009 are ¥17.0 billion, ¥43.0 billion and ¥10.0 billion with decreases of ¥4.0 billion, ¥2.0 billion and ¥10.0 billion from the original forecast, respectively. Although the performances of these segments for the six month period were solid the performances for the six month period ending March 31, 2009 will be decelerated due to a slow down in the economy. The decreases are principally attributable to losses on write downs on securities including those included in equity in earnings of associated companies.

The projected net incomes of the Foods & Retail Segment, Consumer Services & IT Segment and Logistics & Financial Markets Segment for the year ending March 31, 2009 are ¥12.0 billion, ¥12.0 billion and ¥5.0 billion, with decreases of ¥2.0 billion, ¥5.0 billion and ¥3.0 billion from the original forecast, respectively. The decreases are attributable to poor conditions for the domestic consumer related markets as well as impairment losses recognized in the six month period ended September 30, 2008.

The projected net income of the Americas Segment for the year ending March 31, 2009 is ¥19.0 billion, an increase of ¥10.0 billion from the original forecast. Despite the inclusion of losses on derivative contracts at Felitilizantes Mitsui, robust performances in the agriculture related business (sales and manufacturing of feed additives as well as fertilizer) and in the energy related business (oil & gas producing activity in the Gulf of Mexico and sales of tubular products for the oil & gas industry) contribute to the increase in net income. The projected net incomes of Europe, the Middle East and Africa Segment and the Asia Pacific Segment are ¥2.0 billion and ¥42.0 billion, a decrease of ¥1.0 billion and an increase of ¥1.0 billion from the original forecast, respectively.

2. Dividend policy

In order to maximize shareholder value, we seek to maintain an optimal balance between (1) achieving sustainable growth through strategic investments in areas of our core strength and growth and (2) paying out cash dividends as direct compensation to shareholders. Specifically, we have set the target dividend payout ratio of 20% of consolidated net income, and through improving the performance of the Group aim to steadily increase dividends from their current levels.

With respect to the dividend policy under the current business circumstances, we would like to prioritize enhancing the financial strength as well as the net worth of the Group considering the high cash demands for investing activities, economic stagnation to be expected for a long time and uncertainties in the commodity and equity markets. We will closely review improvements in business performance with the aim of increasing dividends for the year above current levels, based on the policy outlined above. We will continue to study the dividend policy taking into consideration the business environment, future trend of the investing activities, free cash flow level, interest bearing debt level and return on equity.

For the six-month period September 30, 2008, we will pay an interim dividend of ¥25, ¥2 per share higher than the corresponding six-month period of the previous year. For the year ending March 31, 2009, we plan to pay an annual dividend of ¥50 (including the interim dividend), ¥4 per share higher than the year ended March 31, 2008, on the assumption that our annual net income will be ¥460.0 billion.

A Cautionary Note on Forward-Looking Statements:

This report contains statements (including figures) regarding Mitsui & Co., Ltd. (Mitsui)'s corporate strategies, objectives, and views of future developments that are forward-looking in nature and are not simply reiterations of historical facts. These statements are presented to inform stakeholders of the views of Mitsui's management but should not be relied on solely in making investment and other decisions. You should be aware that a number of important risk factors could lead to outcomes that differ materially from those presented in such forward-looking statements. These include, but are not limited to, (i) change in economic conditions that may lead to unforeseen developments in markets for products handled by Mitsui, (ii) fluctuations in currency exchange rates that may cause unexpected deterioration in the value of transactions, (iii) adverse political developments that may create unavoidable delays or postponement of transactions and projects, (iv) changes in laws, regulations, or policies in any of the countries where Mitsui conducts its operations that may affect Mitsui's ability to fulfill its commitments, and (v) significant changes in the competitive environment. In the course of its operations, Mitsui adopts measures to control these and other types of risks, but this does not constitute a guarantee that such measures will be effective.

2. Other

[Changes in Accounting Principles, Procedures and Presentation Methods in Preparing the Consolidated Financial Statements]

Offsetting of amounts related to certain contracts

Effective April 1, 2008, the companies adopted FASB Staff Position (FSP) No. FIN 39-1, Amendment of FASB Interpretation No. 39.

FSP No. FIN 39-1 amends FIN No. 39, Offsetting of Amounts Related to Certain Contracts an interpretation of APB Opinion No. 10 and FASB Statement No. 105, to permit a reporting entity to offset fair value amounts recognized for the right to reclaim cash collateral (a receivable) or the obligation to return cash collateral (a payable) against fair value amounts recognized for derivative instruments executed with the same counterparty under the same master netting arrangement.

As a result of the adoption of this FSP, the companies elected to offset ¥68,305 million in other current liabilities against derivative assets, and ¥125,467 million in other current assets against derivative liabilities in the Consolidated Balance Sheet as of September 30, 2008. The companies have also offset ¥112,038 million in other current liabilities against derivative assets, and ¥41,012 million in other current assets against derivative liabilities in the Consolidated Balance Sheet as of March 31, 2008 through retrospective application.
