The iShares gold trust is a gold ETF that allows investors to get access to the physical gold market.

The iShares gold trust is a gold ETF that allows investors to get access to the physical gold market and do it through the innovative ETF structure that has been really developed and pioneered by iShares and other ETF providers in partnership with exchanges like the NYSE.

On screen text: iShares Gold Trust lets investors gain access to the physical gold market.

Voiceover: EVERYONE ON THE FLOOR GOT A LITTLE TASTE OF GOLD WITH ICE CREAM AND JETS GIVEAWAYS.

On screen text: Fort Knox holds about 4,603 tons of gold bullion.

====Interview with Kevin Feldman, Managing Director====

Gold has been excellent in terms of diversification in a well-balanced portfolio. If you look at the correlations between gold and equities and fixed income, there's actually very low correlations between gold and the equity market, so it's a really good diversifier in a portfolio.

On screen text: Gold is a very good way to diversify a portfolio.

On screen text: The Federal Reserve in Manhattan holds about 5,000 tons of gold.

We really again value the partnership with the NYSE and and think that a lot of products like IAU really wouldn't be possible without that type of close partnership and we look forward to bringing new products to market in the coming months and years.

iShares Gold Trust (Trust) has filed a registration statement (including a prospectus) with the SEC. Before you invest, you should read the prospectus and other documents the Trust has filed with the SEC for more complete information about the issuer and this offering. You may get these documents for free by visiting www.iShares.com or EDGAR on the SEC website at www.sec.gov. Alternatively, the Trust will arrange to send you the prospectus if you request it by calling toll-free 1-800-474-2737.

Investing involves risk, including possible loss of principal. The Trust is not an investment company registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 or a commodity pool for purposes of the Commodity Exchange Act. Shares of the Trust are not subject to the same regulatory requirements as mutual funds. Because shares of the Trust are created to reflect the price of the gold held by the Trust, less the Trust's expenses and liabilities, the market price of the shares will be as unpredictable as the price of gold has historically been. Brokerage commissions will reduce returns.

For a more complete discussion of the risk factors relative to the Trust, carefully read the prospectus.
