2011 Actions

During 2011, the Company announced the closures of a flexible packaging facility in Canada (part of the Consumer Packaging segment), a thermoformed plastic packaging facility in Canada (part of the Consumer Packaging segment), a tube and core facility in Europe (part of the Tubes and Cores/Paper segment), and a fulfillment service center in the United States (part of the Packaging Services segment). The Company also sold two small businesses, a plastics operation in Brazil and a tubes and core operation in the United States and realigned its fixed cost structure resulting in the elimination of approximately 75 positions.

Included in 2011 charges above is a loss of $6,689 from the sale of a plastics business in Brazil for which the Company received net proceeds of $3,849. Annual sales of this business were approximately $27,000. Partially offsetting the loss was a gain of $1,053 from the sale of a small tubes and cores business in the United States for which the Company received net proceeds of $1,150. Goodwill associated with this business totaled $97 and was written off as part of the sale. Additional impairment charges totaling $4,441 were recorded in 2011 related primarily to the difference between fair market value and net book value of a fulfillment service center building held for sale. Other impairment charges stemmed from the announced closure of a flexible packaging facility in Canada and the subsequent decision not to use certain machinery and equipment acquired in the 2010 acquisition of a tube and core business in Greece. Other costs consist primarily of lease termination costs and costs related to plant closures including the cost of equipment removal, utilities, plant security, property taxes and insurance.

The Company expects to pay the majority of the remaining 2009 Actions restructuring costs by the end of 2012 using cash generated from operations.

Earlier Actions

Earlier Actions are comprised of a number of plant closures and workforce reductions initiated prior to 2009. Charges/income associated with these actions totaled $241 and $1,030 during the three- and nine-month periods ended October 2, 2011, compared with $681 and $179 during the three- and nine-month periods ended September 26, 2010. Note 6: Goodwill and Other Intangible AssetsGoodwill

A summary of the changes in goodwill for the nine months ended October 2, 2011 is as follows:

	Tubes and Cores Paper	Consumer Packaging	Packaging Services	All Other	Total
	Segment	Segment	Segment	Sonoco	Total
Goodwill at December 31, 2010	$ 231,637	$ 389,384	$ 150,082	$ 68,645	$ 839,748
Goodwill on acquisitions	4,553	330			4,883

Goodwill at October 2, 2011	$ 234,522	$ 380,329	$ 150,082	$ 68,661	$ 833,594

The Company recorded $4,883 of goodwill in connection with 2011 acquisitions. Other consists primarily of amounts previously recorded as Goodwill that have been reclassified to Long-Term Deferred Income Taxes. This reclassification related to the July 2010 acquisition of Associated Packaging Technologies, Inc. and resulted from a final review of the facts and conditions that existed at the time of the acquisition. In addition, Other also reflects the disposal of $97 of goodwill associated with the sale of a small tubes and core business in the United States.

The Company completed its most recent annual goodwill impairment testing during the third quarter of 2011. As described in Note 11, the Company elected early adoption of ASU 2011-08 for its annual goodwill impairment testing. Under prior guidance, a two-step process was followed to test for goodwill impairment, the first step being to determine and compare the estimated current fair value of each reporting unit to its carrying value. If the estimated fair value was less than the carrying value, then step two was performed to determine the amount, if any, of the goodwill impairment. The revised guidance in ASU 2011-08 allows a company to first make a qualitative determination regarding the likelihood of impairment before performing these two steps. If impairment is not determined to be more likely than not, then the two-step test does not need to be conducted.

Edgar Filing: SONOCO PRODUCTS CO - Form 10-Q

For 2011 testing purposes, the Company performed an assessment of each reporting unit by considering certain qualitative and quantitative factors. Qualitative factors included the macroeconomic environment, Company stock price and market capitalization movement, business strategy changes, and significant customer wins and losses. Quantitative factors included the amount the fair value exceeded its carrying value in the 2010 analysis, current year operating performance as compared to 2010 projections, implied fair values from comparable trading and transaction multiples, and in certain cases, results of an updated discounted cash flow model. As a result of its qualitative and quantitative assessments, the Company concluded that there was no impairment of goodwill for any of its reporting units.

(Dollars in thousands except per share data)

(unaudited)

When the Company estimates the fair value of a reporting unit, it does so using a discounted cash flow model based on projections of future years' operating results and associated cash flows, together with comparable trading and transaction multiples. The Company's model discounts future cash flows, forecasted over a ten-year period, with an estimated residual growth rate. The Company's projections incorporate management's best estimates of the expected future results, which include expectations related to new business, and, where applicable, improved operating margins. Future cash flows are discounted to present value using a discount rate commensurate with the risks inherent in the cash flows.

Because the Company's assessments, whether qualitative or quantitative, incorporate management's expectations for the future, including forecasted growth rates and/or margin improvements, if there are changes in the relevant facts and circumstances and/or expectations, management's assessment regarding goodwill impairment may change as well.

Although no reporting units failed the qualitative or quantitative assessments noted above, in management's opinion, the reporting units with significant goodwill having the greatest risk of future impairment if actual results in the future are not as expected are Matrix Packaging and Flexible Packaging. Total goodwill associated with these reporting units was approximately $128,000 and $91,000, respectively, at October 2, 2011.

The reporting unit with the most significant growth expectations relative to its size is Rigid Paper Containers - Europe. Total goodwill associated with this reporting unit was approximately $9,000 at October 2, 2011.

The Company does not currently have any nonfinancial assets or liabilities that are recognized or disclosed at fair value on a recurring basis.

Description	Carrying Amount in Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheets	Fair Value Measurements at Reporting Date Using

Fair value measurements for the Company's derivatives, which at October 2, 2011 and December 31, 2010, consisted primarily of natural gas, aluminum, old corrugated containers and foreign currency contracts entered into for hedging purposes, are classified under Level 2 and are valued using the income approach. These measurements are determined using published market prices or estimated based on observable inputs including spot and future commodity prices and spot and future exchange rates.

Certain deferred compensation plan liabilities are funded and the assets invested in various exchange traded mutual funds. These assets are measured using quoted prices in accessible active markets for identical assets.

Excluding certain retirement and postretirement plan assets, none of the Company's financial assets or liabilities are measured at fair value using significant unobservable inputs. There were no significant transfers in or out of Level 1 or Level 2 fair value measurements during the three- and nine -month periods ended October 2, 2011.

Note 8: Financial Instruments and Derivatives

The following table sets forth the carrying amounts and fair values of the Company's significant financial instruments for which the carrying amount differs from the fair value.

	October 2, 2011		December 31, 2010
	Carrying	Fair	Carrying	Fair
	Amount	Value	Amount	Value
Long-term debt, net of current portion	$ 717,226	$ 765,817	$ 603,941	$ 624,786

The carrying value of cash and cash equivalents, short-term debt and long-term variable-rate debt approximates fair value. The fair value of long-term debt is based on quoted market prices or is determined by discounting future cash flows using interest rates available to the Company for issues with similar terms and average maturities.

In accordance with U.S. GAAP, the Company records its derivatives as assets or liabilities on the balance sheet at fair value using published market prices or estimated values based on current price quotes and discounted cash flows. Changes in the fair value of derivatives are recognized either in net income or in other comprehensive income, depending on the designated purpose of the derivative. It is the Company's policy not to speculate in derivative instruments. The Company has determined all hedges to be highly effective and, as a result, no material ineffectiveness has been recorded.

The Company uses derivatives to mitigate the effect of fluctuations in some of its raw material and energy costs, foreign currency fluctuations and interest rate movements. The Company purchases commodities such as recovered paper, metal and energy, generally at market or at fixed prices that are established with the vendor as part of the purchase process for quantities expected to be consumed in the ordinary course of business. The Company may enter into forward contracts or other similar derivative contracts in order to reduce the effect of commodity price fluctuations, and to manage its exposure to foreign currency cash flows, assets, and liabilities. The Company is exposed to interest-rate fluctuations as a result of using debt as a source of financing for its operations. To manage its exposure to interest rate movements, the Company may from time to time use traditional, unleveraged interest rate swaps to adjust its mix of fixed and variable rate debt.

Cash Flow Hedges

At October 2, 2011 and December 31, 2010, the Company had derivative financial instruments outstanding to hedge anticipated transactions and certain asset and liability related cash flows. To the extent considered effective, the changes in fair value of these contracts are recorded in other comprehensive income and reclassified to income or expense in the period in which the hedged item impacts earnings.

Commodity Cash Flow Hedges

The Company has entered into certain derivative contracts to manage the cost of anticipated purchases of natural gas, aluminum and old corrugated containers. At October 2, 2011, natural gas swaps covering approximately 5.2 million MMBtus were outstanding. These contracts represent approximately 71%, 75%, and 12% of anticipated U.S. and Canadian usage for 2011, 2012 and 2013, respectively. Additionally, the Company had swap contracts covering 1.1 thousand metric tons of aluminum representing approximately 25% of remaining anticipated usage for 2011, and 31.4 thousand short tons of old corrugated containers representing approximately 6% of remaining anticipated usage for 2011. The fair values of the Company's commodity cash flow hedges were in loss positions of $8,177 and $12,421 at October 2, 2011 and December 31, 2010, respectively. The amount of the loss included in accumulated other comprehensive loss at October 2, 2011, that is expected to be reclassified to the income statement during the next twelve months is $7,472.

Foreign Currency Cash Flow Hedges

The Company has entered into forward contracts to hedge certain anticipated foreign currency denominated sales and purchases forecast to occur in 2011. At October 2, 2011, the net position of these contracts was to purchase 16.2 million Canadian dollars, 177.2 million Mexican pesos, 432 thousand euros, 2.5 billion Colombian pesos, and 341 thousand British pounds, and to sell 1.2 million Australian dollars, 737 thousand New Zealand dollars, 3.4 million Malaysian ringgits, 644.4 million Indonesian rupiah, 14.2 million Turkish lira, and 33.8 million Thai baht. The fair value of these foreign currency cash flow hedges was a loss position of $1,434 at October 2, 2011, and a gain position of $229 at December 31, 2010. During 2011, certain foreign currency cash flow hedges related to construction in progress were settled as the capital expenditures were made. Gains of $17 and $557 were reclassified from accumulated other comprehensive loss and netted against the carrying value of the assets during the three- and nine-month periods ended October 2, 2011, respectively. The amount of the loss included in accumulated other comprehensive loss at October 2, 2011 expected to be reclassified to the income statement during the next twelve months is $1,367.

Other Derivatives

The Company routinely enters into forward contracts or swaps to economically hedge the currency exposure of intercompany debt and existing foreign currency denominated receivables and payables. The Company does not apply hedge accounting treatment for these instruments. As such, changes in fair value are recorded directly to income and expense in the periods that they occur. At October 2, 2011, the net positions of these contracts were to purchase 15.7 million Canadian dollars and to sell 2 million British pounds, 19.1 million euros and 9.1 billion Colombian pesos. The total fair value of these hedges was a loss position of $392 at October 2, 2011, and $60 at December 31, 2010.

The following table sets forth the location and fair values of the Company's derivative instruments at October 2, 2011:

Note 9: Employee Benefit PlansRetirement Plans and Retiree Health and Life Insurance Plans

The Company provides non-contributory defined benefit pension plans for a majority of its employees in the United States and certain of its employees in Mexico and Belgium. Effective December 31, 2003, the Company froze participation for newly hired salaried and non-union hourly U.S. employees in its traditional defined benefit pension plan. At that time, the Company adopted a defined contribution plan, the Sonoco Investment and Retirement Plan (SIRP), which covers its non-union U.S. employees hired on or after January 1, 2004. The Company also sponsors contributory defined benefit pension plans covering the majority of its employees in the United Kingdom, Canada, and the Netherlands.

On February 4, 2009, the U.S. qualified defined benefit pension plan was amended to freeze plan benefits for all active participants effective December 31, 2018. Remaining active participants in the U.S. qualified plan will become participants of the SIRP effective January 1, 2019.

The Company also provides postretirement healthcare and life insurance benefits to a limited number of its retirees and their dependents in the United States and Canada, based on certain age and/or service eligibility requirements.

The components of net periodic benefit cost include the following:

Edgar Filing: SONOCO PRODUCTS CO - Form 10-Q

During the nine months ended October 2, 2011, the Company made contributions of $115,123 to its defined benefit retirement and retiree health and life insurance plans, including contributions to its U.S. qualified defined benefit pension plan totaling $87,501. The Company anticipates that it will make additional contributions of approximately $18,000 to its defined benefit retirement and retiree health and life insurance plans over the remainder of 2011. No assurances can be made, however, about funding requirements beyond 2011, as they will depend largely on actual investment returns and future actuarial assumptions.

Sonoco Investment and Retirement Plan (SIRP)

The Company recognized SIRP expense totaling $2,489 and $7,026, respectively, for the three and nine-month periods ended October 2, 2011, and $2,148 and $6,902, respectively, for the three and nine-month periods ended September 26, 2010. Contributions to the SIRP, funded annually in the first quarter, totaled $8,568 during the nine months ended October 2, 2011. No additional SIRP contributions are expected during the remainder of 2011.

Note 10: Income Taxes

The Company's effective tax rate for the three and nine-month periods ending October 2, 2011 was 3.1% and 22.2%, respectively, and its effective tax rate for the three and nine-month periods ending September 26, 2010 was 27.6% and 29.6%, respectively. The quarterly and year-to-date rates for both years varied from the U.S. statutory rate primarily due to the favorable effect of: valuation allowance adjustments on deferred tax assets, international operations that are subject to tax rates generally lower than the U.S. rate, the favorable effect of the manufacturer's deduction, and other U.S. tax adjustments.

The Company has significant tax loss carryforwards in various taxing jurisdictions. Valuation allowances have been recorded against the related deferred tax assets in those jurisdictions where expectations of future taxable income are uncertain. As noted in a prior filing, operating results have improved in certain of the related jurisdictions recently. During the third quarter of 2011, the Company finalized restructuring plans in one of the jurisdictions with significant valuation allowances on net operating loss carryforwards, its most significant deferred tax asset. The impact of this restructuring in combination with improved operating results provided the Company with sufficient evidence to conclude that it was now more likely than not that the assets could be recovered in this jurisdiction, which has an indefinite carryforward period. As a result, an income tax benefit of $24,282 was recognized in the third quarter of 2011 for this change in estimate. Also during the third quarter of 2011, the Company decided to move certain international business operations to the United States which then negatively impacted the Company's ability to utilize certain international loss carryforwards which had previously been expected to be recoverable from the international profits of that business. With the decision to move the business operations, the Company no longer considered it more likely than not that it could recover the assets and recorded a valuation allowance of $5,434 for this change in estimate. The net effect of these changes in estimate was an income tax benefit of $18,848 in the third quarter of 2011 from valuation allowance adjustments on deferred tax assets.

The Company and/or its subsidiaries file federal, state and local income tax returns in the United States and various foreign jurisdictions. The Company is no longer subject to U.S. federal income tax examination by tax authorities for years before 2007. With few exceptions, the Company is no longer subject to examination prior to 2006 with respect to U.S. state and local and non-U.S. income taxes.

There have been no significant changes in the Company's liability for uncertain tax positions since December 31, 2010. The Company's estimate for the potential outcome for any uncertain tax issue is highly judgmental. Management believes that any reasonably foreseeable outcomes related to these matters have been adequately provided for. However, future results may include favorable or unfavorable adjustments to estimated tax liabilities in the period the assessments are made or resolved or when statutes of limitation on potential assessments expire. Additionally, the jurisdictions in which earnings or deductions are realized may differ from current estimates. As a result, the Company's effective tax rate may fluctuate significantly on a quarterly basis.

Note 11: New Accounting Pronouncements

In September 2011, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Accounting Standards Update No. 2011-08, Intangibles—Goodwill and Other (Topic 350): Testing Goodwill for Impairment. The amendments in this update revised the steps required to test for goodwill impairment. Under prior guidance, a two-step process was followed, the first step being to determine and compare the estimated current fair value of each reporting unit to its carrying value. If the estimated fair value was less than the carrying value, then step two was performed to determine the amount, if any, of the goodwill impairment. The revised guidance allows a company to first make a qualitative determination regarding the likelihood of impairment before performing these two steps. If impairment is not determined to be more likely than not, then the two-step test does not need to be conducted. This update is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2011, with early adoption permitted. The Company elected early adoption of the update for its annual goodwill impairment testing conducted during the third quarter of 2011.

During the quarter ended October 2, 2011, there have been no other newly issued nor newly applicable accounting pronouncements that have or are expected to have a significant impact on the Company's financial statements.

Note 13: Commitments and Contingencies

The Company is a party to various legal proceedings incidental to its business and is subject to a variety of environmental and pollution control laws and regulations in all jurisdictions in which it operates. The Company is also currently a defendant in a class action by persons who bought Company stock between February 7, 2007 and September 18, 2007. The complaint, as amended, alleges that the Company issued press releases and made public statements during the class period that were materially false and misleading. The complaint seeks an unspecified amount of damages plus interest and attorneys' fees. As is the case with other companies in similar industries, the Company faces exposure from actual or potential claims and legal proceedings. Some of these exposures have the potential to be material. Information with respect to these and other exposures appears in Part II Item 8 Financial Statements and Supplementary Data (Note 14 Commitments and Contingencies) in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K. The Company cannot currently estimate the final outcome of many of the items described or the ultimate amount of potential losses.

Pursuant to U.S. GAAP, accruals for estimated losses are recorded at the time information becomes available indicating that losses are probable and that the amounts are reasonably estimable. Amounts so accrued are not discounted. While the ultimate liabilities relating to claims and proceedings may be significant to profitability in the period recognized, it is management's opinion that such liabilities, when finally determined, will not have an adverse material effect on Sonoco's consolidated financial position or liquidity.

Environmental Matters

During the fourth quarter of 2005, the U. S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) notified U.S. Paper Mills Corp. (U.S. Mills), a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, that U.S. Mills and NCR Corporation (NCR), an unrelated party, would be jointly held responsible to undertake a program to remove and dispose of certain PCB-contaminated sediments at a particular site on the lower Fox River in Wisconsin (the Site). U.S. Mills and NCR reached an agreement between themselves that each would fund 50% of the costs of remediation. The Company has expensed a total of $17,650 for its estimated share of the total cleanup cost of the Site, and through October 2, 2011, has spent a total of $14,467. The remaining accrual of $3,183 represents the Company's best estimate of what it is likely to pay to complete the Site project. However, the actual costs associated with cleanup of the Site are dependent upon many factors and it is possible that remediation costs could be higher than the current estimate of project costs. The Company acquired U.S. Mills in 2001, and the alleged contamination predates the acquisition.

The EPA and Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources (WDNR) have also issued a general notice of potential liability under the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act (CERCLA) and a request to participate in remedial action implementation negotiations relating to a stretch of the lower Fox River, including the bay at Green Bay, (Operating Units 2-5) to eight potentially responsible parties, including U.S. Mills. Operating Units 2-5 include, but also comprise a vastly larger area than, the Site. A detailed description of the claims and proceedings associated therewith appears in Part II Item 8 Financial Statements and Supplementary Data (Note 14 Commitments and Contingencies) in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K.

On October 14, 2010, the EPA and WDNR filed suit against NCR, API, U.S. Mills and nine other defendants in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Wisconsin (No. 10-CV-00910-WCG) pursuant to Sections 106 and 107 of CERCLA. The plaintiffs seek to recover unreimbursed costs incurred for activities undertaken in response to the release and threatened release of hazardous substances from facilities at or near the Lower Fox River and Green Bay as well as damages for injury to, loss of, and destruction of natural resources resulting from such releases. The plaintiffs also seek a ruling that the defendants are liable for future response costs of the plaintiffs and requiring the defendants to comply with the unilateral Administrative Order for Remedial Action discussed in prior filings. The Company does not believe that the remedies sought in the suit materially expand the Company's potential liability beyond what has been disclosed in this report or in the Company's prior filings with the SEC. U.S. Mills plans to defend the suit vigorously.

Since 2007, U.S. Mills has expensed a total of $60,825 for potential liabilities associated with the Fox River contamination (not including amounts expensed for remediation at the Site) and through October 2, 2011, has spent a total of $6,660, primarily on legal fees. Although the Company lacks a reasonable basis for identifying any amount within the range of possible loss as a better estimate than any other amount, as has previously been disclosed, the upper end of the range may exceed the net worth of U.S. Mills. However, because the discharges of hazardous materials into the environment occurred before the Company acquired U.S. Mills, and U.S. Mills has been operated as a separate subsidiary of the Company, the Company does not believe that it bears financial responsibility for these legacy environmental liabilities of U.S. Mills. Therefore, the Company continues to believe that the maximum additional exposure to its consolidated financial position is limited to the equity position of U.S. Mills, which was approximately $87,000 at October 2, 2011.

The Company has been named as a potentially responsible party at several other environmentally contaminated sites. All of the sites are also the responsibility of other parties. The potential remediation liabilities are shared with such other parties, and, in most cases, the Company's share, if any, cannot be reasonably estimated at the current time.

As of October 2, 2011 and December 31, 2010, the Company (and its subsidiaries) had accrued $60,251 and $62,026, respectively, related to environmental contingencies. Of these, a total of $57,348 and $58,727 relate to U.S. Mills at October 2, 2011 and December 31, 2010, respectively. These accruals are included in Accrued expenses and other on the Company's Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheets. U.S. Mills recognized a $40,825 benefit in 2008 from settlements reached and proceeds received on certain insurance policies covering the Fox River contamination. U.S. Mills' two remaining insurance carriers are in liquidation. It is possible that U.S. Mills may recover from these carriers a small portion of the costs it ultimately incurs. U.S. Mills may also be able to reallocate some of the costs it incurs among other parties. There can be no assurance that such claims for recovery or reallocation would be successful and no amounts have been recognized in the consolidated financial statements of the Company for such potential recovery or reallocation.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

To the Shareholders and Directors of Sonoco Products Company:

We have reviewed the accompanying condensed consolidated balance sheet of Sonoco Products Company as of October 2, 2011, and the related condensed consolidated statements of income for the three-month and nine-month periods ended October 2, 2011 and September 26, 2010 and the condensed consolidated statements of cash flows for the nine-month periods ended October 2, 2011 and September 26, 2010. These interim financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management.

We conducted our review in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). A review of interim financial information consists principally of applying analytical procedures and making inquiries of persons responsible for financial and accounting matters. It is substantially less in scope than an audit conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States), the objective of which is the expression of an opinion regarding the financial statements taken as a whole. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to the accompanying condensed consolidated interim financial statements for them to be in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

We previously audited, in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States), the consolidated balance sheet as of December 31, 2010, and the related consolidated statements of income, of comprehensive income, of changes in total equity, and of cash flows for the year then ended (not presented herein), and in our report dated February 28, 2011, we expressed an unqualified opinion on those consolidated financial statements. In our opinion, the information set forth in the accompanying condensed consolidated balance sheet as of December 31, 2010, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the consolidated balance sheet from which it has been derived.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The following discussion provides a review of results for the three months ended October 2, 2011 versus the three months ended September 26, 2010.

OVERVIEW

Net sales for the third quarter of 2011 were $1,124 million, compared with $1,052 million in the same period in 2010. This 7% increase was largely due to higher selling prices and a positive impact from foreign currency translation. The impact of higher selling prices was realized primarily in the Tubes and Cores/Paper and Consumer Packaging segments, principally driven by higher old corrugated container (OCC) and resin prices. Gross profit margins for the third quarter declined to 16.6% compared to last year's 19.0%, primarily due to an unfavorable shift in the mix of business, negative price/cost relationship (the relationship of selling price to the cost of materials, energy and freight) and higher labor costs. Total selling, general and administrative costs decreased by 12.3%, and, as a percent of sales, declined to 8.0% during the third quarter compared with 9.7% in the same period last year.

Net income attributable to Sonoco for the third quarter of 2011 was $77.2 million compared to $59.0 million reported for the same period of 2010. Results for 2011 include $8.8 million of after-tax restructuring and acquisition charges and a net $18.8 million income tax benefit from valuation allowance adjustments on deferred tax assets. In the 2010 quarter, results were impacted by after-tax restructuring and acquisition charges of $8.0 million. Third quarter 2011 base net income attributable to Sonoco (Base earnings) was $67.1 million ($.66 per diluted share) versus $67.1 million ($.65 per diluted share) in 2010.

Productivity improvements added to the quarterly results, but were off the Company's historical pace. Also benefitting the quarter were reduced management incentive and pension costs, modest volume growth, and focused cost-cutting efforts. However, a negative price/cost relationship, an unfavorable shift in the mix of business and increased labor costs resulted in total third quarter base earnings that were essentially flat with the prior year.

Although flat overall, third quarter earnings results by segment were mixed compared to the prior year. On the industrial side, operating profits in the Tubes and Cores/Paper segment were off 10% driven by weaker volume and mix. However, All Other Sonoco, which consists primarily of industrial-related businesses, showed a 6% improvement in operating profits.

On the consumer side, operating profits in the Consumer Packaging segment increased 2% on productivity improvements and lower fixed costs while results in the Packaging Services segment improved due to a reduction in operating costs and lower selling, general and administrative expenses.

Net sales for the third quarter of 2011 were $1,124 million, compared to $1,052 million for the third quarter of 2010, an increase of $72 million.

The components of the sales change were:

($ in millions)

Volume/Mix	$ (4)
Selling prices	54
Acquisitions and divestitures, net	(1)
Foreign currency translation and other, net	23
Total sales increase	$ 72

Sales prices were higher on a year-over-year basis in both the Tubes and Cores/Paper and Consumer Packaging segments largely driven by higher input costs, primarily recovered paper, steel and resin. Volume-driven sales gains in Consumer Packaging were more than offset by lower volume/mix in Tubes and Cores/Paper and Packaging Services. The weakness of the U.S. dollar, relative to last year's third quarter levels, also contributed to the reported net sales increase.

COSTS AND EXPENSES

Cost of sales in the third quarter of 2011 increased year over year mostly due to inflation. Higher prices paid for recovered paper consumed increased costs in converted paper operations, while higher resin and steel costs negatively impacted results in the plastics, closures and composite can operations. The net impact of these factors, along with higher freight, energy, labor and other costs, partially offset by lower pension expenses, resulted in gross profit margins declining to 16.6% in the third quarter of 2011 from 19.0% in the third quarter of 2010.

Selling, general and administrative costs in the third quarter of 2011 were down 12% compared to the third quarter of 2010, reflecting lower management incentive and pension costs, spending controls, a gain from life insurance proceeds and a net beneficial impact from foreign exchange.

Restructuring and restructuring-related asset impairment charges totaled $12.0 million and $12.2 million for the third quarters of 2011 and 2010, respectively. Additional information regarding restructuring actions and impairments is provided in Note 4 to the Company's Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements.

Net interest expense for the third quarter of 2011 was $8.3 million, compared with $8.4 million during the same period in 2010 as higher average borrowings were offset by lower average interest rates and higher interest income earned.

This year's third quarter effective tax rate was 3.1% compared to 27.6% in the 2010 quarter. This year's quarter reflects a net $18.8 million net benefit from deferred tax valuation adjustments on foreign jurisdiction net operating losses. In addition, to a much lesser extent, the current quarter's rate reflects the positive impact of non-taxable life insurance proceeds and the net release of reserves for uncertain tax positions. The effective tax rate on base earnings was 29.1% in the current quarter, compared to 29.6% in the third quarter of 2010, and excludes the benefit of deferred tax valuation adjustments mentioned above. The resulting decrease of 0.5% reflects the net impact of taxable earnings mix by jurisdiction together with the impact of non-taxable life insurance proceeds and uncertain tax position adjustments. Additional information regarding the deferred tax valuation adjustments is provided in Note 10 to the Company's Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements.

The Company has operations in Venezuela that, beginning January 1, 2010, are being accounted for as hyperinflationary. These operations have net assets of approximately $8 million and annual net sales of approximately $6 million. Accounting for these operations as hyperinflationary did not have a material effect on the Company's financial statements during any of the periods presented.

Segment results are used by Company management to evaluate segment performance and do not include (dependent upon the applicable period) restructuring charges, asset impairment charges, acquisition charges, debt tender charges, specifically identified tax adjustments and certain other items, if any, the exclusion of which the Company believes improves comparability and analysis of the underlying financial performance of the business. Accordingly, the term segment operating profit is defined as the segment's portion of Income before interest and income taxes excluding those items. All other general corporate expenses have been allocated as operating costs to each of the Company's reportable segments and All Other Sonoco.

SONOCO PRODUCTS COMPANY

Consumer Packaging

Sonoco's Consumer Packaging segment includes the following products: round and shaped rigid containers and trays (both composite and plastic); printed flexible packaging; metal and peelable membrane ends and closures and global brand artwork management.

Third quarter 2011 sales for the segment were $466 million, compared with $437 million in the same period in 2010. The 6.7% increase was largely due to higher selling prices, increased volume and favorable currency translation.

Operating profits increased 2% to $47.2 million in the third quarter, compared with $46.3 million last year. The increase was driven by productivity improvements and lower fixed costs, primarily pension and selling and administrative expenses, partially offset by a negative price/cost relationship largely due to higher resin and steel costs not fully recovered through selling price increases.

Tubes and Cores/Paper

The Tubes and Cores/Paper segment includes the following products: high-performance paper and composite paperboard tubes and cores; fiber-based construction tubes and forms; recycled paperboard, linerboard, corrugating medium, recovered paper and other recycled materials.

Third quarter 2011 sales for the segment were $453 million, compared with $412 million in the same period in 2010. The 10% increase in segment sales was due to higher selling prices and favorable currency translation, partially offset by somewhat lower volume. The year-over-year increase in selling prices was primarily a result of higher OCC pricing, which had a favorable impact on prices received for recovered paper, paperboard and tubes and cores.

Operating profit for the segment was $33.9 million, compared with $37.8 million in 2010. The decrease was driven primarily by lower volume and a negative mix, although an overall moderately unfavorable price/cost relationship also contributed to the decline. Partially offsetting these factors were productivity gains and lower selling, general and administrative expenses and pension costs. The negative price/cost relationship, most notable in the Company's domestic paper operations, stemmed primarily from OCC costs that continued to rise subsequent to selling prices under many contractual arrangements being set at the beginning of the quarter, together with higher, energy, freight and other costs relative to the prior year.

Packaging Services

The Packaging Services segment includes the following products and services: designing, manufacturing, assembling, packing and distributing temporary, semipermanent and permanent point-of-purchase displays; and supply chain management services, including contract packing, fulfillment and scalable service centers.

Third quarter 2011 sales for this segment were $111 million, compared with $112 million in the same period in 2010. This 1.6% decrease in sales was driven by a combination of lower volume and negative mix in the Company's contract packaging operations which were largely offset by improved point-of-purchase display volume and fulfillment activities along with favorable currency translation. Lower contract packaging volume was the result of lost business stemming from the previously announced decision of one of the Company's customers to consolidate its business with another vendor effective July 1, 2011.

Operating profit improved 119% from $1.9 million to $4.2 million, due primarily to improved volume in point-of-purchase displays and fulfillment activities and lower selling, general and administrative costs, partially offset by unfavorable price/cost and the impact of the previously mentioned lost contract packaging business.

All Other Sonoco

All Other Sonoco includes businesses that are not aggregated in a reportable segment and includes the following products: wooden, metal and composite wire and cable reels, molded and extruded plastics, custom-designed protective packaging and paper amenities such as coasters and glass covers.

Edgar Filing: SONOCO PRODUCTS CO - Form 10-Q

Third quarter 2011 sales in All Other Sonoco increased 4.4%, to $94 million, compared with $91 million reported in the same period in 2010. This increase was due to higher selling prices, volume gains in molded plastics and reels and spools, and favorable currency translation, partially offset by lower volume in protective packaging.

Table of ContentsSONOCO PRODUCTS COMPANY

Operating profit in All Other Sonoco increased 5.6% primarily as a result of productivity gains, positive price/cost and lower selling, general and administrative costs which more than offset a negative impact from mix.

Table of ContentsSONOCO PRODUCTS COMPANY*RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The following discussion provides a review of results for the nine months ended October 2, 2011 versus the nine months ended September 26, 2010.

OVERVIEW

Net sales for the first nine months of 2011 were $3,369 million, compared with $2,997 million in the same period in 2010. As a result of the Company's accounting calendar, to date 2011 has included six more days than the same fiscal period in 2010. The 12.4% increase in sales was due to higher selling prices, improved companywide volumes (principally the impact of the additional days), acquisitions and the favorable impact of foreign currency exchange. The impact of higher selling prices was most notable in our Tubes and Cores/Paper and Consumer Packaging segments. Sales volume was up for the Company as a whole, with some units experiencing volume gains and others, mostly in the industrial-focused businesses, volume declines.

Despite the double-digit sales gain, gross profit for the first nine months of 2011 moved higher by only 1 percent as gross profit margins decreased to 17.0% compared to last year's 18.9%. The margin decrease was a result of an unfavorable shift in the mix of business, an unfavorable price/cost relationship, and inflation in labor and other costs, partially offset by productivity improvements and lower pension and postretirement costs. Total selling, general and administrative costs decreased 2 percent from the prior year, and, as a percent of sales, declined to 8.7% for the first nine months of 2011 compared with 9.9% in the same period last year.

Net income attributable to Sonoco for the first nine months of 2011 was $188.0 million compared to $166.5 million reported for the same period of 2010. Current year earnings reflect a total net benefit from non-base items of $1.5 million, after-tax, including an $18.8 million net benefit from deferred tax valuation adjustments on foreign jurisdiction tax assets. In 2010, year-to-date results were impacted by after-tax restructuring and other charges of $12.1 million. Base earnings for the first nine months of 2011 were $186.5 million ($1.82 per diluted share) versus $178.6 million ($1.75 per diluted share) in 2010.

OPERATING REVENUE

Net sales for the first nine months of 2011 were $3,369 million, compared to $2,997 million for the first nine months of 2010, an increase of $372 million.

The components of the sales change were:

($ in millions)

Volume (including the impact of additional days)/Mix	$85
Selling prices	138
Acquisitions and divestitures, net	73
Foreign currency translation and other, net	76
Total Sales Increase	$372

The impact of higher selling prices was realized predominately in the Tubes and Cores/Paper and Consumer Packaging segments, largely driven by higher input costs, primarily recovered paper and resin. Approximately two-thirds of the increase attributable to volume/mix was the result of 6 additional days in the Company's first nine months relative to last year. The impact of a generally weaker dollar relative to most currencies, on a year-over-year basis, also contributed to the Company's overall sales increase.

COSTS AND EXPENSES

Edgar Filing: SONOCO PRODUCTS CO - Form 10-Q

Cost of sales in the first nine months of 2011 was higher year over year primarily due to increases in volume and higher material, energy, freight and labor costs. Significantly higher prices paid for recovered paper increased costs in the Company's converted paper operations, while higher resin and steel prices drove costs higher in the plastics, closures and composite can operations. Partially offsetting the increases were lower pension and postretirement expenses. Although a large part of the total cost increase was recovered by higher selling prices, gross profit margins declined to 17.0% in the first nine months of 2011 from 18.9% in the first nine months of 2010.

Table of ContentsSONOCO PRODUCTS COMPANY

Pension and post-retirement expenses were lower year-over-year due to several factors: the strong performance of the Company's pension plan assets during 2010, an $85.1 million contribution to the U.S. qualified pension plan in January 2011, and a longer amortization period for recognizing certain actuarial losses. Year to date, these expenses showed an $11.3 million improvement compared to the first nine months of 2010, most of which is reflected in cost of sales.

Selling, general and administrative costs were lower in the first nine months of 2011, reflecting lower management incentive and pension costs, a gain from life insurance proceeds, and cost controls. As a result, selling, general and administrative costs declined from 10.0% of sales during the first nine months of 2010 to 8.7% of sales in the same period of 2011.

Restructuring and restructuring-related asset impairment charges totaled $23.9 million and $18.6 million for the first nine months of 2011 and 2010, respectively. Additional information regarding restructuring actions and impairments is provided in Note 4 to the Company's Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements.

Net interest expense for the first nine months of 2011 remained essentially flat at $25.2 million when compared with $25.4 million during the same period in 2010, as somewhat lower borrowing costs were offset by increased levels of debt.

The 2011 year-to-date effective tax rate was 22.2%, compared to the 29.6% rate recorded in the same period of 2010. The decrease reflects the $18.8 million net benefit from deferred tax valuation adjustments on foreign jurisdiction net operating losses recorded in the third quarter along with the positive impact of non-taxable life insurance proceeds. The effective tax rate on base earnings was 30.7% and 30.6% in the first nine months of 2011 and 2010, respectively. Additional information regarding the deferred tax valuation adjustments is provided in Note 10 to the Company's Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements.

Consumer Packaging

Segment sales for the first nine months of 2011 were $1,376 million, compared with $1,211 million in the same period in 2010, a 13.7% increase. This increase was driven by a combination of last year's APT acquisition, volume gains, most of which are attributable to the additional six days in 2011, higher selling prices and the favorable impact of foreign currency translation. Selling prices were up throughout the segment, largely driven by higher costs, while increased volume in flexible packaging and blow molding was partially offset by lower volume in rigid paper containers and closures.

Segment operating profit was $128.2 million in the first nine months of 2011, compared with $134.1 million in the same period in 2010, a decrease of 4.4%. Productivity improvements, higher volume, and lower pension costs were able to only partially offset an unfavorable price/cost relationship and higher labor and other operating costs.

Tubes and Cores/Paper

Year-to-date sales for the segment were $1,353 million, compared with $1,198 million in the first nine months of 2010. The 13.0% increase in segment sales was due largely to increased selling prices, higher volume (primarily due to the additional days in the first nine months of 2011) and the favorable impact of foreign currency translation. The increased selling prices were primarily a result of higher OCC pricing, which had a favorable impact on prices received for recovered paper, paperboard and tubes and cores.

Operating profit for this segment was $99.8 million, compared with $96.3 million in 2010. The year-to-date improvement was the result of a favorable price/cost relationship, productivity improvements, and lower pension and selling, general and administrative expenses more than offsetting unfavorable mix and increased labor and other costs.

Packaging Services

Year-to-date sales for the segment were $356 million, compared with $338 million in the first nine months of 2010. The 5.2% sales improvement was driven by improved volume in point-of-purchase displays and fulfillment activities along with favorable currency translation, partially offset by unfavorable mix changes.

Operating profit improved 75% from $10.6 million to $18.5 million, due primarily to improved volume in point-of-purchase displays and fulfillment activities and lower pension and selling, general and administrative expenses. These improvements were partially offset by the impact of the previously mentioned lost contract packaging business and an unfavorable shift in the mix of business.

All Other Sonoco

Year-to-date sales for the segment were $284 million, compared with $250 million reported in the first nine months of 2010. This 13.6% increase was due to volume gains and increased prices in molded plastics and reels and spools.

Operating profit for the current nine-month period improved 19.6% to $36.1million, compared with $30.2 million in 2010. This increase was the result of productivity gains, the higher volume discussed above and lower pension and selling, general and administrative expenses. These favorable factors were partially offset by a slightly unfavorable price/cost relationship and increased labor costs.

SONOCO PRODUCTS COMPANY

OTHER ITEMS

The Company completed its most recent annual goodwill impairment testing during the third quarter of 2011. As described in Note 11, the Company elected early adoption of ASU 2011-08 for its annual goodwill impairment testing. Under prior guidance, a two-step process was followed to test for goodwill impairment, the first step being to determine and compare the estimated current fair value of each reporting unit to its carrying value. If the estimated fair value was less than the carrying value, then step two was performed to determine the amount, if any, of the goodwill impairment. The revised guidance in ASU 2011-08 allows a company to first make a qualitative determination regarding the likelihood of impairment before performing these two steps. If impairment is not determined to be more likely than not, then the two-step test does not need to be conducted.

For 2011 testing purposes, the Company performed an assessment of each reporting unit by considering certain qualitative and quantitative factors. Qualitative factors included the macroeconomic environment, Company stock price and market capitalization movement, business strategy adjustments, and significant customer wins and losses. Quantitative factors included the amount the fair value of each reporting unit exceeded its carrying value in the 2010 analysis, current year operating performance as compared to 2010 projections, implied fair values comparable trading and transaction multiples, and, in certain cases, results of an updated discounted cash flow model. As a result of its qualitative and quantitative assessments, the Company concluded that there was no impairment of goodwill for any of its reporting units

When the Company estimates the fair value of a reporting unit it does so using a discounted cash flow model based on projections of future years' operating results and associated cash flows, together with comparable trading and transaction multiples. The Company's model discounts future cash flows, forecasted over a ten-year period, with an estimated residual growth rate. The Company's projections incorporate management's best estimates of the expected future results, which include expectations related to new business awards, and, where applicable, improved operating margins. Future cash flows are discounted to present value using a discount rate commensurate with the risks inherent in the cash flows.

The Company's assessments, whether qualitative or quantitative, incorporate management's expectations for the future, including forecasted growth rates and/or margin improvements. Therefore, should there be changes in the relevant facts and circumstances and/or expectations, management's assessment regarding goodwill impairment may change as well.

Although no reporting units failed the qualitative or quantitative assessments noted above, in management's opinion, the reporting units with significant goodwill having the greatest risk of future impairment if actual results are not as expected are Matrix Packaging and Flexible Packaging. Total goodwill associated with these reporting units was approximately $128 million and $91 million, respectively, at October 2, 2011.

The reporting unit with the most significant growth expectations relative to its size is Rigid Paper Containers - Europe. Total goodwill associated with this reporting unit was approximately $9 million at October 2, 2011.

Matrix Packaging manufactures blow-molded plastic containers primarily for use in nonfood applications. Matrix Packaging was acquired in May 2007 to be a growth platform for the Company and to expand the Company's operations into the health and beauty market. Since that time, the Company has continued to invest significantly in the business, and projections for this reporting unit reflect management's expectations for revenue growth as well as improvements in operating margins. Sales growth is expected to be driven by new business from key nonfood customers and expansion into more food-based applications. Should the sales growth and margin improvements not materialize, goodwill impairment charges may be incurred. Based on the valuation work performed for the current year test, the estimated fair value of Matrix Packaging exceeded its carrying value by approximately 11%.

In 2010, the Company was advised by one of its Flexible Packaging customers that its contract to provide certain packaging would not be renewed in its entirety. According to the customer, the business was to be phased out over a two-year period beginning in 2011. As a result, in the third quarter of 2010 the Company recorded a non-cash asset impairment charge of approximately $12.6 million on certain long-lived assets within the affected operations. Although the transition has begun, it has not occurred as quickly as originally anticipated. However, the expected loss of business was reflected in the Company's qualitative evaluation of the likelihood of goodwill impairment. The Company expects these lost sales will be replaced by new business in approximately the same time frame over which they are lost and that operating margins will benefit from improved manufacturing productivity and overhead cost management.

SONOCO PRODUCTS COMPANY

However, should the sales growth not materialize, and/or the operating margins not improve to the extent expected, goodwill impairment charges may be incurred. In its evaluation of goodwill impairment, management estimated that the fair value of the Flexible Packaging unit exceeded its carrying value by approximately 19%.

Rigid Paper Containers Europe manufactures round and shaped composite paperboard cans, single-wrap paperboard packages and fiber cartridges. Results in this unit declined substantially during the global recession, reflecting both a decline in volume and profit margins due to competitive conditions. Based on recent activity with certain key customers, management expects a significant recovery in sales to pre-recession levels over the next two to three years based on expanded volumes with such customers and that profit margins will recover, at least partially, on improving price/cost, productivity gains and fixed cost leverage. However, should the projected improvements fall short of management's expectations, a goodwill impairment charge may be incurred. In its evaluation of goodwill impairment, management estimated that the fair value of Rigid Paper Containers Europe exceeded its carrying value by approximately 71%.

On October 9, 2011, subsequent to the end of the third quarter, the Company signed a definitive agreement to acquire Tegrant Corporation (Tegrant), a privately-held provider of highly engineered protective, temperature-assured and retail security packaging solutions, in exchange for $550 million in cash. Information regarding the acquisition of Tegrant is provided in Note 3 to the Company's Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements.

Financial Position, Liquidity and Capital Resources

The Company's financial position remained strong during the first nine months of 2011. Cash flows provided by operations totaled $131.8 million in the first nine months of 2011, compared with $260.6 million in the same period last year. Although year-over-year earnings were higher, the effect on operating cash flow was more than offset by increases in net working capital of $9.2 million and pension and postretirement plan contributions of $105.3 million. For the full year, cash provided by operations in 2011, including the impact of expected pension and post-retirement plan contributions totaling $142 million, is expected to total approximately $260 million.

During the first nine months of 2011, the Company utilized accumulated cash, cash from operations and additional borrowings to fund capital expenditures of $124.5 million, pay dividends of $86.0 million, repurchase $48.4 million of common stock, and fund acquisitions totaling $10.9 million. Outstanding debt increased by a net $114.3 million to $735.2 million at October 2, 2011. Cash and cash equivalents decreased from $158.2 million at December 31, 2010, to $146.3 million at October 2, 2011. Additional capital spending of $20 million to $30 million is expected during the remainder of 2011.

The Company operates a $350 million commercial paper program, supported by a bank credit facility of the same amount committed through October 2015. Outstanding commercial paper, a component of the Company's long-term debt, totaled $143.0 million at October 2, 2011, compared with $30.0 million at December 31, 2010. In addition, on July 5, 2011, the Company entered into a separate $50 million bank revolving credit facility. This short-term facility will expire on July 3, 2012.

Subsequent to the end of the third quarter of 2011, the Company issued through public offering a total of $500 million of new debentures pursuant to an effective shelf registration statement. The issuance comprised $250 million of 4.375% debentures due 2021, and $250 million of 5.75% debentures due 2040. The new 2040 debentures constitute a further issuance of the 5.75% debentures due 2040, which were issued on November 1, 2010. The Company intends to use substantially all of the net proceeds to fund the acquisition of Tegrant Corporation.

Under Internal Revenue Service rules, U.S. corporations may borrow funds from foreign subsidiaries for up to 30 days without unfavorable tax consequences. The Company utilizes this rule from time to time to access offshore cash in lieu of issuing commercial paper. At October 2, 2011, a total of $100 million was outstanding under the rule. This short-term lending arrangement was subsequently settled within the 30-day period, resulting in equivalent increases in commercial paper outstanding and cash on hand. Depending on its immediate offshore cash needs, the Company may choose to access such funds again in the future as allowed under the rule.

Certain of the Company's debt agreements impose restrictions with respect to the maintenance of financial ratios and the disposition of assets. The most restrictive covenant currently requires the Company to maintain a minimum level of interest coverage, and a minimum level of net worth, as defined. As of October 2, 2011, the Company's interest coverage and net worth were substantially above the minimum levels required under these covenants.

The Company anticipates additional contributions to its pension and postretirement plans of approximately $18 million during the last quarter of 2011, which would bring total contributions made during 2011 to approximately $142 million. Future funding requirements beyond 2011 will vary depending largely on actual investment returns and future actuarial assumptions.

Certain assets and liabilities are reported in the Company's financial statements at fair value, the fluctuation of which can impact the Company's financial position and results of operations. Items reported by the Company on a recurring basis at fair value include derivative contracts and pension and deferred compensation related assets. The valuation of the vast majority of these items is based either on quoted prices in active and accessible markets or on other observable inputs.

At October 2, 2011, the Company had commodity contracts outstanding to fix the cost of a portion of anticipated raw materials and natural gas purchases. The total net fair market value of these instruments was an unfavorable position of $8.2 million at October 2, 2011, and an unfavorable position of $12.4 million at December 31, 2010. Natural gas contracts, aluminum contracts, and old corrugated containers contracts covering an equivalent of 5.2 million MMBtus, 1.1 thousand metric tons, and 31.4 thousand short tons, respectively, were outstanding at October 2, 2011. Additionally, the Company had various currency contracts outstanding to fix the exchange rate on certain anticipated foreign currency cash flows. The total market value of these instruments was a net unfavorable position of $1.4 million at October 2, 2011 compared with a net favorable position of $0.2 million at December 31, 2010. All of these contracts qualify as cash flow hedges.

In addition, at October 2, 2011, the Company had various currency contracts outstanding to fix the exchange rate on certain foreign currency assets and liabilities. Although placed as an economic hedge, the Company does not apply hedge accounting to these contracts. The fair value of these currency contracts was a net unfavorable position of $0.4 million and favorable position of $0.1 million at October 2, 2011 and December 31, 2010, respectively.

The U.S. dollar strengthened against many of the functional currencies of the Company's foreign operations during the first nine months of 2011, resulting in a translation loss of $36.3 million being recorded in accumulated other comprehensive income during the nine months ended October 2, 2011.

There have been no other material quantitative or qualitative changes in market risk exposure since the date of that filing.

Under the supervision, and with the participation, of our management, including our principal executive officer and principal financial officer, we conducted an evaluation pursuant to Rule 13a-15(b) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 of our disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rule 13a-15(e) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934). Based on this evaluation, our principal executive officer and principal financial officer concluded that such controls and procedures, as of the end of the period covered by this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q, were effective.

Changes in Internal Controls

The Company is continuously seeking to improve the efficiency and effectiveness of its operations and of its internal controls. This results in refinements to processes throughout the Company. However, there has been no change in the Company's internal control over financial reporting (as defined in Rule 13a-15(f) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) during the most recent fiscal quarter that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company's internal control over financial reporting.

PART II. OTHER INFORMATIONItem 1. Legal Proceedings.

Information with respect to legal proceedings and other exposures appears in Part I Item 3 Legal Proceedings and Part II Item 8 Financial Statements and Supplementary Data (Note 14 Commitments and Contingencies) in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2010, and in Part I Item 1 Financial Statements (Note 13 Commitments and Contingencies) of this report.

Fox River

In April 2006, the United States and the State of Wisconsin (plaintiffs) sued U.S. Paper Mills Corp. (U.S. Mills), a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, and NCR Corporation (NCR), an unrelated company, to recover certain costs incurred for response activities undertaken regarding the release and threatened release of hazardous substances in specific areas of elevated concentrations of polychlorinated biphenyls (PCBs) in sediments in the Lower Fox River and Green Bay in northeastern Wisconsin (hereinafter the Site). Pursuant to a Consent Decree agreed to by NCR and U.S. Mills as a consequence of the litigation, the Site is to be cleaned up on an expedited basis and NCR and U.S. Mills started removing contaminated sediment in May 2007. The remediation involves removal of sediment from the riverbed, dewatering of the sediment and storage at an offsite landfill. U.S. Mills and NCR reached an agreement between themselves that each would fund 50% of the costs of remediation, which through October 2, 2011, has totaled approximately $29 million. U.S. Mills' environmental reserve at October 2, 2011, includes $3.2 million for its share of the estimated remaining costs under the funding agreement for the remediation of the Site. The actual costs associated with cleanup of the Site, however, are dependent upon many factors and it is possible that remediation costs could be higher or lower than the current estimate of project costs. Under the terms of the agreement, the parties reserved their rights to make claims against each other, as well as third parties, to reallocate the costs of remediating the Site. Accordingly, the Company's ultimate share of the liability for remediating the Site could be greater or less than 50% of the total cost.

In addition to the Site discussed above, as previously disclosed in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2010, U.S. Mills faces additional exposure related to potential natural resource damage and environmental remediation costs for a larger stretch of the lower Fox River, including the bay at Green Bay, which includes the Site discussed above (Operating Units 2-5). On November 13, 2007, the EPA issued a unilateral Administrative Order for Remedial Action pursuant to Section 106 of CERCLA. The order requires U.S. Mills and the seven other respondents jointly to take various actions to cleanup OUs 2-5. The order covers planning and design work as well as dredging and disposing of contaminated sediments and the capping of dredged and less contaminated areas of the river bottom. The order also provides for a penalty for failure by a respondent to comply with its terms as well as exposing a non-complying respondent to potential treble damages. Even though U.S. Mills has reserved its rights to contest liability for any portion of the work, it is cooperating with the other respondents to comply with the order, but its financial contribution will likely be determined by the lawsuit commenced in June 2008 and discussed below.

On June 12, 2008, NCR and Appleton Papers, Inc. (API), as plaintiffs, commenced suit in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Wisconsin (No. 08-CV-0016-WCG) against U.S. Mills, as one of a number of defendants, seeking a declaratory judgment allocating among all the parties the costs and damages associated with the pollution and clean up of the Lower Fox River. The suit also seeks damages from the defendants for amounts already spent by the plaintiffs, including natural resource damages, and future amounts to be spent by all parties with regard to the pollution and cleanup of the Lower Fox River. On December 16, 2009, the court issued an order which concluded that, under the equities of the case, NCR and API were not entitled to any contributions from U.S. Mills and other defendants, thereby granting the defendant's motions for summary judgment and denying the plaintiffs' motions for summary judgment. Although an order has been issued by the court, no appealable final judgment has been entered yet; nevertheless, NCR has reported that it intends to appeal the ruling, presumably after entry of the final judgment. Subsequent to the December 2009 ruling, U.S. Mills and other defendants made motions to have the court rule that, on the same basis as the December 2009 ruling, NCR would be responsible for any costs that U.S. Mills might incur, past, present and future. The court has ruled on some of the motions favorably to U.S. Mills, subject to certain conditions, and deferred ruling on others. It is expected that NCR will appeal these rulings as well and final resolution of all issues is likely to be years away. U.S. Mills plans to continue to defend the suit vigorously.

On October 14, 2010, the United States and the State of Wisconsin filed suit against NCR, API, U.S. Mills and nine other defendants in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Wisconsin (No. 10-CV-00910-WCG) pursuant to Sections 106 and 107 of CERCLA. The plaintiffs seek to recover unreimbursed costs incurred for activities undertaken in response to the release and threatened release of hazardous substances from facilities at or near the Lower Fox River and Green Bay as well as damages for injury to, loss of, and destruction of natural resources resulting from such releases. The plaintiffs also seek a ruling that the defendants are liable for future response costs of the plaintiffs and requiring the defendants to comply with the unilateral Administrative Order for Remedial Action discussed above. The Company does not believe that the remedies sought in the suit materially expand the Company's potential liability beyond what has been previously disclosed in this report or in the Company's prior filings. U.S. Mills plans to defend the suit vigorously.

As of October 2, 2011, U.S. Mills had reserves totaling $54.2 million for potential liabilities associated with the Fox River contamination (not including amounts accrued for remediation at the Site). Although the Company lacks a reasonable basis for identifying any amount within the range of possible loss as a better estimate than any other amount, as has previously been disclosed, the upper end of the range may exceed the net worth of U.S. Mills. However, because the discharges of hazardous materials into the environment occurred before the Company acquired U.S. Mills, and U.S. Mills has been operated as a separate subsidiary of the Company, the Company does not believe that it bears financial responsibility for these legacy environmental liabilities of U.S. Mills. Therefore, the Company continues to believe that the maximum additional exposure to its consolidated financial position is limited to the equity position of U.S. Mills, which was approximately $87 million at October 2, 2011.

Other Legal Matters

On July 7, 2008, the Company was served with a complaint filed in the United States District Court for South Carolina by the City of Ann Arbor Employees' Retirement System, individually and on behalf of others similarly situated. The suit is a class action on behalf of those who purchased the Company's common stock between February 7, 2007 and September 18, 2007, except officers and directors of the Company. The complaint, as amended, alleges that the Company issued press releases and made public statements during the class period that were materially false and misleading. The complaint also names certain Company officers as defendants and seeks an unspecified amount of damages plus interest and attorneys' fees. The Company believes that the claims are without merit and intends to vigorously defend itself against the suit.
