Forward-looking Statements

This Current Report on Form 8-K, and any other written or oral statements made by or on behalf of the Corporation in connection with the matters described in this report, may include forward-looking statements, including, but not limited to, statements about the projected impact on the Corporation of the Transaction. The Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 (the Act) provides a safe harbor for forward-looking statements which are identified as such and are accompanied by the identification of important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from the forward-looking statements. For these statements, we, together with our subsidiaries, unless the context implies otherwise, claim the protection afforded by the safe harbor in the Act. Forward-looking statements are not based on historical information, but rather are related to future operations, strategies, financial results or other developments. Forward-looking statements are based on management s expectations as well as certain assumptions and estimates made by, and information available to, management at the time the statements are made. Those statements are based on general assumptions and are subject to various risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause actual results to differ materially from the views, beliefs and projections expressed in such statements.

In addition to factors previously disclosed in the Corporation's filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, these risks, uncertainties and other factors include, but are not limited to: the possibility that regulatory and other approvals and conditions to the Transaction are not received or satisfied on a timely basis or at all; the possibility that modifications to the terms of the Transaction may be required in order to obtain or satisfy such approvals or conditions; changes in the anticipated timing for closing the Transaction; business disruption during the pendency of or following the Transaction; diversion of management time on Transaction-related issues; reputational risks and the reaction of customers and counterparties to the Transaction and the completion of the audit and finalization of our financial statements for fourth quarter and fiscal year 2011.

Annualized, pro forma, projected and estimated numbers are used for illustrative purposes only, are not forecasts and may not reflect actual results.
