Item 8.01 Other Events.

As previously disclosed, Key Energy Services, Inc., a Maryland corporation (the Company), received a letter on December 7, 2011 (the Letter) on behalf of the Arkansas Public Employees Retirement Systems (APERS), stating that APERS is a stockholder of the Company and alleging that certain of the Company's officers, employees and one director (the Named Individuals) had breached their fiduciary duties, violated internal corporate policies and been unjustly enriched in connection with their oversight and administration of the Company's compliance with health, safety, labor, motor vehicle and other similar laws, rules and regulations to which the Company is subject. The Letter demanded that the Company's board of directors (the Board) take action against the Named Individuals to remedy the conduct alleged in the Letter and threatens that APERS will commence a shareholder derivative suit on behalf of the Company absent action from the Board. To the Company's knowledge, no complaint has been filed in connection with the Letter. The Board established a special review committee (the Committee), consisting of independent members of the Board, to review and evaluate the allegations made in the Letter. The Committee engaged independent legal counsel to assist it with its review.

The Committee has concluded its review and presented its findings and recommendations to the independent members of the Board. The Committee determined, among other things, that the evidence did not support the allegations that any of the Named Individuals had engaged in any misconduct or deliberate wrongful acts, or were personally enriched as a result of any of the alleged misconduct. The Committee also determined that there were not deficiencies in the Company's internal controls related to safety policies and procedures. The Committee did recommend certain enhancements to the Company's existing Occupational Safety and Health Administration Act policies and procedures.

After review of the Committee's presentation, the independent members of the Board accepted all of the Committee's recommendations and determined that it would not be in the best interests of the Company to pursue any claims premised upon the issues in the Letter.
