Item 5.03. Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

On December 5, 2012, PCA's board of directors adopted amended and restated bylaws, which are attached hereto as Exhibit 3.1 and incorporated herein by reference. The following description is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the amended and restated bylaws.

The amendments provide for majority voting in uncontested director elections. In an uncontested election, a nominee for director must receive more for votes than against votes to be elected to the board. In a contested election, a nominee must receive a plurality of votes to be elected to the board. Any nominee for director who fails to receive the required number of votes for reelection must, promptly following certification of the stockholder vote, tender his or her resignation to the board. The independent directors of the board (excluding the director(s) who tendered the resignation) will evaluate such resignation in light of the best interests of PCA and its stockholders in determining whether to accept or reject the resignation, or whether other action should be taken. The board will act on the tendered resignation, and publicly disclose its decision within 90 days following certification of the stockholder vote.
