MERGER PROPOSED YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

Dear Stockholder:

On November 24, 2013, First Wyoming Financial Corporation, or First Wyoming, and WSFS Financial Corporation, or WSFS, agreed to a strategic business combination in which First Wyoming will merge with and into WSFS. If the merger is completed, each share of First Wyoming common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the merger will be converted, at the election of the stockholder, into the right to receive either (i) cash in an amount equal to $60.00, referred to as the Cash Consideration, or (ii) 0.8484 of a share of WSFS common stock, referred to as the Stock Consideration, and together with the Cash Consideration, the Merger Consideration. Each holder of First Wyoming common stock is entitled to elect the form of the Merger Consideration that he or she would like to receive for his or her shares of First Wyoming common stock, and each First Wyoming stockholder may elect to receive all Cash Consideration, all Stock Consideration or a combination of Cash Consideration and Stock Consideration. All such elections are subject to adjustment on a pro rata basis as described elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus. We are sending you this proxy statement/prospectus to notify you of, and invite you to, the special meeting of First Wyoming stockholders being held to consider the Agreement and Plan of Reorganization dated as of November 24, 2013, as amended from time to time, which is referred to as the merger agreement, that First Wyoming has entered into with WSFS, and related matters, and to ask you to vote at the special meeting FOR approval of the merger agreement.

The special meeting of First Wyoming stockholders will be held on April 30, 2014, at 10:30 a.m., local time, at the main office of The First National Bank of Wyoming, located at 120 West Camden-Wyoming Avenue, Wyoming, DE 19934.

At the special meeting, you will be asked to approve the merger agreement. In the merger, First Wyoming will merge with and into WSFS, with WSFS continuing as the surviving corporation of the merger. In addition, under the merger agreement, The First National Bank of Wyoming, a national banking association and wholly owned subsidiary of First Wyoming, will be merged with and into Wilmington Savings Fund Society, FSB, or WSFS Bank, a federal savings bank and a wholly owned subsidiary of WSFS, simultaneously with the merger. You will also be asked to approve the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies in favor of the approval of the merger agreement.

The market value of the Stock Consideration will fluctuate with the market price of WSFS common stock, however the Cash Consideration will remain a fixed amount regardless of any change in the market value of the Stock Consideration. WSFS is traded on the NASDAQ stock market. The following table presents the closing prices of WSFS common stock on November 22, 2013, the last trading day before public announcement of the merger, and on March 25, 2014, the last practicable trading day before the distribution of this proxy statement/prospectus. The table also presents the implied value of the Stock Consideration proposed for each share of First Wyoming common stock converted into the Stock Consideration on those dates, as determined by multiplying the closing price of WSFS common stock on those dates by the exchange ratio of 0.8484 provided for in the merger agreement. This table also presents the implied value of the Cash Consideration proposed for each share of First Wyoming common stock converted into the Cash Consideration, which will remain a fixed amount regardless of any change in the market value of the Stock Consideration. We urge you to obtain current market quotations for WSFS.

	WSFS Common Stock (NASDAQ: WSFS)	Implied Value of One Share of First Wyoming Common Stock	Value of the Cash Consideration for One Share of First Wyoming Common Stock
At November 22, 2013	$ 72.35	$ 61.38	$ 60.00
At March 25, 2014	$ 70.41	$ 59.74	$ 60.00

Your vote is important. We cannot complete the merger unless First Wyoming's stockholders approve the merger agreement. In order for the merger to be approved, the holders of a majority of the shares of First Wyoming common stock outstanding and entitled to vote must vote in favor of approval of the merger agreement. Regardless of whether you plan to attend the special meeting, please take the time to vote your shares in accordance with the instructions contained in this proxy statement/prospectus. Failing to vote will have the same effect as voting against the merger.

First Wyoming's board of directors unanimously recommends that First Wyoming stockholders vote FOR approval of the merger agreement and FOR approval of the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies in favor of the approval of the merger agreement.

This proxy statement/prospectus describes the First Wyoming stockholders' meeting, the merger, the documents related to the merger and other related matters. QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER AND THE FIRST WYOMING SPECIAL MEETING

The following are some questions that you may have regarding the merger of First Wyoming into WSFS and the First Wyoming special meeting of stockholders, which is referred to as the First Wyoming special meeting, and brief answers to those questions. We urge you to read carefully the remainder of this proxy statement/prospectus because the information in this section does not provide all of the information that might be important to you with respect to the merger and the First Wyoming special meeting. Additional important information is also contained in the documents incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. See Where You Can Find More Information beginning on page 86. Unless the context requires otherwise, references in this proxy statement/prospectus to WSFS refer to WSFS Financial Corporation, a Delaware corporation, and/or its consolidated subsidiaries, references in this proxy statement/prospectus to First Wyoming refer to First Wyoming Financial Corporation, a Nevada corporation, and/or its consolidated subsidiaries, and references in this proxy statement/prospectus to we, our and us refer to WSFS and First Wyoming collectively.

Q: What am I being asked to vote on at the First Wyoming special meeting?

A: WSFS and First Wyoming have entered into an Agreement and Plan of Reorganization dated as of November 24, 2013, as amended from time to time, which is referred to as the merger agreement, pursuant to which WSFS has agreed to acquire First Wyoming. Under the terms of the merger agreement, First Wyoming will merge with and into WSFS, with WSFS continuing as the surviving corporation of the merger, which is referred to as the merger. Also under the terms of the merger agreement, The First National Bank of Wyoming, a national banking association and wholly owned subsidiary of First Wyoming, will be merged with and into WSFS Bank simultaneously with the merger, which is referred to as the bank subsidiary merger. First Wyoming stockholders are being asked to approve the merger agreement and the transactions it contemplates, including the merger. First Wyoming stockholders are also being asked to approve the adjournment of the First Wyoming special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies in favor of the approval of the merger agreement, which is referred to as the adjournment proposal.

Q: How does First Wyoming's board of directors recommend I vote at the First Wyoming special meeting?

A: First Wyoming's board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the proposal to approve the merger agreement and FOR the adjournment proposal.

Q: When and where is the First Wyoming special meeting?

A: The First Wyoming special meeting will be held at the main office of The First National Bank of Wyoming, located at 120 West Camden-Wyoming Avenue, Wyoming, DE 19934, on April 30, 2014, at 10:30 a.m., local time.

Q: What do I need to do now?

A: After you have carefully read this proxy statement/prospectus and have decided how you wish to vote your shares, please vote your shares promptly so that your shares are represented and voted at the First Wyoming special meeting. If you hold stock in your name as a stockholder of record, you must complete, sign, date and mail your proxy card in the enclosed postage-paid return envelope as soon as possible, or call the toll-free telephone number or use the Internet as described in the instructions included with your proxy card or voting instruction card. If you hold your stock in street name through a bank or broker, you must direct your bank or broker to vote your shares, following the instructions your bank or broker provides.

Street name stockholders who wish to vote at the First Wyoming special meeting will need to obtain a proxy form from the institution that holds their shares.

Q: What constitutes a quorum for the First Wyoming special meeting?

A: The presence at the First Wyoming special meeting, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the First Wyoming common stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote thereat will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. If a quorum is not present, the First Wyoming special meeting will be postponed until the holders of the number of shares of First Wyoming common stock required to constitute a quorum attend. If you submit a properly executed proxy card, even if you abstain from voting, your shares of First Wyoming common stock will be counted for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present at the First Wyoming special meeting. If additional votes must be solicited to approve the merger agreement and the adjournment proposal is approved, it is expected that the First Wyoming special meeting will be adjourned to solicit additional proxies.

Q: What is the vote required to approve each proposal at the First Wyoming special meeting?

A: Approval of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of First Wyoming common stock outstanding and entitled to vote as of the close of business on March 28, 2014, the record date for the First Wyoming special meeting.

The adjournment proposal will be approved if the number of votes cast in favor of the adjournment proposal exceeds the number of votes cast in opposition to the adjournment proposal at the First Wyoming special meeting.

Q: Why is my vote important?

A: If you do not vote, it will be more difficult for First Wyoming to obtain the necessary quorum to hold the First Wyoming special meeting. In addition, your failure to vote or failure to instruct your bank or broker how to vote will have the same effect as a vote against approval of the merger agreement. The merger agreement must be approved by the holders of a majority of the shares of First Wyoming common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the First Wyoming special meeting. First Wyoming's board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote to approve the merger agreement.

Q: What if I fail to vote, abstain from voting or fail to instruct my bank or broker?

A: If you sign, date and mail your proxy card without indicating how you wish to vote, your proxy will be counted as present for the purpose of determining the presence of a quorum for the First Wyoming special meeting and all of your shares will be voted FOR each of the proposals to be voted on at the First Wyoming special meeting. If you fail to vote or mark ABSTAIN on your proxy or fail to instruct your bank or broker with respect to the proposal to approve the merger agreement, it will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST the proposal to approve the merger agreement.

If you fail to vote or mark ABSTAIN on your proxy or fail to instruct your bank or broker with respect to the adjournment proposal, it will have no effect on the adjournment proposal.

Q: Can I attend the First Wyoming special meeting and vote my shares in person?

- A: Yes. All First Wyoming stockholders, including stockholders of record and stockholders who hold their shares through banks, brokers, nominees or any other holder of record, are invited to attend the First Wyoming special meeting. Holders of record of First Wyoming common stock can vote in person at the First Wyoming special meeting. If you are not a stockholder of record, you must obtain a proxy, executed in your favor, from the record holder of your shares, such as a broker, bank or other nominee, to be able to vote in person at the First Wyoming special meeting. If you plan to attend the First Wyoming special meeting, you must hold your shares in your own name or have a letter from the record holder of your shares confirming your ownership. In addition, you must bring a form of personal photo identification with you in order to be admitted. We reserve the right to refuse admittance to anyone without proper proof of share ownership or without proper photo identification. The use of cameras, sound recording equipment, communications devices or any similar equipment during the First Wyoming special meeting is prohibited without First Wyoming's express written consent.

Q: Can I change my vote?

A: Yes. You may revoke any proxy at any time before it is voted by (1) signing and returning a proxy card with a later date, (2) delivering a written revocation letter to First Wyoming's secretary, (3) voting again by telephone or the Internet or (4) attending the First Wyoming special meeting in person, notifying the secretary and voting by ballot at the First Wyoming special meeting. Attendance at the First Wyoming special meeting will not automatically revoke your proxy. A revocation or later-dated proxy received by First Wyoming after the vote will not affect the vote. The First Wyoming secretary's mailing address is:

First Wyoming Financial Corporation

120 West Camden-Wyoming Avenue

Wyoming, DE 19934

Attention: Judy Cook

If you hold your stock in street name through a bank or broker, you should contact your bank or broker to revoke your proxy.

Q: What will happen in the merger?

A: At the effective time of the merger, First Wyoming will merge with and into WSFS and WSFS will be the surviving entity. In addition, as a result of the merger, First Wyoming will cease to exist, and its businesses will be owned by WSFS, which will continue as a public company. In addition, The First National Bank of Wyoming will merge with and into WSFS Bank simultaneously with the merger, with WSFS Bank as the surviving entity.

Q: What will I receive for my First Wyoming stock?

A: In exchange for each of your shares of First Wyoming common stock, you may make an election to receive either (i) cash in an amount equal to $60.00, referred to as the Cash Consideration, or (ii) 0.8484 of a share of WSFS common stock, referred to as the Stock Consideration, and together with the Cash Consideration, the Merger Consideration. Each holder of First Wyoming common stock is entitled to elect the form of the Merger Consideration that he or she would like to receive for his or her shares of First Wyoming common stock, including electing to receive the Cash Consideration for a portion of his or her shares of First Wyoming common stock and receive the Stock Consideration for the remainder of his or her shares of First Wyoming common stock. All such elections are subject to adjustment on a pro rata basis as described elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus, except for elections for Split Election Shares (as defined in this proxy statement/prospectus). For example, if you hold 100 shares of First Wyoming common stock, you may elect to convert 30 shares of your First Wyoming common stock into the Cash Consideration and 70 shares of your First Wyoming common stock into the Stock Consideration (or any other combination), subject to the proration provisions described below.

No guarantee can be made that you will receive the amount of the Cash Consideration or the Stock Consideration you elect. As a result of the proration procedures provided for in the merger agreement, as described in this proxy statement/prospectus, you may receive the Stock Consideration or the Cash Consideration in amounts that are different from the amounts you elect to receive.

Q: How might the Merger Consideration I elect to receive be adjusted on a pro rata basis?

A: Each holder of First Wyoming common stock is entitled to elect the form of consideration that he or she would like to receive for his or her shares of First Wyoming common stock, including electing to receive the Cash Consideration for a portion of his or her shares of First Wyoming common stock and receive the Stock Consideration for the remainder of his or her shares of First Wyoming common stock. A share for which an election to receive the Cash Consideration is made is referred to as a Cash Election Share and a share for which an election to receive the Stock Consideration is made is referred to as a Stock Election Share. Shares of First Wyoming common stock for which no election is made will be deemed to be Non-Election Shares. All such elections are subject to adjustment on a pro rata basis except for elections for Split Election Shares.

Table of Contents

The terms of the merger agreement provide that the aggregate amount of the Cash Consideration that holders of First Wyoming common stock are entitled to receive is $32,020,410, or the Maximum Cash Contribution. As a result, except for elections for Split Election Shares, all elections may be subject to proration depending on the elections made by other holders of First Wyoming common stock if the Maximum Cash Contribution is undersubscribed or oversubscribed. Proration will be applied so that ultimately 50% of the shares of First Wyoming common stock are treated as Cash Election Shares and 50% of the shares of First Wyoming common stock are treated as Stock Election Shares.

For example, if the aggregate of the Cash Consideration payable to holders of Cash Election Shares is in excess of the Maximum Cash Contribution, all of the Non-Election Shares will be treated as Stock Election Shares and a number of Cash Election Shares that are not Split Election Shares will be converted into Stock Election Shares until the Maximum Cash Contribution is no longer oversubscribed. If the aggregate of the Cash Consideration payable to holders of Cash Election Shares is less than the Maximum Cash Contribution, a number of Non-Election Shares will be treated as Cash Election Shares until the Maximum Cash Contribution is no longer undersubscribed and, if necessary, a number of Stock Election Shares that are not Split Election Shares will be converted into Cash Election Shares until the Maximum Cash Contribution is no longer undersubscribed.

Q: Is the value of the per share consideration that I receive for my shares of First Wyoming common stock expected to be substantially equivalent regardless of which election I make?

A: There will be no adjustment to the fixed number of shares of WSFS common stock that will be issued to First Wyoming stockholders who receive the Stock Consideration based upon changes in the market price of WSFS common stock or First Wyoming common stock prior to the closing. The value of the Cash Consideration will not change. As result, the value of the Merger Consideration received by holders of First Wyoming common stock who receive the Cash Consideration may differ from the value of the Merger Consideration received by holders of First Wyoming common stock who receive the Stock Consideration.

The market price of WSFS common stock at the time the merger is completed may vary from the price of WSFS common stock on the date the merger agreement was executed, on the date of this proxy statement/prospectus and on the date of the First Wyoming special meeting as a result of various factors that are beyond the control of WSFS and First Wyoming, including but not limited to general market and economic conditions, changes in our respective businesses, operations and prospects, and regulatory considerations. In addition to the approval of the merger agreement by First Wyoming stockholders, consummation of the merger is subject to receipt of required regulatory approvals and satisfaction of other conditions that may not occur until after the First Wyoming special meeting. Therefore, at the time of the First Wyoming special meeting you will not know the precise value of the Stock Consideration, if any, that you will receive at the effective time of the merger. You should obtain current market quotations for shares of WSFS common stock.

Q: How do I make an election for the type of the Merger Consideration that I prefer to receive and when can I expect to receive the Merger Consideration?

A: Each holder of record of First Wyoming common stock as of the close of business on the record date for notice of the First Wyoming special meeting of stockholders will be mailed a form of election/letter of transmittal and other appropriate and customary transmittal materials at least 20 business days prior to the deadline for holders of First Wyoming common stock to elect the form of the Merger Consideration they want to receive. The deadline for holders of First Wyoming common stock to elect the form of the Merger Consideration they want to receive is 30 days after the closing date of the merger and is referred to as the election deadline. Each holder of First Wyoming common stock should specify in the election form (1) the number of shares of First Wyoming common stock which such stockholder elects to have exchanged for the Stock Consideration, (2) the number of shares of First Wyoming common stock such stockholder elects to have exchanged for the Cash Consideration, or (3) if such stockholder wishes to elect to receive the Stock Consideration for half of his or her shares of First Wyoming common stock and to receive the Cash Consideration for the remaining half of his or her shares of First Wyoming common stock (and, if the holder of First Wyoming common stock holds an odd number of shares of First Wyoming common stock, an election to receive either the Stock Consideration or the Cash Consideration for the remaining odd share of First Wyoming common stock), which are referred to as Split Election Shares. All such elections other than elections to receive Split Election Shares are subject to adjustment on a pro rata basis as described elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus. Shares of First Wyoming common stock for which an election is not made or that are not submitted by the election deadline are referred to as Non-Electing Shares. All Non-Electing Shares shall be entitled to receive the Stock Consideration, subject to adjustment as set forth in the merger agreement and described in this proxy statement/prospectus. Holders of First Wyoming common stock shall receive their Merger Consideration as promptly as practicable following the election deadline, subject to the holders submitting their properly completed letter of transmittal and other transmittal materials.

Q: What are the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to First Wyoming stockholders?

A: The merger is intended to qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, which we refer to as the Code, and that First Wyoming and WSFS will each be treated as a party to the reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(b) of the Code. Assuming that the merger so qualifies as a reorganization, which First Wyoming and WSFS anticipate, in general, for U.S. federal income tax purposes:

 Holders of First Wyoming common stock who receive solely the Cash Consideration in the merger will generally recognize gain or loss;

 Holders of First Wyoming common stock who receive solely the Stock Consideration in the merger generally will not recognize any gain or loss as a result of the exchange (other than for cash received in lieu of any fractional share of First Wyoming common stock); and

 Holders of First Wyoming common stock who receive a combination of the Cash Consideration and the Stock Consideration in the merger will not generally recognize any loss but will generally recognize gain, if any, to the extent of any of the Cash Consideration received.

For further information, see Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger.

The U.S. federal income tax consequences described above may not apply to all holders of First Wyoming common stock. Your tax consequences will depend on your individual situation. Accordingly, we strongly urge you to consult your tax advisor for a full understanding of the particular tax consequences of the merger to you.

Q: Do I have dissenters' rights in connection with the merger?

A: Yes. Under Chapter 92A of the Nevada Revised Statutes, or the NRS, First Wyoming stockholders will have dissenters' rights in connection with the merger. To exercise dissenters' rights, First Wyoming stockholders must strictly follow the procedures prescribed by Nevada law. These procedures are summarized under the section entitled The Merger Dissenters Appraisal Rights beginning on page 49, and Sections 92A.300 through 92A.500 of the NRS are attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex II. Holders of shares of First Wyoming common stock are encouraged to read these provisions carefully and in their entirety. Due to the complexity of the procedures for exercising the right to seek appraisals, holders of shares of First Wyoming common stock who are considering exercising such rights are encouraged to seek the advice of legal counsel. Failure to strictly comply with these provisions will result in the loss of dissenters' rights. See the section entitled The Merger Dissenters Appraisal Rights beginning on page 49.

Q: If I am a First Wyoming stockholder, should I send in my First Wyoming stock certificates now?

A: No. Please do not send in your First Wyoming stock certificates with your proxy. After the effective time of the merger, an exchange agent designated by WSFS will send you instructions for exchanging First Wyoming stock certificates for the Merger Consideration. See The Merger Agreement Conversion of Shares; Exchange of Certificates beginning on page 54.

Table of Contents

Q: What should I do if I hold my shares of First Wyoming common stock in book-entry form?

A: An exchange agent designated by WSFS, or your broker or bank, will send you instructions for exchanging your shares of First Wyoming common stock for the Merger Consideration.

Q: Who may I contact if I cannot locate my First Wyoming stock certificate(s)?

A: If you are unable to locate your original First Wyoming stock certificate(s), you should contact Judy Cook, Vice President of Human Resources at The First National Bank of Wyoming at 120 West Camden-Wyoming Avenue, Wyoming, Delaware 19934. If you are unable to locate your First Wyoming stock certificate, the exchange agent may require the provision of a lost stock affidavit, a bond, or other documentation as may reasonably be required.

Q: When do you expect to complete the merger?

A: We expect to consummate the merger in the third quarter of 2014. However, we cannot assure you when or if the merger will occur. We must first obtain the approval of First Wyoming's stockholders at the First Wyoming special meeting and the necessary regulatory approvals and the other conditions to closing must be satisfied before the merger is consummated.

Q: Whom should I call with questions?

A: If you have any questions concerning the merger or this proxy statement/prospectus, would like additional copies of this proxy statement/prospectus or need help voting your shares of First Wyoming common stock, please contact: Judy Cook, Vice President of Human Resources at The First National Bank of Wyoming at (302) 697-2666.

SUMMARY

This summary highlights selected information from this proxy statement/prospectus. It may not contain all of the information that is important to you. We urge you to carefully read the entire proxy statement/prospectus, including the appendices, and the other documents to which we refer in order to fully understand the merger. See Where You Can Find More Information on page 86. Each item in this summary refers to the page of this proxy statement/prospectus on which that subject is discussed in more detail.

As a result of the merger, First Wyoming Stockholders will have a right to elect to receive either 0.8484 of a share of WSFS common stock, referred to as the Stock Consideration, or $60.00 in cash, referred to as the Cash Consideration, or a combination of Stock Consideration and Cash Consideration (page 35).

We are proposing the merger of First Wyoming with and into WSFS, with WSFS continuing as the surviving corporation of the merger. If the merger is completed, each share of First Wyoming common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the merger will be converted, at the election of the stockholder, into the right to receive either (i) cash in an amount equal to $60.00, referred to as the Cash Consideration, or (ii) 0.8484 of a share of WSFS common stock, referred to as the Stock Consideration, and together with the Cash Consideration, the Merger Consideration. Each holder of First Wyoming common stock is entitled to elect the form of the Merger Consideration that he or she would like to receive for his or her shares of First Wyoming common stock, which may be all Stock Consideration, all Cash Consideration or a combination of Stock Consideration and Cash Consideration. All such elections are subject to adjustment on a pro rata basis except for elections by holders of First Wyoming common stock to receive the Stock Consideration for half of their shares and the Cash Consideration for the remaining half of their shares (and, if the holder of First Wyoming common stock holds an odd number of shares, an election to receive either the Stock Consideration or the Cash Consideration for the remaining odd share of First Wyoming common stock), which are referred to as Split Election Shares. Shares of First Wyoming common stock for which an election is not made or that are not submitted by the election deadline are referred to as Non-Electing Shares. All Non-Electing Shares shall be entitled to receive the Stock Consideration, subject to adjustment as set forth in the merger agreement and described in this proxy statement/prospectus. No fractional shares of WSFS common stock will be issued in connection with the merger, and holders of First Wyoming common stock will be entitled to receive cash in lieu thereof.

For example, a First Wyoming stockholder who holds 100 shares of First Wyoming common stock may elect to convert 30 shares of his or her First Wyoming common stock into Cash Election Shares and 70 shares of his or her First Wyoming common stock into Stock Election Shares (or any other combination), subject to the proration provisions described elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus.

The merger agreement governs the merger. The merger agreement is included in this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex I. Please read the merger agreement carefully. All descriptions in this summary and elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus of the terms and conditions of the merger are qualified by reference to the merger agreement.

First Wyoming's Board of Directors Unanimously Recommends that First Wyoming Stockholders Vote FOR Approval of the Merger Agreement (page 30)

First Wyoming's board of directors has determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement are advisable and in the best interests of First Wyoming and its stockholders. All but one of the six members of First Wyoming's board of directors approved and adopted the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby (including the merger). However, the one director voting against the merger and the merger agreement did not do so based on the merits of the transaction, but on his personal desire for First Wyoming to remain an independent corporation. The director voting against the merger and the merger agreement joins the other directors of First Wyoming in recommending the approval of the transaction to the First Wyoming stockholders. Accordingly, First Wyoming's board of directors unanimously recommends that First Wyoming stockholders vote FOR approval of the merger agreement. For the factors considered by First Wyoming's board of directors in reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement, see the section entitled "The Merger - First Wyoming's Reasons for the Merger" beginning on page 37.

Gerrish McCreary Smith Consultants, LLC Has Provided an Opinion to First Wyoming's Board of Directors Regarding the Acquisition of First Wyoming by WSFS (page 40 and Annex III)

On November 21, 2013, Gerrish McCreary Smith Consultants, LLC, which is referred to as GMS, First Wyoming's financial advisor in connection with the merger, rendered its oral opinion to First Wyoming's board of directors, and subsequently confirmed in writing, that as of such date and based upon and subject to the assumptions, procedures, considerations, qualifications and limitations set forth in the written opinion, the acquisition of First Wyoming by WSFS pursuant to the merger agreement is fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of shares of First Wyoming common stock.

The full text of GMS' opinion, dated November 22, 2013, is attached as Annex III to this proxy statement/prospectus. You should read the opinion in its entirety for a discussion of the assumptions made, procedures followed, factors considered and limitations upon the review undertaken by GMS in rendering its opinion.

GMS' opinion is directed to First Wyoming's board of directors, addresses only the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the acquisition of First Wyoming by WSFS pursuant to the merger agreement, and does not address any other aspect of the merger or constitute a recommendation as to how any stockholder of First Wyoming should vote at any stockholder's meeting held in connection with the merger.

For further information, please see the discussion under the caption "The Merger - Fairness Opinion of First Wyoming's Financial Advisor," beginning on page 40.

First Wyoming will Hold its Special Meeting on April 30, 2014 (page 30)

The First Wyoming special meeting will be held on April 30, 2014, at 10:30 a.m., local time, at the main office of The First National Bank of Wyoming, located at 120 West Camden-Wyoming Avenue, Wyoming, DE 19934. At the First Wyoming special meeting, First Wyoming stockholders will be asked to:

approve the merger agreement and the transactions it contemplates; and approve the adjournment proposal, if necessary.

Only holders of record at the close of business on March 28, 2014 will be entitled to vote at the First Wyoming special meeting. Each share of First Wyoming common stock is entitled to one vote on each proposal to be considered at the First Wyoming special meeting. As of the record date, there were 1,067,347 shares of First Wyoming common stock entitled to vote at the First Wyoming special meeting. As of the record date, directors and executive officers of First Wyoming and their affiliates owned and were entitled to vote 158,423 shares of First Wyoming common stock, representing approximately 14.84 percent of the shares of First Wyoming common stock outstanding on that date. As of the record date, WSFS beneficially held no shares of First Wyoming common stock, and WSFS' directors and executive officers and their affiliates held no shares of First Wyoming common stock.

To approve the merger agreement, holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of First Wyoming common stock entitled to vote at the First Wyoming special meeting must vote in favor of approving the merger agreement. Because approval is based on the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares outstanding, your failure to vote, failure to instruct your bank or broker with respect to the proposal to approve the merger agreement, or abstention will have the same effect as a vote against approval of the merger agreement.

Table of Contents

The adjournment proposal, if necessary, will be approved if the number of votes cast in favor of the adjournment proposal exceeds the number of votes cast in opposition to the adjournment proposal at the First Wyoming special meeting. A failure to vote, failure to instruct your bank or broker with respect to the adjournment proposal, or abstention will have no effect on the adjournment proposal.

First Wyoming's Directors and Certain Officers have entered into Noncompetition and/or Voting Agreements (page 31)

As an inducement to and condition of WSFS's willingness to enter in the merger agreement, each of the directors of First Wyoming have entered into voting and non-competition agreements with First Wyoming and WSFS pursuant to which such directors have agreed to vote (or cause to be voted) the shares of First Wyoming common stock beneficially owned by them in favor of approval of the merger agreement and the transactions it contemplates at any First Wyoming stockholders' meeting held in connection with the merger. Similarly, certain officers of First Wyoming have entered into voting agreements with First Wyoming and WSFS pursuant to which such officers have agreed to vote (or cause to be voted) the shares of First Wyoming common stock beneficially owned by them in favor or approval of the merger agreement and the transactions it contemplates at any First Wyoming stockholder's meeting held in connection with the merger. In addition, such directors and officers have agreed, by execution of their agreements, to vote their shares of First Wyoming common stock against any other proposal to acquire at least 20% of the outstanding shares or assets of First Wyoming. The number of shares of First Wyoming common stock that are beneficially owned and entitled to vote by directors and officers of First Wyoming that have signed voting and noncompetition agreements is 158,283, or 14.83% of the total shares of First Wyoming common stock outstanding on the record date.

First Wyoming's Directors and Officers May Have Financial Interests in the Merger That Differ From Your Interests (page 48)

First Wyoming stockholders should be aware that some of First Wyoming's directors and executive officers may have interests in the merger and have arrangements that may be different from, or in addition to, those of First Wyoming stockholders generally. Some of these interests include that, pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, effective as of the consummation of the merger, WSFS and WSFS Bank will combine the existing Kent County and Sussex County advisory boards to form the Southern Delaware Advisory Board, and WSFS Bank's appointee, Joshua M. Twilley, will become its chairperson. Mr. Twilley is currently chairman of the board of directors of First Wyoming. Mr. Twilley also may enter into a consulting arrangement with WSFS pursuant to which he will receive cash consulting fees from WSFS. These interests and arrangements may create potential conflicts of interest. The First Wyoming board of directors was aware of these interests and considered these interests, among other matters, when making its decision to approve the merger agreement and the merger, and in recommending that First Wyoming's stockholders vote in favor of approval of the merger agreement.

For a more complete description of these interests, see "The Merger - Interests of First Wyoming's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger" beginning on page 48.

First Wyoming's Stockholders May Exercise Dissenters' Rights (page 49)

Under Chapter 92A of the NRS, First Wyoming stockholders will have dissenters' rights in connection with the merger. To exercise dissenters' rights, First Wyoming stockholders must strictly follow the procedures prescribed by Nevada law. These procedures are summarized under the section entitled "The Merger - Dissenters' Appraisal Rights" beginning on page 49, and Sections 92A.300 through 92A.500 of the NRS are attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex II.

Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger (page 51)

We have agreed to use our reasonable best efforts to obtain all regulatory approvals, non-objections or waivers required to complete the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. These regulatory determinations include the approval of the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, which is referred to as the OCC, for the bank merger, and a waiver from the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, which is referred to as the Federal Reserve Board, for the merger, among others. WSFS and First Wyoming have filed, or are in the process of filing, applications, requests, letters and notifications to obtain the required regulatory determinations.

Although we do not know of any reason why these regulatory approvals, non-objections or waivers cannot be obtained in a timely manner, we cannot be certain when or if they will be obtained.

Conditions That Must Be Satisfied or Waived for the Merger to Occur (page 65)

Currently, we expect to consummate the merger in the third quarter of 2014. As more fully described in this proxy statement/prospectus and in the merger agreement, consummation of the merger depends on a number of conditions being satisfied or, where legally permissible, waived. The conditions to each party's obligation to complete the merger include, among others:

approval of the merger agreement by First Wyoming's stockholders;

receipt of required regulatory approvals (provided that no such required regulatory approval may impose a burdensome condition on WSFS);

absence of any law, injunction or other restraint prohibiting, restricting or making illegal consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;

the declaration of effectiveness by the SEC of WSFS's registration statement on Form S-4 registering the WSFS common stock issuable to First Wyoming stockholders, with no stop orders suspending the effectiveness thereof having been issued;

authorization of the shares of WSFS common stock to be issued in the merger for listing on the NASDAQ Global Select Market, which is referred to as NASDAQ; accuracy of each party's representations and warranties in the merger agreement, generally subject to specified materiality standards;

performance in all material respects of each party's obligations under the merger agreement including the continued employment of Joseph Chippie, John Coleman and Robert Faries and the formation by WSFS of the Southern Delaware Advisory Board; and receipt by each party of an opinion of counsel, to the effect that the merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

We cannot be certain when, or if, the conditions to the merger will be satisfied or waived, or that the merger will be completed.

Termination of the Merger Agreement (page 66)

We may mutually agree to terminate the merger agreement before completing the merger, even after receiving First Wyoming stockholder approval.

In addition, either of us may decide to terminate the merger agreement if:

any regulatory authority which must grant a required regulatory approval has denied approval of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, and this denial has become final and nonappealable, or a regulatory authority has issued a final nonappealable law or order prohibiting the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, if the party seeking to terminate the merger agreement has used its reasonable best efforts to contest, appeal and change such denial, law or order;

the First Wyoming stockholders fail to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby at the First Wyoming special meeting;

the merger has not been completed on or before November 24, 2014, which is referred to as the outside date, if the failure to consummate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement by the outside date is not caused by the terminating party's breach of the merger agreement; or any of the conditions precedent to the obligations of the terminating party to consummate the merger cannot be satisfied or fulfilled by the outside date, if the failure of such condition to be satisfied or fulfilled is not a result of the terminating party's failure to perform, in any material respect, any of its material covenants or agreements in the merger agreement or such party's material breach of any of its material representations or warranties contained in the merger agreement.

In addition, WSFS may terminate the merger agreement if:

First Wyoming's board of directors fails to recommend the merger to, and the approval of the merger agreement by, the First Wyoming stockholders or changes its recommendation to the First Wyoming stockholders in a manner adverse to WSFS;

First Wyoming's board of directors breaches its non-solicitation obligations or obligations with respect to other acquisition proposals set forth in the merger agreement in any respect adverse to WSFS; or

First Wyoming's board of directors breaches its obligations to call, give notice of, convene and/or hold a stockholders' meeting or to use reasonable best efforts to obtain the approval of First Wyoming stockholders.

In addition, First Wyoming may terminate the agreement if:

First Wyoming receives a superior proposal and enters into an acquisition agreement with respect to such superior proposal provided that concurrently with such termination, First Wyoming pays to WSFS a termination fee of $2.88 million; or the price of WSFS common stock declines by more than 15% from $72.35 and underperforms an index of banking companies by more than 15% over a designated measurement period unless WSFS agrees to increase the number of shares of WSFS common stock to be issued to holders of First Wyoming common stock who are to receive Stock Consideration in the merger.

Termination Fee (page 67)

If the merger agreement is terminated under certain circumstances, including circumstances involving a change in recommendation by First Wyoming's board of directors, First Wyoming may be required to pay WSFS a termination fee of $2.88 million. The termination fee could discourage other companies from seeking to acquire or merge with First Wyoming.

Board of Directors and Executive Officers of WSFS and WSFS Bank following the Effective Time of the Merger (page 48)

The directors and officers of WSFS immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will continue as the directors and officers of the surviving corporation of the merger. Pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, effective as of the consummation of the merger, WSFS and WSFS Bank will combine the existing Kent County and Sussex County advisory boards to form the Southern Delaware Advisory Board, and WSFS Bank's appointee, Joshua M. Twilley, will become its chairperson. Mr. Twilley is currently chairman of the board of directors of First Wyoming.

The Rights of First Wyoming Stockholders will Change as a Result of the Merger (page 76)

The rights of First Wyoming stockholders will change as a result of the merger due to differences in WSFS and First Wyoming's governing documents. The rights of First Wyoming stockholders are governed by Nevada law and by First Wyoming's amended and restated articles of incorporation and amended and restated bylaws, each as amended to date (which are referred to as First Wyoming's articles of incorporation and bylaws, respectively). Upon the effective time of the merger, the rights of First Wyoming stockholders who receive the Stock Consideration will be governed by Delaware law and WSFS' amended and restated certificate of incorporation and amended and restated bylaws (which are referred to as WSFS' certificate of incorporation and bylaws, respectively). First Wyoming stockholders who receive solely the Cash Consideration will have their stockholder rights extinguished.

This proxy statement/prospectus contains descriptions of the material differences in stockholder rights under each of First Wyoming's articles of incorporation and bylaws and WSFS' certificate of incorporation and bylaws.

The Merger Is Intended to Be Tax-Free to Holders of First Wyoming Common Stock as to the Shares of WSFS Common Stock They Receive (page 69)

The merger is intended to qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, and, as a condition to the respective obligations of WSFS and First Wyoming to complete the merger, each of WSFS and First Wyoming shall receive a legal opinion to that effect. Accordingly, the merger generally will be tax-free to a holder of First Wyoming common stock for U.S. federal income tax purposes who receives solely the Stock Consideration for all of his or her shares, except for any gain or loss that may result from the receipt of cash instead of fractional shares of WSFS common stock that such holder of First Wyoming common stock would otherwise be entitled to receive. If the holder of First Wyoming common stock receives solely the Cash Consideration for all of his or her shares, the holder of First Wyoming common stock generally will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and the basis in his or her shares of First Wyoming common stock as set forth below. If the holder of First Wyoming common stock receives a combination of Cash Consideration and Stock Consideration in the merger, the holder will not generally recognize any loss but will generally recognize gain, if any, to the extent of any Cash Consideration received. For further information, see Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger beginning on page 69.

The U.S. federal income tax consequences described above may not apply to all holders of First Wyoming common stock. Your tax consequences will depend on your individual situation. Accordingly, we strongly urge you to consult your tax advisor for a full understanding of the particular tax consequences of the merger to you.

On November 22, 2013, the last trading day before public announcement of the merger, the closing sales price per share of WSFS common stock was $72.35 on NASDAQ. On March 25, 2014, the last practicable trading day before the distribution of this proxy statement/prospectus, the closing sales price per share of WSFS common stock was $70.41 on NASDAQ.

First Wyoming stockholders are advised to obtain current market quotations for WSFS common stock. The market price of WSFS common stock will fluctuate between the date of this proxy statement/prospectus and the effective time of the merger. No assurance can be given concerning the market price of WSFS common stock before or after the effective date of the merger. Any change in the market price of WSFS common stock prior to the effective time of the merger will affect the market value of the Merger Consideration that First Wyoming's stockholders who receive the Stock Consideration will receive upon the effective time of the merger. First Wyoming common stock is not listed on any stock exchange or quoted on any interdealer quotation system.

Dividends

After the merger, WSFS currently expects to pay (when, as and if declared by WSFS' board of directors) regular quarterly cash dividends of $0.12 per share. While WSFS currently pays dividends on its common stock, there is no assurance that it will continue to pay dividends in the future. Future dividends on WSFS common stock will depend upon its earnings and financial condition, liquidity and capital requirements, the general economic and regulatory climate, its ability to service any equity or debt obligations senior to the common stock and other factors deemed relevant by the board of directors of WSFS.

As a holding company, WSFS is ultimately dependent upon its subsidiaries to provide funding for its operating expenses, debt service and dividends. Various banking laws applicable to WSFS Bank limit the payment of dividends and other distributions by WSFS Bank to WSFS and may therefore limit WSFS ability to pay dividends on its common stock. Regulatory authorities could impose administratively stricter limitations on the ability of WSFS Bank to pay dividends to WSFS, or WSFS to pay dividends to its stockholders, if such limits were deemed appropriate to preserve certain capital adequacy requirements.

First Wyoming currently does not pay dividends on its common stock and does not expect to pay any dividends for the foreseeable future.

Table of ContentsCAUTIONARY STATEMENT REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This proxy statement/prospectus and the documents referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus contain estimates, predictions, opinions, projections and other forward-looking statements as that phrase is defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Such statements include, without limitation, references to our financial goals, management's plans and objectives for future operations, financial and business trends, business prospects, and management's outlook or expectations for earnings, revenues, expenses, capital levels, liquidity levels, asset quality or other future financial or business performance, strategies or expectations. Such forward-looking statements are based on various assumptions (some of which may be beyond our control) and are subject to risks and uncertainties (which change over time) and other factors which could cause actual results to differ materially from those currently anticipated. Such risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to, those related to the economic environment, particularly in the market areas in which we operate, including an increase in unemployment levels; our level of nonperforming assets; the volatility of the financial and securities markets, including changes with respect to the market value of financial assets; changes in market interest rates which may increase funding costs and reduce earning asset yields thus reducing margin; increases in benchmark rates would also increase debt service requirements for customers whose terms include a variable interest rate, which may negatively impact the ability of borrowers to pay as contractually obligated; changes in government regulation affecting financial institutions, including the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act and the rules and regulations being issued in accordance with this statute and potential expenses and elevated capital levels associated therewith; possible additional loan losses and impairment of the collectability of loans; possible changes in trade, monetary and fiscal policies, laws and regulations and other activities of governments, agencies, and similar organizations, may have an adverse effect on business; possible rules and regulations issued by the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau or other regulators which might adversely impact our business model or products and services; possible stresses in the real estate markets, including possible continued deterioration in property values that affect the collateral value underlying our real estate loans; our ability to expand into new markets, develop competitive new products and services in a timely manner, and to maintain profit margins in the face of competitive pressures; possible changes in consumer and business spending and saving habits could affect our ability to increase assets and to attract deposits; our ability to effectively manage credit risk, interest rate risk, market risk, operational risk, legal risk, liquidity risk, reputational risk, and regulatory and compliance risk; the effects of increased competition from both banks and non-banks; the effects of geopolitical instability and risks such as terrorist attacks; the effects of weather and natural disasters such as floods, droughts, wind, tornados and hurricanes, and the effects of man-made disasters; possible changes in the speed of loan prepayments by our customers and loan origination or sales volumes; possible acceleration of prepayments of mortgage-backed securities, or MBS, due to low interest rates, and the related acceleration of premium amortization on prepayments on MBS due to low interest rates; and the costs associated with resolving any problem loans, litigation and other risks and uncertainties. Some of these risks and uncertainties are discussed herein, including under the heading Risk Factors, and in WSFS Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2013 and other documents filed by us with the SEC from time to time. Forward looking statements are as of the date they are made, and we do not undertake to update any forward-looking statement, whether written or oral, that may be made from time to time by or on behalf of us.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to general investment risks and the other information contained in or incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus, including the matters addressed under the heading Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements on page 18 and the matters discussed under the caption Risk Factors in the Annual Report on Form 10-K filed by WSFS for the year ended December 31, 2013, as updated by subsequently filed Forms 10-Q and other reports filed with the SEC, you should carefully consider the following risk factors in deciding how to vote on approval of the merger agreement.

Risks Relating to the Merger

Because the exchange ratio is fixed, the value of WSFS common stock issued to First Wyoming stockholders who receive the Stock Consideration for some or all of their shares will depend on the market price of WSFS common stock when the merger is completed.

Other than as described in this proxy statement/prospectus, there will be no adjustment to the fixed number of shares of WSFS common stock that will be issued to First Wyoming stockholders who receive the Stock Consideration based upon changes in the market price of WSFS common stock or First Wyoming common stock prior to the closing. The value of the Cash Consideration will not change. In addition, the merger agreement cannot be terminated due to a change in the price of WSFS common stock except if the price of WSFS common stock declines by more than 15% from $72.35 and underperforms an index of banking companies by more than 15% over a designated measurement period, unless WSFS agrees to increase the number of shares of WSFS common stock to be issued to holders of First Wyoming common stock who are to receive the Stock Consideration in the merger. As a result, the value of the Cash Consideration may differ from the value of the Stock Consideration. See The Merger Agreement Termination of the Merger Agreement on page 66.

The market price of WSFS common stock at the time the merger is completed may vary from the price of WSFS common stock on the date the merger agreement was executed, on the date of this proxy statement/prospectus and on the date of the First Wyoming special meeting as a result of various factors that are beyond our control, including but not limited to general market and economic conditions, changes in our respective businesses, operations and prospects, and regulatory considerations. On November 22, 2013, the last trading day before the execution date of the merger agreement, WSFS common stock closed at $72.35 per share, as reported on NASDAQ. From November 25, 2013, the day of the announcement of the proposed merger through March 25, 2014, the trading price of WSFS common stock ranged from a closing high of $79.11 per share to a closing low of $67.57 per share. If the market price of WSFS common stock at the completion of the merger is less than $70.73, the value of the Stock Consideration will be lower than $60.00, the value of the Cash Consideration.

First Wyoming and WSFS are working to complete the transaction as quickly as possible and expect to complete the merger in the third quarter of 2014. However, there is no way to predict how long it will take to satisfy the conditions to closing the merger and to complete the transaction. In addition to the approval of the merger agreement by First Wyoming stockholders, consummation of the merger is subject to receipt of required regulatory approvals and satisfaction of other conditions that may not occur until after the First Wyoming special meeting. Because the date when the transaction is completed will be later than the date of the First Wyoming special meeting, First Wyoming stockholders will not know the precise value of the Stock Consideration, if any, that they will receive at the effective time of the merger at the time they vote on the merger proposal. You should obtain current market quotations for shares of WSFS common stock before you vote.

The elections made by holders of First Wyoming common stock with respect to the types of Merger Consideration they would like to receive are subject to proration and there can be no assurance that a stockholder will receive the type of Merger Consideration he or she elects.

Each holder of First Wyoming common stock will be able to elect the type of consideration that he or she would like to receive for each of his or her shares of First Wyoming common stock, including electing to receive the Cash Consideration for a portion of his or her shares of First Wyoming common stock and receive the Stock Consideration for the remainder of his or her shares of First Wyoming common stock. A share of First Wyoming common stock for which an election to receive the Cash Consideration is made is referred to as a Cash Election Share and a share of First Wyoming common stock for which an election to receive the Stock Consideration is made is referred to as a Stock Election Share. Shares of First Wyoming common stock for which no election is made will be deemed to be Non-Election Shares. All such elections are subject to adjustment on a pro rata basis except for elections for Split Election Shares.

The terms of the merger agreement provide that the aggregate amount of the Cash Consideration that holders of First Wyoming common stock are entitled to receive is $32,020,410, or the Maximum Cash Contribution. As a result, except for elections for Split Election Shares, all elections may be subject to proration depending on the elections made by other holders of First Wyoming common stock if the Maximum Cash Contribution is undersubscribed or oversubscribed. Proration will be applied so that ultimately 50% of the shares of First Wyoming common stock are treated as Cash Election Shares and 50% of the shares of First Wyoming common stock are treated as Stock Election Shares.

For example, if the aggregate of the Cash Consideration payable to holders of Cash Election Shares is in excess of the Maximum Cash Contribution, all of the Non-Election Shares will be treated as Stock Election Shares and a number of Cash Election Shares that are not Split Election Shares will be converted into Stock Election Shares until the Maximum Cash Contribution is no longer oversubscribed. If the aggregate of the Cash Consideration payable to holders of Cash Election Shares is less than the Maximum Cash Contribution, a number of Non-Election Shares will be treated as Cash Election Shares until the Maximum Cash Contribution is no longer undersubscribed and, if necessary, a number of Stock Election Shares that are not Split Election Shares will be converted into Cash Election Shares until the Maximum Cash Contribution is no longer undersubscribed.

Accordingly, depending on the elections made by other First Wyoming stockholders, if a holder of First Wyoming common stock elects to receive all Cash Consideration pursuant to the merger, such holder may receive a portion of the Merger Consideration due to such holder in the form of Stock Consideration. If a holder of First Wyoming common stock elects to receive all Stock Consideration pursuant to the merger, such holder may receive a portion of the Merger Consideration due to such holder in the form of Cash Consideration. First Wyoming stockholders who make an election to receive the Stock Consideration for some of their shares and the Cash Consideration for the remainder of their shares may receive different amounts or proportions of the Stock Consideration and the Cash Consideration than they elected.

The market price of WSFS common stock after the merger may be affected by factors different from those affecting the shares of First Wyoming or WSFS currently.

Upon the effective time of the merger, holders of First Wyoming common stock who receive the Stock Consideration will become holders of WSFS common stock. WSFS business differs from that of First Wyoming, and, accordingly, the results of operations of the combined company and the market price of the combined company's shares of common stock may be affected by factors different from those currently affecting the independent results of operations of each of WSFS and First Wyoming. For a discussion of the business of First Wyoming, see Information About First Wyoming on page 28. For a discussion of the business of WSFS and of certain factors to consider in connection with that business, see the documents incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus and referred to under Where You Can Find More Information beginning on page 86.

The fairness opinion obtained by First Wyoming from its financial advisor will not reflect changes in circumstances between signing the merger agreement and the effective time of the merger.

As of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, First Wyoming has not obtained an updated fairness opinion from GMS, First Wyoming's financial advisor. Changes in the operations and prospects of First Wyoming or WSFS, general market and economic conditions, and other factors that may be beyond the control of First Wyoming and WSFS, and on which the fairness opinion was based, may alter the value of First Wyoming or WSFS or the prices of shares of First Wyoming common stock or WSFS common stock by the time the merger is completed. The opinion speaks only as of the date of such opinion and not as of the effective time of the merger or as of any other date. Therefore, because First Wyoming does not anticipate asking its financial advisor to update its opinion, the fairness opinion from GMS, dated November 22, 2013, does not address the fairness of the acquisition of First Wyoming by WSFS, from a financial point of view, at the effective time of the merger. The opinion is included as Annex III to this proxy statement/prospectus. For a description of the opinion that First Wyoming received from its financial advisor, please refer to "The Merger Fairness Opinion of First Wyoming's Financial Advisor" on page 40. For a description of the other factors considered by First Wyoming's board of directors in determining to approve the merger, please refer to "The Merger First Wyoming's Reasons for the Merger" on page 37.

Some of the conditions to the merger may be waived by First Wyoming or WSFS without resoliciting stockholder approval of the merger agreement.

Some of the conditions set forth in the merger agreement may be waived by First Wyoming or WSFS, subject to the agreement of the other party in specific cases. See "The Merger Agreement Conditions to Completion of the Merger." If any conditions are waived, First Wyoming will evaluate whether an amendment of this proxy statement/prospectus and resolicitation of proxies is warranted. In the event that the board of directors of First Wyoming determines that resolicitation of stockholders is not warranted, First Wyoming and WSFS will have the discretion to complete the transaction without seeking further First Wyoming stockholder approval.

Some of the directors and officers of First Wyoming may have interests and arrangements that may have influenced their decisions to support the merger or recommend that you approve the merger agreement.

The interests of some of the directors and executive officers of First Wyoming may be different from those of holders of First Wyoming common stock, and directors and officers of First Wyoming may be participants in arrangements that are different from, or in addition to, those of holders of First Wyoming common stock. These interests are described in more detail in the section entitled "The Merger Interests of First Wyoming's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger" beginning on page 48.

The merger is subject to certain closing conditions that, if not satisfied or waived, will result in the merger not being completed, which may negatively impact First Wyoming.

The merger is subject to customary conditions to closing, including the receipt of required regulatory approvals and approval of the First Wyoming stockholders. If any condition to the merger is not satisfied or, where permitted, waived, the merger will not be completed. In addition, WSFS and/or First Wyoming may terminate the merger agreement under certain circumstances even if the merger is approved by First Wyoming's stockholders.

If the merger agreement is terminated, there may be various consequences. For example, First Wyoming's business may have been impacted adversely by the failure to pursue other beneficial opportunities due to the focus of management on the merger and the restrictions on First Wyoming's ability to do so under the merger agreement, without realizing any of the anticipated benefits of completing the merger, or the price of First Wyoming common stock could decline to the extent that the current price reflects a market assumption that the merger will be completed. In addition, termination of the merger agreement would increase the possibility of adverse regulatory actions which could adversely affect First Wyoming's business. If the merger agreement is terminated and First Wyoming's board of directors seeks another merger or business combination, First Wyoming stockholders cannot be certain that First Wyoming will be able to find a party willing to pay the equivalent or greater consideration than that which WSFS has agreed to pay in the merger. In addition, if the merger agreement is terminated under certain circumstances, including circumstances involving a change in recommendation by First Wyoming's board of directors, First Wyoming may be required to pay WSFS a termination fee of $2.88 million.

Provisions of the merger agreement may deter alternative business combinations.

The merger agreement generally prohibits First Wyoming from soliciting any acquisition proposal or offer for a merger or business combination with any other party, including a proposal that might be advantageous to the stockholders of First Wyoming when compared to the terms and conditions of the merger described in this proxy statement/prospectus. In addition, if the merger agreement is terminated, under certain specified circumstances, First Wyoming could be required to pay to WSFS a termination fee of $2.88 million. These provisions may deter third parties from proposing or pursuing alternative business combinations that might result in greater value to holders of First Wyoming common stock than the transaction.

If the merger is not consummated, First Wyoming and WSFS will have incurred substantial costs that may adversely affect First Wyoming's and WSFS' financial results and operations.

First Wyoming and WSFS have incurred and will continue to incur substantial costs in connection with the proposed merger. These costs are primarily associated with the fees of their respective financial advisors, accountants and attorneys. If the merger is not consummated, First Wyoming and WSFS will have incurred these costs from which they will have received little or no benefit. Also, if the merger is not consummated under certain circumstances specified in the merger agreement, First Wyoming may be required to pay WSFS a termination fee of $2.88 million.

Regulatory consents, non-objections and approvals may not be received, may take longer than expected or impose conditions that are not presently anticipated.

Before the merger may be completed, First Wyoming and WSFS must obtain various approvals, consents, non-objections and waivers from, among others, the Federal Reserve Board and the OCC. These regulators may impose conditions on consummation of the merger or require changes to the terms of the merger. Although WSFS and First Wyoming do not currently expect that any such conditions or changes would be imposed, there can be no assurance that they will not be, and such conditions or changes could have the effect of delaying the effective time of the merger or imposing additional costs on or limiting the revenues of WSFS following the merger. Furthermore, such conditions or changes may constitute a burdensome condition that may allow WSFS to terminate the merger agreement and WSFS may exercise its right to terminate the merger agreement. There can be no assurance as to whether the regulatory approvals will be received, the timing of those approvals, or whether any conditions will be imposed. See The Merger Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger beginning on page 51.

First Wyoming and WSFS will be subject to business uncertainties and contractual restrictions while the merger is pending.

Uncertainty about the effect of the merger on employees, suppliers and customers may have an adverse effect on First Wyoming and/or WSFS. These uncertainties may impair First Wyoming's and/or WSFS' ability to attract, retain and motivate key personnel until the merger is completed and for a period of time thereafter, and could cause customers, suppliers and others who deal with First Wyoming or WSFS to seek to change existing business relationships with First Wyoming or WSFS. First Wyoming employee retention and recruitment may be particularly challenging prior to the effective time of the merger, as employees and prospective employees may experience uncertainty about their future roles with the combined company.

Table of Contents

The pursuit of the merger and the preparation for the integration may place a significant burden on management and internal resources. Any significant diversion of management attention away from ongoing business and any difficulties encountered in the transition and integration process could affect First Wyoming's and/or WSFS' financial results.

In addition, the merger agreement requires that, subject to certain exceptions, each of First Wyoming and WSFS operate in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice prior to the effective time of the merger or termination of the merger agreement. See The Merger Agreement – Covenants and Agreements – Conduct of Businesses Prior to the Effective Time of the Merger beginning on page 58.

The tax consequences of the merger to a First Wyoming stockholder will be dependent upon the Merger Consideration received.

The tax consequences of the merger to a First Wyoming stockholder will depend upon the Merger Consideration that the stockholder receives. Assuming the merger qualifies as a nontaxable reorganization, a First Wyoming stockholder generally will not recognize any gain or loss on the conversion of shares of First Wyoming common stock solely into shares of WSFS common stock. However, a First Wyoming stockholder generally will be taxed if the stockholder receives Cash Consideration in exchange for shares of First Wyoming common stock or for any fractional share of WSFS common stock. For a detailed discussion of the tax consequences of the merger to First Wyoming stockholder generally, see Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger beginning on page 69. Each First Wyoming stockholder should consult his, her or its own tax advisors as to the effect of the merger as applicable to the First Wyoming stockholder's particular circumstances.

If the merger does not constitute a reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Code, then each First Wyoming stockholder may be responsible for payment of U.S. income taxes related to the merger.

The United States Internal Revenue Service, or the IRS, may determine that the merger does not qualify as a nontaxable reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Code. In that case, each First Wyoming stockholder would recognize a gain or loss equal to the difference between the (i) the sum of the fair market value of WSFS common stock and cash received by the First Wyoming stockholder in the merger, and (ii) the First Wyoming stockholder's adjusted tax basis in the shares of First Wyoming common stock exchanged therefor. The likely tax treatment of the merger will not be known until the closing date of the merger, as the aggregate value of the WSFS common stock to be received by First Wyoming stockholder will fluctuate with the market price of the WSFS common stock.

Risks Relating to WSFS' Business Following the Merger

Combining the two companies may be more difficult, costly or time-consuming than expected.

WSFS and First Wyoming have operated and, until the effective time of the merger, will continue to operate, independently. The success of the merger will depend, in part, on our ability to successfully combine the businesses of WSFS and First Wyoming. To realize these anticipated benefits, after the effective time of the merger, WSFS expects to integrate First Wyoming's business into its own. It is possible that the integration process could result in the loss of key employees, the disruption of each company's ongoing businesses or inconsistencies in standards, controls, procedures and policies that adversely affect the combined company's ability to maintain relationships with clients, customers, depositors and employees or to achieve the anticipated benefits of the merger. The loss of key employees could adversely affect WSFS' ability to successfully conduct its business in the markets in which First Wyoming now operates, which could have an adverse effect on WSFS' financial results and the value of its common stock. If WSFS experiences difficulties with the integration process, the anticipated benefits of the merger may not be realized fully or at all, or may take longer to realize than expected. As with any merger of financial institutions, there also may be business disruptions that cause First Wyoming or WSFS to lose current customers or cause current customers to remove their accounts from First

Wyoming or WSFS and move their business to competing financial institutions. Integration efforts between the two companies will also divert management attention and resources. These integration matters could have an adverse effect on each of First Wyoming and WSFS during this transition period and for an undetermined period after consummation of the merger.

WSFS may fail to realize the cost savings estimated for the merger.

WSFS estimates that it will achieve cost savings from the merger when the two companies have been fully integrated. While WSFS continues to be comfortable with these expectations as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, it is possible that the estimates of the potential cost savings could turn out to be incorrect. The cost savings estimates also assume WSFS ability to combine the businesses of WSFS and First Wyoming in a manner that permits those cost savings to be realized. If the estimates turn out to be incorrect or WSFS is not able to combine successfully the two companies, the anticipated cost savings may not be realized fully or at all, or may take longer to realize than expected.

The shares of WSFS common stock to be received by First Wyoming stockholders who receive the Stock Consideration in the merger will have different rights from the shares of First Wyoming common stock they currently hold.

Following the effective time of the merger, holders of First Wyoming common stock who receive the Stock Consideration will no longer be stockholders of First Wyoming, a Nevada corporation, but will instead be stockholders of WSFS, a Delaware corporation. The rights associated with First Wyoming common stock are different from the rights associated with WSFS common stock. See the section entitled Comparison of Stockholders Rights beginning on page 76.

First Wyoming stockholders who receive the Stock Consideration will have a reduced ownership and voting interest after the merger and will exercise less influence over management.

First Wyoming stockholders currently have the right to vote in the election of the First Wyoming board of directors and on other matters affecting First Wyoming. When the merger occurs, each First Wyoming stockholder that receives the Stock Consideration will become a stockholder of WSFS with a percentage ownership of the combined organization that is much smaller than such stockholder's current percentage ownership of First Wyoming. Because of this, First Wyoming stockholders will have less influence on the management and policies of WSFS than they now have on the management and policies of First Wyoming.

WSFS operates in a highly regulated environment, which could have a material and adverse impact on its operations and activities, financial condition, results of operations, growth plans and future prospects.

Banking is highly regulated under federal and state law. WSFS is subject to extensive regulation and supervision that governs almost all aspects of our operations.

The primary goals of the bank regulatory scheme are to maintain a safe and sound banking system and to facilitate the conduct of sound monetary policy. This system is intended primarily for the protection of the FDIC's Deposit Insurance Fund and bank depositors, rather than WSFS stockholders and creditors. The banking agencies have broad enforcement power over bank and savings and loan holding companies as well as banks and savings banks, including the authority, among other things, to enjoin unsafe or unsound practices, require affirmative action to correct any violation or practice, issue administrative orders that can be judicially enforced, direct increases in capital, direct the sale of subsidiaries or other assets, limit dividends and distributions, restrict growth, assess civil monetary penalties, remove officers and directors, and, with respect to banks, terminate our charter, terminate our deposit insurance or place us into conservatorship or receivership. In general, these enforcement actions may be initiated for violations of laws and regulations or unsafe or unsound practices.

Compliance with the myriad laws and regulations applicable to WSFS can be difficult and costly. In addition, these laws, regulations and policies are subject to continual review by governmental authorities, and changes to these laws, regulations and policies, including changes in interpretation or implementation of these laws, regulations and policies, could affect us in substantial and unpredictable ways and often impose additional compliance costs. Further, any new laws, rules and regulations, such as the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act, which is referred to as the Dodd-Frank Act, could make compliance more difficult or expensive. All of these laws and regulations, and the supervisory framework applicable to our industry, could have a material adverse impact on WSFS operations and activities, financial condition, results of operations, growth plans and future prospects.

The short-term and long-term impact of the newly proposed regulatory capital rules is uncertain.

In July 2013, federal banking regulatory agencies issued final rules (in the case of the FDIC, interim final rules) for new capital requirements for banks that are consistent with the Basel III capital framework. Basel III creates a new regulatory capital standard based on tier 1 common equity and increases the minimum leverage and risk-based capital ratios applicable to all banking organizations. Basel III also changes how a number of the regulatory capital components are calculated. While the final rules will require WSFS to maintain higher regulatory capital standards in the future, it is not certain at this time how these new rules will ultimately affect WSFS. A significant increase in WSFS capital requirement could reduce its growth and profitability and could have a material adverse effect on its business, financial condition, results of operations and future prospects.

WSFS is subject to numerous laws designed to protect consumers, including the Community Reinvestment Act and fair lending laws, and failure to comply with these laws could lead to a wide variety of sanctions.

The Community Reinvestment Act, the Equal Credit Opportunity Act, the Fair Housing Act and other fair lending laws and regulations impose nondiscriminatory lending requirements on financial institutions. The Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, the Department of Justice and other federal agencies are responsible for enforcing these laws and regulations. A successful regulatory challenge to an institution's performance under the Community Reinvestment Act or fair lending laws and regulations could result in a wide variety of sanctions, including damages and civil money penalties, injunctive relief, restrictions on mergers and acquisitions activity, restrictions on expansion, and restrictions on entering new business lines. Private parties may also have the ability to challenge an institution's performance under fair lending laws in private class action litigation. Such actions could have a material adverse effect on WSFS business, financial condition, results of operations and future prospects.

WSFS faces a risk of noncompliance and enforcement action with the Bank Secrecy Act and other anti-money laundering statutes and regulations.

The Bank Secrecy Act, the USA PATRIOT Act of 2001, and other laws and regulations require financial institutions, among other duties, to institute and maintain an effective anti-money laundering program and file suspicious activity and currency transaction reports when appropriate. In addition to other bank regulatory agencies, the federal Financial Crimes Enforcement Network of the Department of the Treasury is authorized to impose significant civil money penalties for violations of those requirements and has recently engaged in coordinated enforcement efforts with the state and federal banking regulators, as well as the U.S. Department of Justice, Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, Drug Enforcement Administration, and Internal Revenue Service.

WSFS is also subject to increased scrutiny of compliance with the rules enforced by the Office of Foreign Assets Control of the Department of the Treasury regarding, among other things, the prohibition of transacting business with, and the need to freeze assets of, certain persons and organizations identified as a threat to the national security, foreign policy or economy of the United States. If WSFS policies, procedures and systems are deemed deficient, WSFS would be subject to liability, including fines and regulatory actions, which may include

restrictions on WSFS' ability to pay dividends and the necessity to obtain regulatory approvals to proceed with certain aspects of WSFS' business plan, including any acquisition plans. Failure to maintain and implement adequate programs to combat money laundering and terrorist financing could also have serious reputational consequences for WSFS. Any of these results could have a material adverse effect on WSFS' business, financial condition, results of operations and future prospects.

The laws that regulate WSFS' operations are designed for the protection of depositors and the public, not its stockholders.

The federal and state laws and regulations applicable to WSFS' operations give regulatory authorities extensive discretion in connection with their supervisory and enforcement responsibilities, and generally have been promulgated to protect depositors and the Deposit Insurance Fund and not for the purpose of protecting stockholders. These laws and regulations can materially affect WSFS' future business. Laws and regulations now affecting WSFS may be changed at any time, and the interpretation of such laws and regulations by bank regulatory authorities is also subject to change.

WSFS can give no assurance that future changes in laws and regulations or changes in their interpretation will not adversely affect our business. Legislative and regulatory changes may increase WSFS' cost of doing business or otherwise adversely affect WSFS and create competitive advantages for non-bank competitors.

THE FIRST WYOMING SPECIAL MEETING

This section contains information for First Wyoming stockholders about the First Wyoming special meeting. We are mailing this proxy statement/prospectus to you, as a First Wyoming stockholder, on or about March 31, 2014. Together with this proxy statement/prospectus, we are also sending to you a notice of the First Wyoming special meeting and a form of proxy card that First Wyoming's board of directors is soliciting for use at the First Wyoming special meeting and at any adjournments or postponements of the First Wyoming special meeting.

This proxy statement/prospectus is also being furnished by WSFS to First Wyoming stockholders as a prospectus in connection with the issuance of shares of WSFS common stock upon the effective time of the merger.

Date, Time and Place of First Wyoming Special Meeting

The First Wyoming special meeting will be held at the main office of The First National Bank of Wyoming, located at 120 West Camden-Wyoming Avenue, Wyoming, DE 19934, on April 30, 2014, at 10:30 a.m., local time.

Matters to Be Considered

At the First Wyoming special meeting, you will be asked to consider and vote upon the following matters:

a proposal to approve the merger agreement and the transactions it contemplates; and the adjournment proposal, if necessary.

Recommendation of the First Wyoming Board of Directors

First Wyoming's board of directors has determined that the merger, the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement are advisable and in the best interest of First Wyoming and its stockholders and that the terms and conditions of the merger and the merger agreement are fair to its stockholders. All but one of First Wyoming's six directors have approved the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. However, the one director voting against the merger and the merger agreement did not do so based on the merits of the transaction, but on his personal desire for First Wyoming to remain an independent corporation. The director voting against the merger and the merger agreement joins the other directors of First Wyoming in recommending the approval of the transaction to the First Wyoming stockholders. Accordingly, First Wyoming's board of directors unanimously recommends that First Wyoming stockholders vote FOR approval of the merger agreement and FOR the adjournment proposal, if necessary. See "The Merger First Wyoming's Reasons for the Merger" on page 37 for a more detailed discussion of the factors considered by First Wyoming's board of directors in reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement.

Record Date and Quorum

First Wyoming's board of directors has fixed the close of business on March 28, as the record date for determining the holders of First Wyoming common stock entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the First Wyoming special meeting.

As of the record date, there were 1,067,347 shares of First Wyoming common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the First Wyoming special meeting held by approximately 403 holders of record. Each share of First Wyoming common stock entitles the holder to one vote at the First Wyoming special meeting on each proposal to be considered at the First Wyoming special meeting.

Table of Contents

The presence at the First Wyoming special meeting, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote thereat will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Shares that are present, or represented by a proxy, at the First Wyoming special meeting and any postponement or adjournment thereof will be counted for quorum purposes regardless of whether the holder of the shares or proxy fails to vote (or instruct its bank or broker how to vote) on any particular matter, or abstains on any matter. If a quorum is not present at the First Wyoming special meeting, the First Wyoming special meeting will be adjourned until the holders of the number of shares required to constitute a quorum are represented.

Vote Required; Treatment of Abstentions and Failure to Vote

Approval of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of First Wyoming common stock entitled to vote at the First Wyoming special meeting. You are entitled to one vote for each share of First Wyoming common stock you held as of the record date. Because approval is based on the affirmative vote of a majority of shares outstanding, your failure to vote, failure to instruct your bank or broker with respect to the proposal to approve the merger agreement, or an abstention will have the same effect as a vote against approval of the merger agreement.

The adjournment proposal, if necessary, will be approved if the number of votes cast in favor of the adjournment proposal exceeds the number of votes cast in opposition to the adjournment proposal at the First Wyoming special meeting. A failure to vote, failure to instruct your bank or broker with respect to the adjournment proposal, or an abstention will have no effect on the adjournment proposal.

Voting and/or Non-Competition Agreements

As an inducement to and condition of WSFS' willingness to enter in the merger agreement, each of the directors of First Wyoming have entered into voting and non-competition agreements with First Wyoming and WSFS pursuant to which such directors have agreed to vote (or cause to be voted) the shares of First Wyoming common stock beneficially owned by them in favor of approval of the merger agreement and the transactions it contemplates at any First Wyoming stockholder's meeting held in connection with the merger. Similarly, certain officers of First Wyoming have entered into voting agreements with First Wyoming and WSFS pursuant to which such officers have agreed to vote (or cause to be voted) the shares of First Wyoming common stock beneficially owned by them for approval of the merger agreement and the transactions it contemplates at any First Wyoming stockholder's meeting held in connection with the merger. In addition, such directors and officers have agreed, by execution of their agreements, to vote their shares of First Wyoming common stock against any other proposal to acquire at least 20% of the outstanding shares or assets of First Wyoming. The number of shares of First Wyoming common stock that are beneficially owned and entitled to vote by directors and officers of First Wyoming that have signed voting and noncompetition agreements is 158,283, or 14.83% of the total shares of First Wyoming common stock outstanding on the record date.

Voting of Proxies; Incomplete Proxies

Each copy of this proxy statement/prospectus mailed to holders of First Wyoming common stock is accompanied by a form of proxy with instructions for voting. If you hold stock in your name as a stockholder of record, you should complete and return the proxy card accompanying this proxy statement/prospectus, or call the toll-free telephone number or use the Internet as described in the instructions included with your proxy card or voting instruction card, regardless of whether you plan to attend the First Wyoming special meeting.

If you hold your stock in street name through a bank or broker, you must direct your bank or broker to vote in accordance with the instructions you have received from your bank or broker.

First Wyoming stockholders should not send First Wyoming stock certificates with their proxy cards. After the merger is completed, holders of First Wyoming common stock will be mailed a transmittal form with instructions on how to exchange their First Wyoming stock certificates for the Merger Consideration.

All shares represented by valid proxies (including those given by telephone or the Internet) that we receive through this solicitation, and that are not revoked, will be voted in accordance with your instructions on the proxy card. If you make no specification on your proxy card as to how you want your shares voted before signing and returning it, your proxy will be voted FOR approval of the merger agreement and FOR approval of the adjournment proposal, if necessary. No matters other than the matters described in this proxy statement/prospectus are anticipated to be presented for action at the First Wyoming special meeting or at any adjournment or postponement of the First Wyoming special meeting.

Shares Held in Street Name; Broker Non-Votes

If you hold your shares of First Wyoming common stock in the name of a bank, broker or other nominee and do not provide voting instructions to the bank, broker or other nominee, your shares will not be voted on the proposal to adopt the merger agreement or the adjournment proposal. This is called a broker non-vote. In the case of a broker non-vote, the bank, broker or other nominee can register your shares as being present at the First Wyoming special meeting for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum, but will not be able to vote on any of the proposals. Therefore, if your broker, bank or other nominee holds your shares of First Wyoming common stock in street name, your broker, bank or other nominee will vote your shares of First Wyoming common stock only if you provide instructions on how to vote by filling out the voter instruction form sent to you by your broker, bank or other nominee with this proxy statement/prospectus.

Revocability of Proxies and Changes to a First Wyoming Stockholder's Vote

If you hold stock in your name as a stockholder of record, you may revoke any proxy at any time before it is voted by (1) signing and returning a proxy card with a later date, (2) delivering a written revocation letter to First Wyoming's secretary, (3) voting again by telephone or the Internet, or (4) attending the First Wyoming special meeting in person, notifying the secretary, and voting by ballot at the First Wyoming special meeting.

Any stockholder entitled to vote in person at the First Wyoming special meeting may vote in person regardless of whether a proxy has been previously given, but the mere presence (without notifying First Wyoming's secretary) of a stockholder at the First Wyoming special meeting will not constitute revocation of a previously given proxy.

Written notices of revocation and other communications about revoking your proxy should be addressed to:

First Wyoming Financial Corporation

120 West Camden-Wyoming Avenue

Wyoming, DE 19934

Attention: Judy Cook

If your shares are held in street name by a bank or broker, you should follow the instructions of your bank or broker regarding the revocation of proxies.

Solicitation of Proxies

First Wyoming will bear the entire cost of soliciting proxies from you, except that First Wyoming and WSFS will bear equally the cost of printing this proxy statement/prospectus and all filing fees paid to the SEC in connection with this proxy statement/prospectus. In addition to solicitation of proxies by mail, First Wyoming will request that banks, brokers, and other record holders send proxies and proxy material to the beneficial owners of First Wyoming common stock and secure their voting instructions. First Wyoming will reimburse the record holders for their reasonable expenses in taking those actions. First Wyoming has also made arrangements with Georgeson Inc. to assist it in soliciting proxies and has agreed to pay them $7,500 plus reasonable expenses for these services. If necessary, First Wyoming may use directors, officers and several of its regular employees, who will not be specially compensated, to solicit proxies from the First Wyoming stockholders, either personally or by telephone, facsimile, letter or other electronic means.

Attending the First Wyoming Special Meeting

All holders of First Wyoming common stock, including stockholders of record and stockholders who hold their shares through banks, brokers, nominees or any other holder of record, are invited to attend the First Wyoming special meeting. Stockholders of record can vote in person at the First Wyoming special meeting. If you are not a stockholder of record, you must obtain a proxy executed in your favor, from the record holder of your shares, such as a broker, bank or other nominee, to be able to vote in person at the First Wyoming special meeting. If you plan to attend the First Wyoming special meeting, you must hold your shares in your own name or have a letter from the record holder of your shares confirming your ownership. In addition, you must bring a form of personal photo identification with you in order to be admitted. First Wyoming reserves the right to refuse admittance to anyone without proper proof of share ownership and without proper photo identification. The use of cameras, sound recording equipment, communications devices or any similar equipment during the First Wyoming special meeting is prohibited without First Wyoming's express written consent.

THE FIRST WYOMING PROPOSALS

Proposal 1: Approval of the Merger Agreement

First Wyoming is asking its stockholders to approve the merger agreement. For a detailed discussion of the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, see The Merger Agreement. As discussed in the section entitled The Merger First Wyoming's Reasons for the Merger, after careful consideration, all but one of the six members of the First Wyoming board of directors approved the merger agreement. However, the director voting against the merger and the merger agreement did not do so based on the merits of the transaction, but on his personal desire for First Wyoming to remain an independent corporation. The director voting against the merger and the merger agreement joins the other directors of First Wyoming in recommending the approval of the transaction to the First Wyoming stockholders. Accordingly, the First Wyoming board of directors unanimously recommends the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, to be advisable and in the best interest of First Wyoming and the First Wyoming stockholders.

Required Vote

The approval of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of First Wyoming common stock outstanding and entitled to vote. Failures to vote, votes to abstain and broker non-votes, if any, will have the effect of votes AGAINST the proposal.

The First Wyoming board of directors unanimously recommends that First Wyoming stockholders vote FOR the approval of the merger agreement.

Proposal 2: Adjournment Proposal

First Wyoming stockholders are being asked to adjourn the First Wyoming special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies in favor of the approval of the merger agreement if there are insufficient votes at the time of such adjournment to approve such proposal.

If at the First Wyoming special meeting there are an insufficient number of shares of First Wyoming common stock present in person or represented by proxy and voting in favor of the approval of the merger agreement, First Wyoming may move to adjourn the First Wyoming special meeting in order to enable the First Wyoming board of directors to solicit additional proxies for approval of such proposal. If the First Wyoming stockholders approve this proposal, First Wyoming could adjourn the First Wyoming special meeting and use the additional time to solicit additional proxies, including the solicitation of proxies from First Wyoming stockholders who have previously voted. If the date of the adjournment is not announced at the special meeting or a new record date is fixed for the adjourned meeting, a new notice of the adjourned meeting will be given to each stockholder of record entitled to vote at the adjourned meeting.

Required Vote

The adjournment proposal, if necessary, will be approved if the number of votes cast in favor of the adjournment proposal exceeds the number of votes cast in opposition to the adjournment proposal at the First Wyoming special meeting. Failures to vote, broker non-votes and votes to abstain, if any, will not have an effect on the adjournment proposal.

The First Wyoming board of directors unanimously recommends that First Wyoming stockholders vote FOR the adjournment proposal, if necessary.

THE MERGER

The following discussion contains material information about the merger. The discussion is subject, and qualified in its entirety by reference, to the merger agreement included as Annex I to this proxy statement/prospectus. We urge you to read carefully this entire proxy statement/prospectus, including the merger agreement, for a more complete understanding of the merger.

Terms of the Merger

WSFS' board of directors has unanimously approved the merger agreement. All but one of the six members of First Wyoming's boards of directors have approved the merger agreement. One member of First Wyoming's board of directors voted against the merger agreement. However, the director voting against the merger and the merger agreement did not do so based on the merits of the transaction, but on his personal desire for First Wyoming to remain an independent corporation. The director voting against the merger and the merger agreement joins the other directors of First Wyoming in recommending the approval of the transaction to the First Wyoming stockholders. Accordingly, the board of directors of WSFS and First Wyoming each unanimously recommend approval of the merger agreement. The merger agreement provides for the acquisition of First Wyoming by WSFS through the merger of First Wyoming with and into WSFS, with WSFS continuing as the surviving corporation. As a result of the merger, shares of First Wyoming common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the merger will be converted, at the election of the stockholder, into the right to receive either (i) cash in an amount equal to $60.00 per share, referred to as the Cash Consideration, or (ii) 0.8484 of a share of WSFS common stock per share, referred to as the Stock Consideration, and together with the Cash Consideration, the Merger Consideration. No fractional shares of WSFS common stock will be issued in connection with the merger, and holders of First Wyoming common stock will be entitled to receive cash in lieu thereof. Each holder of First Wyoming common stock is entitled to elect the form of the Merger Consideration that he or she would like to receive for his or her shares of First Wyoming common stock. All such elections are subject to adjustment on a pro rata basis as described elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus.

First Wyoming stockholders are being asked to approve the merger agreement. See the section entitled "The Merger Agreement" beginning on page 53 for additional and more detailed information regarding the legal documents that govern the merger, including information about the conditions to consummation of the merger and the provisions for terminating or amending the merger agreement.

Background of the Merger

As part of its ongoing oversight of First Wyoming and The First National Bank of Wyoming, management and the board of directors of First Wyoming regularly review the strategic and financial prospects of First Wyoming and The First National Bank of Wyoming, including First Wyoming's prospects as an independent entity and its ability to continue its historical financial performance. Although the board of directors and management of First Wyoming and The First National Bank of Wyoming had not specifically adopted a strategy to pursue a sale of the organization, certain directors and executive officers of First Wyoming and WSFS have discussed the possibility and prospects of a merger transaction between the two organizations for a number of years. Prior to May 22, 2013, these discussions were general and conceptual in nature, and did not rise to a level of specificity that would form the basis for an agreement in principle or a definitive merger agreement. On May 22, 2013, Mark Turner, WSFS' Chief Executive Officer, met with Joshua M. Twilley, Chairman of First Wyoming, Joseph Chippie, President and Chief Executive Officer of The First National Bank of Wyoming, and John Coleman, Vice President and Chief Risk Officer of The First National Bank of Wyoming, to discuss the possibility and prospects of an acquisition of First Wyoming by WSFS. During the meeting the parties generally discussed the concept of a potential combination of the two organizations. No written indication of interest or indication of value was presented.

On July 18, 2013, representatives of WSFS and First Wyoming had a follow-up meeting to further discuss a potential combination of the two organizations. At this meeting, WSFS was represented by Mark Turner and Rodger Levenson and First Wyoming was represented by Joshua M. Twilley, Joseph Chippie and John Coleman, and they discussed the potential value of First Wyoming, including a range of values and the type of consideration to be paid in a potential transaction. This meeting also resulted in an agreement between WSFS and First Wyoming to seek approval from the board of directors of First Wyoming to authorize the execution of a nondisclosure agreement with WSFS. The execution of the nondisclosure agreement allowed First Wyoming to provide WSFS with due diligence information, though First Wyoming initially provided only limited confidential information. This meeting was followed by an additional meeting with the same representatives on September 24, 2013. At the September meeting, the representatives of WSFS and First Wyoming continued their discussions regarding potential valuation of First Wyoming and the type of consideration to be paid to First Wyoming stockholders. During this meeting, representatives of WSFS presented the First Wyoming representatives with a non-binding indication of interest, which the First Wyoming representatives agreed to present to the board of directors of First Wyoming.

On October 8, 2013, Messrs. Turner and Levenson traveled to Wyoming, Delaware to meet with First Wyoming's board of directors. At this meeting, Messrs. Turner and Levenson discussed the non-binding indication of interest with First Wyoming's board of directors. The meeting included a discussion of purchase price, as well as the other material terms of the non-binding indication of interest previously made by WSFS.

These discussions between the representatives of WSFS and the board of directors of First Wyoming resulted in First Wyoming engaging Gerrish McCreary Smith, P.C. as its legal advisor and Gerrish McCreary Smith Consultants, LLC, referred to as GMS, as its financial advisor in the potential transaction. First Wyoming selected GMS because GMS is a nationally recognized legal and consulting firm with substantial experience in transactions similar to the merger and is familiar with First Wyoming and its business. As part of its financial advisory business, GMS is continually engaged in the valuation of financial services companies and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions. Counsel for WSFS presented GMS with a proposed Agreement and Plan of Reorganization, which is referred to as the merger agreement. This merger agreement was subsequently negotiated, with each organization receiving independent advice from their respective counsels.

In November 2013, First Wyoming, with the counsel and assistance of its advisors, reviewed and negotiated the terms of the Merger Consideration, the merger agreement and related documents with WSFS and its advisors. First Wyoming's board of directors was actively involved in overseeing these discussions. On November 21, 2013, First Wyoming's board of directors accepted the resignation of David Mitten as a member of the First Wyoming board of directors due to his disagreement with the potential merger of First Wyoming with WSFS.

On Thursday, November 21, 2013, and Friday, November 22, 2013, the board of directors of First Wyoming met with GMS to review in detail the terms of the merger and the merger agreement. During these meetings, First Wyoming's legal counsel discussed the fiduciary obligations of the board of directors of First Wyoming with respect to merger transactions. Also, at this meeting, representatives of GMS discussed with the First Wyoming board of directors a range of matters, including the matters set forth in, Opinion of First Wyoming Financial Corporation's Financial Advisor. On Thursday, November 21, 2013, GMS provided the board of directors its oral opinion, which was subsequently confirmed in writing, that based upon and subject to the considerations described in its opinion, the acquisition of First Wyoming by WSFS pursuant to the merger agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of First Wyoming common stock. Following the presentations, the board of directors engaged in discussions about the proposed transaction, the proposed merger agreement and other transaction documents and the effect of the transaction on the stockholders, customers and employees of First Wyoming and The First National Bank of Wyoming. Members of the First Wyoming board of directors asked questions of Gerrish McCreary Smith, P.C. regarding the proposed transaction and their fiduciary duties to stockholders. The board of directors of First Wyoming continued its discussion about the terms of the proposed merger, the proposed merger agreement and the other transaction documents, and the effect of the merger on the stockholders, customers and employees of First Wyoming. After reviewing the Merger Consideration offered by WSFS and giving consideration to other factors described under

First Wyoming's Reasons for the Merger, all but one of the six members of the board of directors of First Wyoming voted to approve the merger agreement. The director voting against the merger and the merger agreement did not do so based on the merits of the transaction, but on his personal desire for First Wyoming to remain an independent corporation. The director voting against the merger and the merger agreement joins the other directors of First Wyoming in recommending the approval of the transaction to the First Wyoming stockholders. Accordingly, First Wyoming's board of directors unanimously recommends approval of the merger agreement to First Wyoming's stockholders.

The merger agreement was executed as of November 24, 2013. The transaction was announced before the open of the stock markets on the morning of November 25, 2013.

First Wyoming's Reasons for the Merger

After careful consideration, at its meeting on November 22, 2013, the board of directors of First Wyoming determined that the merger, the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated therein are advisable and in the best interests of First Wyoming and its stockholders and that the terms and conditions of the merger and the merger agreement are fair to the stockholders of First Wyoming. Accordingly, the board of directors of First Wyoming approved and adopted the merger agreement and unanimously recommends that First Wyoming stockholders vote FOR approval of the merger agreement.

In reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement and related transactions and recommend their approval to stockholders, the First Wyoming board of directors consulted with senior management and Gerrish McCreary Smith, P.C. and GMS and considered a number of factors, including, among others, the following, which are not presented in order of priority:

A review of, and the board of directors' understanding of, the historical financial statements and condition of First Wyoming and certain other internal information, primarily financial in nature, relating to the respective businesses, earnings and balance sheets of First Wyoming;

The business strategy and strategic plan of First Wyoming, and the expectations relating to the proposed merger, based on discussions with management of WSFS;

A review of the risks and prospects of First Wyoming remaining independent, including the challenges to maintaining a small community bank subsidiary in the prevailing financial and regulatory climate versus aligning First Wyoming with a well-capitalized, well-run larger organization;

The board of directors' views of the current and prospective state of the financial services industry, including the current economic environment in the markets in which First Wyoming operates, the interest rate environment, increased competition in the financial services industry, and the regulatory environment in which First Wyoming and The First National Bank of Wyoming operate, including pursuant to the Formal Agreement between The First National Bank of Wyoming and the OCC described under Information About First Wyoming beginning on page 28;

The potential advantages and disadvantages of the type, mix and amount of the Merger Consideration, its premium to market value and book value of First Wyoming common stock, and comparability with respect to premiums paid in comparable transactions;

The possibility of merging with other potential acquirers and the merger consideration which could reasonably be expected from other potential acquirers with apparent ability to consummate the acquisition of First Wyoming;

The board of directors' understanding of WSFS' business, operations, financial condition, asset quality, earnings and prospects, as well as the complementary geographic footprints of the two organizations, and the complementary nature of the cultures of the two organizations, which First Wyoming management believes should facilitate integration of the two organizations and allow the combined organization to take advantage of the synergies potentially available in the merger to create the opportunity for the combined organization to have superior future earnings and prospects compared to First Wyoming's earnings and prospects on a stand-alone basis;

Table of Contents

The diversification of credit risk in terms of both types of lending and geographic coverage and the minimal overlapping credits;

The relative financial strength of WSFS as a merger partner compared to other potential acquirers based on WSFS' historical revenues and revenue expectations over the near and long term;

The ability of WSFS to pay the Merger Consideration;

The ability of WSFS to complete a merger transaction from a financial and regulatory perspective;

The board of directors' belief that the merger is likely to increase value to First Wyoming stockholders in part due to the opportunity First Wyoming stockholders who receive Stock Consideration will have to participate in the future performance of the combined organization resulting from the merger;

The understanding that the Stock Consideration (0.8484 of a share of WSFS common stock per share) and the Cash Consideration ($60.00 per share) each were fixed and would not fluctuate;

The current and historical prices of First Wyoming's common stock, the lack of liquidity in First Wyoming's common stock due to the fact that First Wyoming is a private company and the fact that the Merger Consideration represented a premium of approximately 128.5 percent to the book value per share of First Wyoming common stock on September 30, 2013;

The current and historical market prices of WSFS' common stock and WSFS' dividend history, which indicate the potential to provide First Wyoming stockholders with increased value following the merger, including a significant quarterly dividend payment, whereas First Wyoming does not currently pay dividends on its common stock and does not expect to pay any dividends for the foreseeable future;

The geographic fit and increased customer convenience of the branch networks of the combined entity;

The anticipated effect of the acquisition on First Wyoming's employees;

The continuity provided by WSFS' longstanding history of serving the same customers and communities served by The First National Bank of Wyoming;

The financial analyses presented by GMS, First Wyoming's financial advisor, and the oral opinion of GMS delivered on November 21, 2013, subsequently confirmed by a written opinion dated November 22, 2013, to the effect that, as of the date of such opinion, and based upon and subject to the assumptions, limitations, qualifications and conditions described in GMS' opinion, the acquisition of First Wyoming by WSFS in accordance with the provisions of the merger agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to First Wyoming stockholders, as more fully described below under "The Merger - Fairness Opinion of First Wyoming's Financial Advisor" beginning on page 40 and which opinion is included as Annex III to this proxy statement/prospectus;

The financial and other terms of the merger agreement, including the Merger Consideration, tax treatment and deal protection and termination fee provisions, which the board of directors reviewed with its outside financial and legal advisors, including:

the ability of the board of directors, subject to certain conditions, including the payment of a termination fee under certain circumstances, to exercise its fiduciary duties to consider potential superior alternative transactions and to change its recommendation to First Wyoming's stockholders to approve the merger agreement;

that the date in the merger agreement by which the merger must be completed allows for sufficient time to complete the merger but evidences WSFS' intent to consummate the merger expeditiously; and the level of effort that WSFS must use under the merger agreement to obtain required regulatory approvals, and the prospects for such approvals being obtained in a timely fashion and without the imposition of a burdensome condition of the type described in "The Merger - Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger" on page 51;

That First Wyoming stockholders are entitled to dissenters' rights in connection with the merger;

The review by the board of directors with its legal advisor of the provisions of the merger agreement, including the provisions of the merger agreement designed to enhance the probability that the merger will be completed;

The board of directors' review and discussions with First Wyoming's management and outside advisors concerning the due diligence examination of the operations, financial condition, regulatory compliance, regulatory compliance programs and prospects of WSFS;

The terms of the merger agreement, including the representations and warranties of the parties, the covenants, the consideration, the termination provision, the benefits to The First National Bank of Wyoming's employees and the circumstances under which the First Wyoming board of directors may consider a superior proposal;

The increased legal lending limit available to borrowers by reason of the merger;

The likelihood of expeditiously obtaining the necessary regulatory approvals without unusual or burdensome conditions;

The long-term and short-term interest of First Wyoming and its stockholders, the interests of the employees, customers, creditors and suppliers of First Wyoming, and community and societal considerations including those of the communities in which The First National Bank of Wyoming maintains offices;

First Wyoming's legal advisors' expectation that the merger will qualify as a transaction of a type that is generally tax-free for United States federal income tax purposes to First Wyoming, WSFS and First Wyoming stockholders who receive the Stock Consideration; and

The opportunities for cost savings resulting from economies of scale, increased efficiencies of operations and the development and availability of new products and services to customers that come from a merger with a larger institution.

The board of directors of First Wyoming also considered a number of potentially negative factors outlined below in its deliberations concerning the merger agreement and the merger, but concluded that the anticipated benefits of the merger were likely to outweigh substantially these potential negative factors. The potential negative factors included:

That First Wyoming will no longer exist as an independent company and that First Wyoming stockholders may have less influence with WSFS after consummation of the merger than they may have with First Wyoming currently;

The potential adverse effect on First Wyoming stockholders from a decrease in the trading price of WSFS common stock during the pendency of the merger, because the Stock Consideration is based on a fixed exchange ratio of shares of WSFS common stock to First Wyoming common stock;

The risk that, while First Wyoming expects that the merger will be consummated, all conditions to the parties' obligations to complete the merger agreement may not be satisfied, including the risk that certain regulatory approvals, the receipt of which are conditions to the consummation of the merger, might not be obtained, or that a burdensome condition may be imposed in connection with such approval, and, as a result, the merger may not be consummated;

The risk that potential benefits and synergies sought in the merger may not be realized or may not be realized within the expected time period, and the risks associated with the integration of First Wyoming and WSFS;

The restrictions on the conduct of First Wyoming's business prior to the consummation of the merger, which are customary for merger agreements of this type that involve financial institutions, but which, subject to specific exceptions, could delay or prevent First Wyoming from undertaking business opportunities that may arise or any other action it would otherwise take with respect to the operations of First Wyoming absent the pending consummation of the merger;

The significant risks and costs involved in connection with entering into and consummating the merger, or failing to consummate the merger in a timely manner, or at all, including as a result of any failure to obtain required regulatory approvals, such as the risks and costs relating to diversion of management and employee attention, potential employee attrition, and the potential adverse effect on business and customer relationships;

That First Wyoming would be prohibited from affirmatively soliciting acquisition proposals after execution of the merger agreement, and the possibility that the $2.88 million termination fee payable by First Wyoming following the termination of the merger agreement under certain circumstances could discourage other potential acquirers from making a competing bid to acquire First Wyoming; and the possibility of litigation in connection with the merger.

The foregoing discussion of the factors considered by the board of directors of First Wyoming is not intended to be exhaustive, but is believed to include the material factors considered by the board of directors of First Wyoming. In view of the wide variety of the factors considered in connection with its evaluation of the merger and the complexity of these matters, the board of directors of First Wyoming did not find it useful, and did not attempt, to quantify, rank or otherwise assign relative weights to these factors. In considering the factors described above, the individual members of the board of directors of First Wyoming may have given different weight to different factors. The board of directors of First Wyoming conducted an overall analysis of the factors described above including thorough discussions with, and questioning of, First Wyoming management and First Wyoming's legal and financial advisors, and considered the factors overall to be favorable to, and to support, its determination. The board of directors of First Wyoming viewed its position as being based on all of the information and the factors presented to and considered by it. In addition, individual directors may have given different weights to different information and factors.

Fairness Opinion of First Wyoming's Financial Advisor

Gerrish McCreary Smith Consultants, LLC, referred to as GMS, was engaged by First Wyoming as financial advisor in connection with the merger. GMS is a nationally recognized legal and consulting firm with substantial expertise in transactions similar to the merger. As part of its legal and consulting activities, GMS is regularly engaged in the valuation of financial institutions and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions and other corporate transactions. GMS acted as financial advisor to assist First Wyoming in assessing the fairness of the acquisition of First Wyoming by WSFS in connection with the proposed merger and participated in certain negotiations leading to the execution of the merger agreement.

On Thursday, November 21, 2013, GMS rendered its oral opinion, which was subsequently confirmed in writing, to the board of directors of First Wyoming that, as of the date of its opinion, the acquisition of First Wyoming by WSFS in accordance with the provisions of the merger agreement was fair to First Wyoming stockholders, from a financial point of view.

The full text of GMS' written opinion, dated November 22, 2013, is attached as Annex III to this proxy statement and is incorporated herein by reference. Holders of First Wyoming common stock are urged to read the opinion carefully and in its entirety in connection with this proxy statement/prospectus. The opinion of GMS will not reflect any developments that may occur or may have occurred after the date of its opinion and prior to the completion of the merger.

GMS opinion speaks only as of the date of the opinion. The opinion is directed to the First Wyoming board of directors and addresses only the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the acquisition of First Wyoming by WSFS in accordance with the provisions of the merger agreement. It does not address the underlying business decision to proceed with the merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any First Wyoming stockholder as to how the stockholder should vote on the merger at the First Wyoming special meeting.

Table of Contents

In connection with rendering its opinion on November 22, 2013, GMS:

Reviewed the merger agreement;

Reviewed certain publicly-available financial information of First Wyoming, WSFS and their affiliates which was deemed to be relevant;

Reviewed certain information relating to the business, earnings, cash flows, assets, liabilities, liquidity and prospects of First Wyoming and WSFS;

Reviewed materials detailing the merger prepared by First Wyoming;

Conducted conversations with members of the board of directors, senior management or other representatives of First Wyoming and senior management of WSFS regarding the matters described in the above clauses, as well as their respective businesses and prospects before and after giving effect to the merger;

Compared certain financial metrics of First Wyoming and WSFS to similarly-situated banks and thrifts;

Analyzed the terms of the merger relative to similarly-situated prior mergers and acquisitions involving a depository institution as the selling entity;

Analyzed the impact of the merger on certain balance sheet and capital ratios of WSFS as of September 30, 2013;

Analyzed the consideration offered relative to First Wyoming's book value and tangible book value as of September 30, 2013;

Analyzed the consideration offered relative to First Wyoming's stand-alone estimated earnings per share for a ten-year projection period, which projections were independently developed by GMS and subsequently reviewed by the senior management of First Wyoming;

Reviewed the overall environment for depository institutions in the United States; and Conducted such other financial studies, analyses and investigations and took into account such other matters as it deemed appropriate for purposes of its opinion, including its assessment of general economic, market and monetary conditions.

In preparing the opinion, GMS assumed and relied upon, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of the information provided to it or otherwise publicly available for the purposes of the opinion. GMS relied upon publicly available information, without independent verification, that GMS believed to be reliable, accurate, and complete; however, GMS cannot guarantee the reliability, accuracy, or completeness of any such publicly available information. GMS was not engaged to express, and is not expressing, any opinion with respect to any other transactions or alternative proposed transactions, if any, between First Wyoming and WSFS. In addition, GMS has assumed that the merger agreement is a valid, binding and enforceable agreement upon the parties and their affiliates and will not be terminated or breached by either party. GMS has also assumed that there have been no material changes in the assets, liabilities, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects of First Wyoming, WSFS and their affiliates since either (i) the date of the last financial statements made available to GMS and (ii) the date of the merger agreement, and that no legal, political, economic, regulatory or other developments have occurred or will occur that will adversely affect these entities. GMS did not make an independent evaluation of the assets or liabilities of First Wyoming, WSFS or their affiliates, including, but not limited to, any derivative or off-balance sheet assets or liabilities.

The projections used by GMS in certain of its analyses were independently prepared by it and subsequently reviewed by First Wyoming's senior management team. The projections were based on numerous variables and assumptions, which are inherently uncertain, including factors related to general economic and competitive conditions. Accordingly, actual results could vary significantly from those set forth in the projections.

Table of Contents

For purposes of rendering its opinion, GMS assumed that, in all respects material to its analyses:

The merger will be completed substantially in accordance with the terms set forth in the merger agreement with no additional payments or adjustments to the merger consideration;

The representations and warranties of each party in the merger agreement and in all related documents and instruments referred to in the merger agreement are true and correct;

Each party to the merger agreement and all related documents will perform all of the covenants and agreements required to be performed by such party under such documents;

All material conditions to the completion of the merger will be satisfied without any waiver; and

In the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory, contractual, or other consents or approvals for the merger, no restrictions, including any divestiture requirements, termination or other payments or amendments or modifications, will be imposed that will have a material adverse effect on the future results of operations or financial conditions of the combined entity or the contemplated benefits of the merger, including the cost savings and related expenses expected to result from the merger.

GMS further assumed that the merger will be accounted for using the Acquisition Method of Accounting in accordance with FASB 141(R) and that the merger will qualify as a tax-free reorganization for United States federal income tax purposes.

In performing its analyses, GMS made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business, economic, market and financial conditions and other matters, which are beyond the control of GMS, First Wyoming and WSFS. Any estimates contained in the analyses performed by GMS are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results, which are inherently subject to substantial uncertainty and may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by these analyses. Additionally, estimates of the value of businesses or securities do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which such businesses or securities might actually be sold. Accordingly, these analyses and estimates are inherently subject to substantial uncertainty. In addition, the GMS opinion was among several factors taken into consideration by the First Wyoming board of directors in making its determination to approve the merger agreement and the merger. Consequently, the analyses described below should not be viewed as determinative of the decision of the First Wyoming board of directors with respect to the fairness of the merger consideration.

The following is a summary of the material analyses presented by GMS to the First Wyoming board of directors on November 21 and 22, 2013, in connection with its fairness opinion. The summary is not a complete description of the analyses underlying the GMS opinion or the presentation made by GMS to the First Wyoming board of directors, but summarizes the material analyses performed and presented in connection with such opinion. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex analytic process involving various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. In arriving at its opinion, GMS did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis or factor that it considered, but rather made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor. The financial analyses summarized below include information presented in tabular format. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses. Accordingly, GMS believes that its analyses and the summary of its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses and factors or focusing on the information presented below in tabular format, without considering all analyses and factors or the full narrative description of the financial analyses, including the methodologies and assumptions underlying the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the process underlying its analyses and opinion.

To perform this analysis, GMS used publicly available financial information as of or for the twelve-month period ended September 30, 2013. Market price information was as of November 18, 2013. Certain financial data prepared by GMS, and referenced in the table presented below, may not correspond to the data presented in First Wyoming's historical financial statements as a result of the different periods, assumptions and methods used by GMS to compute the financial data presented. The average and median financial metrics of the comparable companies and the common stock of First Wyoming valued at $60.00 per share are as follows:

During the meeting of First Wyoming's board of directors on November 21, 2013, GMS noted that the offer price of $60.00 per share for First Wyoming includes a control premium which is not reflected in the comparable companies per share values. GMS stated that the difference between the First Wyoming $60.00 per share valuation and the valuation of the guideline companies reflected an appropriate control premium range for the shares of First Wyoming. In its review of the Public Comparable Analysis, First Wyoming's board of directors considered the lack of any control premium associated with the comparable companies per share values.

No company used as a comparison in the above analysis is identical to First Wyoming or WSFS. Accordingly, an analysis of these results is not mathematical. Rather, it involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the companies.

Contribution Analysis

In evaluating the transaction, GMS considered a contribution analysis. This analysis determines the percentage of the combined company that should be owned by the current WSFS stockholders and the current First Wyoming stockholders based on each organization's contribution to the combined organization's earnings, equity and assets in a 100% stock transaction. The contribution analysis applies a weighting to each of these contributions based on their importance to overall value of the combined company. Since, in the view of GMS, corporate earnings are the primary determination of corporate value, the contribution analysis weighs earnings at 50%. The contribution analysis weighs equity at 45% and assets at 5%. This weighting factor is considered to be appropriate since, in the view of GMS, equity is significantly more important than assets when determining corporate value.

The contribution analysis uses the earnings, equity and assets for each organization as of September 30, 2013. The assumed annual income for each organization is estimated based on year-to-date income through September 30, 2013. Based on the assigned weighting factors, in a 100% stock transaction, the First Wyoming stockholders should own 7.88% of the combined organization and the WSFS stockholders should own 92.12% of the combined organization. Based on WSFS 8,850,368 shares of common stock outstanding as of November 26, 2013, the contribution analysis would require WSFS to issue 757,118 shares of common stock to the First Wyoming stockholders in a 100% stock transaction. The issuance of 757,118 shares would result in 9,607,486 shares of WSFS common stock outstanding, with the First Wyoming stockholders owning 7.88% of the combined organization and the WSFS stockholders owning 92.12% of the combined organization.

WSFS acquisition of First Wyoming is structured as a 50% cash/50% stock transaction. Adjustment to the contribution analysis is necessary to account for the issuance of the cash consideration. This adjustment is completed by multiplying the required number of shares to be issued by 50%. This results in a required issuance of 378,559 shares of WSFS common stock to the First Wyoming stockholders based on the contribution analysis. The transaction will result in the issuance of 452,768 shares of WSFS common stock, which exceeds the required issuance as adjusted in the contribution analysis of 378,559 shares by 74,209 shares. The issuance of the excess of the 74,209 shares valued at $72.35 per share results in the exchange of $5,369,021 more in stock consideration than is required using the contribution analysis.

Comparable Transaction Analysis

GMS reviewed publicly available information related to comparable mergers and acquisitions. The analysis includes a review of comparable transactions that occurred in both the Mid-Atlantic region and United States since January 1, 2012. The selected transactions included 21 transactions announced from January 1, 2012 through November 21, 2013 involving target banks and thrifts headquartered in the Mid-Atlantic region where the target bank had assets of between $100 million and $500 million.

For the transactions referred to above, GMS derived and compared the average and median deal value as a multiple of the acquired companies' earnings, book value and assets. Using these multiples, GMS then derived a pro forma value for First Wyoming by taking an average value from each of these multiples. According to the comparable transaction analysis, the pro forma value of First Wyoming based on the average pricing multiples of similar deals in the Mid-Atlantic Region that have occurred since January 1, 2012 is $50,562,831. The agreed upon transaction consideration exceeds the pro forma company value by $13,477,989 when compared to similar deals in the Mid-Atlantic Region.

No company or transaction used as a comparison in the above analysis is identical to First Wyoming, WSFS or the merger. Accordingly, an analysis of these results is not mathematical. Rather, it involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the companies.

Discounted Future Income Analysis

GMS performed an analysis that estimated the net present value of the future income of First Wyoming. In performing this analysis, GMS used financial projections that incorporated estimates supplied or approved by First Wyoming's management team. A range of net present values was determined by discounting First Wyoming's future projected net income using a 5%, 7.5%, 10% and 12.5% discount rate. This resulted in the following range of net present values for First Wyoming:

Assumed Discount Rate	Present Value of Future Net Income	Excess of Consideration Over Present Value
5%	$63,988,411	$52,409
7.5%	$43,840,664	$20,200,156
10%	$32,485,251	$31,555,569
12.5%	$25,589,638	$38,451,182

For all of the above analyses, the actual results achieved by WSFS following the merger will vary from the projected results, and the variations may be material.

GMS acted as First Wyoming's financial advisor in connection with the merger. First Wyoming has paid GMS a cash fee of $30,000 associated with GMS's rendering of a fairness opinion. Additionally, First Wyoming has also agreed to reimburse GMS for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses and disbursements incurred in connection with its retention and to indemnify it against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the federal securities laws. Gerrish McCreary Smith, P.C., an affiliate of GMS, acts as legal counsel to First Wyoming.

WSFS Reasons for the Merger

WSFS believes that the acquisition of First Wyoming provides an excellent opportunity to increase the scale of its operations in Delaware. In particular, the acquisition enhances WSFS existing franchise in Kent County, Delaware. The acquisition also provides WSFS a significant opportunity to generate additional revenue by providing its full suite of banking, mortgage banking, wealth management and insurance services to First Wyoming's markets as well as leverage WSFS's operating platform. In addition, the acquisition of First Wyoming will strengthen the breadth of WSFS's loan products and capabilities. The board of directors of WSFS approved the merger agreement after WSFS's senior management discussed with the board of directors a number of factors, including those described above and the business, assets, liabilities, results of operations, financial performance, strategic direction and prospects of First Wyoming. WSFS's board of directors did not consider it practicable, and did not attempt, to quantify or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors it considered in reaching its determination. WSFS's board of directors viewed its position as being based on all of the information and the factors presented to and considered by it. In addition, individual directors may have given different weights to different information and factors.

Table of Contents

Management and Board of Directors of WSFS After the Merger

The directors and officers of WSFS immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will continue as the directors and officers of WSFS as the surviving corporation of the merger. Information about the current WSFS directors and executive officers can be found in the documents listed under "Where You Can Find More Information" beginning on page 86.

Interests of First Wyoming's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger

When considering the recommendation of First Wyoming's board of directors that First Wyoming stockholders vote for the approval of the merger agreement, First Wyoming stockholders should be aware that some of First Wyoming's directors and executive officers may have interests in the merger and have arrangements that may be different from, or in addition to, those of First Wyoming stockholders generally. Some of these interests include that, pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, effective as of the consummation of the merger, WSFS and WSFS Bank will combine the existing Kent County and Sussex County advisory boards to form the Southern Delaware Advisory Board, and WSFS Bank's appointee, Joshua M. Twilley, will become its chairperson. Mr. Twilley is currently the chairman of the board of directors of First Wyoming. In addition, at the effective time of the merger, Mr. Twilley may enter into a three-year consulting arrangement with WSFS's board of directors pursuant to which he will receive cash consulting fees of approximately $50,000 per year from WSFS. These interests and arrangements may create potential conflicts of interest. First Wyoming's board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, when making its decision to approve the merger agreement and recommend that First Wyoming stockholders vote in favor of approval of the merger agreement. For purposes of all of the First Wyoming agreements and plans described below, the completion of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement will constitute a change of control.

Change in Control Severance Agreements

First Wyoming entered into an employment agreement with John Coleman on September 2, 2011. The employment agreement covers the period from Mr. Coleman's original date of hire (February 22, 2011) for a period of five (5) years. In the event of a termination or change in control, Mr. Coleman is entitled to receive the remaining salary payable from the date of termination or change in control through February 22, 2016. In 2013, Mr. Coleman's annual base salary was $130,000 and he is entitled to 3% to 5% increases in base salary annually subject to satisfactory employee evaluation. Mr. Coleman's estimated payment is described in the table below.

Mr. Coleman's employment agreement contains certain restrictive covenants. Mr. Coleman has agreed that for a period of one (1) year following his termination or voluntary withdrawal, within the State of Delaware, that he will not, directly or indirectly, solicit or attempt to solicit the business of any client or customer of First Wyoming for his own benefit or that of any third person or organization, and shall refrain from either directly or indirectly attempting to obtain the withdrawal from the employment by First Wyoming of any other employee of First Wyoming having regard to the same geographical and temporal restrictions. In addition, Mr. Coleman shall not directly or indirectly divulge any financial information relating to First Wyoming or any of its affiliates or clients to any person whatsoever.

Table of Contents

The following table summarizes the estimated cash payments and benefits payable to Mr. Coleman pursuant to his employment agreement, assuming the merger closed and he was terminated on February 22, 2014. First Wyoming currently has no change in control severance agreements with any other executive officer. The actual amounts that would be paid to an executive officer would be reduced to the extent required to avoid the imposition of excise taxes under Section 4999 of the Code and can only be determined at the time of the executive officer's termination of employment.

Indemnification and Insurance

The merger agreement provides that for six years after the effective time of the merger, WSFS will indemnify, defend and hold harmless the present and former directors and officers of First Wyoming and its subsidiaries against all liabilities arising out of actions or omissions arising out of such person's services in such capacities to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law and First Wyoming's governing documents in effect on the date of the merger agreement (including any provisions relating to the advancement of expenses incurred in the defense of any litigation).

The merger agreement requires WSFS to use its reasonable best efforts to maintain for a period of six years after the effective time of the merger First Wyoming's existing directors' and officers' liability insurance policy, or policies of at least the same coverage and amounts and containing terms and conditions which are substantially no less advantageous than the current policy (or, with the consent of First Wyoming prior to the effective time of the merger, any other policy), with respect to claims arising from facts or events that occurred prior to the effective time of the merger, and covering such individuals who are currently covered by such insurance. However, WSFS is not required to incur annual premium payments greater than 200 percent of First Wyoming's current annual directors' and officers' annual liability insurance premium. In lieu of the insurance described in the preceding sentence, prior to the effective time of the merger, WSFS, or First Wyoming, in consultation with WSFS, may obtain a six-year tail prepaid policy providing coverage equivalent to such insurance. See The Merger Agreement Covenants and Agreements D&O Indemnification and Insurance on page 63.

Public Trading Markets

WSFS common stock is listed on NASDAQ under the symbol WSFS. First Wyoming common stock is not listed on any stock exchange or quoted on any interdealer quotation system. The newly issued WSFS common stock issuable pursuant to the merger agreement will be listed on NASDAQ and freely transferable under the Securities Act.

Dissenters' Appraisal Rights

If the merger is consummated, holders of record of First Wyoming common stock who followed the procedures specified by Chapter 92A.300 to 92A.500 of the NRS will be entitled to determination and payment in cash of the fair value of their stock (as determined immediately before the effective time of the merger), excluding any appreciation or depreciation resulting from the anticipation of the merger, unless such exclusion would be inequitable, plus accrued interest from the effective date of the merger until the date of payment. First Wyoming stockholders who elect to follow these procedures are referred to as dissenting stockholders.

A vote in favor of the merger agreement by a holder of First Wyoming common stock will result in a waiver of the stockholder's right to demand payment for his or her shares.

Table of Contents

The following summary of the provisions of Sections 92A.300 to 92A.500 is not intended to be a complete statement of such provisions, the full text of which is attached as Annex II to this proxy statement/prospectus, and is qualified in its entirety by reference thereto.

A holder of First Wyoming common stock electing to exercise dissenters' rights must deliver to First Wyoming a written notice of dissent stating that he or she intends to demand payment for his or her shares if the merger is consummated. This notice must be sent before the vote is taken. The dissenting stockholder must not vote, or cause or permit to be voted, any of his or her shares in favor of the proposed transaction or, if action is taken by written consent of the stockholders, consent or approve the proposed transaction. If the dissenting stockholder fails to comply with these requirements, he or she will not be entitled to dissenters' rights. The fair value of the shares as defined above is determined using customary and current valuation concepts and techniques generally employed for similar businesses in the context of the transaction requiring appraisal and without discounting for lack of marketability or minority status.

Within 10 days after the effective time of the merger, WSFS, as surviving corporation of the merger, will give written notice of the effective date of the merger by certified mail to each stockholder who filed a written notice of dissent. The notice will provide (i) where demand for payment must be sent and where and when share certificates, if any, must be deposited, (ii) inform the holders of shares not represented by certificates to what extent the transfer of shares will be restricted after the demand for payment is received, (iii) supply a form for demanding payment in compliance with Section 92A.430(c) of the NRS, (iv) set a date by which the surviving corporation must receive the demand for payment, which may not be less than 30 nor more than 60 days after the date the notice is delivered, (v) state that the stockholder shall be deemed to have waived the right to demand payment with respect to the shares unless the form is received by the surviving corporation by such specified date, and (vi) be accompanied by a copy of NRS 92A.300 to 92A.500, inclusive. A form of demand for payment is set forth at the end of Annex II.

Within the time period set forth in the notice, the dissenting stockholder must (i) make a written demand on WSFS for payment of the fair value of his or her shares, (ii) certify that the stockholder acquired beneficial ownership of the shares before the date required as set forth in the notice, and (iii) deposit his or her share certificates, if any, in accordance with the terms of the notice. Once the stockholder deposits his or her share certificates, or, in the case of uncertificated shares makes demand for payment, that stockholder loses all rights as a stockholder.

Within 30 days after the receipt of the dissenting stockholder's demand for payment, WSFS, as the surviving corporation, will pay each dissenting stockholder who complied with the required procedures the amount it estimates to be the fair value of the dissenting stockholder's shares, plus accrued interest. WSFS will include along with the payment to each dissenting stockholder (i) a balance sheet as of the end of a fiscal year ending not more than 16 months before the date of payment, a statement of income for that year, a statement of changes in the stockholders equity for that year, or, where such financial statements or not reasonably available, then such reasonably equivalent financial information, and the latest available interim financial statements, if any, (ii) a statement of WSFS' estimate of the fair value of the shares, and (iii) a statement of the dissenting stockholder's right to demand payment of fair value under Nevada law and that if any such stockholder does not do so within the period specified, such stockholder shall be deemed to have accepted such payment in full satisfaction of WSFS' obligations under the NRS.

Following receipt of payment, a dissenting stockholder, within 30 days, may send WSFS notice containing such stockholder's own estimate of fair value and accrued interest, and demand payment for that amount less the amount received pursuant to WSFS' payment of fair value to such stockholder. This right is waived if the dissenting stockholder does not make written demand within 30 days of WSFS' payment for the stockholder's shares. If a demand for payment remains unsettled, WSFS will petition the court to determine fair value and accrued interest. If WSFS fails to commence an action within 60 days following the receipt of a dissenting stockholder's demand, WSFS will pay each dissenting stockholder whose demand remains unsettled the amount demanded by each dissenting stockholder, plus interest. WSFS shall commence proceedings in the United States District Court for the District of Delaware, the district court of the county where First Wyoming's principal office is located.

All dissenting stockholders whose demands remain unsettled, whether residents of Nevada or not, must be made parties to the action and the court will render judgment for the fair value of their shares. Each party must be served with the petition. The judgment shall include payment for the amount, if any, by which the court finds the fair value of such shares, plus interest, exceeds the amount already paid. If the court finds that the demand of any dissenting stockholder for payment was arbitrary, vexatious or otherwise not in good faith, the court may assess costs, including reasonable fees of counsel and experts, against such stockholder. Otherwise the costs and expenses of bringing the action will be determined by the court. In addition, reasonable fees and expenses of counsel and experts may be assessed against WSFS if the court finds that it did not substantially comply with the requirements of the Nevada dissenters' rights statute or that it acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith with respect to the rights granted to dissenters under Nevada law.

If you are a holder of shares and you wish to seek dissenters' rights, you are urged to review the applicable Nevada statutes attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex II.

Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger

WSFS and First Wyoming have agreed to use their reasonable best efforts to obtain all regulatory approvals, consents, non-objections and waivers required to complete the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement; provided, that in no event will WSFS be required to accept any new restriction or condition on WSFS or its subsidiaries which is materially and unreasonably burdensome on WSFS's business or on the business of First Wyoming or its subsidiaries following the closing or which would reduce the economic benefits of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement to WSFS to such a degree that WSFS would not have entered into the merger agreement had such condition or restriction been known to it on the date of the merger agreement, which is referred to as a burdensome condition. These approvals include approval from the OCC, among others. WSFS and First Wyoming have filed, or are in the process of filing, the applications, notices, requests and letters necessary to obtain the required regulatory determinations.

Federal Reserve. The merger of WSFS with First Wyoming represents WSFS's acquisition of a federal registered bank holding company. Under the Bank Holding Company Act, prior approval of the Federal Reserve Board is generally required prior to any company or entity acquiring an existing bank holding company, like First Wyoming. There are, however, certain exceptions from this prior approval requirement, including an exception for transactions involving simultaneous mergers approved by a federal banking agency under the Bank Merger Act, where certain conditions are met. WSFS plans to provide a letter filing to the Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia in advance of the merger explaining how the parties and the merger meet the requirements for the exception and request that the Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia waive the prior approval requirement. In the event that the Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia determines that either the parties or the merger does not qualify for this exception to the prior approval requirement of the Bank Holding Company Act, we will be required to file an application with the Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia formally requesting approval of the merger.

Office of the Comptroller of the Currency. Simultaneously with the merger, WSFS intends to merge The First National Bank of Wyoming with and into WSFS Bank, with WSFS Bank as the surviving entity. Consummation of the bank subsidiary merger is subject to receipt of the approval of the OCC under the Bank Merger Act. Application for approval of the bank merger will be subject to a 30-day public notice and comment period, as well as review and approval by the OCC. In evaluating an application filed under the Bank Merger Act, the OCC generally considers the financial and managerial resources of the banks, the convenience and needs of the community to be served, the banks effectiveness in combating money-laundering activities as well as the import of the transaction on financial stability. In connection with its review, the OCC will provide an opportunity for public comment on the application for the bank merger, and is authorized to hold a public meeting or other proceeding if they determine that would be appropriate.

Timing. We cannot assure you that all of the regulatory approvals and waivers described above will be obtained and, if obtained, we cannot assure you as to the timing of any such regulatory determinations, our ability to obtain the approvals and waivers on satisfactory terms or the absence of any litigation challenging such approvals or waivers. We also cannot assure you that any third party will not attempt to challenge the merger on antitrust grounds, and, if such a challenge is made, we cannot assure you as to its result.

WSFS and First Wyoming believe that the merger does not raise substantial antitrust or other significant regulatory concerns and that we will be able to obtain all requisite regulatory approvals on a timely basis without the imposition of any condition that would have a material adverse effect on WSFS or First Wyoming. The parties' obligation to complete the merger is conditioned upon the receipt of all required regulatory approvals.

We are not aware of any material governmental approvals, waivers or actions that are required for consummation of the merger other than those described above. It is presently contemplated that if any such additional governmental approvals, waivers or actions are required, those approvals or actions will be sought. There can be no assurance, however, that any additional approvals or actions will be obtained.

NASDAQ Listing of WSFS Common Stock

Before the effective time of the merger, WSFS has agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to cause the shares of WSFS common stock to be issued in the merger to be approved for listing on NASDAQ. The listing of the shares of WSFS common stock is also a condition to the consummation of the merger.

Table of Contents

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following describes certain material provisions of the merger agreement, but does not describe all of the terms of the merger agreement and may not contain all of the information about the merger agreement that is important to you. The following description of the merger agreement is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by reference to, the merger agreement, which is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex I and is incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. We urge you to read the merger agreement carefully and in its entirety, as it is the legal document governing this merger.

Structure of the Merger

Each of the First Wyoming board of directors and the WSFS board of directors has approved the merger agreement, which provides for the merger of First Wyoming with and into WSFS, with WSFS continuing as the surviving corporation.

The Merger Consideration

As a result of the merger, each share of First Wyoming common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the merger will be converted, at the election of the stockholder, into the right to receive either (i) cash in an amount equal to $60.00, referred to as the Cash Consideration, or (ii) 0.8484 of a share of WSFS common stock, referred to as the Stock Consideration, and together with the Cash Consideration, the Merger Consideration. Each holder of First Wyoming common stock is entitled to elect the form of the Merger Consideration that he or she would like to receive for his or her shares of First Wyoming common stock. All such elections are subject to adjustment on a pro rata basis except for elections by holders of First Wyoming common stock to receive the Stock Consideration for half of their shares and the Cash Consideration for the remaining half of their shares (and, if the holder of First Wyoming common stock holds an odd number of shares, an election to receive either the Stock Consideration or the Cash Consideration for the remaining odd share of First Wyoming common stock), which are referred to as Split Election Shares.

Fractional Shares

WSFS will not issue any fractional shares of WSFS common stock in the merger. Instead, a First Wyoming stockholder who otherwise would have been entitled to receive a fraction of a share of WSFS common stock will receive, in lieu thereof, an amount in cash rounded to the nearest cent. This cash amount will be determined by multiplying the fraction of a share of WSFS common stock to which the holder would otherwise be entitled by the last reported sale price of WSFS common stock on NASDAQ on the last trading day preceding the date on which the merger is completed.

Proration

The terms of the merger agreement provide that the aggregate amount of the Cash Consideration that holders of First Wyoming common stock are entitled to receive is $32,020,410, or the Maximum Cash Contribution. As a result, except for elections for Split Election Shares, all elections may be subject to proration depending on the elections made by other holders of First Wyoming common stock if the Maximum Cash Contribution is undersubscribed or oversubscribed. Proration will be applied so that ultimately 50% of the shares of First Wyoming common stock are treated as Cash Election Shares and 50% of the shares of First Wyoming common stock are treated as Stock Election Shares.

For example, if the aggregate Cash Consideration payable to holders of Cash Election Shares is in excess of the Maximum Cash Contribution, all of the Non-Election Shares will be treated as Stock Election Shares and a number of Cash Election Shares that are not Split Election Shares will be converted into Stock Election Shares until the Maximum Cash Contribution is no longer oversubscribed. If the aggregate Cash Consideration payable to holders of Cash Election Shares is less than the Maximum Cash Contribution, a number of Non-Election

Shares will be treated as Cash Election Shares until the Maximum Cash Contribution is no longer undersubscribed and, if necessary, a number of Stock Election Shares that are not Split Election Shares will be converted into Cash Election Shares until the Maximum Cash Contribution is no longer undersubscribed.

Surviving Corporation, Governing Documents and Directors

At the effective time of the merger, WSFS certificate of incorporation and bylaws in effect immediately prior to the effective time will be the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of WSFS as the surviving corporation of the merger, until thereafter amended in accordance with their respective terms and applicable law. At the effective time of the merger, the board of directors of WSFS immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be the board of directors of WSFS as the surviving corporation of the merger.

Bank Subsidiary Merger

Simultaneously with the effective time of the merger, The First National Bank of Wyoming will merge with and into WSFS Bank, with WSFS Bank continuing as the surviving corporation of the merger.

Closing and Effective Time of the Merger

The merger will be completed only if all conditions to the merger discussed in this proxy statement/prospectus and set forth in the merger agreement are either satisfied or waived (subject to applicable laws). See Conditions to Consummation of the Merger beginning on page 65.

The merger will become effective on the date and at the time specified in the articles of merger to be filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Nevada and in the certificate of merger to be filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware. In the merger agreement, we have agreed to cause the effective time of the merger to occur on the fifth business day following the satisfaction or waiver (subject to applicable laws) of the last of the conditions specified in the merger agreement, or on another mutually agreed date. It currently is anticipated that the effective time of the merger will occur in the third quarter of 2014, subject to the receipt of regulatory approvals and waivers and other customary closing conditions, but we cannot guarantee when or if the merger will be completed.

Conversion of Shares; Exchange of Certificates

The conversion of First Wyoming common stock into the right to receive the Merger Consideration will occur automatically at the effective time of the merger. Promptly after the effective time of the merger, the exchange agent will exchange certificates or book-entry shares representing shares of First Wyoming common stock for the Merger Consideration to be received pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement.

Form of Election/ Letter of Transmittal

WSFS shall appoint an exchange agent reasonably acceptable to First Wyoming, for the purpose of receiving elections and exchanging shares of First Wyoming common stock for the Merger Consideration, pursuant to an exchange agent agreement entered into between WSFS and the exchange agent. Each holder of First Wyoming common stock issued and outstanding shall have the right, subject to certain limitations set forth in the merger agreement, to submit an election as to the type of Merger Consideration they would like to receive on or prior to 5:00 p.m. local time (in the city in which the principal office of the exchange agent is located) on the date that is 30 days following the closing date of the merger, which date is referred to as the election deadline. First Wyoming and WSFS shall issue a press release announcing the anticipated date of the election deadline not more than 15 business days before, and at least five business days prior to, the election deadline.

Each holder of First Wyoming common stock may specify in a form of election/letter of transmittal, (i) the number of shares of First Wyoming common stock owned by such holder with respect to which such holder desires to make a Stock Election and (ii) the number of shares of First Wyoming common stock owned by such holder with respect to which such holder desires to make a Cash Election.

Table of Contents

A form of election/letter of transmittal will be prepared by WSFS in a form reasonably acceptable to First Wyoming which shall be mailed or delivered to record holders of First Wyoming common stock as of the record date for the First Wyoming stockholder meeting not less than 20 business days prior to the anticipated election deadline.

Any holder of First Wyoming common stock may, at any time prior to the election deadline, change or revoke his or her election by written notice received by the exchange agent prior to the election deadline accompanied by a properly completed and signed revised form of election/letter of transmittal or by withdrawal prior to the election deadline of his or her certificates representing shares of First Wyoming common stock, or of the guarantee of delivery of such certificates, or any documents in respect of shares of First Wyoming common stock held in book-entry form, previously deposited with the exchange agent. After an election is validly made with respect to any shares of First Wyoming common stock, any subsequent transfer of such shares of First Wyoming common stock shall automatically revoke such election. Subject to the terms of the exchange agent agreement and the merger agreement, the exchange agent shall have reasonable discretion to determine if any election is not properly made with respect to any shares of First Wyoming common stock (neither WSFS nor First Wyoming nor the exchange agent being under any duty to notify any holder of First Wyoming common stock of any such defect); in the event the exchange agent makes such a determination, such election shall be deemed to be not in effect, and the shares of First Wyoming common stock covered by such election shall be deemed to be Non-Electing Shares, unless a proper election is thereafter timely made with respect to such shares.

After the effective time of the merger, there will be no further transfers on the stock transfer books of First Wyoming.

Withholding

WSFS and the exchange agent will be entitled to deduct and withhold from the consideration otherwise payable pursuant to the merger agreement to any First Wyoming stockholder the amounts, if any, it is required to deduct and withhold under the Code or any provision of state, local or foreign tax law. To the extent that any amounts are so withheld, these amounts will be treated for all purposes of the merger agreement as having been paid to the stockholders in respect of which such deduction and withholding was made.

Dividends and Distributions

Whenever a dividend or other distribution is declared by WSFS on WSFS common stock, the record date for which is at or after the effective time of the merger, the declaration will include dividends or other distributions on all shares of WSFS common stock issuable pursuant to the merger agreement, but such dividends or other distributions will not be paid to the holder thereof until such holder has duly surrendered its First Wyoming stock certificates or book-entry shares in accordance with the merger agreement.

Prior to the effective time of the merger, neither First Wyoming nor its subsidiaries may, except with WSFS prior written consent, declare or pay any dividend or distribution on its capital stock.

In the merger agreement, First Wyoming has made customary representations and warranties to WSFS with respect to, among other things:

the due organization, valid existence, good standing and corporate power and authority of First Wyoming and The First National Bank of Wyoming;

First Wyoming's authority to enter into the merger agreement and to complete the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement (subject to receipt of the vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of First Wyoming common stock) and the enforceability of the merger agreement against First Wyoming in accordance with its terms;

Many of the representations and warranties in the merger agreement made by First Wyoming and WSFS are qualified by a materiality or material adverse effect standard (that is, they will not be deemed to be untrue or incorrect unless their failure to be true or correct, individually or in the aggregate, would, as the case may be, be material or have a material adverse effect on First Wyoming or WSFS, as applicable).

Under the merger agreement, a material adverse effect is defined, with respect to a party, any fact, circumstance, event, change, effect, development or occurrence that, individually or in the aggregate together with all other facts, circumstances, events, changes, effects, developments or occurrences, directly or indirectly, (1) has had or would reasonably be expected to result in a material adverse effect on the condition (financial or otherwise), results of operations, assets, liabilities or business of such Party and its Subsidiaries taken as a whole, but does not include effects to the extent resulting from the following:

changes after the date of the merger agreement in GAAP or regulatory accounting requirements; changes after the date of the merger agreement in laws of general applicability to companies in the financial services industry;

changes after the date of the merger agreement in global, national or regional political conditions or general economic or market conditions in the United States (and with respect to the First Wyoming, the State of Delaware), including changes in prevailing interest rates, credit availability and liquidity, currency exchange rates, and price levels or trading volumes in the United States or foreign securities markets) affecting other companies in the financial services industry;

after the date of the merger agreement, general changes in the credit markets or general downgrades in the credit markets;

failure, in and of itself, to meet earnings projections or internal financial forecasts, but not including any underlying causes thereof unless separately excluded hereunder, or changes in the trading price of a party's common stock, in and of itself, but not including any underlying causes unless separately excluded hereunder;

the public disclosure of the merger agreement and the impact thereof on relationships with customers or employees;

any outbreak or escalation of hostilities, declared or undeclared acts of war or terrorism; or actions or omissions taken with the prior written consent of the other party hereto or expressly required by the merger agreement; except to the extent that the effects of such change disproportionately affect such party and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, as compared to other companies in the industry in which such party and its subsidiaries operate, or (2) prevents or materially impairs the ability of such party to timely consummate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

The representations and warranties in the merger agreement do not survive the effective time of the merger and, as described below under "Effect of Termination," if the merger agreement is validly terminated, the merger agreement will become void and have no effect (except with respect to designated provisions of the merger agreement, including those related to payment of fees and expenses and the confidential treatment of information), unless a party breached the merger agreement.

This summary and the copy of the merger agreement attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex I are included solely to provide investors with information regarding the terms of the merger agreement. They are not intended to provide factual information about the parties or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. The foregoing discussion is qualified in its entirety by reference to the merger agreement. The merger agreement contains representations and warranties by WSFS and First Wyoming, which were made only for purposes of that agreement and as of specific dates. The representations, warranties and covenants in the merger agreement were made solely for the benefit of the parties to the merger agreement, may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the contracting parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the merger agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts, and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those generally applicable to investors. Investors are not third-party beneficiaries under the merger agreement, and in reviewing the representations, warranties and covenants contained in the merger agreement or any descriptions thereof in this summary, it is important to bear in mind that such representations, warranties and covenants or any descriptions thereof were not intended by the parties to the merger agreement to be characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of WSFS, First Wyoming or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations, warranties and covenants may change after the date of the merger agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in WSFS' and First Wyoming's public disclosures. For the foregoing reasons, the representations, warranties and covenants or any descriptions of those provisions should not be read alone and should instead be read in conjunction with the other information contained in the reports, statements and filings that WSFS publicly files with the SEC. For more information regarding these documents, see the section entitled Where You Can Find More Information beginning on page 86.

Covenants and Agreements

Conduct of Businesses Prior to the Effective Time of the Merger. First Wyoming has agreed that, prior to the effective time of the merger or termination of the merger agreement, unless the prior written consent of WSFS has been obtained, it will, and will cause its subsidiaries to, (1) operate its business only in the usual, regular and ordinary course, consistent with past practice, (2) use its reasonable best efforts to preserve intact its business organization and maintain its rights, authorizations, franchises, advantageous business relationships with customers, vendors, strategic partners, suppliers, distributors and others doing business with it, and the services of its officers and key employees and (3) take no action that would reasonably be expected to adversely affect or delay the receipt of any required regulatory approvals or the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Additionally, First Wyoming has agreed that prior to the effective time of the merger or termination of the merger agreement, unless the prior written consent of WSFS has been obtained and except for certain exceptions and as otherwise expressly contemplated in the merger agreement, First Wyoming will not, and will not permit any of its subsidiaries to, undertake the following actions or commit to undertake the following actions:

amend First Wyoming's articles of incorporation or bylaws or other governing documents of any of its subsidiaries; incur or guarantee any additional debt obligation or other obligation for borrowed money (other than indebtedness of First Wyoming to The First National Bank of Wyoming or of The First National Bank of Wyoming to First Wyoming incurred in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice;

Regulatory Matters. WSFS and First Wyoming have agreed to cooperate and to use their respective reasonable best efforts to prepare and file all documents, to obtain all permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of third parties and regulatory authorities necessary to consummate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. WSFS has agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to resolve any objections asserted with respect to the merger under any applicable law or order; provided, that in no event will WSFS be required to accept a burdensome condition, including agreeing to divest any assets, deposits, lines of business or branches. Each party will consult with the other party with respect to obtaining all material permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of any regulatory authority necessary or advisable to complete the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, and will keep such other party apprised of the status of material matters relating to completion of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including certain communications from regulatory authorities.

First Wyoming has agreed to, and to cause each of its subsidiaries to:

operate The First National Bank of Wyoming in a manner that is in substantial compliance with the terms of The First National Bank of Wyoming's written agreement, dated March 17, 2011; continue to address and resolve any matters requiring attention (as set forth in and defined in The First National Bank of Wyoming's most recent report on examination by the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency);

continue to cause The First National Bank of Wyoming to operate in accordance with the findings and recommendations of The First National Bank of Wyoming's most recent report on examination by the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency; and permit WSFS to perform a compliance review of First Wyoming and its subsidiaries with respect to certain customers of The First National Bank of Wyoming to assess, among other things, First Wyoming's and its subsidiaries' compliance with Bank Secrecy Act, as amended by the USA PATRIOT Act of 2001, and other laws relating to money laundering, and all processes and procedures related to compliance with such laws.

Tax Matters. WSFS and First Wyoming have agreed to use their respective reasonable best efforts to cause the merger to qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, and to take no action that would cause the merger not to so qualify.

Employee Matters. The merger agreement provides that employees of First Wyoming or its subsidiaries generally will be eligible to receive benefits that are, as a whole, comparable to those provided to similarly situated WSFS employees, including severance benefits (although employees of First Wyoming or its subsidiaries who are party to individual agreements will receive the severance benefits provided under the applicable agreements); however, employees of First Wyoming or its subsidiaries may continue to participate in First Wyoming benefit plans after the closing of the merger while WSFS integrates the employees of First Wyoming or its subsidiaries into its own benefit plans. Also, employees of First Wyoming or its subsidiaries will receive service credit based on their service with First Wyoming or its subsidiaries for purposes of participation in the WSFS benefit plans, and WSFS will use its reasonable best efforts to give credit for covered expenses incurred prior to the effective time of the merger for purposes of satisfying deductibles and out-of-pocket expenses under health care plans.

Prior to the effective time of the merger, First Wyoming will terminate the First Wyoming 401(k) plan, and, if requested by WSFS, (1) terminate First Wyoming employee benefit plans that provide retiree medical coverage and (2) amend, freeze, terminate or modify any other First Wyoming benefit plan to the extent and in the matter determined by WSFS effective upon the closing of the merger.

D&O Indemnification and Insurance. The merger agreement provides that for six years after the effective time of the merger, WSFS will indemnify, defend and hold harmless each of the present and former directors and officers of First Wyoming and its subsidiaries against all liabilities arising out of actions or omissions arising out of such persons' services in such capacities to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law and First Wyoming's governing documents in effect on the date of the merger agreement (including any provisions relating to the advancement of expenses incurred in the defense of any litigation).

The merger agreement requires WSFS to use its reasonable best efforts to maintain for a period of six years after the effective time of the merger First Wyoming's existing directors' and officers' liability insurance policy, or policies of at least the same coverage and amounts and containing terms and conditions which are substantially no less advantageous than the current policy (or, with the consent of First Wyoming prior to the effective time of the merger, any other policy), with respect to claims arising from facts or events that occurred prior to the effective time of the merger, and covering such individuals who are currently covered by such insurance. However, WSFS is not required to incur annual premium payments greater than 200 percent of First Wyoming's current directors' and officers' annual liability insurance premium. In lieu of the insurance described in the preceding sentence, prior to the effective time of the merger, WSFS, or First Wyoming, in consultation with WSFS, may obtain a six-year tail prepaid policy providing coverage equivalent to such insurance.

Certain Additional Covenants. The merger agreement also contains additional covenants, including covenants relating to the filing of this proxy statement/prospectus, obtaining required consents, the listing of the shares of WSFS common stock to be issued in the merger and public announcements with respect to the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Agreement Not to Solicit Other Offers

First Wyoming has agreed that it and its subsidiaries will not, and will cause their respective representatives not to, directly or indirectly:

solicit, initiate, encourage (including by providing information or assistance), facilitate or induce any acquisition proposal;

participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding, or furnish or cause to be furnished to any third party any nonpublic information with respect to, or take any other action to facilitate any inquiries or the making of any offer or proposal that constitutes, or may reasonably be expected to lead to, an acquisition proposal;

approve, agree to, accept, endorse or recommend any acquisition proposal; or approve, agree to, accept, endorse or recommend, or propose to approve, agree to, accept, endorse or recommend any acquisition agreement contemplating or otherwise relating to any acquisition transaction. However, if prior to the First Wyoming special meeting, First Wyoming receives an unsolicited written acquisition proposal by any third party that did not result from or arise in connection with a breach of the non-solicitation provisions described above, First Wyoming and its representatives may, prior to (but not after) the First Wyoming special meeting, take the following actions if the board of directors of First Wyoming (or any committee thereof) has

(1) determined, in its good faith judgment (after consultation with First Wyoming's financial advisors and outside legal counsel), that such acquisition proposal constitutes or could reasonably be expected to lead to a superior proposal and that the failure to take such actions would be inconsistent with the directors' exercise of their fiduciary duties under applicable law, and (2) obtained from such third party an executed confidentiality agreement containing terms at least as restrictive with respect to such third party as the terms of First Wyoming's confidentiality agreement with WSFS is with respect to WSFS: (A) furnish information to, and (B) enter into discussions and negotiations with, such third party with respect to such written acquisition proposal.

First Wyoming has also agreed to promptly (but in no event more than 24 hours) following the receipt of any acquisition proposal, or any request for nonpublic information or any inquiry that could reasonably be expected to lead to an acquisition proposal, provide WSFS with written notice of its receipt of such acquisition proposal, request or inquiry, and the terms and conditions of such acquisition proposal, request or inquiry (including the identity of the person making the acquisition proposal, request or inquiry), and to provide WSFS as promptly as practicable with a copy of such acquisition proposal, if in writing, or a written summary of the material terms of such acquisition proposal, if oral. In addition, First Wyoming has agreed to simultaneously provide to WSFS any nonpublic information concerning First Wyoming or any of its subsidiaries that may be provided to any third party in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement, to the extent not previously provided to WSFS, and to keep WSFS informed on a current basis in all material respects of all communications regarding (including any material amendments or proposed material amendments to) any such acquisition proposal, request or inquiry.

At any time prior to the First Wyoming special meeting of stockholders, if First Wyoming has received a superior proposal (after giving effect to the terms of any revised offer by WSFS), the board of directors of First Wyoming may terminate the merger agreement (and concurrently with such termination cause First Wyoming to enter into an acquisition agreement with respect to any superior proposal), if the board of directors of First Wyoming has determined in good faith, after consultation with outside legal counsel, that the failure to take such action would be a violation of the directors' fiduciary duties under applicable law; provided, that the board of directors of First Wyoming may not take such action unless:

First Wyoming has complied in all material respects with the terms of the merger agreement relating to such action;

First Wyoming has provided prior written notice to WSFS at least three business days in advance of taking such action, which notice shall advise WSFS that the board of directors of First Wyoming has received a superior proposal and shall include a copy of such superior proposal;

during the three business days prior to taking such action, First Wyoming has and has caused its financial advisors and outside legal counsel to, negotiate with WSFS in good faith (to the extent WSFS desires to so negotiate) to make such adjustments in the terms and conditions of the merger agreement so that such superior proposal ceases to constitute (in the judgment of the board of directors of First Wyoming) a superior proposal; and the board of directors of First Wyoming has determined in good faith, after considering the results of such negotiations and giving effect to any proposals, amendments or modifications made or agreed to by WSFS, if any, that such superior proposal remains a superior proposal.

If during the Notice Period any revisions are made to the superior proposal, First Wyoming shall deliver a new written notice to WSFS and shall comply with the requirements of the merger agreement, with respect to such new written notice. In addition to the foregoing, First Wyoming shall not submit to the vote of its stockholders any acquisition proposal other than the merger unless the merger agreement shall be terminated in accordance with its terms.

First Wyoming has agreed to, and to direct its representatives to, immediately cease and cause to be terminated any existing activities, discussions or negotiations with any third party conducted prior to November 24, 2013, with respect to any offer or proposal that constitutes, or may reasonably be expected to lead to, an acquisition proposal, to request the prompt return or destruction of all confidential information previously furnished to any third party that has made or indicated an intention to make an acquisition proposal and not to waive or amend any standstill provision or provisions of similar effect to which it is a party or of which it is a beneficiary, and to strictly enforce any such provisions.

For purposes of the merger agreement, an acquisition agreement means a letter of intent, agreement in principle, merger agreement, acquisition agreement, option agreement or other similar agreement;

an acquisition proposal means any offer, inquiry, proposal or indication of interest (whether communicated to First Wyoming or announced publicly to First Wyoming's stockholders and whether binding or non-binding) by any third party for an acquisition transaction;

an acquisition transaction means any transaction or series of related transactions (other than the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement) involving: (1) any acquisition or purchase from First Wyoming by any third party of 20 percent or more in interest of the total outstanding voting securities of First Wyoming or any of its subsidiaries, or any tender offer or exchange offer that if consummated would result in any third party beneficially owning 20 percent or more in interest of the total outstanding voting securities of First Wyoming or any of its subsidiaries, or any merger, consolidation, business combination or similar transaction involving First Wyoming or any of its subsidiaries pursuant to which the stockholders of First Wyoming immediately preceding such transaction hold less than 80 percent of the equity interests in the surviving or resulting entity (which includes the parent corporation of any constituent corporation to any such transaction) of such transaction; (2) any sale, lease, exchange, transfer, license, acquisition or disposition of 20 percent or more of the assets of First Wyoming and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole; or (3) any liquidation or dissolution of First Wyoming; and superior proposal means any unsolicited bona fide written acquisition proposal with respect to which the board of directors of First Wyoming determines in its good faith judgment (based on, among other things, the advice of outside legal counsel and a financial advisor) to be more favorable, from a financial point of view, to First Wyoming's stockholders than the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement (as it may be proposed to be amended by WSFS), taking into account all relevant factors (including the acquisition proposal and the merger agreement (including any proposed changes to the merger agreement that may be proposed by WSFS in response to such acquisition proposal)); provided, that for purposes of the definition of superior proposal, the references to 20 percent and 80 percent in the definitions of acquisition proposal and acquisition transaction are deemed to be references to 100 percent.

First Wyoming Stockholder Meeting and Recommendation of First Wyoming's Board of Directors

First Wyoming has agreed to hold a meeting of its stockholders for the purpose of voting upon approval of the merger agreement as promptly as reasonably practicable after the registration statement of which this proxy statement/prospectus is a part is declared effective by the SEC. First Wyoming will use its reasonable best efforts to obtain from its stockholders the requisite stockholder approval of the merger agreement, including by recommending that its stockholders approve the merger agreement.

The board of directors of First Wyoming has agreed to recommend that First Wyoming's stockholders vote in favor of approval of the merger agreement and to not withdraw, qualify or modify (or publicly propose to withdraw, qualify or modify) such recommendation in any manner adverse to WSFS, or take any action or make any public statement, filing or release inconsistent with such recommendation (which is referred to as a change in First Wyoming's recommendation).

Conditions to Consummation of the Merger

Our respective obligations to consummate the merger are subject to the fulfillment or waiver of the following conditions:

the approval by First Wyoming's stockholders of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby;

the receipt of all regulatory approvals, consents, non-objections and waivers required from the Federal Reserve Board and the OCC, and any other required regulatory approvals or consents, the failure of which to obtain would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on WSFS or First

Wyoming (considered as a consolidated entity), in each case required to consummate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, and expiration of all related statutory waiting periods; provided that no such required regulatory approval may impose a burdensome condition on WSFS;

the absence of any rule, regulation, law, judgment, injunction or order (whether temporary, preliminary or permanent) by any court or regulatory authority of competent jurisdiction prohibiting, restricting or making illegal consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;

the effectiveness of the registration statement of which this proxy statement/prospectus is a part under the Securities Act and the absence of any stop order, action, suit, proceeding or investigation by the SEC to suspend the effectiveness of the registration statement;

the approval of the listing on NASDAQ of the WSFS common stock to be issued in the merger; receipt by each of WSFS and First Wyoming of an opinion of legal counsel as to certain tax matters; and the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the other party in the merger agreement as of the date of the merger agreement and as of the effective time of the merger, subject to the materiality standards provided in the merger agreement, and the performance by the other party in all material respects of all agreements and covenants of such party under the merger agreement prior to the effective time of the merger (and the receipt by each party of a certificate from the other party to such effect).

WSFS obligation to consummate the merger is further subject to the continued employment by First Wyoming or The First National Bank of Wyoming of Joseph Chippie, John Coleman and Robert Faries in substantially the same capacity and with substantially the same responsibilities as each such employee held as of the date of the merger agreement, other than the cessation of employment of any such employee as a result of the death or disability of such employee.

First Wyoming's obligation to consummate the merger is further conditioned on the formation by WSFS of the Southern Delaware Advisory Board and the appointment of a chair of such advisory board mutually agreed upon by First Wyoming and WSFS.

We cannot provide assurance as to when or if all of the conditions to the merger can or will be satisfied or waived by the appropriate party. As of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, we have no reason to believe that any of these conditions will not be satisfied.

Termination of the Merger Agreement

The merger agreement can be terminated at any time prior to the effective time of the merger by mutual consent, or by either party in the following circumstances:

any regulatory authority denies a requisite regulatory approval and this denial has become final and nonappealable, or a regulatory authority has issued a final and nonappealable rule, regulation, law, judgment, injunction or order permanently restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, so long as the party seeking to terminate the merger agreement has used its reasonable best efforts to contest, appeal and change or remove such denial, law or order;

the First Wyoming stockholders fail to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby at the First Wyoming special meeting;

the merger has not been completed by November 24, 2014, which is referred to as the outside date, if the failure to consummate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement by that date is not caused by the terminating party's breach of the merger agreement;

any of the conditions precedent described above to the obligations of the terminating party to consummate the merger cannot be satisfied or fulfilled by the outside date, if the failure of such condition to be satisfied or fulfilled by such date is not a result of the terminating party's failure to perform, in any material respect, any of its material covenants or agreements contained in the merger agreement, or the material breach of any of its material representations or warranties contained in the merger agreement, and, in the case of First Wyoming, is not a result of First Wyoming's breach of its non-solicitation obligations, obligations with respect to other acquisition proposals or obligations to call, give notice of, convene and/or hold a stockholders' meeting or to use its reasonable best efforts to obtain the approval of its stockholders in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement.

In addition, WSFS may terminate the merger agreement if:

First Wyoming's board of directors fails to recommend the merger and approval of the merger agreement by the First Wyoming stockholders;

First Wyoming's board of directors breaches its non-solicitation obligations and obligations with respect to other acquisition proposals in any respect adverse to WSFS;

First Wyoming's board of directors breaches its obligations to call, give notice of, convene and/or hold a stockholders' meeting or to use reasonable best efforts to obtain the approval of First Wyoming stockholders; or the results of WSFS compliance review of certain customers of First Wyoming are not satisfactory to WSFS in its sole and absolute discretion; provided, that WSFS's right to terminate the merger agreement for this reason expired on January 24, 2014.

In addition, First Wyoming may terminate the merger agreement if:

First Wyoming receives a superior proposal and enters into an acquisition agreement with respect to such superior proposal provided that concurrently with such termination, First Wyoming pays to WSFS a termination fee of $2.88 million; or the price of WSFS common stock declines by more than 15% from $72.35 and underperforms an index of banking companies by more than 15% over a designated measurement period unless WSFS agrees to increase the number of shares of WSFS common stock to be issued to holders of First Wyoming common stock who are to receive the Stock Consideration in the merger.

Effect of Termination

If the merger agreement is terminated, it will become void, except that (1) designated provisions of the merger agreement will survive the termination, including those relating to payment of fees and expenses and the confidential treatment of information and (2) both WSFS and First Wyoming will remain liable for any liability resulting from breaches by such party of the merger agreement.

Termination Fee

First Wyoming will pay WSFS a $2.88 million termination fee if:

either WSFS or First Wyoming terminates the merger agreement as a result of (1) denial of a requisite regulatory approval, (2) the stockholders of First Wyoming failing to vote their approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby at the First Wyoming special meeting, or (3) the merger having not been consummated by November 24, 2014 and at the time of such termination a third party has made and not withdrawn, or has publicly announced an intention to make and has not withdrawn, an acquisition proposal, and within 12 months of such termination First Wyoming either consummates an acquisition transaction or enters into an acquisition agreement with respect to an acquisition transaction;

Table of Contents

WSFS terminates the merger agreement because First Wyoming's board of directors has effected a change in First Wyoming's recommendation to the First Wyoming stockholders to approve the merger agreement, has approved, adopted or recommended an acquisition proposal by a third-party, has failed to recommend the merger approval of the merger agreement by the First Wyoming stockholders, has breached its non-solicitation obligations and obligations with respect to other acquisition proposals in any respect adverse to WSFS, or has breached its obligations to call, give notice of, convene and/or hold a stockholders' meeting or to use reasonable best efforts to obtain the approval of the First Wyoming stockholders; or

First Wyoming terminates the merger agreement because it has received a superior proposal and enters into an acquisition agreement with respect to such superior proposal.

First Wyoming's payment of the $2.88 million termination fee would constitute liquidated damages and be WSFS's sole remedy in the event of such a termination.

Expenses and Fees

Each of WSFS and First Wyoming will be responsible for all direct costs and expenses incurred by it in connection with the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. The costs and expenses of printing this proxy statement/prospectus, and all filing fees paid to the SEC in connection with this proxy statement/prospectus, will be borne equally by First Wyoming and WSFS.

Amendment, Waiver and Extension of the Merger Agreement

To the extent permitted by law, the merger agreement may be amended by a subsequent writing signed by each of the parties upon the approval of each of the parties, whether before or after First Wyoming's stockholders have approved the merger agreement; however, after obtaining the First Wyoming stockholder approval, no amendment may require further approval by such stockholders.

At any time prior to the effective time of the merger, each party, acting through its board of directors, chief executive officer or other authorized officer, may waive any default in the performance of any term of the merger agreement by the other party, waive or extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations of the other party, or waive any or all conditions precedent to the other party's obligations under the merger agreement, except any condition which, if not satisfied, would result in a violation of law.

ACCOUNTING TREATMENT

The merger will be accounted for as an acquisition by WSFS using the acquisition method of accounting in accordance with FASB ASC Topic 805, Business Combinations. Accordingly, the assets (including identifiable intangible assets) and liabilities (including executory contracts and other commitments) of First Wyoming as of the effective time of the merger will be recorded at their respective fair values and added to those of WSFS. Any excess of purchase price over the net fair values is recorded as goodwill. Consolidated financial statements of WSFS issued after the merger would reflect these fair values and would not be restated retroactively to reflect the historical financial position or results of operations of First Wyoming.

Table of ContentsMATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER

The following is a general discussion of certain material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to U.S. holders (as defined below) of First Wyoming common stock that exchange their shares of First Wyoming common stock for shares of WSFS common stock in the merger. The following discussion is based upon the Code, the U.S. Treasury regulations promulgated thereunder and judicial and administrative authorities, rulings, and decisions, all as in effect on the date of this proxy statement/prospectus. These authorities may change, possibly with retroactive effect, and any such change could affect the accuracy of the statements and conclusions set forth in this discussion. This discussion does not address any tax consequences arising under the unearned income Medicare contribution tax pursuant to the Health Care and Education Reconciliation Act of 2010, nor does it address any tax consequences arising under the laws of any state, local or foreign jurisdiction, or under any U.S. federal laws other than those pertaining to the income tax.

The following discussion applies only to U.S. holders of shares of First Wyoming common stock who hold such shares as a capital asset within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code (generally, property held for investment). Further, this discussion does not purport to consider all aspects of U.S. federal income taxation that might be relevant to U.S. holders in light of their particular circumstances and does not apply to U.S. holders subject to special treatment under the U.S. federal income tax laws (such as, for example, dealers or brokers in securities, commodities or foreign currencies, traders in securities that elect to apply a mark-to-market method of accounting, banks and certain other financial institutions, insurance companies, mutual funds, tax-exempt organizations, holders subject to the alternative minimum tax provisions of the Code, partnerships, S corporations or other pass-through entities or investors in partnerships, regulated investment companies, real estate investment trusts, controlled foreign corporations, passive foreign investment companies, former citizens or residents of the United States, holders whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar, holders who hold shares of First Wyoming common stock as part of a hedge, straddle, constructive sale or conversion transaction or other integrated investment, holders who exercise appraisal rights, or holders who actually or constructively own more than 5 percent of First Wyoming common stock).

For purposes of this discussion, the term U.S. holder means a beneficial owner of First Wyoming common stock that is for U.S. federal income tax purposes (1) an individual citizen or resident of the United States, (2) a corporation (or entity treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes) organized in or under the laws of the United States or any state thereof or the District of Columbia, (3) a trust if (a) a court within the United States is able to exercise primary supervision over the administration of the trust and one or more U.S. persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust or (b) such trust has made a valid election to be treated as a U.S. person for U.S. federal income tax purposes, or (4) an estate, the income of which is includible in gross income for U.S. federal income tax purposes regardless of its source.

If an entity or an arrangement treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes holds First Wyoming common stock, the tax treatment of a partner in such partnership generally will depend on the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. Any entity treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes that holds First Wyoming common stock, and any partners in such partnership, should consult their own tax advisors.

Determining the actual tax consequences of the merger to you may be complex and will depend on your specific situation and on factors that are not within our control. You should consult with your own tax advisor as to the specific tax consequences of the merger in your particular circumstances, including the applicability and effect of the alternative minimum tax and any state, local, foreign and other tax laws and of changes in those laws.

Tax Consequences of the Merger Generally

The parties intend for the merger to qualify as a reorganization for U.S. federal income tax purposes. It is a condition to the obligations of each of WSFS and First Wyoming that they receive an opinion from Covington & Burling LLP, in form reasonably satisfactory to WSFS, to the effect that the merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. These opinions will be based on representation letters provided by WSFS and First Wyoming and on customary factual assumptions. Neither of the opinions described above will be binding on the Internal Revenue Service, which is referred to as the IRS, or any court. WSFS and First Wyoming have not sought and will not seek any ruling from the IRS regarding any matters relating to the merger, and as a result, there can be no assurance that the IRS will not assert, or that a court would not sustain, a position contrary to any of the conclusions set forth below. In addition, if any of the representations or assumptions upon which those opinions are based are inconsistent with the actual facts, the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger could be adversely affected.

Provided the merger qualifies as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, if you receive solely Stock Consideration in the merger, upon exchanging your First Wyoming common stock for WSFS common stock, you generally will not recognize gain or loss, except with respect to cash received instead of fractional shares of WSFS common stock (as discussed below);

if you receive solely Cash Consideration in the merger, you will recognize gain or loss upon surrendering your First Wyoming common stock in an amount equal to the difference between the amount of cash that you receive and your aggregate adjusted tax basis in the shares of First Wyoming common stock that you surrender; and if you receive both Cash Consideration (other than cash received instead of fractional shares of WSFS common stock) and Stock Consideration in the merger, (i) you will not recognize any loss upon surrendering your First Wyoming common stock and (ii) you will recognize gain upon surrendering your First Wyoming common stock equal to the lesser of (a) the excess, if any, of (1) the sum of the amount of cash that you receive plus the fair market value (determined as of the effective date of the merger) of the WSFS common stock that you receive over (2) your aggregate adjusted tax basis in the shares of First Wyoming common stock that you surrender and (b) the amount of Cash Consideration that you receive.

Gain or loss described in the second bullet point above generally will be capital gain or loss and will be long-term capital gain or loss if, as of the effective date of the merger, the holding period for such shares exceeds one year. Long-term capital gains of individuals are generally eligible for reduced rates of taxation. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.

Any gain described in the third bullet point above will be capital gain unless your receipt of cash has the effect of a distribution of a dividend, in which case the gain will be treated as a dividend to the extent of your ratable share of First Wyoming's accumulated earnings and profits, as calculated for U.S. federal income tax purposes. For purposes of determining whether your receipt of cash has the effect of a distribution of a dividend, you will be treated as if you first exchanged all of your First Wyoming common stock solely in exchange for WSFS common stock and then WSFS immediately redeemed a portion of that stock for the cash that you actually received in the merger (referred to herein as the deemed redemption). Receipt of cash will generally not have the effect of a dividend to you if such receipt is not essentially equivalent to a dividend or substantially disproportionate, each within the meaning of Section 302(b) of the Code. In order for the deemed redemption to be not essentially equivalent to a dividend, the deemed redemption must result in a meaningful reduction in the stockholder's deemed percentage stock ownership of WSFS following the merger. The determination generally requires a comparison of the percentage of the outstanding stock of WSFS that you are considered to have owned immediately before the deemed redemption to the percentage of the outstanding stock of WSFS that you own immediately after the deemed redemption. The IRS has indicated in rulings that any reduction in the interest of a minority stockholder that owns a small number of shares in a publicly and widely held corporation and that exercises no control over corporate affairs would result in capital gain (as opposed to dividend) treatment. For purposes of applying the foregoing tests, a stockholder will be deemed to own the stock the stockholder actually owns and the stock the stockholder constructively owns under the attribution rules of Section 318 of the Code. Under Section 318 of the Code, a stockholder will be deemed to own the shares of stock owned by certain family members, by certain estates and trusts of which the stockholder is a beneficiary, and by certain affiliated entities, as well as shares of stock subject to an option actually or constructively owned by the stockholder or such other persons. If, after applying these tests, the deemed redemption results in a capital gain, the capital gain will be long-term if your holding period for your First Wyoming common stock is more than one year as of the date of the exchange. If, after applying these tests, the deemed redemption results in the gain recognized being classified as a dividend, such dividend will be treated as either ordinary income or qualified dividend income. Any gain treated as qualified dividend income will be taxable to you at the long-term capital gains rate, provided you held the shares giving rise to such income for more than 60 days during the 121 day period beginning 60 days before the effective date of the merger. The determination as to whether you will recognize a capital gain or dividend income as a result of your exchange of First Wyoming common stock for a combination of WSFS common stock and cash in the merger is complex and is determined on a stockholder-by-stockholder basis. Accordingly, you urged to consult your own tax advisor with respect to any such determination that is applicable to your individual situation.

The aggregate tax basis of the WSFS common stock that you receive in the merger, including any fractional shares deemed received and redeemed for cash as described below, will equal your aggregate adjusted tax basis in the shares of First Wyoming common stock that you surrender in the merger, decreased by the amount of any Cash Consideration (other than cash received instead of fractional shares of WSFS common stock) received and increased by the amount of any gain recognized. Your holding period for the shares of WSFS common stock that you receive in the merger (including any fractional share deemed received and redeemed for cash as described below) will include your holding period for the shares of First Wyoming common stock that you surrender in the merger. If you acquired different blocks of First Wyoming common stock at different times or at different prices, the WSFS common stock you receive will be allocated pro rata to each block of First Wyoming common stock, and the basis and holding period of each block of WSFS common stock you receive will be determined on a block-for-block basis depending on the basis and holding period of the blocks of First Wyoming common stock exchanged for such block of WSFS common stock.

Cash Instead of Fractional Shares

If you receive cash instead of a fractional share of WSFS common stock, you will be treated as having received such fractional share of WSFS common stock pursuant to the merger and then as having received cash in exchange for such fractional share of WSFS common stock. As a result, you generally will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received instead of a fractional share and the basis in your fractional share of WSFS common stock as set forth above. Such gain or loss generally will be capital gain or loss and will be long-term capital gain or loss if, as of the effective date of the merger, the holding period for such fractional share (including the holding period of shares of First Wyoming common stock surrendered therefor) exceeds one year.

Possible Treatment of Merger as a Taxable Transaction

The IRS may determine that the merger does not qualify as a nontaxable reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Code. In that case, each First Wyoming stockholder would recognize a gain or loss equal to the difference between the (i) the sum of the fair market value of WSFS common stock and cash received by the First Wyoming stockholder in the merger, and (ii) the First Wyoming stockholder's adjusted tax basis in the shares of First Wyoming common stock exchanged therefor. The likely tax treatment of the merger will not be known until the closing date of the merger, as the aggregate value of the WSFS common stock to be received by First Wyoming stockholder will fluctuate with the market price of the WSFS common stock.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

If you are a non-corporate holder of First Wyoming common stock, you may be subject, under certain circumstances, to information reporting and backup withholding (currently at a rate of 28 percent) on any cash payments you receive. You generally will not be subject to backup withholding, however, if you:

furnish a correct taxpayer identification number, certify that you are not subject to backup withholding and otherwise comply with all the applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules; or provide proof that you are otherwise exempt from backup withholding.

Table of Contents

Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules are not an additional tax and will generally be allowed as a refund or credit against your U.S. federal income tax liability, provided you timely furnish the required information to the IRS.

Certain Reporting Requirements

If a U.S. holder that receives WSFS common stock in the merger is considered a significant holder, such U.S. holder will be required (a) to file a statement with its U.S. federal income tax return providing certain facts pertinent to the merger, including such U.S. holder's tax basis in, and the fair market value of, the First Wyoming common stock surrendered by such U.S. holder, and (b) to retain permanent records of these facts relating to the merger. A significant holder is any First Wyoming stockholder that, immediately before the merger, (y) owned at least 1% (by vote or value) of the outstanding stock of First Wyoming or (z) owned First Wyoming securities with a tax basis of $1.0 million or more.

This discussion of certain material U.S. federal income tax consequences is for general information purposes only and is not tax advice. Holders of First Wyoming common stock are urged to consult their tax advisors with respect to the application of U.S. federal income tax laws to their particular situations as well as any tax consequences arising under the U.S. federal estate or gift tax rules, or under the laws of any state, local, foreign or other taxing jurisdiction or under any applicable tax treaty.

DESCRIPTION OF CAPITAL STOCK OF WSFS

As a result of the merger, First Wyoming stockholders who receive shares of WSFS common stock in the merger will become stockholders of WSFS. Your rights as stockholders of WSFS will be governed by Delaware law and the certificate of incorporation and the bylaws, as amended, of WSFS.

*The following briefly summarizes the material terms of WSFS common stock and preferred stock. We urge you to read the applicable provisions of the Delaware General Corporate Law, which is referred to as the DGCL, WSFS certificate of incorporation and bylaws and federal law governing bank holding companies carefully and in their entirety. Copies of WSFS governing documents have been filed with the SEC. To find out where copies of these documents can be obtained, see Where You Can Find More Information beginning on page 86.*

WSFS authorized capital stock consists of:

20,000,000 shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share.

As of March 6, 2014, there were 8,911,334 shares of WSFS common stock issued and outstanding and no shares of WSFS preferred stock were issued and outstanding.

In this section we describe certain features and rights of our capital stock. The summary does not purport to be exhaustive and is qualified in its entirety by reference to WSFS certificate of incorporation and bylaws and to applicable Delaware law, including the DGCL.

Common Stock

General. Each holder of common stock is entitled to one vote for each share on all matters to be voted upon by the common stockholders. There is cumulative voting with respect to the election of directors. Subject to preferences to which holders of any shares of preferred stock may be entitled, holders of common stock are entitled to receive ratably any dividends that may be declared from time to time by the board of directors of WSFS out of funds legally available for that purpose. In the event of liquidation, dissolution or winding up, holders of common stock of WSFS will be entitled to share in WSFS assets remaining after the payment or provision for payment of our debts of WSFS and other liabilities, and the satisfaction of the liquidation preferences of the any series of WSFS preferred stock then outstanding. Holders of WSFS common stock have no preemptive or conversion rights or other subscription rights. There are no redemption or sinking fund provisions that apply to WSFS common stock. All shares of common stock currently outstanding are fully paid and nonassessable. The rights, preferences and privileges of the holders of common stock are subject to, and may be adversely affected by, the rights of the holders of shares of any series of preferred stock that WSFS may designate in the future.

Transfer Agent

The transfer agent and registrar for WSFS common stock is American Stock Transfer and Trust.

Preferred Stock

WSFS certificate of incorporation permits the board of directors of WSFS to authorize the issuance of up to 7,500,000 shares of preferred stock, par value $0.01 per share, in one or more series, without stockholder action. The board of directors of WSFS can fix the designation, powers, preferences and rights of each series. Therefore, without approval of the holders of WSFS common stock or by the rules of the NASDAQ Stock Market or any other exchange or market on which our securities may then be listed or quoted), the board of directors of WSFS may authorize the issuance of preferred stock with voting, dividend, liquidation and conversion and other rights that could dilute the voting power or other rights or adversely affect the market value of our common stock and may assist management in impeding any unfriendly takeover or attempted change in control. See Anti-Takeover Effects Authorized Shares.

Table of Contents

Prior to the issuance of a new series of preferred stock, WSFS will amend its certificate of incorporation by filing a certificate of designations that will designate the number of shares of that series and the terms of that series. The issuance of any preferred stock could adversely affect the rights of the holders of WSFS common stock and, therefore, reduce the value of WSFS common stock. The ability of the board of directors of WSFS to issue preferred stock could discourage, delay or prevent a takeover or other corporate action.

The terms of any particular series of preferred stock will be set forth in the certificate of designations relating to that particular series of preferred stock, including, where applicable:

the designation, stated value and liquidation preference of such preferred stock and the number of shares offered;

the offering price;

the dividend rate or rates (or method of calculation), the date or dates from which dividends shall accrue, and whether such dividends shall be cumulative or noncumulative and, if cumulative, the dates from which dividends shall commence to cumulate;

any redemption or sinking fund provisions;

the amount that shares of such series shall be entitled to receive in the event of the liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of WSFS;

the terms and conditions, if any, on which shares of such series shall be convertible or exchangeable for shares of WSFS stock of any other class or classes, or other series of the same class;

the voting rights, if any, of shares of such series;

the status as to reissuance or sale of shares of such series redeemed, purchased or otherwise reacquired, or surrendered to us on conversion or exchange;

the conditions and restrictions, if any, on the payment of dividends or on the making of other distributions on, or the purchase, redemption or other acquisition by WSFS or any WSFS subsidiary, of the common stock or of any other class of our shares ranking junior to the shares of such series as to dividends or upon liquidation;

the conditions and restrictions, if any, on the creation of indebtedness of WSFS or of any WSFS subsidiary, or on the issuance of any additional stock ranking on a parity with or prior to the shares of such series as to dividends or upon liquidation; and any additional dividend, liquidation, redemption, sinking or retirement fund and other rights, preferences, privileges, limitations and restrictions of such preferred stock.

Anti-takeover Effects

The provisions of WSFS certificate of incorporation and bylaws summarized in the following paragraphs may have anti-takeover effects and could delay, defer, or prevent a tender offer or takeover attempt that a stockholder might consider to be in such stockholder's best interest, including those attempts that might result in a premium over the market price for the shares held by stockholders, and may make removal of the incumbent management and directors more difficult.

Authorized Shares. WSFS certificate of incorporation authorizes the issuance of 20,000,000 shares of common stock and 7,500,000 shares of preferred stock. These shares of common stock and preferred stock provide the board of directors of WSFS with as much flexibility as possible to effect, among other transactions, financings, acquisitions, stock dividends, stock splits and the exercise of employee stock options. However, these additional authorized shares may also be used by the board of directors of WSFS consistent with its fiduciary duty to deter future attempts to gain control of WSFS. The board of directors of WSFS also has sole authority to determine the terms of any one or more series of preferred stock, including voting rights, conversion rates, and liquidation preferences. As a result of the ability to fix voting rights for a series of preferred stock, the board of directors of WSFS has the power to the extent consistent with its fiduciary duty to issue a series of preferred stock to persons friendly to management in order to attempt to block a tender offer, merger or other transaction by which a third party seeks control of WSFS, and thereby assist members of management to retain their positions.

Special Meetings of Stockholders. WSFS bylaws provide that special meetings of stockholders may be called by the board of directors of WSFS by vote of a majority of the directors. Stockholders are not entitled to call special meetings of stockholders.

Action by Stockholders Without A Meeting. The bylaws of WSFS provide that no action may be taken by stockholders without a meeting.

Consideration of Non-Monetary Factors. The certificate of incorporation of WSFS provides that when considering any offer to purchase or otherwise acquire all or a substantial part of WSFS, the board of directors of WSFS may consider all relevant factors including, among other factors, the social and economic effects of the acceptance of such offer on the WSFS customers, employees, communities and other constituencies.

Delaware Interested Stockholder Statute. Section 203 of the DGCL limits WSFS ability to enter into business combination transactions with any interested stockholder for three years following the interested stockholder's stock acquisition date, unless (i) the board of directors of WSFS approves the business combination or the stock acquisition prior to the interested stockholder's stock acquisition date; (ii) upon completion of the transaction, the interested stockholder would own at least 85% of the outstanding shares of the corporation; or (iii) the business combination is approved by the board of directors of WSFS and subsequently approved by the stockholders by a vote of at least 66 2/3 percent of the outstanding shares which are not owned by the interested stockholder.

An interested stockholder includes:

a beneficial owner, directly or indirectly, of 15% or more of WSFS outstanding voting stock; or an affiliate or associate of WSFS who, at any time within the three years prior to the date in question was a beneficial owner, directly or indirectly, of 15% or more of WSFS outstanding voting stock.

Amendment of Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws. The certificate of incorporation generally may be amended upon approval by the board of directors of WSFS and the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of WSFS common stock. The bylaws may be amended either by the board of directors of WSFS, by a vote of a majority of the whole board of directors of WSFS, or by our stockholders, by the vote of the holders of a majority of the voting power of the outstanding shares of capital stock entitled to vote generally in the election of directors, voting together as a single class.

Advance Notice Provisions. The bylaws provide that we must receive written notice of any stockholder proposal for business at an annual meeting of stockholders, or any stockholder director nomination for an annual meeting of stockholders, not less than 90 days or more than 120 days before the anniversary date of the preceding year's annual meeting and set forth the information notice from the stockholder making the proposal.

Indemnification;	Under the NRS, unless a corporation's articles of incorporation provide for greater individual liability, a director or an officer of a Nevada corporation is not individually liable to the corporation, its stockholders or its creditors for damages as a result of any act or failure to act unless it is proven that the director or officer committed a breach of fiduciary duty and such breach involved intentional misconduct, fraud, or knowing violation of law. Unlike the DGCL, the NRS does not exclude breaches of the duty of loyalty or instances where the director has received an improper personal benefit the first Wyoming articles do not impose a higher standard for personal liability of directors.	Section 145 of the DGCL grants each corporation organized thereunder the power to indemnify any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of a corporation or enterprise against expenses, including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, other than an action by or in the right of the corporation, by reason of being or having been in any such capacity, if he acted in good faith in a manner reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful.
Limitation of Director Liability:	First Wyoming's bylaws provide that the corporation shall indemnify the members of the board of directors and may indemnify any other officer or employee of the corporation who is a party or is threatened to be made party to any threatened, pending, or completed action or suit whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of First Wyoming, against expenses (including attorney's fees),	DGCL enables a corporation in its certificate of incorporation or an amendment thereto to eliminate or limit the personal liability of a director to the corporation or its stockholders of monetary damages for violations of the directors' fiduciary duty of care, except (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) pursuant to Section 174 of the DGCL (providing for liability of directors for unlawful payment of dividends or unlawful stock purchases or redemptions) or (iv) for any transaction from which a director derived an improper personal benefit.

WSFS certificate of incorporation provides that each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (referred to as a proceeding), by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director or an officer of WSFS or is or was serving at the request of WSFS as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan (referred to as an indemnitee), whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director, officer, employee or agent or in any other capacity while serving as a director, officer, employee or agent, shall be indemnified and held harmless by WSFS to the fullest extent authorized by the DGCL against all expense, liability and loss (including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, ERISA excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith; provided, that, except with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification described below, WSFS shall indemnify any such indemnitee in connection with a proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by such indemnitee only if such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the board of directors of WSFS. The directors of WSFS Bank, and all officers thereof shall be deemed to be serving at the request of WSFS as such directors and officers. See Item 20.

Stockholders Rights of Dissent and Appraisal:	Under the NRS, except as otherwise provided by the NRS, stockholders have the right to demand and receive payment in cash of the fair value of their stock in the event of a merger or exchange in lieu of the consideration such stockholder would otherwise receive in such transaction. However, stockholders do not have such appraisal rights if they hold shares that are (1) considered a covered security under the NRS; (2) listed, or authorized for listing, on a national securities exchange, or (3) issued by an open end management investment company registered with the SEC; provided that stockholders will have dissenting rights if stockholders are required to accept anything other than cash or shares in a corporation in exchange for their shares. In addition, no right of dissent exists for any holders of the surviving domestic corporation if the plan of merger does not require action of the stockholders of the surviving domestic corporation under NRS.	Under the DGCL, a stockholder of a Delaware corporation generally has appraisal rights in connection with certain mergers or consolidations in which the corporation is participating, subject to specified procedural requirements. The DGCL does not confer appraisal rights, however, if the corporation's stock is either (i) listed on a national securities exchange, or (ii) held of record by more than 2,000 holders. Even if a corporation's stock meets these requirements, the DGCL still provides appraisal rights if stockholders of the corporation are required to accept for their stock in certain mergers or consolidations anything other than: shares of stock of the corporation surviving or resulting from such merger or consolidation, or depository receipts in respect thereof; shares of stock of any other corporation, or depository receipts in respect thereof, which shares of stock (or depository receipts in respect thereof) or depository receipts at the effective date of the merger or consolidation will be either listed on a national securities exchange or held of record by more than 2,000 holders;

fractional depository receipts described in the foregoing; or

ARTICLE 2MANNER OF CONVERTING SHARES*2.1 Conversion of Shares.

Subject to the provisions of this Article 2, at the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of Buyer, Target or the stockholders of either of the foregoing, the shares of Buyer and Target shall be converted as follows:

(a) Each share of capital stock of Buyer issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall remain issued and outstanding from and after the Effective Time.

(b) Subject to Section 2.2, each share of Target Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (excluding (i) shares held by any of Target, Target Subsidiary, Buyer, or Buyer Subsidiary, in each case other than in a fiduciary capacity or as a result of debts previously discharged and (ii) any Dissenting Shares) issued and outstanding shall be converted, at the election of the holder thereof in accordance with the procedures set forth in Article 3, into the right to receive the following consideration (collectively, the Merger Consideration), in each case without interest:

(i) for each share of Target Common Stock with respect to which an election to receive cash has been effectively made and not revoked or deemed revoked pursuant to Article 3 (a Cash Election), the right to receive in cash from Buyer an amount (the Cash Consideration) equal to the Per Share Cash Amount (such shares collectively, the Cash Election Shares);

(ii) for each share of Target Common Stock with respect to which an election to receive Buyer Common Stock has been effectively made and not revoked or deemed revoked pursuant to Article 3 (a Stock Election and such shares collectively, the Stock Election Shares) or which is otherwise to receive shares of Buyer Common Stock in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, the right to receive from Buyer 0.8484 (the Exchange Ratio) shares of Buyer Common Stock (the Stock Consideration); and

(iii) for each share of Target Common Stock other than Cash Election Shares and Stock Election Shares (collectively, the Non-Electing Shares), the right to receive from Buyer the Stock Consideration.

(c) All shares of Target Common Stock, when so converted pursuant to Section 2.1(c) shall no longer be outstanding and shall automatically be canceled and retired and shall cease to exist, and each holder of a certificate (a Certificate) or book-entry share registered in the transfer books of Target (a Book-Entry Share) that immediately prior to the Effective Time represented shares of Target Common Stock shall cease to have any rights with respect to such Target Common Stock other than the right to receive the Merger Consideration in accordance with Article 3, including the right, if any, to receive, pursuant to Sections 2.5 and 3.2, cash in lieu of fractional shares of Buyer Common Stock into which such shares of Target Common Stock have been converted together with the amounts, if any, payable pursuant to Section 3.2(d).

(d) Without limiting the other provisions of this Agreement and subject to Sections 6.2(d) and (e), if at any time during the period between the date of this Agreement and the Effective Time, Target should split, combine or otherwise reclassify the shares of Target Common Stock, or make a dividend or other distribution in shares of Target Common Stock (including any dividend or other distribution of securities convertible into Target Common Stock), or engage in a reclassification, reorganization, recapitalization or exchange or other like change, then (without limiting any other rights of Buyer hereunder), the Merger Consideration shall be ratably adjusted to reflect fully the effect of any such change.

2.2 Proration.

(a) Notwithstanding any other provision contained in this Agreement, the aggregate amount of Cash Consideration that holders of Target Common Stock shall be entitled to receive pursuant to this Article 2 (the Cash Value), shall be $32,020,410.

(b) Within ten Business Days after the Election Deadline, the Exchange Agent shall effect the allocation among holders of Target Common Stock of rights to receive the Cash Consideration or Stock Consideration in accordance with the Election Forms and as set forth in this Section 2.2.

(c) Maximum Cash Consideration Undersubscribed. If the number of Cash Election Shares times the Per Share Cash Amount is less than the Cash Value, then:

(i) all Cash Election Shares, including Cash Election Shares that are part of any Split Election Shares, shall be converted into the right to receive cash;

(ii) Non-Electing Shares shall then be deemed to be Cash Election Shares to the extent necessary to have the total number of Cash Election Shares times the Per Share Cash Amount equal to the Cash Value. If less than all of the Non-Electing Shares need to be treated as Cash Election Shares as provided in this clause (ii), then the Exchange Agent shall convert on a pro rata basis as described below in Section 2.2(f) hereof a sufficient number of Non-Electing Shares to Cash Election Shares, and all remaining Non-Electing Shares to Stock Election Shares;

(iii) if all of the Non-Electing Shares are converted to Cash Election Shares under Section 2.2(c)(ii) and the total number of Cash Election Shares times the Per Share Cash Amount is less than the Cash Value, then the Exchange Agent shall convert on a pro rata basis as described below in Section 2.2(f) hereof a sufficient number of Stock Election Shares, but excluding any Stock Election Shares that are part of any Split Election Shares, into Cash Election Shares (Reallocated Cash Shares) such that the sum of the number of Cash Election Shares plus the number of Reallocated Cash Shares times the Per Share Cash Amount equals the Cash Value, and all Reallocated Cash Shares will be converted into the right to receive cash; and

(iv) the Stock Election Shares that are not Reallocated Cash Shares shall be converted into the right to receive Buyer Common Stock.

(d) Maximum Cash Consideration Oversubscribed. If the number of Cash Election Shares times the Per Share Cash Amount is greater than the Cash Value, then:

(i) all Stock Election Shares and all Non-Electing Shares shall be converted into the right to receive Buyer Common Stock;

(ii) the Exchange Agent shall convert on a pro rata basis as described below in Section 2.2(f) hereof a sufficient number of Cash Election Shares, but excluding any Cash Election Shares that are part of any Split Election Shares, into Stock Election Shares (Reallocated Stock Shares) such that the number of remaining Cash Election Shares times

the Per Share Cash Amount equals the Cash Value, and all Reallocated Stock Shares shall be converted into the right to receive Buyer Common Stock; and

(iii) the Cash Election Shares that are not Reallocated Stock Shares shall be converted into the right to receive cash.

Table of Contents

(e) Maximum Cash Consideration Satisfied. If the number of Cash Election Shares times the Per Share Cash Amount is equal to the Cash Value, then subparagraphs (c) and (d) above shall not apply and all Cash Election Shares shall be converted into the right to receive cash and all Non-Electing Shares and all Stock Election Shares will be converted into the right to receive Buyer Common Stock.

(f) Pro Rata Reallocations. In the event that the Exchange Agent is required pursuant to Section 2.2(c)(iii) hereof to convert some Stock Election Shares into Reallocated Cash Shares, each holder of Stock Election Shares that are not part of any Split Election Shares (based upon the number of Stock Election Shares held that are not part of any Split Election Shares) shall be allocated a pro rata portion of the total Reallocated Cash Shares, based on the percentage of the total number of Stock Election Shares held by such holder. In the event the Exchange Agent is required pursuant to Section 2.2(d)(ii) hereof to convert some Cash Election Shares that are not part of any Split Election Shares (based upon the number of Cash Election Shares held that are not part of any Split Election Shares) into Reallocated Stock Shares, each holder of Cash Election Shares shall be allocated a pro rata portion of the total Reallocated Stock Shares, based on the percentage of the total number of Cash Election Shares held by such holder.

(g) Tax Amendments. If, in the judgment of legal counsel to Buyer, the application of the provisions of Section 2.2(c) or (d) may reasonably create material and adverse tax consequences to Buyer, Target, or Target's Stockholders, then the Parties agree to mutually cooperate to amend or remove these provisions or otherwise mitigate any such material and adverse consequences, so long as such amendment, removal or mitigation is not prejudicial to the interests of the stockholders of Target.

2.3 Anti-Dilution Provisions.

In the event Buyer changes the number of shares of Buyer Common Stock issued and outstanding prior to the Effective Time as a result of a stock split, stock dividend, or similar recapitalization with respect to such stock and the record date therefor (in the case of a stock dividend) or the effective date thereof (in the case of a stock split or similar recapitalization for which a record date is not established) shall be prior to the Effective Time, the Merger Consideration (including the Exchange Ratio) shall be equitably and proportionately adjusted, if necessary and without duplication, to reflect such change.

2.4 Shares Held by Target or Buyer.

Each share of Target Common Stock that is issued and held by any Target Entity or Buyer Entity (other than shares of Target Common Stock held in a fiduciary capacity or as a result of debts previously contracted) immediately prior to the Effective Time (collectively, the Canceled Shares) shall automatically be canceled and retired and shall cease to exist, and no consideration shall be issued or delivered in exchange therefor.

2.5 Fractional Shares.

No certificate or scrip representing fractional shares of Buyer Common Stock shall be issued upon the surrender for exchange of Certificates or Target Book-Entry Shares, no dividend or distribution of Buyer shall relate to such fractional share interests, and such fractional share interests will not entitle the owner thereof to vote or to any rights of a stockholder of Buyer. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, each holder of shares of Target Common Stock exchanged pursuant to the Merger who would otherwise have been entitled to receive a fraction of a share of Buyer Common Stock (after taking into account all certificates delivered by such holder) shall receive, in lieu thereof, cash rounded up to the nearest cent (without interest) in an amount equal to such fractional part of a share of Buyer Common Stock that such holder of shares of Target Common Stock would otherwise have been entitled multiplied by the Average Closing Price. No such holder will be entitled to dividends, voting rights, or any other rights as a stockholder in respect of any fractional shares.

ARTICLE 3

EXCHANGE OF SHARES

3.1 Election Procedures.

Subject to the terms of the Exchange Agent Agreement, each holder of record of shares of Target Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (a Holder) shall have the right, subject to the limitations set forth in this Article 3, to submit an election on or prior to the Election Deadline in accordance with the following procedures:

(a) Each Holder may specify in a request made in accordance with the provisions of this Section 3.1 (herein called an Election) (i) the number of shares of Target Common Stock owned by such Holder with respect to which such Holder desires to make a Stock Election and (ii) the number of shares of Target Common Stock owned by such Holder with respect to which such Holder desires to make a Cash Election.

(b) Buyer shall prepare a form reasonably acceptable to Target (the Form of Election) (which shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the Certificates or Book-Entry Shares shall pass, only upon delivery of the Certificates or Book-Entry Shares to the Exchange Agent), which shall be mailed by Target to record holders of Target Common Stock so as to permit those holders to exercise their right to make an Election prior to the Election Deadline.

(c) Target shall mail or cause to be mailed or delivered, as applicable, the Form of Election to record holders of Common Stock as of the record date for the Target Stockholder Meeting not less than 20 Business Days prior to the anticipated Election Deadline (the Mailing Date). Buyer shall make available one or more Forms of Election as may reasonably be requested from time to time by all persons who become holders or beneficial owners of Target Common Stock during the period following the record date for the Target Stockholder Meeting and prior to the Election Deadline.

(d) Prior to the Mailing Date, Buyer shall appoint an exchange agent reasonably acceptable to Target (the Exchange Agent), for the purpose of receiving Elections and exchanging shares of Target Common Stock represented by Certificates or Book-Entry Shares for Merger Consideration, pursuant to an exchange agent agreement entered into prior to the Mailing Date (the Exchange Agent Agreement). Subject to the terms of the Exchange Agent Agreement, any Election shall have been made properly only if the Exchange Agent shall have received, by the Election Deadline, a Form of Election properly completed and signed and accompanied by Certificates representing the shares of Target Common Stock to which such Form of Election relates, duly endorsed in blank or otherwise in form acceptable for transfer on the books of the Target or by an appropriate customary guarantee of delivery of such Certificates, as set forth in such Form of Election, from a firm that is an eligible guarantor institution (as defined in Rule 17Ad-15 under the Exchange Act); provided, that such Certificates are in fact delivered to the Exchange Agent by the time required in such guarantee of delivery, and, in the case of Book-Entry Shares, any additional documents specified in the procedures set forth in the Form of Election. Failure to deliver shares of Target Common Stock covered by such a guarantee of delivery within the time set forth on such guarantee shall be deemed to invalidate any otherwise properly made Election, unless otherwise determined by Buyer, in its sole and absolute discretion. As used herein, unless otherwise agreed in advance by the Target and Buyer, Election Deadline means 5:00 p.m. local time (in the city in which the principal office of the Exchange Agent is located) on the date that is 30 days following the Closing Date. Target and Buyer shall issue a press release announcing the anticipated date of the Election Deadline not more than 15 Business Days before, and at least five Business Days prior to, the Election Deadline.

(e) Any Holder may, at any time prior to the Election Deadline, change or revoke his or her Election by written notice received by the Exchange Agent prior to the Election Deadline accompanied by a properly completed and signed revised Form of Election or by withdrawal prior to the Election Deadline of his or her Certificates, or of the guarantee of delivery of such Certificates, or any documents in respect of Book-Entry Shares, previously deposited with the Exchange Agent. After an Election is validly made with respect to any shares of Target Common Stock, any subsequent transfer of such shares of Target Common Stock shall automatically revoke such Election. Subject to the terms of the Exchange Agent Agreement and this Agreement, the Exchange Agent shall have reasonable discretion to determine if any Election is not properly made with respect to any shares of Target Common Stock (neither Buyer nor Target nor the Exchange Agent being under any duty to notify any stockholder of any such defect); in the event the Exchange Agent makes such a determination, such Election shall be deemed to be not in effect, and the shares of Target Common Stock covered by such Election shall, for purposes hereof, be deemed to be Non-Electing Shares, unless a proper Election is thereafter timely made with respect to such shares.

(f) Subject to the terms of the Exchange Agent Agreement, Buyer, in the exercise of its reasonable discretion, shall have the right to make all determinations, not inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement, governing (i) the manner and extent to which Elections are to be taken into account in making the determinations prescribed by Section 2.2, (ii) the issuance and delivery of certificates (Buyer Certificates) representing the number of shares of Buyer Common Stock into which shares of Target Common Stock are converted into the right to receive in the Merger and (iii) the method of payment of cash for shares of Target Common Stock converted into the right to receive the Cash Consideration and cash in lieu of fractional shares of Buyer Common Stock.

3.2 Exchange Procedures.

(a) Deposit of Merger Consideration. At or prior to the Effective Time, Buyer shall deposit, or shall cause to be deposited, with the Exchange Agent for the benefit of the holders of shares of Target Common Stock, at the Effective Time, for exchange in accordance with this Article 3, (i) evidence of Buyer Common Stock in book-entry form issuable pursuant to Section 2.1(b) equal to the aggregate Stock Consideration and (ii) immediately available funds equal to the aggregate Cash Consideration (together with, to the extent then determinable, any cash payable in lieu of fractional shares pursuant to Section 2.5) (collectively, the Exchange Fund) and Buyer shall instruct the Exchange Agent to timely pay the Cash Consideration and cash in lieu of fractional shares, in accordance with this Agreement. The cash portion of the Exchange Fund shall be invested by the Exchange Agent as directed by Buyer or the Surviving Entity. Interest and other income on the Exchange Fund shall be the sole and exclusive property of Buyer and the Surviving Corporation and shall be paid to Buyer or the Surviving Corporation, as Buyer directs. No investment of the Exchange Fund shall relieve Buyer, the Surviving Corporation or the Exchange Agent from making the payments required by this Article 3 and following any losses from any such investment, Buyer shall promptly provide additional funds to the Exchange Agent to the extent necessary to satisfy Buyer's obligations hereunder for the benefit of the holders of shares of Target Common Stock at the Effective Time, which additional funds, if any, will be deemed to be part of the Exchange Fund.

(b) Delivery of Merger Consideration. As soon as reasonably practicable after the Effective Time and in any event not later than five Business Days following the Effective Time, the Exchange Agent shall mail to each holder of record of a Certificate or Book-Entry Share immediately prior to the Effective Time a Form of Election and instructions for use in effecting the surrender of the Certificates or Book-Entry Shares in exchange for the Merger Consideration, in such form as the Target and Buyer may reasonably agree. Upon proper surrender of a Certificate or Book-Entry Share for exchange and cancellation to the Exchange Agent, together with a Form of Election, duly completed and validly executed in accordance with the instructions thereto, and such other documents as may be required pursuant to such instructions, the holder of such Certificate or Book-Entry Share shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor the Merger Consideration (which, to the extent it is Stock Consideration, shall be in non-certificated book-entry form) in respect of the shares of Target Common Stock formerly represented by such Certificate or Book-Entry Share and such Certificate or Book-Entry Share so surrendered shall forthwith be canceled. No interest will be paid or accrued for the benefit of holders of the Certificates or Book-Entry Shares on the Merger Consideration payable upon the surrender of the Certificates or Book-Entry Shares.

From and after the Effective Time, Persons who held shares of Target Common Stock immediately prior to the Effective Time shall cease to have rights with respect to such shares, except as otherwise provided for herein. On or after the Effective Time, any Certificates or Book-Entry Shares presented to the Exchange Agent or the Surviving Corporation for any reason shall be canceled and exchanged for the Merger Consideration with respect to the shares of Target Common Stock formerly represented thereby.

(d) Dividends with Respect to Buyer Common Stock. No dividends or other distributions with respect to Buyer Common Stock with a record date after the Effective Time shall be paid to the holder of any unsurrendered Certificate or Book-Entry Share with respect to the shares of Buyer Common Stock issuable with respect to such Certificate or Book-Entry Share in accordance with this Agreement, and all such dividends and other distributions shall be paid by Buyer to the Exchange Agent and shall be included in the Exchange Fund, in each case until the surrender of such Certificate or Book-Entry Share (or affidavit of loss in lieu thereof) in accordance with this Agreement. Subject to applicable Laws, following surrender of any such Certificate or Book-Entry Share (or affidavit of loss in lieu thereof) there shall be paid to the record holder of the shares of Buyer Common Stock, if any, issued in exchange therefor, without interest, (i) all dividends and other distributions payable in respect of any such shares of Buyer Common Stock with a record date after the Effective Time and a payment date on or prior to the date of such surrender and not previously paid and (ii) at the appropriate payment date, the amount of dividends or other distributions with a record date after the Effective Time but prior to such surrender and with a payment date subsequent to such surrender payable with respect to such shares of Buyer Common Stock.

(e) Termination of Exchange Fund. Any portion of the Exchange Fund (including any interest and other income received with respect thereto) which remains undistributed to the former holders of shares of Target Common Stock on the first anniversary of the Effective Time shall be delivered to Buyer, and any former holders of shares of Target Common Stock who have not theretofore received any Merger Consideration (including any cash in lieu of fractional shares and any applicable dividends or other distributions with respect to Buyer Common Stock) to which they are entitled under this Article 3 shall thereafter look only to Buyer and the Surviving Corporation for payment of their claims with respect thereto.

(f) No Liability. None of Buyer, Target, the Surviving Corporation or the Exchange Agent, or any employee, officer, director, agent or Affiliate of any of them, shall be liable to any holder of shares of Target Common Stock in respect of any cash that would have otherwise been payable in respect of any Certificate or Book-Entry Share from the Exchange Fund delivered to a public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar Law. Any amounts remaining unclaimed by holders of any such shares immediately prior to the time at which such amounts would otherwise escheat to, or become property of, any Regulatory Authority shall, to the extent permitted by applicable Law, become the property of the Surviving Corporation, free and clear of any claims or interest of any such holders or their successors, assigns or personal representatives previously entitled thereto.

(g) Withholding Rights. Each and any of Buyer, the Surviving Corporation or the Exchange Agent, as applicable, shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from the Merger Consideration and any other amounts or property otherwise payable or distributable to any Person pursuant to this Agreement such amounts or property (or portions thereof) as Buyer, the Surviving Corporation or the Exchange Agent is required to deduct and withhold with respect to the making of such payment or distribution under the Internal Revenue Code, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, or any provision of applicable Tax Law. To the extent that amounts are so deducted or withheld and paid over to the appropriate Regulatory Authority by Buyer, the Surviving Corporation, or the Exchange Agent, as applicable, such withheld amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the Person in respect of which such deduction and withholding was made by Buyer, the Surviving Corporation, or the Exchange Agent, as applicable.

(h) Lost Certificates. If any Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, then upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the Person claiming such Certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and, if required by the Surviving Corporation, the posting by such Person of a bond in such reasonable and customary amount as the Surviving Corporation may direct, as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such Certificate, the Exchange Agent will issue in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate the Merger Consideration to which the holder thereof is entitled pursuant to this Article 3.

3.3 Dissenting Stockholders.

(a) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, shares of Target Common Stock that are issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time and which are held by any holder who is entitled to demand and properly demands appraisal of such Dissenting Shares pursuant to, and who complies in all respects with, the provisions of Sections 92A.300 to 92A.500 of the NRSA (Sections 92A.300 to 92A.500) (the Dissenting Stockholders), shall not be converted into or be exchangeable for the right to receive any of the consideration as specified in Article 2 (the Dissenting Shares), but instead such holder shall be entitled to payment of the fair value of such Dissenting Shares in accordance with the provisions of Sections 92A.300 to 92A.500. At the Effective Time, all Dissenting Shares shall no longer be outstanding, shall automatically be canceled and retired and shall cease to exist, and each holder of Dissenting Shares shall cease to have any rights with respect thereto, except the right to receive the fair value of such Dissenting Shares in accordance with the provisions of Sections 92A.300 to 92A.500.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if any such holder shall fail to perfect or otherwise shall waive, withdraw or lose the right to appraisal under Sections 92A.300 to 92A.500, or a court of competent jurisdiction shall determine that such holder is not entitled to the relief provided by Sections 92A.300 to 92A.500, then the right of such holder to be paid the fair value of such holder's Dissenting Shares under Sections 92A.300 to 92A.500 shall cease and such Dissenting Shares shall be deemed to be Non-Electing Shares that have been converted at the Effective Time into, and shall have become, the right to receive the Stock Consideration as provided in Section 2.1(c)(iii) of this Agreement, subject, if applicable, to the proration provided for in Section 2.2.

(b) Target shall give Buyer prompt written notice (but in any event within 48 hours) to Buyer of any demands for appraisal of any shares of Target Common Stock and any withdrawals of such demands, and Buyer shall have the right to participate in and direct all negotiations and proceedings with respect to such demands. Target shall not, except with the prior written consent of Buyer, voluntarily make any payment with respect to, or settle, or offer or agree to settle, any such demand for payment.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Section 7.2(a), if Target or any of its Representatives receives an unsolicited, bona fide written Acquisition Proposal by any Person or Group (as such term is defined in Section 13(d) under the Exchange Act) at any time prior to the Stockholders Meeting that did not result from or arise in connection with a breach of Section 7.2(a), Target and its Representatives may, prior to (but not after) the Stockholders Meeting, take the following actions if the board of directors of Target (or any committee thereof) has (i) determined, in its good faith judgment (after consultation with Target's financial advisors and outside legal counsel), that such Acquisition Proposal constitutes or could reasonably be expected to lead to a Superior Proposal and that the failure to take such actions would cause it to violate its fiduciary duties under applicable Law, and (ii) obtained from such Person or Group an executed confidentiality agreement containing terms at least as restrictive with respect to such Person or Group as the terms of the Confidentiality Agreement is in each provision with respect to Buyer: (A) furnish information to, and (B) enter into discussions and negotiations with, such Person or Group with respect to such bona fide written Acquisition Proposal.

(c) Promptly (but in no event more than 24 hours) following receipt of any Acquisition Proposal or any request for nonpublic information or any inquiry that could reasonably be expected to lead to any Acquisition Proposal, Target shall advise Buyer in writing of the receipt of such Acquisition Proposal, request or inquiry, and the terms and conditions of such Acquisition Proposal, request or inquiry (including, in each case, the identity of the Person or Group (as such term is defined in Section 13(d) under the Exchange Act) making any such Acquisition Proposal, request or inquiry), and Target shall as promptly as practicable provide to Buyer (i) a copy of such Acquisition Proposal, request or inquiry, if in writing, or (ii) a written summary of the material terms of such Acquisition Proposal, request or inquiry, if oral. Target agrees that it shall simultaneously provide to Buyer any nonpublic information concerning Target or any Target Subsidiaries that may be provided (pursuant to Section 7.2(a)) to any other Person or Group in connection with any bona fide written Acquisition Proposal which has not previously been provided to Buyer. (d) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, at any time prior to the Stockholders Meeting, if Target has received a Superior Proposal (after giving effect to the terms of any revised offer by Buyer pursuant to this Section 7.2(d)), the board of directors of Target may terminate this Agreement (and concurrently with such termination cause Target to enter into an acquisition agreement with respect to any Superior Proposal), if the board of directors of Target has determined in good faith, after consultation with outside legal counsel, that the failure to take such action would be a violation of the directors' fiduciary duties under applicable Law; provided, that the board of directors of Target may not take the actions set forth in this Section 7.2(d) unless:

(i) Target has complied in all material respects with this Section 7.2;

(ii) Target has provided prior written notice to Buyer at least three Business Days in advance (the Notice Period) of taking such action, which notice shall advise Buyer that the board of directors of Target has received a Superior Proposal and shall include a copy of such Superior Proposal;

(iii) during the Notice Period, Target has and has caused its financial advisors and outside legal counsel to, negotiate with Buyer in good faith (to the extent Buyer desires to so negotiate) to make such adjustments in the terms and conditions of this Agreement so that such Superior Proposal ceases to constitute (in the judgment of the board of directors of Target) a Superior Proposal; and

(iv) the board of directors of Target has determined in good faith, after considering the results of such negotiations and giving effect to any proposals, amendments or modifications made or agreed to by Buyer, if any, that such Superior Proposal remains a Superior Proposal.

If during the Notice Period any revisions are made to the Superior Proposal, Target shall deliver a new written notice to Buyer and shall comply with the requirements of this Section 7.2(d) with respect to such new written notice. In addition to the foregoing, Target shall not submit to the vote of its stockholders any Acquisition Proposal other than the Merger unless this Agreement shall be terminated in accordance with its terms.

7.4 Consents of Regulatory Authorities.

(a) Buyer and Target and their respective Subsidiaries shall cooperate and use their respective reasonable best efforts to prepare all documentation, to effect all filings and to obtain all permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all third parties and Regulatory Authorities necessary to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Buyer shall use its reasonable best efforts to resolve objections, if any, which may be asserted with respect to the Merger under any applicable Law or Order; provided, that in no event shall Buyer be required to accept any new restriction or condition on the Buyer Entities which is materially and unreasonably burdensome on Buyer's business or on the business of Target or the Target Bank, in each case following the Closing or which would reduce the economic benefits of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement to Buyer to such a degree that Buyer would not have entered into this Agreement had such condition or restriction been known to it at the date hereof (any such condition or restriction, a Burdensome Condition). Each of Buyer and Target shall have the right to review in advance, and to the extent practicable each will consult with the other, in each case subject to applicable Laws relating to the exchange of information, with respect to, all material written information submitted to any third party or Regulatory Authority in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. In exercising the foregoing right, each of the Parties hereto agrees to act reasonably and as promptly as practicable. Each Party hereto agrees that it will consult with the other Party hereto with respect to the obtaining of all material permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of third parties and Regulatory Authorities necessary or advisable to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and each Party will keep the other Party apprised of the status of material matters relating to completion of the transactions contemplated hereby, including advising the other Party upon receiving any communication from a Regulatory Authority the consent or approval of which is required for the consummation of the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement that causes such Party to believe that there is a reasonable likelihood that any required consent or approval from a Regulatory Authority will not be obtained or that the receipt of such consent or approval may be materially delayed (a Regulatory Communication). Upon the receipt of a Regulatory Communication, without limiting the scope of the foregoing paragraphs, the receiving Party shall, to the extent permitted by applicable Law, (i) promptly advise the other of the receipt of any substantive communication from a Regulatory Authority with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby, (ii) provide the other Party with a reasonable opportunity to participate in the preparation of any response thereto and the preparation of any other substantive submission or communication to any Regulatory Authority with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby and to review any such response, submission or communication prior to the filing or submission thereof, and (iii) provide the other Party with the opportunity to participate in any meetings or substantive telephone conversations that the receiving party or its Representatives may have from time to time with any Regulatory Authority with respect

7.5 Investigation and Confidentiality.

(a) Target shall promptly notify Buyer of any material change in the normal course of its business or in the operation of its properties and, to the extent permitted by applicable Law, of any material governmental complaints, investigations or hearings (or communications indicating that the same may be contemplated), or the institution or the threat of a material claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation involving Target or the Target Bank.

(b) Prior to the Effective Time, Target shall permit Buyer to make or cause to be made such investigation of the business and properties of it and its Subsidiaries and of their respective financial and legal conditions as Buyer reasonably requests, provided that such investigation shall not interfere unnecessarily with normal operations. 7.6 Press Releases.

Target and Buyer agree that no press release or other public disclosure materially related to this Agreement or any other transaction contemplated hereby shall be issued by either Party (or its Affiliates) without the prior written consent of the other Party (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned); provided, that nothing in this Section 7.6 shall be deemed to prohibit any Party from making any press release or other public disclosure required by Law or the rules or regulations of any United States or non-United States securities exchange, in which case the Party required to make the release or disclosure shall use its reasonable best efforts to allow the other Party reasonable time to comment on such release or disclosure in advance of the issuance thereof. The Parties have agreed upon the form of a joint press release announcing the execution of this Agreement.

7.7 Tax Treatment.

(a) Each of the Parties intends, and undertakes and agrees to use its reasonable best efforts to cause the Merger, and to take no action which would cause the Merger not, to qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code for federal income tax purposes. The Parties shall cooperate and use their reasonable best efforts in order to obtain the Tax Opinions. The Parties adopt this Agreement as a plan of reorganization within the meaning of Treasury Regulations Section 1.368-2(g) and for purposes of Sections 354 and 361 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(b) Unless otherwise required pursuant to a determination within the meaning of Section 1313(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, each of Buyer and Target shall report the Merger as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code and shall not take any inconsistent position therewith in any Tax Return.

7.8 Employee Benefits.

(a) Following the Effective Time, except as contemplated by this Agreement, Buyer shall provide generally to officers and employees (as a group) who are actively employed by a Target Entity on the Closing Date (Covered Employees) while employed by Buyer following the Closing Date, employee benefits under Employee Benefit Plans, on terms and conditions which when taken as a whole are comparable to those currently provided by Buyer Entities to their similarly situated officers and employees, including severance benefits in accordance with the applicable severance policy of Buyer (other than to any Covered Employee who is party to individual agreements or letters that entitle such person to different severance or termination benefits); provided, that in no event shall any Covered Employee be eligible to participate in any closed or frozen plan of any Buyer Entity. Until such time as Buyer shall cause the Covered Employees to participate in the applicable Buyer Employee Benefit Plans, the continued participation of the Covered Employees in the Target Benefit Plans shall be deemed to satisfy the foregoing provisions of this clause (it being understood that participation in Buyer's Employee Benefit Plans may commence at different times with respect to each of Buyer's Employee Benefit Plans). For purposes of participation, vesting and benefit accrual under Buyer's Employee Benefit Plans, the service of the Covered Employees prior to the Effective Time shall be treated as service with a Buyer Entity participating in such employee benefit plans, to the same extent that such service was recognized and credited by the Target Entities for purposes of a similar benefit plan; provided, that such recognition of service shall not (i) operate to duplicate any benefits of a Covered Employee with respect to the same period of service or (ii) apply for purposes of any plan, program or arrangement (x) under which similarly-situated employees of Buyer Entities do not receive credit for prior service, (y) that is grandfathered or frozen, either with respect to level of benefits or participation, or (z) for purposes of retiree medical benefits or level of benefits under a defined benefit pension plan.

(b) The Target Entities shall take all necessary action (including without limitation the adoption of resolutions and plan amendments and the delivery of any required notices) to terminate, effective as of no later than the day before the Closing Date, each Target Benefit Plan that is intended to constitute a tax-qualified defined contribution plan under Internal Revenue Code Section 401(k) (each a 401(k) Plan). Target shall provide Buyer with a copy of the resolutions, plan amendments, notices and other documents prepared to effectuate the termination of the 401(k) Plans in advance and give Buyer a reasonable opportunity to comment on such documents (which comments shall be considered in good faith), and prior to the Closing Date, Target shall provide Buyer with the final documentation evidencing that the 401(k) Plans have been terminated.

(c) Upon request by Buyer, prior to the Closing Date, the Target Entities shall terminate all Target Benefit Plans that provide retiree medical coverage (Retiree Medical Coverage) so that on and after the Closing Date none of the Target Entities, the Buyer, or any of their Affiliates shall have any Liability for or relating to Retiree Medical Coverage. If requested by Buyer, prior to the Closing Date, the Target Entities shall obtain a written agreement from each individual eligible for Retiree Medical Coverage agreeing to the termination of the Retiree Medical Coverage and releasing the Target Entities, the Buyer, and their Affiliates from any and all Liability and claims relating thereto. The consideration for such agreements from all eligible individuals shall be an amount determined by Buyer that shall not exceed the dollar amount accrued by the Target Entities for Retiree Medical Coverage liabilities as of the date of termination of the Retiree Medical Coverage. Target shall provide Buyer with a copy of the resolutions, plan amendments, notices, agreements, and other documents prepared to effectuate the actions contemplated by this Section 7.8(c), as applicable, and give Buyer a reasonable opportunity to comment on such documents (which comments shall be considered in good faith), and prior to the Closing Date, Target shall provide Buyer with the final documentation evidencing that the actions contemplated herein have been effectuated.

Table of Contents

(d) Upon request by Buyer prior to the Closing Date, the Target Entities shall cooperate in good faith with Buyer prior to the Closing Date to amend, freeze, terminate or modify any other Target Benefit Plan to the extent and in the manner determined by Buyer effective upon the Closing Date (or at such different time mutually agreed to by the parties) and consistent with applicable Law. Target shall provide Buyer with a copy of the resolutions, plan amendments, notices and other documents prepared to effectuate the actions contemplated by this Section 7.8(d), as applicable, and give Target a reasonable opportunity to comment on such documents (which comments shall be considered in good faith), and prior to the Closing Date, Target shall provide Buyer with the final documentation evidencing that the actions contemplated herein have been effectuated.

(e) Without limiting the generality of Section 10.4, the provisions of this Section 7.8 are solely for the benefit of the parties to this Agreement, and no Covered Employee, current or former employee or any other individual associated therewith shall be regarded for any purpose as a third-party beneficiary of this Agreement. In no event shall the terms of this Agreement be deemed to: (i) establish, amend, or modify any Target Benefit Plan or any employee benefit plan as defined in Section 3(3) of ERISA, or any other benefit plan, program, agreement or arrangement maintained or sponsored by Buyer, Target or any of their respective Affiliates; (ii) alter or limit the ability of Buyer or any Buyer Subsidiaries (including, after the Closing Date, the Target Entities) to amend, modify or terminate any Target Benefit Plan, employment agreement or any other benefit or employment plan, program, agreement or arrangement after the Closing Date; or (iii) confer upon any current or former employee, officer, director or consultant, any right to employment or continued employment or continued service with Buyer or any Buyer Subsidiaries (including, following the Closing Date, the Target Entities), or constitute or create an employment agreement with any employee.

7.9 Indemnification.

(a) For a period of six years after the Effective Time, Buyer shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless the present and former directors or officers of the Target Entities (each, an Indemnified Party) against all Liabilities arising out of actions or omissions arising out of the Indemnified Party's service or services as directors or officers of Target or, at Target's request, of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise occurring at or prior to the Effective Time (including the transactions contemplated by this Agreement) to the fullest extent permitted under state Law and by Target's certificate of incorporation and bylaws as in effect on the date hereof, including provisions relating to advances of expenses incurred in the defense of any Litigation and whether or not any Buyer Entity is insured against any such matter. Without limiting the foregoing, in any case in which approval by Buyer is required to effectuate any indemnification, Buyer shall direct, at the election of the Indemnified Party, that the determination of any such approval shall be made by independent counsel mutually agreed upon between Buyer and the Indemnified Party.

(b) Buyer shall use its reasonable best efforts (and Target shall cooperate prior to the Effective Time in these efforts) to maintain in effect for a period of six years after the Effective Time Target's existing directors' and officers' liability insurance policy (provided that Buyer may substitute therefor (i) policies of at least the same coverage and amounts containing terms and conditions which are substantially no less advantageous or (ii) with the consent of Target given prior to the Effective Time, any other policy) with respect to claims arising from facts or events which occurred prior to the Effective Time and covering persons who are currently covered by such insurance; provided, that Buyer shall not be obligated to make aggregate annual premium payments for such six-year period in respect of such policy (or coverage replacing such policy) which exceed, for the portion related to Target's directors and officers, 200% of the annual premium payments currently paid on Target's current policy in effect as of the date of this Agreement (which amount is set forth in Section 7.9(b) of Target's Disclosure Memorandum) (the Maximum Amount). If the amount of the premiums necessary to maintain or procure such insurance coverage exceeds the Maximum Amount, Buyer shall use its reasonable best efforts to maintain the most advantageous policies of directors' and officers' liability insurance obtainable for a premium equal to the Maximum Amount. In lieu of the maintenance of the policy described in this Section 7.9(b), Buyer, or Target in consultation with Buyer, may obtain on or prior to the Effective Time, a six-year tail prepaid policy providing equivalent coverage to that described in this Section 7.9(b), in which case, Buyer will have no further obligations under this Section 7.9(b) other than to maintain such tail prepaid policy.

NRS 92A.360 Rights of dissenting member of domestic limited-liability company. The articles of organization or operating agreement of a domestic limited-liability company or, unless otherwise provided in the articles of organization or operating agreement, an agreement of merger or exchange, may provide that contractual rights with respect to the interest of a dissenting member are available in connection with any merger or exchange in which the domestic limited-liability company is a constituent entity.

NRS 92A.370 Rights of dissenting member of domestic nonprofit corporation.

1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, and unless otherwise provided in the articles or bylaws, any member of any constituent domestic nonprofit corporation who voted against the merger may, without prior notice, but within 30 days after the effective date of the merger, resign from membership and is thereby excused from all contractual obligations to the constituent or surviving corporations which did not occur before the member's resignation and is thereby entitled to those rights, if any, which would have existed if there had been no merger and the membership had been terminated or the member had been expelled.

2. Unless otherwise provided in its articles of incorporation or bylaws, no member of a domestic nonprofit corporation, including, but not limited to, a cooperative corporation, which supplies services described in chapter 704 of NRS to its members only, and no person who is a member of a domestic nonprofit corporation as a condition of or by reason of the ownership of an interest in real property, may resign and dissent pursuant to subsection 1.

1. Except as otherwise provided in NRS 92A.370 and 92A.390 and subject to the limitation in paragraph (f), any stockholder is entitled to dissent from, and obtain payment of the fair value of the stockholder's shares in the event of any of the following corporate actions:

(a) Consummation of a plan of merger to which the domestic corporation is a constituent entity:

(1) If approval by the stockholders is required for the merger by NRS 92A.120 to 92A.160, inclusive, or the articles of incorporation, regardless of whether the stockholder is entitled to vote on the plan of merger; or

(2) If the domestic corporation is a subsidiary and is merged with its parent pursuant to NRS 92A.180.

(b) Consummation of a plan of conversion to which the domestic corporation is a constituent entity as the corporation whose subject owner's interests will be converted.

Table of Contents

2. A stockholder who is entitled to dissent and obtain payment pursuant to NRS 92A.300 to 92A.500, inclusive, may not challenge the corporate action creating the entitlement unless the action is unlawful or fraudulent with respect to the stockholder or the domestic corporation.

3. Subject to the limitations in this subsection, from and after the effective date of any corporate action described in subsection 1, no stockholder who has exercised the right to dissent pursuant to NRS 92A.300 to 92A.500, inclusive, is entitled to vote his or her shares for any purpose or to receive payment of dividends or any other distributions on shares. This subsection does not apply to dividends or other distributions payable to stockholders on a date before the effective date of any corporate action from which the stockholder has dissented. If a stockholder exercises the right to dissent with respect to a corporate action described in paragraph (f) of subsection 1, the restrictions of this subsection apply only to the shares to be converted into a fraction of a share and the dividends and distributions to those shares.

NRS 92A.390 Limitations on right of dissent: Stockholders of certain classes or series; action of stockholders not required for plan of merger.

1. There is no right of dissent with respect to a plan of merger, conversion or exchange in favor of stockholders of any class or series which is:

(a) A covered security under section 18(b)(1)(A) or (B) of the Securities Act of 1933, 15 U.S.C. § 77r(b)(1)(A) or (B), as amended;

Ê unless the articles of incorporation of the corporation issuing the class or series or the resolution of the board of directors approving the plan of merger, conversion or exchange expressly provide otherwise.

2. The applicability of subsection 1 must be determined as of:

(a) The record date fixed to determine the stockholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the meeting of stockholders to act upon the corporate action requiring dissenter's rights; or

(b) The day before the effective date of such corporate action if there is no meeting of stockholders.

Subsection 1 is not applicable and dissenter's rights are available pursuant to NRS 92A.380 for the holders of any class or series of shares who are required by the terms of the corporate action requiring dissenter's rights to accept for such shares anything other than cash or shares of any class or any series of shares of any corporation, or any other proprietary interest of any other entity, that satisfies the standards set forth in subsection 1 at the time the corporate action becomes effective.

4. There is no right of dissent for any holders of stock of the surviving domestic corporation if the plan of merger does not require action of the stockholders of the surviving domestic corporation under NRS 92A.130.

5. There is no right of dissent for any holders of stock of the parent domestic corporation if the plan of merger does not require action of the stockholders of the parent domestic corporation under NRS 92A.180.

NRS 92A.400 Limitations on right of dissent: Assertion as to portions only to shares registered to stockholder; assertion by beneficial stockholder.

1. A stockholder of record may assert dissenter's rights as to fewer than all of the shares registered in his or her name only if the stockholder of record dissents with respect to all shares of the class or series beneficially owned by any one person and notifies the subject corporation in writing of the name and address of each person on whose behalf the stockholder of record asserts dissenter's rights. The rights of a partial dissenter under this subsection are determined as if the shares as to which the partial dissenter dissents and his or her other shares were registered in the names of different stockholders.

2. A beneficial stockholder may assert dissenter's rights as to shares held on his or her behalf only if the beneficial stockholder:

(a) Submits to the subject corporation the written consent of the stockholder of record to the dissent not later than the time the beneficial stockholder asserts dissenter's rights; and

(b) Does so with respect to all shares of which he or she is the beneficial stockholder or over which he or she has power to direct the vote.

NRS 92A.410 Notification of stockholders regarding right of dissent.

1. If a proposed corporate action creating dissenter's rights is submitted to a vote at a stockholders' meeting, the notice of the meeting must state that stockholders are, are not or may be entitled to assert dissenter's rights under NRS 92A.300 to 92A.500, inclusive. If the domestic corporation concludes that dissenter's rights are or may be available, a copy of NRS 92A.300 to 92A.500, inclusive, must accompany the meeting notice sent to those record stockholders entitled to exercise dissenter's rights.

2. If the corporate action creating dissenter's rights is taken by written consent of the stockholders or without a vote of the stockholders, the domestic corporation shall notify in writing all stockholders entitled to assert dissenter's rights that the action was taken and send them the dissenter's notice described in NRS 92A.430.

NRS 92A.420 Prerequisites to demand for payment for shares.

1. If a proposed corporate action creating dissenter's rights is submitted to a vote at a stockholders' meeting, a stockholder who wishes to assert dissenter's rights with respect to any class or series of shares:

(a) Must deliver to the subject corporation, before the vote is taken, written notice of the stockholder's intent to demand payment for his or her shares if the proposed action is effectuated; and

(b) Must not vote, or cause or permit to be voted, any of his or her shares of such class or series in favor of the proposed action.

2. If a proposed corporate action creating dissenter's rights is taken by written consent of the stockholders, a stockholder who wishes to assert dissenter's rights with respect to any class or series of shares must not consent to or approve the proposed corporate action with respect to such class or series.

3. A stockholder who does not satisfy the requirements of subsection 1 or 2 and NRS 92A.400 is not entitled to payment for his or her shares under this chapter.

NRS 92A.430 Dissenter's notice: Delivery to stockholders entitled to assert rights; contents.

1. The subject corporation shall deliver a written dissenter's notice to all stockholders of record entitled to assert dissenter's rights in whole or in part, and any beneficial stockholder who has previously asserted dissenter's rights pursuant to NRS 92A.400.

2. The dissenter's notice must be sent no later than 10 days after the effective date of the corporate action specified in NRS 92A.380, and must:

- (a) State where the demand for payment must be sent and where and when certificates, if any, for shares must be deposited;
- (b) Inform the holders of shares not represented by certificates to what extent the transfer of the shares will be restricted after the demand for payment is received;
- (c) Supply a form for demanding payment that includes the date of the first announcement to the news media or to the stockholders of the terms of the proposed action and requires that the person asserting dissenter's rights certify whether or not the person acquired beneficial ownership of the shares before that date;
- (d) Set a date by which the subject corporation must receive the demand for payment, which may not be less than 30 nor more than 60 days after the date the notice is delivered and state that the stockholder shall be deemed to have waived the right to demand payment with respect to the shares unless the form is received by the subject corporation by such specified date; and
- (e) Be accompanied by a copy of NRS 92A.300 to 92A.500, inclusive.

NRS 92A.440 Demand for payment and deposit of certificates; loss of rights of stockholder; withdrawal from appraisal process.

1. A stockholder who receives a dissenter's notice pursuant to NRS 92A.430 and who wishes to exercise dissenter's rights must:

- (a) Demand payment;
- (b) Certify whether the stockholder or the beneficial owner on whose behalf he or she is dissenting, as the case may be, acquired beneficial ownership of the shares before the date required to be set forth in the dissenter's notice for this certification; and
- (c) Deposit the stockholder's certificates, if any, in accordance with the terms of the notice.

2. If a stockholder fails to make the certification required by paragraph (b) of subsection 1, the subject corporation may elect to treat the stockholder's shares as after-acquired shares under NRS 92A.470.

3. Once a stockholder deposits that stockholder's certificates or, in the case of uncertified shares makes demand for payment, that stockholder loses all rights as a stockholder, unless the stockholder withdraws pursuant to subsection 4.

4. A stockholder who has complied with subsection 1 may nevertheless decline to exercise dissenter's rights and withdraw from the appraisal process by so notifying the subject corporation in writing by the date set forth in the dissenter's notice pursuant to NRS 92A.430. A stockholder who fails to so withdraw from the appraisal process may not thereafter withdraw without the subject corporation's written consent.

5. The stockholder who does not demand payment or deposit his or her certificates where required, each by the date set forth in the dissenter's notice, is not entitled to payment for his or her shares under this chapter.

NRS 92A.450 Uncertificated shares: Authority to restrict transfer after demand for payment. The subject corporation may restrict the transfer of shares not represented by a certificate from the date the demand for their payment is received.

1. A subject corporation may elect to withhold payment from a dissenter unless the dissenter was the beneficial owner of the shares before the date set forth in the dissenter's notice as the first date of any announcement to the news media or to the stockholders of the terms of the proposed action.

A dissenter offered payment pursuant to NRS 92A.470 who is dissatisfied with the offer may reject the offer pursuant to NRS 92A.470 and demand payment of the fair value of his or her shares and interest due.

2. A dissenter waives the right to demand payment pursuant to this section unless the dissenter notifies the subject corporation of his or her demand to be paid the dissenter's stated estimate of fair value plus interest under subsection 1 in writing within 30 days after receiving the subject corporation's payment or offer of payment under NRS 92A.460 or 92A.470 and is entitled only to the payment made or offered.

NRS 92A.490 Legal proceeding to determine fair value: Duties of subject corporation; powers of court; rights of dissenter.

1. If a demand for payment pursuant to NRS 92A.480 remains unsettled, the subject corporation shall commence a proceeding within 60 days after receiving the demand and petition the court to determine the fair value of the shares and accrued interest. If the subject corporation does not commence the proceeding within the 60-day period, it shall pay each dissenter whose demand remains unsettled the amount demanded by each dissenter pursuant to NRS 92A.480 plus interest.

2. A subject corporation shall commence the proceeding in the district court of the county where its principal office is located in this State. If the principal office of the subject corporation is not located in this State, the right to dissent arose from a merger, conversion or exchange and the principal office of the surviving entity, resulting entity or the entity whose shares were acquired, whichever is applicable, is located in this State, it shall commence the proceeding in the county where the principal office of the surviving entity, resulting entity or the entity whose shares were acquired is located. 3. The subject corporation shall make all dissenters, whether or not residents of Nevada, whose demands remain unsettled, parties to the proceeding as in an action against their shares. All parties must be served with a copy of the petition. Nonresidents may be served by registered or certified mail or by publication as provided by law.

4. The jurisdiction of the court in which the proceeding is commenced under subsection 2 is plenary and exclusive. The court may appoint one or more persons as appraisers to receive evidence and recommend a decision on the question of fair value. The appraisers have the powers described in the order appointing them, or any amendment thereto. The dissenters are entitled to the same discovery rights as parties in other civil proceedings.

5. Each dissenter who is made a party to the proceeding is entitled to a judgment:

(a) For the amount, if any, by which the court finds the fair value of the dissenter's shares, plus interest, exceeds the amount paid by the subject corporation; or

(b) For the fair value, plus accrued interest, of the dissenter's after-acquired shares for which the subject corporation elected to withhold payment pursuant to NRS 92A.470.

NRS 92A.500 Assessment of costs and fees in certain legal proceedings.

1. The court in a proceeding to determine fair value shall determine all of the costs of the proceeding, including the reasonable compensation and expenses of any appraisers appointed by the court. The court shall assess the costs against the subject corporation, except that the court may assess costs against all or some of the dissenters, in amounts the court finds equitable, to the extent the court finds the dissenters acted arbitrarily, vexatiously or not in good faith in demanding payment.

2. The court may also assess the fees and expenses of the counsel and experts for the respective parties, in amounts the court finds equitable:

(a) Against the subject corporation and in favor of all dissenters if the court finds the subject corporation did not substantially comply with the requirements of NRS 92A.300 to 92A.500, inclusive; or

(b) Against either the subject corporation or a dissenter in favor of any other party, if the court finds that the party against whom the fees and expenses are assessed acted arbitrarily, vexatiously or not in good faith with respect to the rights provided by NRS 92A.300 to 92A.500, inclusive.

3. If the court finds that the services of counsel for any dissenter were of substantial benefit to other dissenters similarly situated, and that the fees for those services should not be assessed against the subject corporation, the court may award to those counsel reasonable fees to be paid out of the amounts awarded to the dissenters who were benefited.

4. In a proceeding commenced pursuant to NRS 92A.460, the court may assess the costs against the subject corporation, except that the court may assess costs against all or some of the dissenters who are parties to the proceeding, in amounts the court finds equitable, to the extent the court finds that such parties did not act in good faith in instituting the proceeding.

5. To the extent the subject corporation fails to make a required payment pursuant to NRS 92A.460, 92A.470 or 92A.480, the dissenter may bring a cause of action directly for the amount owed and, to the extent the dissenter prevails, is entitled to recover all expenses of the suit.

6. This section does not preclude any party in a proceeding commenced pursuant to NRS 92A.460 or 92A.490 from applying the provisions of N.R.C.P. 68 or NRS 17.115.
