Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On July 1, 2008, CF Industries, Inc. (CF Industries), a wholly-owned subsidiary of CF Industries Holdings, Inc. (the Company) entered into a multi-year supply contract with GROWMARK, Inc. (GROWMARK), dated July 1, 2008, relating to future purchases of fertilizer products (the Supply Agreement). CF Industries and GROWMARK had previously entered into a multi-year supply contract on June 20, 2005 that expired on June 30, 2008. During 2007, GROWMARK purchased $288.4 million of fertilizers from CF Industries, representing 10% of CF Industries' total net sales. William Davisson, the chief executive officer of GROWMARK, is a member of the Company's board of directors.

The Supply Agreement specifies a sales target volume and a requirement volume for the first contract year. The requirement volume is a percentage of the sales target volume and represents the volume of fertilizer that CF Industries is obligated to sell and GROWMARK is obligated to purchase during the first contract year. Thereafter, the sales target volume is subject to yearly adjustment by mutual agreement or, failing such agreement, to an amount specified by CF Industries which is not more than 105% of the prior year's sales target volume. The requirement volume is also subject to yearly adjustment to an amount specified by the customer which is not less than 65% nor more than 100% of the then applicable sales target volume. The Supply Agreement also contains reciprocal meet or release provisions pursuant to which each party must provide the other party with notice and the opportunity to match a transaction with a third party if such a transaction would impact the party's willingness or ability to supply or purchase, as the case may be, the then applicable sales target volume. The meet or release provisions may not, however, reduce the requirement volume.

The prices for product sold under the Supply Agreement will vary depending on the type of sale selected by GROWMARK. GROWMARK may select (i) cash sales at prices that are published in CF Industries' weekly cash price list, (ii) index sales at a published index price, (iii) forward pricing sales under CF Industries' forward pricing program, and (iv) sales negotiated between the parties. The Supply Agreement also provides for performance incentives based on (i) the percentage of the sales target volume actually purchased, (ii) the timing of purchases under CF Industries' forward pricing program, (iii) the amount of purchases under CF Industries' forward pricing program, and (iv) specifying a requirement volume in excess of the then applicable minimum requirement volume.

CF Industries has agreed with GROWMARK that the prices GROWMARK is charged for cash sales, index sales, and forward pricing sales will be the same prices CF Industries charges all of its similarly situated customers.

The initial term of the Supply Agreement lasts until June 30, 2013. The term will be extended automatically for successive one-year periods unless a termination notice is given by either party.
