Dear Valued Mellanox Customer,

Today we announced that we have signed a definitive agreement to be acquired by NVIDIA. The joint board and management team firmly believe that this will signify an extremely positive development to our key business partners.

NVIDIA is fully committed to support and expand the Mellanox product lines so you can be assured that we will continue to be a strong choice for your business. We are excited to join forces with NVIDIA, which we believe is the best outcome for both of our companies and will allow us to serve you even better. The future of computing will benefit from holistic innovation across the entire technology stack, from compute to networking to storage. Combining our two companies is a natural extension of our existing partnership and a great fit given our common performance-driven cultures. Together we will be able to deliver the world's best connectivity and processing solutions to you, our customers.

This transaction is currently expected to close by the end of calendar year 2019, and until then, NVIDIA and Mellanox will remain completely distinct, separate and autonomous in dealing with our customers. We intend to support all existing products and commitments from each company. In addition, to ensure supply continuity, existing manufacturing and supply agreements will remain unchanged for current products.

In the coming months, we will plan how to deepen the operational integration of our business. We know that clear communications are a cornerstone to our relationship with you. As we advance through this progress in the months ahead, we'll continue to keep you updated and informed. If you have any questions, do not hesitate to reach out to me for more information. You can continue to expect the superior products, services and support we deliver to you today.

We appreciate your business and look forward to meeting and exceeding your expectations in the future.

Sincerely yours,

Eyal Waldman

President and CEO
