State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Solitron Devices, Inc. (the "Company") experienced unexpected delays in the preparation and review of its financial statements for the fiscal year ended February 29, 2016 due to the unexpected departure of the Director of Finance and the Company's efforts to appropriately staff the Company's financial and accounting function in light of his departure as well as the ongoing review and analytical procedures being conducted by the Company and the Company's auditor with respect to the valuation of inventory. As a result, the Company is unable to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K in a timely manner without unreasonable effort or expense. The Company anticipates that it will file the Form 10-K within the fifteen day extension period provided by Securities Exchange Act Rule 12b-25.

If answer is no, identify report(s).

Yes  No

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes  No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

The Company expects that its financial statements will reflect a significant decrease in net income from $927,000 for the year ended February 28, 2015 and likely reflect a net loss. The Company is unable to quantify a reasonable estimate of the financial results at this time due to the ongoing review and analytical procedures being conducted by the Company and the Company's auditor with respect to the valuation of inventory.

The information provided above are forward-looking statements and are based on the Company's anticipated changes from the prior year period. Although the Company believes these statements are based on reasonable assumptions, it can give no assurance that these statements will prove correct. Important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements include any uncertainties encountered by the Company or any necessary changes that may result in connection with completing the review and preparation of the financial statements and related disclosures contained in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended February 29, 2016. Should one or more of these risks or uncertainties materialize, or should underlying assumptions prove incorrect, actual outcomes may vary materially from those indicated.
