Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On February 23, 2005, the Board of Directors (the Board ) of Glacier Bancorp, Inc. (the Company ) approved resolutions amending and restating the Glacier Bancorp, Inc. Deferred Compensation Plan (the Plan ) and the Company s Supplemental Executive Retirement Agreements (the SERAs ). The new effective date for the Plan and the SERAs is January 1, 2005. The changes arose principally in response to the recent enactment of Section 409A of Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code ), and permit participants to elect cash-out distributions in 2005, and to make new distribution elections on terms that conform with the restrictions set forth in Section 409A.

In addition, the Company changed the measure for the rate of return on accounts from changes in the value of Company stock to fifty percent (50%) of the Company s return-on-average-equity. This change is expected to limit the Company s future compensation expense while retaining the performance-based nature of the Plan and the SERA. All other terms of the Plan and the SERA remain in full force and effect.

Participants to the Plan ( Participants ) are members of the Board, the president of the Company and selected Company employees. Eligibility for the Plan is limited to directors, the Company president and other key employees the Board identifies, by resolution, as being eligible. Only senior executive officers are eligible to execute SERAs
