GRUPO RADIO CENTRO REPORTS FOURTH QUARTER AND YEAR-END RESULTS
FOR THE PERIOD ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2006

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 20 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- Grupo Radio Centro, S.A.B de C.V. (NYSE: RC) (BMV: RCENTRO-A) (the "Company"), one of Mexico's leading radio broadcasting companies, announced today its operating results for the fourth quarter and year ended December 31, 2006. All figures were prepared in accordance with the Financial Information Standards issued by the Mexican Board for Research and Development of Financial Standards and have been restated in constant pesos as of December 31, 2006.

Fourth Quarter Results

Broadcasting revenue for the fourth quarter of 2006 was Ps. 202,130,000, a 5.2% increase from Ps. 192,119,000 reported for the same period of 2005. This increase was mainly attributable to higher advertising expenditures by the Company's clients, who purchased more airtime in the fourth quarter compared to the same period of 2005.

The Company's broadcasting expenses (excluding depreciation, amortization and corporate, general and administrative expenses) in the fourth quarter of 2006 were Ps. 103,328,000, an 8.4% decrease from Ps. 112,796,000 reported for the same period of 2005. This decrease was primarily due to a reduction in the allowance for doubtful accounts in December 2006 as a result of a sale of accounts receivable that had given rise to a portion of the allowance.

For the fourth quarter of 2006, the Company reported broadcasting income (i.e., broadcasting revenue minus broadcasting expenses, excluding depreciation, amortization and corporate, general and administrative expenses) of Ps. 98,802,000, a 24.6% increase from Ps. 79,323,000 reported for the same period of 2005. This increase was attributable to the increase in broadcasting revenue described above.

Depreciation and amortization expense for the fourth quarter of 2006 amounted to Ps. 9,094,000, a 6.4% decrease from Ps. 9,714,000 reported during the same period of 2005, because the Company no longer recorded depreciation of company vehicles whose useful lives ended in the second quarter of 2006.

For the fourth quarter of 2006, the Company's corporate, general and administrative expenses were Ps. 4,778,000, a 4.5% increase from Ps. 4,573,000 reported for the same period of 2005 due to an increase in performance bonuses paid by the Company to its executives in the fourth quarter of 2006 as compared with the same period of 2005.

The Company reported operating income of Ps. 84,930,000 for the fourth quarter of 2006, a 30.6% increase from Ps. 65,036,000 reported for the same period of 2005. This increase was due primarily to the aforementioned increase in broadcasting income during the fourth quarter of 2006.

The Company's comprehensive financing cost for the fourth quarter of 2006 was Ps. 30,637,000, an increase from Ps. 4,943,000 reported for the same period of 2005. This increase was primarily due to:

- * the sale of certain accounts receivable in December 2006 (described below), as a result of which the book value in excess of the purchase price for the accounts receivable was classified as interest expense, and
- * a loss on net monetary position of Ps. 3,563,000 compared to a gain on net monetary position of Ps. 1,508,000 reported for the same period of 2005, due to the fact that the Company no longer held bank debt or a contingent liability, which resulted in lower monetary liabilities in the fourth quarter of 2006 compared to the same period of 2005.

In December 2006, the Company sold for Ps. 12 million accounts receivable representing Ps. 38.9 million owed to it mainly by political parties in connection with these customers' purchases of airtime from 2003 to 2005. The Company had been unsuccessful in its attempts to collect the accounts receivable and, accordingly, increased its allowance for doubtful accounts beginning in 2005. Following the sale, the Company classified as interest expense Ps. 26.9 million (which is equivalent to the difference between the book value and the purchase price of the accounts receivable), and reduced its allowance for doubtful accounts from Ps. 29.4 million to Ps. 12.8 million. The Company sold the accounts receivable because:

- * it believed, based on its past efforts, that the accounts receivable were not recoverable, and
- * the sale enabled the Company to take a tax deduction in connection with the unrecoverable accounts receivable, which deduction otherwise would not have been available without bringing legal proceedings against the customers.

The accounts receivable were sold to a company controlled by Francisco Aguirre Gomez, Chairman of the Board of Directors of Grupo Radio Centro. There were no other buyers, the price was higher than fair market value and payment has been received in cash. This transaction was ratified by the Company's audit committee on February 19, 2007.

During the fourth quarter of 2006, other expenses, net, totaled Ps. 15,457,000, a 5.5% increase from the Ps. 14,646,000 reported for the same period of 2005. This increase was mainly attributable to expenses related to the Company's 60th anniversary celebration.

As a result of the foregoing, the Company reported income before extraordinary item and provisions for income tax and employee profit sharing of Ps. 38,836,000 for the fourth quarter of 2006, a 14.5% decrease from Ps. 45,447,000 reported for the same period of 2005.

The Company recorded extraordinary income of Ps. 4,762,000 in the fourth quarter of 2006 as a result of an adjustment for inflation to extraordinary income that was recorded in June 2006 in connection with the reversal of a contingent liability provision.

For the fourth quarter of 2006, the Company reported income before provisions for income tax and employee profit sharing of Ps. 43,598,000, a 4.1% decrease from Ps. 45,447,000 reported for the same period of 2005.

The Company reduced its provision for income tax and employee profit sharing by Ps. 3,589,000 in the fourth quarter of 2006 compared to a provision of Ps. 8,904,000 for the same period of 2005. This reduction was a result of lower taxable income due to the fact that the Company had more deductible expenses in the fourth quarter of 2006 compared to the same period of 2005.

As a result of the foregoing, the Company's net income for the fourth quarter of 2006 was Ps. 47,187,000, a 29.1% increase from Ps. 36,543,000 reported for the same period of 2005.

Twelve-Month Results

For the year ended December 31, 2006, broadcasting revenue was Ps. 795,680,000, a 29.4% increase from Ps. 615,083,000 reported for the same period of 2005. This increase was mainly attributable to an increase in advertising expenditures by political parties in connection with the presidential and congressional elections that took place on July 2, 2006, as well as higher advertising expenditures by the Company's commercial clients compared to the same period of 2005.

The Company's broadcasting expenses (excluding depreciation, amortization and corporate, general and administrative expenses) for the year ended December 31, 2006 were Ps. 443,404,000, an 8.5% increase from the Ps. 408,501,000 reported for the same period of 2005. This increase was primarily due to:

- * an increase in sales commissions paid to the Company's sales force, outside agents and affiliated stations in connection with increased sales of airtime,

Edgar Filing: GRUPO RADIO CENTRO SA DE CV - Form 6-K

- * a net increase in the allowance for doubtful accounts, and
- * increased expenses related to additional advertising and marketing campaigns.

Broadcasting income (i.e., broadcasting revenue minus broadcasting expenses, excluding depreciation, amortization and corporate, general and administrative expenses) for the year ended December 31, 2006, was Ps. 352,276,000, a 70.5% increase from Ps. 206,582,000 reported for the same period of 2005. This increase was mainly attributable to the increase in broadcasting revenue, which more than offset the increase in broadcasting expenses.

Depreciation and amortization expense for the year ended December 31, 2006 totaled Ps. 35,836,000, a 6.9% decrease from Ps. 38,509,000 reported for the same period of 2005. This decrease was mainly attributable to the fact that the Company no longer recorded depreciation for certain Company vehicles whose useful lives ended in the second quarter of 2006.

The Company's corporate, general and administrative expenses for the year ended December 31, 2006 were Ps. 14,276,000, a slight increase from Ps. 14,047,000 reported for the same period of 2005.

As a result of the foregoing, the Company reported operating income of Ps. 302,164,000 for the year ended December 31, 2006, a 96.2% increase from Ps. 154,026,000 reported for the same period of 2005.

The Company's comprehensive financing cost for the year ended December 31, 2006 was Ps. 38,399,000, a 189.1% increase from Ps. 13,280,000 recorded for the same period of 2005. This increase was primarily due to:

- * the cost attributable to the sale of certain accounts receivable, which was classified as interest expense;
- * a decrease in gain on net foreign currency exchange, which was Ps. 8,000 in 2006 compared to Ps. 10,940,000 in 2005, due to the cancellation of a U.S. dollar-denominated contingent liability in 2006, and
- * a loss on net monetary position of Ps. 2,569,000 in 2006 compared to a gain of Ps. 6,974,000 in 2005, due to the fact that the Company repaid its bank debt in May 2006 and cancelled a contingent liability in June 2006, thus significantly reducing its monetary liabilities during the year.

Other expenses, net, for the year ended December 31, 2006 were Ps. 56,465,000, a 11.6% increase from Ps. 50,588,000 reported for the same period of 2005. This increase was mainly attributable to higher legal expenses during 2006 compared to the same period of 2005 and expenses related to the Company's 60th anniversary celebration during 2006.

As a result of the foregoing, the Company reported income before extraordinary item and provisions for income tax and employee profit sharing of Ps. 207,300,000 for the year ended December 31, 2006, a 129.9% increase from Ps. 90,158,000 reported for the same period of 2005.

During 2006, the Company recorded extraordinary income of Ps. 253,976,000, due to the reversal of a contingent liability provision recorded by the Company in 2003 minus accumulated foreign exchange loss and interest recorded by the Company in 2006 related to the provision.

For the year ended December 31, 2006, the Company reported income before provisions for income tax and employee profit sharing of Ps. 461,276,000, a

Edgar Filing: GRUPO RADIO CENTRO SA DE CV - Form 6-K

411.6% increase from Ps. 90,158,000 reported for the same period of 2005, due to both the increase in operating income and the recording of extraordinary income.

For the year ended December 31, 2006, the Company recorded provisions for income tax and employee profit sharing of Ps. 42,278,000, an 87.1% increase from Ps. 22,599,000 reported for 2005. This increase was primarily due to the increase in taxable income during 2006 compared to 2005.

As a result of the foregoing, the Company posted net income of Ps. 418,998,000 for the year ended December 31, 2006, a 520.2% increase from Ps. 67,559,000 reported for the same period of 2005.

Balance Sheet:

Other accounts receivable increased to Ps. 18,665,000 as of December 31, 2006 from Ps. 5,469,000 reported for 2005, mainly recording in 2006 Ps. 12,000,000 receivable from the sale of non-recoverable accounts receivable as explained above. Payment has subsequently been received.

Current and Long Term Notes Payable of the Company of Ps. 58,913,000 and Ps. 58,913,000 respectively as of December 31, 2005 have been repaid in full. The Company had no debt as of December 31, 2006 nor as of today.
