Change in interest in Tanzania

Rio de Janeiro, October 3 2011 – Petróleo Brasileiro S.A. – Petrobras announces that by means of its subsidiary Petrobras Tanzania Ltd, it has entered a Farm-Out Agreement granting 50% of its interest in blocks 5 and 6 in Tanzania to Shell Deepwater Tanzania BV.

The blocks are located offshore Tanzania, in the Indian Ocean, and are nestled at water depths ranging from 600 to 3,000 meters. Petrobras Tanzania, which held 100% interest in each of the blocks before the transaction, remains the operator of both. National oil company TPDC Tanzanian Petroleum Development Corporation is the concessionaire of both blocks.

The Zeta-1 well is currently being drilled in block 5, and the work is expected to be completed by the end of the year. Meanwhile, the 3D seismics interpretation work is still underway for block 6.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This press release may contain forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (Securities Act), and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (Exchange Act) that are not based on historical facts and are not assurances of future results. These forward-looking statements are based on management's current view and estimates of future economic circumstances, industry conditions, company performance and financial results. The words "anticipates", "believes", "estimates", "expects", "plans" and similar expressions, as they relate to the company, are intended to identify forward-looking statements. Statements regarding the declaration or payment of dividends, the implementation of principal operating and financing strategies and capital expenditure plans, the direction of future operations and the factors or trends affecting financial condition, liquidity or results of operations are examples of forward-looking statements. Such statements reflect the current views of management and are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties. There is no guarantee that the expected events, trends or results will actually occur. The statements are based on many assumptions and factors, including general economic and market conditions, industry conditions, and operating factors. Any changes in such assumptions or factors could cause actual results to differ materially from current expectations.

All forward-looking statements are expressly qualified in their entirety by this cautionary statement, and you should not place reliance on any forward-looking statement contained in this press release. We undertake no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information or future events or for any other reason.
