Petrobras discovers oil and natural gas in the Amazon

Rio de Janeiro, February 3, 2012 – Petróleo Brasileiro S.A. – Petrobras announces the discovery of a new oil and natural gas accumulation in the Solimões Basin, Block SOL-T-171, in the State of Amazonas.

The discovery took place during the drilling of well 1-BRSA-961-AM, unofficially known as Igarapé Chibata Leste. Located in the Coari, 25 km from the Urucu Oil Province, the well was drilled to a depth of 3,295 meters.

Tests have indicated a production capacity of 1,400 barrels of good quality oil per day (41^º API) and 45,000 m³ of natural gas in the Juruá Formation.

This is the second successful exploration in Block SOL-T-171 after 2010, when the Discovery Evaluation Plan of well 1-BRSA-769-AM (Igarapé Chibata) started.

Petrobras holds 100% of the exploration and production rights in the Concession. The company current production in the Amazonas State is 53,000 barrels of oil and 11,000 m³ of natural gas per day, in addition to 1,300 tons/day of LPG.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This press release may contain forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (Securities Act), and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (Exchange Act) that are not based on historical facts and are not assurances of future results. These forward-looking statements are based on management's current view and estimates of future economic circumstances, industry conditions, company performance and financial results. The words "anticipates", "believes", "estimates", "expects", "plans" and similar expressions, as they relate to the company, are intended to identify forward-looking statements. Statements regarding the declaration or payment of dividends, the implementation of principal operating and financing strategies and capital expenditure plans, the direction of future operations and the factors or trends affecting financial condition, liquidity or results of operations are examples of forward-looking statements. Such statements reflect the current views of management and are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties. There is no guarantee that the expected events, trends or results will actually occur. The statements are based on many assumptions and factors, including general economic and market conditions, industry conditions, and operating factors. Any changes in such assumptions or factors could cause actual results to differ materially from current expectations.

All forward-looking statements are expressly qualified in their entirety by this cautionary statement, and you should not place reliance on any forward-looking statement contained in this press release. We undertake no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information or future events or for any other reason.
