NOTICE TO THE MARKET

São Paulo, March 26 2012 --- Braskem S.A. ("Braskem") hereby informs that, in response to Official Letter CVM/SEP/GEA-1/No 213/2012, and in accordance with the provisions of CVM Instruction 381/03, the value of the services rendered by the audit firm PricewaterhouseCoopers Auditores Independente related to the tax review services that were unrelated to the external audit did not exceed 5% of the total value of the fees it received. These services consisted of: (1) the services contracted on April 27, 2011, for a period of 4 months; and (2) the services contracted on November 8, 2011, for a period of 2 months.

The Company's policy for hiring independent auditors to perform services unrelated to the external audit is based on principles that preserve the independence of audit professionals. In accordance with internationally accepted standards, these principles are: (a) auditors may not audit their own work; (b) auditors may not exercise managerial functions at their clients; and (c) auditors may not promote the interests of their clients.

Based on these principles, PricewaterhouseCoopers Auditores Independentes declared that the provision of such services, as described in items (1) and (2) above, does not affect the independence and objectivity required to perform the services rendered to Braskem.

Further information can be obtained from Braskem's Investor Relations Department by telephone +55 11 3576-9531 or by e-mail braskem-ri@braskem.com.br.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This press release may contain forward-looking statements. These statements are statements that are not historical facts, and are based on management's current view and estimates of future economic circumstances, industry conditions, company performance and financial results. The words "anticipates", "believes", "estimates", "expects", "plans" and similar expressions, as they relate to the company, are intended to identify forward-looking statements. Statements regarding the declaration or payment of dividends, the implementation of principal operating and financing strategies and capital expenditure plans, the direction of future operations and the factors or trends affecting financial condition, liquidity or results of operations are examples of forward-looking statements. Such statements reflect the current views of management and are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties. There is no guarantee that the expected events, trends or results will actually occur. The statements are based on many assumptions and factors, including general economic and market conditions, industry conditions, and operating factors. Any changes in such assumptions or factors could cause actual results to differ materially from current expectations.
