Item 2.02 Results of Operations and Financial Condition.

On April 24, 2007, Respiroics, Inc. ("Respiroics", or the "Company") issued a press release. This press release included, among other things, the announcement of sleep therapy growth of 21% (18% domestic and 31% international) and earnings and gross margins in line with previous guidance during the Company's third fiscal quarter ended March 31, 2007.

Respiroics stated that it will be providing a complete review of its fiscal 2007 third quarter performance during its previously scheduled earnings call and webcast on Thursday, April 26, 2007.

Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

Respiroics will showcase its latest innovations for sleep and home respiratory care at Medtrade Spring 2007. The international tradeshow for the home healthcare industry kicks off today in Las Vegas, NV.

New products which will be on display at Medtrade include new sleep therapy platforms, a new entry into in-home apneic screening, and new mobile oxygen therapy systems. Adding to its family of technologically advanced products, the Company also is premiering System One™ -- a new standard in sleep therapy that combines two of Respiroics solutions, the A-Flex™ breathing mode with the Company's newest patient interface device, the OptiLife™ mask.

The Company also announced that it has acquired substantially all of the operating assets of the J. H. Emerson Company ("Emerson") for a purchase price of approximately $23.0 million. Emerson is involved primarily in the manufacture and distribution of the CoughAssist® device that Respiroics had previously distributed. The CoughAssist® device provides secretion clearance to patients with Chronic Obstructive Pulmonary Disease as well as certain other respiratory ailments and conditions.

The Company will not be changing its financial outlook or guidance as a result of the information contained in the attached press release.

A copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.
