On December 21, 2006, The Economic Times, Mumbai published an article regarding WNS (Holdings) Limited (the "Company"), including an interview with Neeraj Bhargava, Director and Chief Executive Officer of the Company. The following statements were attributed to Neeraj Bhargava in the interview and quoted in the article. "We", "the company" and "WNS" refer to WNS (Holdings) Limited.

- We have been growing much faster than the industry, and in the last four years we have done four acquisitions. We now have a cash reserve of $90 million (raised from the IPO) and we intend to do more acquisitions in the coming years.

- The company is well on track to achieve these targets [these targets is referring to the previous guidance that the Company has given of reaching slightly over $208 million in revenues for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2007, with net income before amortization of intangible assets and share-based compensation expense of $30.5 million to $32.5 million].

- The travel vertical will touch $100 million in revenues by next year.

- We have some customers in each of these verticals but the practice has not reached critical size ["these verticals" is referring to the new verticals like logistics, media and entertainment, manufacturing and retail].

- Based on the customers, WNS is different from its competitors like Genpact, Progeon and FirstSource. Otherwise in terms of horizontals, the company provides transaction processing (60% of revenues), customer support services (30% of revenues) and analytics (10% of revenues).
