Section 3 Securities and Trading Markets

Item 3.01 Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

On November 13, 2008, Westwood One, Inc. (the “Company”) was notified by the New York Stock Exchange (the “NYSE”) that the Company had fallen below the NYSE’s minimum continued listing standard relating to total market capitalization. Rule 802.02 of the NYSE’s Listed Company Manual requires that the Company have a minimum average market capitalization of $25 million over a consecutive 30-day trading period. The $25 million market capitalization level is a minimum standard with no cure period and accordingly, the NYSE has determined to suspend the Company’s common stock prior to the market opening on Monday, November 24. Pending an appeal by the Company (as described below), the NYSE will apply to the Securities and Exchange Commission to delist the Company’s common stock from the NYSE. The Company has taken steps to list its common stock on the Over-the-Counter Bulletin Board and expects to trade on such exchange for the near future commencing on Monday, November 24.

Under Section 804 of the NYSE rules, the Company has ten business days to notify the NYSE of its intention, if any, to appeal the NYSE’s decision and request a hearing before a Committee of the Exchange’s Board of Directors. Under the NYSE rules, if the Company does not notify the NYSE of its decision to appeal the decision in the aforementioned ten business day period, or if an appeal (if made) should fail, the NYSE will apply to the SEC to delist the Company’s common stock from the NYSE.

A copy of the Press Release issued by the Company announcing the suspension is included as an exhibit to and incorporated by reference in this Current Report on Form 8-K.
