Proposals for the Annual General Meeting of April 30, 2010

· The Board of Directors of Credit Suisse Group AG today published the agenda for the Annual General Meeting

· The 2009 Annual Report will be available online from 07:30 CET on Thursday, March 25, 2010

Zurich, March 22, 2010 The Board of Directors of Credit Suisse Group AG today announced its proposals for the Annual General Meeting of April 30, 2010:

Proposed for election to the Board of Directors as new members are Jassim Bin Hamad J. J. Al Thani, Chairman of the Board of Directors of Qatar Islamic Bank, and Robert H. Benmosche, President and CEO of American International Group, Inc. (AIG).

Proposed for re-election to the Board of Directors are four current members: Noreen Doyle, Aziz R. D. Syriani, David W. Syz and Peter F. Weibel.

The Board of Directors also proposes the distribution of a dividend of CHF 2.00 per registered share for the financial year 2009.

In addition, the agenda includes amendments to the Articles of Association and a consultative vote on the 2009 Compensation Report.

The Board of Directors of Credit Suisse Group AG proposes that Jassim Bin Hamad J. J. Al Thani and Robert H. Benmosche be elected to the Board of Directors for a term of three years, as stipulated in the Articles of Association. Jassim Bin Hamad J. J. Al Thani is Chairman of the Board of Directors of Qatar Islamic Bank and holds various other mandates in the financial services industry. Robert H. Benmosche is President and CEO of American International Group, Inc. (AIG), New York. He was previously a member of the Board of Directors of Credit Suisse Group AG from 2002 until 2009. He resigned from the Board of Directors in August 2009 as a result of his appointment at AIG. Changes in AIG's business have made it possible for him to rejoin the Board of Directors of Credit Suisse Group AG.

Standing for re-election for a further three years are the following Board members, whose terms of office expire on the date of the 2010 Annual General Meeting:

Noreen Doyle: member of the Board since 2004; member of the Risk Committee.

Aziz R. D. Syriani: member of the Board since 1998; Chairman of the Compensation Committee; member of the Chairman's and Governance Committee.

David W. Syz: member of the Board since 2004; member of the Audit Committee.

Peter F. Weibel: member of the Board since 2004; Chairman of the Audit Committee; member of the Chairman's and Governance Committee.

Ernst Tanner will be stepping down from the Board of Directors on the date of the Annual General Meeting. He has been a member of the Board since 2002.

Cash Dividend

As previously announced, the Board of Directors proposes the distribution of a cash dividend of CHF 2.00 per registered share for the 2009 financial year. If the motion is approved by the Annual General Meeting, the dividend will be paid on May 7, 2010.

Amendment to the Articles of Association

The Board of Directors proposes amending the Articles of Association in line with the new Swiss Federal Act on Intermediated Securities (FISA) that came into effect on January 1, 2010. Following the proposed change to the Articles of Association, Credit Suisse Group AG's registered shares will be regarded as uncertificated stock and managed as intermediated securities. This amendment to the Articles of Association is in line with the most up-to-date practice of Swiss listed companies.

2009 Compensation Report

The 2009 Compensation Report, which forms part of Credit Suisse Group AG's Annual Report, will be presented to the Annual General Meeting for a consultative vote.

Invitation to the 2009 Annual General Meeting and Agenda

Cautionary statement regarding forward-looking information

This press release contains statements that constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act. In addition, in the future we, and others on our behalf, may make statements that constitute forward-looking statements. Such forward-looking statements may include, without limitation, statements relating to the following:

- our plans, objectives or goals;
- our future economic performance or prospects;
- the potential effect on our future performance of certain contingencies; and
- assumptions underlying any such statements.

Words such as “believes,” “anticipates,” “expects,” “intends” and “plans” and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements but are not the exclusive means of identifying such statements. We do not intend to update these forward-looking statements except as may be required by applicable securities laws. By their very nature, forward-looking statements involve inherent risks and uncertainties, both general and specific, and risks exist that predictions, forecasts, projections and other outcomes described or implied in forward-looking statements will not be achieved. We caution you that a number of important factors could cause results to differ materially from the plans, objectives, expectations, estimates and intentions expressed in such forward-looking statements. These factors include:

- the ability to maintain sufficient liquidity and access capital markets;
 - market and interest rate fluctuations;
- the strength of the global economy in general and the strength of the economies of the countries in which we conduct our operations, in particular the risk of a continued US or global economic downturn in 2010 and beyond;
 - the direct and indirect impacts of continuing deterioration of subprime and other real estate markets;
- further adverse rating actions by credit rating agencies in respect of structured credit products or other credit-related exposures or of monoline insurers;
 - the ability of counterparties to meet their obligations to us;
 - the effects of, and changes in, fiscal, monetary, trade and tax policies, and currency fluctuations;
 - political and social developments, including war, civil unrest or terrorist activity;
- the possibility of foreign exchange controls, expropriation, nationalization or confiscation of assets in countries in which we conduct our operations;
 - operational factors such as systems failure, human error, or the failure to implement procedures properly;

- actions taken by regulators with respect to our business and practices in one or more of the countries in which we conduct our operations;
 - the effects of changes in laws, regulations or accounting policies or practices;
- competition in geographic and business areas in which we conduct our operations;
 - the ability to retain and recruit qualified personnel;
- the ability to maintain our reputation and promote our brand;
- the ability to increase market share and control expenses;
 - technological changes;
- the timely development and acceptance of our new products and services and the perceived overall value of these products and services by users;
- acquisitions, including the ability to integrate acquired businesses successfully, and divestitures, including the ability to sell non-core assets;
 - the adverse resolution of litigation and other contingencies;
- the ability to achieve our cost efficiency goals and other cost targets; and
- our success at managing the risks involved in the foregoing.

We caution you that the foregoing list of important factors is not exclusive. When evaluating forward-looking statements, you should carefully consider the foregoing factors and other uncertainties and events, as well as the information set forth in our Form 20-F Item 3 – Key Information – Risk Factors.
