PROXY STATEMENT FOR THE ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS
To Be Held December 30, 2009

VOTING AND PROXY

This proxy statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the board of directors of Ableauctions.com, Inc., a Florida corporation (referred to as the “Company”, “we”, “our”, “us” or “Ableauctions”) for use at our annual meeting of shareholders to be held at the office of Broughton Law Corporation, Suite 700, 595 Burrard Street, Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada, V7X1S8 on December 30, 2009, at 10:30 a.m. local time, and at any meeting following adjournment thereof. The notice of annual meeting, this proxy statement and the accompanying proxy card are being mailed to shareholders on or about November 30, 2009.

Revocability of Proxy and Voting of Shares

Any shareholder giving a proxy has the power to revoke it at any time before it is exercised. The proxy may be revoked by filing an instrument of revocation or a duly executed proxy bearing a later date with our president at our executive offices. The proxy may also be revoked by attending the meeting and voting in person. If it is not revoked, and assuming it is properly executed, dated and returned, the proxy will be voted at the meeting in accordance with the shareholder’s instructions indicated on the proxy card. If no instructions are indicated, the proxy will be voted FOR all proposals, and in accordance with the judgment of the proxy holders as to any other matter that may be properly brought before the meeting or any adjournments thereof.

Record Date, Voting Rights, Outstanding Shares and Dissenters’ Rights

The board of directors has fixed November 27, 2009 as the record date (the “Record Date”) for determining holders of our common stock, $0.001 par value per share, who are entitled to vote at the meeting. As of the Record Date, we had 8,114,197 shares of common stock issued and outstanding. Each share of common stock is entitled to one vote.

One-third of the shares of common stock issued and outstanding are required to reach a quorum. If a quorum is met, in order for the proposals to be approved by the shareholders, the holders of 50.01% or more of all of the outstanding shares entitled to vote on the matters presented must vote in favor of each of the proposals. For purposes of determining whether the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares (over 50.01%) entitled to vote on a proposal has been obtained, abstentions and shares held in “street name” by brokers or nominees who indicate on their proxies that they do not have discretionary authority to vote such shares as to these matters (“broker non-votes”) will be included in the number of shares present and entitled to vote but will have no effect on the vote.

Votes cast by proxy or in person at the annual meeting will be tabulated by the Inspector of Election, in conjunction with information received from our transfer agent. The Inspector of Election will also determine whether or not a quorum is present.

No shareholder has the right to dissent to or to receive an appraisal of his common stock in conjunction with the proposals to be voted upon.

Solicitation

We will bear the cost of solicitation of proxies, including expenses in connection with preparing and mailing this proxy statement. Copies of solicitation materials will be furnished to brokerage houses, nominees, fiduciaries and custodians to forward to beneficial owners of common stock held in their names. We will reimburse brokerage firms and other persons representing beneficial owners of common stock for their reasonable expenses in forwarding solicitation materials to the owners. In addition to original solicitation of proxies by mail, our directors, officers and other employees may, without additional compensation, solicit proxies by telephone, facsimile and personal interviews.

We will only deliver one proxy statement to multiple shareholders sharing an address unless we have received contrary instructions from one or more of the shareholders. We will promptly deliver a separate copy of this proxy statement to a shareholder at a shared address to which a single copy of the document was delivered upon oral or written request to:

SUMMARY TERM SHEET

The following summary highlights selected information from this proxy statement regarding the first proposal to be considered and voted upon by the shareholders, and may not contain all of the information that is important to you. Accordingly, we encourage you to read carefully this proxy statement, its attachments and the documents referred to or incorporated by reference into this proxy statement. Each item in this summary includes a page reference directing you to a more complete description of that item.

The Acquisition (page 8)

Ableauctions proposes to acquire a 100% interest in a coal mining and coking business based in the People's Republic of China, which is referred to throughout this proxy statement as "SinoCoking," by means of a share exchange transaction ("Acquisition"). In connection with this Acquisition, Ableauctions will issue up to 13.2 million shares of its common stock to the shareholders of SinoCoking, which will constitute approximately 97% of the Company's common stock that will be outstanding after giving effect to the Acquisition. The Acquisition will be accomplished pursuant to a Share Exchange Agreement dated as of July 17, 2009, and amended on November 20, 2009, which Ableauctions entered into with SinoCoking and its shareholders, a copy of which is included hereto as Attachment A.

The Acquisition will involve the acquisition by Ableauctions of 100% of the issued and outstanding capital stock of SinoCoking from the shareholders of SinoCoking. As a result of the share exchange:

- We will acquire and own 100% of the issued and outstanding shares of capital stock of SinoCoking from the shareholders of SinoCoking, making SinoCoking our wholly-owned subsidiary;
- We will issue up to 13.2 million shares of our common stock to the former shareholders of SinoCoking;
- The shareholders of Ableauctions immediately prior to the Acquisition will, after completion of the Acquisition, own approximately 3% of the outstanding shares of the Company; and
- Following the Acquisition, the Company will cease operating the Ableauctions business, and the business of SinoCoking will be continued and will constitute the principal business and operations of the Company.

The Parties to the Acquisition

The parties to the Acquisition are:

and

Abdul and Hanifa Ladha, as shareholders of Ableauctions

What Ableauctions Shareholders Will Receive as a Result of the Transaction (page 65)

Prior to the consummation of the Acquisition, the Company will distribute all of the assets relating to the Ableauctions business to a liquidating trust or other entity (referred to in this proxy statement as the “Liquidating Entity”), which will also assume or otherwise dispose of the liabilities, for the benefit of the Company’s existing shareholders. At this time we do not know and we cannot predict the timing of the sale of our assets, the costs related to the liquidation of our assets or the amount of net proceeds, if any, that will be distributed to our shareholders in connection with the plan of liquidation. Shareholders may receive nothing as a result of the liquidation of our assets if the proceeds we receive from the sale of our assets are approximately equal to, or less than, our liabilities and the costs and fees associated with the liquidation. (See the section in this proxy statement entitled “Proposal 2 – Approval of Terms of Plan of Liquidation”.)

Potential Conflict of Interest between Abdul Ladha and the Ableauctions Shareholders (page 65)

Mr. Ladha is an executive officer of the Company, and a director as well as a major shareholder. Since Mr. Ladha is also one of our creditors, we will be required to pay any loans or other amounts owed to him, which are described in the section of this proxy statement entitled “Proposal 2 – Approval of Terms of Plan of Liquidation”, prior to distributing any proceeds to our shareholders. This could raise a conflict of interest between Mr. Ladha and our remaining shareholders, because Mr. Ladha may benefit from an expedient sale of our assets for less than their fair market value (as opposed to a less expedient sale of assets at potentially higher sale prices) resulting in earlier repayment of the amounts owed to him. However, no sales of our assets or distributions may be made without the approval of a majority of the trustees or managers who, other than Mr. Ladha, will be independent.

Brief Description of Business of Ableauctions Presently Conducted (page 15)

We provide liquidation and merchandizing services along with auction and point-of-sale technology to businesses to assist them with managing the sale of their products. In the past we provided the online auction technology and point-of-sale services directly to our customers. On May 21, 2009 and June 1, 2009, respectively, we licensed each of these technologies to unrelated third parties who pay us a percentage of what they earn by providing these services. We also provide mortgages and loans to individuals and companies, and develop real estate.

In deciding to approve the merger, one of the factors that the Ableauctions board of directors considered was the Estimate Valuation Report and Related Fairness Opinion of its advisor, RWE Growth Partners, Inc. (the “Report”), which provided that in the opinion of RWE, as of August 31, 2009, the aggregate consideration was fair to the holders of shares of Ableauctions common stock from a financial point of view. A discussion of the Estimate Valuation Report and Related Fairness Opinion is included in this proxy statement. You are urged to read the entire discussion carefully.

Our Reasons for the Acquisition (page 10)

Our live auction business was adversely effected by the termination of the eBay Live Auctions platform in December 2008 and our liquidation business continues to be adversely effected by the weakness in the U.S. economy. We do not believe that these operations are likely to be profitable in the future, therefore we have been exploring a broad range of options in an attempt to provide value to our shareholders, including potential business combinations. In February 2009, we obtained a proposal from SinoCoking, which is described in more detail in the section of this proxy statement entitled “Proposal 1 – Approval of Acquisition”. On July 17, 2009, the board of directors approved the terms of the Share Exchange Agreement with SinoCoking.

SinoCoking’s management has recently decided that it is in SinoCoking’s best interest to become a publicly traded company in the U.S. to better position the company to raise capital from outside sources. In addition, management believes that for SinoCoking to effectively compete in its industry and realize its potential, it must have access to capital at a reasonable cost.

SinoCoking’s management considered a traditional initial public offering in the U.S.; however, it concluded that the cost, time and market risks associated with such a transaction outweighed the potential benefits. Management of SinoCoking then explored the possibility of acquiring a public shell for purposes of completing a reverse take-over transaction. SinoCoking’s management believes that a reverse take-over by a public reporting company that is trading on a national exchange and reporting with the SEC would provide SinoCoking with the benefits that it is seeking by becoming a publicly traded company.

Transactions Related to the Acquisition (pages 65-73)

Conditioned upon closing of the Acquisition, we will (i) adopt and execute a plan of liquidation whereby the pre-acquisition business, assets and liabilities of Ableactions will be placed into the Liquidating Entity for the benefit of the Ableactions shareholders, (ii) we will conduct a reverse stock split of our outstanding common stock, within a range of 1-for-20 to 1-for-50, with the exact ratio to be determined by our board of directors, (iii) we will change our name to “SinoCoking Coal & Coke Chemical Industries Inc.”, and (iv) we will conduct a financing with gross proceeds of over $50 million, in the form of debt or equity securities, which may involve the issuance of shares of our common stock which will exceed 20% of our then-outstanding shares (these items are sometimes collectively referred to in this proxy statement as the “Transactions”). Although we have entered into a binding Share Exchange Agreement, the board of directors has approved the Transactions, and Mr. and Mrs. Ladha have entered into a voting agreement with us requiring them to vote in favor of the proposals, nonetheless we cannot provide assurance that the Acquisition will be successfully consummated. If the Acquisition is not consummated for any reason, the Transactions described above, including the liquidation of our pre-acquisition business, reverse stock split, name change and financing, will be abandoned without any further action by our shareholders.

Proposed Financing

The closing of the Acquisition will be contingent on the simultaneous closing of a proposed financing of $50 million to $75 million, which may be comprised of debt or equity securities or both, to be determined by the board of directors in consultation with SinoCoking. This contingency may be waived by SinoCoking.

The financing is expected to result in dilution to the holders of shares after giving effect to the Acquisition, including both the shareholders of Ableauctions immediately prior to the Acquisition who will own approximately 3% of the outstanding shares, and the former shareholders of SinoCoking who will own 97% of the outstanding shares. Since, as of the date of this proxy statement, the terms of the financing have not been determined, the Company is unable to determine the degree of dilution that will result to the Company's shareholders. Solely for purposes of illustration, if investors in the financing were to be issued new shares constituting 20% of the outstanding shares of the Company's common stock post-financing, then the amount of dilution would be as shown below:

	Pre-Financing(1)		Post-Financing(2)
Investors in the Financing	-		20.0	%
Ableauctions Shareholders(3)	3.0	%	2.40	%
Former SinoCoking Shareholders (4)	97	%	77.60	%
	100.00	%	100.00	%

- (1) Percentage of outstanding shares of Ableauctions held by shareholders after giving effect to the Acquisition, but excluding the effect of any financing.
- (2) Percentage of outstanding shares of Ableauctions held by shareholders after giving effect to both the Acquisition and a hypothetical financing involving the issuance of shares of common stock constituting 20% of the total issued and outstanding shares post-financing.
- (3) Holders of all Ableauctions shares outstanding after giving effect to the Acquisition. These are the holders of 100% of the issued and outstanding shares of Ableauctions common stock of prior to the Acquisition.
- (4) Holders of shares of SinoCoking, who agreed to transfer their SinoCoking shares to Ableauctions in exchange for shares of Ableauctions under the Share Exchange Agreement.

If the financing occurs, the actual total number of shares of common stock issued in the financing could be greater than or less than 20% of the total number of issued and outstanding shares of the Company post-financing.

Effect of the Transactions on Shareholders of Ableauctions (page 8)

If the Transactions are consummated, the persons who, after the reverse stock split, were shareholders of Ableauctions prior to the closing will continue to hold shares of Ableauctions common stock, and in addition these shareholders will become beneficiaries or beneficial owners of the Liquidating Entity. The pre-acquisition business, assets and liabilities of Ableauctions will be transferred to the Liquidating Entity, which will then proceed to wind down the business, pay liabilities, sell and liquidate property, and distribute the net proceeds to the beneficiaries or the beneficial owners of the Liquidating Entity. In addition, the shares of Ableauctions common stock held by the Ableauctions shareholders immediately prior to the Acquisition will be diluted, such that the holders of 100% of the issued and outstanding shares of Ableauctions common stock pre-Acquisition will hold 3% of the issued and outstanding shares of Ableauctions common stock post-transaction. Following the closing of the Acquisition, the business, as well as the properties, assets and liabilities of Ableauctions that are not transferred to the Liquidating Entity or assumed by it, shall become those of SinoCoking.

Interest of Certain Persons in Matters to be Acted Upon (page 65)

Abdul Ladha is our Chief Executive Officer, President Chief Financial Officer and Chairman of the board of directors, a significant shareholder, and a creditor of the Company. If the Acquisition, Plan of Liquidation, and related matters described in Proposals 1 through 4 are implemented, Mr. Abdul's employment as Chief Executive Officer President, Chief Financial Officer, and Chairman will terminate, and the Company will pay him certain fees and expenses as more fully discussed in the section of this proxy statement entitled "Proposal 2 – Approval of Terms of Plan of Liquidation" on page 65. At this time we anticipate that the total of all amounts owed to Mr. Ladha will be approximately $1,197,536. Furthermore, we expect to appoint the members of our board of directors as the managers or the trustees of the Liquidating Entity, and we expect to pay each of these individuals a fee for managing the Liquidating Entity, although no final determination of how the fee will be calculated has been made. Except for the foregoing, no other officer, director or associate of such persons has any substantial direct or indirect interest in the Acquisition or Plan of Liquidation that differs from or that is in addition to interests of the other shareholders of the Company. A description of the transactions entered into by the Company and Mr. Ladha, his affiliates or other members of the board of directors is included in the section entitled "Certain Relationships and Related Party Transactions" on page 63.

All Proposals Relating to the Acquisition Must Be Approved to Complete the Acquisition and Related Transactions

The Company's implementation of Proposals 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 are conditioned upon shareholder approval of each and every of the Proposals 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5. If the Company waives the implementation of Proposal 5, the implementation of Proposals 1, 2, 3 and 4 will be conditioned on shareholder approval of Proposals 1, 2, 3 and 4.

Vote Required for Approval of the Proposals and Election of Directors

One-third of the shares of common stock issued and outstanding are required to reach a quorum for the annual meeting. If a quorum is met, in order for the proposals (other than election of the directors) to be approved by the shareholders, the holders of 50.01% or more of all of the outstanding shares entitled to vote on the matters presented must vote in favor of each of the proposals. For purposes of determining whether the affirmative vote of shareholders entitled to vote on a proposal has been obtained, abstentions and shares held in "street name" by brokers or nominees who indicate on their proxies that they do not have discretionary authority to vote such shares as to these matters ("broker non-votes") will be included in the number of shares present and entitled to vote but will have no effect on the vote. Mr. Ladha has indicated that he intends to vote in favor of all of the proposals and for the nominees to the board of directors. As of the date of this proxy statement, Mr. Ladha and his spouse beneficially own 3,981,483 shares of our outstanding common stock, which represents approximately 49% of our issued and outstanding shares of common stock on the Record Date. On July 17, 2009 Mr. Ladha and his spouse entered into a voting agreement with SinoCoking. A description of this agreement is included in the section of this proxy statement entitled "Certain Relationships and Related Party Transactions" on page 63.

Vote Required for Election of Directors

If a quorum is met, directors will be elected by a plurality of the votes cast by the shares entitled to vote in the election. Shareholders do not have the right to cumulate their votes for directors.

Dissenters' or Appraisal Rights

Shareholders will not be entitled to dissenters' or appraisal rights as a result of the Transactions.

Accounting Treatment

For accounting purposes, the Acquisition will be treated as a reverse acquisition which results in the legal acquirer, the Company, being treated as being acquired by SinoCoking under purchase accounting.

Effective Date of the Transactions

A definitive closing date for the Transactions has not been established at this time, however, management anticipates that the Transactions will close not later than April 30, 2010.

OVERVIEW OF PROPOSALS

This proxy statement includes seven proposals requiring shareholder action, numbered below (each, a “Proposal”):

1. Approval of a plan of share exchange in the form of a Share Exchange Agreement, under which we will acquire SinoCoking by issuing up to 13.2 million shares of our common stock (constituting 97% of the total shares expected to be outstanding post-acquisition) to the shareholders of Top Favour Limited, a British Virgin Islands corporation and parent holding company of Pingdingshan Hongyuan Energy Science and Technology Development Co., Ltd., which controls Henan Province Pingdingshan Hongli Coal & Coking Co., Ltd. and its subsidiaries (collectively “SinoCoking”);
2. Approval of the terms of a plan of liquidation whereby the pre-acquisition business, assets and liabilities of Ableauctions will be placed into a Liquidating Entity for the benefit of the Ableauctions shareholders, as a condition to the closing of the Acquisition;
3. Approval of amendments to our Articles of Incorporation to effect the Reverse Stock Split, which will be within a range of 1-for-20 to 1-for-50 as determined by the board of directors;
4. Approval of a change of our name from “Ableauctions.com, Inc.” to “SinoCoking Coal & Coke Chemical Industries Inc.”;
5. Approval, in connection with a financing, of the sale, issuance or potential issuance of our common stock which may equal or exceed 20% or more of our outstanding stock immediately after giving effect to the foregoing share exchange;
6. Election of 4 persons to our board of directors; and
7. Ratifying the appointment of Cinnamon Jang Willoughby & Company, Chartered Accountants as our independent auditors for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2009.

The proposals are discussed in more detail below.

PROPOSALS

PROPOSAL 1

APPROVAL OF ACQUISITION

We intend to acquire a 100% interest in SinoCoking by means of a share exchange transaction. In connection with the Acquisition, the Company will issue up to 13.2 million shares of its common stock to the shareholders of SinoCoking, which will constitute approximately 97% of the Company’s common stock that will be outstanding after giving effect to the Acquisition.

Section 713 of the NYSE Amex Company Guide (or successor provision) requires approval by our shareholders for the acquisition of stock or assets of another company in the following circumstances (in relevant part):

- (b) when the issuance or potential issuance of additional shares will result in a change of control of the issuer, including, but not limited to, those issuances that constitute a Reverse Merger as specified in §341.

The Company's board of directors has approved the acquisition of SinoCoking through a share exchange transaction with the holders of capital stock of SinoCoking. Under Florida law, the shareholders of the Company must approve the plan of share exchange in connection with the Acquisition. In addition, the transaction contemplated by the Share Exchange Agreement would be considered a "reverse merger" under the rules of the NYSE Amex Company Guide, and accordingly, the transaction must be approved by the shareholders of the Company in order to comply with the requirements of NYSE Amex Equities.

DESCRIPTION OF THE ACQUISITION

The Acquisition is described below, and the full text of the Share Exchange Agreement dated as of July 17, 2009, as amended on November 20, 2009 (the "Share Exchange Agreement") setting forth the terms and conditions of the Acquisition is attached hereto as Attachment A.

The Acquisition will consist of the acquisition of 100% of the issued and outstanding capital stock of SinoCoking from the shareholders of SinoCoking. As a result of the share exchange:

- We will acquire and own 100% of the issued and outstanding shares of capital stock of SinoCoking from the shareholders of SinoCoking, making SinoCoking our wholly-owned subsidiary;
- We will issue up to 13.2 million shares of our common stock to the former shareholders of SinoCoking;
- The shareholders of Ableauctions immediately prior to the Acquisition will, after completion of the Acquisition, own approximately 3% of the outstanding shares of the Company; and
- The former shareholders of SinoCoking will own approximately 97% of the outstanding shares of the Company.

Ableauctions has agreed to adopt a plan of liquidation reasonably acceptable to SinoCoking under which it shall establish a Liquidating Entity for purposes of assuming outstanding liabilities and distributing the assets of Ableauctions to its shareholders as of a certain record date prior to the closing of the Acquisition. (See the section of this proxy statement entitled "Proposal 2 – Approval of Terms of Plan of Liquidation".) Ableauctions and Abdul Ladha agreed to cause such plan of liquidation to include a covenant to indemnify the Top Favour shareholders for certain claims, damages, costs and expenses, and provide for a reserve fund of at least $1,000,000 in cash, cash equivalents or other assets acceptable to SinoCoking which shall remain in place for at least 12 months following the closing of the Acquisition and shall be used to discharge any remaining liabilities of Ableauctions not discharged prior to closing. The plan of liquidation will also include a covenant to indemnify Abdul Ladha for certain claims, damages, costs and expenses.

Following the Acquisition, the Company will cease operating the Ableauctions business, and the business of SinoCoking will be continued and will constitute the principal business and operations of the Company.

The closing of the Acquisition will be contingent on the simultaneous closing of a proposed financing of $50 million to $75 million, which may be comprised of debt or equity securities or both, to be determined by the board of directors in consultation with SinoCoking. SinoCoking may waive this condition.

As a condition to and prior to the Acquisition, we agreed to amend our Articles of Incorporation to effect a reverse stock split which will range between 1-for-20 and 1-for-50 and change our name to "SinoCoking Coal & Coke Chemical Industries Inc." (See the section in this proxy statement entitled "Proposal 3 – Reverse Stock Split and Approval of Amendment to Articles of Incorporation"). Following the Acquisition, members of SinoCoking's management will also be appointed as our officers and directors, as described in this proxy statement.

In addition to the conditions described above, the Share Exchange Agreement contains representations, warranties and conditions customary for transactions of this nature. The Share Exchange Agreement provides for indemnification of SinoCoking and its shareholders by Ableauctions, and indemnification of Ableauctions and Mr. Ladha by Top Favour, for breaches of representations, warranties and covenants. In the event that any of the conditions to the Acquisition are not satisfied, the Acquisition may not be consummated. Neither the Company nor SinoCoking can provide any assurances that the Acquisition will ultimately be consummated.

Following the consummation of the Acquisition contemplated by the Share Exchange Agreement, our hypothetical capital structure, in the event of either a 1-for-20 reverse stock split or a 1-for-50 reverse stock split, would be as follows:

Category of Holders	Shares (1-for-20 reverse stock split)(1)	Shares (1-for-50 reverse stock split)(1)	Percentage Owned (2)
SinoCoking Shareholders	13,117,952	5,247,181	97%
Original Ableauctions Shareholders	415,710	162,284	3%
TOTAL(2):	13,523,662	5,409,465	100%

(1) Subject to adjustment to address fractional shares. Each of the Company's shareholders entitled to a fractional share of the Company's common stock as a result of the reverse stock split will receive a whole share of the Company's common stock in lieu of such fractional share.

(2) Excludes the effect of the anticipated financing, the terms of which have yet to be determined.

For accounting purposes, the Acquisition will be treated as a reverse acquisition which results in the legal acquirer, the Company, being treated as being acquired by SinoCoking under purchase accounting.

SinoCoking has agreed to file a listing application with the NYSE Amex Equities exchange, with the intent of maintaining the listing of Ableauctions' shares on the exchange.

Closing of the Acquisition will require the satisfaction of a number of conditions, briefly described below. Among these conditions, the current officers and directors of Ableauctions must resign. The board of directors of Ableauctions must appoint Jianhua Lv as Chairman of the board of directors, and appoint his designees to the board of directors to take office immediately after the closing. As of the date of this proxy statement, SinoCoking intends to have Mr. Lv appointed as Chief Executive Officer, President and Chairman of the Board, and Mr. Zan Wu as the Chief Financial Officer, Treasurer and Secretary. At the time of closing, Ableauctions must have completed its transfer of the prior business, assets and liabilities to the Liquidating Entity, and Ableauctions must have no remaining assets or liabilities immediately prior to closing. The shareholders of Ableauctions entitled to vote at the annual meeting must have voted to approve all proposals. Any third party consents that Ableauctions is required to obtain must have been obtained prior to closing. Ableauctions must have completed its due diligence investigation. Finally, the parties intend to concurrently consummate or shall have secured an irrevocable commitment from a bona fide third party to consummate a debt or equity financing to raise up to $75 million in gross proceeds. In the event that any of the conditions in the Share Exchange Agreement are not satisfied or waived prior to closing, the Acquisition may not be consummated.

Under the Share Exchange Agreement, the Acquisition may be terminated under the following circumstances:

- (i) by both parties if Ableauctions and SinoCoking mutually agree to terminate the Acquisition; by either Ableauctions or the Top Favour Shareholders if the Acquisition shall not have been consummated for any reason by April 30, 2010; provided that the failure to consummate the transaction is not caused by the party that is terminating;
- (ii)

- (iii) by either Ableauctions or the Top Favour Shareholders if a governmental entity shall have issued an order, decree or ruling or taken any other action, in any case having the effect of permanently restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the Transactions, which order, decree, ruling or other action is final and non-appealable;
- (iv) by the Top Favour Shareholders, upon a material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement on the part of Ableauctions or Mr. and Mrs. Ladha provided in the Share Exchange Agreement, or if any representation or warranty of Ableauctions shall have become materially untrue, unless cured in accordance with the terms of the Share Exchange Agreement;
- (v) by Ableauctions, upon a material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement on the part of Top Favour or the Top Favour Shareholders in the Share Exchange Agreement, or if any representation or warranty of Top Favour or the Top Favour Shareholders shall have become materially untrue, unless cured in accordance with the terms of the Share Exchange Agreement;
- (vi) by Ableauctions, if the results of the due diligence investigation described in the Share Exchange Agreement by Ableauctions is unsatisfactory, and SinoCoking is not able to cure the unsatisfactory condition prior to closing;
- (vii) by Top Favour if Royal Bank of Canada, one of Ableauctions' lenders, refuses to approve the assumption by the Liquidating Entity of the liabilities and guarantees arising from certain loan agreements; or
- (viii) by Ableauctions if (i) Royal Bank of Canada refuses to approve the assumption by the Liquidating Entity of the liabilities and guarantees arising from such loan agreements and (ii) Top Favour does not waive the failure to assign such liability and guarantees.

A definitive closing date for the Transactions has not been established at this time, however, management anticipates that the Transaction will close not later than April 30, 2010.

The foregoing "Description of the Acquisition" is qualified in its entirety by the specific language of the Share Exchange Agreement, which is attached to this proxy statement as Attachment A.

Our Reasons for the Acquisition and Related Transactions

A significant segment of our business has involved providing on-line liquidation and merchandizing services, including auction and point-of-sale technology, to businesses to assist them in managing the sale of their products. On April 15, 2008 we announced that we had been notified by eBay that eBay intended to wind down the operations of its eBay Live Auctions platform effective December 31, 2008. This decision, along with the continued weakness in the U.S. economy, has negatively impacted the revenues earned by our liquidation and live auction broadcast services. In order to address the adverse effect of these events on our revenues and operations, we began exploring a broad range of options that included taking the company in a new direction while also expanding our investment portfolio that is comprised of loans, real property, development property and a joint venture. While we expect to realize record revenues in 2009 as a result of our investment portfolio and specifically the Gruv development project that we started in 2005, we believe that expanding and focusing on this segment of our business alone will not provide immediate value to our shareholders because of the significant amount of capital and the length of time it takes to develop a project, and the weakness in the global economy, which makes raising and borrowing large sums of capital difficult.

Therefore, we have been continuously exploring business opportunities, including potential business combinations. In February 2009, we obtained a proposal for the Acquisition from SinoCoking as described above. On July 17, 2009, the board of directors approved the Share Exchange Agreement with SinoCoking.

In approving the Acquisition, our board of directors focused on two significant advantages to our shareholders.

First, the Company's assets will not be combined with those of SinoCoking nor spun-off in a new corporation, but will, instead, be liquidated and the proceeds distributed pro-rata to our shareholders after the Company's liabilities are paid. SinoCoking has no interest in continuing the Company's business, therefore, leaving the assets in the Company after the Acquisition would provide no benefit to our shareholders. Transferring the assets into a subsidiary and distributing the subsidiary's securities would provide our shareholders with securities that have no market and very little, if any, value. By liquidating the assets in an orderly fashion our shareholders will receive something of immediate benefit, namely, cash.

Second, our shareholders will continue to hold their common stock in the Company after the Acquisition. While the percentage ownership of the outstanding common stock held by our shareholders will be significantly diluted, we believe that SinoCoking's business is strong, that the recent decline in coke prices, reduced demand for coke from steel producers, and the increase in prices for thermal coal do not represent long-term trends, and that demand levels that existed prior to the sharp pullback in global economic conditions will be restored and possibly exceeded in the long term. We also believe that the expansion plans announced by SinoCoking, which include a new coking factory and related facilities that are expected to have a coke producing capacity of 900,000 tons per year, will increase the potential long-term value of the business for our shareholders. SinoCoking earns substantial revenues, is a profitable entity and we believe that it has future growth potential.

In addition, SinoCoking is submitting an application to NYSE Amex to list its common stock. We believe that NYSE Amex will approve SinoCoking's application, which will mean that the Company's shareholders will continue to have a stable market in which to trade their shares of common stock.

Our directors also considered the Report that RWE Growth Partners, Inc. rendered as of August 31, 2009 which stated that the consideration to be paid by Ableauctions to the holders of SinoCoking was fair, from a financial point of view, to Ableauctions and to the holders of its common stock.

Finally, our directors took into consideration their knowledge of the Company's business, operations, financial condition, earnings and prospects and the current economic climate, which may continue to be depressed for many months, and which will make it difficult for the Company to grow or to achieve profitability. Based on the foregoing, our directors determined that the Acquisition was more favorable to our shareholders than other alternatives reasonably available to us, which included continuing to operate our business, finding another compatible business to acquire, or liquidating our auction and liquidation operations. Our auction and liquidation businesses have not been profitable, therefore, in order to continue to operate our business we will likely need to obtain additional funding. In the past, we have had to rely on Mr. Ladha for loans, however he is under no obligation to provide financing to us. We have also looked for businesses compatible to our auction and liquidation businesses that might be integrated with our operations, but due to the current downturn in the global economy, our searches have not been successful. Finally, we believe that our shareholders will obtain more value from the liquidation of our assets in conjunction with the Acquisition (while maintaining some equity interest in the combined entity), in contrast with the continuation of our business without engaging in the proposed Transactions.

Our directors also considered the disadvantages of the Acquisition to our shareholders. The disadvantages included the substantial dilution to our existing shareholders, whose ownership of the Company's outstanding common stock will be reduced from 100% to approximately 3% after giving effect to the Acquisition, and will be further reduced if a financing involving the issuance of equity securities is completed, and the fact that SinoCoking's shareholders will be in a position to control substantially all matters requiring approval by the Company's shareholders, including the election of a majority of the Company's directors and the approval of other business transactions. The board of directors concluded that the overall advantages to the Company's shareholders outweighed the disadvantages that the board of directors had identified in its analysis. The foregoing discussion of the factors considered by our board of directors is not intended to be exhaustive. Our board of directors did not quantify or assign any relative weights to the factors it considered in reaching its decision to declare the Acquisition advisable, in determining that the Acquisition is fair to and in the best interests of Ableauctions' shareholders, and in approving the Share Exchange Agreement and the Transactions contemplated by the Share Exchange Agreement. Additionally, individual directors may have given different weight to different factors. Our board of directors considered all of the above factors as a whole, including discussions with and questioning of our management and financial and legal advisors, and, overall, considered the factors to be favorable to and in support of its decision.

SinoCoking's Reasons for the Acquisition

SinoCoking has been a private operating company in China, which began with the establishment of Henan Province Pingdingshan Hongli Coal & Coke Company, Ltd. (referred to herein as "Hongli") in 1996, with a focus on coal mining. The company later expanded its business activities to include coke production and electricity generation. In 2003, Hongli acquired Baofeng Coking Factory of Henan Province ("Baofeng Coking"), which now constitutes SinoCoking's coking operations. In 2007, Hongli established a wholly owned subsidiary named Baofeng County Hongchang Coal Co. Ltd. ("Hongchang Coal"), which presently holds and operates its coal mining and washing operations. In 2006, Hongli established another wholly owned subsidiary named Baofeng Hongguang Power Co., Ltd. ("Hongguang Power"), which now holds and operates its electricity generating business.

Up to the present time, SinoCoking has been financed primarily by its founder, Mr. Jianhua Lv, and through cash flow generated by the business. However, the scale of SinoCoking's business expansion has been limited by capital constraints. Over the past year, new opportunities were presented to SinoCoking including expansion of its existing facilities. SinoCoking's management decided that it was in SinoCoking's best interest to become a publicly traded company in the U.S. to better position the company to raise capital from outside sources. In addition, management believed that for SinoCoking to effectively compete in its industry and realize its potential, it must have access to capital at a reasonable cost.

SinoCoking's management considered a traditional initial public offering in the U.S.; however, it concluded that the cost, time and market risks associated with such a transaction outweighed the potential benefits. Management of SinoCoking then explored the possibility of combining with a publicly traded shell company in a reverse take-over transaction. SinoCoking's management believes that a reverse take-over by a public reporting company that is trading on a national exchange and reporting with the SEC would provide SinoCoking with the benefits that it is seeking by becoming a publicly traded company.

Contacts between SinoCoking and the Company

In the last half of 2008, SinoCoking considered proposals to become a publicly traded company in the U.S. Numerous meetings were held by SinoCoking's management, and its management decided that it was in the best interests of the company to become a public reporting company through a business combination with a U.S. publicly traded company. Representatives were hired to look for a suitable vehicle for a reverse takeover. Such representatives began discussions with the Company in May of 2008. SinoCoking conducted a due diligence investigation of the Company and proposed transaction, and determined that the Company was a suitable candidate for a reverse takeover transaction. Both companies consulted with their respective financial, legal and tax advisors regarding the financial terms and structure of a proposed merger and a non-binding letter of intent was signed in February 2009. Abdul Ladha, the Company's Chief Executive Officer, President and Chief Financial Officer, represented the Company in discussions, and the parties discussed the proposed business combination including issues related to tax matters, a fair merger exchange ratio taking into account a reverse stock split, appointment of a new board of directors, a liquidating distribution of Ableauctions' assets to the Company's existing shareholders, and the need for legal and accounting due diligence investigations.

Through the first quarter of 2009, both parties continued to conduct due diligence investigations and began the formal process of drafting the Share Exchange Agreement. The Company's board was satisfied with the exchange ratio based upon the fair value and net assets contributed by SinoCoking and was satisfied with SinoCoking's current financial statements and management team. The Company's board concluded that a reverse takeover with SinoCoking, coupled with a liquidating distribution of the Company's assets, was in the best interest of the Company's existing shareholders. SinoCoking's board was satisfied with the results of its due diligence investigation and the terms of the proposed business combination. On July 17, 2009, a definitive Share Exchange Agreement was executed by SinoCoking and its shareholders and by the Company and Mr. and Mrs. Ladha. The text of the Share Exchange Agreement, excluding the corresponding schedules and exhibits, is being furnished with this proxy statement.

The consideration for the Acquisition was determined in arm's length negotiations between the Company's board of directors, represented by Mr. Ladha, and Mr. Lv and SinoCoking's legal representatives, representing the shareholders of SinoCoking. Factors taken into consideration by the Company included the strength of SinoCoking's operations including financial condition and historical results of operations, the Company's plan to liquidate its assets and distribute them to its shareholders, SinoCoking's agreement to allow the Company's shareholders to continue to hold their common stock (which would allow them to participate in SinoCoking's future growth), and the views and opinions of the respective managements of Ableauctions and SinoCoking regarding the relative enterprise values of a liquidated Company and SinoCoking. During the course of negotiations, the number of shares of Ableauctions to be issued in the Share Exchange was then determined based on these factors and by mutual agreement of the management of Ableauctions and SinoCoking.

Report of Advisor to Ableauctions

On September 10, 2009, Ableauctions received an Estimate Valuation Report and Related Fairness Opinion, referred to in this discussion as the "Report," from RWE Growth Partners, Inc., referred to in this discussion as "RWE", relating to the liquidation and Acquisition. The complete text of the Report, dated September 9, 2009, sets forth, as of August 31, 2009 (the "Valuation Date"), the assumptions made, matters considered, limitations on and scope of the review and work undertaken by RWE. The Report will be made available for inspection and copying at the principal executive offices of Ableauctions during its regular business hours by any shareholder or a representative of a shareholder who has been so designated in writing.

Ableauctions' board of directors selected RWE to prepare the Report on the basis of the firm's considerable experience in preparing more than a thousand valuations and more than one hundred fairness opinions over the past seventeen years. Ableauctions also considered RWE's extensive experience in doing valuation work in China, its experience in valuing technology and resource companies ranging from micro-cap to mid-cap sized businesses, and its extensive experience in preparing valuations and fairness opinions for public companies.

There is no material relationship that existed during the past two years or is mutually understood to be contemplated, and no compensation received or to be received as a result of the relationship among RWE and its affiliates and either Ableauctions or SinoCoking.

The Report stated RWE's conclusion that, as of August 31, 2009, and based upon and subject to the factors, assumptions and limitations set forth in the Report, the consideration to be paid by Ableauctions in the Acquisition to the equity holders of SinoCoking (including the holders of options and warrants) was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Ableauctions common stock. RWE's conclusion was based upon the following:

Value to be Received by Ableauctions Shareholders in Liquidation and Acquisition

RWE concluded that the most appropriate method to determine the range of the fair market value of Ableauctions at the Valuation Date was to use an orderly liquidation basis for the following reasons. (1) Ableauctions has not been successful in securing significant new capital to fund the losses occurring in the Company; (2) the trailing losses in the Company and expected future operating losses; (3) the wind down of the online auction business; and (4) the liquidation approach yields a higher value than a going concern basis.

In determining the liquidation value of the Company, RWE examined each asset of the Company's business and determined the fair market value of each asset. RWE determined that, at the Valuation Date, the fair value of the Company's assets was approximately $13,891,663.

In making its analysis, RWE took into consideration the potential value of a 3% interest in SinoCoking on a going concern basis. RWE concluded that it was appropriate to value SinoCoking on a going concern basis for the following reasons: (1) SinoCoking has been in operation for a number of years; (2) SinoCoking has developed operations and a business model that has material and real commercial appeal; (3) SinoCoking shows realistic signs of continuing to generate material revenues, positive net income and cash flows; and (4) the going concern approach yields a higher value than a liquidation approach.

Based on these analyses, RWE concluded that the value that can be realized by the Ableauctions shareholders from the liquidation and the Acquisition as a whole would be approximately $15.2 million, after all estimated costs related to the Acquisition have been paid.

Fairness

In examining the fairness of the Transactions from the financial point of view of the Ableauctions shareholders, RWE also examined the market value (market capitalization) of the Company based on the trading price of its common stock over the 90 day period from June 3, 2009 through August 31, 2009. RWE concluded that the value of the Company, as reflected by the market for its common stock, would be approximately $4,650,000.

Since the value to be received by the shareholders from the liquidation and the Acquisition will likely be an amount that is (i) greater than the book value of the Company (which at June 30, 2009 was $9,675,230), (ii) greater than an amount that may be realized from a liquidation of the Company's assets without the Acquisition (which was determined to be approximately $13,891,663) and (iii) greater than the Company's recent market value as reflected by the trading price of its common stock (which was $4,650,000) and because liquidating the Company's assets following the Acquisition would mean that the Company will no longer experience operating losses relating to its business, RWE determined that the Acquisition is fair, from a financial point of view, to the Ableauctions shareholders.

The amount and form of consideration to be paid in the Acquisition was determined through arm's-length negotiations between Ableauctions and SinoCoking and not by RWE. This fact was not considered by RWE in forming its opinion of the fairness of the Acquisition to the Ableauctions shareholders.

RWE was not asked to consider, and RWE's Report does not address, the underlying business decision of Ableauctions to engage in the Acquisition, the relative merits of the Acquisition as compared to other business strategies that might exist for Ableauctions, the effect of any other transaction in which Ableauctions might engage or any other aspect of the Acquisition. RWE's Report did not express an opinion or recommendation to any director, shareholder or other person as to how to vote or act with respect to the Acquisition. No limitations were imposed by Ableauction's board of directors with respect to the investigations made or procedures followed by RWE in rendering the Report.

In preparing the Report, RWE conducted discussions with members of the senior management of Ableauctions, undertook an on-site visit to SinoCoking's facilities and operations, interviewed certain personnel, management and owners of SinoCoking; and reviewed or compared, as appropriate, the following:

- (a) information on the Ableauctions website and all public data and information related to Ableauctions and its subsidiaries, including Ableauctions' annual, quarterly and current reports filed with the SEC and available on the website www.sec.gov;
- (b) information provided to RWE by Ableauctions relating to its capitalization;
- (c) corporate records of Ableauctions;
- (d) information relating to SinoCoking provided to RWE by SinoCoking's management and by the management of Ableauctions;
- (e) the report regarding SinoCoking prepared by Barrett Sleeman, a director of Ableauctions;
- (f) the historical market price and trading history of Ableauctions' common stock;
- (g) the Share Exchange Agreement; and
- (h) such other financial studies, analyses, investigations and other matters as RWE deemed necessary and appropriate.

In connection with its review and in preparing the Report, RWE assumed and relied upon, without assuming any responsibility for or independently verifying, the accuracy and completeness of all information supplied or otherwise made available to it by Ableauctions and SinoCoking.

RWE further relied upon the assurance of representatives of the management of Ableauctions that they are unaware of any facts that would make the information provided to RWE incomplete or misleading in any material respect.

RWE assumed that the Acquisition will be consummated in accordance with the terms of the Share Exchange Agreement as executed and delivered by the parties without waiver of any of the conditions precedent to the Acquisition contained in the Share Exchange Agreement.

RWE received a fee of $15,000 in connection with rendering the Report, which was not contingent upon consummation of the transaction between Ableauctions and SinoCoking. The terms of the fee arrangement with RWE, which are customary in transactions of this nature, were negotiated on an arm's-length basis and Ableauctions' board of directors was aware of the arrangement.

RWE outlined that the analyses, opinions, calculations and conclusions in the Report were prepared in accordance with the standards set forth by the Canadian Institute of Chartered Business Valuators and the American Society of Appraisers.

RWE noted in the Report that it has no present or prospective interest in Ableauctions, SinoCoking or any asset or company that is the subject of the Report, and RWE and its principal has no personal interest with respect to any of the parties involved.

Description of Business

Overview

The following discussion describes our current business as it is now conducted, prior to consummation of the Acquisition. As a condition of the closing of the Acquisition, our present business will be liquidated, our net assets distributed to a Liquidating Entity for the benefit of our shareholders, and our Company's business will thereafter consist entirely of the business of SinoCoking (see the section of this proxy statement entitled "Proposal 2 – Approval of Terms of Plan of Liquidation"). Readers of this proxy statement should note that the following discussion is furnished in order to provide a description of our business as it exists prior to the closing of the Acquisition. If the Acquisition is not consummated, our current business will not be liquidated.

We also provide mortgages and loans to individuals and companies, and develop real estate. We classify our business interests into four reportable segments: the auction, liquidation and technology business, which consists principally of liquidation and merchandizing services; loans, which consists of mortgages and loans; real property and property development, which consists principally of properties held for development; and a segment we call "other" which encompasses our corporate activities such as investor and public relations and the management of cash and marketable securities held for investment. We have included information in the discussion below about our websites. Information included on our websites is not a part of this proxy statement.

Other Segment

Ableauctions manages our corporate and public company affairs and all related activities such as investor and public relations and the management of our cash and marketable securities held for investment.

History

We were incorporated under the laws of the state of Florida as J. B. Financial Services, Inc. on September 30, 1996. We changed our name to Ableauctions.com, Inc. on July 19, 1999. From the date of our incorporation until August 24, 1999, we had no material business and no material revenues, expenses, assets or liabilities.

On August 24, 1999, in exchange for shares of our common stock and cash, we acquired all of the assets and the business operations of Able Auctions (1991) Ltd., a British Columbia corporation engaged in the business of auctioning used equipment, office furnishings and other merchandise. We acquired all of the issued and outstanding common stock of Able Auctions (1991) Ltd. from Dexton Technologies Corporation, a British Columbia corporation. Our intent in acquiring the assets and business operations of Able Auctions (1991) Ltd. was to expand its bricks and mortar operations and to develop an on-line auction technology.

Because of the significant costs related to traditional auction businesses, such as maintaining a physical auction site and employees necessary to staff the auctions, we decided to abandon our plan to expand our bricks and mortar operations through continued acquisitions of auction businesses. We no longer operate our bricks and mortar auction businesses.

While our business has evolved away from conducting auctions through bricks and mortar operations, we expanded our on-line auction operations and branched out into excess inventory liquidation.

Liquidation Services

During 2008, most of our business involving the liquidation of excess inventory was carried out by our wholly owned subsidiary, Unlimited Closeouts, Inc., which contacts major manufacturers and importers to purchase overstocks, order cancellations and discontinued products. Unlimited Closeouts then sells the merchandise to major retail chains, other resellers or the public.

We earn commissions ranging from 10% to 25% on the inventory that we sell. During the 2008 fiscal year, revenue from our liquidation business totaled $1,653,902, or approximately 59% of all the revenue we earned and during the nine months ended September 30, 2009 revenue from our liquidation business totaled $1,093,818, or approximately 76% of all the revenue we earned.

Auction Broadcast Services

During the 2008 fiscal year and through May 21, 2009, we provided technology and related services to auction houses and galleries to enable them to broadcast auctions live over the Internet through the use of our proprietary technology.

In a traditional bricks and mortar auction setting, prior to the auction interested parties must register to qualify as bidders. Up until the start of an auction, interested parties are able to preview the merchandise and submit absentee bids. Once the auction begins, the registered bidders against each other for merchandise auctioned at a physical location with the auctioned merchandise being sold to the highest bidder. A typical auction may draw 500 people and have 1,000 lots of merchandise.

Through our auction broadcast services, as used with our proprietary technology platform, auction houses and galleries were empowered with technology that enabled them to broadcast their auctions over the Internet in real-time, allowing online bidders to bid against bidders physically present at the location. Like a traditional bricks and mortar auction, interested parties register on-line before the auction begins in order to qualify as bidders, to preview the merchandise and to place absentee bids. Once the auction begins, online bidders bid from their computers in real-time against bidders present at the location (“floor bidders”) and against each other. Online bidders are invoiced electronically for their winning bids and are able to remit payment electronically. We believe that our technology and services make the online purchase of auction merchandise more convenient for consumers. For auction businesses, we believe that this technology can increase the size of auction audiences by increasing exposure to auctions, increase the final hammer price for merchandise sold and lower overall transaction costs.

We also developed technology that manages the “back-end” of the auction, enabling auctioneers to run auctions more efficiently, providing them with tools to automate invoicing, collect payment, track lot popularity, view bidder statistics and demographics, and print graphic reports.

Prior to May 21, 2009, we broadcast auctions live over the Internet through our subsidiary, iCollector.com Technologies Ltd., using our proprietary technology platform. iCollector represents antique, fine art and premium collectible auction houses and galleries, whose inventories typically include fine and decorative arts, modern and contemporary art, memorabilia, wine, fine furniture and collectibles that are obtained primarily from Europe, Canada and the United States. iCollector catalogues its client’s inventory and features it on its website located at www.icollector.com. iCollector also provides back-end auction-related products and services to galleries and auction houses for a fee, so that the auctions can be conducted more efficiently.

During the 2008 fiscal year, iCollector’s operations declined by approximately 35%, facilitating 891 auction sessions. Revenue from iCollector’s operations totaled $521,793 during the 2008 fiscal year, or approximately 19% of all the revenue we earned and $129,697, or approximately 9% of all the revenue we earned through September 30, 2009. The fee charged to our auction house clients was approximately $1,500 per auction plus approximately 5% of the value of the merchandise sold online, which we shared equally between us and eBay until December 31, 2008.

On May 21, 2009 Ableauctions and iCollector signed a License Agreement with ABC Live Auction World Ltd. (“ABC”). The effective date of the License Agreement was May 15, 2009. ABC is an employee-owned entity not otherwise affiliated with us. Under the terms of the License Agreement, ABC has sublicensed all of iCollector’s auction and auction-hosting related technology, domain names, intellectual property and various other assets (including those assets used in the operations of NAALive) in consideration of the greater of 50% of net profits realized from ABC’s operations or 10% of ABC’s net auction revenue. The sublicense is non-exclusive. We continue to own the licensed assets and will own any enhancements made to them by ABC. ABC has also hired all of iCollector’s employees as of the effective date and began performing iCollector’s obligations under its auction and auction-hosting agreements. If we complete a sale or license of the iCollector business, then ABC will receive a minimum of 25% of the consideration payable to us upon completion of the transaction.

NAALive

In the past, we partnered with the National Auctioneers Association (“NAA”) to serve as its exclusive online auction contractor to broadcast business and industrial equipment auctions for its members on the website www.NAALive.com. We promoted these services to NAA’s estimated 7,000 members with technology that we developed.

During the 2008 fiscal year, our NAALive operations declined by approximately 31% and facilitated 188 auction sessions. Revenue from these operations totaled $177,203, or approximately 6% of all the revenue we earned during the 2008 fiscal year. The fee charged to our auction house clients was approximately $300 per auction plus approximately 2.0% of the value of the merchandise sold online. We paid the NAA up to 20% of the fees we collected for joint marketing. As noted above, ABC Live Auction World now hosts the NAALive auctions and our relationship with NAALive has been terminated.

Point of Sale (POS) Software and Services

We also earned revenues from our subsidiary, Rapidfusion Technologies, Inc. Rapidfusion has developed point-of-sale software and services for retailers. Users of these products and services may select from the following packages:

- The Rapidfusion POS (Point-of-Sale) 2007 Professional Single-User (Retail $3,000) is a full-featured product for medium to large stores needing a comprehensive, standalone point of sale product. This software may be upgraded to add other users, as necessary.
- The Rapidfusion POS (Point-of-Sale) 2007 Professional Multi-User (Retail $3,750) is for medium to large stores requiring two or more terminals (for example, one terminal for inventory management and one terminal for sales) in one complete point of sale product.
- The Rapidfusion POS (Point-of-Sale) 2007 Professional Head Office Solution (Retail $4,000) is designed to manage multiple store branches from one central terminal. This product includes functionality of warehouse or store split-purchase orders, full inventory control with inter-store transfers, customer database management, and the ability to consolidate and track all sales data for multiple store branches.

Revenue from sales of Rapidfusion's products totaled $302,585, or approximately 11% of all the revenue we earned during the 2008 fiscal year.

On June 8, 2009 Ableauctions and RapidFusion signed a License Agreement with Pacific Amber Technologies Inc. ("PATI"). The effective date of the License Agreement was June 1, 2009. PATI is an employee-owned entity not otherwise affiliated with us. Under the terms of the License Agreement, PATI has sublicensed all of RapidFusion's point of sale technology and its source code, domain names, intellectual property and various other assets used in the operations of Rapidfusion's business in consideration for 50% of net profits realized from PATI's operations or 5% of PATI's gross profits from its point of sale revenues, whichever is greater.. The sublicense is non-exclusive. We continue to own the licensed assets and will own any enhancements made to the licensed assets by PATI or any of its affiliates in the future. PATI also hired all of Rapidfusion's employees as of the effective date and has begun performing Rapidfusion's obligations under its contracts and warranty agreements. If we complete a sale or license of the RapidFusion business, then PATI will receive a minimum of 25% of the consideration payable to us upon completion of the transaction.

Real Property Development

In an effort to expand our business we created Axion Investment Corporation, referred to in this discussion as "Axion", to develop real estate and make short term loans.

Gruv Development

Through Axion, we developed a vacant parcel of land located at 9655 King George Highway. We refer to this development as Phase I of the Gruv Development in this report. We acquired the property in August 2005 for $1,270,000.

We developed the property by improving it with a retail facility of approximately 4,326 square feet and with a residential complex consisting of 111 condominiums. We expect revenue of approximately $22.1 million ($25.4 million CAD) from the sale of the commercial and residential units and we estimate that the cost to develop the property will be approximately $18.4 million ($21.2 million CAD).

We entered into agreements to pre-sell 100% of the 111 residential condominiums prior to construction and have collected approximately $1.92 million ($2.34 million CAD) in deposits that are being held in trust with Macdonald Realty Ltd. We paid $341,446 ($366,749 CAD) to Macdonald Realty for its services to date. We have budgeted an additional $600,082 ($689,750 CAD) to be paid to Macdonald Realty for the balance of commissions and bonuses due upon the successful completion of the sales and the final transfer of property title.

We received a building permit from the City of Surrey to develop the property and we have advanced refundable performance bonds for service and work totalling $320,558 ($384,833 CAD) as commitment for the development of Phase I.

On February 15, 2008 we entered into a Construction Management Agreement with Cantera Management Group Ltd. (“Cantera”) to manage the development of Phase I. In consideration of these services, we have agreed to pay Cantera a fixed fee of $454,024 ($553,000 CAD) over the term of the contract calculated on a percentage of completion basis.

On March 12, 2008, we obtained an updated conditional credit facility in the amount of $14.28 million ($16.42 million CAD) from the Royal Bank of Canada for the development of Phase I.

The credit facility was secured by guarantees from Axion and Ableauctions, by a general security agreement covering all of the assets of Axion and by the property. The advances accrue interest at the prime rate announced by Royal Bank of Canada plus 0.75% per annum. A fee of $47,073 was paid to the Royal Bank of Canada for arrangement of this credit facility. Of this amount, $35,378 was paid during the 2007 fiscal year with the remaining balance paid in the first quarter of 2008.

The credit facility was granted subject to a number of conditions, including appraisal of the project, the submission of an environmental report, the submission of a soils report, confirmation of permits and approvals, engagement of a project monitor, submission of a schedule of pre-sales contracts, the purchase of insurance, a cash investment by Axion of approximately $4.75 million ($4.84 million CAD) toward the development including the cost of the land, and fixed price contracts for at least 50% of Phase I’s hard construction costs prior to the initial draw and 80% by December 2008. By November 10, 2008, Axion had fulfilled all the obligations of the construction credit facility. The credit facility was paid in full in November 2009.

Construction Progress as of September 30, 2009 ($ CAD):

Project costs of work completed to date:	$ 19,171,505
Project costs of remaining work:	$ 2,086,264
Estimated total project costs:	$ 21,257,869
Outstanding principal balance of loan from the Royal Bank of Canada:	$ 14,334,636

Construction Progress as of November 16, 2009 ($ CAD):

Project costs of work completed to date:	$ 20,432,357
Project costs of remaining work:	$ 1,455,938
Estimated total project costs:	$ 21,257,869

Outstanding

Canada: $0

In addition to the Royal Bank of Canada credit facility, we have from time-to-time borrowed funds from our President and Chief Executive Officer, Abdul Ladha, to cover cash shortfalls that occasionally result from timing issues that temporarily prevented us from borrowing against the credit facility. All of these loans have been repaid and no new loans have been made.

On April 28, 2008, construction of Phase I commenced and on September 30, 2009 the construction of the Gruv Development was substantially complete and a conditional occupancy permit was received from the City of Surrey. On November 6, 2009, the final occupancy permit was received and as of November 16, 2009, 89 of the 111 purchase contracts have been successfully closed, funds totaling $19,855,238 CDN have been received and as notes above, the credit facility provided by the Royal Bank of Canada has been repaid.

On October 6, 2008, we entered into a Development Agreement to acquire a 50% interest in Surrey Central City Holdings Ltd. ("Surrey"), a private company controlled by Mr. Ladha. Surrey owns four properties adjacent to Phase I of our Gruv Development. Through Surrey, we intend to explore the potential of developing a second phase of this project by improving Surrey's properties with a residential complex consisting of 76 to 138 condominiums. We believe that such a development could potentially generate revenue of approximately $16 million to $30 million before expenses and income splitting.

Under the terms of the Development Agreement, we acquired a 50% interest in the capital stock of Surrey from Surrey's sole shareholder, Bullion Reef Holdings Ltd. ("Bullion"), an entity controlled by Mr. Ladha and owned by the Ladha Family Trust. While Mr. Ladha is not a beneficiary of the Ladha Family Trust, members of his family are beneficiaries. The purchase price for the 50% interest was $1,347,440, subject to adjustment. According to the Development Agreement, the purchase price could be increased to reflect the increase in value that will accrue to the Property if Surrey decides to develop the Property with a 6-storey complex rather than a 4-storey complex. The purchase price could also be increased to reflect the increase in value that would accrue to the Property if Surrey were able to acquire a lot adjacent to the Property commonly known as 13509 96th Avenue, which was owned by an unrelated third party. On October 20, 2008, Surrey entered into an agreement to purchase the lot for approximately $700,000 and the acquisition was completed on December 15, 2008. As a result, in accordance with the terms of the Development Agreement, the purchase price for the capital stock of Surrey was adjusted to $1,867,085 based on an increase in value that resulted from the purchase of the 5th lot, located adjacent to the property.

We agreed to pay $673,720 of the purchase price in cash and the remainder with a promissory note due in one year bearing interest at the prime rate as announced by the Royal Bank of Canada plus 2% per annum. The promissory note also includes a provision allowing Bullion to convert up to $1 million of the principal amount, and any interest accrued thereon, into shares of our common stock at a price of $0.432 per share. The total number of shares that could be issued if Bullion converted up to $1 million of principal and interest accrued thereon would total 2,465,277 shares. On April 30, 2009 Bullion assigned the promissory note to Abdul Ladha and his spouse, Hanifa Ladha. On July 27, 2009 Mr. and Mrs. Ladha each exercised their conversion rights and each received 1,204,021 shares of our common stock, which represented a conversion by each of them of $500,000 in principal amount and $20,136.99 in accrued interest. As of November 16, 2009 the promissory note had been paid in full.

We had the right, for a period of one year, to sell back our interest in Surrey for the original purchase price, less one-half of the expenses incurred by Surrey in its efforts to develop the Property, in the event financing or approval of a preliminary development plan cannot be obtained, however, this right was not exercised and it expired on October 6, 2009.

The Development Agreement also anticipates that Mr. Ladha and Overture Development Corporation will provide services to Surrey in developing the Property. These services include managing the build-out; working with government agencies to obtain approval of the development and obtaining the plans, permits and approvals required to complete the build-out; providing contractor's services, including liaising with various trades to coordinate construction of the build-out and supervising and directing construction of the build-out; preparing and implementing a marketing plan; providing the construction bonds; and obtaining financing and home warranty coverage for the development. Mr. Ladha and Overture Development Corporation will jointly receive 25% of the net profit from Phase I and 12.5% of the net profit from the development of the property owned by Surrey for providing these services.

Township Holdings Ltd.

Through Township Holdings Ltd., Axion also holds a 1/3 interest in two vacant lots located in Langley, British Columbia. The lots are comprised of approximately 4.72 acres and are commonly known as 20514 - 80th Avenue and 20542 - 80th Avenue, Langley, British Columbia V3T 2V3. The properties were purchased on August 14, 2006 for a purchase price of $3.42 million and are currently being offered for sale.

Loans

Axion also provides short term loans to various businesses and individuals in Canada. The loans typically have terms of one year, earn interest at the rate of approximately 10% and are secured by real estate, general security agreements and personal guarantees, as appropriate. At September 30, 2009, Axion had approximately $1,907,229 outstanding in loans. Subsequent to September 30, 2009, $1,890,000 of the loans outstanding was repaid and on November 2, 2009 we made a purchase money loan in the amount of 2,566,037 ($2,720,000 CAD) to the purchaser of the real property located at 1963 Lougheed Highway, Coquitlam, British Columbia. Therefore, at November 16, 2009, Axion had approximately $2,708,065 outstanding in loans.

Other (Investment)

Investment of our cash and marketable securities is managed by Ableauctions.

Competition

Online Liquidation Companies

We face competition from traditional auctioneers and from online auction and liquidations companies that use the Internet to sell or auction surplus capital assets, equipment, and other consumer goods. The Internet auction and liquidation industry is rapidly evolving, and intensely competitive, and we expect competition to intensify in the future. A variety of auction and liquidation web sites are presently available on the Internet that are dedicated to facilitating person-to-person and business-to-person transactions.

Most of our current and potential competitors, such as Overstock.com and Amazon.com, have larger customer bases, greater brand recognition and significantly greater financial, marketing and other resources than we do. Our larger competitors may be able to secure alliances with customers and affiliates on more favorable terms, devote greater resources to marketing and promotional campaigns and devote substantially more resources to systems development than we do. In addition, new technologies and the expansion of existing technologies may increase the competitive pressures on us.

We do not currently represent a significant competitive presence in the on-line liquidation industry.

Real Estate Development

The real estate industry is highly competitive, with developers and homebuilders competing for desirable properties, financing, raw materials and skilled labor. We do not represent a significant competitive presence in the real estate development industry and we do not believe that we will ever have a competitive presence in that industry. We have only one real estate development project and one real estate development project in the planning stage.

Government Regulation

Online Liquidation Companies

There are currently few laws or regulations that directly apply to access to, or commerce on, the Internet. Governing bodies have, and may continue to, adopt laws and regulations governing issues such as user privacy on the Internet and the pricing, characteristics, and quality of products and services offered over the Internet. It is also possible that government authorities will adopt sales or other taxes involving Internet businesses. The passage of any such laws may make the cost of doing business much higher for us, which may adversely impact our results of operations. Currently we have no significant expenses associated with legal or regulatory compliance.

Real Estate Development

To date, our real estate development activities have been centered in the general area of Vancouver, British Columbia. In order to develop property in British Columbia, we must comply with various regulations promulgated by the British Columbia Superintendent of Real Estate. These regulations include, but are not limited to, the Real Estate Development Marketing Act of British Columbia. To date, we have not found these regulations burdensome to comply with.

Intellectual Property

We developed the majority of the software used in the on-line auction and point-of-sale businesses internally. We have taken measures to protect our intellectual property, ranging from confidentiality and non-disclosure agreements for contractors and employees to deploying a modular development schedule where individual modules of software developed or coded by employees or contractors have no stand-alone benefits until they are integrated with the other modules.

We have registered several internet domain names.

When we could, we entered into confidentiality and invention assignment agreements with our employees and contractors, and nondisclosure agreements with parties with which we conduct business in order to limit access to and disclosure of our proprietary information. There can be no assurance that these contractual arrangements or the other steps we take to protect our intellectual property will prove sufficient to prevent misappropriation of our technology or to deter independent third party development of similar technologies.

Employees

As of November 16, 2009 we have a total of 8 people employed, all of whom are management or administrative staff. From time to time, to further reduce expenses, we may employ independent consultants or contractors. No collective bargaining units represent our employees. We believe our relations with our employees are good.

Liquidating Distribution - Assets Relating to Ableauctions Business

On July 17, 2009, in connection with the proposed Transactions, our board of directors authorized management to create a plan of liquidation pursuant to which our assets, after the payment of our liabilities, will be distributed to a Liquidating Entity for the benefit of our shareholders as of a certain record date to be determined by the board of directors. This liquidating distribution is conditioned upon the closing of the Acquisition. For further information concerning the liquidating distribution, please refer to the section in the proxy statement entitled "Proposal 2 – Approval of Terms of Plan of Liquidation".

Dividend Policy of the Company Following the Acquisition

The Company has not paid any cash dividends on its common stock in the past. We anticipate that any earnings generated from future operations will be used to finance our operations, and except for the distribution discussed above, we do not anticipate that the Company will pay dividends on a regular basis. No restrictions exist upon the Company's ability to pay dividends in the future.

Legal Proceedings

There are no legal proceedings pending against the Company.

Description of Business After Consummation of Acquisition

Following consummation of the Acquisition, the Company will cease operating the Ableauctions business, and the business of SinoCoking will be continued and will constitute the principal business and operations of the Company. A description of the business of SinoCoking is included in the section immediately below.

ABOUT SINOCOKING

Description of Business

Overview

Top Favour Limited, a British Virgin Islands Company (“Top Favour”) is a holding company that, through its wholly owned subsidiary Pingdingshan Hongyuan Energy Science and Technology Development Co., Ltd. (“Hongyuan”), controls Henan Province Pingdingshan Hongli Coal & Coke Co., Ltd. (“Hongli”), a coal and coal-coke producer in Henan Province in the central region of the People’s Republic of China (“PRC” or “China”). Hongli produces coke, coal, coal byproducts and electricity through its branch operation, Baofeng Coking Factory, and its wholly owned subsidiaries, Baofeng Hongchang Coal Co., Ltd. and Baofeng Hongguang Environment Protection Electricity Generating Co., Ltd, which we refer to collectively as the “Baofeng Subsidiaries”. We refer to Hongli and the Baofeng Subsidiaries collectively as “Hongli Group”. Top Favour controls Hongli Group through contractual arrangements with Hongli Group and its owners. These contractual arrangements provide for management and control rights, and in addition entitle Top Favour to receive the earnings and control the assets of Hongli Group. Other than the interests in these contractual arrangements, neither Top Favor nor Hongyuan has any equity interests in Hongli Group. We refer to Top Favour, Hongyuan and Hongli Group collectively as “SinoCoking”.

Corporate History of SinoCoking

Top Favour is a holding company that was incorporated in the British Virgin Islands on July 2, 2008. Since incorporation, Top Favour has not conducted any substantive operations of its own except to serve as a holding company that owns 100% of the equity interest of Hongyuan.

Hongyuan is a PRC limited liability company and the wholly owned subsidiary of Top Favour. Hongyuan was approved as a wholly-owned foreign enterprise (“WFOE”) by the Henan provincial government on February 26, 2009 and formally organized on March 18, 2009. Other than activities relating to its contractual arrangements with Hongli, Hongyuan has no separate operations of its own.

Hongli is a limited liability company organized in the PRC on July 5, 1996. Hongli holds the government licenses and approvals necessary to operate SinoCoking’s businesses in China. Hongyuan does not own any equity interests in Hongli, but controls and receives the economic benefits of its business operations through contractual arrangements. In turn, Top Favour is the 100% owner and parent company of Hongyuan.

Baofeng Coking Factory (“Baofeng Coking”) was established on May 31, 2002 as a branch of Hongli. Baofeng Coking produces SinoCoking’s cokes.

Baofeng Hongchang Coal Co., Ltd. (“Hongchang Coal”) is a limited liability company that was organized in the PRC on July 19, 2007. Hongchang Coal is a wholly owned subsidiary of Hongli and operates SinoCoking’s coal mining operations.

Baofeng Hongguang Power Co., Ltd. (“Hongguang Power”) is a limited liability company that was organized in the PRC on August 1, 2006. Hongguang Power is also wholly owned by Hongli and operates SinoCoking’s electricity generating operations.

The Current Corporate Structure of SinoCoking

Contractual Arrangements with Hongli Group and its Owners

Top Favour's relationships with Hongli Group and its owners are governed by a series of contractual arrangements, through which Top Favour holds and exercises ownership and management rights over the Hongli Group. Neither Top Favour nor Hongyuan owns any direct equity interest in Hongli Group. According to a legal opinion issued by PRC counsel to SinoCoking, the contractual arrangements constitute valid and binding obligations of the parties to such agreements, and are enforceable and valid in accordance with the laws of the PRC.

On March 18, 2009, Hongyuan entered into the following contractual arrangements with Hongli Group and its owners:

Consulting Services Agreement. Pursuant to the consulting services agreement, Hongyuan provides the Hongli Group companies with general consulting services relating to their business management and operations on an exclusive basis (the "Services"). Additionally, Hongyuan owns any intellectual property rights that are developed during the course of providing the Services. Each Hongli Group company pays a quarterly consulting service fee in Renminbi ("RMB") equal to its net income for such quarter to Hongyuan. The consulting services agreement is in effect unless and until terminated by written notice of either party in the event that: (a) the other party causes a material breach of the agreement, provided that if the breach does not relate to a financial obligation of the breaching party, that party may attempt to remedy the breach within 14 days following the receipt of the written notice; (b) the other party becomes bankrupt, insolvent, is the subject of proceedings or arrangements for liquidation or dissolution, ceases to carry on business, or becomes unable to pay its debts as they become due; (c) Hongyuan terminates its operations; (d) Hongli Group's business license or any other approval for its business operations is terminated, cancelled or revoked; or (e) circumstances arise which would materially and adversely affect the performance or the objectives of the consulting services agreement. Additionally, Hongyuan may terminate the consulting services agreement without cause.

Operating Agreement. Pursuant to the operating agreement, Hongyuan provides guidance and instructions on each Hongli Group company's daily operations, financial management and employment issues. In addition, Hongyuan agrees to guarantee the performance of each Hongli Group company under any agreements or arrangements relating to its business arrangements with any third party. In return, the owners of Hongli Group must designate Hongyuan's candidates as their representatives on each Hongli Group company's board of directors, and Hongyuan has the right to appoint senior executives of each Hongli Group company. Additionally, each Hongli Group company agrees to pledge its accounts receivable and all of its assets to Hongyuan. Moreover, each Hongli Group company agrees not to engage in any transactions that could materially affect its assets, liabilities, rights or operations without Hongyuan's prior consent, including without limitation, incurrence or assumption of any indebtedness, sale or purchase of any assets or rights, incurrence of any encumbrance on any of its assets or intellectual property rights in favor of a third party or transfer of any agreements relating to its business operation to any third party. The term of this agreement is the maximum period of time permitted by law unless sooner terminated by any other agreements reached by all parties or upon a 30-day written notice from Hongyuan. The term may be extended only upon Hongyuan's written confirmation prior to the expiration of the agreement, with the extended term to be mutually agreed upon by the parties.

Equity Pledge Agreement. Under the equity pledge agreement, the owners of Hongli Group pledged all of their equity interests in Hongli Group to Hongyuan to guarantee each Hongli Group company's performance of its obligations under the consulting services agreement. If a Hongli Group company or the owners breach their respective contractual obligations, Hongyuan, as pledgee, will be entitled to certain rights, including, but not limited to, the right to vote with, control and sell the pledged equity interests. The owners of Hongli Group also agreed that upon occurrence of any event of default, Hongyuan shall be granted an exclusive, irrevocable power of attorney to take actions in the place and stead of the owners to carry out the security provisions of the equity pledge agreement, and take any action and execute any instrument as required by Hongyuan to accomplish the purposes of the agreement. The owners of Hongli Group agreed not to dispose of the pledged equity interests or take any actions that would prejudice Hongyuan's interest. This agreement will expire two years from the fulfillment of Hongli Group's obligations under the consulting services agreement.

Option Agreement. Under the option agreement, the owners of Hongli Group irrevocably granted Hongyuan or its designee an exclusive option to purchase, to the extent permitted under Chinese law, all or part of the equity interests in Hongli Group for the cost of the owners' initial contributions to the registered capital of each Hongli Group company or the minimum amount of consideration permitted by applicable Chinese law. Hongyuan or its designee has sole discretion to decide when to exercise the option, whether in part or in full. The term of this agreement is ten years from January 1, 2006 and may be extended prior to its expiration by written agreement of the parties.

Proxy Agreement. Pursuant to the proxy agreement, the owners of Hongli Group irrevocably granted a Hongyuan designee the right to exercise all voting rights of the owners with respect to their ownership interests in accordance with applicable laws and each Hongli Group company's governing charters. This agreement may not be terminated without the unanimous consent of all parties, except that Hongyuan may terminate the proxy agreement with or without cause upon 30-day written notice to the owners.

Transfer of share ownership in Top Favour (BVI)

SinoCoking's President, Chief Executive Officer and Chairman, Mr. Jianhua Lv, does not hold any shares of Top Favour, however, Mr. Lv has the right to potentially acquire up to 51% of Top Favour. On July 6, 2009, Mr. Jianhua Lv transferred his shares of Top Favour to Honour Express Limited, a British Virgin Islands international business company which is solely owned by Mr. Shaohua Tan, a Singapore citizen. As a result of the share issuance and share transfer, Top Favour (BVI) has 10,000 ordinary shares outstanding, 51% of which is held by Honour Express Limited.

Mr. Shaohua Tan and Mr. Jianhua Lv further entered into a Call Option Agreement (“Incentive Option Agreement”). To provide incentive to Mr. Lv in connection with the development of SinoCoking’s business, it was agreed that Mr. Lv shall receive 100% of the shares of Honour Express within the next three years, subject to certain contingencies as set forth in the Incentive Option Agreement.

Under the Incentive Option Agreement, Mr. Lv shall serve as CEO and Chairman of Top Favour (or its successor) for not less than a 5 year period; and in anticipation of Mr. Lv’s continuous contributions to the Hongli Companies including Top Favour, WFOE (Hongyuan), Hongli and its subsidiaries, if the companies meet certain revenue thresholds, Mr. Lv shall have the right and option to acquire the shares of Honor Express Limited at nominal price. In addition, the Incentive Option Agreement also provides that Mr. Tan shall not dispose any of the shares of Honor Express without Mr. Lv’s consent.

Principal Products

SinoCoking’s principal product is coke, which it produces from coal that it mines as well as coal that it purchases. SinoCoking produces and sells two types of coke, metallurgical coke primarily used in steel manufacturing and chemical coke (also known as gas coke in the PRC) used mainly for synthesis gas production. SinoCoking also sells coal, including raw coal, “washed coal” (which is processed coal that is ready for coking), and “medium coal” and coal slurries (both of which are byproducts of the coal-washing process). SinoCoking also uses byproducts from its coke manufacturing process to produce and sell coal tar. During the fiscal year ended June 30, 2009, SinoCoking produced approximately 154,631 metric tons (“tons”) of coke, 229,480 tons of raw coal and 7,646 tons of coal tar.

Description of Operations

Overview

SinoCoking is based in Henan Province in the central part of China, a coal-rich region of the country. SinoCoking’s operations are located in Baofeng County, a part of Pingdingshan Prefecture south of the provincial capital of Zhengzhou. SinoCoking extracts coal from a mine in Zhaozhuang Village in Baofeng County, and trucks the coal to its plant site in the adjacent Hangzhuang Village, where the bulk of the coal is processed and used by SinoCoking to make coke. The finished coke is loaded onsite onto railcars on SinoCoking’s private rail line and transported to customers through the connected state-owned rail system. Castoffs of the coal-washing process are sold to industrial end users and traders primarily as fuel for electricity and heat. Coal tar is extracted from the gas emitted during the coking process and sold, and the gas is then piped into an onsite electric plant to produce electricity to power SinoCoking’s operations. Excess electricity is sold to the state-owned electricity grid.

Coal Mining Operation

Through its subsidiary Hongchang Coal, SinoCoking currently operates an underground coal mine (“Baofeng mine”) that is accessible by public roads. Coal extracted from Baofeng mine is bituminous coal, and based on historical mining activity, approximately 8% of the coal extracted typically possesses properties that meet the requirements for coking (metallurgical) coal, however, this percentage varies depending on mine conditions.

The site of Baofeng mine originally encompassed three separate coal mines: Yongshun, Tanglishu and Liangshuiquan, which were separately operated by parties unrelated to SinoCoking pursuant to resource mining permits effective from January 2003 through May 2007. In July 2005, SinoCoking acquired the resource mining permits and the mining rights to the three mines and assumed mining operations. In July 2007, the Henan provincial government granted Hongchang Coal a resource mining permit for Baofeng mine, encompassing the three original coal mines.

Baofeng mine, including the mine site and the underlying coal and other minerals, is owned by the PRC. Accordingly, the amount of coal that SinoCoking can extract from the mine is based on a mining right issued by the Henan Province Department of Land and Resources. The mining right is issued pursuant to a reserves appraisal report submitted by government authorized mining engineers, and the mining right is issued upon approval of such appraisal report by the Henan Province Department of Land and Resources. The amount of coal that can be extracted under the mining right represents what SinoCoking can economically and legally extract under applicable PRC law and regulations and as determined by the Department of Land and Resources.

Under SinoCoking’s current mining rights, SinoCoking is permitted to extract 2,479,000 tons of coal from Baofeng mine, provided that the coal underlying the mining rights is fully paid for within six years and two months from the issuance date unless specific good cause exists for an extension. The price is determined on a per ton basis, and is subject to change based on the prevailing market price as determined by the Henan Province Department of Land and Resources. As of the year ended June 30, 2008, SinoCoking has paid for 1,215,100 tons out of the 2,479,000 tons to which it has mining rights.

In addition to the mining right, SinoCoking operates the Baofeng mine pursuant to a resource mining permit issued by the Henan Province Department of Land and Resources, which specifies the coordinates of the mining area and the mine’s designated annual production capacity. The resource mining permit for the Baofeng mine estimates that the mine’s capacity is 150,000 tons per year based on mine operating conditions.

Coal is extracted from Baofeng mine using the “room and pillar” method, in which a coal stratum is divided into horizontal planes and the coal is removed from each plane while leaving “pillars” of un-mined materials as supports, working from the uppermost plane down. Each plane is further divided into grids to determine the optimal pillar placements. Drilling and blasting techniques are used to extract the coal.

All raw coal is loaded and transported by a chain conveyor into crates which are carried out to the surface by an electrical winch. Each crate carries approximately 2.5 tons, and approximately 400 crates are carried to the surface during each 8-hour mining shift. Rock material is used for floor ballast with the excess sent to the surface for disposal. Air compressors are provided for underground air tool use. Electrical power is supplied internally from SinoCoking’s own power stations through state-owned power lines, and supplied to the underground work site through a double-circuit cable designed to mitigate and circumvent potential power supply disruptions.

Normal water inflow into the mine is controlled by a system of ditches, sumps, pumps and drainpipes installed throughout the mine tunnels. The mine’s ventilation system includes an exhaustive fan on the surface of the main incline. Auxiliary fans are used as needed. The present mine fan is capable of satisfying ventilation demands of the mining operation.

Baofeng mine's annual coal production volumes for the years ended June 30, 2006 to 2009, are as follows:

Fiscal Year	Annual Production (Tons)
2006	131,148
2007	103,832
2009	245,773

- * While production volume during fiscal 2008 exceeded the amount specified on SinoCoking's coal production permit, such practice is common in Henan Province, and was accepted by the government because the mining right for the extracted coal and taxes from sales of such coal were paid.

The extracted coal is trucked to SinoCoking's plant located approximately two kilometers from the mine site and processed at SinoCoking's coal-washing facility for washing and sorting. Samples are taken prior to and after the coal-washing to analyze and determine coking readiness based primarily on moisture, ash, sulfur and volatile contents. Out of the washed coal mined and produced by SinoCoking, typically a portion is sold to customers as washed coal, and certain portions of washed coal, provided that it meets certain chemical and thermal requirements, is used by the company to make coke.

Coal Trading

In addition to mining coal, SinoCoking also engages in coal trading for profit. Depending on market conditions, SinoCoking may broker coal from small independent mine operators in its surrounding areas who may lack the means to transport coal from their mine sites or are otherwise unable to sell their coal due the size of their operations. If purchased coal meets requirements for coking, SinoCoking will generally use it to produce coke; otherwise, it holds and sells the coal when market conditions are favorable. For the year ended June 30, 2008, SinoCoking acquired approximately 628 tons of coal from these small mines to trade.

Washed Coal

SinoCoking operates a coal-washing facility at its plant site that is capable of processing up to 750,000 tons of coal per year. Under current Chinese coking industry standards, raw coal with no more than 1% sulfur content is deemed suitable for coking, although other factors are also considered. Thus, in addition to low sulfur content, the industry preference is for lower ash content and volatile matter. While much of the coal from the Baofeng mine is generally suitable for coking based on these parameters, the coal must nevertheless be washed before it is ready for the coking ovens, in order to reduce ash and sulfur content, and to increase thermal value. SinoCoking uses a water-based jig washing process, which is prevalent in China. SinoCoking uses both underground and recycled water for its coal washing operations. Sorting machines that can process up to 600 tons per hour sort the washed coal according to size.

Approximately 1.33 - 1.38 tons of raw coal yield 1 ton of washed coal. The bulk of the washed coal produced is intended for SinoCoking's coking plant, although on occasion it sells small amounts if the pricing is favorable. In addition to washed coal, the coal-washing process produces two byproducts:

- (1) "Medium" coal, a PRC coal industry classification, is coal that does not have sufficient thermal value for coking, and is mixed with raw coal and even coal slurries, and sold for home and industrial heating purposes; and
- (2) Coal slurries, sometimes called coal slime, are the castoffs and debris from the washing process. Coal slurries can be used as a fuel with low thermal value, and are sold "as is"

or mixed with “medium” coal.

SinoCoking’s annual production volumes of washed coal and the two byproducts of the coal-washing process for the years ended June 30, 2006 to 2009, are as follows:

Annual Production (Tons)

Fiscal Year	Washed Coal *	Medium Coal	Coal Slurries
2006	98,574	10,124	20,044
2007	208,317	9,187	6,269
2008	297,120	11,740	11,442

Coke Manufacturing

Coke is a hardened, solid carbonaceous residue derived from low-ash, low-sulfur bituminous coal from which the volatile constituents are driven off by baking in an oven without oxygen at high temperatures so that the fixed carbon and residual ash are fused together. Volatile constituents of the coal include water, coal-gas, and coal-tar. SinoCoking produces two types of coke: metallurgical coke and chemical coke.

Metallurgical coke is primarily used for steel manufacturing. Chemical coke, commonly referred in China to as gas coke, is mainly used in China to produce synthesis gas, a gas mixture largely of hydrogen and carbon monoxide that is combustible and often used as a fuel source or as an intermediate for the production of other chemicals including methanol, formaldehyde and ammonia. China has exacting national standards for coke, based upon a variety of metrics, including most importantly, ash content, volatilization, caking qualities, sulfur content, mechanical strength and abrasive resistance. Typically, metallurgical coke must have more than 80% fixed carbon, less than 15% ash content, less than 0.8% sulfur content and less than 1.9% volatile matter. Chemical coke, on the other hand, must have more than 80% fixed carbon, less than 18% ash content, less than 1% sulfur content and less than 3% volatile matter. According to national standards, metallurgical coke is classified into three grades – Grade I, Grade II and Grade III, with Grade I being the highest quality – and chemical coke is its separate grade. Generally, customers do not provide specifications for coke, except that SinoCoking may occasionally make requested adjustments, for instance to moisture content, as requested by customers from time to time. The amount of each type of coke that SinoCoking produces is based on market demands, although historically its customers have only required Grade II and III metallurgical coke. For the year ended June 30, 2008, approximately 39.0% of the coke produced by SinoCoking was Grade II, 23.4% was Grade III, and the balance, 37.6%, was chemical coke.

Metallurgical coke and chemical coke are produced using an identical manufacturing process. SinoCoking produces coke onsite from a series of three WG-86 Type coke ovens lined up in a row with an annual capacity of 250,000 tons. SinoCoking's metallurgical coke has typical characteristics of 85% fixed carbon, less than 12% ash, less than 1.9% volatile matter and less than 0.7% sulfur. SinoCoking's chemical coke, on the other hand, has typical characteristics of more than 80% fixed carbon, less than 18% ash, less than 3% volatile matter and less than 0.8% sulfur.

Coal that is either extracted from the Baofeng mine or purchased by SinoCoking and processed at its coal-washing facility is sent to a coal blending room where it is crushed and blended to achieve an optimal coking blend. Samples are taken from the coal blend and tested for moisture, chemical composition and other properties. The crushed and blended coal is transported by conveyor to a coal bin to be fed into the waiting oven below. After processing through the three temperature-controlled ovens at temperature of 1200°C (2,192 °F), hot coke is pushed out of the oven chamber onto a waiting coke cart, transported to an adjacent quench tower where it is cooled with water spray, and hauled to a platform area adjacent to SinoCoking's private rail line to be air-dried. Coke samples are taken at several stages during the process and analyzed in the company's testing facility, and data is recorded daily and kept by technicians. After drying, the coke is sorted according to size to meet customer requirements.

SinoCoking's annual production volumes of metallurgical coke and chemical coke for the years ended June 30, 2006 to 2009, are as follows:

Annual Production (Tons)

Fiscal Year	Metallurgical Coke	Chemical Coke	Total
2006	48,321	23,699	72,020
2007	88,364	61,800	150,164

2009	143,092	11,550	154,648

Substantially all of the coal from Baofeng mine that is suitable for coking is used to make coke. The amount of metallurgical-quality coal supplied by Baofeng mine, however, is often not sufficient for SinoCoking's full production capacity, and it regularly sources from third parties to meet the metallurgical coal needs for its coking plant.

Coke Emissions Recycling

During the coking process, the coal's volatile contents - including water and coal-tar - are driven off in gaseous forms when heated in the coke oven. Rather than allowing this coal gas to be emitted into the environment, SinoCoking captures the coal gas for recycling. In the recycling process, coal gas is captured and piped into a cooling tower, where coal tar is separated out of the gas by condensation, and sold to dealers as a fuel byproduct (see section below entitled "Coal Byproducts"). The remaining purified coal gas is then used by SinoCoking to generate electricity, by burning it as a fuel to generate steam that drives steam-powered turbines.

Coal Byproducts

As described above, SinoCoking produces coal tar from the condensation of raw coal gas. Coal tar is an ingredient of coal tar pitch used in the aluminum industry, and can be further refined to create chemicals and additives such as fine phenol, fine naphthalene and modified pitch that can be used as raw material in making concrete sealant, wood treatment compounds, agricultural pesticides and other chemical products. The coal tar industry in China is currently fragmented and populated with many small producers.

SinoCoking's annual production volumes of coal tar for the years ended June 30, 2006 to 2009, are as follows:

Fiscal Year	Annual Production (Tons)
2006	3,307
2007	7,330
2009	7,646

Other coal byproducts of the coking process include benzene, sulfur-based chemicals and methanol, which SinoCoking presently does not produce but plans to do so in the future.

Electricity Generation

After coal tar is separated, the resulting purified coal gas is piped to two onsite 3,000-kilowatt power stations (the Daying power station and the Sunling power station) to generate electricity, each of which has an estimated maximum generating capacity of 26,280,000 kilowatts per year. The electricity that is generated is used primarily to power SinoCoking's operations at the plant and mine site. SinoCoking estimates that the replacement cost of this electricity, if it had to be purchased from the state-owned utility, would be in excess of USD $1 million per year. For the year ended June 30, 2008, SinoCoking generated approximately 7,172,000 kilowatt-hours of useable electrical power. From time to time, depending on usage and supply and demand conditions, SinoCoking may sell electricity to the Baofeng Power Bureau, which is the local state-owned electric utility company, at rates fixed by applicable regulatory authorities. SinoCoking may also purchase electricity from time to time, as needs arise, from the Baofeng Power Bureau.

Expansion Plans

On December 9, 2008, SinoCoking entered into an agreement with the Henan Province Pingingshan Municipal Bureau of Land and Resources to acquire the land use rights for approximately 1,270,000 square meters of industrial zoning vacant land in the Baofeng county for a total consideration of $21,954,490 (or RMB 149,860,00) for a term of 50 years. Under the agreement, SinoCoking agreed to pay $13,185,000 (or RMB 90,000,000) in the first installment by June 30, 2009 and $8,769,490 (or RMB 59,860,000) in an additional installment by September 30, 2009. SinoCoking acquired the land as part of a business expansion plan under which a new coking factory and related facilities would be built. These facilities would have a coke-producing capacity of up to 900,000 tons per year, including coal gas-generated power producing capabilities, and the ability to produce an expanded range of other chemical refinery products. Under the agreement, SinoCoking has committed to the completion construction of the new coking factory by March 16, 2011, with a possible one year extension upon application to the Henan Province Pingingshan Municipal Bureau of Land and Resources.

Sales and Marketing

With respect to coke, SinoCoking typically enters into non-binding annual letters of intent that set forth current year supply quantities, suggested pricing, and monthly delivery schedules with its customers at the beginning of each year. The terms of the letters of intent are usually negotiated during the Annual National Coal Trading Convention organized by the China Coal Transport and Distribution Association. A significant portion of SinoCoking's coke sales in fiscal 2008 were made through attendance at this convention. Changes in delivery quantity and pricing, which is based on open market pricing at the time of delivery, must be documented in a final written contract on a 30-day advance notice submitted by the party making the change and accepted by the other party. Almost all of SinoCoking's current customers enter into these non-binding annual letters of intent, and are generally required to make payment upon delivery of each shipment of product. Other customers are asked to prepay for their orders. In pricing its products, SinoCoking considers factors such as the prices offered by competitors, the quality and grade of the product sold, the volume in national and regional coal inventory build-up and forecasted future trends for coal and coke prices. The remaining portion of SinoCoking's coke sales is derived from purchase orders placed by customers throughout the year when they require additional coke.

Coke Sales. SinoCoking's annual sales volumes of coke for the years ended June 30, 2006, 2007, 2008 and 2009 and the weighted average selling price per ton for each fiscal year, were as follows:

Coke Sales
Fiscal Year	Annual Sales * (Tons)	Weighted Average Price Per Ton (USD)
2006	71,159	$ 121
2007	152,049	$ 159
2008	225,779	$ 249
2009	154,631	$ 197

* Includes sales of metallurgical coke and chemical coke.

SinoCoking has a flexible credit policy and adjusts credit terms for different types of customers. Depending on the customer, SinoCoking may allow open accounts, or require acceptance bills or cash on delivery. SinoCoking considers the creditworthiness and the requested credit amount of each customer when determining the appropriate payment arrangements and credit terms, which generally do not exceed a period over 90 days. SinoCoking evaluates the creditworthiness of potential new customers before entering into sales contracts and reassesses customer creditworthiness on an annual basis. For customers without a strong credit history, SinoCoking requires immediate settlement of accounts upon delivery.

Raw Coal Sales. SinoCoking's annual sales volumes of raw coal for the years ended June 30, 2006, 2007, 2008 and 2009 and the weighted average selling price per ton for each fiscal year, were as follows:

Raw Coal Sales
Fiscal Year	Annual Sales * (Tons)	Weighted Average Price Per Ton (USD)
2006	52,578	$ 26
2007	44,626	$ 42
2008	20,737	$ 18
2009	29,480	$ 58

* Includes coal extracted from Baofeng mine as well as coal purchased by SinoCoking as part of its coal trading activities, and includes raw coal and raw coal/medium coal/coal slurry mixtures.

Washed Coal Sales. SinoCoking's annual sales volumes of washed coal for the years ended June 30, 2006, 2007, 2008 and 2009, and the weighted average selling price per ton for each fiscal year, were as follows:

Washed Coal Sales
Fiscal Year	Annual Sales (Tons)	Weighted Average Price Per Ton (USD)
2006	6,645	$ 64
2007	45,734	$ 64
2008	1,860	$ 86
2009	55,360	$ 118

Coal Tar Sales. SinoCoking's annual sales volumes of coal tar for the years ended June 30, 2006, 2007, 2008 and 2009, and the weighted average selling price per ton for each fiscal year, were as follows:

Coal Tar Sales
Fiscal Year	Annual Sales (Tons)	Weighted Average Price Per Ton (USD)
2006	3,307	$ 195
2007	7,330	$ 200
2008	10,756	$ 278
2009	7,646	$ 153

Customers

SinoCoking sells all of its products within China. Its four biggest customers collectively accounted for approximately 64.59% of SinoCoking's total sales revenue in fiscal 2009 as follows:

- Wuhan Tieying Trading Co., Ltd. accounted for approximately 28.78% of total sales;
- Hunan Loudi Zhongyuan Trading Co., Ltd. accounted for approximately 12.80% of total sales;
- Wuhan Zhengtong Industry & Trading Co., Ltd. accounted for approximately 12.22% of total sales; and
- Hengyang Guanxiang Material Co., Ltd. accounted for approximately 10.79% of total sales.

By product types, SinoCoking's largest coke customer was Wuhan Zhengtong Industry Co., Ltd., which accounted for 20.17% of the coke sold in fiscal 2009; Wuhan Tieying Trading Co., Ltd. was the biggest coal customer, accounting for 68.44% of the coal sales in fiscal 2008; and Mr. Fashun Wang, who accounted for 31.06% of the coal tar sold in fiscal 2009, was the single largest coal tar customer.

Company sales personnel conduct routine visits to customers. SinoCoking has long-standing relationships with these customers, and management believes that these relationships are stable.

Nevertheless, as SinoCoking depended on four major customers for a substantial portion of its revenue in fiscal 2009, nonrenewal or termination of SinoCoking's arrangements with these customers would have a materially adverse effect on SinoCoking's revenue. In the event that any one of its major customers does not renew or terminates its arrangement with SinoCoking, there can be no assurance that SinoCoking will be able to enter into another arrangement similar in scope. Additionally, there can be no assurance that SinoCoking's business will not remain largely dependent on a limited customer base accounting for a substantial portion of the revenue.

Transportation and Distribution

SinoCoking owns and operates a private rail track 4.5 kilometers in length that connects SinoCoking's plant to the Chinese national railway system at both the East Pingdingshan Railway Station and the Baofeng Railway Station. Industrial loaders load coal and coke from SinoCoking's platform onto railcars to be transported to customers primarily in central and southeastern China in the provinces of Henan, Hubei, Hunan and Fujian. SinoCoking's private railway permits it to exercise control over the transportation cost and execution of its products. Customers can also arrange for trucks to take delivery of products from the plant site.

Competitors

SinoCoking competes primarily with coal and coke producers in the central, eastern and southern regions of China, such as Shanxi Coking Co., Ltd., a major coke producer, and Shenhua Group, a major coal producer. SinoCoking also competes against Pingdingshan Coal Group, the largest regional coal producer, which also sells coke and coal tar. Local coke competitors include Hongyue Coke Factory, Dongxin Coke Factory and Hongjiang Coke Factory. In addition, SinoCoking competes against coal washing operations such as Fange Zhuang Washing Factory. Competitive factors include geographic location, quality (i.e. thermal value, ash and sulfur content, washing and processing, and other characteristics), and reliability of delivery.

Suppliers

Since SinoCoking requires substantially more coking coal than what the Baofeng mine produces, SinoCoking also sources coal from local coal mines. SinoCoking mainly purchases from Pingdingshan Coal Group. In fiscal 2008, Pingdingshan's mine #10 and mine #9 supplied 15.15% and 12.68%, respectively, of SinoCoking's coal purchases. In fiscal 2009, Pingdingshan's mine #9 supplied 22.1% of SinoCoking's coal purchases, and Daying Liugou Mining Co. Ltd. supplied an additional 11.42%. These suppliers are able to supply SinoCoking with coal of such qualities and quantities consistent with SinoCoking's coking requirements, and their proximities to SinoCoking's plant also afford convenience.

As with its coke and coal sales, SinoCoking meets its coking coal needs by entering into non-binding annual letters of intent with these suppliers that set forth supply quantities, suggested pricing and monthly delivery schedules at the beginning of the year. Subject to changes in delivery quantity and pricing, which is based on the open market price of metallurgical coal at the time of delivery and agreed to by the parties, SinoCoking generally makes payment upon each delivery throughout the year.

SinoCoking believes that it has established stable cooperative relationships with these suppliers. At the same time, SinoCoking can readily find other sources of metallurgical coal that is close to its plant, as Henan Province is one of China's coal producing centers.

SinoCoking's other principal raw materials include water, which is provided without charge in the form of treated underground water by the operator of the Hangzhuang Coal Mines, and electricity, most of which SinoCoking generates onsite from its own power stations and which is supplemented from the local state-owned utility as needed. SinoCoking also requires wood and steel for its operations, and sources these materials from close-by suppliers on a per purchase order basis. These materials are readily available and there is no shortage of suppliers to choose from.

Employees

SinoCoking currently has 664 employees, of which 489 are mine workers, 96 are coking plant workers, and 79 are employed in an administrative or executive capacity. Both the mining operations and the coking plant operate year round in three shifts of eight hours per day. In compliance with the Employment Contract Law of PRC, SinoCoking has written contracts with all of their employees. SinoCoking considers its relationship with its employees to be good.

Description of Company Facilities and Offices

SinoCoking's principal executive office is in downtown Pingdingshan, approximately 60 kilometers from its plant, which headquarters its executive and administrative staff and oversees its operations. SinoCoking entered into a lease for the premises with the Pingdingshan Credit Cooperative in June 2008, for an annual rent of USD $8,760 (RMB 66,900). The lease term expired on June 30, 2009, and is currently under renegotiation. The company anticipates renewing its lease with an annual rent of USD $8,900.

SinoCoking's plant is in nearby Baofeng County, situated on a parcel of land of approximately 160,000 square meters. The Baofeng municipal government issued the land use right for the plant site to SinoCoking on October 20, 1989. SinoCoking's operational office and rail track, as well as its coal washing, coking and power generating facilities, are all located onsite.

The land on which Baofeng mine is located is owned by the PRC. However, SinoCoking owns the buildings that house the mining offices and miners' living quarters, as well as the onsite mining facilities and equipment.

Research and Development

As of the year ended June 30, 2009, SinoCoking did not conduct any research and development activities. SinoCoking does plan to initiate a program focusing on the extraction of chemicals from coal, and the anticipated costs and benefits of the production and sale of such byproducts is being considered.

Intellectual Property

SinoCoking currently has no patents, trademarks, in-bound or outbound licenses, franchises, or royalty arrangements.

Environmental Protection Measures

SinoCoking incorporates measures to reduce the environmental impacts of its operations. SinoCoking's large-sized furnace reduces the frequency of coal loading and trundling, thereby reducing the amount of dust and soot that is generated. SinoCoking captures coal gas emitted during the coking process to generate electricity which it uses in its operations. SinoCoking also recycles water - water that is used for coal washing is treated to remove phenol and other contaminants, and then re-used in the coal washing operation. SinoCoking also uses recycled water, in the form of treated underground water, to quench coke and for its power stations, which is provided without cost by the nearby Hanzhuang Coal Mines, which mining rights are owned and operated by unrelated third parties. Additionally, SinoCoking uses sound insulation to reduce noise pollution, and plants vegetation throughout its plant to help mitigate environmental impacts.

Principal Executive Office

The principal executive office of SinoCoking is located at the intersection of Kuanggong Road and Tiyu Road (10th Floor, Chengshi Xin Yong She, Tiyu Road), Xinhua District, Pingdingshan, Henan Province, People's Republic of China, 467000. The company's telephone number is 011-86-3752882999.

Results of Operations

Three Months Ended September 30, 2008 Compared to Three Months Ended September 30, 2009

Revenues. SinoCoking's revenues increased by $9,161,531, or 102.16%, for the first quarter ended September 30, 2009, as compared to the corresponding period ended September 30, 2008. This increase was caused primarily by a strong increase in coal product revenue. This increase in revenue occurred in the face of prolonged global economic weakness which began in the last calendar quarter of 2008, continuing into 2009. During this period the coke market exhibited relatively weak demand in 2009, and in response to this, in April 2009 management decided to reduce coke production levels and increase coal sales and trading. SinoCoking continued to pursue this strategy through the quarter ended September 30, 2009, in order to maintain cash flow and profitability. SinoCoking increased its coal product sales by 6,599% for the three months ended September 30, 2009, compared to the same period ended September 30, 2008. The coal products sold in the three month period ended September 30, 2009 included raw coal, thermal coal and coal washing byproducts. This stands in contrast with the same period of the prior year, in which coal washing byproducts (medium coal and slurry) with low heat value and washed coal were the main coal products sold. This shift toward coal sales and trading, together with the change in composition of coal products sold to include higher heat value thermal coal, resulted in a very large increase in revenue from coal sales. Additionally, beginning in late 2008 and continuing through the middle of calendar year 2009, the company began gradually phasing out the provision of shipping services to its coal and coke customers, and those customers began bearing the cost of shipping. As an accommodation to its customers, SinoCoking reduced sales prices for its coal products by about 3% to 5%, to compensate for the fact that the price excludes shipping. This decision to cut sale prices as a concession to customers caused a slight offsetting reduction in the total revenue of the company in fiscal year 2009, as well as for the three month period ended September 30, 2009. As further discussed below in this section, management does not consider these recent fluctuations in the coke and coal markets to be durable long term trends, and anticipates ramping up coke production as conditions in the coke market become more favorable.

SinoCoking's revenues for the three month periods ended September 30, 2009 and 2008, categorized by product type (coke products and coal products), were as follows:

Revenues	Revenues
	Coke Products	Coal Products	Total
Three Months Ended September 30, 2008	$8,786,546	$181,384	$8,967,930

Coke products include finished coke, a key raw material for producing steel, and coal tar, a byproduct of the coke making process with various industrial applications. Coal products include washed coal, raw coal, thermal coal and coal washing byproducts. Raw coal is primarily used to produce washed coal, while thermal coal and coal washing by-products are mainly used for electricity generation and heating applications. As used in this discussion and analysis, the “raw coal” category includes both thermal coal that is unwashed and relatively unprocessed, in addition to coal washing byproducts such as coal slurry.

Average sale prices for SinoCoking's four principal products, during the three month periods ended September 30, 2009 and September 30, 2008, were as follows:

Average Sale Prices	Coke	Coal Tar	Raw Coal	Washed Coal
Three Months Ended September 30, 2008	$214	$192	$75	$86
Three Months Ended September 30, 2009	204	190	68	128
Increase (decrease) in US$	(14)	(2)	(7)	42
% Increase (decrease) in US$	(6.54 %)	(1.04 %)	(9.33 %)	48.84 %

Average sale prices are driven by a number of factors, including the particular composition and grade or quality of the coal or coke being sold, prevailing market prices for these products in the Chinese local and national markets, prevailing market prices in the global marketplace, timing of sales, delivery terms, purchase order negotiations between SinoCoking and its customers, and relationships with those customers. Management believes that the changes in average selling prices in the three month period ended September 30, 2009 were primarily driven by external market forces and the timing of sales by the company. Specifically, management believes lower coke prices resulted from softening demand by steel producers in reaction to global financial instability which began in the fourth calendar quarter of 2008 and became pronounced through the months following. With regard to timing, SinoCoking chose to sell more of its coal inventory and trade coal while prices for raw coal were at historically high levels. In addition, the average selling prices for coal products were affected by changes in the mixtures of coals (with different grades and heat content) that were sold to customers. In the fiscal year of 2008, the majority of the company's coal products sold (except washed coal) were lower-value coal washing byproducts, consisting of medium coal and coal slurry. These byproducts carry a lower thermal value and therefore a lower market price – accordingly, the company's average sale price for products in the raw coal category was only $18 per ton in the fiscal year of 2008. However, beginning in the fiscal year of 2009, the company began to sell more higher-value thermal coal as a part of the product mix, and this resulted in an increase in the average price achieved by the company in the raw coal category. Also as discussed above, beginning in late 2008 and continuing through the middle of calendar year 2009, the company began gradually phasing out the provision of shipping services to its coal and coke customers, and those customers began handling shipping of their orders at their own expense. As a concession to its customers SinoCoking reduced sales prices for its coal products by about 3% to 5%, to compensate for the fact that the price excludes shipping.

Sale prices for coke on average declined by approximately 6.54%, from $214 per ton to $204 per ton, during the three month period ended September 30, 2009, as compared to the same period ended in 2008. In general, market prices for finished coke began to stabilize in mid-2009. The company's average sale price for coke in the most recent quarter ($204 per ton) was higher than the 2009 fiscal year average of $197 per ton. In addition, during this period the company produced and sold less coke as compared to the same period in the prior year. SinoCoking's management believes the decrease in market prices in coke products (in reaction to which the company reduced coke production volume) was due to decreased demand for coke in the Chinese domestic market beginning from the fourth quarter of the 2008 calendar year. Since then demand and price levels have begun to recover, but have not yet reclaimed historic peak levels. Management believes this downturn in coke demand was a direct result of (1) Chinese domestic steel producers taking a "wait and see" approach in projecting the future demand by their customers for steel in light of recent global economic conditions, and (2) the macro policies of the PRC government aimed at controlling the land development and real estate industry, which in turn affected the steel industry, correspondingly causing a reduction in the demand for coke. In response to a pause in customer demand for coke, SinoCoking's management continued to rein in coke production for the three month period ended September 30, 2009, and focused on generating profits by trading thermal coal and washed coal, for which market prices have been more steady and favorable. Also, in recent months the demand for raw coal has proven to be rather inelastic, since coal products are a staple for the power generation industry and for heating applications.

Coke product revenues for the three month periods ended September 30, 2008 and 2009 were as follows:

Revenues	Coke Products		Total
	Coke	Coal Tar
Three Months Ended September 30, 2008	$8,401,009	$385,537	$8,786,546

Increase (decrease) in US$	(2,683,410)	(124,733)	(2,808,143)
% Increase (decrease) in US$	(31.94 %)	(32.35 %)	(31.96 %)
Quantity Sold (metric tons)
Three Months Ended September 30, 2008	39,201	2,009	41,210
Three Months Ended September 30, 2009	28,511	1,397	29,908
Increase (decrease)	(10,690)	(612)	(11,302)
% Increase (decrease)	(27.26 %)	(30.46 %)	(27.42 %)

The combined factors discussed above resulted in a decrease in revenue from coke products of approximately $2.8 million, representing a 31.96% decrease for the three month period ending September 30, 2009, as compared to the same period in the prior year. This decrease was caused by a cutback in coke production by the company in response to a decline in market prices for coke during this period. In early 2009, market prices for coke products began stabilizing, and management believes this was partly due to curtailment of production by coke producers in China which reduced aggregate market supply, in addition to a gradual resumption of purchasing on the part of Chinese manufacturers in response to a pickup in Chinese domestic consumption levels in the second calendar quarter of 2009. These developments occurred as the PRC government, in the second calendar quarter, announced certain policies to further stimulate the Chinese domestic economy.

Since coal tar is produced as a by-product of the coking process, the reduction in the amount of coke that the company produced resulted in a corresponding reduction in the quantity of coal tar produced and sold during the period. The quantity of coal tar sold decreased from 2,009 tons to 1,397 tons, or 30.46%, for the three months ended September 30, 2009, as compared to the same three month period in the prior year. The company's average sale price for coal tar declined slightly to $190 per ton in the three months ended September 30, 2009, from $192 per ton in the same three month period in the previous year. However, management notes that the average sale price for coal tar for the latest quarter ($190 per ton) has risen from the fiscal year of 2009 average of $153 per ton, as coal tar prices have rebounded from their lows in late 2008. SinoCoking's sales of coke products, i.e. coke and coal tar, accounted for $5,978,403 in revenue, or approximately 32.98% of the company's total revenue, for the three month period ended September 30, 2009.

Coal product revenues for the three month periods ended September 30, 2008 and 2009 were as follows:

% Increase (decrease)	3,142.69 %	-- %	5,433.79 %

Average raw coal product sale prices declined from $75 per ton to $68 per ton for the three month period ending September 30, 2009, when compared to the same period in the prior year. However, average sale prices for raw coal prices were higher for the three months ending September 30, 2009, than the average for the entire fiscal 2008 ($18 per ton) and the fiscal year of 2009 ($58 per ton).

SinoCoking continued its strategy of selling a larger volume of coal products in the three month period ending September 30, 2009. During that time period, the company continued to build its inventory of raw coal (especially thermal coal) from both its mining operations and open market purchases, which it anticipates selling later during the coming winter months. Management expects coal prices to increase toward the end of calendar year 2009, as domestic energy demand increases. During the three months ending September 30, 2009, SinoCoking sold 78,700 tons of various mixtures and composites of raw coal and realized more than $5.1 million in revenue from these sales, generating a 2,724% increase in revenue from the sale of raw coal as compared to the same period in the previous year. SinoCoking sold approximately 55,600 tons of washed coal during the three month period ended September 30, 2009, and generated approximately $7.0 million in revenue from these sales, compared to zero washed coal sales in the same three month period in the prior year. In the three month period ending September 30, 2008, SinoCoking did not sell any washed coal, because at such time inventories of washed coal were already considered to be low, and the company opted to maintain a minimum safe inventory level of washed coal in stock instead of selling it. In 2009, as discussed, the company began selling more coal products in order to boost revenue and maintain cash flow and profitability. Accordingly it sold a significant amount of washed coal in the three months ending September 30, 2009. SinoCoking's sales of coal products, i.e. raw coal (which includes thermal coal) and washed coal, accounted for $12,151,058 in revenue, or approximately 67.02% of the company's total revenue, during the three month period ending September 30, 2009.

Management believes the decline in coke prices, reduced demand for coke from steel producers, and the increase in prices for thermal coal that occurred in the three month period ending September 30, 2009 do not represent durable long term trends. Aside from the reasons for price fluctuations explained above, SinoCoking's management has observed the following trends, which may have a direct impact on the company's operations in the near future: (1) coke prices have been recovering and steadily trending upward since March 2009, (2) government-initiated policies to consolidate the coking industry are expected to accelerate, hastening the retirement of small-sized and less-efficient coking facilities in China, and (3) the PRC government is continuing to implement its stated policy of supporting a steady national GDP growth (of around 8% for 2009), while providing economic stimulus to maintain momentum and growth in domestic consumption, including the construction and steel industries. SinoCoking's management believes these factors will eventually restore demand levels that existed prior to the sharp pullback in global economic conditions, and such demand levels will be exceeded in the long term.

Cost of Goods Sold and Gross Profit. Cost of goods sold increased from $4,353,737 to $9,069,065 for the three months ended September 30, 2009, as compared to the same period ended September 30, 2008. The increase in cost of goods sold was primarily driven by the significant increase in acquisition of raw coal and washed coal from third parties, partially offset by a decrease in the cost of goods sold for coke due to a lower volume of coke production. Gross profit increased by $4,445,905 or 96.35%, to $9,060,396 in the three month period ended September 30, 2009 from $4,614,491 in the corresponding period ended September 30, 2008. SinoCoking's gross profit as a percentage of sales decreased to 48.98% in the three month period ended September 30, 2009 from 51.46% in the same period ended September 30, 2008. The decrease in the company's gross profit percentage reflects a compressed gross margin due to lower market sale prices for coke, and slightly lower gross margin for coal trading in the three month period ending September 30, 2009.

Operating Expenses. Operating expenses, which consisted of selling expenses and general and administrative expenses decreased by $244,597, or 36.41% in the three month period ending September 30, 2009 as compared to the same period ending September 30, 2008. Approximately $213,000 of the decrease is related to a reduction in general and administrative expenses. Since the company derived a large portion of its sales from one major customer (Wuhan Tiesing Steel), the company incurred a smaller amount in selling expenses compared to the previous year. SinoCoking has also carried out an expense monitoring program since the beginning of calendar year 2009, under which most expense reimbursements to employees and management were reviewed by supervising managers. These cost control measures contributed to the decrease of the general and administrative expenses in the three month period ended September 30, 2009. Also, beginning in late 2008 and continuing through the middle of calendar year 2009, the company began to gradually phase out the provision of shipping services to its coal and coke customers, and those customers began bearing the cost of shipping. The phaseout of shipping services resulted in a decrease in selling expenses of approximately $31,000 in the three month period ending September 30, 2009, as compared to the same period in the prior year. The reduced selling expenses primarily related to payments to the Bureau of Rail Transportation, which no longer had to be paid by the company after the discontinuation of shipping services to coal-buying customers. In addition to the decrease in selling expenses, management also believes that a substantial portion of the decrease in general and administrative expenses was attributable to the phaseout of shipping services.

Other Income and Expense. There was no other income for the three months ended September 30, 2009, and other income for the three months ended September 30, 2008 consisted mainly of a government grant to SinoCoking's coal gas-generated power plant in the amount of $157,956. The company's interest expense decreased from $204,126 for the three months ended September 30, 2008 to $96,724 in the same period ended September 30, 2009, reflecting a lower average balance of outstanding short-term borrowings which changed from $3.77 million to $1.35 million from the three month period ending September 30, 2008 to the same period in 2009.

Provision for Income Taxes. Provision for income taxes increased by $1,078,039, or 118%, for the three months ending September 30, 2009, as compared to the same period ending September 30, 2008, primarily due to higher taxable income relating mainly to an increase in the company's gross profit for the three months ended September 30, 2009.

Comprehensive Income. As a result of a combination of the factors described above, SinoCoking's comprehensive income increased by 118% to $3,570,398 for the three months ending September 30, 2009, from $3,029,048 for the corresponding period ending September 30, 2008.

Revenues. SinoCoking's revenues decreased from $58,623,488 for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2008 ("fiscal 2008") to $51,395,992 for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2009 ("fiscal 2009"), representing a decrease of $7,227,496, or 12.33%. This decrease was caused primarily by a decline in the market prices for coke along with softening demand for coke by steel producers, and a reduction of coke production volume by the company, offset by increases in raw and washed coal prices occurring primarily toward the latter part of the 2008 calendar year. These changes corresponded with a sudden adverse shift in global economic conditions in the last calendar quarter of 2008, continuing into 2009. Because of a short term drop in demand for coke in the first half of the calendar year 2009, management shifted the company's production mix by decreasing coke production and increasing both coal mining and coal trading activity in order to maintain cash flow and profitability. Due to the pending shut-down of competing coke factories in reaction to the PRC government's current policies (aimed at closing smaller-sized, less efficient and less environmentally sound coking operations) which will limit aggregate supply, coupled with an anticipated acceleration of demand from the steel industry, management believes that the coke market will become a producer's market within a short period. The company intends to maintain a flexible operating strategy by adjusting its product mix to respond the changing market. The company expects to increase coke production and shift away from selling coal products in the second half of the calendar year 2009, as coke demand and prevailing market prices rebound.

SinoCoking's revenues for the fiscal years ended June 30, 2009 and 2008, categorized by product type (coke products and coal products), were as follows:

Revenues	Revenues
	Coke Products	Coal Products	Total
Fiscal 2009 (in US$)	$31,706,265	$19,689,727	$51,395,992

Coke products include finished coke (a key raw material for producing steel) and coal tar (a byproduct of the coke making process which can be used for various industrial applications). Coal products include washed coal, raw coal, thermal coal and coal washing byproducts. Raw coal is primarily used to produce washed coal, while thermal coal and coal washing by-products are mainly used for electricity generation and heating applications. As used in this discussion and analysis, the "raw coal" category includes both thermal coal that is unwashed and relatively unprocessed, in addition to coal washing byproducts such as coal slurry.

Average sale prices for SinoCoking's four principal products were as follows in the fiscal years ended June 30, 2009 and 2008:

	Average Sale Prices
	Coke	Coal Tar	Raw Coal	Washed Coal
Fiscal 2009 (in US$)	$ 197	$ 153	$ 58	$ 119
Fiscal 2008 (in US$)	249	278	18	86
Increase (decrease) in US$	(52)	(125)	40	33
% Increase (decrease) in US$	(20.88)%	(44.96)%	222.22 %	38.37 %

Average sale prices are driven by a number of factors, including the particular composition and grade or quality of the coal or coke being sold, prevailing market prices for these products in the Chinese local and national markets, prevailing market prices in the global marketplace, timing of sales, delivery terms, purchase order negotiations between SinoCoking and its customers, and relationships with those customers. Management believes that the changes in average selling prices in the fiscal year ended June 30, 2009 were primarily driven by external market forces, the composition of raw coal that it sold to customers, and the timing of sales by the company. Specifically, management believes lower coke demand resulted from a leveling off of the building boom spurred by the PRC government in preparation for the Olympic Games, and the effects on demand by steel producers in reaction to global financial instability which became pronounced in the fourth calendar quarter of 2008. In addition, the average selling prices for coal products were affected by changes in the mixtures of coals (with different grades and heat content) that were sold to customers. With regard to timing, the company chose to sell coal inventory at times when prices were at high levels compared to historical patterns.

Average sale prices are realized by the company for finished coke declined by approximately 21%, and declined approximately 45% for coal tar, in fiscal 2009 as compared to the prior year. Although the market price of coke rebounded to approximately $210 in April and May of 2009, this factor contributed little to revenue in fiscal 2009. Market prices for coke generally moved between $200 and $220 in the months following May 2009, and prices are expected to remain stable at approximately the $230 level, due to slowly increasing coke demand.

Average coal product sale prices by the company rose from $18 per ton in fiscal 2008 to $58 per ton in fiscal 2009 for raw coal, and from $86 per ton in fiscal 2008 to $119 per ton in fiscal 2009 for washed coal. Aside from market-related factors, one of the reasons for these increases is that fact that the overall quality and mix of coal products sold changed from 2008 to 2009. In 2008, raw coal sales consisted mostly of lower-value medium coal and coal slurry, which have a lower heat content and therefore lower average price. In 2009, after the company began increasing its coal sales, it began selling more higher-value raw coal products with greater heat content, and consequently, the average sale price for raw coal sold by the company in 2009 was significantly higher. Increased average sale prices for coal products were partially offset by per-ton price reductions in 2009 due to the exclusion of shipping services (and corresponding reduction in per-ton price as a concession to customers), as discussed above.

Sale prices for coke on average declined by approximately 20.88%, from $249 per ton to $197 per ton, during the year ended June 30, 2009, as compared to the same period ended June 30, 2008. This decline in sale prices for coke sold by the company was primarily driven by market forces, and a decline in coke demand. SinoCoking's management believes the decrease in demand for coke is a direct result of (1) Chinese domestic steel producers taking a "wait and see" approach in projecting the future demand by their customers for steel in reaction to global economic instability that occurred during the latter part of the 2008 calendar year which affected their business, and (2) a pause in certain infrastructure projects funded by the Chinese government immediately following the 2008 Olympic Games. In response to reduced customer demand for coke in late 2008 and first half of 2009, SinoCoking's management moved to cut coke production in April of 2009, and focused on generating profits by trading thermal coal and washed coal, for which market sale prices have been more steady and demand for which has been far less elastic, because they are staples in the power generation industry and for heating applications. Management believes that the forces that led to a reduction in coke demand in late-2008 to 2009 were temporary in nature, and also believes that a resumption of a brisk economic growth rate in China will cause a rebound in demand and the market prices for coke.

Coke product revenues for the fiscal years ended June 30, 2009 and 2008 were as follows:

Coke Products

	Coke	Coal Tar	Total
Revenues
Fiscal 2009 (in US$)	$ 30,534,755	$ 1,171,510	$ 31,706,265
Fiscal 2008 (in US$)	55,103,692	2,987,334	58,091,026
Increase (decrease) in US$	(24,568,937)	(1,815,824)	(26,384,761)
% Increase (decrease) in US$	(44.59 %)	(60.78 %)	(45.42 %)
Quantity Sold (metric tons)

Fiscal 2008	225,779	10,756	236,535
Increase (decrease)	(71,148)	(3,110)	(74,258)
% Increase (decrease)	(31.51 %)	(28.91 %)	(31.39 %)

The combined factors discussed above resulted in a decrease in revenue from coke products of approximately $24.57 million. In addition, sales volume for coke products decreased by approximately 31.51% for fiscal 2009, as compared to fiscal 2008. These decreases were due to the company's reduction in coke production volume, in reaction to slowing demand and lower market prices for coke throughout the Chinese domestic market during late 2008 to the middle of calendar year 2009. In early to mid-2009, general market prices for coke products began stabilizing, and management believes this was due to reduced market supply because of a curtailment of production by coke producers in China which reduced market supply, in addition to a gradual resumption of buying on the part of Chinese manufacturers in response to a pickup in Chinese domestic consumption levels in the second calendar quarter of 2009. These developments occurred as the Chinese government announced in the second calendar quarter of 2009 certain policies to further stimulate its economy.

Since coal tar is a by-product of the coking process, the reduction in coke production volume by the company resulted in a corresponding reduction in the quantity of coal tar produced and sold during the period. The quantity of coal tar sold decreased from 10,756 tons to 7,646 tons, or 28.91%, for fiscal 2009, as compared to fiscal 2008. The company's average sale price for coal tar declined to $153 per ton in fiscal 2009, as compared to $278 per ton in fiscal 2008. SinoCoking's sales of coke products, i.e. coke and coal tar, accounted for $31,706,265 in revenue, or approximately 61.69% of the company's total revenue, for fiscal 2009.

Coal product revenues for the fiscal years 2008 and 2009 were as follows:

SinoCoking significantly boosted its sales of coal products in fiscal 2009. Raw coal and washed coal market prices fluctuated significantly in this period leading into and during the winter period of 2008 - 2009, at times reaching historically high levels. Management believes this was caused partly by the fact that domestic energy demand, and the demand for heating coal, remained relatively high levels in China, in contrast to a more pronounced drop in the demand for coke by steelmakers, whose products are more linked to the global trade, the export market and demand from countries that import steel as an input as well as in the form of manufactured products from China. During the winter season in fiscal 2008, when the market supply for thermal coal was very tight, SinoCoking seized the opportunity to sell thermal coal to its customers at historically high prices. Among its coal-purchasing customers was Wuhan Tiewing Steel company, and sales to this customer generated approximately $14.6 million in the fiscal year 2009. In the months prior to, leading up to and throughout the winter of 2008 – 2009, the company had built up sizable inventory of thermal coal from both its mining operations and from open market purchases of raw coal, which it then sold during that season. The company is accumulating coal inventory in a similar manner this year, in preparation for the winter of 2009-2010.

Raw coal and washed coal prices have also been trending upward on a longer term basis since the beginning of calendar year 2008, when the government issued and began enforcing strict regulations to shut down the unlicensed coal mines. While this move was applauded by the larger licensed coal mine operators, it also resulted in a tightening of aggregate coal supply in China. This caused coal prices to climb to historically high levels in 2008. A short-term reversal of this trend occurred when global economic conditions began worsening at the end of calendar 2008 and into 2009. Although market prices for coal recovered significantly from their 2008 lows, market prices are still below their peak. Management believes that pressure from short supply will continue to persist, particularly when industrial production gains momentum as anticipated in 2009.

Average realized sale prices for raw coal (which includes thermal coal and coal washing byproducts) increased by approximately 222% for fiscal 2009, compared to average sale prices realized for the previous year. Management attributes this increase largely to a change in the composition of raw coal products sold to customers, which in 2009 included more higher-value thermal coal. SinoCoking sold 229,480 tons of various mixtures and composites of raw coal (consisting mostly of thermal coal in 2009) and realized approximately $13.15 million in revenue in fiscal 2009, creating a 3,432% increase in revenue from the sale of raw coal as compared to the previous year's sales.

The average sale price realized by the company for washed coal increased by 38.37% in fiscal 2009. Management attributes the increase to market forces which increased market prices for washed coal. The 55,360 tons of washed coal that the company sold in fiscal 2009 generated approximately $6.54 million in revenue, representing a 3,983% increase in revenue for that product category as compared to the prior year. The increase in revenue from washed coal is due to the company's shift toward greater washed coal sales, as discussed previously. SinoCoking's sales of coal products overall, i.e. raw coal and washed coal, accounted for $19,689,727 in revenue, or approximately 38.31% of the company's total revenue in fiscal year 2009.

Management believes the decline in coke prices and reduced demand for coke from steel producers that occurred in fiscal 2009 are temporary trends that may soon reverse.. In addition, management believes that the price of thermal coal will continue to fluctuate, but remain in high demand in the foreseeable future. Aside from the reasons for price fluctuations discussed above, SinoCoking's management has observed the following trends which may have a direct impact on the company's operations in the near future: (1) coke prices have recovered and have been steadily trending upwards since March 2009, (2) government-initiated policies have been implemented to consolidate the coking industry are expected to accelerate, hastening the retirement of small-sized and less-efficient coking facilities in China, and (3) the PRC central government has announced macro policies aimed at ensuring a steady national GDP growth (at around 8% for 2009), and to provide economic stimulus to maintain momentum and growth in domestic consumption. SinoCoking's management believes these factors will lead to stronger demand for coke and coal products in the foreseeable future.

Cost of Goods Sold and Gross Profit. Cost of goods sold decreased by $228,151, or 0.82%, for the fiscal year 2009, as compared to 2008. The decrease in cost of goods sold was primarily a result of a decrease in coke production, as the company shifted away from coke production in 2009, and toward coal sales and trading. This decrease was offset by an increase in coal purchases from third parties. In fiscal 2009, the company purchased approximately 189,000 tons of coal from third party suppliers, at a cost of approximately $15.7 million, most of which was for resale as coal products. In fiscal 2008, the company purchased 189,000 tons of coal from third party suppliers at a total cost of $15.2 million, most of which was used by the company to produce coke. Gross profit decreased by $6,999,345 or 22.67%, to $23,872,663 in the fiscal year 2009 from $30,872,008 in the corresponding period in 2008. SinoCoking's gross profit as a percentage of sales decreased to 46.45% in fiscal year 2009 from 52.66% in the same period ended June 30, 2008. The decrease in the company's gross profit percentage reflects a compressed gross margin due to lower market sale prices for coke and coal tar in the second half of the fiscal year ended June 30, 2009. In addition, coal trading, particularly when coal is acquired from third party suppliers rather than from the company's mines, generally carries thinner profit margins than coke products, and the company's shift toward more coal trading and less coke production had the effect of reducing the company's overall gross profit margin in fiscal 2009 as compared to the prior year.

Operating Expenses. Operating expenses, substantially all of which consisted of selling expenses and general and administrative expenses decreased by $1,262,507, or 32.36%, in fiscal 2009 as compared to fiscal 2008. As a percentage of sales, operating expenses declined to 5.13% from 6.66%. Approximately $898,954 of this decrease was due to a decrease in selling expenses. Approximately $363,553 of the decrease was related to a decrease in general and administrative expenses. Since the management team pursued a more focused sales strategy, including emphasis on sales to the most competitive trading companies such as Wuhan Tieying Steel and Hunan Loudi Zhongyuan Trading Ltd. (with which the company has developed prior relationships), and emphasis on customer relationships with distributors that have the greatest bargaining power in the region, the company incurred fewer selling expenses compared to the previous year. Further decreases in general and administrative expenses were achieved by implementing a strong expense monitoring program, under which most expense reimbursements to employees were reviewed by supervising management. In addition to the foregoing, as mentioned above, beginning in late 2008 and continuing through mid-2009, the company began phasing out the provision of shipping services to customers purchasing raw coal and coke, resulting in approximately $85,000 in reduced selling expenses for fiscal 2009. In addition to the decrease in selling expenses, management also believes that a substantial portion of the decrease in general and administrative expenses was attributable to the phaseout of shipping services.

Other Income and Expense. Other income for the fiscal year 2009 consisted mainly of a government grant to SinoCoking's coal gas-generated power plant in the amount of $158,010. The company's interest expense decreased from $1,122,569 for fiscal 2008 to $914,072 for fiscal 2009, reflecting a lower average outstanding balance for short-term borrowings, which declined from $3.68 million to $2.73 million from fiscal 2008 to 2009.

Provision for Income Taxes. Provision for income taxes decreased by $4,554,725, or 56.61%, for the fiscal year 2009, as compared to the same period in 2008, primarily due to lower taxable income relating to a decrease in the company's gross profit in 2009, and income tax exemptions granted to the company by the local tax authorities resulting in savings of $2,570,980.

Net Income. As a result of the combination of the factors described above, SinoCoking's net income decreased by 3.94% to $16,967,935 for fiscal 2009, from $17,664,665 in fiscal 2008.

Revenues. SinoCoking's revenues increased from $30,078,701 for the year ended June 30, 2007 to $58,623,488 for the year ended June 30, 2008 with an increase of $28,544,787, or 94.90%. This increase was driven primarily by rapidly rising market prices for coal and coke products in China, a trend that was mirrored in the global market, and which became more pronounced in the first half of calendar year 2008. Secondly, SinoCoking changed its production mix during this period, which affected revenues. During the fiscal year 2008, the company shifted away from coal production and at the same time, ramped up coke production in response to increased order volume for coke products. Coke products carry a higher per-unit sales price and are more value-added compared to coal products, and accordingly, higher coke sales led to a significant increase in revenue. SinoCoking's revenues for the fiscal years ended June 30, 2008 ("Fiscal 2008") and June 30, 2007 ("Fiscal 2007"), categorized by product type, were as follows:

Average sale prices for SinoCoking's four principal products were as follows during the fiscal years ended June 30, 2007 and June 30, 2008:

	Average Sale Prices

% Increase (decrease) in US$	55.40%	39.00%	(57.14%)	34.38%

As discussed above, average sale prices are driven by a number of factors, including the particular composition and grade or quality of the coal or coke being sold, prevailing market prices for these products in the Chinese local and national market, prevailing market prices in the global marketplace, timing of sales, delivery terms, purchase order negotiations between SinoCoking and its customers, and relationships with those customers. Management believes that the changes in average sale prices in the twelve month period ended June 30, 2008 were primarily driven by external market forces. In addition, the average sale prices for raw coal in particular declined due to a higher proportion of lower-grade low thermal value mixtures sold to customers (as high-grade higher thermal value coals were reserved for coke manufacturing rather than sold).

Coke product revenues for the fiscal years ended June 30, 2007 and 2008 were as follows:

Coal and coke prices in the Chinese open market rose throughout the fiscal year ended June 30, 2008, as steep demand for coal and coke from the steel industry and power producers outstripped supply. Management believes SinoCoking's mining operations are relatively safe, however, that not all coal mining operations in China meet high standards of safety. In recent years, in response to a number of coal mining accidents in unsafe mines, the central and local governments in China have acted to either temporarily or permanently close small-sized privately-owned coal mines, including some in the Henan province, for comprehensive safety inspections. The central and local governments have also cited inefficiency as one of the reasons for closing certain privately-owned coal mines. As a result of these coal mine closures, the overall supply of coal in China was constrained, and management believes this is a key factor, along with persistent industrial demand for coal, that has contributed to a rise in the prices of coal and coke products during the year ended June 30, 2008. Coal and coke prices began to stabilize in the fall of 2008.

SinoCoking's revenues are principally derived from the sale of coke products. In the year ended June 30, 2008, the company increased the quantity of coke produced and sold by 48.49%, and revenue from coke sales increased 131.22% for the year ended June 30, 2008 as compared to the prior year. Average coke sale prices per unit, to customers (including Grade II, III, and chemical coke) increased by approximately 55.40% during this period. Management believes that increasing demand from steel makers and power producers, coupled with limited aggregate supply in the marketplace, caused this increase in average sale prices. Besides the effect of rising coke prices during the year ended June 30, 2008, another main driving force behind the company's increased quantity of coke sales is increased coke production capacity as a result of major equipment renovations in 2005. Annual coke output increased substantially second year in a row, from 152,049 tons in 2007 to 225,779 tons in the year ended June 30, 2008. This increased production capacity enabled the company to sell more coke and fill larger orders from its major customers, including Hunan Hengyang Guanxiang Trading Co. Ltd., to whom the company sold over $22 million of coke in 2008 versus $3.5 million in 2007.

The quantity of coal tar produced and sold by Sino Coking increased by 46.74%, and revenue from this product category increased 104.17% from approximately $1.5 million to $3 million in the year ended June 30, 2008, as compared to the prior year. The company's production of coal tar increased due to the increase in coke production, as coal tar is a byproduct of the coke making process. Average sale prices for coal tar increased by 39.00% in the year ended June 30, 2008 as compared to the prior year, and management believes this was due to heavy customer demand while aggregate market supply remained limited.

Coal product revenues for the fiscal years ended June 30, 2007 and 2008 were as follows:

SinoCoking's quantity of production and sale of raw coal decreased by 53.54%, and revenue from this product category decreased 80.17% from approximately $1.9 million to less than $0.4 million in the year ended June 30, 2008, as compared to the prior year. While SinoCoking concentrated on producing more coke from the coking factory in the current year, the company had less incentive to sell any large quantity of coking coal as it is more economical to provide the raw coal produced in-house to the company's own coking needs. As a result, raw coal sales quantity dropped substantially. Per-unit customer sale prices for raw coal sold by the company decreased by approximately 57.14% in the year ended June 30, 2008, as compared to the prior year. This decrease was caused in part by a shift in sales by the company of lower grade coal with a lower thermal value, which is sold at a lower price per unit. In the coal products category, SinoCoking mainly sold only coal washing residuals and lower grade coals during the year ended June 30, 2008.

SinoCoking's quantity of production and sale of washed coal decreased by 95.93%, and revenue from this product category decreased 94.49% from approximately $2.9 million to less than $0.2 million in the year ended June 30, 2008, as compared to the prior year. Similar to the decrease in revenue in the raw coal category as explained above, the company aimed to minimize the sale of coking grade washed coal during the year ended June 30, 2008 because of the strong demand for such washed coals by the company's own coking plant. The effect on revenues of company's decrease in amount of washed coal sold was partially offset by an increase in per-unit customer washed coal sale prices, which increased by 34.38% in the year ended June 30, 2008, as compared to the prior year. Unlike raw coal, washed coals available for sale do not vary in quality as there is no mixture of other coal washing residual and command very little difference in sales price among different grades of coking purpose washed coal.

Overall, the company's revenue increased by $28.5 million, or 94.90% for the year ended June 30, 2008 as compared to the prior year, as the company shifted its sales and production toward higher value-added coke products and away from lower value raw and washed coal, based on the relative market sale prices for these various products in during these periods.

Cost of Goods Sold and Gross Profit. Cost of goods sold increased by $5,572,277, or 25.12%, during the year ended June 30, 2008, as compared to the same period in 2007, due primarily to a dramatic increase in coal and coke production during this period, in order to satisfy demand for coal and coke products by customers. Gross profit increased by $22,972,510, or 290.81%, to $30,872,008 in the year ended June 30, 2008 from $7,899,498 in the corresponding period in 2007. SinoCoking's gross profit as a percentage of sales increased to 52.66% in the year ended June 30, 2008 from 26.26% for the same period ended June 30, 2007. Since the company produces a significant amount of metallurgical coal, a key raw material for coke production, from the company's own coal mines, the company's coke producing operations were largely unaffected by the soaring prices of metallurgical coal as a component of cost of goods sold. In the fiscal year ended June 30, 2008, of the total amount of coal acquired and used for coking, 65% originated from the company's own mines, and the remainder was purchased from coal dealers and other mining companies.

Operating Expenses. Operating expenses, substantially all of which consisted of selling expense and general and administrative expenses, decreased from $4,330,657 for the year ended June 30, 2007 to $3,901,396 for the same period in 2008. As a percentage of sales, operating expenses declined to 6.66% for the year ended June 30, 2008 from 14.40% for the comparable period ended June 30, 2007. In addition to the effect of diminishing percentage of sales represented by certain fixed costs (such as rent and office expense), starting from year 2007 the company implemented measures to strengthen certain control procedures to monitor the general and administrative expenses, resulting in the decrease in operating expenses for the year ended June 30, 2008 as compared to the previous period.

Other Income (Expense), net. Other income (expense), net consisted mainly of finance expenses and other expenses. Finance expense, net (which included finance charges and deducted interest income) increased from $750,950 for the year ended June 30, 2007 to $1,122,569 for the year ended June 30, 2008 with an increase of $371,619. This increase, mainly due to interest expense, was in connection with increased borrowing from banks, credit unions and related parties to provide liquidity and working capital, and a slight increase in the company's average cost of borrowing during the year ended June 30, 2008.

Provision for Income Taxes. Provision for income taxes increased by $5,880,549, or 271.52%, for the year ended June 30, 2008, as compared to the year ended June 30, 2007, primarily due to the company's strong revenue growth and the decrease in operating expenses, creating a higher taxable base for fiscal year 2008.

Comprehensive Income (Loss). As a result of a combination of the factors discussed above, SinoCoking's comprehensive income increased by $18,116,025 (or 3,955.83%) to $18,573,983 for the year ended June 30, 2008, from $457,958 for the year ended June 30, 2007. Except for the increase in foreign currency translation adjustment in the amount of approximately $1,054,110, all of the increase in total comprehensive income was due to the increase in net income in fiscal year 2008.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Three Months Ended September 30, 2008 Compared to Three Months Ended September 30, 2009

Net Cash Provided by Operating Activities

Net cash provided by operating activities for the three months ended September 30, 2009 increased to $5,422,519 compared to $757,538, which is a difference of $4,664,981. The larger amount of net cash provided by operating activities was primarily the result of greater sales of coal products, which lead to a higher net income of $6,547,377 for the three months ended September 30, 2009, and higher accounts payable and accrued liabilities. This increase in cash provided by operating activities was offset partially by an increase in account receivables, inventories and customer deposits.

Net Cash Used in Investing Activities

Net cash used in investing activities for the three month period ending September 30, 2009 was $3,114,495, compared to net cash used in investing activities of $62,599 in the same period in 2008. The primary use of funds for both periods consisted of payments in connection with capital expenditures, including the purchase of new coking equipment, and mining facility improvements to increase mining capacity from 300,000 tons to 350,000 tons annually. In the three month period ending September 30, 2009, net cash used in investing activities consisted mainly of mine improvements, as the company utilized approximately $3 million for this purpose.

Net Cash Used in Financing Activities

Net cash used in financing activities for the three month period ended September 30, 2009 was $1,766,967, compared to net cash used in financing activities of $1,520,391 in the same period in 2008. The use of the funds included repayment of principal in the amount of $1,737,329 under a bank loan, and repayment of principal amounts owed to the related party, Mr. Yang Liuchang, in the amount of $74,121. The company also borrowed $34,537 from Mr. Jianhua Lv, the Chairman, President, CEO of SinoCoking for the three month period ended September 30, 2009. At September 30, 2009 SinoCoking owed a balance of $1,317,611 to Mr. Lv, and a balance of $225,495 to Mr. Yang, and neither of these loans is interest-bearing.

Net Cash Provided by Operating Activities

Net cash provided by operating activities for the twelve months ended June 30, 2009 was $11,890,214, compared to $13,060,249 for the same period ended June 30, 2008. The primary reasons for the decrease included an increase in prepayments to suppliers (which rose from $1,646,714 to $8,364,448 for fiscal 2009), an increase in accounts receivables (which rose from $3,552,733 to $6,454,663), and a decrease in account payables and other payables (which decreased by $3,332,220 and $954,832, respectively), partially offset by a decrease in customer deposits, and a decrease in other receivables.

During the second half of fiscal 2009, the payment terms for both suppliers and customers of the company were changed significantly, compared to the same period in 2008, prompted by the unexpected change in market conditions. The payment terms granted to customers by the company were extended in duration for many customers, and this caused the company's accounts receivable to increase by approximately $2.89 million. On the other hand, since strong demand for coal in China continued throughout fiscal 2009 in China, and as this phenomenon increased the bargaining power of coal suppliers (the company is both a supplier and a purchaser), the company's transaction terms with the third party coal vendors became more favorable to the vendors, which had the effect of decreasing its accounts payable. In fiscal year 2009, especially in the second half of the year, management decided to shift more toward coal sales and trading and reduce coke production volume, and the company relied more on coal sales to maintain cash flow and profitability. Since the company not only mines and sells its own coal, but also buys a substantial amount of coal from third party vendors for resale, this shift toward greater coal sales led to an increase in customer deposits for coal purchases from those third party vendors. Since market demand for coal remained robust, coal vendors were able to command favorable payment terms, including requiring buyers to put up deposits on their purchases. On the other hand, the company collected negligible deposits from its coke buying customers – since demand for coke softened in 2009 (in contrast with the acute shortages in 2008), generally the company did not require customers to pay deposits on coke purchases.

Net Cash Used in Investing Activities

Net cash used in investing activities for fiscal 2009 was $10,503,647, compared to $8,471,010 in fiscal 2008. The primary use of funds for both years were payments in connection with capital expenditures, including the purchase of new coking equipment, as well as mining facility improvements to increase mining capacity from 200,000 tons annually to 350,000 tons annually. In addition, SinoCoking used approximately $1 million of cash to make payments in connection with its prior acquisition of rights to three coal mines in fiscal 2009.

Net Cash Used in Financing Activities

Net cash used in financing activities for fiscal 2009 was $5,832,642, compared to $937,425 in fiscal 2008. SinoCoking paid off its short-term loans from various banks in the amount of $1,180,790 in the fiscal year 2009 in order to decrease interest expense. Further, the company paid certain loans from shareholders (Mr. Lv and Mr. Yang) in the amounts of approximately $3,405,295 and $1,842,557. The higher net amount of cash used in financing activities in fiscal 2009 was primarily due to the repayment of principal under the foregoing loans.

Net Cash Provided by Operating Activities

Net cash provided by operating activities for the twelve months ended June 30, 2008 increased to $13,060,249 compared to $4,646,495 for the same period ended June 30, 2007. The primary reasons for the increase were the increase in revenue, partly driven by soaring coal and coke prices in the first half of calendar year 2008, and an increase in net income (which rose from $602,750 to $17,664,665 for fiscal year 2008), partially offset by an increase in accounts receivable, advances to suppliers, and above all, cash used to pay other payables and accrued liabilities. In fiscal 2008, other payables decreased by $4.6 million because SinoCoking's strong cash flow position allowed it to pay down balances to various vendors or other non-purchase accounts payable at a faster pace. SinoCoking is required to pay some of its major suppliers on an expedited basis for products purchased during a period of increasing costs for supplies.

Net Cash Used in Investing Activities

Net cash used in investing activities for the year ended June 30, 2008 increased to $8,471,010 from $6,538,812 in the same period in 2007. The primary use of funds for both years was capital expenditures, including the purchase of new coking equipment, and mining facility improvements to increase mining capacity from 200,000 tons annually to 300,000 tons annually. In addition, SinoCoking used approximately $5.8 million of cash to make payments in connection with its prior acquisition of rights to three coal mines and Baofeng coking plant.

Net Cash Used in Financing Activities

Net cash used in financing activities for the year ended June 30, 2008 was $937,425. While SinoCoking has borrowed from time to time from Jianhua Lv, the company's CEO and Chairman, the company repaid some of these loans (net of current year shareholder capital contribution) in the total amount of $1,226,574 to Mr. Lv during the year ended June 30, 2008. The balance of SinoCoking's short-term loans from various banks and individuals rose slightly by $289,149 at June 30, 2008 as compared to the balance at June 30, 2007.

Capital Sources

Funding for SinoCoking's business activities has historically been provided by cash flow from operations, and short-term lender financing, including loans from its shareholders Mr. Lv and Mr. Yang.

SinoCoking did not have any credit lines as of September 30, 2009.

The overall business plan of SinoCoking involves growing its business through (1) expansion and modernization of its production facilities, to achieve greater productivity and energy efficiency (with less environmental impact); (2) recapturing more coking by-products for refinement into useful industrial chemicals, and production of more high-value-added chemical products, and (3) potential acquisition of other coal mines to source raw materials. Any future facility expansion and acquisition will require additional financing and/or equity capital and will be dependent upon the availability of financing arrangements and capital. As described elsewhere in this discussion and analysis, SinoCoking entered into a share exchange agreement with AbleAuctions.com, Inc. whereby it will become a wholly owned subsidiary of AbleAuctions.com, Inc. AbleAuctions.com, Inc. will change its name to "SinoCoking Coke and Coal Chemical, Inc.", the principal business of the combined company will be the business and operations of SinoCoking, and the combined company will continue to be a reporting entity subject to the requirements of the Securities Act of 1934. SinoCoking believes that as a public company it will have better access to capital markets and financing, and that its shares (when they become publicly traded) will provide another means of executing future acquisitions.

Capital Expenditures

During fiscal 2009 SinoCoking had capital expenditures of $10.5 million and in fiscal 2008 it had capital expenditures of approximately $8.5 million. These capital expenditures were made in order to purchase vehicles, mining equipment and coking equipment for the company's coal and coke production sites. In fiscal 2009, the company also made remaining payments in connection with the acquisition of mining rights in the aggregate amount approximately $1 million, to the prior owners of the Yongshun, Tanglishu and Liangshuiquan mines.

Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures about Market Risk

SinoCoking does not use derivative financial instruments and has no foreign exchange contracts. SinoCoking's financial instruments consist of cash and cash equivalents, trade accounts receivable, accounts payable and long-term obligations. The company generally considers investments in highly liquid instruments purchased with a remaining maturity of 90 days or less at the date of purchase to be cash equivalents. However, in order to manage the foreign exchange risks, the company may from time to time engage in hedging activities to manage its financial exposure related to currency exchange fluctuation. In these hedging activities, SinoCoking may use fixed-price, forward, futures, financial swaps and option contracts traded in the over-the-counter markets or on exchanges, as well as long-term structured transactions when feasible. Currently SinoCoking does not engage in any of these types of currency hedging transactions.

Interest Rates. SinoCoking generally does not invest in or hold debt securities. Accordingly, fluctuations in applicable interest rates would not have a material impact on the company. At September 30, 2009, the company held bank deposits, but no short term debt instruments. A hypothetical 10% increase or decrease in applicable interest rates would not have any material impact on the company's earnings, loss or cash flows.

Foreign Exchange Rate. All of the sales and inputs of SinoCoking are transacted in Renminbi ("RMB"). As a result, changes in the relative values of U.S. Dollars and RMB affect the company's reported levels of revenues and profitability as the results are translated into U.S. Dollars for reporting purposes. However, since SinoCoking conducts its sales and purchase inputs in RMB, fluctuations in exchange rates are not expected to significantly affect financial stability, or gross and net profit margins. SinoCoking does not currently expect to incur significant foreign exchange gains or losses, or gains or losses associated with any foreign operations.

Market for Common Equity and Related Shareholder Matters

SinoCoking's stock does not have a public trading market.

Changes in and Disagreements with Accountants on Accounting and Financial Disclosure

There have been no changes in SinoCoking's accountants or any disagreements between SinoCoking and its accountants.

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The audited financial statements of the Company for the years ended December 31, 2009 and 2008, and the unaudited financial statements for the three months ended September 30, 2009 are attached to this proxy statement as Attachment B. The audited financial statements for the years ended June 30, 2007, 2008 and 2009, and the unaudited financial statements of Top Favour Limited (SinoCoking) for the three-month periods ended September 30, 2009 and 2008 are attached to this proxy statement as Attachment C. The historical financial statements of Top Favour Limited will become the historical financial statements of Ableactions, therefore, pro forma financial information of Ableactions is not presented in this proxy statement.

DILUTION OF COMPANY SHAREHOLDERS

As a result of the Transactions (which includes the Acquisition), the shareholders of the Company will incur substantial dilution in their interests in the Company. Following the Transactions, the Company's current shareholders will own approximately 3% of the outstanding common stock. Consequently, not only will the Company's shareholders' capital interest in the Company be reduced from 100% to 3%, but their voting power will be similarly reduced. Following the Acquisition, the current shareholders of SinoCoking will own 97% of the outstanding common stock of the Company and will be able to control the Company's affairs, including the election of all members of the Company's board of directors. Nonetheless, the shareholders of the Company who are shareholders on the applicable ex-dividend and record dates will be entitled to receive a pro-rata distribution of the assets of Ableactions, and furthermore, shares of the Company's common stock that are held through and after the Acquisition will represent post-transaction shares of the combined company, which shall include the business of SinoCoking.

Proposed Financing

The closing of the Acquisition will be contingent on the simultaneous closing of a proposed financing of $50 million to $75 million, which may be comprised of debt or equity securities or both, to be determined by the board of directors in consultation with SinoCoking. This contingency may be waived by SinoCoking. Proceeds from this financing are expected to be used to acquire property, plant and equipment relating to the expansion of SinoCoking's coke producing capacity, and for other general working capital purposes. For further details regarding SinoCoking's expansion plans, see the section entitled "Expansion Plans" on page 29 of this proxy statement.

The financing is expected to result in dilution to the holders of shares after giving effect to the Acquisition, including both the shareholders of Ableactions immediately prior to the Acquisition owning approximately 3% of the outstanding shares, and the former shareholders of SinoCoking owning 97% of the outstanding shares. Since as of the date of this proxy statement, the terms of the financing have not been determined, the Company is unable to determine the degree of dilution that will result to the Company's shareholders. Solely for purposes of illustration, if investors in the financing were to be issued new shares constituting 20% of the outstanding shares of the Company's common stock post-financing, then the amount of dilution would be as shown below:

	Pre-Financing(1)		Post-Financing(2)
Investors in the Financing	-		20.0	%
Ableauctions Shareholders(3)	3.0	%	2.4	%
Former SinoCoking Shareholders (4)	97	%	77.60	%
	100.00	%	100.00	%

- (1) Percentage of outstanding shares of Ableauctions held by shareholders after giving effect to the Acquisition, but excluding the effect of any financing.
- (2) Percentage of outstanding shares of Ableauctions held by shareholders after giving effect to both the Acquisition and a hypothetical financing involving the issuance of shares of common stock constituting 20% of the total issued and outstanding shares post-financing.
- (3) Holders of all Ableauctions shares outstanding after giving effect to the Acquisition. These are the holders of 100% of the issued and outstanding shares of Ableauctions common stock of prior to the Acquisition.
- (4) Holders of shares of SinoCoking, who agreed to transfer their SinoCoking shares to Ableauctions in exchange for shares of Ableauctions under the Share Exchange Agreement.

If the financing occurs, the actual total number of shares of common stock issued in the financing could be greater than or less than 20% of the total number of issued and outstanding shares of the Company post-financing.

Regulatory Approvals

There are no federal or state regulatory requirements that must be complied with in regard to the Transactions, other than disclosure obligations under the SEC rules, the filing of charter amendments with the Secretary of State of the State of Florida, and filings with the SEC and state securities regulatory authorities that may be required in connection with the proposed financing.

Appraisal Rights

None of the Company's shareholders have any appraisal rights as a result of the Transactions.

Approval of Transactions

Our Articles of Incorporation require that the proposals be approved by holders of 50.01% or more of the issued and outstanding shares of the Company's common stock, as more specifically discussed above.

About the Current Board of Directors

There are no family relationships among our current directors or executive officers.

During the past five years, except as described below, none of our directors or executive officers have been involved in any of the following events:

- Any bankruptcy petition filed by or against any business of which a director or executive officer was a general partner or executive officer either at the time of the bankruptcy or within two years prior to that time;
- Any conviction in a criminal proceeding or being subject to a pending criminal proceeding (excluding traffic violations and other minor offenses);
- Being subject to any order, judgment or decree not subsequently reversed, suspended or vacated, of any court of competent jurisdiction, permanently or temporarily enjoining, barring, suspending or otherwise limiting his involvement in any type of business, securities or banking activities; and
- Being found by a court of competent jurisdiction (in a civil action), the Commission or the Commodity Futures Trading Commission to have violated a federal or state securities or commodities law, and the judgment has not been reversed, suspended or vacated.

In 2002 it was determined that iCollector PLC, a subsidiary of Ableauctions.com, could not sustain its operations and it was eventually placed into formal bankruptcy proceedings pursuant to the laws of the United Kingdom. In 2002, Ableauctions.com (Washington) Inc., our wholly owned subsidiary, ceased its bricks and mortar operations in San Mateo and San Francisco. Our current officers and directors also served as our officers and directors during this period.

Director Independence, Committees and Nomination Process

We do not have, nor are we required by the rules of the NYSE Amex Equities to have, a standing nominating or compensation committee. The board of directors believes that, considering the Company's size and current available resources, the need for these committees is not appropriate or compelling at this time, and currently the functions of a nominating and compensation committee are effectively handled by the full board of directors. Our board of directors is presently made up of four members, three of whom are deemed to be "independent": Messrs. Barrett Sleeman and Michael Boyling and Dr. David Vogt are independent, as that term is defined in Section 803 of the Rules of the NYSE Amex Equities. Mr. Barrett Sleeman and Dr. David Vogt are members of our audit committee.

Communications with Members of our Board of Directors

The board of directors has not established a formal process for shareholders to send communications to its members. Any shareholder may send a communication to any member of the board of directors in care of our address below:

Disclosure to Summary Compensation Table

Our compensation program consists of the following three components:

- base salary;
- bonuses; and
- awards of options to purchase common stock from our 1999 Stock Option Plan.

We believe that a combination of cash and options will allow us to attract and retain the services of the individuals who will help us achieve our business objectives, thereby increasing value for our shareholders.

In setting the compensation for our sole executive officer, our board of directors looked primarily at his responsibilities, at salaries paid to others in businesses comparable to ours, at his experience and at our ability to replace him. We expect the salary of our executive officer to remain relatively constant unless his responsibilities are materially changed.

Bonuses are used to reward performance, either by the individual or by the company. Bonuses are discretionary. No bonuses were granted to our executive officer during the 2008 fiscal year.

Outstanding Equity Awards at Fiscal Year-End

The following table shows the outstanding equity awards granted to our highest paid executive officers as of December 31, 2008. Equity awards granted to Mr. Ladha were granted in connection with his service as a director.

None of these individuals have engaged in any transactions with Ableauctions, or in any transactions in which any of the foregoing individuals had or will have a direct or indirect material interest.

SinoCoking Director Independence, Committees and Nomination Process

Among the six proposed candidates for appointment to the board of directors following the closing of the Acquisition, the board of directors believes three candidates would not be independent, and three would meet the criteria for independence under the rules of the NYSE Amex Equities, as indicated in the table above under the caption "Management After the Acquisition".

Disclosure to Summary Compensation Table

Historically, SinoCoking's compensation program has consisted solely of a base salary. Presently, the Company believes SinoCoking has no plans to change its executive compensation program after the Acquisition, however, once the Acquisition has been completed, the successor board of directors may at their discretion alter the amount and nature of compensation to be paid to the Company's executive officers from time to time in order to attract and retain the services of the individuals who will help the Company achieve its business objectives and enhance value for shareholders, or for other reasons determined by such board.

Outstanding Equity Awards at Fiscal Year-End

SinoCoking has not granted any equity awards to its officers and directors during its last completed fiscal year through and up to the date of this proxy statement. Mr. Lv, the President, Chief Executive Officer, and Chairman of SinoCoking, does not hold any shares of Top Favour, and does not hold any shares of Ableauctions. However, Mr. Lv has entered into an Incentive Option Agreement with a shareholder of Top Favour, whereby he may potentially acquire up to 51% of the shares of Top Favour, and accordingly, approximately 49.5% of Ableauctions after giving effect to the Share Exchange (for further details regarding the Incentive Option Agreement, see the section above entitled “Transfer of share ownership in Top Favour (BVI)”). Mr. Liuchang Yang holds an approximate 4.2% interest in Top Favour (which will constitute approximately 4% of the shares of Ableauctions after giving effect to the Share Exchange), and no shares of Ableauctions. Except as named above, none of the executive officers and directors of SinoCoking hold any equity interest in either Top Favour (SinoCoking) or Ableauctions.

Employment Agreements for SinoCoking Management

Each of the executive officers of SinoCoking are employed on an at-will basis, and SinoCoking has not entered into any written employment agreements with any of its executive officers.

The number of shares shown as beneficially owned in the tables below are calculated pursuant to Rule 13d-3(d)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Under Rule 13d-3(d)(1), shares not outstanding that are subject to options, warrants, rights or conversion privileges exercisable within 60 days are deemed outstanding for the purpose of calculating the number and percentage owned by such person, but not deemed outstanding for the purpose of calculating the percentage owned by each other person listed. Except in cases where community property laws apply or as indicated in the footnotes to this table, we believe that each stockholder identified in the table possesses sole voting and investment power over all of the shares of common stock.

(3) This number includes 2,526,889 shares of common stock owned by Mr. Ladha and 250,573 shares of common stock owned by the Ladha (1999) Family Trust. This number does not include 1,204,021 shares of common stock issued to Mr. Ladha's spouse. Mr. Ladha disclaims ownership of these shares.

Code of Ethics

We have adopted a code of ethics that applies to our principal executive officer, principal financial officer, principal accounting officer or controller, or persons performing similar functions. Our code of ethics will be provided to any person without charge, upon request. Requests should be addressed to Mr. Abdul Ladha, c/o Ableauctions.com, Inc. Suite 454 - 4111 Hastings Street, Burnaby, British Columbia, Canada V5C 6T7.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

On January 1, 2007 we entered into a three year lease of approximately 2,851 square feet of storage space from Bullion Reef Holdings Ltd., a private company controlled by Abdul Ladha, our Chief Executive Officer and director, and owned by the Ladha Family Trust. While Mr. Ladha is not a beneficiary of the Ladha Family Trust, members of his family are beneficiaries. The monthly rent on the property, located at 3112 Boundary Road, Coquitlam, British Columbia, was approximately $1,777 based on a triple-net lease. In 2007 the building was sold and the lease was terminated with no penalty.

We market the condominium units being developed by our subsidiary, Axion, using the brand name "Overture Living™". The mark, "Overture Living™" belongs to Abdul Ladha. Mr. Ladha has received no compensation for the use of this mark.

On April 9, 2007 Abdul Ladha entered into a Securities Purchase Agreement with us pursuant to which he purchased units consisting of one share of our common stock, $0.001 par value, and a warrant to purchase three shares of our common stock. The purchase price was $0.20 per unit (pre-split), the last sale price of our common stock on Thursday, April 5, 2007, the last trading day prior to the purchase. Mr. Ladha purchased a total of 2,941,175 units (pre-split), representing 2,941,175 shares of common stock and warrants (pre-split) to purchase an additional 8,823,525 shares (pre-split). The total purchase price for the investment was $588,000. The warrants have an exercise price of $0.20 (pre-split), a term of 10 years and will expire, if not exercised, on April 9, 2017.

From October 2007 through December 2007, we rented approximately 1,681 square feet of residential property adjacent to our Gruv Development from Surrey Central City Holdings Ltd., a private company wholly-owned by Bullion Reef Holdings Ltd, which, as described above, is a company controlled by Abdul Ladha and owned by the Ladha Family Trust. The rent for the three month period was $5,043 ($5,000 CAD), or approximately $1,680 ($1,666 CAD) per month. We believe that we received fair value for the rent and that if we had paid an independent party, we would have paid approximately the same amount per month, based on market rents at the time.

During the year ended December 31, 2007, we received a payment of $12,661 from Bullion Reef Holdings Ltd. as reimbursement of office and personnel expenses.

On August 19, 2008, we entered into an Agreement to Convert Debt with Abdul Ladha. Pursuant to the Agreement, Mr. Ladha agreed to accept units consisting of one share of the common stock and a warrant to purchase 1.5 shares of the common stock as partial payment of loans made to us totaling $384,000. Pursuant to the Agreement, Mr. Ladha accepted units consisting of 400,000 shares of common stock and warrants for the purchase of 600,000 shares of common stock as full payment of the principal amount of the loans. The number of units to be issued was computed by using the last sale price of the Company's common stock on August 19, 2008, which was $0.96. The warrant exercise price is $1.08 and the warrant term is 5 years. The agreement was subject to the approval of the NYSE Amex Equities, which was received on October 2, 2008. On October 6, 2008, the shares were issued and all the warrants were exercised by Mr. Ladha, resulting in the issuance of a total of 1,000,000 shares of common stock to him.

On October 6, 2008 our board of directors approved a Development Agreement between us and Mr. Ladha, Overture Development Corporation, Surrey Central City Holdings Ltd. ("Surrey") and Bullion Reef Holdings Ltd. ("Bullion"). Mr. Ladha is the sole officer, director and shareholder of Overture Development Corporation and the sole officer and director of Surrey. Bullion is the sole shareholder of Surrey. Both Surrey and Bullion are controlled by Mr. Ladha. We agreed to purchase one-half of the shares of "Class A" common stock issued and outstanding in Surrey from Bullion for the purchase price of $1,347,440. One-half of the purchase price was to be paid in cash and the other one-half of the purchase price was paid with a promissory note that accrued interest at the rate of prime plus 2% per annum, for an effective interest rate of 5%. Bullion was entitled, at its election, to accept shares of our common stock having a value of $0.432 per share in payment of up to $1 million in principal amount and the interest accrued thereon. The conversion price per share was computed by taking the last sale price of one share of the Company's common stock on the date on which the Development Agreement was executed, and increasing it by 20%. The purchase price for the Class A common stock could be adjusted upward in the event of either of the following occurrences. The purchase price could be increased to reflect the increase in value that would accrue to the property owned by Surrey if Surrey decided to develop the property with a 6-storey complex rather than a 4-storey complex. The purchase price would also be increased to reflect the increase in value that would accrue to the property if Surrey was able to acquire an adjacent lot owned by an unrelated third party. On October 23, 2008, Surrey entered into an agreement to acquire the adjacent lot and in December 2008 the purchase of this lot was completed. In accordance with the Development Agreement, we obtained two appraisals to determine the increase in the value of the Class A common stock as a result of purchasing the adjacent lot. This acquisition increased the value of our 50% interest in Surrey to $1,867,085, therefore, the principal amount owed under the promissory note was increased to $1,193,365, which was the highest principal amount outstanding through November 16, 2009. On April 30, 2009 Bullion assigned one-half of its interest in the promissory note to Mr. Ladha and one-half of its interest in the promissory note to Hanifa Ladha, Mr. Ladha's spouse. On July 27, 2009 Mr. and Mrs. Ladha each converted $500,000 in principal amount and $20,136.99 in accrued interest into 1,204,021 shares of our common stock. As of November 16, 2009 the remaining balance of the promissory note, including all outstanding principal and interest, was paid in full.

Excluding the promissory note issued to Bullion which is described above, other loans provided to us by Mr. Ladha or his affiliates since January 1, 2007 included loans (i) to cover cash shortfalls related to our Gruv Development that result from timing issues that temporarily prevented us from borrowing against the credit facility, (ii) the balance of the cash portion of the purchase price that was paid for the Surrey Class A common stock and (iii) loans made for other working capital requirements. Since January 1, 2007 to November 16, 2009, the total of the principal amount of these loans was $2,005,691. All of the loans accrued interest at the rate of 5%, with the exception of the cash portion of the purchase price to be paid for the Surrey Class A common stock, which did not accrue interest. During the period from January 1, 2007 through November 16, 2009, the highest principal amount outstanding (excluding the loan from Bullion discussed above) was $690,198 and during the period we made principal payments of $2,005,691 and payments of interest in the amount of $7,607. As of November 16, 2009, all the loans made to us by Mr. Ladha have been paid and there are no amounts currently due.

On July 17, 2009 Mr. Ladha and his spouse entered into the Share Exchange Agreement with Sino-Coking. A description of the Share Exchange Agreement is included in the section of this proxy statement entitled "Summary Term Sheet" at page 3.

On July 17, 2009, Mr. Ladha and his spouse entered into a Voting Agreement with SinoCoking whereby Mr. and Mrs. Ladha have agreed to vote in favor of the proposals included in this proxy statement at any meeting of the Ableauctions' shareholders. In addition, if necessary under certain circumstances, Mr. Ladha will acquire additional shares of common stock (up to a maximum acquisition price of $400,000). Under the Voting Agreement, Mr. and Mrs. Ladha have also agreed to use their voting power, if necessary, to replace the board of directors. For the full text of the Voting Agreement, please refer to the Company's current report on Form 8-K as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on July 17, 2009.

Interest of Certain Persons in Matters to be Acted Upon

Abdul Ladha is our Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of the Board of Directors, a significant shareholder, and a creditor of the Company. If the Acquisition, Plan of Liquidation, and related matters as described in Proposals 1 through 4 are implemented, Mr. Abdul's employment as Chief Executive Officer and Chairman will terminate, the outstanding balance of any loans he has made to the Company will be repaid by the Company and the Company will pay him certain fees and expenses as more fully discussed in the section of this proxy statement entitled "Proposal 2 – Approval of Terms of Plan of Liquidation". Furthermore, we expect to appoint the members of our board of directors as the managers or the trustees of the Liquidating Entity, and we expect to pay each of these individuals a fee for managing the Liquidating Entity, although no final determination of how the fee will be calculated has been made. Except for the foregoing, no other officer, director or associate of such persons, has any substantial direct or indirect interest in the Acquisition or Plan of Liquidation that differs from or that is in addition to interests of the other shareholders of the Company.

The Company's implementation of Proposal 1 is conditioned upon shareholder approval of each and every of the Proposals 2, 3, 4 and 5. If the Company waives the implementation of Proposal 5, the implementation of Proposal 1 will be conditioned on shareholder approval of Proposals 2, 3 and 4.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE "FOR" THE ACQUISITION.

PROPOSAL 2

APPROVAL OF TERMS OF PLAN OF LIQUIDATION

As a condition to consummation of the Acquisition, the Share Exchange Agreement requires, and the Company has agreed to, liquidate its assets, discharge its liabilities, and wind up the business conducted prior to the Acquisition, including its on-line liquidation services, real estate development business and related properties, as existing and outstanding immediately prior to the closing of the Acquisition ("Prior Business"). In connection with the foregoing, the board of directors has authorized management of the Company to create a Plan of Liquidation with the terms described below, the execution of which shall be contingent on the completion of the Acquisition.

The terms of the Plan of Liquidation will set forth the steps to be taken to execute the liquidation of the Prior Business. Under the Plan of Liquidation, the Company will establish the Liquidating Entity, into which the Company will transfer the assets of the Prior Business and which will assume or otherwise dispose of the liabilities. The trustees or managers of the Liquidating Entity, who we anticipate will be the current members of our board of directors, will cause all of such liabilities to be paid, and assets sold. Upon complete discharge of the liabilities and liquidation of the assets relating to the Prior Business, the trustees or managers shall cause any remaining cash to be distributed to the shareholders of the Company pro rata in proportion to shares held on a record date to be determined. We expect to compensate the trustees or managers for their management of the Liquidating Entity although no final determination of how the compensation will be calculated has been made.

Prior to the consummation of the Acquisition, the Company will distribute all of the assets relating to the the Prior Business to a liquidating trust or other entity, which will also assume or otherwise dispose of the liabilities, for the benefit of the Company's existing shareholders. At this time we do not know and we cannot predict the timing of the sale of our assets, the costs related to the liquidation of our assets or the amount of net proceeds, if any, that will be distributed to our shareholders in connection with the plan of liquidation. Shareholders may receive nothing as a result of the liquidation of our assets if the proceeds we receive from the sale of our assets are approximately equal to, or less than, our liabilities and the costs and fees associated with the liquidation.

Mr. Ladha is an executive officer of the Company and, a director as well as a major shareholder. Since Abdul Ladha is also one of our creditors, we will be required to pay any loans or other amounts owed to him prior to distributing any proceeds to our shareholders. This could raise a conflict of interest between Mr. Ladha and our remaining shareholders, because Mr. Ladha may benefit from an expedient sale of our assets for less than their fair market value (as opposed to a less expedient sale of assets at potentially higher sale prices) resulting in earlier repayment of these amounts to Mr. Ladha. However, no sales of our assets or distributions may be made without the approval of a majority of the trustees or managers who, other than Mr. Ladha, will be independent.

Currently, it is our intention to sell our assets as quickly as possible at their fair market values, rather than at an auction, because we believe that auctioning our assets would result in prices below fair market value. Therefore, at this time we cannot make an estimate of when the payment of liabilities and the distribution of assets from the Liquidating Entity will take place. For example, while all of the condominiums included in the Gruv Development have been pre-sold and we expect all of these sales to close in accordance with the terms of the agreements by November 30, 2009, the 5 retail units are currently being marketed and we have received no acceptable offers to date to purchase the units.

We also have a one-third interest in Township Holdings Ltd., a joint venture with two unrelated parties, which owns two vacant lots totaling approximately 4.72 acres located in Langley, British Columbia. The property was purchased on August 14, 2006 for a purchase price of $3.42 million and is currently being offered for sale at a price of $3.2 million. This price was suggested by the realtor retained by Township Holdings Ltd., who is experienced in selling commercial real estate in the area in which the property is located. We estimate that selling expenses will be approximately $90,000 of which $30,000 will be our share. If Township Holdings Ltd. is successful in selling the property for $3.2 million, we would be required to record an impairment charge of $354,000 related to the property. Township Holdings Ltd. has received no offers to purchase the property to date.

We also own one-half of the Class A common stock in Surrey Central City Holdings Ltd., which holds five lots that it plans to develop. We have not yet made a determination about how we will dispose of the Class A common stock, or any of the capital stock in our other subsidiaries. However, we are considering the following options relating to our interest in Surrey Central City Holdings, Ltd.:

- We may seek to sell the Class A common stock to an unrelated third party with experience in developing commercial properties;
- We may ask Bullion to repurchase the Class A common stock from us. Since this would be a related party transaction, we would appoint one of our independent board members to negotiate the terms on behalf of our shareholders;
- We may keep the Class A common stock, complete and sell the development and distribute the proceeds to our shareholders; or
- We and Bullion may sell the property owned by Surrey Central City Holdings Ltd. and distribute our portion of the proceeds to our shareholders.

In conjunction with our purchase of the Class A common stock in Surrey, in September 2008 we received two appraisals of the four lots it owned at that time. The earlier appraisal, dated September 10, 2008, valued the lots at $2,500,000. The later appraisal, dated September 24, 2008, valued the lots at $2,941,000. On October 23, 2008 Surrey entered into an agreement to acquire the lot adjacent to the four lots it owned and in December 2008 the purchase of this lot was completed. In accordance with the Development Agreement, we obtained two appraisals to determine the increase in the value of the Class A common stock as a result of Surrey's purchase of the adjacent lot. The appraisals, dated May 20, 2009, appraised the fifth lot at an average value of $1,039,290.

Finally, at September 30, 2009 we had loans outstanding to four individuals totaling $1,907,229. As of November 16, 2009 all but $142,028 of the loans, which are held by two individuals, were paid in full. One of the loans is in foreclosure. If we are required to accept as payment for the loan the real property that secures it, we will have to market that property as well. On November 2, 2009 we entered into a new purchase money loan agreement for $2,720,000 with the purchaser of the property located at 1963 Lougheed Highway. Therefore, at November 16, 2009 we had loans outstanding to three parties totaling $2,862,028.

At September 30, 2009, our assets exceeded our liabilities by $10,758,802, however, we cannot guarantee that the liquidation of our assets will generate proceeds in this amount. Furthermore, if we are unsuccessful in marketing the real property assets, we may decide to auction them. Upon payment of the liabilities and liquidation of the assets, we intend to establish a reserve fund and obtain insurance policies to cover unknown or contingent liabilities. While we intend to distribute the net proceeds from the liquidation of our assets to our shareholders as soon as practicable as they become available, at this time we do not know, and we cannot predict, the timing of the sale of our assets, all of the costs related to the liquidation of our assets or the amount of net proceeds, if any, that will be distributed to our shareholders in connection with the plan of liquidation. Shareholders may receive nothing as a result of the liquidation of our assets if the proceeds we receive from the sale of our assets are approximately equal to, or less than, our liabilities and the costs and fees associated with the liquidation.

We expect the costs of liquidation to include, but not be limited to, sales commissions, our share of closing costs for any of the real property we sell, legal fees, including but not limited to fees incurred for document review or document preparation relating to liquidating our assets and for the preparation of annual or quarterly reports we may be required to file, accounting fees including tax preparation fees, auditor fees relating to the review of our quarterly filings and the audit of our year-end financial statements if an audit is required, insurance premiums, printing and mailing costs, and fees we will pay to the trustees or managers. We expect to pay the costs of liquidation from the proceeds we receive from the sale of our assets. We plan to pay each of the trustees or managers compensation for managing the Liquidating Entity, although no final determination has been made regarding how the compensation will be computed. Trustee compensation may be computed on an hourly basis for an agreed-upon hourly rate, as a percentage of the value of the assets managed or may be an agreed-upon lump sum. We expect to compensate the trustees with cash in one of these 3 ways, but we do not expect to make this determination until the Transaction closes.

As of November 16, 2009, the liabilities that must be paid before we distribute our assets include termination fees and outstanding allowances that are estimated to be $330,000 owed to Mr. Ladha under his employment agreement and development fees which are estimated will total approximately $867,536 that will be owed to Mr. Ladha in accordance with the terms of the Development Agreement. As of November 16, 2009 our liabilities also included, but were not limited to, $600,082 in fees owed to Macdonald Realty Ltd. for the marketing of the condominiums included in the Gruv Development.

The board of directors shall determine and announce a record date for the determination of shareholders who are entitled to become pro rata beneficiaries of the Liquidating Entity, which date will depend principally on the closing date of the Acquisition.

The Company's implementation of Proposal 2 is conditioned upon shareholder approval of each and every of the Proposals 1, 3, 4 and 5. If the Company waives the implementation of Proposal 5, the implementation of Proposal 2 will be conditioned on shareholder approval of Proposals 1, 3 and 4.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE "FOR" THE TERMS OF THE PLAN OF LIQUIDATION.

PROPOSAL 3

REVERSE STOCK SPLIT AND AMENDMENT TO ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

The board of directors has unanimously adopted and approved amendments to the Company's Articles of Incorporation (the "Articles Amendments") to, among other things, effect a reverse split of the Company's outstanding common stock, within a range of 1-for-20 to 1-for-50, the exact ratio to be determined by subsequent resolution of the board of directors ("Reverse Stock Split"). The Articles Amendments are conditioned upon the successful consummation of the Acquisition.

The Reverse Stock Split will be implemented by filing the Articles Amendments with the Secretary of State of Florida. The number of shares of common stock authorized for issuance shall remain unchanged as a result of the Articles Amendment, and the Company will continue to have 100,000,000 shares of common stock authorized for issuance. Effective upon the filing of the Articles Amendments, the number of outstanding shares of the Company's common stock will be reduced from approximately 8.3 million shares to a number of shares ranging from approximately 166,000 to 415,000 shares (the exact number of which shall depend on the ratio of the Reverse Stock Split, and any adjustments to address fractional shares). Each shareholder entitled to a fractional share of the Company's common stock as a result of the Reverse Stock Split will receive a whole share of the Company's common stock in lieu of such fractional share. Once the Company files the Articles Amendments, the Company will have approximately 99.6 million authorized but unissued shares of common stock available for issuance.

In completing the Acquisition, the Company will issue a number of shares ranging from approximately 13.2 million to 5.3 million shares of its common stock (depending on the ratio of the Reverse Stock Split determined by the board of directors) to the shareholders of SinoCoking, which amount will represent approximately 97% of the total outstanding shares of the Company, excluding the effect of an anticipated financing. The shares issued by the Company will not be registered under the Securities Act of 1933 based on an exemption from registration under Regulation S under the Securities Act, and may not be resold unless the shares are registered under the Securities Act or an exemption from registration is available.

The remaining authorized but unissued shares of common stock will be available for issuance from time to time as may be deemed advisable or required for various purposes, including the issuance of shares in connection with financing or acquisition transactions and the issuance or reservation of common stock to consultants, contractors or employees. The Company's board of directors will be able to authorize the issuance of shares for these transactions without the necessity, and related costs and delays, of either calling a special shareholders' meeting or waiting for the regularly scheduled annual meeting of shareholders in order to increase the authorized capital. If in a particular transaction shareholder approval was required by law or by the rules of any stock exchange, or was otherwise deemed advisable by the board, then the matter would be referred to the shareholders for their approval notwithstanding that the Company may have the requisite number of voting shares to consummate the transaction.

The Articles Amendment is not intended to have any anti-takeover effect and is not part of any series of anti-takeover measures contained in any debt instruments or the Articles of Incorporation or the Bylaws of the Company in effect on the date of this proxy statement. However, the Company's shareholders should note that the availability of additional authorized and unissued shares of common stock could make any attempt to gain control of the Company or the board more difficult or time consuming and that the availability of additional authorized and unissued shares might make it more difficult to remove management (See "Effect of Reverse Split and Potential Anti-Takeover Effect" below).

The Reverse Stock Split

The following table reflects the hypothetical number of shares of common stock that would be outstanding as a result of the Reverse Stock Split and the approximate percentage reduction in the number of outstanding shares based on approximately 8.1 million shares of common stock that are anticipated to be outstanding on the Record Date, in a scenario in which the Reverse Stock Split ratio is 1-for-20 and 1-for-50, respectively.

Proposed Reverse Split Ratio	Percentage Reduction	Approximate Shares of Common Stock to be Outstanding After the Reverse Split (1)
1-for-20 reverse split	95.0%	405,710
1-for-50 reverse split	98.0%	162,284

(1) Excludes the shares of common stock issuable in the Acquisition, and any financing.

Previous 1-for-12 Reverse Stock Split and Reasons for the Currently Proposed Reverse Stock Split

On September 18, 2008 we received a letter from the NYSE Amex Equities (formerly the American Stock Exchange and referred to in this discussion as the “Exchange”) indicating that the low selling price of our common stock may not be suitable for auction market trading. Over the three months preceding the date of the letter, the price per share of our common stock ranged between $0.06 and $0.10. The Exchange indicated in its letter that, in accordance with Section 1003(f)(v) of the Company Guide, we were required to undertake a reverse split of our common stock. In response to this letter, and in an effort to avoid possible suspension or delisting of our common stock from the Exchange, we effected a 1-for-12 reverse stock split which became effective on January 15, 2009.

Although the Company has already undertaken a 1-for-12 reverse stock split, management determined, in conjunction with its discussions with SinoCoking, that in order to adjust the Company’s capital structure to achieve a capital structure that is appropriate for the Company following the Acquisition (i.e., appropriate per-share price taking into account the hypothetical market value of the combined entity, and the number of shares that would be outstanding post-Acquisition), the Company would need to undergo an additional reverse stock split.

Our primary reason for effecting the Reverse Stock Split described in this proxy statement is to prepare the Company to issue shares in the Acquisition, and maintain a number of shares outstanding post-Acquisition that management believes would be necessary in order for the combined entity to achieve a per-share price that is above the threshold required of companies whose stock is listed on the Exchange. The anticipated per-share price of the Company’s common stock following the Acquisition will be based on the assets, liabilities, financial condition, and business of SinoCoking, which will exclude the Prior Business. For further information concerning the disposition of the Prior Business, please refer to the section above entitled “Proposal 2 – Approval of Terms of Plan of Liquidation.”

The Reverse Stock Split will also benefit shareholders that would otherwise end up with less than one share of common stock, because any shareholder who is entitled to less than one post-Reverse Stock Split share will receive one whole share.

We estimate that of our approximately - record shareholders, approximately - shareholders have fewer than 50 shares of our common stock.

Based on the foregoing, our board of directors determined that the Reverse Stock Split would be in the best interests of our Company and its shareholders.

In determining the exact ratio of the Reverse Stock Split, the Company agreed that the ratio would be determined at the discretion of SinoCoking, however the principle considerations in making this determination will be (1) the minimum per-share price requirement for listing on the NYSE Amex exchange (or other national exchange), along with the anticipated per-share trading price of the Company's common stock following the Acquisition based on the assets, liabilities, financial condition, and business of SinoCoking, excluding the Prior Business; and (2) the recommendation of an underwriter or underwriters in the proposed financing.

Effectiveness of the Reverse Stock Split and Mechanism for Share Exchange

The Reverse Stock Split will become effective with the filing of the Articles Amendments with the Florida Secretary of State. A form of the proposed Articles Amendments is attached to this proxy statement as Attachment D. The board of directors may abandon the Articles Amendments if the directors determine that it is in the best interests of the company and our shareholders to do so. The Company intends to file the Articles Amendments on or about the time of the closing of the Acquisition.

Upon effectiveness of the Reverse Stock Split, each share of common stock outstanding will immediately and automatically be changed, as of the effective date of the Articles Amendments, into the equivalent of a fraction equal to 1 divided by a number between 20 and 50, depending on the reverse stock split ratio determined by the board of directors. In addition, proportional adjustments will be made to the number of shares issuable upon exercise or conversion of, and the exercise price or conversion formula, of our outstanding options and warrants.

The table below illustrates, as of the date of this proxy statement, the number of shares of common stock that are anticipated to be issued and outstanding on the Record Date for the annual meeting, and the number of shares of common stock that are authorized for issuance.

Number of Shares Outstanding	Number of Shares Authorized
8,114,197	100,000,000

Upon effectiveness of the Reverse Stock Split, the number of issued and outstanding shares of our common stock would be reduced in accordance with the exchange ratio for the Reverse Stock Split. The par value of our common stock would remain unchanged at $0.001 per share and the number of authorized shares of common stock would remain at 100,000,000. Giving effect to the Reverse Stock Split (however excluding the effect of the Share Exchange, the anticipated financing, and rounding up to whole shares), the table below illustrates the number of shares of common stock that will be issued and outstanding and the number of shares of common stock that will be authorized for issuance, in the case of a 1-for-20 reverse stock split, and a 1-for-50 reverse stock split, respectively.

Reverse Stock Split Ratio	Number of Shares Outstanding	Number of Shares Authorized and Reserved for Issuance
1-for-50	162,284	99,837,716

Except as discussed in proposal 1 above and proposal 5 below, we have no plans, proposals or arrangements to issue the additional shares that will be unreserved and available for issuance as a result of the reverse split.

No fractional shares of common stock will be issued in connection with the reverse split. Instead, fractional shares will be rounded up to the next whole share.

Effect of Reverse Split and Potential Anti-Takeover Effect

Management does not anticipate that our financial condition, the percentage ownership of management, the number of our shareholders, or any aspect of our business will materially change as a result of the Reverse Stock Split, considered by itself. Because the Reverse Stock Split will apply to all issued and outstanding shares of common stock and outstanding rights to purchase common stock or to convert other securities into common stock, the proposed Reverse Stock Split will not alter the relative rights and preferences of existing shareholders. However, as noted above, the number of authorized shares of common stock will remain at 100,000,000, but the number of shares of common stock outstanding will be decreased. As a result, we could potentially issue (using the number of shares of common stock outstanding and the number of shares authorized and reserved for issuance as of the Record Date) a total of approximately 99.6 to 99.8 million additional shares of common stock, as opposed to a total of approximately 91.7 million additional shares of common stock that would have been available to issue had the Reverse Stock Split not occurred. As discussed in proposal 1 above, in connection with the Acquisition the Company will issue up to approximately 13.2 million shares of its common stock to the shareholders of SinoCoking. Therefore, holders of our common stock will experience immediate dilution, and could experience substantially greater dilution of their shareholdings if, in the future, we issue all of the authorized but unissued shares of common stock.

The effective increase in our authorized shares could also potentially be used by management to make it more difficult or to discourage a future merger, tender offer or proxy contest or the removal of incumbent management.

Management could use the additional shares to resist a third-party transaction favored by a majority of the independent shareholders, even if it would provide an above-market premium, by issuing additional shares to frustrate the takeover effort. However, this proposal is not the result of management's knowledge of an effort to accumulate our securities or to obtain control of the Company by means of a merger, tender offer, solicitation or otherwise, except as otherwise discussed in this proxy statement.

Neither our Articles of Incorporation nor our by-laws presently contain any provisions having anti-takeover effects and this proposal is not a plan by management to adopt a series of amendments to our Articles of Incorporation or by-laws to institute anti-takeover provisions. We do not presently have any plans or proposals to adopt other provisions or enter into other arrangements that may have material anti-takeover consequences.

There are no rules or practices on any stock exchange that permit such exchange to reserve the right to refuse to list or to de-list any stock which completes a reverse stock split.

Advantages and Disadvantages of the Reverse Stock Split

The reason for the Reverse Stock Split, and the principal advantage of engaging in the Reverse Stock Split, is to adjust our capital structure as a condition to completing the Acquisition. Furthermore, management believes that the Reverse Stock Split will raise the per share price at which our common stock trades, which would enable us to meet the minimum per-share price requirements for listing on the Exchange. With the exception of a low trading price of our common stock, we believe that we meet all the criteria for listing.

A potential disadvantage to the Reverse Stock Split is that we may issue the additional shares of common stock for the purpose of discouraging any potential takeover attempts, even if they are favored by the shareholders.

We have not paid dividends on our common stock since our inception. The decision to pay dividends on common stock is within the discretion of the board of directors. It is our current policy to retain any future earnings to finance the operations and growth of our business.

PROPOSAL 4

CHANGE OF NAME

The board of directors has approved a change to the name of the Company to “SinoCoking Coal & Coke Chemical Industries Inc.” The amendment to effect the change to the Company’s name is conditioned upon the successful consummation of the Acquisition.

The name change will be accomplished by amending the Articles of Incorporation of Ableauctions. This change will become effective upon the filing of Articles Amendments with the Secretary of State of the state of Florida.

We are changing the name of the corporation to “SinoCoking Coal & Coke Chemical Industries Inc.” effective on or near the date of the Acquisition, in order to better reflect the operating business of the Company upon the completion of the Acquisition. Further, by signing the Share Exchange Agreement, we agreed to this corporate name change.

The Company’s implementation of Proposal 4 is conditioned upon shareholder approval of each and every of the Proposals 1, 2, 3 and 5. If the Company waives the implementation of Proposal 5, the implementation of Proposal 4 will be conditioned on shareholder approval of Proposals 1, 2 and 3.

PROPOSAL 5

APPROVAL OF ISSUANCE OF SHARES IN CONNECTION WITH FINANCING

We intend to pursue a financing which may consist of debt or equity or a combination of both, involving the issuance of our securities for $50 million to $75 million in gross proceeds. The exact terms of such financing have not been finalized at this time, however, we anticipate that we will be required to issue a significant amount of our common stock or securities convertible into our common stock.

Section 712 of the NYSE Amex Company Guide (or successor provision) requires approval by our shareholders for the acquisition of stock or assets of another company in the following circumstances:

- (a) if any individual director, officer or substantial shareholder of the listed company has a 5% or greater interest (or such persons collectively have a 10% or greater interest), directly or indirectly, in the company or assets to be acquired or in the consideration to be paid in the transaction and the present or potential issuance of common stock, or securities convertible into common stock, could result in an increase in outstanding common shares of 5% or more; or
- (b) where the present or potential issuance of common stock, or securities convertible into common stock, could result in an increase in outstanding common shares of 20% or more.

The Company’s board of directors has approved the issuance of additional shares of common stock in connection with a financing, the terms of which shall be determined in negotiations with investors. As of the date of this proxy statement, the board of directors of Ableauctions has not entered into any negotiations, nor has Ableauctions entered into any agreements or letters of understanding, with respect to the proposed financing. As of the date of this proxy statement, to the knowledge of Ableauctions the management of SinoCoking has entered into preliminary discussions and have exchanged non-binding term sheets with investors, however SinoCoking has not entered into any binding agreements or letters of understanding with respect to the proposed financing.

Upon implementation of the Reverse Stock Split and effectiveness of the Articles Amendments as described in Proposal 3, the Company will have approximately 99.6 million authorized but unissued shares of common stock available for issuance. As of the date of this proxy statement, the board of directors has not yet determined the number of shares of common stock that would be issued or issuable in the financing, nor is any estimate available, however, up to 99.6 million shares of common stock, which are anticipated to be authorized but unissued, would be available for issuance in the financing or in future financings or issuances of common stock for other purposes.

The detailed terms of the securities to be authorized in connection with the financing, including dividend or interest rates, conversion prices, voting rights, redemption prices, maturity dates, and similar matters will be determined by the board of directors. The financing may consist of debt or equity securities (or a combination of both), and may be issued in a private placement to institutional investors, or by means of a public offering.

The financing is expected to result in dilution of the holders of shares after giving effect to the Acquisition, including both the shareholders of Ableauctions immediately prior to the Acquisition owning approximately 3% of the outstanding shares, and the former shareholders of SinoCoking owning 97% of the outstanding shares. Since as of the date of this proxy statement, the terms of the financing have not been determined, the Company is unable to determine the degree of dilution that will result to the Company's shareholders. Solely for purposes of illustration, if investors in the financing were to be issued new shares constituting 20% of the outstanding shares of the Company's common stock post-financing, then the amount of dilution would be as shown below:

	Pre-Financing(1)		Post-Financing(2)
Investors in the Financing	-		20.0	%
Ableauctions Shareholders(3)	3.0	%	2.40	%
Former SinoCoking Shareholders (4)	97	%	77.60	%
	100.00	%	100.00	%

- (1) Percentage of outstanding shares of Ableauctions held by shareholders after giving effect to the Acquisition, but excluding the effect of any financing.
- (2) Percentage of outstanding shares of Ableauctions held by shareholders after giving effect to both the Acquisition, and the effect of a hypothetical financing involving issuance of shares of common stock constituting 20% of the total issued and outstanding shares post-financing.
- (3) Holders of Ableauctions shares prior to the Acquisition and the Financing.
- (4) Holders of shares of SinoCoking, who agreed to transfer their SinoCoking shares to Ableauctions in exchange for shares of Ableauctions under the Share Exchange Agreement.

If the financing occurs, the actual total number of shares of common stock issued in the financing could be greater than or less than 20% of the total number of issued and outstanding shares of the Company post-financing.

The Company anticipates that the net proceeds from the contemplated financing would be used to acquire property plant and equipment for expansion of SinoCoking's coke production facilities, and for general working capital purposes. For further details regarding SinoCoking's expansion plans, see the section entitled "Expansion Plans" on page 29 of this proxy statement.

Approval by holders of more than 50.01% of the shares represented at the annual meeting must approve the issuance of such shares in order for the Company to proceed with such issuance. The Company does not anticipate that any further authorization for the issuance of securities by a vote of shareholders will be required or solicited prior to the issuance of securities in the financing. The Company's implementation of Proposal 5 is conditioned upon shareholder approval of each and every of the Proposals 1, 2, 3 and 4, unless the Company waives the implementation of Proposal 5.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE "FOR" THE ISSUANCE OF SHARES IN CONNECTION WITH THE FINANCING

PROPOSAL 6

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Four directors are to be elected to our board of directors at the annual meeting. The directors will hold office until the next annual meeting of our shareholders, or until their resignations or removal. The board of directors has nominated Abdul Ladha, Barrett E. G. Sleeman, Dr. David Vogt and Michael Boyling to serve as our directors. We expect that these nominees will be available for election, but if they are not, your proxy will be voted for the election of other nominees to be designated by the board of directors to fill any such vacancies.

Information regarding the business experience of each nominee and director is provided in the section of this proxy statement entitled, "Management", which appears at page 55.

Director Nomination Process

The board of directors, acting as a nominating committee, will consider candidates recommended by shareholders. Shareholders wishing to recommend a candidate for membership on the board of directors should submit to us the name of the individual and other pertinent information, including a short biography and contact information, in the manner described below in this proxy statement in the section entitled "Shareholder Proposals for 2010 Annual Meeting" which appears on page 77.

Some, but not all, of the qualifications that may be considered by the board of directors in choosing a director are:

- minimum, relevant employment experience;
- familiarity with generally accepted accounting principles and the preparation of financial statements;
- post-secondary education or professional license;
- previous experience as a board member of an operating company; and
- the ability to commit the number of hours per year necessary to discharge his or her duty as a member of the board of directors.

A candidate for director must agree to abide by our Code of Business Conduct and Ethics.

Our goal is to seek to achieve a balance of knowledge and experience on our board. To this end, we seek nominees with the highest professional and personal ethics and values, an understanding of our business, diversity of business experience and expertise, broad-based business acumen, and the ability to think strategically. Although we use the criteria listed above as well as other criteria to evaluate potential nominees, we do not have a stated minimum criteria for nominees. The board does not use different standards to evaluate nominees depending on whether they are proposed by our directors and management or by our shareholders. To date, we have not paid any third parties to assist us in finding director nominees.

The board of directors has not received a nominee from a shareholder who is not also an officer or director of the Company. Each nominee to our board of directors expressed a willingness to serve during the next year and, based on a review of his qualifications, each was deemed to be a suitable candidate for nomination.

Meetings of the Board of Directors and Information about Committees

The board of directors met 6 times during the 2008 fiscal year. These meetings were attended by all the directors.

We have no policy with regard to the attendance by board members at our annual meetings. All of the members of our board of directors attended the last annual meeting.

The board of directors has one standing committee, which is the audit committee. The audit committee is responsible for recommending to the board of directors the selection of independent public accountants to audit our books and records annually, to discuss with the independent auditors and internal financial personnel the scope and results of any audit, to review and approve any nonaudit services performed by our independent auditing firm, and to review certain related party transactions. The audit committee met 4 times during the 2008 fiscal year.

The audit committee is currently composed of two directors, Mr. Barrett Sleeman and Dr. David Vogt, who are independent directors as defined under Section 803 of the rules of the NYSE Amex. The audit committee operates under a written charter adopted by the board of directors. While we believe that members of our audit committee each have some of the attributes of an audit committee financial expert, no single individual possesses all of the attributes therefore no one on our audit committee can be deemed to be an audit committee financial expert. However, we believe that the collective experience and education of the members of our audit committee provide us with the expertise that an audit committee financial expert could provide.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

The audit committee oversees our financial reporting process on behalf of the board of directors. Management is responsible for our financial statements and the financial reporting process, including the system of internal controls. The independent auditors are responsible for expressing an opinion on the conformity of those audited financial statements with generally accepted accounting principles.

The audit committee has discussed with the independent auditors the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, Communication with Audit Committees, as amended. In addition, the audit committee has discussed with the independent auditors the auditors' independence from the Company and its management including the matters in the written disclosures provided to the audit committee as required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees.

The audit committee recommended to the board of directors, and the board of directors approved, the inclusion of the audited financial statements in the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the 2008 fiscal year for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

RATIFICATION OF CINNAMON JANG WILLOUGHBY & COMPANY, CHARTERED ACCOUNTANTS, AS OUR INDEPENDENT AUDITORS FOR THE FISCAL YEAR ENDING DECEMBER 31, 2009

The board of directors requests that the shareholders ratify its selection of Cinnamon Jang Willoughby & Company, Chartered Accountants, as our independent auditors for the 2009 fiscal year.

Disclosure of Fees Billed by our Auditors

The following table sets forth fees billed to us by our auditors during the fiscal years ended December 31, 2008 and December 31, 2007 for: (i) services rendered for the audit of our annual financial statements and the review of our quarterly financial statements, (ii) services by our auditor that are reasonably related to the performance of the audit or review of our financial statements and that are not reported as Audit Fees, (iii) services rendered in connection with tax compliance, tax advice and tax planning, and (iv) all other fees for services rendered. STS Partners LLP, Chartered Accountants, our auditor until June 19, 2008, audited our financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2007. On June 19, 2008 we engaged Cinnamon Jang Willoughby & Company, Chartered Accountants, as our independent auditor.

	December 31,

(i) Fees	$67,255	$45,525
Audit Related
(ii) Fees	$	$
Tax
(iii) Fees	$--	$--
All Other
(iv) Fees	$49,755	$24,500

Unless they are de minimus, the audit committee is required to pre-approve services that are reasonably related to the performance of the audit or review of our financial statements, services rendered in connection with tax compliance, tax advice and tax planning, and all other fees for services rendered. The audit committee reviews these services to assure that they do not impair the auditor's independence from the company.

We have not asked representatives of Cinnamon Jang Willoughby & Company, Chartered Accountants, to be present at the annual meeting.

Changes in and Disagreements with Accountants on Accounting and Financial Disclosure

STS Partners LLP, Chartered Accountants, the independent accountant who had been engaged by us as the principal accountant to audit our consolidated financial statements, was dismissed effective June 19, 2008. On June 19, 2008, our board of directors approved the engagement of Cinnamon Jang Willoughby & Company, Chartered Accountants, as our new principal independent accountant to audit our consolidated financial statements for the year ending December 31, 2008.

The decision to change our independent accountant from STS Partners LLP, Chartered Accountants, to Cinnamon Jang Willoughby & Company, Chartered Accountants, was approved by our audit committee.

The report of STS Partners LLP, Chartered Accountants, on our financial statements as of and for the year ended December 31, 2007 (the only year that was audited by STS Partners LLP, Chartered Accountants) did not contain an adverse opinion or a disclaimer of opinion. During the period ended December 31, 2007 and the interim period from January 1, 2008 through the date of dismissal, we did not have any disagreements with STS Partners LLP, Chartered Accountants, on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements, if not resolved to the satisfaction of STS Partners LLP, Chartered Accountants, would have caused it to make a reference to the subject matter of the disagreements in connection with its reports.

Prior to engaging Cinnamon Jang Willoughby & Company, Chartered Accountants, we had not consulted Cinnamon Jang Willoughby & Company, Chartered Accountants, regarding the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction, completed or proposed, or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on our financial statements.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE "FOR" THE RATIFICATION OF CINNAMON JANG WILLOUGHBY & COMPANY, CHARTERED ACCOUNTANTS, AS OUR INDEPENDENT AUDITORS FOR THE 2009 FISCAL YEAR.

TRANSACTION OF OTHER BUSINESS

Management is not aware of any matters to be brought before the meeting other than those referred to in this proxy statement. (b) Subject to the provisions of this Article 5, Abdul Ladha shall agree to indemnify each Indemnified Party against any Claim to which it or they may become subject arising out of or based on any agreement or instrument to which Ableauctions was a party that was known to Abdul Ladha but was not disclosed to Top Favour prior to Closing.

(c) Subject to the provisions of this Article 5, Top Favour (for purposes of Sections 5.1(c) and 5.3, “Indemnifying Party”) agrees to, indemnify fully in respect of, hold harmless and defend Ableauctions, Abdul Ladha and each of the officers, agents and directors of Ableauctions (each shall be referred to as an “Indemnified Party” when Top Favour is the Indemnifying Party) against any damages (with the exception of special or consequential damages), liabilities, costs, claims, proceedings, investigations, penalties, judgments, deficiencies, including taxes, expenses (including, but not limited to, any and all interest, penalties and expenses whatsoever reasonably incurred in investigating, preparing or defending against any litigation, commenced or threatened, or any claim whatsoever) and losses (each, a “Claim”) to which it or they may become subject arising out of or based on either (i) any breach of or inaccuracy in any of the representations and warranties or covenants or conditions made by Top Favour and/or Top Favour Shareholders herein in this Agreement; or (ii) any and all liabilities arising out of or in connection with: (A) any of the assets of Top Favour prior to the Closing; or (B) the operations of Top Favour prior to the Closing.

5.2 Survival of Representations and Warranties. Notwithstanding provision in this Agreement to the contrary, the representations and warranties given or made by Ableauctions, the Ableauctions Shareholders, Top Favour and Top Favour Shareholders under this Agreement shall survive the date hereof for a period of twelve (12) months from and after the Closing Date (the last day of such period is herein referred to as the “Expiration Date”), except that any written claim for breach thereof made and delivered prior to the Expiration Date to the party against whom such indemnification is sought shall survive thereafter and, as to any such claim, such applicable expiration will not effect the rights to indemnification of the party making such claim; provided, however, that any representations and warranties that were fraudulently made shall not expire on the Expiration Date and shall survive indefinitely, and claims with respect to fraud by Ableauctions, Ableauctions Shareholders, Top Favour, Top Favour Shareholders may be made at any time.

5.3 Method of Asserting Claims, Etc. All Claims for indemnification by any Indemnified Party under this Article V shall be asserted as follows:

(a) In the event that any Claim or demand for which an Indemnifying Party would be liable to an Indemnified Party hereunder is asserted against or sought to be collected from such Indemnified Party by a third party, said Indemnified Party shall with reasonable promptness notify the Indemnifying Party of such claim or demand, specifying the nature of and specific basis for such claim or demand and the amount or the estimated amount thereof to the extent then feasible (which estimate shall not be conclusive of the final amount of such Claim or demand) (the “Claim Notice”). The Indemnified Party’s failure to so notify the Indemnifying Party in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement shall not relieve the Indemnifying Party of liability hereunder unless such failure materially prejudices the Indemnifying Party’s ability to defend against the claim or demand. The Indemnifying Party shall have 30 days from the giving of the Claim Notice (the “Notice Period”) to notify the Indemnified Party: (i) whether or not the Indemnifying Party disputes the liability of the Indemnifying Party to the Indemnified Party hereunder with respect to such Claim or demand, and (ii) whether or not the Indemnifying Party desires, at the sole cost and expense of the Indemnifying Party, to defend the Indemnified Party against such Claims or demand; provided, however, that any Indemnified Party is hereby authorized prior to and during the Notice Period to file any motion, answer or other pleading which he shall deem necessary or appropriate to protect his interests or those of the Indemnifying Party and not prejudicial to the Indemnifying Party. In the event that the Indemnifying Party notifies the Indemnified Party within the Notice Period that he does not dispute liability for indemnification under this Article V and that he desires to defend the Indemnified Party against such claim or demand and except as hereinafter provided, the Indemnifying Party shall have the right to defend by all appropriate proceedings, which proceedings shall be promptly settled or prosecuted by him to a final conclusion. The Indemnified Party shall have the right to employ separate counsel in any such action and participate in the defense thereof, but the fees and expenses of such counsel shall be at the expense of such Indemnified Party except to the extent that the employment thereof has been specifically authorized by the Indemnifying Party in writing, the Indemnifying Party has failed after a reasonable period of time to assume such defense and to employ counsel or in such action there is, in the reasonable opinion of such separate counsel, a material conflict on any material issue between the position of the Indemnifying Party and the position of such Indemnified Party (a “Material Conflict”). If requested by the Indemnifying Party and there is no Material Conflict, the Indemnified Party agrees to cooperate with the Indemnifying Party and his counsel in contesting any Claim or demand which the Indemnifying Party elects to contest or, if appropriate and related to the Claim in question, in making any Counterclaim against the person asserting the third party Claim or demand, or any cross-complaint against any person. No Claim for which indemnity is sought hereunder and for which the Indemnifying Party has acknowledged liability for indemnification under this Article V may be settled without the consent of the Indemnifying Party, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

(b) In the event any Indemnified Party should have a Claim against any Indemnifying Party hereunder which does not involve a Claim or demand being asserted against or sought to be collected from him by a third party, the Indemnified Party shall give a Claim Notice with respect to such Claim to the Indemnifying Party. If, after receipt of a Claim Notice, the Indemnifying Party does not notify the Indemnified Party within the Notice Period that he disputes such Claim, then the Indemnifying Party shall be deemed to have admitted liability for such Claim in the amount set forth in the Claim Notice.

Any written Claim made against Abdul Ladha in connection with Section 5.1(b) and delivered prior to the expiration of the Ladha Contract Indemnification Period shall survive thereafter and, as to any such Claim, such applicable expiration will not effect the rights to indemnification of the party making such Claim.

Certain information and footnote disclosures normally included in financial statements prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles have been condensed or omitted in these interim statements under the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"). Accounting policies used in fiscal 2009 are consistent with those used in fiscal 2008. The results of operations for the nine month period ended September 30, 2009 are not necessarily indicative of the results for the entire fiscal year ending December 31, 2009. These interim financial statements should be read in conjunction with the financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2008 and the notes thereto included in the Company's Form 10K filed with the SEC on March 25, 2009. The consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States.

The Company has evaluated subsequent events through the date that the financial statements were issued on November 12, 2009.

Accounting changes

Effective January 1, 2009, we adopted revised standards for business combinations. These revised standards generally require an entity to recognize the assets acquired, liabilities assumed, contingencies, and contingent consideration at their fair value on the acquisition date. In circumstances where the acquisition-date fair value for a contingency cannot be determined during the measurement period and it is concluded that it is probable that an asset or liability exists as of the acquisition date and the amount can be reasonably estimated, a contingency is recognized as of the acquisition date based on the estimated amount. It further requires that acquisition-related costs be recognized separately from the acquisition and expensed as incurred, restructuring costs generally be expensed in periods subsequent to the acquisition date, and changes in accounting for deferred tax asset valuation allowances and acquired income tax uncertainties after the measurement period impact income tax expense. In addition, acquired in-process research and development is capitalized as an intangible asset and amortized over its estimated useful life. These new standards are applicable to business combinations on a prospective basis beginning in the first quarter of 2009. We did not complete any business combinations in the period ended September 30, 2009.

In the first quarter of 2009, we adopted new standards that specified the way in which fair value measurements should be made for non-financial assets and non-financial liabilities that are not measured and recorded at fair value on a recurring basis, and specified additional disclosures related to these fair value measurements. The adoption of these new standards did not have a significant impact on our consolidated financial statements.

In the second quarter of 2009, we adopted new standards that provide guidance on how to determine the fair value of assets and liabilities when the volume and level of activity for the asset/liability has significantly decreased. These new standards also provide guidance on identifying circumstances that indicate a transaction is not orderly. In addition, the standards require disclosure in interim and annual periods of the inputs and valuation techniques used to measure fair value and a discussion of changes in valuation techniques. The adoption of these new standards did not have a significant impact on our consolidated financial statements.

In the second quarter of 2009, we adopted new standards for the recognition and measurement of other-than-temporary impairments for debt securities that replaced the pre-existing "intent and ability" indicator. These new standards specify that if the fair value of a debt security is less than its amortized cost basis, an other-than-temporary impairment is triggered in circumstances where (1) an entity has an intent to sell the security, (2) it is more likely than not that the entity will be required to sell the security before recovery of its amortized cost basis, or (3) the entity does not expect to recover the entire amortized cost basis of the security (that is, a credit loss exists). Other-than-temporary impairments are separated into amounts representing credit losses, which are recognized in earnings, and amounts related to all other factors, which are recognized in other comprehensive income (loss). The adoption of these new standards did not have a significant impact on our consolidated financial statements.

On July 29, 2009, Mr. and Mrs. Ladha each converted his or her interest in the promissory note, which is more fully described in Note 6, into 1,204,021 shares of the Company's common stock, which represented a conversion by each of them of $500,000 in principal amount and $20,137 in accrued interest. As of September 30, 2009, $105,028 remained owing to Bullion Reef Holdings Ltd. for the cash portion of the purchase price.

4. PROPERTY HELD FOR DEVELOPMENT

On August 3, 2005, the Company entered into a Contract of Purchase and Sale (the "Agreement") for property located at 9655 King George Highway, Surrey, British Columbia (the "Property"). The Agreement was subject to the Company's satisfactory investigation of the development potential of the Property. This investigation was completed on August 9, 2005, at which time the Company released to the seller, Imara Venture Ltd. (the "Seller"), a down payment of $41,195 to be credited against a total purchase price of $1,270,000. The remaining balance was paid in cash on August 15, 2005. Gruv Development Corporation, by improving it with a retail facility of approximately 4,326 square feet and with a residential complex of approximately 91,132 square feet which will consist of 111 condominiums (the "Development").

On March 16, 2007, the Company filed a disclosure statement with the Superintendent of Real Estate under the Real Estate Development Marketing Act of British Columbia to pre-sell the units. The Company engaged the services of Platinum Project Marketing Group and Macdonald Realty Ltd. (the "Agent") to market the strata lots and, by May 9, 2007, the Company had entered into agreements to pre-sell 100% of the condominiums prior to construction and collected approximately $1.92 million ($2.34 million CAD) in deposits that are being held in trust with the Agent.

If the Company is successful in closing all its existing purchase contracts for the condominiums and selling all its commercial units, it expects to receive sale proceeds of approximately $22.1 million ($25.4 million CAD). The Agent has been paid $341,446 ($366,749 CAD) for services provided to date. The Company is committed to additional commissions and bonuses to be paid in the amount of $600,082 ($689,750 CAD) upon the successful completion of the sales and transfer of the strata lots.

After receiving a building permit from the City of Surrey the Company advanced performance bonds for service and work totaling $320,558 ($384,833 CAD) to the City of Surrey, as commitment for the development. On satisfactory completion of the intended service and work, the City of Surrey will refund the deposits to the Company.

The advances accrue interest at the prime rate set by Royal Bank of Canada plus .75% per annum, payable monthly. A fee of $47,073 ($48,000 CAD) was advanced to the Royal Bank of Canada for the arrangement of this credit facility.

The credit facility was granted subject to a number of conditions, including appraisal of the project, the submission of an environmental report, the submission of a soils report, confirmation of permits and approvals, engagement of a project monitor, submission of a schedule of pre-sales contracts, the purchase of insurance, expenditures of approximately $4.75 million ($4.84 million CAD) on the Development including the cost of the land, and fixed price contracts for at least 50% of the project's hard construction costs prior to the initial draw and 80% by December 2008. Axion met all the conditions of the construction credit facility by December 2008.

As of September 30, 2009 draws totalling $13,388,097 ($14,334,635 CDN) had been made against the credit facility. Borrowings are to be repaid from the net sales proceeds received on the closing of sales of units in the Development. In any event, all borrowings must be repaid in full by December 31, 2009.

On September 30, 2009 the construction of the Gruv Development was substantially complete and a conditional occupancy permit was received from the City of Surrey. On November 6, 2009, the final occupancy permit was received and as of November 9, 2009, 82 of the 111 purchase contracts have been successfully closed and funds totaling $17,994,313 CAD have been received. $15,076,061 CAD of the credit facility provided by the Royal Bank has been repaid.

5. INVESTMENT IN JOINT VENTURE

a) On July 14, 2006 Axion Investment Corp. ("Axion"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, entered into a Joint Venture Agreement (the "Agreement") with two unrelated parties, Canitalia Industries ("Canitalia") and 449991 B.C. Ltd. ("449991"), to form a joint venture for the purpose of purchasing two vacant lots located in Langley, B.C. for development (the "Project"). On July 28, 2006, Axion entered into a supplemental agreement with these two parties in respect to an arrangement for a bank loan to fund the purchase price and pay expenses related to acquiring the properties.

b) Pursuant to the Agreement, a new company, Township Holdings Ltd. ("THL"), has been formed and is equally and jointly owned by the three parties to the Agreement.. All expenses incurred and all profits earned by THL in conjunction with the Project are to be allocated in equal shares among Axion and the two remaining parties. The initial deposit was provided by Axion and 449991 BC Ltd. The total purchase price of the property to be developed was $3.42 million ($3.49 million CAD). During the 2006 year, Axion paid its share of the investment in the amount of $1,441,913 CAD.

Pursuant to an agreement dated July 28, 2006, Axion was to advance a loan to one of the unrelated parties to pay for its portion of the purchase price. During the 2006 year, Axion advanced a loan in the amount of $516,028 to two shareholders of this party for a one year term, bearing interest at 10% per annum. The loan was repaid during the 2006 year.

c) On March 13, 2007, Axion authorized Envision Credit Union (“ECU”) to make a demand loan to THL in the amount of $1.30 million ($1.4 million CAD) for the benefit of the other two parties, Canitalia and 449991 (the “Loan”). The parties have acknowledged that the Loan is for the sole benefit of 449991 and Canitalia and have agreed that none of THL, Axion or Abdul Ladha, the Company’s president, will have responsibility for payments of the Loan (see the discussion below) and that THL, Axion and Abdul Ladha will be fully indemnified for any expenses or payments they become liable for thereunder.

In exchange for the Loan, ECU received a promissory note from THL requiring the payment of interest only at the rate of prime plus 1% per annum until ECU demands payment of the principal. The loan is secured with a mortgage against the Property and a security interest in the personal property of THL. ECU also required Axion and Abdul Ladha to enter into a Debt Service Agreement.

Pursuant to the Debt Service Agreement, Mr. Ladha and Axion agree that they will be responsible for the monthly interest payments required by the promissory note in the event that 449991 and Canitalia fail to make the payments as required.

If 449991 and Canitalia default on the loan obligation to ECU, Axion will be entitled, but not obligated, to purchase the shares of stock in THL that are owned by the responsible parties at a price discount to market. If Axion exercises its right to purchase the stock owned by the responsible parties, then it will have no further recourse against 449991 and Canitalia for payment of the Loan.

If Axion does not exercise its right to purchase the stock owned by the responsible parties, then the responsible parties agree that they shall indemnify and hold Mr. Ladha, Axion and THL harmless from and against any amounts that they or any of them may pay in order to bring the Loan into good standing or to prevent ECU from foreclosing on its security, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, any payments of principal, interest, and legal fees made by Axion, Mr. Ladha or THL.

d) The Company has originally estimated a value of $40,535 for the above guarantee, and has provided a provision of $40,535 for the guarantee liability, which is included in accounts payable and accrued liabilities at September 30, 2009. The Company decided to leave the guarantee at its original amount until expiration of the guarantee in the year 2012, as the change in value is not significant. The maximum potential amount of future payments under this guarantee as of September 30, 2009 is $367,367.

6. INVESTMENT IN SURREY CITY CENTRAL

On October 6, 2008 the board of directors approved a Development Agreement with the Company's president, Mr. Abdul Ladha, Overture Development Corporation, Surrey Central City Ltd. ("Surrey") and Bullion Reef Holdings Ltd. ("Bullion"). Mr. Ladha is the sole officer, director and shareholder of Overture Development Corporation and the sole officer and director of Surrey. Bullion is the sole shareholder of Surrey. A trust created for the benefit of Mr. Ladha's family is the sole shareholder of Bullion.

On October 6, 2008 Surrey was the owner of 4 vacant lots (collectively referred to as the "Property") adjacent to the Gruv Development on 9655 King George Highway, Surrey, British Columbia. Surrey intends to explore the potential of developing the Property by improving it with a residential complex of at least 4-stories which will consist of at least 76 condominiums. The Company's board of directors believes that this development has significant potential and determined to acquire a 50% interest in Surrey.

On the date of the Development Agreement, Surrey had no assets other than the Property and no liabilities. Surrey had 299 shares of common stock issued and outstanding, all of which were owned by Bullion. The Company agreed to purchase 149.5 of these shares from Bullion and agreed to pay $1,347,440 for these shares. The purchase price was based on appraisals provided to the Company by independent appraisers and a fairness opinion. The purchase price is subject to an upward adjustment in the event that Surrey decides to develop the Property with a 6-storey complex rather than a 4-storey complex. The purchase price could also be increased to reflect the increase in value that would accrue to the Property if Surrey were able to acquire a lot adjacent to the Property commonly known as 13509 96th Avenue, which was owned by an unrelated third party. On October 20, 2008, Surrey entered into an agreement to purchase the lot for approximately $700,000 and the acquisition was completed on December 15, 2008. The Development Agreement, as amended, required that the increase in value be determined by at least 2 appraisers independent from the parties and each other. If the appraisers were not able to agree on the increase in value, then the increase in value was to be equal to the average of the appraisers' findings of increased value. The average of the appraisers' findings of increased value totalled $519,645.

The Company is to pay $673,720 of the purchase price in cash and the remainder of the purchase price with a promissory note. The promissory note accrues simple interest at the rate of prime plus 2% per annum. On October 22, 2008, the promissory note was amended to include a provision that allows Bullion to convert up to $1 million of the principal amount and the interest accrued thereon into shares of the Company's common stock. The number of shares of common stock to be issued to Bullion upon conversion of the principal and accrued interest will be computed at 20% above the last sale price of one share of the Company's common stock on the date on which the Development Agreement was executed. The last sale price of our common stock on October 6, 2008 was $0.36, therefore the number of shares of common stock will be computed using a price of $0.432 per share. The entire unpaid principal balance, together with any accrued interest and other unpaid charges or fees are due and payable on October 6, 2009.

The Development Agreement anticipates that Mr. Ladha and Overture Development Corporation will provide certain management services to Surrey in developing the Property in consideration for 12.5% of the net profit (the "Developer's Fee"). The term "net profit" means the revenue received from the sale of the residential units after deducting expenses.

Net profit is to be determined when the project receives a conditional occupancy permit and when any and all loans or other debt related to the project have been paid in full. If the sale of the residential units included in the build-out of the Property fails to realize a net profit, Mr. Ladha and Overture Development Corporation will not receive the Developer's Fee. If units remain unsold following the payment in full of the loans or other debt related to the build-out of the Property, the Developer's Fee will be paid as each such unit is sold.

On October 20, 2008, Surrey entered into an agreement to purchase a fifth lot, 13509 96th Ave., for approximately $700,000 from an unrelated party. As discussed above, on October 22, 2008 the Company and Bullion, Surrey, Mr. Ladha and Overture Development Corporation agreed to amend the Development Agreement to provide that Bullion would be entitled to convert up to $1 million of principal amount and interest accrued on such amount into shares of the Company's common stock at a price of $0.432 per share. On April 30, 2009, Bullion assigned the right to collect $1 million of the principal amount, plus interest accrued thereon, one-half to Mr. Ladha and one-half to his spouse. On July 29, 2009, Mr. and Mrs. Ladha each converted his or her interest in the promissory note described above into 1,204,021 shares of the Company's common stock, which represented a conversion by each of them of $500,000 in principal amount and $20,137 in accrued interest.

The total investment of $1,877,085 has been recorded as "Investment in Surrey City Central" on the balance sheet. The amount of the promissory note that remains outstanding as at September 30, 2009, is $105,028.

7. BANK LOAN

On October 11, 2006, the Company arranged for a credit facility in the amount of $1,879,346 ($2,000,000 CAN) (the "Credit Facility") from the Royal Bank of Canada (the "Bank"). The Credit Facility bore interest at the prime rate as announced by the Bank, plus 0.50% per year. Blended payments of interest and principal in the amount of $14,914 CAN are due each month. Principal is due to be paid in full on the last day of a two to five year term chosen by the Company on the date of a draw down. Repayment of the Credit Facility is secured by a mortgage, which includes an assignment of rents, against the property where the Company's head office is located and a guarantee and postponement of claim signed by the Company in favour of the Bank. As of September 30, 2009, the amount of the loan was $1,797,889.

The Company has an unsecured credit facility in the amount of $35,000 from Bank of America, which bears an interest rate of 9.24% per annum payable monthly.

11. SIGNIFICANT EVENTS

On July 17, 2009, the Company executed a Share Exchange Agreement (“Exchange Agreement”) with the Company’s significant shareholders, Abdul Ladha, the Company’s Chief Executive Officer and a director, and his spouse (collectively “Ladha”), Top Favour Limited, a British Virgin Islands corporation (“Top Favour”), and the shareholders of Top Favour (the “TF Owners”). Under the Exchange Agreement, the TF Owners would exchange their shares of Top Favour capital stock for newly-issued shares of the Company. The Exchange Agreement will expire on November 30, 2009 but can be extended upon approval from both parties. Hereinafter, this share exchange transaction is described as the “Share Exchange.”

Also, on July 17, 2009, the Company executed a Voting Agreement with Top Favour and Ladha (“Voting Agreement”).

Share Exchange Agreement

Pursuant to the Exchange Agreement, the TF Owners would become the Company’s controlling shareholders holding approximately 97% of the outstanding common stock on a post-transaction fully-diluted basis, and existing shareholders of the Company would hold the remaining 3.0% of the outstanding common stock post-transaction. Top Favour would become our wholly owned subsidiary. In connection with Top Favour becoming our wholly owned subsidiary, we would acquire the business and operations of Top Favour and its wholly owned subsidiaries: Pingdingshan Hongyuan Energy Science and Technology Development Co., Ltd., which controls and beneficially owns Henan Province Pingdingshan Hongli Coal & Coking Co., Ltd. and its subsidiaries (collectively referred to herein as the “SinoCoking Group”). Top Favour’s principal product is coke, or carbon fuel produced by distillation of coal.

As a result of the Share Exchange:

- The Company will acquire and own 100% of the issued and outstanding shares of capital stock of Top Favour from the shareholders of Top Favour, making Top Favour a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company;
- The Company will issue up to 13.2 million shares of its common stock to the former shareholders of Top Favour, on a post-reverse stock split basis;

11. SIGNIFICANT EVENTS (continued)

- The Company shareholders immediately prior to the Share Exchange will, after completion of the Share Exchange, own approximately 3% of the outstanding shares of the Company; and
- The former shareholders of Top Favour will own approximately 97% of the outstanding shares of the Company.

Prior to the consummation of the Share Exchange, the Company will distribute all of its assets relating to the Ableauctions business (after payment or assignment of liabilities) to a liquidating trust for the benefit of holders of the Company's common stock immediately prior to the closing of the Share Exchange.

Following the Share Exchange, the Company will cease operating the Ableauctions business, and the business of Top Favour will be continued and will constitute the principal business and operations of the Company.

The closing of the Share Exchange will be contingent on the simultaneous closing of a proposed financing of $75 million, which may be comprised of debt or equity securities or both, to be determined by the board of directors in consultation with Top Favour. If the financing is not obtained, Top Favour could waive this condition.

As a condition to and prior to the Share Exchange, the Company agreed to cause its shareholders to vote to amend its Articles of Incorporation to effect a reverse stock split which shall range between 1-for-20 and 1-for-50 and change its name to "SinoCoking Coal & Coke Chemical Industries Inc."

In the event that any of the conditions to the Share Exchange are not satisfied or waived, the Share Exchange may not be consummated. Neither the Company nor Top Favour can provide any assurances that the Share Exchange will ultimately be consummated.

For accounting purposes, the Share Exchange will be treated as a reverse acquisition which results in the legal acquirer, the Company, being treated as being acquired by Top Favour under purchase accounting.

In conjunction with the Share Exchange, Ableauctions has agreed to adopt a plan of liquidation reasonably acceptable to Top Favour under which it shall establish a liquidating trust for purposes of assuming outstanding liabilities and distributing the assets of Ableauctions to its shareholders as of a certain record date prior to the closing of the Share Exchange. In compliance with applicable law and any required third party consents, Ableauctions agreed to transfer all of its assets to, and to have its liabilities assumed by, the liquidating trust prior to or concurrent with the closing of the Share Exchange. Ableauctions and Abdul Ladha agreed to cause such plan of liquidation to include a covenant to indemnify the Top Favour shareholders for certain claims, damages, costs and expenses, and provide for a reserve fund of at least $1,000,000 in cash or cash equivalents or other assets acceptable to Top Favour which shall remain in place for at least 12 months following the closing of the Share Exchange and shall be used to discharge any remaining liabilities of Ableauctions not discharged prior to closing. The plan of liquidation will also include a covenant to indemnify Abdul Ladha for certain claims, damages, costs and expenses.

Top Favour has agreed to file a listing application with the NYSE Amex Equities exchange, with the intent of maintaining the listing of Ableauctions shares on the exchange.

Closing of the Share Exchange will require the satisfaction of a number of conditions, briefly described below. These conditions include, but are not limited to, the resignation of the current officers and directors of Ableauctions, the appointment of Jianhua Lv as Chairman of the board of directors, and the appointment of his designees to the board of directors to take office immediately after the closing. Presently, Top Favour intends to have Mr. Lv appointed as Chief Executive Officer, President and Chairman of the Board, and Mr. Zan Wu as the Chief Financial Officer, Treasurer and Secretary. At the time of closing, Ableauctions must have completed its transfer of the prior business, assets and liabilities to the liquidating trust, and Ableauctions must have no remaining assets or liabilities immediately prior to closing. The holders of a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of Ableauctions must have consented to or voted to approve all matters contemplated by the Share Exchange Agreement that require such shareholder approval. Any third party consents that Ableauctions is required to obtain must have been obtained prior to closing. Ableauctions must have determined, through its due diligence investigation, that the financial statements of Top Favour are materially accurate and complete, and this due diligence investigation will continue until 30 days after the date of the Exchange Agreement. Finally, Top Favour shall have arranged, and the Company shall simultaneously consummate or shall have secured an irrevocable commitment from a bona fide third party to consummate, a debt or equity financing of at least $75 million. Under the Share Exchange Agreement, the Share Exchange may be terminated by both parties if Ableauctions and Top Favour mutually agree to terminate the Share Exchange.

Voting Agreement

Under the Voting Agreement, Abdul Ladha and his spouse agree to convert their interests in the convertible promissory note assigned to them by Surrey (see Note 6) into shares of the Company's common stock such that they will hold at least 49% of the outstanding shares of the Company's common stock immediately after such conversion. They also agree to acquire additional shares of the Company's common stock (so long as the total of all such acquisitions does not exceed $400,000) in order to maintain such percentage equity ownership. In addition, they agree to vote all their common stock in favor of the Share Exchange and certain other actions in furtherance of the Share Exchange at any annual or special meeting of the Ableauctions' shareholders. In the event that any director fails to resign as a Board member in the manner contemplated by the Exchange Agreement, Ladha agrees to acquire additional shares of the Company's common stock (so long as the total of all such acquisitions does not exceed $400,000) and vote in favor of replacing the Company's board with Top Favour's nominees.

15. RECENT ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

- (i) In April 2009, the FASB issued new standards that require interim disclosures regarding the fair values of financial instruments. Additionally, the new standards require disclosure of the methods and significant assumptions used to estimate the fair value of financial instruments on an interim basis as well as changes of the methods and significant assumptions from prior periods. The standards do not change the accounting treatment for these financial instruments and was effective for us beginning in the second quarter of fiscal year 2009.
- (ii) In June 2009, the FASB issued new standards for the accounting for transfers of financial assets. These new standards eliminate the concept of a qualifying special-purpose entity; remove the scope exception from applying the accounting standards that address the consolidation of variable interest entities to qualifying special-purpose entities; change the standards for derecognizing financial assets; and require enhanced disclosure. These new standards are effective for us beginning in the first quarter of fiscal year 2010 and are not expected to have a significant impact on our consolidated financial statements.

(iii) In June 2009, the FASB issued amended standards for determining whether to consolidate a variable interest entity. These amended standards eliminate a mandatory quantitative approach to determine whether a variable interest gives the entity a controlling financial interest in a variable interest entity in favor of a qualitatively focused analysis, and require an ongoing reassessment of whether an entity is the primary beneficiary. These amended standards are effective for us beginning in the first quarter of fiscal year 2010 and we are currently evaluating the impact that adoption will have on our consolidated financial statements.

(iv) In August 2009, the FASB issued amended standards for the fair value measurement of liabilities. These amended standards clarify that in circumstances in which a quoted price in an active market for the identical liability is not available, we are required to use the quoted price of the identical liability when traded as an asset, quoted prices for similar liabilities, or quoted prices for similar liabilities when traded as assets. If these quoted prices are not available, we are required to use another valuation technique, such as an income approach or a market approach. These amended standards are effective for us beginning in the fourth quarter of fiscal year 2009 and are not expected to have a significant impact on our consolidated financial statements.

(v) In October 2009, the FASB issued new standards for revenue recognition with multiple deliverables. These new standards impact the determination of when the individual deliverables included in a multiple-element arrangement may be treated as separate units of accounting. Additionally, these new standards modify the manner in which the transaction consideration is allocated across the separately identified deliverables by no longer permitting the residual method of allocating arrangement consideration. These new standards are effective for us beginning in the first quarter of fiscal year 2011, however early adoption is permitted. We do not expect these new standards to significantly impact our consolidated financial statements.

a) Principles of Consolidation

These consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Ableauctions.com, Inc. and its wholly-owned subsidiaries, from the dates of acquisition. Any significant inter-company balances and transactions have been eliminated.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

b) Foreign Currency Translation

The Company accounts for foreign currency transactions and translation of foreign currency financial statements under Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 52, "Foreign Currency Translation" ("SFAS 52"). The Company uses the current rate method as the functional currency is the Canadian dollar. All assets and liabilities are translated at the current rates, while stockholder's equity accounts are translated at the appropriate historical rate or rates. Revenues and expenses are translated at the weighted-average rate for the year. Gains and losses from restatement of foreign assets and liabilities are included in comprehensive income. Revenues and expenses are translated at the rates of exchange prevailing on the dates such items are recognized in earnings.

Financial statements of the Company's Canadian subsidiaries (see Note 1) are translated into U.S. dollars using the exchange rate at the balance sheet date for assets and liabilities. The Company's investments in the structural capital of the Canadian subsidiaries have been recorded at the historical cost in U.S. dollars. The resulting gains or losses are reported as a separate component of stockholders' equity. The functional currency of the Canadian subsidiaries is the local currency, the Canadian dollar.

c) Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of assets and liabilities, disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amount of revenues and expenses during the period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

d) Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include cash and highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less.

e) Accounts Receivable

The Company's accounts receivable primarily include amounts due from its customers. The carrying value of each account is carefully monitored to assess the likelihood of collection. An allowance for doubtful accounts is provided for as an estimate of losses that could result from customers defaulting on their obligations to the Company. In assessing the amount of allowance required, a number of factors are considered including the age of the account, the credit worthiness of the customer, payment terms, the customer's historical payment history and general economic conditions. Activity in the following allowance for doubtful accounts was as follows:

	2008	2007
Balance, beginning of period	$ (57,680)	$ 167,431
Written off during the year	143,823	-
Charge to costs and expenses	(86,143)	(225,111)
Balance, end of period	$ -	$ (57,680)

f) Fair Value of Financial Instruments

Effective January 1, 2008, we adopted SFAS 157, Fair Value Measurements ("SFAS 157"). SFAS 157 provides a definition of fair value, establishes a hierarchy for measuring fair value under generally accepted accounting principles, and requires certain disclosures about fair values used in the financial statements. SFAS 157 defines fair value as the exchange price that would be received for an asset or paid to transfer a liability (an exit price) in the principal or most advantageous market for the asset or liability in an orderly transaction between market participants on the measurement date. Valuation techniques used to measure fair value under SFAS 157 must maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs. The standard describes a fair value hierarchy based on three levels of inputs, of which the first two are considered observable and the last unobservable, that may be used to measure fair value, which are the following:

Level 1 – Quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2 – Inputs other than Level 1 that are observable, either directly or indirectly, such as quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities; quoted prices in markets that are not active; or other inputs that are observable or can be corroborated by observable market data for substantially the full term of the assets or liabilities.

Level 3 — Unobservable inputs that are supported by little or no market activity and that are significant to the fair value of the assets or liabilities.

The Company uses the following methods and significant assumptions to estimate fair values:

Loans: The Company does not record loans at their fair value on a recurring basis. However, the Company evaluates certain loans for impairment when it is probable the payment of interest and principal will not be made in accordance with the contractual terms of the loan agreement. Once a loan has been determined to be impaired, it is measured to establish the amount of the impairment, if any, based on the present value of expected future cash flows discounted at the loan's effective interest rate, except that collateral-dependent loans may be measured for impairment based on the fair value of the collateral, less cost to sell. If the measure of the impaired loan is less than the recorded investment in the loan, a valuation allowance is recognized. At December 31, 2008, the Company has determined that there has been no impairment of its loans.

The fair value of cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, employee receivable, inventory, deposits, accounts payable, due to director and bank loan for all periods presented approximates their respective carrying amounts due to the short-term nature of these balances.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments:

SFAS No. 107, "Disclosures about Fair Value of Financial Instruments", requires disclosure of the estimated fair value of financial instruments. A portion of the Company's assets and liabilities are considered financial instruments as defined in SFAS No. 107. Many of the Company's financial instruments, however, lack an available, or readily determinable, trading market as characterized by a willing buyer and willing seller engaging in an exchange transaction.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

The Company can use significant estimations and present value calculations for the purposes of estimating fair values. Accordingly, fair values are based on various factors relative to current economic conditions, risk characteristics, and other factors. The assumptions and estimates used in the fair value determination process are subjective in nature and involve uncertainties and significant judgment and, therefore, fair values cannot be determined with precision. Changes in assumptions could significantly affect these estimated values.

g) Inventory

Inventory is stated at the lower of cost and estimated net realizable value using the average cost method. The Company incurred an inventory write down of $553,731 for the year ended December 31, 2008 (2007: $163,415).

h) Software Development

The Company has adopted Statement of Position 98-1 ("SOP 98-1"), "Accounting for the Costs of Computer Software Developed or Obtained for Internal Use", as its accounting policy for internally developed computer software costs. Under SOP 98-1, computer software costs incurred in the preliminary development stage are expensed as incurred. Computer software costs incurred during the application development stage are capitalized and amortized over the software's estimated useful life.

i) Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are recorded at cost. The cost of property and equipment is depreciated using the declining balance method at the following annual rates:

Building	4%
Furniture and fixtures	20%
S e r v e r equipment	10%
Computer equipment	30%
Computer software	10%
Vehicles	30%

Leasehold improvements are amortized using the straight-line method over the terms of the leases.

j) Intangible Assets

Intangible assets are recorded at cost and amortized on a straight-line basis over the life of the agreement.

k) Impairment of Long-Lived Assets

The Company periodically evaluates potential impairments of its long-lived assets, including property and equipment, and intangibles with definite lives. The Company tests the recoverability of the assets whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amounts may not be recoverable.

When the Company determines that the carrying value of long-lived assets may not be recoverable based upon the existence of one or more indicators of impairment, the Company evaluates the projected undiscounted cash flows related to the assets. If these cash flows are less than the carrying value of the assets, the Company measures the impairment using discounted cash flows or other methods of determining fair value.

Long-lived assets to be disposed of are carried at the lower of cost or fair value less estimated costs of disposal.

l) Investment in Joint Venture

m) Warranty

The Company provides all of its home buyers with a limited warranty as to workmanship and mechanical equipment. The Company also provides many of its home buyers with a limited ten-year warranty as to structural integrity. The Company accrues for expected warranty costs at the time each home is closed and title and possession have been transferred to the buyer.

n) Revenue Recognition

Auction/ liquidation and technology business

The Company's net revenues result from fees and revenue associated with Internet based listing fees and auction activities. Internet related listing fees are derived principally from enabling independent auction houses to simultaneously broadcast their auctions over the Internet. These fees are recognized upon successful completion of each individual auction when the final terms of sales and commissions have been determined.

The Company generally earns revenues from its auction activities either through consignment sales, or through sales of inventory purchased by the Company. For consignment sales, the Company earns auction fees charged to consignees, and buyer's premiums charged to purchasers, determined as a percentage of the sale price. For inventory sales, the Company earns a profit or incurs a loss on the sale, to the extent the purchase price exceeds or is less than the purchase price paid for such inventory.

For each type of auction revenue, an invoice is rendered to the purchaser, and revenue is recognized by the Company, at the date of the auction. The auction purchase creates a legal obligation upon the purchaser to take possession of, and pay for the merchandise. This obligation generally provides the Company with reasonable assurance of collection of the sale proceeds, from which the Company's earnings are derived, including the fees from consignees and purchasers, as well as resale profits.

Mortgages and Loans

- (a) Mortgages are stated at cost which includes amounts advanced and applicable charges, less repayments.
- (b) Interest is accounted for on the accrual basis for amounts advanced unless a mortgage is identified as impaired. For amounts committed but unadvanced, recognition of such fees as revenue would be deferred until the advance of the loan.
- (c) A mortgage is classified as impaired when, in the opinion of management, there is reasonable doubt as to the ultimate collectibility of principal and interest.
- (d) When a mortgage is identified as impaired, the accrual of interest is discontinued. A provision for estimated losses is recorded when the principal and accrued interest exceed the estimated net underlying value of the security or if management otherwise feels a provision would be prudent.

Real property and property development

a) Real estate rental

Rental income in respect to commercial and residential property leases is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

b) Real property sale

For condominium development projects, profit is recognized on the percentage-of-completion method in respect to individual units sold on a pre-sale basis, when all the following criteria are met:

- i. Construction is beyond a preliminary stage.
- ii. The buyer may only receive a refund in the circumstances of non-delivery of the unit.
- iii. Sufficient units have already been sold to assure that the entire property will not revert to rental property.
- iv. Sales prices are collectible. Pursuant to EITF 06-8, the collectibility of the sales price is assessed by the Company primarily based on the adequacy of the buyer's continuing investment in the form of non-refundable deposits, and the age and location of the property. The credit standing of the buyer is taken into account if known.
- v. Aggregate sales proceeds and costs can be reasonably estimated.

Deposits received in respect to sales which do not meet the criteria for revenue recognition described above shall be accounted for as deposits until the criteria are met.

No revenue related to condominium sales has been recognized by the Company as at December 31, 2008.

All revenue and costs related to the project are deferred until the completion of the development and the successful completion of the sales and transfer of Strata lots

o) Acquisitions and Goodwill

All business acquisitions have been accounted for under the purchase method and, accordingly, the excess of the purchase price over the fair value of the net assets acquired has been recorded as goodwill in the consolidated balance sheet. The results of operations, changes in equity and cash flows of acquired companies are included in operations only for the period between the date of acquisition and the end of the financial year. All goodwill arising from acquisitions of businesses was written off in previous periods.

p) Advertising Costs

The Company recognizes advertising expenses in accordance with Statement of Position 98-7, "Reporting on Advertising Costs". As such, the Company expenses the cost of communicating advertising in the period in which the advertising space or airtime is used.

q) Earnings Per Share

In February 1997, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 128, "Earnings Per Share" ("SFAS 128"). Under SFAS 128, basic and diluted earnings per share are to be presented. Basic earnings per share is computed by dividing income available to common shareholders by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding in the period. Diluted earnings per share takes into consideration common shares outstanding (computed under basic earnings per share) and potentially dilutive common shares.

r) Income Taxes

Income taxes are provided in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 109, "Accounting for Income Taxes". A deferred tax asset or liability is recorded for all temporary differences between financial and tax reporting and net operating loss carry forwards. Deferred tax expense (benefit) results from the net change during the year of deferred tax assets and liabilities.

Deferred tax assets are reduced by a valuation allowance when, based upon currently available information, it is more likely than not that some portion or all of the deferred tax assets will not be realized. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are adjusted for the effects of changes in tax laws and rates on the date of enactment.

s) Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Tax

In June 2006, the FASB issued FASB interpretation No.48. Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Tax – an interpretation of FASB Statement No. 109("Fin 48"), which clarifies the accounting for uncertainty in income tax positions. This interpretation requires that the Company recognize in the consolidated financial statements the tax benefits related to tax positions that are more likely than not to be sustained upon examination based on the technical merits of the position. The provisions of Fin 48 became effective to Ableauctions.Com Inc. as of the beginning of the Company's 2007 fiscal year. The guidance has had no cumulative impact on the accumulated deficit of the company as at January 1, 2007.

To the extent interest and penalties may be assessed by taxing authorities on any underpayment of income tax, such amounts would be accrued and classified as a component of income tax expense in our Consolidated Statements of Operations. The Company elected this accounting policy, which is a continuation of our historical policy, in connection with our adoption of FIN 48.

t) Segmented information

Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 131, "Disclosures About Segments of an Enterprise and Related Information", establishes standards for reporting information about the operating and geographic segments of the Company's business. Effective January 1, 2006, the nature and extent of the Company's operations are such that it operates in three reportable segments, as an auction house and liquidator, a property developer and an investment company. Information regarding the Company's geographic segments is set forth in Note 22.

u) Stock-Based Compensation

Effective January 1, 2006, the Company adopted the fair value recognition provisions of SFAS 123(R), using the modified-prospective-transition method. Under that transition method, compensation cost recognized as of December 31, 2006 includes compensation cost for all share-based payments granted prior to, but not yet vested as of January 1, 2006, based on the grant date fair value estimated in accordance with the original provisions of Statement 123. Results for prior periods have not been restated.

The fair value at grant date of stock options is estimated using the Black-Scholes-Merton option-pricing model. Compensation expense is recognized on a straight-line basis over the stock option vesting period based on the estimated number of stock options that are expected to vest.

v) Reclassifications

Certain reclassifications of prior year's balances have been made to conform to the current format on the consolidated financial statement.

w) Direct Costs

Direct costs incurred in connection with the issuance of debt measured under the fair value option and revolving credit facilities are expensed as incurred. Direct costs incurred in connection with the issuance of debt not measured under the fair value option are presented as a deferred charge on the balance sheet and are amortized over the term of the debt.

5. INTANGIBLE ASSETS

	$ 588,034	$ 232,275	$ 355,759

Non-competition agreement consists of payments made to three former principals of a company that was a direct competitor of Ableauctions. In consideration of payments received in 2004 for $150,000, the former principals agreed to cease any activities that directly compete with Ableauctions for a period of three years. The cost is amortized on a straight-line basis over three years.

On June 1, 2005, the Company made a cash payment in the amount of $100,000 to an unrelated third party as consideration for exclusive rights relating to that party's auction services. The cost is amortized on a straight-line basis over ten years.

During the 2007 and 2006 years, the Company incurred development costs to enhance the current on-line auction technology. These costs include fees paid to programmers to develop the systems, software and processes related to the enhancement. The Company completed the final stage in July 2007, and has started to amortize the costs over the estimated useful life of the technology of three years beginning in July 2007.

At December 31, 2008, the Company determined a net recoverable amount of $0 for these intangible assets, thus the carrying cost of the intangible assets was written off, and an impairment loss of $321,612 was charged to operations for the 2008 year.

7. PROPERTY HELD FOR DEVELOPMENT

On August 3, 2005, the Company entered into a Contract of Purchase and Sale (the "Agreement") for property located at 9655 King George Highway, Surrey, British Columbia (the "Property"). The Agreement was subject to the Company's satisfactory investigation of the development potential of the Property. This investigation was completed on August

9, 2005, at which time the Company released to the seller, Imara Venture Ltd. (the “Seller”), a down payment of $41,195 to be credited against a total purchase price of $1,270,000. 7. PROPERTY HELD FOR DEVELOPMENT (continued)

The Company's subsidiary Axion Investment Corp, intends to develop this property which consists of approximately 1.46 acres that is zoned for mixed commercial and residential use. Axion intends to develop the Property through the Company's wholly owned subsidiary, Gruv Development Corporation, by improving it with a retail facility of approximately 4,326 square feet and with a residential complex of approximately 91,132 square feet which will consist of 111 condominiums (the "Development").

On March 16, 2007, the Company filed a disclosure statement with the Superintendent of Real Estate under the Real Estate Development Marketing Act of British Columbia to pre-sell the units. The Company engaged the services of Platinum Project Marketing

Group and Macdonald Realty Ltd. (the "Agent") to market the strata lots and, by May 9, 2007, the Company had entered into agreements to pre-sell 100% of the condominiums prior to construction and collected approximately $1.92 million ($2.34 million CAD) in deposits that are being held in trust with Macdonald Realty Ltd.

If the Company is successful in selling all of the condominiums, it expects to receive sale proceeds of approximately $22.1 million ($25.4 million CAD). The Agent has been paid $341,446 ($366,749 CAD) for services provided to date. The Company is committed to additional commissions and bonuses to be paid in the amount of $600,082 ($689,750 CAD) upon the successful completion of the sales and transfer of Strata lots.

The Company has obtained a building permit from the City of Surrey and has advanced performance bonds for service and work totaling $320,558 ($384,833 CAD) to the City of Surrey, as commitment for the development. On satisfactory completion of the intended service and work, the City of Surrey will refund the deposits to the Company.

On February 15, 2008, the Company entered into a Construction Management contract with Cantera Management Group Ltd. ("Cantera") to manage the development of the project. In consideration for its services, the Company has agreed to pay Cantera a fixed fee of $454,024 ($553,000 CAD) over the term of the contract calculated on a percentage of completion basis.

On March 12, 2008, the Company obtained an updated conditional credit facility from the Royal Bank of Canada for the development in Surrey in the amount of $14.28 million ($16.42 million CAD).

The credit facility is secured by guarantees from Axion Investment Corporation and Ableauctions.com Inc., by a general security agreement covering the assets of Axion and by the property. The advances will accrue interest at the prime rate set by Royal Bank of Canada plus .75% per annum, payable monthly. A fee of $47,073 ($48,000 CAD) was advanced to the Royal Bank of Canada for the arrangement of this credit facility.

The credit facility has been granted subject to a number of conditions, including appraisal of the project, the submission of an environmental report, the submission of a soils report, confirmation of permits and approvals, engagement of a project monitor, submission of a schedule of pre-sales contracts, the purchase of insurance, expenditures of approximately $4.75 million ($4.84 million CAD) on the development including the cost of the land, and fixed price contracts for at least 50% of the project's hard construction costs prior to the initial draw and 80% by December 2008. As of November 10, 2008, Axion has fulfilled all the conditions of the construction credit facility.

As of December 31, 2008 draws totalling $4,729,825 ($5,760,926 CDN) had been made against the credit facility. Borrowings are to be repaid from 100% of the net sales proceeds received on the closing of sales of units in the Project. In any event, all borrowings shall be repayable in full by December 31, 2009.

On April 28, 2008, construction of the project commenced and it is estimated that it will be completed by September 30, 2009. If the development is suspended for any reason, including but not limited to the Company's inability to obtain any additional financing that may be required or additional permits, the Company will not be able to recover all of its expenses. There can be no assurance that the development will be successful or that developing the property in this manner will increase or even maintain its value.

8. INVESTMENT IN JOINT VENTURE

- a) On July 14, 2006 Axion Investment Corp. ("Axion"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, entered into a Joint Venture Agreement (the "Agreement") with two unrelated parties, Canitalia Industries ("Canitalia") and 449991 B.C. Ltd. ("449991"), to form a joint venture for the purpose of purchasing two vacant lots located in Langley, B.C. for development (the "Project"). On July 28, 2006, Axion entered into a supplemental agreement with these two parties in respect to an arrangement for a bank loan to fund the purchase price and pay expenses related to acquiring the properties.

b) Pursuant to the Agreement, a new company, Township Holdings Ltd. ("THL"), has been formed and is equally and jointly owned by the three partners. All expenses incurred and all profits earned by THL in conjunction with the Project are to be allocated in equal shares among Axion and the two unrelated parties. The initial deposit was provided by Axion and 449991 BC Ltd. The total purchase price of the property to be developed was $3.42 million ($3.49 million CAD). During the 2006 year, Axion paid its share of the investment in the amount of $1,441,913 CAD.

Pursuant to the agreement of July 28, 2006, Axion was to advance a loan to one of the unrelated parties to pay for its portion of the purchase price. During the 2006 year, Axion advanced a loan in the amount of $516,028 to two shareholders of this party for a one year term, bearing interest rate at 10% per annum. The loan was repaid during the 2006 year.

- c) On March 13, 2007, Axion authorized Envision Credit Union ("ECU") to make a demand loan to THL in the amount of $1.30 million ($1.4 million CAD) for the benefit of the other two shareholders, Canitalia and 449991 (the "Loan"). The parties have acknowledged that the Loan is for the sole benefit of 449991 and Canitalia and have agreed that none of THL, Axion or the president of the Company will have responsibility for payments of the Loan and that THL, Axion and the president will be fully indemnified for any expenses or payments they become liable for thereunder.

In exchange for the Loan, ECU received a promissory note from THL requiring the payment of interest only at the rate of prime plus 1% per annum until ECU demands payment of the principal. The loan is secured with a mortgage against the Property and a security interest in the personal property of THL. ECU also required Axion and the president of the Company to enter into a Debt Service Agreement.

Pursuant to the Debt Service Agreement, the president and Axion agree that they will be responsible for the monthly interest payments required by the promissory note in the event that 449991 and Canitalia fail to make the payments as required.

If 449991 and Canitalia default on the loan obligation to ECU, Axion will be entitled, but not obligated, to purchase the shares of stock in THL that are owned by the responsible parties at a price discount to market. If Axion exercises its right to purchase the stock owned by the responsible parties, then it will have no further recourse against 449991 and Canitalia for payment of the Loan.

If Axion does not exercise its right to purchase the stock owned by the responsible parties, then the responsible parties agree that they shall indemnify and hold the president, Axion and THL harmless from and against any amounts that they or any of them may pay in order to bring the Loan into good standing or to prevent ECU from foreclosing on its security, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, any payments of principal, interest, and legal fees made by Axion, the president or THL.

d) The Company has originally estimated a value of $40,535 for the above guarantee, and has provided a provision of $40,535 for the guarantee liability, which is included in accounts payable and accrued liabilities at December 31, 2008. The Company decided to leave the guarantee at its original amount until expiration of the guarantee in the year 2012, as the change in value is not significant. The maximum potential amount of future payments under this guarantee as of December 31, 2008 is $367,367.

e) The Company considered the limited exception contained in FIN 46R exempting from consideration as a Variable Interest Entity a joint venture that is a business, under certain conditions. In the Company's view, this joint venture meets these conditions.

f) Summarized financial statements for the joint venture investment:

9. INVESTMENT IN SURREY CITY CENTRAL

On October 6, 2008 the board of directors approved a Development Agreement with the company's CEO Mr. Abdul Ladha, Overture Development Corporation, Surrey Central City Ltd. ("Surrey") and Bullion Reef Holdings Ltd. ("Bullion"). Mr. Ladha is the sole officer, director and shareholder of Overture Development Corporation and the sole officer and director of Surrey. Bullion is the sole shareholder of Surrey. A trust created for the benefit of Mr. Ladha's family is the sole shareholder of Bullion.

Surrey is the owner of 4 vacant lots (collectively referred to as the "Property") adjacent to the Gruv Development on 9655 King George Highway, Surrey, British Columbia. Surrey intends to explore the potential of developing the Property by improving it with a residential complex of at least 4-stories which will consist of at least 76 condominiums. The Company's board of directors believes that this development has significant potential and determined to acquire a 50% interest in Surrey.

Surrey has no assets other than the Property and no liabilities. Surrey currently has 299 shares of common stock issued and outstanding, all of which are owned by Bullion. The Company has agreed to purchase 149.5 of these shares from Bullion and has agreed to pay $1,347,440 for these shares. The purchase price is based on an appraisal provided to the Company by an independent appraiser and a fairness opinion. The purchase price is subject to an upward adjustment in the event that Surrey decides to develop the Property with a 6-storey complex rather than a 4-storey complex.

The Company intends to pay one-half of the purchase price in cash and the remainder of the purchase price with a promissory note. The promissory note will be due on demand and will accrue simple interest at the rate of prime plus 2% per annum. The promissory note will include a provision that will allow Bullion to convert up to $1 million of the principal amount and the interest accrued thereon into shares of the Company's common stock. The number of shares of common stock to be issued to Bullion upon conversion of the principal and accrued interest will be computed at 20% above the last sale price of one share of the Company's common stock on the date on which the Development Agreement was executed. The last sale price of our common stock on October 6, 2008 was $0.36, therefore the number of shares of common stock will be computed using a price of $0.432 per share. The entire unpaid principal balance, together with any accrued interest and other unpaid charges or fees are due and payable on October 6, 2009.

In the event that Surrey is unable to successfully obtain the approval of a preliminary development plan and a commitment for financing to complete the build-out of the Property, or if for any reason Surrey determines that the build-out of the Property is not in its best interests, notice of this event will be provided to the Company. Within 20 days of receiving the notice, the Company may put the stock purchased to Bullion and Bullion will, within 120 days from receiving the put notice, repurchase the stock by paying to the Company in cash the purchase price (including the adjustments described above, if any), less one-half of the expenses incurred by Surrey in its efforts to develop the Property. This put right will expire within 12 months from the date of the Development Agreement.

The Development Agreement anticipates that Mr. Ladha and Overture Development Corporation will provide certain management services to Surrey in developing the Property in consideration for 12.5% of the net profit (the "Developer's Fee"). The term "net profit" means the revenue received from the sale of the residential units after deducting expenses.

Net profit is to be determined when the project receives a conditional occupancy permit and when any and all loans or other debt related to the project have been paid in full. If the sale of the residential units included in the build-out of the Property fails to realize a net profit, Mr. Ladha and Overture Development Corporation will not receive the Developer's Fee. If units remain unsold following the payment in full of the loans or other debt related to the build-out of the Property, the Developer's Fee will be paid as each such unit is sold.

On October 20, 2008, Surrey entered into an agreement to purchase a fifth lot, 13509 96th Ave., for approximately $700,000 from an un-related party. On October 22, 2008 the Company and Bullion, Surrey, Mr. Ladha and Overture Development Corporation agreed to amend the Development Agreement to provide that Bullion will be entitled to convert up to $1 million of principal amount and interest accrued on such amount into shares of the Company's common stock at a price of $0.432 per share. The total number of shares that could be issued if Bullion converts up to $1 million of principal and interest accrued thereon would total 2,465,277 shares.

The total purchase price of $1,671,638 has been recorded as "Investment in Surrey City Central" on the balance sheet as of December 31, 2008, with an amount of $1,363,765 owing to the director as of December 31, 2008.

10. BANK LOAN

On October 11, 2006, the Company arranged for a credit facility in the amount of $1,879,346 ($2,000,000 CAN) (the "Credit Facility") from the Royal Bank of Canada (the "Bank"). The Credit Facility bore interest at the prime rate as announced by the Bank, plus 0.50% per year. Blended payments of interest and principal in the amount of $14,914 CAN are due each month. Principal is due to be paid in full on the last day of a two to five year term chosen by the Company on the date of a draw down. Repayment of the Credit Facility is secured by a mortgage, which includes an assignment of rents, against the property where the Company's head office is located and a guarantee and postponement of claim signed by the Company in favour of the Bank. As of December 31, 2008, the amount of the loan was $1,637,931.

Bank Loan #1 (Note 7)	$ 4,729,825

11. SETTLEMENT OF LEGAL CLAIM

On April 2, 2008, a former employee and agent, Mr. Steve Gold and Gold Network, Inc. (collectively, the "Plaintiffs"), filed a legal action against the Company for breach of contract relating to commissions they alleged were not paid to them. The action was filed in the Superior Court of Ventura County, California. On May 2, 2008 the Company reached an agreement with the Plaintiffs regarding the dispute and paid the sum of $65,000 to the Plaintiffs in exchange for a release of their claims. The Company has recorded the full amount as "settlement of legal claim" in the Statement of Operations for the year ended December 31, 2008.

16. CONCENTRATION OF RISK

Following is a description of certain areas of concentration of risk to which management considers the Company vulnerable to near-term severe impact. This is not a complete analysis of risks faced by the Company, which are listed in other regulatory filings of the Company.

Credit and Economic Dependency Risk

Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to concentrations of credit risk consist principally of accounts receivable and loans receivable.

The majority of the Company's trade receivables are derived from fees and revenue associated with Internet based listing fees and auction activities. The Company's largest customer accounted for 21% of net revenue for the 2008 year, and 40% for the 2007 year. At December 31, 2008, the largest customer accounted for 14% of net accounts receivable (15% of net accounts receivable at December 31, 2007). Management believes that the receivable balance from this customer does not represent a significant credit risk based on past collection experience.

Property development risk

Approximately 74% (December 31, 2007: 58%) of the Company's assets on December 31, 2008 were invested in various real properties. Real estate values can be seriously affected by factors such as bank liquidity, the availability of financing, and by factors such as a zoning change or an increase in property taxes and the general economic outlook.

Interest rate risk

Approximately 13% (December 31, 2007: 7%) of the Company's assets on December 31, 2008 were invested in various mortgage loans receivable. The value of the mortgage loans can be seriously affected by factors such as interest rate fluctuations, bank liquidity, and the availability of financing.

Reliance on suppliers

Substantially all of the computer hardware for operating the Company's service is located at the facilities of Telus in British Columbia. Any damage to or failure of the systems could result in reductions in, or terminations of, the Company's service.

On April 15, 2008, the Company was notified by eBay that eBay intends to wind down the operations of its eBay Live Auctions platform effective December 31, 2008. This event may cause the Company to suspend the live auction segment of its business. The Company's subsidiary, iCollector.com, currently derives approximately $520,000 in annual revenue (or 17% of the Company's total revenues) from auctions broadcast on the eBay Live Auctions platform.

Foreign currency risk

While the Company's financial statements are presented in U.S. dollars, a majority of the Company's obligations, investments and expenditures with respect to the operations were incurred in Canadian dollars. Variations in the exchange rate may give rise to foreign exchange gains or losses that may be significant.

The Black-Scholes model was used to determine the fair market value of each warrant with an exercise price of $2.40, an expected exercise term of 5 years, a volatility of 44% based on price fluctuations over a prior one year period and a risk adjusted market interest rate of 4%.

24. RECENT ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

(i) In December 2007, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("FAS") No. 141 (Revised 2007), "Business Combinations" ("FAS 141(R)"). FAS 141(R) establishes principles and requirements for how an acquirer in a business combination recognizes and measures in its financial statements the identifiable assets acquired, liabilities assumed, and any noncontrolling interests in the acquiree, as well as the goodwill acquired. Significant changes from current practice resulting from FAS 141(R) include the expansion of the definitions of a "business" and a "business combination." For all business combinations (whether partial, full or step acquisitions), the acquirer will record 100% of all assets and liabilities of the acquired business, including goodwill, generally at their fair values; contingent consideration will be recognized at its fair value on the acquisition date and, for certain arrangements, changes in fair value will be recognized in earnings until settlement; and acquisition-related transaction and restructuring costs will be expensed rather than treated as part of the cost of the acquisition. FAS 141(R) also establishes disclosure requirements to enable users to evaluate the nature and financial effects of the business combination. FAS 141(R) applies prospectively to business combinations for which the acquisition date is on or after the beginning of the first annual reporting period beginning on or after December 15, 2008. Earlier adoption is not permitted. We are currently evaluating the potential impact of this statement.

24. RECENT ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS (Continued)

(ii) In December 2007, the FASB issued FAS No. 160, "Noncontrolling Interests in Consolidated Financial Statements - An amendment of ARB No. 51" ("FAS 160"). FAS 160 amends Accounting Research Bulletin 51, "Consolidated Financial Statements," to establish accounting and reporting standards for the noncontrolling interest in a subsidiary and for the deconsolidation of a subsidiary. It clarifies that a noncontrolling interest in a subsidiary, which is sometimes referred to as minority interest, is a third-party ownership interest in the consolidated entity that should be reported as a component of equity in the consolidated financial statements. Among other requirements, FAS 160 requires the consolidated statement of income to be reported at amounts that include the amounts attributable to both the parent and the noncontrolling interest. FAS 160 also requires disclosure on the face of the consolidated statement of income of the amounts of consolidated net income attributable to the parent and to the noncontrolling interest. FAS 160 is effective for fiscal years, and interim periods within those fiscal years, beginning on or after December 15, 2008. Earlier adoption is not permitted. We are currently evaluating the potential impact of this statement.

(iii) In February 2008, the FASB issued FASB Staff Position No. FAS 157-2, "Effective Date of FASB Statement No. 157" ("FSP 157-2"), to partially defer FASB Statement No. 157, "Fair Value Measurements" ("FAS 157"). FSP 157-2 defers the effective date of FAS 157 for nonfinancial assets and nonfinancial liabilities, except those that are recognized or disclosed at fair value in the financial statements on a recurring basis (at least annually), to fiscal years, and interim periods within those fiscal years, beginning after November 15, 2008. We are currently evaluating the impact of adopting the provisions of FAS 157 as it relates to non-financial assets and liabilities.

(iv) In March 2008, the FASB issued FAS No. 161, "Disclosures about Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities" ("FAS 161"). FAS 161 amends and expands the disclosure requirements of FAS 133, "Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities" and requires qualitative disclosures about objectives and strategies for using derivatives, quantitative disclosures about fair value amounts of gains and losses on derivative instruments, and disclosures about credit-risk-related contingent features in derivative agreements. This statement is effective for financial statements issued for fiscal periods beginning after November 15, 2008. Earlier adoption is not permitted. We do not believe the adoption of FAS 161 will have a material impact on our consolidated financial statements.

(v) In April 2008, the FASB issued FASB Staff Position ("FSP") FAS 142-3, "Determination of Useful Life of Intangible Assets" ("FSP FAS 142-3"). FSP FAS 142-3 amends the factors that should be considered in developing the renewal or extension assumptions used to determine the useful life of a recognized intangible asset under FAS 142, "Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets." FSP FAS 142-3 also requires expanded disclosure related to the determination of intangible asset useful lives. FSP FAS 142-3 is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2008. Earlier adoption is not permitted. We are currently evaluating the potential impact the adoption of FAS FSP 142-3 will have on our consolidated financial statements.

(vi) In May 2008, the FASB issued FSP APB 14-1, "Accounting for Convertible Debt Instruments That May Be Settled in Cash upon Conversion (Including Partial Cash Settlement)" (FSP APB 14-1). FSP APB 14-1 requires recognition of both the liability and equity components of convertible debt instruments with cash settlement features. The debt component is required to be recognized at the fair value of a similar instrument that does not have an associated equity component. The equity component is recognized as the difference between the proceeds from the issuance of the note and the fair value of the liability. FSP APB 14-1 also requires an accretion of the resulting debt discount over the expected life of the debt. Retrospective application to all periods presented is required. APB 14-1 is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2008. We are currently evaluating the potential impact the adoption of FSP APB 14-1 will have on our consolidated financial statements.

(vii) In June 2008, the FASB ratified FSP No. EITF 03-6-1, "Determining Whether Instruments Granted in Share-Based Payment Transactions are Participating Securities" (FSP No. EITF 03-6-1), which addresses whether instruments granted in share-based payment awards are participating securities prior to vesting and, therefore, must be included in the earnings allocation in calculating earnings per share under the two-class method described in SFAS No. 128, "Earnings per Share" (SFAS No. 128). FSP No. EITF 03-6-1 requires that unvested share-based payment awards that contain non-forfeitable rights to dividends or dividend-equivalents be treated as participating securities in calculating earnings per share. FSP No. EITF 03-6-1 is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2008, and shall be applied retrospectively to all prior periods. We are currently evaluating the effects, if any that FSP No. EITF 03-6-1 may have on earnings per share.

(viii) In October 2008, the FASB issued FASB Staff Position FAS 157-3, Determining the Fair Value of a Financial Asset When the Market for That Asset Is Not Active ("FSP 157-3"). FSP 157-3 clarifies the application of SFAS 157 in a market that is not active, and demonstrates how the fair value of a financial asset is determined when the market for the financial assets is inactive. FSP 157-3 was effective upon issuance, including prior periods for which financial statements had not been issued. The implementation of this standard did not have an impact on our Consolidated Financial Statements.

(“Hongyuan” Hongyuan), which was formed on March 18, 2009, and the variable interest entity (“VIE”) - Henan Pingdingshan Hongli Coal & Coking Co., Ltd. (“Hongli”) The Company produces and sells coal, coke, coal gas-generated electricity, and other coking by-products in the People’s Republic of China (“PRC” or China).

Henan Pingdingshan Hongli Coal & Coking Co., Ltd. (“Hongli”) was incorporated as a trading and holding Company on June 5, 1996 under the laws of the PRC. In addition to operating the Baofeng Coking Factory (“Baofeng Coking”), Hongli sells coal and coke to its customers, most of whom are energy trading companies procuring coking coals for steel manufacturers and chemical refineries in China. Hongli has a registered capital of RMB 8,080,000 and is located in the city of Pingdingshan, Henan Province.

Baofeng Coking is a division of Hongli and was established in May 2002. Hongli and Baofeng Coking are engaged in coal selling, coal washing and coking, using raw coal produced by its affiliate or purchased from other raw or washed coal vendors.

Baofeng Hongchang Coal Co., Ltd. (“Hongchang Coal”) was formed in July 19, 2007 under the laws of the PRC and is 100% owned by Hongli. Hongchang Coal owns the coal mining rights over three underground coal mines and produces raw coal that is suitable for coke producing and other industrial uses. Total proven coal reserves for all three mines as of July 2007 were 2,475,000 metric tons, of which the Company is permitted to extract (by means of paying for the mining privilege to the government) up to 1,215,000 metric tons. The majority of its products are internally sold to Baofeng Coking and Hongli.

Baofeng Hongguang Power Co., Ltd. (“Hongguang Power”) was formed on August 1, 2006, which is a 100% owned subsidiary of Hongli. Hongguang Power operates its 2x3000-kilowatt (kw) power plant and provides electricity to Baofeng Coking and the national power grid which is generated from the coal gas emitted from the coking process of Baofeng Coking. Hongguang is required by the local government to sell the surplus electricity (in excess of what is supplied to and consumed by Baofeng Coking) to the national power grid.

Hongli and its operating subsidiaries hold the approved licenses necessary to operate the coal mining, coal sales, coking and power plant businesses in China. PRC law currently has limits on foreign ownership of these types of companies. To comply with these foreign ownership restrictions and in order for Top Favour (BVI) to obtain control over Hongli’s PRC operating entities, on March 18, 2009, Top Favour (BVI), through Hongyuan/Hongyuan, entered into contractual arrangements with Hongli on March 18, 2009 (“Contractual Arrangements”). These Contractual Arrangements are comprised of a series of agreements, including: (1) a Consulting Services Agreement, through which Hongyuan has the right to advise, consult, manage and operate Hongli and its subsidiaries (“Operating Companies”), collect, and own all of the respective net profits of the Operating Companies; (2) an Operating Agreement, through which Hongyuan has the right to recommend director candidates and appoint the senior executives of the Operating Companies, approve any transactions that may materially affect the assets, liabilities, rights or operations of the Operating Companies, and guarantee the contractual performance by the Operating Companies of any agreements with third parties, in exchange for a pledge by the Operating Companies of their respective accounts receivable and assets; (3) a Proxy Agreement, under which the shareholders of the Operating Companies have vested their voting control over the Operating Companies to Hongyuan and will only transfer their equity interests in the Operating Companies to Hongyuan or its designee(s); (4) an Option Agreement, under which the shareholders of the Operating Companies have granted Hongyuan the irrevocable right and option to acquire all of its equity interests in the Operating Companies, or, alternatively, all of the assets of the Operating Companies; and (5) an Equity Pledge Agreement, under which the shareholders of the Operating Companies have pledged all of their rights, title and interest in the Operating Companies to Hongyuan to guarantee the Operating Companies' performance of their respective obligations under the Consulting Services Agreement.

(UNAUDITED)

Since Top Favour (BVI) and Hongli are under common control, this has been accounted for as a reorganization of entities and the consolidation of Top Favour (BVI) and Hongli has been accounted for at historical cost and prepared on the basis as if the aforementioned exclusive agreements between Top Favour (BVI) and Hongli had become effective as of the beginning of the first period presented in the accompanying consolidated financial statements. The Company's consolidated assets do not include any collateral for Hongli's obligations. The creditors of Hongli do not have recourse against Top Favour (BVI) and Hongyuan.

Note 2 – Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Principles of consolidation

The accompanying consolidated financial statements are prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. The consolidated financial statements include the financial statements of the Company, its wholly-owned subsidiary - Hongyuan and its VIEs – Hongli and its subsidiaries. All significant inter-company transactions and balances between the Company, its subsidiaries and VIEs are eliminated upon consolidation.

In accordance with FASB's accounting standard of consolidation of variable interest entities, VIEs are generally entities that lack sufficient equity to finance their activities without additional financial support from other parties or whose equity holders lack adequate decision making ability. All VIEs with which the Company is involved must be evaluated to determine the primary beneficiary of the risks and rewards of the VIE. The primary beneficiary is required to consolidate the VIE for financial reporting purposes. As a result of these contractual arrangements (Note 1), Top Favour (BVI) is obligated to absorb a majority of the risk of loss from Hongli's activities and Top Favour (BVI) is enabled to receive a majority of its expected residual returns. Top Favour (BVI) accounts for Hongli as a VIE and is the primary beneficiary.

Use of estimates

The preparation of the consolidated financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. The more significant areas requiring the use of management estimates and assumptions relate to coal reserves that are the basis for future cash flow estimates and units-of-production depletion calculations; asset impairments; valuation allowances for deferred income taxes; reserves for contingencies and litigation and the fair value and accounting treatment of certain financial instruments. Management bases its estimates on historical experience and on various other assumptions that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. Accordingly, actual results may differ significantly from these estimates. In addition, different assumptions or conditions could reasonably be expected to yield different results.

Management has included all adjustments, consisting only of normal recurring adjustments, considered necessary to give a fair presentation of operating results for the periods presented. Interim results are not necessarily indicative the results of a full year. The information included in the consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with reports and statements filed by the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission..

Revenue recognition

The Company's revenue recognition policies are in compliance with FASB's accounting standards. Coal and coke sales are recognized at the date of shipment to customers when a formal arrangement exists, the price is fixed or determinable, the delivery is completed, no other significant obligations of the Company exist and collectability is reasonably assured. This generally occurs when coal is loaded onto trains or trucks at one of the Company's loading facilities or at third party facilities.

Most of the electricity generated by Hongguan Power is used internally by Baofeng Coking. Supply of surplus electricity generated by Hongguan Power to the national power grid is mandated by the local utilities board. The value of the surplus electricity supplied is calculated based on actual kilowatt-hours produced and transmitted and at a fixed rate determined under contract.

Coal and coke sales represent the invoiced value of goods, net of a value-added tax (VAT), sales discounts and actual returns at the time when product is sold to the customer.

Shipping and handling costs

Shipping and handling costs related to costs of the raw materials purchased is included in cost of revenues. Total shipping and handling costs amounted to $11,217, and $318,884 for the three month periods ended September 30, 2009 and 2008, respectively.

Foreign currency translation and other comprehensive income

The reporting currency of the Company is the US dollar. The functional currency of the Company and its subsidiaries is the Chinese Renminbi (RMB).

For the subsidiaries whose functional currencies are other than the US dollar, all assets and liabilities accounts were translated at the exchange rate on the balance sheet date; shareholders' equity is translated at the historical rates and items in the statement of operations are translated at the average rate for the year. Items in the cash flow statement are also translated at average translation rates for the period, therefore, amounts reported on the statement of cash flows will not necessarily agree with changes in the corresponding balances on the balance sheet. Translation adjustments resulting from this process are included in accumulated other comprehensive income in the statement of shareholders' equity. The resulting translation gains and losses that arise from exchange rate fluctuations on transactions denominated in a currency other than the functional currency are included in the results of operations as incurred.

The balance sheet amounts with the exception of equity at June 30, 2009 and 2008 were translated at RMB 6.82 and RMB 6.84 to $1, respectively. The average translation rates applied to income and cash flow statement amounts For the three months ended June 30, 2009 and 2008 were at RMB 6.82 and RMB 6.83 to $1, respectively.

Fair value of financial instruments

Effective January 1, 2008, the Company adopted the Financial Accounting Standard Board's ("FASB") accounting standard regarding fair value of financial instruments and related fair value measurements. Those accounting standards established a three-level valuation hierarchy for disclosures of fair value measurement and enhance disclosures requirements for fair value measures. The carrying amounts reported in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets for receivables, payables and short term loans qualify as financial instruments are a reasonable estimate of fair value because of the short period of time between the origination of such instruments, their expected realization and, if applicable, the stated rate of interest is equivalent to rates currently available. The three levels of valuation hierarchy are defined as follows:

TOP FAVOUR LIMITED AND SUBSIDIARIES
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
SEPTEMBER 30, 2009
(UNAUDITED)

- Level 1 Inputs to the valuation methodology are quoted prices (unadjusted) for identical assets or liabilities in active markets.
- Level 2 Inputs to the valuation methodology include quoted prices for similar assets and liabilities in active markets, and inputs that are observable for the assets or liability, either directly or indirectly, for substantially the full term of the financial instruments.
- Level 3 Inputs to the valuation methodology are unobservable and significant to the fair value.

The Company did not identify any assets and liabilities that are required to be presented on the consolidated balance sheets at fair value in accordance the accounting standard.

The accounting standard regarding the fair value option for financial assets and financial liabilities became effective for the Company on July 1, 2008. The accounting standard provides the Company with the irrevocable option to elect fair value for the initial and subsequent measurement for certain financial assets and liabilities on a contract-by-contract basis with the difference between the carrying value before election of the fair value option and the fair value recorded upon election as an adjustment to beginning retained earnings. The Company chose not to elect the fair value option.

Cash

The Company considers all highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less at the time of purchase to be cash equivalents for cash flow statement purposes. Cash includes cash on hand and demand deposits in accounts maintained with state owned banks within the PRC.

Accounts receivables, trade

During the normal course of business, the Company extends unsecured credit to its customers. Management regularly reviews aging of receivables and changes in payment trends by its customers, and records a reserve when management believes collection of amounts due are at risk. Accounts considered uncollectible are written off. For the three months ended June 30, 2009 and 2008, the Company did not write off any uncollectible receivables. As of September 30, 2009 and June 30, 2008, management did not reserve the allowance for doubtful accounts. The Company regularly reviews the credit worthiness of its customers and, based on the results of the credit review, determines whether extended payment terms can be granted to or, in some cases, partial prepayment is required from certain customers.

Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost or market, using the weighted average cost method. Inventories consist of raw materials and supplies; work in process, and finished goods. Raw materials mainly consist of coal (mined and purchased), rail, steel, wood and additives used in the Company. The cost of finished goods included (1) direct costs of raw materials, (2) direct labor, (3) indirect production costs, such as allocable utilities cost, and (4) indirect labor related to the production activities, such as assembling and packaging.

Advances to suppliers

The Company advances monies to certain suppliers for raw materials purchase and construction contracts. These advances are interest-free and unsecured.

Property, plant and equipment, net

Property, plant and equipment are stated at cost. Expenditures for maintenance and repairs are charged to earnings as incurred; while additions, renewals and betterments that extend the useful life are capitalized. When items of plant and equipment are retired or otherwise disposed, the related cost and accumulated depreciation are removed from the respective accounts, and any gain or loss is included in operations. Mine development costs are capitalized and amortized by the units of production method over estimated total recoverable proven and probable reserves. Depreciation of plant and equipment is provided using the straight-line method for substantially all assets with estimated lives as follows:

	Estimated Useful Life
Machinery and equipment	10-20 years
Other equipment	5 years
Transportation equipment	5-7 years

Construction-in-progress includes direct costs of construction of mining tunnel improvements. Interest incurred during the period of construction, if material, is capitalized. All other interest is expensed as incurred. Construction-in-progress is not depreciated until such time the assets are completed and put into service. Maintenance, repairs and minor renewals are charged to expense as incurred. Major additions and betterment to property and equipment are capitalized.

Land use rights, net

Costs to obtain land use rights are recorded based on the fair value at acquisition and amortized over 36 years, the contractual period of the rights. Under the FASB's accounting standard regarding treatment of goodwill and other intangible assets, all goodwill and certain intangible assets determined to have indefinite lives are not amortized but tested for impairment at least annually. Intangible assets other than goodwill will be amortized over their useful lives and reviewed at least annually for impairment.

Intangible - mineral rights, net

Mineral rights are capitalized at fair value when acquired, including amounts associated with any value beyond proven and probable reserves, and amortized to operations as depletion expense using the units-of-production method over the estimated proven and probable recoverable tons. The Company's coal reserves are controlled either through direct ownership which generally lasts until the recoverable reserves are depleted.

Impairment of long-lived assets

The Company evaluates long lived tangible and intangible assets for impairment, at least annually, but more often whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying value may not be recoverable from its estimated future cash flows, in accordance FASB's accounting guidance regarding "Disposal of Long-Lived Assets". Recoverability is measured by comparing the asset's net book value to the related projected undiscounted cash flows from these assets, considering a number of factors including past operating results, budgets, economic projections, market trends and product development cycles. If the net book value of the asset exceeds the related undiscounted cash flows, the asset is considered impaired, and a second test is performed to measure the amount of impairment loss. Based on its review, the Company believes that, as of September 30, 2009 and June 30, 2009, there was no impairment of long lived assets.

Income taxes

Income taxes provided on the liability method in respect of temporary differences arising from differences between the carrying amount of assets and liabilities in the financial statements and the corresponding tax basis used in the computation of assessable tax profit. In principle, deferred tax liabilities are recognized for all taxable temporary differences, and deferred tax assets are recognized to the extent that it is probably that taxable profit will be available against which deductible temporary differences can be utilized. Deferred tax is calculated at the tax rates that are expected to apply to the period when the asset is realized or the liability is settled. Deferred tax is charged or credited in the income statement, except when it related to items credited or charged directly to equity, in which case the deferred tax is also dealt with in equity.

Effective January 1, 2007, the Company adopted a FASB's accounting standard which indicates a tax position is recognized as a benefit only if it is "more likely than not" that the tax position would be sustained in a tax examination, with a tax examination being presumed to occur. The amount recognized is the largest amount of tax benefit that is greater than 50% likely of being realized on examination. For tax positions not meeting the "more likely than not" test, no tax benefit is recorded. The adoption had no effect on the Company's financial statements.

Chinese income taxes

The Company's subsidiary and VIEs are operating in the PRC and are governed by the income tax laws of the PRC concerning Foreign Investment Enterprises and Foreign Enterprises and various local income tax laws ("Income Tax Laws"). Prior to January 1, 2008, Income Tax Laws of the PRC, the Company's subsidiary and VIEs are generally subject to an income tax at an effective rate of 33% (30% national income taxes plus 3% local income taxes) on taxable income, which is based on the net income reported in the statutory financial statements after appropriate tax adjustments. The statutory rate has been changed to 25%, effective January 1, 2008.

Value added tax ("VAT")

Sales revenue represents the invoiced value of goods, net of a value-added tax (VAT). All of the Company's coal and coke that are sold in the PRC are subject to a Chinese value-added tax at a rate of 13% or 17% of the gross sales price, respectively. This VAT may be offset by VAT paid by the Company on raw materials and other materials included in the cost of producing their finished products. The Company recorded VAT payable and VAT receivable net of payments in the consolidated financial statements. The VAT tax return is filed to offset the payables against the receivables.

Comprehensive income

FASB's accounting standard regarding comprehensive income establishes requirements for the reporting and display of comprehensive income, its components and accumulated balances in a full set of general purpose financial statements. This accounting standard defines comprehensive income to include all changes in equity except those resulting from investments by owners and distributions to owners. Among other disclosures, it also requires that all items that are required to be recognized under current accounting standards as components of comprehensive income be reported in financial statement that is presented with the same prominence as other financial statements. The Company's only current component of comprehensive income is the foreign currency translation adjustment.

Related parties

Parties are considered to be related to the Company if the parties, directly or indirectly, through one or more intermediaries, control, are controlled by, or are under common control with the Company. Related parties also include principal owners of the Company, its management, members of the immediate families of such principal owners and management, and other parties with which the Company may deal if one party controls or can significantly influence the management or operating policies of the other to an extent that one of the transacting parties might be prevented from fully pursuing its own separate interests.

Recently issued accounting pronouncements

In January 2009, the FASB issued an accounting standard which amended the impairment model by removing its exclusive reliance on “market participant” estimates of future cash flows used in determining fair value. Changing the cash flows used to analyze other-than-temporary impairment from the “market participant” view to a holder’s estimate of whether there has been a “probable” adverse change in estimated cash flows allows companies to apply reasonable judgment in assessing whether another-than-temporary impairment has occurred. The adoption of this accounting standard did not have a material impact on the Company’s consolidated financial statements because all of the investments in debt securities are classified as trading securities.

In April 2009, the FASB issued an Accounting Standard to determine fair value when the volume and level of activity for the asset or liability have significantly decreased and identify transactions that are not orderly. It also amends and provides additional guidance for estimating fair value when the volume and level of activity for the asset or liability have significantly decreased and also includes guidance on identifying circumstances that indicate a transaction is not orderly for fair value measurements. This new accounting standard shall be applied prospectively with retrospective application not permitted and it shall be effective for interim and annual periods ending after June 15, 2009, with early adoption permitted for periods ending after March 15, 2009.

In April 2009, the FASB issued an accounting standard that makes the other-than-temporary impairments guidance more operational and improves the presentation of other-than-temporary impairments in the financial statements. This standard replaced the existing requirement that the entity’s management assert it has both the intent and ability to hold an impaired debt security until recovery with a requirement that management assert it does not have the intent to sell the security, and it is more likely than not it will not have to sell the security before recovery of its cost basis. This standard provides increased disclosure about the credit and noncredit components of impaired debt securities that are not expected to be sold and also requires increased and more frequent disclosures regarding expected cash flows, credit losses, and an aging of securities with unrealized losses. Although this standard does not result in a change in the carrying amount of debt securities, it does require that the portion of other-than-temporary impairment not related to a credit loss for a held-to-maturity security be recognized in a new category of other comprehensive income and be amortized over the remaining life of the debt security as an increase in the carrying value of the security. The Company adopted this accounting standard, but it did not have a material impact on its consolidated financial statements.

In April 2009, the FASB issued an accounting standard that requires disclosures about fair value of financial instruments not measured on the balance sheet at fair value in interim financial statements as well as in annual financial statements. Prior to this accounting standard, fair values for these assets and liabilities were only disclosed annually. This standard applies to all financial instruments within its scope and requires all entities to disclose the method(s) and significant assumptions used to estimate the fair value of financial instruments. This standard does not require disclosures for earlier periods presented for comparative purposes at initial adoption, but in periods after the initial adoption, this standard requires comparative disclosures only for periods ending after initial adoption. The Company adopted this accounting standard, but it did not have a material impact on the disclosures related to its consolidated financial statements.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
SEPTEMBER 30, 2009
(UNAUDITED)

In May 2009, the FASB issued an accounting standard to provide guidance on management's assessment of subsequent events. The new standard clarifies that management must evaluate, as of each reporting period, events or transactions that occur after the balance sheet date through the date that the financial statements are issued or are available to be issued. Management must perform its assessment for both interim and annual financial reporting periods. This new guidance does not significantly change the Company's practice for evaluating such event and it is effective prospectively for interim and annual periods ending after June 15, 2009 and requires disclosure of the date subsequent events are evaluated through. The adoption of this new accounting standard did not have an impact on the Company's results of operations or financial condition.

In June 2009, the FASB also issued an accounting standard amending the accounting and disclosure requirements for the consolidation of variable interest entities ("VIEs"). The elimination of the concept of a QSPE, as discussed above, removes the exception from applying the consolidation guidance within this accounting standard. Further, this accounting standard requires a company to perform a qualitative analysis when determining whether or not it must consolidate a VIE. It also requires a company to continuously reassess whether it must consolidate a VIE. Additionally, it requires enhanced disclosures about a company's involvement with VIEs and any significant change in risk exposure due to that involvement, as well as how its involvement with VIEs impacts the company's financial statements. Finally, a company will be required to disclose significant judgments and assumptions used to determine whether or not to consolidate a VIE. This accounting standard is effective for financial statements issued for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2009, and the Company does not expect this standard to have a material effect on its consolidated financial statements.

In June 2009, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued an accounting standard which establishes the FASB Accounting Standards Codification™ (the "Codification") as the source of authoritative accounting principles recognized by the FASB to be applied by nongovernmental entities in the preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP. The Codification does not change current U.S. GAAP, but is intended to simplify user access to all authoritative U.S. GAAP by providing all the authoritative literature related to a particular topic in one place. The Codification is effective for interim and annual periods ending after September 15, 2009, and as of the effective date, all existing accounting standard documents will be superseded. The Codification is effective for the Company in the third quarter of 2009, and accordingly, the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ending September 30, 2009 and all current and subsequent public filings will reference the Codification as the sole source of authoritative literature.

In August 2009, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued an Accounting Standards Update ("ASU") regarding measuring liabilities at fair value. This ASU provides additional guidance clarifying the measurement of liabilities at fair value in circumstances in which a quoted price in an active market for the identical liability is not available; under those circumstances, a reporting entity is required to measure fair value using one or more of valuation techniques, as defined. This ASU is effective for the first reporting period, including interim periods, beginning after the issuance of this ASU. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of this ASU on its consolidated financial statements.

In October 2009, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued an ASU regarding accounting for own-share lending arrangements in contemplation of convertible debt issuance or other financing. This ASU requires that at the date of issuance of the shares in a share-lending arrangement entered into in contemplation of a convertible debt offering or other financing, the shares issued shall be measured at fair value and be recognized as an issuance cost, with an offset to additional paid-in capital. Further, loaned shares are excluded from basic and diluted earnings per share unless default of the share-lending arrangement occurs, at which time the loaned shares would be included in the basic and diluted earnings per-share calculation. This ASU is effective for fiscal years beginning on or after December 15, 2009, and interim periods within those fiscal years for arrangements outstanding as of the beginning of those fiscal years. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of this ASU on its consolidated financial statements.

Note 3 – Segment Reporting

The FASB's accounting standard regarding Disclosure about Segments of an Enterprise and Related Information requires use of the "management approach" model for segment reporting. The management approach model is based on the way a company's management organizes segments within the company for making operating decisions and assessing performance. Reportable segments are based on products and services, geography, legal structure, management structure, or any other manner in which management disaggregates a company.

As of and for the three months ended September 30, 2009 and 2008, the Company's chief operating decision maker, (its CEO), has identified all activities of the Company's subsidiaries, including coal mining, coking and the sales of all products as a result of these business activities, were conducted within one single reporting segment. All of the Company's products are sold within the PRC. Major products and respective revenues are as summarized as follows:

	Three months ended September 30,
	2009	2008
	(Unaudited)
Coke	$ 5,717,599	$ 8,401,009
Coal tar	260,804	385,537
Raw coal	5,122,129	181,384

These include risks associated with, among others, the political, economic and legal environments and foreign currency exchange. The Company's results may be adversely affected by changes in governmental policies with respect to laws and regulations, anti-inflationary measures, currency conversion and remittance abroad, and rates and methods of taxation, among other things.

Financial instruments, which subject the Company to concentration of credit risk, consist of cash. The Company maintains balances at financial institutions located in PRC and Hong Kong. Balances at financial institutions or state owned banks within the PRC are not covered by insurance. As of September 30, 2009 and June 30, 2009, the Company had deposits which were not covered by insurance for $745,009 and $5,679, respectively. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts.

For the three months ended September 30, 2009 and 2008, all of the Company's sales were generated in the PRC as well as account receivables. For the three months ended September 30, 2009, 91.10% of the Company's total revenues from three major customers accounted individually of 68.02%, 12.39%, and 10.69%, respectively. For the three months ended September 30, 2009 and 2008, all of the Company's purchases of raw materials were generated in the PRC as well as accounts payable. For the three months ended September 30, 2009, four major suppliers provided 81.42% of the Company's raw material purchases with each supplier individually accounting for 33.05%, 16.92%, 16.56% and 14.89%, respectively. Note 5 – Notes Receivable

Notes receivable represent trade accounts receivable due from various customers where the customers' bank has guaranteed payment of the receivable. This amount is non-interest bearing and is normally paid within three to six months. The Company is allowed to submit their request for payment to the customer's bank earlier than the scheduled payment date. However, the early request will incur an interest charge and a processing fee. Notes receivable were $1,174,921 and $358,808 as of September 30, 2009 and June 30, 2009, respectively.

Note 6 – Inventories

Inventories as of September 30, 2009 and June 30, 2009 consisted of the following:

Finished goods	1,035,802	75,193
Total	$ 3,182,207	$ 107,187

Note 7 – Advances to suppliers

Note 13 – Taxes

Income Tax

Effective January 1, 2008, the New Enterprise Income Tax ("EIT") law replaced the existing laws for Domestic Enterprises ("DES") and Foreign Invested Enterprises ("FIEs") in the PRC. The new standard EIT rate of 25% has replaced the 33% rate previously applicable to both DES and FIEs. Companies established before March 16, 2007 will continue to enjoy tax holiday treatment approved by local government for a grace period of the next 5 years or until the tax holiday term is completed, whichever is sooner. Pursuant to the PRC tax law, net operating loss can be carried forward 5 years to offset future taxable income.

The PRC does not allow consolidation or group filing for corporate income tax purposes. Income and losses from members of the same consolidated group (for financial reporting purposes) are not allowed to offset one another. Therefore, total taxable income (loss) subject to actual PRC corporate tax within the consolidated group does not necessarily equal to the consolidated net income before income tax of the consolidated group. The PRC tax administration system does not necessarily retroactively recognize or allow accounting adjustments that are discovered and posted after the income tax returns are filed as additional taxable income or deductions for the tax year to which such post-filing accounting adjustments relate. The Company considers any US GAAP adjustments to its financial statements made after the statutory tax returns are filed to be permanent differences for the purpose of reconciling differences of income tax provision and actual PRC income tax liabilities.

The provision for income taxes consists of the following for the three months ended September 30, 2009 and 2008

	Three months ended September 30,
	2009	2008
	(Unaudited)	(Unaudited)

PRC current income tax expense	1,988,990	910,951
Total provision for income taxes	$ 1,988,990	$ 910,951

The following table reconciles the statutory rates to the Company's effective tax rate for the three months ended September 30, 2009 and 2008:

	Three months ended September 30,
	2009	2008
	(Unaudited)	(Unaudited)
BVI income tax	0.00 %	0.00 %
PRC income tax	25.00 %	25.00 %
China income tax exemption	-	-
Other item (1)	(1.70 %)	(1.60 %)
Effective rate	23.30 %	23.40 %

(1) The -1.70% and -1.60% represents operating losses incurred by Hongchang, and Hongguang for the three months ended at September 30, 2009 and 2008 respectively. Management believes the losses may not be recovered through future operations.

Note 15 – Statutory Reserves

The surplus reserve fund is non-distributable other than during liquidation and can be used to fund previous years' losses, if any, and may be utilized for business expansion or converted into share capital by issuing new shares to existing shareholders in proportion to their shareholdings or by increasing the par value of the shares currently held by them, provided that the remaining reserve balance after such issue is not less than 25% of the registered capital.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1 – Organization

Top Favour Limited (“Top Favour (BVI)”, “we”, or “the Company”) was incorporated in the British Virgin Islands on July 2, 2008. Through its wholly-owned subsidiary Pingdingshan Hongyuan Energy Science and Technology Development Co., Ltd. (“Hongyuan”Hongyuan), which was formed on March 18, 2009, and the variable interest entity (“VIE”) - Henan Pingdingshan Hongli Coal & Coking Co., Ltd. (“Hongli”), the Company produces and sells coal, coke, coal gas-generated electricity, and other coking by-products in the People’s Republic of China (“PRC” or China).

Henan Pingdingshan Hongli Coal & Coking Co., Ltd. (“Hongli”) was incorporated as a trading and holding Company on June 5, 1996 under the laws of the PRC. In addition to operating the Baofeng Coking Factory (“Baofeng Coking”), Hongli sells coals and coke to its customers, most of whom are energy trading companies procuring coking coals for steel manufacturers and chemical refineries in China. Hongli has a registered capital of RMB 8,080,000 and is located in the city of Pingdingshan, Henan Province.

Baofeng Coking is a division of Hongli and was established in May 2002. Hongli and Baofeng Coking are engaged in coal selling, coal washing and coking, using raw coals produced by its affiliate or purchased from other raw or washed coal vendors.

Baofeng Hongchang Coal Co., Ltd. (“Hongchang Coal”) was formed in July 19, 2007 under the laws of the PRC and is 100% owned by Hongli. Hongchang Coal owns the coal mining rights over three underground coal mines and produces raw coal that is suitable for coke producing and other industrial uses. Total proven coal reserves for all three mines as of July 2007 were 2,475,000 metric tons, of which the Company is permitted to extract (by means of paying for the mining privilege to the government) up to 1,215,000 metric tons. The majority of its products are internally sold to Baofeng Coking and Hongli.

Baofeng Hongguang Power Co., Ltd. (“Hongguang Power”) was formed on August 1, 2006, which is a 100% owned subsidiary of Hongli. Hongguang Power operates its 2x3000-kilowatt (kw) power plant and provides electricity to Baofeng Coking and the national power grid which is generated from the coal gas emitted from the coking process of Baofeng Coking. Hongguang is required to sell surplus electricity to the national power grid by the local government, in excess of power supplied to and consumed by Baofeng Coking.

Hongli and its operating subsidiaries hold the approved licenses necessary to operate the coal mining, coal sales, coking and power plant businesses in China. PRC law currently has limits on foreign ownership of these companies. To comply with these foreign ownership restrictions and in order for Top Favour (BVI) to obtain control over Hongli’s PRC operating entities, on March 18, 2009, Top Favour (BVI), through Hongyuan, entered into contractual arrangements with Hongli on March 18, 2009 (“Contractual Arrangements”). Those Contractual Arrangements are comprised of a series of agreements, including: (1) a Consulting Services Agreement, through which Hongyuan has the right to advise, consult, manage and operate Hongli and its subsidiaries (“Operating Companies”), collect, and own all of the respective net profits of the Operating Companies; (2) an Operating Agreement, through which Hongyuan has the right to recommend director candidates and appoint the senior executives of the Operating Companies, approve any transactions that may materially affect the assets, liabilities, rights or operations of the Operating Companies, and guarantee the contractual performance by the Operating Companies of any agreements with third parties, in exchange for a pledge by the Operating Companies of their respective accounts receivable and assets; (3) a Proxy Agreement, under which the shareholders of the Operating Companies have vested their voting control over the Operating Companies to Hongyuan and will only transfer their equity interests in the Operating Companies to Hongyuan or its designee(s); (4) an Option Agreement, under which the shareholders of the Operating Companies have granted Hongyuan the irrevocable right and option to acquire all of its equity interests in the Operating Companies, or, alternatively, all of the assets of the Operating Companies; and (5) an Equity Pledge Agreement, under which the shareholders of the Operating Companies have pledged all of their rights, title and interest in the Operating Companies to Hongyuan to guarantee the Operating Companies' performance of their respective obligations under the Consulting Services Agreement.

TOP FAVOUR LIMITED AND SUBSIDIARIES
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
June 30, 2009

Since Top Favour (BVI) and Hongli are under common control, this has been accounted for as a reorganization of entities and the consolidation of Top Favour (BVI) and Hongli has been accounted for at historical cost and prepared on the basis as if the aforementioned exclusive agreements between Top Favour (BVI) and Hongli had become effective as of the beginning of the first period presented in the accompanying consolidated financial statements. The Company's consolidated assets do not include any collateral for Hongli's obligations. The creditors of Hongli do not have recourse against Top Favour (BVI) and Hongyuan.

Note 2 – Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Principles of consolidation

The accompanying consolidated financial statements are prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. The consolidated financial statements include the financial statements of the Company, its wholly-owned subsidiary - Hongyuan and its VIEs – Hongli and its subsidiaries. All significant inter-company transactions and balances between the Company, its subsidiaries and VIEs are eliminated upon consolidation.

In accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board interpretation of the guidance, “Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities”, VIEs are generally entities that lack sufficient equity to finance their activities without additional financial support from other parties or whose equity holders lack adequate decision making ability. All VIEs with which the Company is involved must be evaluated to determine the primary beneficiary of the risks and rewards of the VIE. The primary beneficiary is required to consolidate the VIE for financial reporting purposes. As a result of these contractual arrangements (Note 1), Top Favour (BVI) is obligated to absorb a majority of the risk of loss from Hongli's activities and Top Favour (BVI) is enabled to receive a majority of its expected residual returns, Top Favour (BVI) accounts for Hongli as a VIE and is the primary beneficiary.

Use of estimates

The preparation of the consolidated financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. The more significant areas requiring the use of management estimates and assumptions relate to coal reserves that are the basis for future cash flow estimates and units-of-production depletion calculations; asset impairments; valuation allowances for deferred income taxes; reserves for contingencies and litigation and the fair value and accounting treatment of certain financial instruments. Management bases its estimates on historical experience and on various other assumptions that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. Accordingly, actual results may differ significantly from these estimates. In addition, different assumptions or conditions could reasonably be expected to yield different results.

Management has included all adjustments, consisting only of normal recurring adjustments, considered necessary to give a fair presentation of operating results for the periods presented. Interim results are not necessarily indicative the results of a full year. The information included in the consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with reports and statements filed by the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Revenue recognition

The Company's revenue recognition policies are in compliance with Staff Accounting Bulletin ("SAB") 104. Coal and coke sales are recognized at the date of shipment to customers when a formal arrangement exists, the price is fixed or determinable, the delivery is completed, no other significant obligations of the Company exist and collectability is reasonably assured. This generally occurs when coal is loaded onto trains or trucks at one of the Company's loading facilities or at third party facilities.

Most of the electricity generated by Hongguan Power is used internally by Baofeng Coking. Supply of surplus electricity generated by Hongguan Power to the national power grid is mandated by the local utilities board. The value of the surplus electricity is calculated based on actual kilowatt-hours produced and transmitted and at a fixed rate determined under contract.

Coal and coke sales represent the invoiced value of goods, net of a value-added tax (VAT), sales discounts and actual returns at the time when product is sold to the customer.

Shipping and handling costs

Shipping and handling costs related to costs of the raw materials purchased is included in cost of revenues. Total shipping and handling costs related to sales were recorded as selling expenses. For the years ended June 30, 2009, 2008 and 2007, shipping and handling costs related to sales were $202,849, $313,639 and $535,755, respectively.

Foreign currency translation and other comprehensive income

The reporting currency of the Company is the US dollar. The functional currency of the Company and its subsidiaries is the Chinese Renminbi (RMB).

For the subsidiaries whose functional currencies are other than the US dollar, all assets and liabilities accounts were translated at the exchange rate on the balance sheet date; shareholders' equity is translated at the historical rates and items in the statement of operations are translated at the average rate for the year. Items in the cash flow statement are also translated at average translation rates for the period, therefore, amounts reported on the statement of cash flows will not necessarily agree with changes in the corresponding balances on the balance sheet. Translation adjustments resulting from this process are included in accumulated other comprehensive income in the statement of shareholders' equity. The resulting translation gains and losses that arise from exchange rate fluctuations on transactions denominated in a currency other than the functional currency are included in the results of operations as incurred.

The balance sheet amounts with the exception of equity at June 30, 2009, 2008 and 2007 were translated at RMB 6.83, RMB 6.87 and RMB 7.62 to $1, respectively. The average translation rates applied to income and cash flow statement amounts for the years ended June 30, 2009, 2008 and 2007 were at RMB 6.83, RMB 7.29 and RMB 7.83 to $1, respectively.

Fair value of financial instruments

Effective January 1, 2008, the Company adopted the Financial Accounting Standard Board's ("FASB") accounting standard regarding fair value of financial instruments and related fair value measurements. Those accounting standards established a three-level valuation hierarchy for disclosures of fair value measurement and enhance disclosures requirements for fair value measures. The carrying amounts reported in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets for receivables, payables and short term loans qualify as financial instruments are a reasonable estimate of fair value because of the short period of time between the origination of such instruments, their expected realization and, if applicable, the stated rate of interest is equivalent to rates currently available. The three levels of valuation hierarchy are defined as follows:

TOP FAVOUR LIMITED AND SUBSIDIARIES
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
June 30, 2009

- Level 1 Inputs to the valuation methodology are quoted prices (unadjusted) for identical assets or liabilities in active markets.
- Level 2 Inputs to the valuation methodology include quoted prices for similar assets and liabilities in active markets, and inputs that are observable for the assets or liability, either directly or indirectly, for substantially the full term of the financial instruments.
- Level 3 Inputs to the valuation methodology are unobservable and significant to the fair value.

The Company did not identify any assets and liabilities that are required to be presented on the consolidated balance sheets at fair value in accordance the accounting standard.

“The Fair Value Option for Financial Assets and Financial Liabilities,” became effective for the Company on July 1, 2008. The accounting standard provides the Company with the irrevocable option to elect fair value for the initial and subsequent measurement for certain financial assets and liabilities on a contract-by-contract basis with the difference between the carrying value before election of the fair value option and the fair value recorded upon election as an adjustment to beginning retained earnings. The Company chose not to elect the fair value option.

Cash

The Company considers all highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less at the time of purchase to be cash equivalents for cash flow statement purposes. Cash includes cash on hand and demand deposits in accounts maintained with state owned banks within the PRC.

Accounts receivables, trade

During the normal course of business, the Company extends unsecured credit to its customers. Management regularly reviews aging of receivables and changes in payment trends by its customers, and records a reserve when management believes collection of amounts due are at risk. Accounts considered uncollectible are written off. For the years ended June 30, 2009, and 2008, the Company wrote off uncollectible receivables amounting to $0, and $200,356 respectively. As of June 30, 2009 and 2008, management did not reserve the allowance for doubtful accounts. The Company regularly reviews the credit worthiness of its customers and, based on the results of the credit review, determines whether extended payment terms can be granted to or, in some cases, partial prepayment is required from certain customers.

Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost or market, using the weighted average cost method. Inventories consist of raw materials and supplies; work in process, and finished goods. Raw materials mainly consist of coal (mined and purchased), rail, steel, wood and additives used in coking. The cost of finished goods included (1) direct costs of raw materials, (2) direct labor, (3) indirect production costs, such as allocable utilities cost, and (4) indirect labor related to the production activities, such as assembling and packaging.

Advances to suppliers

The Company advances monies to certain suppliers for raw materials purchase and construction contracts. These advances are interest-free and unsecured.

Property, plant and equipment, net

Property, plant and equipment are stated at cost. Expenditures for maintenance and repairs are charged to earnings as incurred; while additions, renewals and betterments that extend the useful life are capitalized. When items of plant and equipment are retired or otherwise disposed, the related cost and accumulated depreciation are removed from the respective accounts, and any gain or loss is included in operations. Mine development costs are capitalized and amortized by the units of production method over estimated total recoverable proven and probable reserves. Depreciation of plant and equipment is provided using the straight-line method for substantially all assets with estimated lives as follows:

	Estimated Useful Life
Building and plant	30-40 years
Machinery and equipment	10-20 years
Other equipment	5 years
Transportation equipment	5-7 years

Construction-in-progress includes direct costs of construction of mining tunnels improvements. Interest incurred during the period of construction, if material, is capitalized. All other interest is expensed as incurred. For the years ended June 30, 2009, 2008 and 2007, $35,914, $156,121 and $158,890 interest was capitalized into construction for progress, respectively. Construction-in-progress is not depreciated until such time the assets are completed and put into service. Maintenance, repairs and minor renewals are charged to expense as incurred. Major additions and betterment to property and equipment are capitalized.

Land use rights, net

Costs to obtain land use rights are recorded based on the fair value at acquisition and amortized over 36 years, the contractual period of the rights. Under the FASB's accounting standard regarding treatment of goodwill and other intangible assets, all goodwill and certain intangible assets determined to have indefinite lives are not amortized but tested for impairment at least annually. Intangible assets other than goodwill will be amortized over their useful lives and reviewed at least annually for impairment.

Intangible - mineral rights, net

Mineral rights are capitalized at fair value when acquired, including amounts associated with any value beyond proven and probable reserves, and amortized to operations as depletion expense using the units-of-production method over the estimated proven and probable recoverable tons. The Company's coal reserves are controlled either through direct ownership which generally lasts until the recoverable reserves are depleted.

Impairment of long-lived assets

The Company evaluates long lived tangible and intangible assets for impairment, at least annually, but more often whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying value may not be recoverable from its estimated future cash flows, in accordance FASB's accounting guidance regarding "Disposal of Long-Lived Assets". Recoverability is measured by comparing the asset's net book value to the related projected undiscounted cash flows from these assets, considering a number of factors including past operating results, budgets, economic projections, market trends and product development cycles. If the net book value of the asset exceeds the related undiscounted cash flows, the asset is considered impaired, and a second test is performed to measure the amount of impairment loss. Based on its review, the Company believes that, as of June 30, 2009 and 2008, there was no impairment of long lived assets.

Income taxes provided on the liability method in respect of temporary differences arising from differences between the carrying amount of assets and liabilities in the financial statements and the corresponding tax basis used in the computation of assessable tax profit. In principle, deferred tax liabilities are recognized for all taxable temporary differences, and deferred tax assets are recognized to the extent that it is probably that taxable profit will be available against which deductible temporary differences can be utilized. Deferred tax is calculated at the tax rates that are expected to apply to the period when the asset is realized or the liability is settled. Deferred tax is charged or credited in the income statement, except when it related to items credited or charged directly to equity, in which case the deferred tax is also dealt with in equity.

Effective January 1, 2007, the Company adopted a FASB's accounting standard which indicates a tax position is recognized as a benefit only if it is "more likely than not" that the tax position would be sustained in a tax examination, with a tax examination being presumed to occur. The amount recognized is the largest amount of tax benefit that is greater than 50% likely of being realized on examination. For tax positions not meeting the "more likely than not" test, no tax benefit is recorded. The adoption had no effect on the Company's financial statements.

Chinese income taxes

The Company's subsidiary and VIEs are operating in the PRC and are governed by the income tax laws of the PRC concerning Foreign Investment Enterprises and Foreign Enterprises and various local income tax laws ("Income Tax Laws"). Prior to January 1, 2008, Income Tax Laws of the PRC, the Company's subsidiary and VIEs are generally subject to an income tax at an effective rate of 33% (30% national income taxes plus 3% local income taxes) on taxable income, which is based on the net income reported in the statutory financial statements after appropriate tax adjustments. The statutory rate has been changed to 25%, effective January 1, 2008.

Value added tax ("VAT")

Sales revenue represents the invoiced value of goods, net of a value-added tax (VAT). All of the Company's coals and cokes that are sold in the PRC are subject to a Chinese value-added tax at a rate of 13% or 17% of the gross sales price, respectively. This VAT may be offset by VAT paid by the Company on raw materials and other materials included in the cost of producing their finished products. The Company recorded VAT payable and VAT receivable net of payments in the consolidated financial statements. The VAT tax return is filed to offset the payables against the receivables.

Comprehensive income

FASB's accounting standard regarding comprehensive income establishes requirements for the reporting and display of comprehensive income, its components and accumulated balances in a full set of general purpose financial statements. This accounting standard defines comprehensive income to include all changes in equity except those resulting from investments by owners and distributions to owners. Among other disclosures, it also requires that all items that are required to be recognized under current accounting standards as components of comprehensive income be reported in financial statement that is presented with the same prominence as other financial statements. The Company's only current component of comprehensive income is the foreign currency translation adjustment.

Related parties

Parties are considered to be related to the Company if the parties, directly or indirectly, through one or more intermediaries, control, are controlled by, or are under common control with the Company. Related parties also include principal owners of the Company, its management, members of the immediate families of such principal owners and management, and other parties with which the Company may deal if one party controls or can significantly influence the management or operating policies of the other to an extent that one of the transacting parties might be prevented from fully pursuing its own separate interests.

TOP FAVOUR LIMITED AND SUBSIDIARIES
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
June 30, 2009

Recently issued accounting pronouncements

In January 2009, the FASB issued an accounting standard which amended the impairment model by removing its exclusive reliance on “market participant” estimates of future cash flows used in determining fair value. Changing the cash flows used to analyze other-than-temporary impairment from the “market participant” view to a holder’s estimate of whether there has been a “probable” adverse change in estimated cash flows allows companies to apply reasonable judgment in assessing whether another-than-temporary impairment has occurred. The adoption of this accounting standard did not have a material impact on the Company’s consolidated financial statements because all of the investments in debt securities are classified as trading securities.

In April 2009, the FASB issued an Accounting Standard to determine fair value when the volume and level of activity for the asset or liability have significantly decreased and identify transactions that are not orderly. It also amends and provides additional guidance for estimating fair value when the volume and level of activity for the asset or liability have significantly decreased and also includes guidance on identifying circumstances that indicate a transaction is not orderly for fair value measurements. This new accounting standard shall be applied prospectively with retrospective application not permitted and it shall be effective for interim and annual periods ending after June 15, 2009, with early adoption permitted for periods ending after March 15, 2009.

In April 2009, the FASB issued an accounting standard that makes the other-than-temporary impairments guidance more operational and improves the presentation of other-than-temporary impairments in the financial statements. This standard replaced the existing requirement that the entity’s management assert it has both the intent and ability to hold an impaired debt security until recovery with a requirement that management assert it does not have the intent to sell the security, and it is more likely than not it will not have to sell the security before recovery of its cost basis. This standard provides increased disclosure about the credit and noncredit components of impaired debt securities that are not expected to be sold and also requires increased and more frequent disclosures regarding expected cash flows, credit losses, and an aging of securities with unrealized losses. Although this standard does not result in a change in the carrying amount of debt securities, it does require that the portion of other-than-temporary impairment not related to a credit loss for a held-to-maturity security be recognized in a new category of other comprehensive income and be amortized over the remaining life of the debt security as an increase in the carrying value of the security. The Company adopted this accounting standard, but it did not have a material impact on its consolidated financial statements.

In April 2009, the FASB issued an accounting standard that requires disclosures about fair value of financial instruments not measured on the balance sheet at fair value in interim financial statements as well as in annual financial statements. Prior to this accounting standard, fair values for these assets and liabilities were only disclosed annually. This standard applies to all financial instruments within its scope and requires all entities to disclose the method(s) and significant assumptions used to estimate the fair value of financial instruments. This standard does not require disclosures for earlier periods presented for comparative purposes at initial adoption, but in periods after the initial adoption, this standard requires comparative disclosures only for periods ending after initial adoption. The Company adopted this accounting standard, but it did not have a material impact on the disclosures related to its consolidated financial statements.

In May 2009, the FASB issued an accounting standard to provide guidance on management’s assessment of subsequent events. The new standard clarifies that management must evaluate, as of each reporting period, events or transactions that occur after the balance sheet date through the date that the financial statements are issued or are available to be issued. Management must perform its assessment for both interim and annual financial reporting periods. This new guidance does not significantly change the Company's practice for evaluating such event and it is effective prospectively for interim and annual periods ending after June 15, 2009 and requires disclosure of the date subsequent events are evaluated through. The adoption of this new accounting standard did not have an impact on the Company's results of operations or financial condition.

TOP FAVOUR LIMITED AND SUBSIDIARIES
 NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
 June 30, 2009

In June 2009, the FASB also issued an accounting standard amending the accounting and disclosure requirements for the consolidation of variable interest entities ("VIEs"). The elimination of the concept of a QSPE, as discussed above, removes the exception from applying the consolidation guidance within this accounting standard. Further, this accounting standard requires a company to perform a qualitative analysis when determining whether or not it must consolidate a VIE. It also requires a company to continuously reassess whether it must consolidate a VIE. Additionally, it requires enhanced disclosures about a company's involvement with VIEs and any significant change in risk exposure due to that involvement, as well as how its involvement with VIEs impacts the company's financial statements. Finally, a company will be required to disclose significant judgments and assumptions used to determine whether or not to consolidate a VIE. This accounting standard is effective for financial statements issued for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2009, and the Company does not expect this standard to have a material effect on its consolidated financial statements.

Note 3 – Segment Reporting

The FASB's accounting standard regarding Disclosure about Segments of an Enterprise and Related Information requires use of the "management approach" model for segment reporting. The management approach model is based on the way a company's management organizes segments within the company for making operating decisions and assessing performance. Reportable segments are based on products and services, geography, legal structure, management structure, or any other manner in which management disaggregates a company.

As of and for the years ended June 30, 2009, 2008 and 2007, the Company's chief operating decision maker, our CEO, has identified all activities of the Company's subsidiaries, including coal mining, coking and the sales of all products as a result of these business activities, were conducted within one single reporting segment. All of the Company's products are sold within the PRC. Major products and respective revenues are as summarized as follows:

	Years ended June 30,
	2009	2008	2007
Coke	$ 30,534,755	$ 55,103,692	$ 23,831,668
Coal tar	1,171,510	2,987,334	1,463,183
Raw coal	13,151,325	372,312	1,877,489
Washed Coal	6,538,402	160,150	2,906,361
Total	$ 51,395,992	$ 58,623,488	$ 30,078,701

Note 4 – Concentration and Credit Risk

The Company's operations are all carried out in the PRC. Note 13 – Taxes

Income Tax

Effective January 1, 2008, the New Enterprise Income Tax ("EIT") law replaced the existing laws for Domestic Enterprises ("DES") and Foreign Invested Enterprises ("FIEs") in the PRC. The new standard EIT rate of 25% has replaced the 33% rate previously applicable to both DES and FIEs. Companies established before March 16, 2007 will continue to enjoy tax holiday treatment approved by local government for a grace period of the next 5 years or until the tax holiday term is completed, whichever is sooner. Pursuant to the PRC tax law, net operating loss can be carried forward 5 years to offset future taxable income.

The PRC does not allow consolidation or group filing for corporate income tax purposes. Income and losses from members of the same consolidated group (for financial reporting purposes) are not allowed to offset one another. Therefore, total taxable income (loss) subject to actual PRC corporate tax within the consolidated group does not necessarily equal to the consolidated net income before income tax of the consolidated group. The PRC tax administration system does not necessarily retroactively recognize or allow accounting adjustments that are discovered and posted after the income tax returns are filed as additional taxable income or deductions for the tax year to which such post-filing accounting adjustments relate. The Company considers any US GAAP adjustments to its financial statements made after the statutory tax returns are filed to be permanent differences for the purpose of reconciling differences of income tax provision and actual PRC income tax liabilities.

	June 30, 2009	June 30, 2008	June 30, 2007
BVI current income tax expense	$-	$-	$-
PRC current income tax expense	3,491,590	8,046,315	2,165,766
Total provision for income taxes	$3,491,590	$8,046,315	$2,165,766

The following table reconciles the statutory rates to the Company's effective tax rate for the years ended June 30, 2009, 2008 and 2007:

PRC
China
income tax exemption	(10.94%) (2)	0 %	0 %
Other item	3.01 % (3)	1.7 % (3)	45.2% (3)
Effective rate	17.07 %	32 %	78.2%

(1) For the years ended June 30, 2008, the Company was subject to 33% and 25% income tax rates for the first six months and later three months, respectively due to the new EIT was effective on January 1, 2008.

(2) The -10.94% represents $2,570,980 of tax exemption received by Baofeng entity during fiscal year 2009.

(3) The 3.01%, 1.70% and 45.20% represent operating losses incurred by Hongchang, and Hongguang for the years ended at June 30, 2009, 2008 and 2007 respectively. Management believes the losses may not be recovered through future operations.
