Section 1-Registrant's Business and Operations

Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On November 7, 2017, Cool Technologies, Inc. ("CoolTech", "the Company") entered into an Agreement of Principal Terms with Jatropa, Inc. ("Jatropa"),

Pursuant to the Agreement, CoolTech will furnish Jatropa with one MG80 prototype retro-fitted onto a Ford F-350 truck within 60 business days of the execution of the Agreement. Jatropa will have the use of the prototype for a subsequent period of 60 days.

When the MG80 prototype meets the technical criteria established by Jatropa in cooperation with CoolTech, Jatropa will release the rest of the purchase order to CoolTech: 233 additional MG units. The Company has filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission an application for Confidential Treatment of the pricing of the various Mobile Generation (MG) units to be ordered by Jatropa.

The order terms and conditions will be 50% down at the time of order and 50% at the time of shipment, each payable with a bank letter of credit. Product delivery will be considered FOB (Freight on Board) at CoolTech's shipping dock.

The production schedule will be mutually agreed upon by CoolTech and Jatropa. It will start no later than April 2018 and continue until the order is completed.

Projected lead time to procure material is 10-12 weeks for the first 25 units and one month for every 25 additional units thereafter. Once the material has been received, CoolTech will begin to ship 5 units per week with additional time allotted for the procurement of trucks.

If the MG80 prototype does not meet the mutually agreed upon technical criteria, there will be a 30 day cure period. If the technical criteria still has not been met after the cure period, Jatropa will return the Ford F-350 truck with the installed MG80 prototype within 5 business days and CoolTech will refund the cost to Jatropa.

On November 13, 2017, Cool Technologies Inc. issued a press release relating to the Jatropa agreement. This press release is furnished as Exhibit 99.1 to this Form 8-K and incorporated by reference as set forth in full.
