Notes to the Financial Statements

December 31, 2016

(Unaudited)

NOTE 1 - ORGANIZATION AND DESCRIPTION OF BUSINESS

PCS Edventures.com, Inc. (the Company) develops and markets STEAM (Science, Technology, Engineering, Arts, and Math) education products comprised of curriculum and materials. With its acquisition of Thrust-UAV in February, 2016, the Company also develops and markets a first person view (FPV) racing drone, which it assembles and markets primarily through distributors. The Company has used this racing-drone technology to create an education drone (also FPV) for the classroom to be used as a platform to teach STEAM topics. This initiative is in late stage development and is expected to be released in February, 2017. The Company sells its education products into all 50 U.S. states as well as into international markets. Most of the Company's domestic education business is conducted with schools and entities that cater to after-school programs for students. Most of the Company's international business is conducted with governmental agencies in that local market. Most of the Company's revenue from its FPV racing drone has come from domestic sources, but the Company anticipates meaningful international revenue as it proceeds with its product release strategy. The Company expects that the vast majority of its education drone sales will be domestic. The Company anticipates recognizing its first meaningful revenues from its FPV racing drone and its first revenues from its education drone during its fourth fiscal quarter of 2017.

The financial statements presented herein are those of the Company.

In October 1994, the Company exchanged common stock on a one-for-one basis for common stock of PCS Schools, Inc. As a result of this exchange, PCS Schools, Inc. became a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company. In the late 1990s, the Company divested the stand-alone learning labs to focus on the creation of turn-key lab modules coupled with web-based technology for use in the classroom and afterschool programs.

On March 27, 2000, the Company changed its name from PCS Education Systems, Inc. to PCS Edventures!. com, Inc.

In August 2001, the Company successfully completed an SB-2 registration filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") and began trading publicly on the OTC Bulletin Board.

On November 30, 2005, the Company entered into an agreement with 511092 N.B. LTD., a Canadian corporation (LabMentors), to exchange the Company's common stock for common stock of 511092 N.B. LTD., which exchange was completed in December, 2005, with LabMentors becoming a wholly-owned subsidiary. In December 2005, the name of this subsidiary was formally changed to PCS LabMentors, Ltd. The Company divested LabMentors, the wholly-owned subsidiary, in August of 2013.

In January, 2012, the Company committed to a business plan enhancement, which included the opening, operating, and licensing of EdventuresLab private learning centers and launched a pilot program in the spring of 2012. An additional LearningLab was opened in Eagle, Idaho, in June of 2014.

On January 31, 2013, the Company formed a subsidiary called Premiere Science, Inc., incorporated and registered in the State of Idaho. The subsidiary is 100% wholly-owned by the Company and was formed to use as an additional sales and marketing tool to gain other business opportunities.

On September 26, 2014, the shareholders voted for the proposal to grant the Board of Directors the authority to change the name of the Company in a fashion that would remove the ".com" from its name, but retain the current brand.

On July 23, 2015, the Board of Directors resolved that the name of the Company be changed to PCS Edventures!, Inc. No amendment to the Company's Articles of Incorporation regarding this name change has been filed. At this time, the Company has not completed the required filing with the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA") to make this name change effective due to the cost relative to the expected benefits of doing so.

On February 15, 2016, the Company acquired Thrust UAV, a private company engaged in the development and assembly of FPV racing drones, for $109,000.

NOTE 2 - UNAUDITED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The December 31, 2016 financial statements presented herein are unaudited, and in the opinion of management, include all adjustments (consisting of only normal recurring accruals) necessary for a fair presentation of financial position, results of operations and cash flows. Such financial statements do not include all of the information and footnote disclosures normally included in financial statements prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. This Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q should be read in conjunction with the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016.

Certain items for March 31, 2016 have been reclassified to conform to presentation in the quarter ended December 31, 2016.

The operating results for the nine-month period ended December 31, 2016, are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2017.

NOTE 3 - GOING CONCERN

The Company's financial statements are prepared using accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America applicable to a going concern that contemplates the realization of assets and liquidation of liabilities in the normal course of business. The established sources of revenues are not presently sufficient to cover the Company's operating costs. The Company has accumulated significant losses, accounts payable and generated negative cash flows. The combination of these items raises substantial doubt about its ability to continue as a going concern. Management's plans to alleviate this adverse position are as follows:

The Company's strategy to remove the going concern doubt is to focus attention on increasing STEAM education sales through both channel partners and its direct sales force, to develop retail channels to sell its STEAM education products into, and to bring to market its FPV racing drone and STEAM education drone product lines from Thrust-UAV.

In January, the Company contracted with two new salespeople who will pursue STEAM education sales in the domestic market. The Company has implemented a number of initiatives to support its direct sales force and generate promising sales leads for them to pursue. The Company continues to seek retail partners for its STEAM education products. In December, the Company released its racing drone, the Riot 250R Pro. The Company has secured several distribution partners who have placed the product into their retail systems. The Company believes that sales will gain traction and become material during the fourth quarter of FY2017. The Company anticipates that its education drone product will be completed and available for sale in February, 2017. Based on preliminary information and feedback, the Company believes that its education drone sales will be material during the fourth quarter of FY2017.

NOTE 4 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

a. Concentration of Credit Risk

The Company extends credit to customers and is therefore subject to credit risk. The Company performs initial and ongoing credit evaluations of its customers' financial condition and does not require collateral. An allowance for doubtful accounts is recorded to account for potential bad debts. Estimates are used in determining the allowance for doubtful accounts and are based upon an assessment of selected accounts and as a percentage of remaining accounts receivable by aging category. In determining these percentages, the Company evaluates historical write-offs, and current trends in customer credit quality, as well as changes in credit policies. At December 31, 2016, a major international customer and a domestic reseller accounted for 13% and 27% of the Company's accounts receivable, respectively.

Note Payable, Related Party, Long Term

On January 13, 2012, the Company entered into two separate promissory notes in the amount of $35,000 each for an aggregate amount of $70,000. The notes bear interest at nine percent (9%) per annum and were previously due and payable on or before January 10, 2013. Minimum monthly payments of one and one-half (1.5%) of the loan balances are required and are submitted to the Lenders' financial institution. The notes were amended April 1, 2013, and rewriting with a new principal amount of $32,100 each for an aggregate amount of $64,200. The notes bear interest at nine percent (9%) per annum and are due and payable on or before April 1, 2020. The underlying loan requires that the Company pay to the Lenders' financial institution monthly payments of $1,033 on or before the 1st day of each month, beginning May 1, 2013, and continuing each month in like amounts until the final payment due on April 1, 2020. The Company had paid $34,372 in principal, leaving a balance of $35,628 at December 31, 2016, on these notes. No interest is accrued for these notes payable. Total interest paid during the quarter ending December 31, 2016, was $1,017.

On October 21, 2014, the Company executed a promissory note with one of its shareholders and board members in the amount of $870,457. The note, originally due May 31, 2015, was non-convertible, had an interest rate of ten percent (10%) per annum, was secured by accounts receivable, fixed assets, intellectual property and the Company's net loss carry forward, and was used to finance operations and purchase inventory. This note's due date was extended to September 30, 2015, and included new cash loaned to the Company of $175,000. This note includes $7,957 of accrued interest on the paid off notes listed below: $50,000 of the February 11, 2014 note; $250,000 of the Convertible long term related party note; $145,000 of the note dated May 7, 2014; $29,500 of the June 27, 2014, note; $105,000 of the note dated July 21, 2014; $210,000 of the note dated July 28, 2014; $25,000 of the note dated August 8, 2014; and $123,000 of the note dated August 20, 2014. $22,222 of interest was rolled into principal on January 1, 2015, resulting in a principal balance of $892,679. On June 8, 2016, this note was combined with the January 22, 2015, promissory note, at ten percent (10%) per annum, with the principal balance of $400,000, resulting in a new note with a balance due of $1,292,679, due July 1, 2018. This promissory note is secured with the Company's inventory, fixed and liquid assets, property, equipment, intangible assets and intellectual property and the Company's net loss carry forward. The accrued interest for the $1,292,679 consolidated note was $239,409 as of December 31, 2016. This promissory note has payment terms requiring consecutive monthly installments in the sum of $50,000 per month commencing January 15, 2017. This note's principle payment commencement date was subsequently extended until July 15, 2017.

On January 22, 2015, the Company issued 2,000,000 warrants to a shareholder and board member with a 36 month term to purchase “restricted” Rule 144 common stock, no par value (the “Shares”), at a purchase price of $0.04 per share of common stock (the “Exercise Price”) as consideration for the issuance of a promissory note in the amount of $400,000 from the Company. These warrants are fully vested and exercisable. The warrants were evaluated for embedded derivatives in accordance with ASC 815 and were found to not include any embedded derivatives. The warrants attached to the note were valued using the Black Scholes Valuation Model. The assumptions used in the model included the historical volatility of the Company’s stock of 180%, and the risk-free rate for the periods within the expected life of the warrant based on the U.S. Treasury yield curve in effect of 0.35%. The resulting fair value was $66,717. This value was recorded as a debt discount and fully amortized as of March 31, 2016. On June 8, 2016, this note was combined with the January 22, 2015, promissory note, at 10% per annum, with the principal balance of $400,000, resulting in a new note with a balance of $1,292,679, due July 1, 2018. The accrued interest for the $1,292,679 consolidated note was $239,409 as of December 31, 2016

On February 17, 2015, and April 20, 2015, the Company executed promissory notes with one of its shareholders and board members for $135,000 each at ten percent (10%) interest per annum, due June 30, 2015, secured by accounts receivable on completed contracts to finance operations and purchase inventory. The principal on the April 20, 2015, note was paid down to $40,000. The Lender had provided the Company with extensions of due dates for both notes through June 30, 2016. The principal on the February 17, 2015, note of $135,000 was combined with the $40,000 remaining principal on the April 20, 2015, note into a $175,000 note due January 15, 2019. The accrued interest on the $175,000 note was $36,177 on December 31, 2016.

On June 8, 2016, the Company executed a promissory note with one of its shareholders and board members for $1,292,679. The note is due July 1, 2018, has an interest rate of ten percent (10%) per annum, and is secured by inventory, fixed assets, intellectual property and the Company’s net loss carry forward. This promissory note for $1,292,679, combined and replaced the October 21, 2014, promissory note for $892,679 and the January 16, 2015, promissory note for $400,000, as detailed in the table below.

Convertible Note Payable – Non-related party

On August 1, 2012, the Company issued amendments to the convertible note agreements (convertible into common stock at a rate of $0.15 per share) in the aggregate amount of $215,000 and extended the due date with repayment in the amount of $40,000 per quarter to begin April, 2013, with the final payment due in August, 2014, to include any remaining balance due at that time. In consideration for extending the due date of the promissory notes, the expiration dates on the warrants issued (fully expensed in the prior period) on March 31, 2011, which were subsequently extended to June 27, 2014, were amended and extended again for an additional three years, making the new expiration dates August 1, 2017. At the Lenders' sole option, Lenders may elect to receive payment of their respective notes and all accrued interest in "restricted" common stock of the Company at the price per share of said common stock at the same rate as the warrants. On June 7, 2013, the Company executed an amendment to the loan transaction. The amended loan transaction involved the extension of the promissory notes from April 30, 2013, to April 30, 2016, with the Lenders waiving any default under the previous note. The Company made interest payments to each of the eight note holders for all accrued interest from August 1, 2012, to April 30, 2013, for consideration of the extension. On the fourth extension, all accrued interest was combined with the original principal amount as of July 31, 2012. On July 13, 2015, three non-related party conversions with a principal balance of $102,033, combined with the accrued interest to date of $17,894, were converted to 799,514 shares of common stock. As of December 31, 2016, the ending principal balance was $90,696. Interest accrued as of December 31, 2016 was $29,544.

NOTE 10 – NOTE RECEIVABLE

On July 31, 2013, the Company signed a Memorandum of Understanding with a Canadian company owned by Joseph Khoury (“JAK”) proposing a purchase agreement in which JAK shall purchase LabMentors from PCS for USD $150,000. JAK has agreed to assume 100% of LabMentors outstanding liabilities and to pay the remainder of the USD $150,000 through a note payable. The Company note receivable in the amount of $50,740, carried an annual interest rate of 3% compounded annually and is to be paid over a period of 60 months in equal monthly payments beginning in month 13 of the 60 month period. This sale was finalized during the period ending September 30, 2013. On April 14, 2015, JAK informed PCS of the potential closure of LabMentors and an inability to meet its note obligations. LabMentors had made three note payments as of the date of the notification totaling $3,399. In evaluation of the note’s potential for collectability, a note allowance was accrued to the full amount of the note receivable balance. The note receivable principal balance at December 31, 2016 was $49,513. The note receivable allowance balance at December 31, 2016, is $49,513, resulting in a net $0 balance for this note receivable.

On August 10, 2016, the Company entered into a note receivable with one of its consultants for the amount of $21,198, with an interest rate of eighteen percent (18%) per annum, and secured by future payables owed to the consultant by the Company for services rendered. Interest and principal are due by January 31, 2017. The note has not been collected as of December 31, 2016.

NOTE 11 – ACCOUNTS RECEIVABLE

The Company had accounts receivable of $752,922 net of an allowance for $2,096 for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016. This accounts receivable balance included a major international customer’s final work orders; a major domestic customer’s annual sales order; and an international customer’s lab royalty fees. All international outstanding accounts receivable balances were paid within terms. The Company had an accounts receivable balance of $177,734, net of allowance of $2,096, as of December 31, 2016.

NOTE 12 – INVENTORY

The Company had inventory of $192,527 net of an inventory reserve of $3,391 for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016. The inventory reserve is consideration for obsolete and slow moving inventories. The March 31, 2016, inventory balance reflected the shipment of the two major customer orders mentioned in Note 11. The majority of summer camp sales span February through June, 2016. Summer camp components are generally purchased within the week ordered to keep inventories lean. The Company had an inventory balance of $390,500, net of an inventory reserve of $3,391, as of December 31, 2016. The growth in inventory on-hand is largely due to receipt of an ocean container of our proprietary BrickLab product.

NOTE 13 - COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

a. Operating Lease Obligation

The Company leases its main office under a non-cancelable lease agreement accounted for as an operating lease. On December 31, 2013, the Company signed an amendment to the existing lease to reduce the leased square feet to 5,412 for $6,765 per month for the 12 months ending December 31, 2014. On February 1, 2015, the Company signed a new lease to reduce the square feet to 3,609 for $4,511 per month for the 12 months ending January 31, 2016. The Company signed a lease amendment for the main office space on May 11, 2016, for $15.48 per square feet or $4,647 per month for the 12 months expiring May 31, 2017. Rent expense for the corporate offices was $14,780 and $13,533 for the three month ended December 31, 2016 and 2015, and $47,456 and $49,467 for the nine months ended December 31, 2016, and 2015, respectively, under this lease arrangement.

The Company leases additional warehouse space in Boise, Idaho. Originally, this warehouse space consisted of approximately 2,880 square feet. The lease expired in June 2012. This lease was extended for 24 months, beginning July 1, 2012. The lease was extended to a new term ending October 31, 2015. The Company signed a sixth amendment on April 15, 2015, to lease additional warehouse space of approximately 1,400 square feet adjacent to the existing leased space to April 30, 2016. The Company moved all warehousing to the new facility, vacating and completing the lease agreement ending April 30, 2016.

On March 15, 2016, the Company leased a warehouse, office space and manufacturing facility of approximately 10,000 square feet for $6,300 per month for 12 months. On April 28, 2016, the Company moved all inventories, property, plant and equipment to this new warehouse facility. Rent expense for the new warehouse location was $12,600 and $6,535 for the three months ended December 31, 2016, and 2015, and $56,065 and $18,500 for the nine months ended December 31, 2016, and 2015, respectively.

The Company leased an additional learning lab site in Eagle, Idaho, in the first quarter of FY2015. The lease has a three-year term for 1,050 square feet, for an annual base rent of $16,640 or $1,387 per month, with three percent (3%) growth per year.

b. Litigation

On or about May 18, 2015, the Company was named as a co-defendant in a legal action related to one of its employees, alleged to have been driving an automobile negligently while on work related services for the Company, and causing damages to the plaintiffs in the action. The action was brought in the District Court of the Fourth Judicial District of the State of Idaho, in and for the County of Ada, Civil Action number CV PI 1507419. The insurance carrier indicated the claim would not be supported if the employee was not on company business, which the Company asserted was the case. The Company engaged legal counsel to represent it in this matter. On October 25, 2016, the case was dismissed with prejudice.

On October 13, 2015, the Company filed a Summons and Complaint against a person the Company contracted to provide public relations to the Company. The complaint primarily involved defamation and breach of contract. On October 18, 2016, the Company negotiated a settlement on Ada County Case No. CV OC 1517581 originating in the Idaho Fourth Judicial District Court. The parties to the suit negotiated an agreement that included a confidentiality clause. The matter was settled amicably.

c. Contingencies

On February 23, 2016, the Company issued a press release announcing an $825,000 contract with Drones ETC. in which its Thrust-UAV business unit would develop and produce a drone-related technology product for Drones ETC.

On December 23, 2016, the Company received a Notice of Termination of the contract from legal counsel for Drones ETC. in which it purported to terminate the contract, alleging breach of contract resulting from the Company's alleged failure to provide the product in a timely manner and demanding the return of the $33,000 it had paid to the Company on the execution of the contract. The Company believes that the Notice of Termination is without merit, and intends to seek enforcement of the contract. The Company has engaged legal counsel to advise it on this matter.

NOTE 16 - DILUTIVE INSTRUMENTSStock Options and Warrants

The Company is required to recognize expense of options or similar equity instruments issued to employees using the fair-value-based method of accounting for stock-based payments in compliance with the financial accounting standard pertaining to share-based payments. This standard covers a wide range of share-based compensation arrangements including share options, restricted share plans, performance-based awards, share appreciation rights, and employee share purchase plans. Application of this standard requires significant judgment regarding the assumptions used in the selected option pricing model, including stock price volatility and employee exercise behavior. Most of these inputs are either highly dependent on the current economic environment at the date of grant or forward-looking over the expected term of the award.

Item 2. Management’s Discussions and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations.

Cautionary Statements for Purposes of “Safe Harbor Provisions” of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995:

Except for historical facts, all matters discussed in this Quarterly Report, which are forward-looking, involve a high degree of risk and uncertainty. Certain statements in this report set forth management’s intentions, plans, beliefs, expectations, or predictions of the future based on current facts and analyses. When we use the words “believe”, “expect”, “anticipate”, “estimate”, “intend” or similar expressions, we intend to identify forward-looking statements. You should not place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements. Actual results may differ materially from those indicated in such statements, due to a variety of factors, risks and uncertainties. Potential risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to, competitive pressures from other companies within the Educational Industries, economic conditions in the Company’s primary markets, exchange rate fluctuation, reduced product demand, increased competition, inability to produce required capacity, unavailability of financing, government action, weather conditions and other uncertainties, including those detailed in the Company’s Securities and Exchange Commission filings. The Company assumes no duty to update forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances after the date of such statements.

The following discussion should be read in conjunction with our audited financial statements and Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations (“MD&A”) contained in our Form 10-K Annual Report for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016, filed with the SEC on June 22, 2016.

Plan of Operation

The Company sells into the STEAM education market with (1) an existing STEAM library and deep expertise in creating STEAM solutions comprised of curriculum and materials; (2) a unique learning methodology – an adaptive (customized to individual learners), experiential (hands-on in nature) learning framework that can be monetized in a number of ways, with what the Company believes is an approach to educational assessment and incentivizing students for the future, and the Company is an innovative leader in this area; (3) an innovative K12 robotics and engineering system comprised of hardware and software specifically designed to engage students in STEAM topics such as hands-on physics, engineering, and coding; (4) a long history as a prime STEAM provider in the Middle East, a relationship which the Company believes will continue to provide revenue growth; and (5) a continual view to the future of STEAM education developments, exemplified by the Company’s anticipated release of a STEAM drone program to enhance its other product offerings.

The Company is actively marketing the Thrust-UAV brand for its FPV racing drone and is forming distributor relationships. The Company also sells components and parts for its FPV racing drone on its website and through distributors. The Company has formed several partnerships with the FPV community and intends to leverage these relationships to promote its FPV racing drone.

The Company's strategy is profitability driven, seeking to optimize operations while moving our core STEAM, digital learning, robotics and drone product strategies forward. Tactically, the Company will focus its attention on sales activities. The Company will continue to focus on the improvement of its web-based marketing efforts, expand its sales force and channel partners, and tighten sales processes for domestic STEAM sales. The Company will also continue to fulfill existing, and anticipates capturing new, STEAM contracts with a customer in the Middle East. The Company will actively seek retail distribution methods and channels for its robotics and drone retail products and expand their usability for other market segments.

Results of Operations

For the nine month period ended December 31, 2016, the Company reported a net loss of ($1,725,464), as compared to a net loss of ($612,316) for the nine month period ended December 31, 2015. The ($1,113,148) increase in loss was due to a reduction in revenue predominantly due to the timing of major customer order fulfilled by our March 31, 2016, fiscal year end. The same order previous year was fulfilled in April and May of 2015. Additional contributors were the reduction in international work orders fulfilled year over year, and the ramp up of Thrust UAV. The Basic Loss per Share for the nine month period ended December 31, 2016, was ($0.02), which varies from the ($0.01) loss per share for the nine month period ended December 31, 2015.

For the nine month period ended December 31, 2016, revenues were $1,378,544, as compared to revenue during the nine month period ended December 31, 2015, of $2,145,719. The revenue decrease was due to timing of major customer order fulfillments mentioned above and a decrease in international work orders and Learning Center enrollment.

For the three month period ended December 31, 2016, the Company reported a net loss of ($605,113) as compared to a net loss of ($411,634) for the three months ended December 31, 2015. This increase in net loss was predominantly due to the investment in research and development in its Thrust-UAV division. The Basic Loss per Share for the three month period ended December 31, 2016, was ($0.01), similar to the ($0.01) loss per share for the three-month period ended December 31, 2015.

Revenue for the three-month period ended December 31, 2016, was $412,590 as compared to revenue during the three month period ended December 31, 2015, of $329,694. The increase in revenue was due predominantly to $44,173 less in domestic sales and a timing of $142,501 increase in International revenues.

Operating expenses increased by $13,219 (2.5%) and $244,649 (15.4%) in the three and nine months of fiscal 2017, respectively, relative to prior year periods. The largest factor behind this increase in operating expenses was the Company's acquisition of Thrust-UAV, which increased Company overhead. Product development expense increased significantly due to investment in research and development at Thrust-UAV.

Interest expense decreased by $481 and $63,143 in the three and nine months of fiscal 2017, respectively, relative to prior year periods due to the conversion of debt.

Liquidity

Cash used by operations for the third quarter of fiscal 2017 was $1,242,339 compared to cash used by operations of $92,392 in the same period last year. The Company ended the third quarter of fiscal 2017 with $41,073 in cash, total current assets of $691,602, and total current liabilities of $1,270,197, resulting in a working capital deficit of $578,595 compared to a working capital deficit of $1,661,514 for the year ended March 31, 2016.

The Company had a current ratio at December 31, 2016, and March 31, 2016, of 0.55 and 0.42, respectively. Significant short term debt was consolidated with an extended due date reclassifying the promissory notes from short term to long term, related party debt. There is no guarantee that this Lender will continue to provide extensions for payments, and the Company cannot predict that it will be successful in obtaining funding or generating cash in order to pay the Lender. The Company has an accumulated deficit of ($41,777,523) and shareholders' equity (deficit) of ($2,057,727).

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk.

The Company is a smaller reporting company as defined by Rule 12b-2 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”) and is not required to provide the information required under this item.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures

Changes in Internal Control Over Financial Reporting.

None.

Disclosure Controls and Procedures

The Company maintains “disclosure controls and procedures,” as the SEC defines such terms. We have designed these controls and procedures to reasonably assure that information required to be disclosed in our reports filed under the Exchange Act, such as this Quarterly Report, is recorded, processed, summarized, and reported within the periods specified in the SEC’s rules and forms. We have also designed our disclosure controls to provide reasonable assurance that such information is accumulated and communicated to the Chief Executive Officer, Executive Vice President, and Vice President/Treasurer, as appropriate, to allow them to make timely decisions regarding our required disclosures.

Management has evaluated the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rule 13a-15(e) of the Exchange Act as of December 31, 2016. Based on this evaluation, the Chief Executive Officer, Executive Vice President, and the Vice President/Treasurer, acting as principal financial officer, concluded that the Company’s disclosure controls and procedures, including the accumulation and communication of disclosures to the Company’s Chief Executive Officer, Executive Vice President, and Vice President/Treasurer, as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure, were not effective as of this date to provide reasonable assurance that information required to be disclosed by the Company in the reports filed or submitted under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified by the SEC’s rules and forms. The Company’s quarter-end closing process did not adequately ensure that all transactions were accounted for in accordance with GAAP and that required adjustments were made to the financial statements to prevent them from being materially misstated. Management acknowledges that as a smaller reporting entity, it is difficult to have adequate accounting staff to perform appropriate additional reviews of the financial statements.

Management's Report on Internal Control Over Financial Reporting.

Our management is responsible for establishing and maintaining adequate internal control over financial reporting (as defined in Rule 13a-15(f) under the Exchange Act). Our internal control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes.

Because of its inherent limitations, internal control over financial reporting may not prevent or detect misstatements. Therefore, even those systems determined to be effective can provide only reasonable assurance of achieving their control objectives. Management, including our Chief Executive Officer, Executive Vice President, and our Vice President/Treasurer, acting as principal financial officer, does not expect that our disclosure controls and procedures or our internal controls will prevent all error or fraud. A control system, no matter how well conceived and operated, can provide only reasonable, not absolute, assurance that the objectives of the control system are met. Further, the design of a control system must reflect the fact that there are resource constraints and the benefits of controls must be considered relative to their costs. Due to the inherent limitations in all control systems, no evaluation of controls can provide absolute assurance that all control issues and instances of fraud, if any, have been detected. Management believes that the financial statements included in this report fairly present in all material respects our financial condition, results of operations and cash flows for the periods presented.

Management, with the participation of the Chief Executive Officer, as principal executive officer, Executive Vice President, and the Vice President/Treasurer, acting as principal financial officer, evaluated the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2016. In making this assessment, management used the criteria set forth by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission ("COSO") in Internal Control – Integrated Framework. Consistent with its review for the year ending March 31, 2016, when management identified a material weakness in the internal control over financial reporting, management concluded that, as of December 31, 2016, the Company's internal control over financial reporting was not comprehensive.

This material weakness was evidenced through the Company's year-end closing process, which did not adequately ensure that all transactions were accounted for in accordance with GAAP and that required adjustments were made to the financial statements to prevent them from being materially misstated. Based on this evaluation, our management, with the participation of the Chief Executive Officer, Executive Vice President and Principal Financial Officer, in this case, our Vice President, concluded, as of March 31, 2016, our internal control over financial reporting was not effective. Management acknowledges that as a smaller reporting entity, it is difficult to have adequate accounting staff to perform appropriate additional reviews of the financial statements.

PART II - OTHER INFORMATION

Item 1. Legal Proceedings.

On or about May 18, 2015, the Company was named as a co-defendant in a legal action related to one of its employees, alleged to have been driving an automobile negligently while on work related services for the Company, and causing damages to the plaintiffs in the action. The action was brought in the District Court of the Fourth Judicial District of the State of Idaho, in and for the County of Ada, Civil Action number CV PI 1507419. The Company engaged legal counsel to represent it in this matter. On October 25, 2016, the judge presiding over this case dismissed it with prejudice.

On October 13, 2015, the Company filed a Summons and Complaint against a person the Company contracted to promote the Company. The complaint primarily involved defamation and breach of contract. The Complaint was unresolved at quarter end as the Company was in negotiations with the person to settle this dispute. In early October, an agreement was reached and both parties signed a confidential agreement. The matter was settled amicably.

On February 23, 2016, the Company issued a press release announcing an $825,000 contract with Drones ETC. in which its Thrust-UAV business unit would develop and produce a drone-related technology product for Drones ETC. On December 23, 2016, the Company received a Notice of Termination of the contract from legal counsel for Drones ETC. in which it purported to terminate the contract, alleging breach of contract resulting from the Company's alleged failure to provide the product in a timely manner and demanding the return of the $33,000 it had paid to the Company on the execution of the contract. The Company believes that the Notice of Termination is without merit, and intends to seek enforcement of the contract. The Company has engaged legal counsel to advise it on this matter.

Item 1A. Risk Factors.
