Changes in the Executive Office of Governance and Compliance

Rio de Janeiro, September 10, 2018 - Petróleo Brasileiro S.A. - Petrobras, further to the release disclosed on June 13, 2017, informs that the extinction of the non-statutory position of Deputy Officer for Governance and Compliance will be submitted to the evaluation of the company's competent bodies.

Exceptional and temporary, the termination of this position, unique in the company, before the originally scheduled date of 12/31/2019 results from the strengthening of the company internal controls, elimination of all material weaknesses as of end of 2017, progresses already made in corporate governance, shareholders governance, prevention, detection and internal investigation activities and remediation of irregularities.

As of September 1, 2018, the former Deputy Officer for Governance and Compliance, Paulo José Alves, became the Executive Manager of Compliance, replacing Márcio Campanelli Moreira, the former manager, who became the Executive Manager of Governance.

The Executive Office of Governance and Compliance shall maintain all its prerogatives and responsibilities provided for in the company's Bylaws and internal regulations.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This release includes forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, that are subject to risks and uncertainties. The forward-looking statements, which address the Company's expected business and financial performance, among other matters, contain words such as "believe," "expect," "estimate," "anticipate," "optimistic," "intend," "aim," "will," "may," "should," "could," "would," "likely," and similar expressions. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date on which they are made. There is no assurance that the expected events, trends or results will actually occur. We undertake no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information or future events or for any other reason.

The Company's actual results could differ materially from those expressed or forecast in any forward-looking statements as a result of a variety of assumptions and factors. These factors include, but are not limited to, the following: (i) failure to comply with laws or regulations, including fraudulent activity, corruption, and bribery; (ii) the outcome of ongoing corruption investigations and any new facts or information that may arise in relation to the "Lava Jato Operation"; (iii) the effectiveness of the Company's risk management policies and procedures, including operational risk; and (iv) litigation, such as class actions or proceedings brought by governmental and regulatory agencies. A description of other factors can be found in the Company's Annual Report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2017, and the Company's other filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.
