Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

The Corporation maintains the Cummins Inc. Supplemental Life Insurance and Deferred Income Plan for its executive and other officers that includes features of a supplemental executive retirement plan (the "SERP"). Pension benefits payable under the SERP are based on the executive's annual salary and short-term bonus compensation, employment service, and age at retirement, and are integrated with benefits payable under the Corporation's broader-based pension plans. On December 12, 2005, the Compensation Committee of the Corporation's Board of Directors amended the SERP to: (a) redefine covered compensation from final five-year average, to the average of the highest five consecutive years during the executive's final ten years of employment; (b) reduce the plan's normal retirement age from 65 to 60 and lower the reduction factor for benefits commencing earlier than age-60 from 6% to 4% per year; (c) for new SERP participants, eliminate waiver of the reduction factor for such participants whose age plus years of service at retirement are equal to or greater than 80; and (d) increase the age after which benefits no longer accrue from 60 to 65, subject to the SERP's maximum pension benefit as a percentage of covered compensation.

The Corporation also maintains the Cummins Inc. Executive Retention Plan ("Retention Plan") covering executive and non-executive officers, as well as certain other key employees. Under the Retention Plan, in the event of a participant's termination of employment for certain reasons during a period following a change of control of the Corporation, among other things, participants receive a multiple of their annual base salary and target bonus award, and were also to receive a multiple of the grant value of their then most recent annual long-term incentive compensation award. On December 15, 2005, the Compensation Committee of the Corporation's Board of Directors adopted an amended and restated version of the Retention Plan that: (a) no longer covers non-officer employees (who remain covered under the pre-amended version through 2007); (b) excludes the grant value of long-term incentive compensation awards; and (c) deletes a provision allowing participants to voluntarily terminate employment during the thirteenth month following a change of control and receive payments under the plan.

A copy of the complete text of each of the amended and restated SERP and Retention Plan will be filed as exhibits to the Corporation's 2005 Form 10-K, which is its next periodic report.
