ITEM 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On February 20, 2008, the Board of Directors of Eastman Kodak Company (the "Company"), upon the recommendation of its Corporate Responsibility and Governance Committee, elected Dennis F. Strigl to the Company's Board of Directors. The Board of Directors determined that Mr. Strigl is independent under the New York Stock Exchange Listing Standards and the standards set forth under the Board's Corporate Governance Guidelines.

With the addition of this new independent director, the size of the Board of Directors increased to twelve directors. Mr. Strigl will stand for re-election by a vote of the Company's shareholders at the Company's 2008 annual meeting of shareholders. Mr. Strigl will serve on the Audit Committee and the Finance Committee. There was no arrangement or understanding between Mr. Strigl and any other persons pursuant to which Mr. Strigl was elected as a director of the Company.

Mr. Strigl, 61, serves as President and Chief Operating Officer of Verizon Communications. There are no related person transactions between the Company and Mr. Strigl. The Company does business with Verizon Communications. It has paid Verizon Communications and related companies approximately $1 million between 2005 and 2007 for product and services and total sales by the Company to Verizon Communications and related companies during the same period were approximately $1.5 million.

As a non-employee director, Mr. Strigl will participate in the Company's Director Compensation Program.

A copy of the Company's press release dated February 22, 2008 announcing the election of Mr. Strigl to the Board of Directors, is attached as Exhibit (99.1) to this Form 8-K and is incorporated by reference.
