(Unaudited)

12. In September 2006, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standard (SFAS) No. 157, "Fair Value Measurements." This statement establishes a consistent framework for measuring fair value and expands disclosures on fair value measurements. SFAS No. 157 was effective for the Company starting in fiscal 2008 with respect to financial assets and liabilities. The impact of the initial adoption of SFAS No. 157 in 2008 had no impact on the consolidated financial statements.

The Company uses significant other observable inputs to value the derivative instruments used to hedge interest rate volatility and net monetary positions. The fair market value of such instruments follows (in thousands):

	Sep 26, 2	2008	Dec 28, 2007
Gain (loss) on interest rate hedge contracts	$	(2,334)	$	(1,700)
Gain (loss) on foreign currency forward contracts	324		(282)
Total	$	(2,010)	$	(1,982)

With respect to non-financial assets and liabilities, SFAS No. 157 is effective for the Company starting in fiscal 2009. The Company has not determined the impact, if any, the adoption of this statement as it pertains to non-financial assets and liabilities will have on its consolidated financial statements.

In March 2008, the FASB issued SFAS No. 161, "Disclosures about Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities." This statement expands disclosures but does not change accounting for derivative instruments and hedging activities. The statement is effective for the Company starting in fiscal 2009.

13. In October, the Company acquired the Airlessco® assets of Durotech Co. for approximately $15 million cash. Airlessco® is a line of spray-painting equipment that complements the Company's Contractor Equipment business.

Item 2. GRACO INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Overview

The Company designs, manufactures and markets systems and equipment to move, measure, control, dispense and spray fluid materials. Management classifies the Company's business into three reportable segments: Industrial, Contractor and Lubrication. Key strategies include development of new products, expansion of distribution, new market penetration and completion of acquisitions.

The following Management's Discussion and Analysis reviews significant factors affecting the Company's results of operations and financial condition. This discussion should be read in conjunction with the financial statements and the accompanying notes to the financial statements.

Results of Operations

Net sales, net earnings and earnings per share were as follows (in millions except per share amounts and percentages):

	Thirteen Weeks Ended					Thirty-	Thirty-nine Weeks Ended
	Sep 2	6,	Sep 2	8,	%	Sep 2	6,	Sep 28	8,	%
	2008		2007		Change	2008		2007		Change

per Common Share	$	0.54	$	0.60	(10)%	$	1.81	$	1.75	3 %

Foreign currency translation rates had a favorable impact on sales and net earnings. Translated at consistent exchange rates, sales for the quarter and year-to-date were 2 percent and 1 percent lower than last year, respectively, and net earnings decreased 20 percent for the quarter and 12 percent year-to-date.

Sales include $9 million from GlasCraft operations since the date of acquisition, with $3.5 million in the third quarter.

Deteriorating economic conditions in the U.S. and other parts of the world affected sales growth. Strategic investments in product and market development, along with rising costs of doing business, continued to apply pressure on earnings.

Purchases and retirement of approximately 3.1 million shares of Company common stock, including approximately 0.9 million shares in the third quarter, had a positive impact on earnings per share.

Sales by geographic area were as follows (in millions):

Growth in Europe and Asia Pacific offset decreases in contractor and lubrication sales in the Americas. In Europe, sales for the quarter and year-to-date were 9 percent and 18 percent higher than last year, respectively. Translated at consistent exchange rates, sales in Europe increased 2 percent for the quarter and 7 percent year-to-date. Sales in Asia Pacific increased by 23 percent for the quarter and 14 percent year-to-date.

Gross profit margin, expressed as a percentage of sales, was 53.2 percent for the quarter, close to last year's percentage of 53.4 percent. Changes in geographic and product sales mix in Europe affected the margin rate for the quarter. Year-to-date gross profit margin percentage was 53.9 percent, up from 53.1 percent last year. Favorable currency translation rates added 1.1 percentage points to the year-do-date gross profit margin rate. The effects of higher material and other costs on gross margin rate have been offset by the impact of pricing and manufacturing efficiencies.

Operating expenses are up 11 percent for the quarter and 12 percent for the year-to-date. The effects of currency translation contributed approximately 2 percentage points of the increase for the quarter and 3 percentage points year-to-date. Operating expenses in 2008 include $1.5 million for the quarter from acquired GlasCraft operations and $4 million year-to-date. Continued strategic investments in product and market development also contributed to the increase in operating expenses, including expenses related to the introduction of new product lines in the home center channel, new product development teams and additional sales and marketing personnel in developing countries. Compared to last year, product development expense was up $2.5 million for the quarter and $3.7 million year-to-date.

Year-to-date interest expense is $3.5 million higher than last year due to borrowings used for the purchase and retirement of Company shares and for business acquisitions. Graco repurchased approximately 3.1 million shares of its common stock for $114 million in the first nine months of 2008.

The Company's effective tax rate for the third quarter was 34 percent, up from 32 percent last year. The lower rate in 2007 resulted from expiring statutes of limitations and a higher than expected benefit upon filing of prior year tax returns. The completion of the examination of the Company's income tax returns in the first quarter of 2008 resulted in a lower year-to-date effective tax rate compared to last year.

Strong sales in Asia Pacific (up 27 percent) drove the increase in Industrial segment sales for the quarter. Sales in this segment were 5 percent higher in the Americas and in Europe, although the increase in Europe came from currency translation. Year-to-date sales in this segment are up 18 percent in Europe (approximately 11 percentage points from currency translation), 11 percent in Asia Pacific and 8 percent in the Americas. Most of the sales growth in this segment came from high performance coatings and foam products.

Operating earnings in this segment were affected by selling and product development initiatives and costs and expenses resulting from acquisition and integration related activities. The move of GlasCraft operations from Indiana to the Company's facilities in Ohio, South Dakota and Minnesota will be completed in the fourth quarter.

In the Contractor segment, sales growth in Europe lessened the impact of continued softness in both the North American paint store and home center channels. Sales for the quarter in this segment were up 16 percent in Europe (including 6 percentage points from currency translation), flat in Asia Pacific and down 22 percent in the Americas. Year-to-date increases in Europe (18 percent increase, including 11 percentage points from currency translation) and in Asia Pacific (11 percent increase, including 2 percentage points from currency translation) were not enough to offset the 21 percent decrease in the Americas.

The decrease in sales without a corresponding decrease in expenses had a large impact on the operating earnings of this segment. Strategic spending in this segment was for developing products for new markets and the launch and production of new paint sprayer units in the home center channel.

In the Lubrication segment, third quarter sales increases in Europe and Asia Pacific were not enough to offset a decrease in the Americas. Year-to-date, the increases in Europe and Asia Pacific offset the decrease in the Americas.

Improvement in year-to-date operating profitability is related to the integration and consolidation of Lubrication operations completed in 2007, although segment profitability has also been affected by a sales decline in the higher-margin vehicle services products.

Management intends to integrate all LubeSci operations (acquired in fiscal September) into the Company's facility in Anoka, MN.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

In the first nine months of 2008, the Company used cash and borrowings under its long-term line of credit to purchase and retire $114 million of Company shares. Other significant uses of cash included $40 million for business acquisitions, $34 million for payment of dividends and $21 million for capital additions. Significant uses of cash in the first nine months of 2007 included $165 million for purchases and retirement of Company common stock, $33 million for payment of dividends and $28 million for capital additions.

The increase in inventories since the end of 2007 reflects the acquisition of GlasCraft operations, the higher level of business activity in Europe and Asia Pacific, and a buildup to improve service levels and facilitate integration activities.

At September 26, 2008, the Company had various lines of credit totaling $303 million, of which $98 million was unused. Internally generated funds and unused financing sources provide the Company with the financial flexibility to meet liquidity needs.

Outlook

The renewal of R&D tax credits will have a favorable impact, estimated at approximately $1.5 million, on the Company's provision for income taxes and effective tax rate for the fourth quarter.

While economic conditions have made it difficult to see progress, management continues to implement strategies for business growth. The addition of the Airlessco® product line in October complements the Company's contractor business and the LubeSci acquisition in late August expands its presence in the industrial lubrication business. The strength of the Company's Industrial and international business thus far has softened the effect on financial results. As difficult economic conditions spread to other parts of the world, management will monitor and manage the business accordingly. The Company's strong financial condition and cash flow enable management to continue making long-term investments in key growth strategies including new product development, expanding distribution, entering new markets and pursuing strategic acquisitions.
