Section 8 - Other Events

Item 8.01 Other Events.

On December 14, 2010, Southwestern Energy Company (the Company) announced that, on December 13, 2010, a jury in the 273rd District Court in Shelby County, Texas, returned a verdict against one of its subsidiaries, Southwestern Energy Production Company ("SEPCO"), in the matter of Tovah Energy, LLC and Toby Berry-Helfand v. David Michael Grimes, et. al. The jury found in favor of the plaintiffs with respect to all of the statutory and common law claims and awarded approximately $11.4 million in compensatory damages. In addition, the jury separately determined that SEPCO's profits for purposes of disgorgement were $381.5 million. The profit determination does not constitute a judgment or an award at this time. It is within the judge's discretion to award none, some or all the amount of profit to the plaintiffs and that determination will be made at a later date, likely within 30 days of the verdict. The Company will be taking immediate steps to pursue all available options, including post-trial motions and appeal, to overturn the verdict and oppose the entry of a judgment for disgorgement of profits. However, the ultimate outcome for this matter is uncertain, and an adverse outcome could have a material effect on the consolidated financial condition or results of operations of the Company.

The full text of the press release issued in connection with the announcement is attached as Exhibit No. 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.
