Section 1 – Registrant’s Business and Operations

Item 1.01 Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On September 12, 2014, Overseas Shipholding Group, Inc. (the “Registrant”) and Greylock Partners, LLC (“Greylock”), a company owned by Mr. John J. Ray III, the Registrant’s Chairman of the Board, entered into a services agreement (the “Engagement Contract”) pursuant to which Greylock agreed to provide certain consulting services to the Registrant and its affiliates commencing on August 6, 2014. The services to be provided by Greylock under the Engagement Contract include, among other things, the reconciliation and resolution of claims related to the Registrant’s bankruptcy, processing and tracking of distributions made to satisfy such claims, the preparation and filing of periodic reports disclosing certain financial information of the Registrant, oversight and reconciliation of the distribution of funds held in the Registrant’s sources/uses cash accounts, including the tracking and approval of professional fees, and transitional work relating to the closing of the Registrant’s bankruptcy cases and its restructuring initiatives and services to support the Registrant’s preparation of financial information, data and analysis. The services also include support services as needed for the office of Chairman of the Board to the extent not provided by personnel of the Registrant.

In consideration for Greylock’s provision of services under the Engagement Contract, the Registrant will pay Greylock an hourly rate ranging from $400 - $900 depending on the seniority of the specific member of the Greylock team performing the services, plus reasonable expenses that are incurred in performing such services. Under the Engagement Contract, Greylock may revise the hourly rates described above periodically upon prompt notice to the Registrant of such revisions. Mr. John J. Ray III is the Senior Managing Director of Greylock and will provide services under the Engagement Contract. Time spent by Mr. Ray in his position as the Registrant’s Chairman of the Board will not be charged to the Registrant under the Engagement Contract. Instead, Mr. Ray receives compensation in his capacity as Chairman of the Board on terms approved by the Registrant’s Board of Directors. The Engagement Contract may be terminated by either the Registrant or Greylock upon 30 days’ notice of such termination to the other party.
