Item 8.01 Other Events.

On March 19, 2010 the board of directors of Tutor Perini Corporation (the “Company”) authorized an extension of the share repurchase plan (the “Share Repurchase Plan”), which was originally authorized on November 13, 2008 and permits the Company to purchase up to $100 million in common stock of the Company through March 2011. Pursuant to the Share Repurchase Plan, shares of Company common stock can be repurchased in open market purchases or privately negotiated transactions.

On June 18, 2010 the Company adopted a written trading plan under Rule 10b5-1 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 to facilitate share repurchases between July 2, 2010 and August 4, 2010. The 10b5-1 trading plan may be terminated prior to August 4, 2010 in accordance with the terms of the plan. A Rule 10b5-1 trading plan allows the Company to repurchase its common stock in the open market during periods in which stock trading is otherwise closed for the Company.

The statements contained in this Release that are not purely historical are forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, including without limitation, statements regarding the Company’s expectations, hopes, beliefs, intentions and strategies regarding the future, the Company’s ability to use cash on hand to fund share repurchases and the types of transactions pursuant to which share repurchases may be made under the share repurchase program. These forward-looking statements are based on the Company’s current expectations and beliefs concerning future developments and their potential effects on the Company. The Company’s expectations, beliefs and projections are expressed in good faith and the Company believes there is a reasonable basis for them. There can be no assurance that future developments affecting the Company will be those anticipated by the Company. These forward-looking statements involve a number of risks, uncertainties (some of which are beyond the control of the Company) or other assumptions that may cause actual results or performance to be materially different from those expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. These risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to, the Company’s ability to successfully and timely complete construction projects; the Company’s ability to win new contracts and convert backlog into revenue; the potential delay, suspension, termination, or reduction in scope of a construction project; the continuing validity of the underlying assumptions and estimates of total forecasted project revenues, costs and profits and project schedules; the outcomes of pending or future litigation, arbitration or other dispute resolution proceedings; the availability of borrowed funds on terms acceptable to the Company; the ability to retain certain members of management; the ability to obtain surety bonds to secure its performance under certain construction contracts; possible labor disputes or work stoppages within the construction industry and changes in federal and state appropriations for infrastructure projects; possible changes or developments in worldwide or domestic political, social, economic, business, industry, market and regulatory conditions or circumstances and actions taken or not taken by third parties, including the Company’s customers, suppliers, business partners, and competitors and legislative, regulatory, judicial and other governmental authorities and officials. The Company undertakes no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, except as may be required under applicable securities laws.
