

Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On January 22, 2018, Park National Corporation, an Ohio corporation (the “Company” or “Park”), The Park National Bank, a national banking association and a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company (“Park National Bank”), and NewDominion Bank, a North Carolina state-chartered bank (“NewDominion”), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger and Reorganization (the “Merger Agreement”), pursuant to which NewDominion will merge with and into Park National Bank (the “Merger”). Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, at the effective time of the Merger (the “Effective Time”), NewDominion shareholders will have the right to receive for each share of NewDominion’s voting and non-voting common stock, par value $0.25 per share, at their election, either (i) $1.08 in cash or (ii) 0.01023 shares of the Company’s common shares, without par value (“Company Common Stock”) (the “Merger Consideration”), subject to required proration in the event cash or stock is oversubscribed as provided in the Merger Agreement.

At the Effective Time, NewDominion stock options with an exercise price of less than $1.08 will be canceled and converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration with the same election right as NewDominion shareholders, subject to proration. NewDominion stock options with an exercise price of $1.08 or more will be assumed and converted into an option to purchase Company Common Stock, on the same terms and conditions as were applicable under such NewDominion stock option. At the Effective Time, NewDominion restricted stock awards will fully vest (with any performance-based vesting condition deemed satisfied) and shall be canceled and converted automatically into the right to receive Merger Consideration, with the same election right as New Dominion stockholders, subject to proration.

The Merger Agreement contains customary representations, warranties, and covenants of each party. Subject to certain terms and conditions, the Merger Agreement provides that the board of directors of NewDominion will recommend the approval and adoption of the Merger Agreement by the shareholders of NewDominion.

NewDominion has also agreed not to solicit acquisition proposals relating to alternative business combination transactions. In addition, NewDominion has agreed not to participate in discussions or negotiations or provide information in connection with any acquisition proposals for alternative business combination transactions unless certain conditions are satisfied.

Closing of the Merger is subject to customary conditions, including, among others, approval of the Merger Agreement by NewDominion’s shareholders, receipt of required regulatory approvals, effectiveness of the registration statement to be filed by the Company, and approval for listing on NYSE American with respect to the Company Common Stock to be issued in the Merger.

The Merger Agreement provides certain termination rights for each party and further provides that, in the event the Merger Agreement is terminated under certain circumstances in connection with a competing acquisition transaction, NewDominion will be required to pay the Company a termination fee equal to $4,170,000.

In connection with the Merger Agreement, the Company and Park National Bank entered into voting and support agreements with the directors and executive officers of NewDominion, in their capacities as shareholders, and with certain substantial shareholders of NewDominion. Pursuant to the terms of the voting and support agreements, each director, executive officer and those certain substantial shareholders of NewDominion have agreed to vote the shares of NewDominion common stock they own in favor of the Merger Agreement, subject to the exceptions set forth in the voting agreements.

The foregoing summary of the Merger Agreement in this Item 1.01 is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the Merger Agreement, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1 and is incorporated herein by reference in its entirety. The representations, warranties and covenants of each party set forth in the Merger Agreement have been made only for purposes of, were and are solely for the benefit of the parties to, the Merger Agreement, may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the parties thereto, including being qualified by confidential disclosures made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk among the parties instead of establishing these matters as facts, and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors. In addition, the representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement will not survive consummation of the Merger, unless otherwise specified therein, and were made only as of the date of the Merger Agreement or such other date as specified in the Merger Agreement. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in the parties' public disclosures. Accordingly, the Merger Agreement is included with this filing only to provide investors with information regarding the terms of the Merger Agreement, and not to provide investors with any other factual information regarding the parties thereto, their respective affiliates or their respective businesses.
