ITEM 5.02 Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Principal Officers

On January 10, 2006, the Board of Directors of Innovo Group Inc., the Company, decided to terminate the employment of its Chief Executive Officer, Samuel J. (Jay) Furrow, Jr. effective as of January 20, 2006. Mr. Furrow continues to serve as a member of the Company's Board until his re-election at its next annual meeting of stockholders. In connection with his termination, the independent members of the Board authorized payment of certain severance benefits to Mr. Furrow, as follows: payments in the aggregate amount of Mr. Furrow's annual salary of $400,000 to be paid in four equal monthly installments and an amendment to his option agreements to provide for the deletion of the provision under the 2004 Stock Option Plan that requires an optionee to exercise his options within 90 days of termination of services from the Company. The Company expects to enter into a definitive severance agreement with Mr. Furrow, and upon execution, will file an amendment to this Current Report on Form 8-K.

On January 10, 2006, the Company's Board of Directors appointed Marc B. Crossman, its President and Chief Financial Officer and a member of its Board of Directors, to the position of Interim Chief Executive Officer, in addition to his other positions. The material terms of Mr. Crossman's employment arrangements were described in our Definitive Proxy Statement on Schedule 14A filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") on April 26, 2005 and supplemented by disclosure under Item 5 of its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q filed with the SEC on October 11, 2005.

On January 17, 2006, the Company issued a press release, which is attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K, regarding the termination of Mr. Jay Furrow and the subsequent appointment of Mr. Crossman to fill the position of Interim Chief Executive Officer.

On January 11, 2006, the Company received email correspondence from Mr. Dean Factor indicating that Mr. Factor was resigning his position effective as of that day as a member of our Board of Directors. Mr. Factor was a member of the Audit Committee and Compensation and Governance Committee. A copy of the correspondence is attached as Exhibit 17.1 to this Current Report on 8-K.

In his correspondence, Mr. Factor indicated that while he is not resigning in protest, he is resigning, in part, due to past disagreements with management regarding suggestions or advice by the Board of Directors. Mr. Factor also indicated he was resigning to spend more time with his own business. As disclosed in this Current Report on Form 8-K, at a Board of Directors meeting on January 10, 2006 at which Mr. Factor was not present, the Board of Directors terminated the employment of Mr. Furrow, Chief Executive Officer, and authorized the Company to engage an investment bank to explore strategic alternatives for the Company. A copy of this disclosure has been provided to Mr. Factor.

The Company does not expect to disclose developments related to the exploration of strategic alternatives until a definitive agreement has been approved by the Board of Directors.
